Ozona Youths to Attend Atty. Gen's Conference

Ronnie Mason, president of the Ozona High School Student Council, and Sandy Stokes, Senior representative on the Council, have been chosen to represent Ozona at the 1965 Attorney General's Youth Conference to be held at the capitol in Austin August 20, 21 and 22.

This year's Conference will be the third annual Conference called by Attorney General Waggoner Carr, who conceived the idea of the Youth Conference as a means of enlisting the aid of Texas youth in a concerted drive to solve the mounting problem of juvenile delinquency and youth crime in Texas.

At last year's second Conference, over 1200 Texas youths gathered in Austin, recommended and sponsored by Texas civic clubs, churches, service organizations and interested individuals. Delegates were selected on the basis of proven leadership abilities, scholarship and extracurricular activities, with nearly every student organization in the state represented. Adult participation is held to a minimum, the Attorney General reports.

Delegates are divided into special groups and assigned special duties, their conferences covering all facets of community life, community service, law enforcement, "stay in school" seminars, vocational training, sparetime and recreation and other subjects in which youth might be interested.

Recreation, special shows, talent-night programs and the like add spice to the three-day conference and delegates return to their respective communities better equipped for community leadership and for exercising a steady influence in the event of any juvenile problems in the community.

The Ozona delegates are sponsored by the Ozona P. T. A.

Most Beautiful, Most Handsome

Selected by the staff of the 1965 Cactus, University of Texas yearbook, were the above Ozona High School's most beautiful girl and most handsome boy. Miss Karen Russell, top left, was picked as most beautiful girl and Moe Barbee, top right, the most handsome boy. Runner-up for most beautiful was Miss Mary Jane Dunlap and for handsomest boy was David Childress. Miss Russell is the daughter of Mrs. Gene Linthicum of Barnhart and Miss Dunlap is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dunlap. Barbee's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Beall Barbee and Mr. and Mrs. John Childress are parents of David.

Foy Moody Gets Scholarship To Study English

Foy Moody, Ozona High School English teacher, has received a scholarship to attend the English Institute in Linguistics to be held at Sul Ross State College, June 1 to July 9. This grant has been provided by the National Defense Education Act.

This institute in linguistics is one of two to be held in Texas this summer. These government sponsored institutes are provided in order to give English teachers instruction in the linguistic approach to teaching English — a method to become a part of curriculum in Texas by 1967.

Mr. Moody has been with the Ozona Public Schools since 1955, teaching junior and senior English for the past five years. He received his bachelor's degree from Arkansas State University and his master's degree from East Texas State University.

Service Firms County Grossed $614,000 In 1963

Crockett County's 26 service establishments had total receipts of $614 thousand in 1963, a decrease of 16 percent from 1958, according to a report of the 1963 census of business just released by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce. The last previous census of business covered operations during 1958.

The service trades in the census of business included those providing: personal services to individuals; miscellaneous business services; Auto repair and other auto services; and other repair services. Also included were motion picture production and distribution theatres; other amusement business; motion picture and recreation services; and hotels and motels.

The selected service trade establishments in the county employed 44 persons (exclusive of proprietors) and had a payroll for the year of $116,000. The state as a whole included 60,879 establishments with receipts of $1,879.3 million.

Area Teams To Compete In Annual 4-H, FFA Range Judging Contests

School Closing Exercises Slated Friday Evening

Passing out of reports cards Saturday morning at 9 a. m. will mark the close of the 1964-65 school year, with about one thousand children returning home to spend the summer.

For about forty graduates, Commencement Exercises Friday night will mark the end of their high school careers, for some, possibly, the end of school and for others preparations for college.

The Commencement program will open with the professional played by Barbara Kirby. Invocation will be Vicki Applewhite and the welcome address by the class salutatorian, Cathy Miller. Rick Hagelstein, third highest ranking in the class, will speak on "The Extra Effort". Yvonne Martinez, fourth highest ranking will speak on "To Strive, To Seek, To Find and Not to Yield." The Valedictory address will be by the highest honor student, Joel Huff.

Principal J. A. Pelto will present awards and the class will be presented for graduation by Supt. L. B. T. Sikes, with Bill Carson, school board president, presenting diplomas.

George Kyle will give the invocation and the recessional march, "Pomp and Circumstance" will be played by Barbara Kirby.

A number of faculty additional resignations were expected to be submitted with the closing of the term to add to a number already presented, thus assuring Superintendent L. B. T. Sikes of a rather busy summer hunting new teachers.

Ozona's new football coach, Sam Mosley, is expected to move to Ozona soon after school is out at Elgin and the naming of a line coach to replace Coach Sonny Cleere, who resigned last week, will be held off until then, according to announcement.

Also slated for action this summer will be the start of work on the recently approved 320 thousand dollar general improvement and enlargement program. Contracts for construction have not been let and present prospects are that the program will not be finished until well into the next school year.

Bill Jacoby Is Picked For Ross Volunteers at A&M

Bill Jacoby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete W. Jacoby, and a junior student at Texas A&M, was honored recently by his selection as a member of the Ross Volunteers Firing Squad. Twenty-one of the most outstanding junior military students on the Texas A&M University Campus are selected annually for this honor. Jacoby, sergeant-major of the First Battle Group Staff, will serve as Executive Officer of the Brigade Staff his senior year with the rank of Lt. Colonel in the ROTC Corps of Cadets. Jacoby, who is majoring in Range and Forestry, was recently elected to serve as president of the Range and Forestry Club his senior year at Texas A&M.

Indians Even Up Series With Win At Eldorado 3-1

Ozona's Indian squeaked to a 3-1 win in ten innings at Eldorado Sunday afternoon to in some measure avenge a 10-3 licking administered by the Eldorado Eagles the Sunday before on the Powell Field diamond.

The Indians scored first in the seventh when Alonzo Galindo rapped out a double and scored on a single by Cookie Zamarripa. Al Sanchez went the distance on the mound for the Indians, keeping the Eagles hits well scattered and limiting their production to one run in the eighth. He struck out 14 batters.

The Indians got the ball game over in the tenth when their big sticks began to connect, the result being three runs on six hits in the inning, all taking place after two were out.

The Indians will play in Odessa Sunday afternoon, engaging a team called the Odessa Tigers. Game time is at 2:30 p. m.

Rains Interrupt, But Oilers Roll On In L. L. Lead

Moore Oil encountered big trouble and Ozona Oil rolled on without a care in this week's Ozona Little League action, which was curtailed by rain.

Ozona Oil, which is now rather solidly placed in the league lead, belted B&E 11 to 5, with David Pagan's bases-loaded home run being a deciding factor.

Mickey McBroom held the Oilers runless through three frames but his relief could not get anyone out and the roof fell in. Rube Tambunga led the Oilers at the plate with three hits.

Flying W took an early lead and then held on to down Moore Oil 10 to 6 in the first game of the week. Moore outhit their rivals 7 to 5 but runs are what win games and Gary Don Natgrass held the Oilers away from the plate enough to win.

B&E had to finish four innings with Moore to have a ball game and by that time held 18 to 0, the game being called on the 10 run rule. Mickey McBroom, enjoying the big bats of his teammates, held the Oilers scoreless at the Grocers scored 18 runs on 10 hits and numerous miscues.

Rain washed out the Flying W.-Ozona Oil contest and it will be played at a later date.

A large number of Ozonans attended one or more nights of the three-night presentation of "The King and I" by a cast of San Angelo College students at the auditorium in San Angelo this week. The lead role of the King was played by Johnny Childress of Ozona, and two other Ozona students, Diane Couch and Jan Pridemore had parts in the play.

and the Extension Service, will be held here next Thursday, May 27.

A grass judging contest will be held at 10:30 a. m. in the city park, followed by a noon barbecue for contestants and adult leaders. The barbecue is furnished by the 4-H Mother's Club and the Ozona FFA Chapter. Following the barbecue, a range judging contests will be held near Ozona.

Awards for the contest are furnished by the Ozona National Bank, SCS supervisors and the Crockett County Water District. Presentation of awards will be made in the city park at 4:00 p. m.

Over one hundred contestants are expected from area counties for the contests.

G. O. Hoffman and B. J. Ragsdale, Extension Range Specialists from Texas A&M University will be in charge of the contests, assisted by Sam Fitzhugh, local SCS Range Specialist.

Man Injured In Freak Accident In Gas Station

Surgeons in a San Angelo Hospital were reported yesterday as still battling to save the right arm of Geo. Buckingham, 55, a cattle truck driver for the El Paso Livestock Express Co. who narrowly escaped death under the wheels of a loaded cattle truck in the Ozona Oil Co. filling station here Monday.

Buckingham fell from the side of his own truck and into the path of a slow moving companion truck just moving out of the station. He was holding on the side the truck trying to punch up a fallen cow when one of the animals kicked his hand breaking his hold. He fell to the concrete drive, bracing his left wrist in the fall, and his right arm was crushed and he received chest injuries when the truck wheel passed over him.

Mr. Buckingham was rushed by James Funeral Home ambulance to the Crockett County Hospital where he received emergency treatment and was then taken to San Angelo for further treatment. Reports from his bedside yesterday indicated his general condition was good and, though doctors were working to save the crushed arm, the outcome was still somewhat in doubt. Extensive surgery on the injured arm was in prospect if proper circulation can be restored so that the member can be saved.

Former Ozonan, Henry Daugherty, Buried In Angelo

Henry Daugherty, 64, former Ozona resident, one of Ozona's best known colored men of some thirty years ago, died Friday in Veterans Hospital in Big Spring, according to an announcement in the San Angelo Times. Funeral services were held in San Angelo Tuesday.

Daugherty was a World War II veteran. He moved from Ozona to Brackettville and shortly after the war moved to San Angelo where he was in the retail grocery business for a number of years.

Generous Rains Soak West Texas Ozona Got Inch

Though rainfall amounts were higher or lower, depending on where you were located in Crockett County, the township of Ozona measured an official one inch of rain over the past week as cloudy skies blotted out the sun almost the entire week and bountiful and timely rains soaked most of West Texas.

Heavy downpours and flood conditions which hit many cities and towns in the west and central parts of the state were not evident in Crockett County though accounts of over two inches of rain south and east of Ozona Tuesday were not uncommon. The rains, for the most part, fell slowly and very little hail was reported anywhere. Continued cool and cloudy weather added greatly to the moisture's benefit.

Ozona narrowly missed several healthy showers and rains Monday and Tuesday night, contenting itself with showers and sprinkles that measured only an inch Wednesday. Indications were that some parts of town got a little more than the downtown area.

Baptist Meeting Was Well Attended

The First Baptist Church closed a week of revival meetings Sunday after having drawn good crowds and adding a number to the church membership.

Rev. Young Tucker of Oklahoma City, an evangelist and a former pastor at Kemmit, led in the revival, with Joe Lyles of San Antonio in charge of the music.

Rain and the threat of rain held sway over Ozona throughout the meeting period, but it had no noticeable effect on the attendance.

The Royal Order of Red Ants, an organization of intermediate and junior boys and girls, which met under the leadership of Rev. Tucker each night, closed the week with a hot dog supper Saturday night, with 85 present. A week's high of 125 was posted Thursday night.

Dance Platform At Park Transformed Into Tennis Court

In addition to creating a beauty spot, with the planting of trees, grass and flowers, the new Crockett County memorial park has added outdoor sports facilities for the further enjoyment of citizens.

The big concrete slab which was originally poured for the primary purpose of providing an outdoor dance pavilion, has been converted to double as a tennis court.

Through use of county road crews the county has erected backstops at each end of the court, lined it and installed posts for a net. A new net has been installed and the court is ready for play. Anyone interested in tennis is invited to make free use of the new court.

County crews are also busy erecting new picnic tables in the park. Lights are also to be installed in the park area and other improvement are under way at the newly created beauty spot.

Carl Conklin To Receive State 4H Leader Award

Carl Conklin, local 4-H adult leader, has been selected to receive the Volunteer Adult Leader Award, the highest state award conferred annually by the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation. The award will be made at a luncheon on the A&M University Campus June 2 during 4-H Round-Up.

Mr. Conklin, an outstanding 4-H member in the county, several years past, has been active as an adult leader, working with local 4-H club members. He attended the National 4-H Adult Leader Forum in Washington, D. C. last year as a representative of the 4-H adult leaders from this district. He has participated in district and state 4-H training of 4-H adult leader throughout the state.

County agent Pete W. Jacoby will be the speaker at the awards luncheon which some 325 people are expected to attend.

BOBBY NO KILROY

Bobby Kennedy, New York's instant senator from Massachusetts, charges the President with "misuse" of American power in failing to consult the O. A. S. before calling out the Marines to protect American lives in Santo Domingo. For our own part, we think President Johnson has restored some measure of our waning prestige by placing the safety and welfare of American citizens above diplomatic considerations. No American President in some time has shown such guts. Further, we suspect that if Sen. Kennedy had himself been caught in Santo Domingo when hell broke loose, he might have preferred action to a conference.

of inflation with rising prices and general discontent. 6. Foment unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the part of government toward such disorders. 7. By specious argument cause the breakdown of the old moral virtues, honesty, sobriety, continence, faith in the pledged word, ruggedness. C. Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscating them and leaving the population helpless. All have been accomplished except Project C and they are working hard to put this thru Congress. The scheme of the firearms bill is to have you register all arms as was done in Germany, and then disarm you by confiscating said weapons at a later date — even to your kitchen knives. Once we are disarmed, the "takeover" is complete. Slavery is on the horizon. THE FREE RIDERS

Business leaders have good reason to organize a determined, concerted drive against government competition which is eroding the tax base and choking off economic growth and jobs.

This is a very important matter indeed. The extent to which tax exempt government-owned business now competes with taxpayer enterprise was highlighted in a statement made by the Bureau of the Budget in 1963. It lists 24,000 examples of government competition with the private sector of the economy. Some of these, of course, are small operations. Others are huge, such as the government's socialized electric power systems. Whatever their size, all of them deprive the Treasury of the taxes private enterprise would pay — which means that all taxpayers must dig down to make up that loss. Why pay lip service to such a policy?

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

From Your State Capitol

Austin, Texas — Uppermost question in the minds of taxpayers and legislators is — will there be a new tax bill?

Answer rests with the lawmakers. And their decision depends on whether or not teacher pay raise bill is passed.

About $73,500,000 in new state revenue would be needed to cover the cost of Texas State Teachers Association's $45-in-'65 program.

Alternate proposal offered by Gov. John Connally to reward experienced teachers at an accelerated rate would cost the state an estimated $64,700,000.

TSTA stresses that many local districts cannot afford to pay a higher share of the salaries called for in the governor's plan and that this is a state responsibility anyway.

Governor Connally says "Texas will continue to lag far behind the national average in school teacher salaries until local support shows the same increase expected of the state government." He contends TSTA is not telling the whole story. "They never admit that state support of our public schools is $56 a pupil above the national average, while local support is $93 below the national average."

While compromise efforts floundered, a subcommittee of the House Revenue and Taxation Committee methodically and quietly reviewed some ideas for producing more income.

Considered was an additional tax of three cents a pack on cigarettes. This would raise about $69,600,000.

Other suggestions reviewed by the five-member group include:

- A two per cent sales tax on beer and liquor, $22,000,000;

- Restoral of the 50 cents per $1,000 corporation franchise surtax, $24,000,000;

- A one-shot inheritance tax payment date adjustment, $6,000,000.

With the legislative session rapidly drawing to a close, and many differences still unresolved, a teacher pay raise is by no means a certainty. A breakdown in negotiations could mean no tax bill at all during the regular session.

Record Budget — Both houses passed the $3,700,000,000 conference committee appropriations bill which calls for expenditures of $154,000,000 over the current level.

Education got the biggest share of increases in the biennial budget. Salaries of state employees, in the classified service, will be increased 3.4 per cent each year and welfare spending will go up $16,000,000. Judges from the district court to the Supreme Court levels will get substantial raises in their annual salaries.

Soil Conservation Board was given an $89,155 increase for its operations, including $28,000 more for watershed planning. An additional $3,800,000 was set aside for the Water Development Board which is being reorganized. Department of Agriculture will get a $1,400,000 increase. Animal Health Commission gets $1,800,000 less than the current spending level since the federal government is taking over responsibility for screwworm control.

Single House Proposed — House Constitutional Amendments Committee approved for floor debate a proposed amendment to create a 100-member unicameral (one house) legislature for Texas.

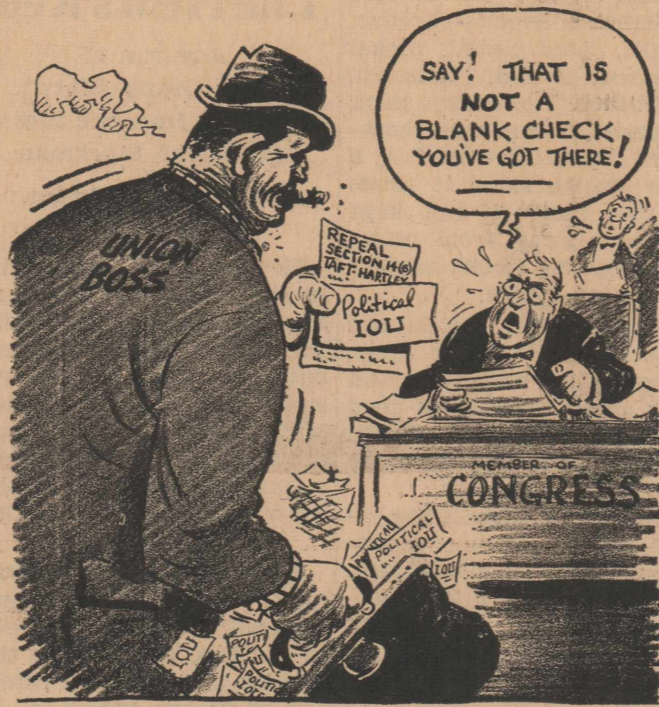

Amendments Proposed — A house-passed resolution to repeal the poll tax, as a requirement for voting, received approval of the Senate Constitutional Amendments Committee. An election is proposed in November of 1966.

Whoopers On Way To Summer Homes

Austin — R. H. Shields, manager of Aransas National Wildlife Refuge, has several reasons for relief now that the mighty Whooping Cranes are migrating from winter quarters on the refuge to summer nesting areas in the Great Lake region of far northern Canada.

One is that volunteer observors are having an opportunity, meager as it is, to see the real thing in flight.

For some time before the first of the 43 Whoopers even took off, Shields was receiving letters about the precious birds having been seen in places other than the refuge.

All of the reports were promptly acknowledged.

Now that some of the large white cranes with black wing tips have left for the northland, news reports state confirmed sightings have been made along the flyway. These involved whoopers feeding in marshes.

Actual sightings in the air are comparatively rare, according to Shields, since the big cranes generally fly at great heights and mysteriously follow an uncharted course.

CASEBEARERS

And Other Pecan Tree Pests

We would like to assure our customers that we are keeping a close watch on pecan trees all over town. So far we have not detected any casebearer activity nor, for that matter, have we discovered any insect activity on the pecans.

In order to be effective, spraying for casebearers must be done at the right time. We will continue to watch the trees and when the eggs begin to appear and time gets right for spraying we will contact our customers and advise you on the needs for spraying.

Least understood, yet the most vital piece of equipment for the fisherman, is the hook.

Most anglers are casual in their selection of hooks. Yet the hook is the primary link between fisherman and quarry. More fish are lost because of inferior hooks than any other piece of equipment.

In any sporting goods store there will be countless bins of different hooks. Offhand, most of them look pretty much alike. But upon closer inspection you'll find that all differ in one or several aspects. A seemingly insignificant thing like the point can distinguish whether or not a hook is run-of-the-mill or quality merchandise.

A poorly manufactured hook has a conventional round bend, has a point which won't hold its sharpness and rusts easily. When you buy a cheap hook you get just what you pay for... a hook that will lose its sharpness after one or two fishing trips. And unless you inspect the point periodically, dullness may cause you to miss fish.

For example, when angling with live minnows you should use a thin-wire hook preferably one with a wide bend. A heavy-shanked hook wounds the bait, often mortally. On a thin-wire hook the minnow will remain alive much longer.

With a wide bend hook, the point extends farther beyond the minnow and allows easier hooking of a fish that might take the bait.

Most common hook is the ordinary round bend hook. But hooks with a more oblong shape, like the Eagle Claw, are very popular among Texas fishermen.

Two of the more common hooks are the Aberdeen and the Carlisle. The Aberdeen (a style of hook and not an exclusive brand name) usually is made of thin wire with a large bend. The Carlisle has a long shank and a round return bend and is made of regular wire.

Basically, hooks come in three shank lengths: short, regular and long.

Size of the hook is important. A general tendency among fishermen is to employ hooks that are too large. Even a small hook will catch big fish if the fisherman plays the watch properly and knows how to handle his equipment efficiently.

A perch or bream fisherman, for instance, might select a No. 6 hook when a smaller No. 10, would be far more appropriate.

What goes with this numbering system? Largest numbers for smallest hooks?

Well, hooks are graded according to different sizes, designated by numbers. In the smallest sizes, hooks range from No. 1 to No. 22

(the latter is the tiny one kids catch minnows on). The larger sizes run from 1/0 up to about 20/0. The difference between a No. 1 and a No. 1/0 is four sizes, so don't confuse the two.

Basically, hooks have one of three different bends — round, parabolic and square or variations of the three. The Aberdeen, as an example, is slightly square, while the O'Shaughnessy is parabolic.

You don't see extremely square hooks anymore since they have a tendency to break at the abrupt bends.

A hook is composed of the eye, where you tie the line, the shank, the bend, the barb and the point.

That protrusion which prevents a hook from slipping out is the barb. That part of the hook from the barb to the tip, and probably the most important feature on the hook, is the point. One with a bad point is particularly worthless.

Quality hooks come with hollow-ground points. These feature razor-sharp points and curved barbs which insure maximum penetration and holding power. The "claw" point, a feature of the Eagle Claw hook, curves in slightly. Thus cuts down on penetration a bit but it holds better once imbedded.

Straight spear points generally are found only on cheap, inferior hooks. They won't hold their edge very long.

Hooks come in several different finishes — bronze, bright, gold-plated, nickel finished, tinned, japanned, and blued. The bronze hook is perhaps the most common. But finish-wise it is a poor choice since it tends to rust easily if not kept dry and away from moisture. Bronze hooks usually are cheap hooks.

Nickel-finish hooks are found on salt-water lures. They resist corrosion and stay sharp. Almost as good is the tinned hook. Hooks with these two finishes are the most expensive.

Third in quality is the japan-finish, which is a lacquer finish of blue-black. This hook has fair resistance to rust and runs slightly cheaper in price than the nickel plated or tinned.

Gold-plated hooks are very popular, but they have a tendency to tarnish easily.

Wise fishermen know and understand hooks. In that moment of truth when a fish strikes, it may mean the difference between adding something to the stringer or just a story to tell about the big one that got away.

Howard draw, one of the largest washes in West Texas, claimed another victim Tuesday when a Mexican national, Gerardo Nunez, employed on the Sidney Millsbaugh ranch, was drowned in a deep hole of water left standing in the draw bed after recent rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boyd are at home here following their marriage last week in Del Rio. The bride is the former Miss Aloah Pedersen of Staten Island, N. Y. She is a native of Denmark and a registered nurse, having received training in the Danish Kprors Hospital where her uncle is a physician.

Crockett County spent an average of approximately $76.50 per pupil in the public schools during the past year, according to figures compiled by Supt. C. S. Denham in his annual report.

More than 60,000 pounds of Crockett county 8-month wool sold in San Angelo the past week at prices ranging up to 30 3/4 cents per pound.

Apparent lack of interest and support from the community in its efforts resulted in unanimous decision on the part of the present membership of the Ozona Lions Club to disband the organization, at least for the summer months. The way was left open for reorganization in the fall if enough interest is apparent.

The race for Justice of the Peace became somewhat of a scramble with the entry of candidates number three and four this week. Newest entries are J. T. Glover and Walter Capps. Incumbent Bill Johnigan and Drennan Slaughter are the already announced candidates.

More rain, ranging from a half inch to an inch, added further luster to an already bright ranch prospect in West Texas this week.

Judge and Mrs. Chas. E. Davidson, left Sunday for Iowa to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Grimmer.

Ozona baseball fans heaved a concerted sigh of relief yesterday when it was learned that Ozona Giants second baseman Fats Heatterly had definitely turned down an attractive offer from the bewhiskered House of David baseball team, now touring the Southwest.

Miss Helen Chapman's approaching marriage on June 3 to Bill Paul Foster of Sabin was announced by her sister, Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, at a seated tea at the Hotel Ozona.

Scott Peters, cashier of the Ozona National Bank, and Mrs. Peters are attending the Texas Bankers Assn. convention in Houston this week.

BUGGIES to Bombers in a Lifetime

The other day Grandad read an account in our newspaper about the miraculous speed of a B-58 bomber. He contrasted this accomplishment with the experience in his youth when he spotted his first airplane five miles outside of town — and then rode a bicycle into town in time to see the plane circling the capitol building.

It seems incredible the technological advances mankind has made in the past fifty years. Men who rode to Sunday School by horse and buggy as boys, today follow the flight of astronauts on TV. Their wives do the family laundry with the twist of a dial, and their grandchildren learn Algebra from programmed textbooks.

One unchanging fact remains. Man still needs God as the center and circumference of his life. And the Church, as God's expression, remains constant in the teaching of His Truths.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

shining example of community development

One of the most important factors in community development comes when private businesses engage in building improvement and modernization. The new look of Ballinger is a shining example. Recently, a total of 20 stores, offices, plants and other firms have modernized with new fronts, new interiors, new lighting, and in some cases, complete new buildings. It gives Ballinger, literally, a new look . . . pleasant and inviting . . . a true PATTERN FOR PROGRESS in community development. Pictured at the left is the recently remodeled interior of The Ledger, Ballinger's thriving newspaper. Such development improves chances for continued economic growth and attraction of new industry, plus making it a better place to live, work and play. Growth conscious towns are invited to contact their local WTU manager for assistance from our area development representatives.
