NUMBER 15

Kitty's Korner

Well, the 4th of July is coming up and it will be a three-day weekend for some. I don't know how many traffic deaths the Department of Public Safety is predicting, but my advice is, if you are going to be on the highway, don't watch anything but the other driver. All the businesses in Ozona will be closed and I feel sure that after the recent jubilee celebration, nobody will have the energy to arrange any sort of local celebration so those who have the get up and go will be on their way to the lakes, rivers and cities.

Speaking of lakes, we spent the day at Lake Walk last Sunday with the Byron Stuarts, the George Olsens and seven active boys. Stuart was the captain of the boat and with the patience of Job, managed to get all the boys up on water skis, one by one. Wanda insisted that Tommy, but Stuart was a little in doubt whether he had a big enough motor to pull him up and the boys were against it, because they knew if he ever fell there wouldn't be a drop of water left in the lake. He was so insulted that he ate four sandwiches, a dozen hardboiled eggs, drank three cokes and took a nap.

Someone suggested that when the bank moves to its new home on the corner of 11th and Ave. D, that the old bank building would be an excellent place to house the Crockett County Museum. Soundes like a pretty good idea.

We've been unable to get any official information on how the jubilee came out financially, but rumor has it that it went in the hole around $2,000. If this is true, we are wondering who or what is going to make up the deficit. The county could do it at the risk of making a lot of tax payers hopping mad. Then there is the school, but it would have the same problem. Of course, the merchants that got rich off the 10,000 people (I didn't see that many, but the Rogers Co. representative assured us of at least that number) who came to shop might pitch in and bail it out. Oh, there are any number of ways to raise the money, but let's hope the rumor is completely unfounded and that the celebration came out $2,000 ahead.

As soon as we get an official report we will pass it on to you. Surely someone will have some information soon.

I am taking up a collection to purchase special eyeglasses for baseball umpires who consistently call low balls strikes. Any fan interested in helping me in this endeavor may come by the Stockman and leave a donation.

Ozonan's Mother Dies In Merkel

Mrs. Ella Marie Hubbard, 86, mother of Cecil Hubbard of Ozona, died Sunday in a Merkel nursing home after a long illness.

LL All Stars Picked For Tilt Against Sonora

In the second half of Little League play, B&B Grocers are tied for the lead with Ozona Oil, both having a 3-1 record. Flying W Ranchers, first half champions, have a 2-2 record and Moore Oil has lost all 4 games.

Little League All Stars were picked Monday night by the team managers and the umpires. The All Star team will be made up of six 11-year-olds, Timmy Evans, Gerald Olsen, Gerald Huff, Ned Stephens, Gary Whitley, Billy J. Pierce and alternate, Robert Biddy. Twelve-year-olds who made the team are Jim Montgomery, Mike Jenkins, Ruben Tambunga, Chuck Womack, Dean Shaw, Robert Lee Daniels, Pete Ybarra, Lupe Porras and alternate, Mike Schneider. Unanimous choices were Montgomery, Tambunga, Shaw and Stephens.

Sonora All Stars will meet the Ozona All-Stars on July 19, here in Ozona. The winner of that game will play the winner of the Big Lake-Midkiff tilt.

Manager of the All-Star team will be whoever manages to win the championship.

Next week the games will be on Tuesday, instead of Monday night because of the 4th of July.

Auto Insurance Costs To Go Up Under New Rate

The average motorist in Crockett County will pay $4 more for automobile insurance under the change in rates made by the State Board of Insurance, according to the Southwestern Insurance Information Service of Dallas.

Present cost of insurance on a new Ford or Chevrolet private passenger car driven to and from work and not driven by a male under 25 years of age is $138. The new cost will be $142. This includes basic liability coverage of $10,000 for injury or loss of life of one person, $20,000 for two, and $5,000 property damage; $100 deductible collision; and full coverage comprehensive insurance.

Under the new rates, motorists will pay $1 more for bodily injury and property damage liability and $5 more for comprehensive. But the cost of $100 deductible collision will be reduced $2.

Cost for the same coverage but with $50 deductible collision will be increased $4, from $151 to $155.

Other types and older cars would have different rates. Texas has 26 rating territories and eight automobile classifications. The cost estimates given are for cars in classification 1B, which includes about half of the private automobiles in Texas.

For cars in this classification and insured under $100 deductible collision policies, insurance would cost less in nine territories and remain unchanged in two. Costs for $50 deductible policies would be lowered in seven territories and unchanged in one.

LOOK NOW!

On May 23rd of this year, Lyndon Johnson openly renewed his pledge to the union bosses to try to repeal Section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act, thus imposing compulsory unionism on working men and women in all 50 states. Vice-President Humphrey and Labor Secretary Wirtz have promised the same in recent speeches to labor union officials. It is clearly evident that these promises are being made now in order to get the union bosses' support (and, through them, union members' dues money) for the election and re-election campaigns of congressmen who will do the President's bidding in all things once they get in office. But there can be little doubt that Mr. Johnson will keep his promise to the union bosses if enough of that type are elected.

It is also clear that the union bosses will try to get those types elected. The AFL-CIO Executive Council issued a resolution on 14(b) some months ago, calling for united political action in the labor movement and stating: "The liberals in the House and Senate must be re-elected in the 1966 elections and their ranks increased."

There's an important lesson in this for all of us who wish to preserve the right of a wage-earner to join or not join a union. The time to begin working to save Section 14(b) from the next assault by the union boss-politician coalition is now! Just as surely as the union bosses are working now to get their "type" of candidates nominated, we had better be looking now for candidates who will serve the people, instead.

Every candidate — for state legislatures and governorships, as well as the U. S. Congress — should be called upon to clearly state how he stands on the issue of a citizen's right to work for a living, free of any organized compulsion.

Also, it should never be taken for granted that every candidate's words during the campaign can be counted on after he's elected. For a former senator from Texas named Lyndon Johnson once said: "I have never sought nor do I seek now that support of any labor bosses dictating to free men anywhere, anytime." So at the same time we're asking a candidate how he stands on the right to work issue, it may be a good idea to look also to see who is standing behind him.

THAT BIG-GOVERNMENT HEADACHE

TOPS CLUB

TOPS Mesquite Beans Club was organized here in Ozona March 6. TOPS is a national organization to help women lose weight in a sane and safe manner.

Even though you have not heard much about the club, one young woman has lost 22 pounds, another had as a goal the loss of 15 pounds and only lacks 1/2 pound attaining her goal. Ten different TOPS members have lost from 10 to 15 pounds each.

At the end of a six-weeks period, pictures will be taken of the group. All members expect to see a marked difference.

Anyone wishing to join or have information about the club may call 392-2160 or 392-2169. Names of new members will not be made public.

The club meets weekly at the Girl Scout house, located behind the water-works, each Tuesday evening at 6:45.

Dear Editor:

Dear Editor,

We're plumb sorry that we didn't make the Jubilee. We will try for the 100th. Just a complete lack of labor and we had to tend thestore.

But have we had rain — about 3 1/2 inches this week in small rains.

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman
From The Stockman July 1, 1937

V. I. Pierce of Ozona, one of the nation's leading registered Rambouillet sheep breeders, took the lion's share of premiums in the tenth annual Rambouillet sheep show held at the fair grounds here yesterday morning, which formed the curtain raising event of the tenth annual Rodeo, Race Meet, Stock Show and Sale.

Not with any idea of cramping the style of visitors nor restraining home folks, but for the purpose of assisting in directing traffic and seeing that things go off in apple-pie order, Sheriff W. S. Willis has appointed a dozen deputy sheriffs to be on duty during the three-day celebration which started this morning.

Superior No. 1 Massie unit, scheduled Ordovician test on the Todd Ranch in this county, was drilling near the 6,700 foot level in shale and sand this week. A soft formation was encountered Tuesday when an eight-hour shift made a total depth of 12 feet whereas before that the average had been four to five feet.

This year the barbecue feast that has made Ozona's annual celebration famous throughout the Southwest will be more bountiful than in past years, but the same standard quality of Bob Cooke's barbecue will be unmistakable in the daily menu. Approximately 16,000 pounds of meat, kid goat and beef, will be available as the main course for the multiple thousands expected to "come and get it" during the three days.

With the first half championship in pocket, the Sonora-Ozona combined baseball team will surge forth the coming week-end to open their drive for the second half flag and the undisputed baseball crown of West Texas for the 1937 season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Denham left early this week for a month's stay in Lubbock, where they will visit relatives.

Relieved temporarily by a light shower Monday night, the heat wave returned yesterday to reach a new high for the current siege. The temperature stood at 102 in the shade yesterday afternoon.

Installation of a "Kool-Conditioning" system, washed air conditioning plant, was completed early this week in the Green Lantern Cafe here to become the first business house in Ozona with air conditioning.

Mrs. J. T. Keeton was hostess to the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society at her home Wednesday afternoon. The Society conducted a Bible study program, the lesson being taught by Mrs. I. V. Garrison.

Mrs. H. B. Tandy was hostess to her contract club and a number of guests at a party Tuesday afternoon at the Hotel Ozona when she complimented her mother and sister, Mrs. R. L. Bland and Miss Marjorie Bland of Abilene. Mrs. Sherman Taylor welcomed the guests and Mrs. Tandy and Mrs. J. O. Lusby introduced the two honored guests.

Children, grand children and great grandchildren of Mrs. Mary Jane Dunlap, a resident of Crockett County since organization of the county in 1891, played hosts at a birthday dinner last Sunday in honor of the pioneer woman's seventy-ninth birthday.

BELLS on Independence Day!

This year there will be many four-year-old Americans ringing bells on July Fourth, who will grow up believing that this was always the custom. Actually it was, from the first Independence Day till about a century ago when the sounds of peace were drowned out by the noise of war, and the day became celebrated only with firecrackers and rockets.

Writing a book called The Seasons of America Past a few years ago, the author unearthed the story about Independence Day bell-ringing, and he mentioned that "it seems with firecrackers disappearing we might well revive that early American custom." The idea quickly took hold and, supported by organizations and churches and newspapers, it reached millions of people. In 1963 it was passed in Washington as Senate Concurrent Resolution 25, requesting that all American bells, public and private, church, school, fire, college and town bells ring simultaneously at 2 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on July Fourth. Some places now ring bells for two minutes, others for four minutes, and many radio, TV programs, and even public loudspeakers in parcs, race-tracks, ball games and on ships at sea.

For the past three years the "Bells on Independence Day" project has been included in Governors' Fourth of July Proclamations, and this holiday which was losing much of its solemn significance, was rekindled into a day of bells ringing out America's birthday, just as it was in the beginning.

It has been said that a thing must be done four times before it becomes a habit, so this fourth year, for the revival of the early American custom of ringing bells on Independence Day, is a most important one. Perhaps there will be no great bells within reach of your hearing, perhaps you will seem to be the only one ringing a small handbell; but you will know that all over the nation in every state, millions of bells will be ringing out the message of democracy and liberty.

A safer and less noisy pastime for children, let them ring bells on this day, proclaiming it America's Birthday. And wherever we are, let us remember this greatest of American days with joy and reverence.

Recipe of the Week From Kitty's Kitchen

Apple Charlotte

Slices of bread and butter, with the crust trimmed off, six apples, the grated rind of a lemon and the juice, sugar to taste.

Butter a pie-dish and place a layer of bread-and-butter at the bottom, then a layer of apples, peeled, cored and cut into slices; sprinkle these over with sugar, a little of the lemon peel, and a few drops of the juice. Repeat this until the dish is full, then cover it well over with the peel of the apples to prevent it buring and bake in a quick oven about three-quarters of an hour. When done, remove the peel, turn it out on a dish, sprinkle with white sugar and serve at once.

Charlotte is an old fashioned dessert and seldom found in modern cook-books.

We found this one in a cookbook belonging to Ruth White and copyrighted in 1913. It will be an excellent addition to your Jubilee recipe collection.

In the beverage section we found a recipe for Ginger Cordial. We haven't tried it, as it sounds a little potent for our taste, but if you'd like to try it here it is:

Ginger Cordial

1 gal. whisky
8 lemons
4 lbs. sugar
¼ lb. ginger biscuit
1 qt. water
4 lbs. red currants

Put the whisky, lemons and ginger in a crock and let it stand for three days, stirring every day; then strain and add the sugar, which has been dissolved in the quart of water. Stir until all is well mixed; then bottle. Ready for use at once.

I might add, we accept no responsibility for the effect this last recipe might have on the user.

From Your State Capitol

Austin, Texas — It's tourist season at the historic Texas State Capitol Building.

On any summer day, visitors from all parts of Texas, many other states and even foreign countries can be found in its spacious rotunda and in the splendid legislative halls or on the green, tree-shaded grounds.

More than 200,000 tourists looked over portions of the 78-year-old state house during the last year, estimates the Capitol Tourist Bureau which is operated seven days a week by Texas Highway Department personnel.

Two-hour free parking is available for visitors on a lot at 11th and Congress Ave.—across from the south Capitol grounds. Limited parking also is provided on a first-come-first-serve basis in marked tourist spaces on the grounds.

Dome Opened — A part of the famous Capitol dome was reopened last year for the first time in 12 years. Visitors can now go to the fifth floor landing (in company of a guide) and are rewarded by a spectacular view of the capital city from an outside balcony.

Six guided tours a day take them from the fourth-floor elevator stop — up 112 spiral steps to the fifth floor.

Many less-adventurous visitors are content to wander on their own through the columned corridors, to look up their Legislators' pictures in the House or Senate or to drop by the Governor's office and sign the guest book.

Construction — The Capitol covers three acres of ground and has 192,374 square feet of floor space.

At the time of its completion in 1888, it was said to be the seventh largest capitol building in the world.

In 1879, the Legislature appropriated more than three million acres of land in 10 Panhandle counties to pay for the building.

Construction was begun February 1, 1882. Owners of Granite Mountain near Marble Falls in Burnett County offered free of charge to the state all granite needed to complete the building.

(Original plans called for construction of Texas limestone.) Extended labor problems delayed completion, but Texas finally got a building that cost more than $3,700,000 in exchange for her three million acres of land.

Rising to a height of more than 309 feet (from basement floor to top of the Goddess of Liberty statue on the dome), the building is seven feet higher than the National Capitol in Washington.

It is 585 feet long and 299 feet wide, including outside steps in both measurements.

Ox-Powered — Fifteen thousand carloads of Texas red granite for exterior walls were hauled into Austin from Burnet County by ox-power and especially built railroad. Texas limestone forms interior and dome walls.

Wainscoting of oak, pine, cherry, cedar, walnut, ash and mahogany would reach a length of seven miles.

Door and window frames are all in oak and pine, except those in the Governor's ornate reception room, which are of cherry.

The original copper roof covers 85,000 square feet.

Original floors were of hand-blocked clay tile, glass and wood. New hall and rotunda floors are of terrazzo, all Texas rock aggregate except for the blue in the U. S. Seal which was imported from Italy. These rotunda floors tell the story of Texas history and are regarded as among the largest and most beautiful terrazzo floors in the world.

Modeled after the classic design of the National Capitol, the Texas Capitol is built in the form of a Grecian cross.

Always Work — Maintenance requires almost constant effort. Crews of painters, carpenters, electricians and plasterers are at work in some portion of the sprawling building almost every day. Many areas, including the Governor's quarters, have been remodeled, modernized and air-conditioned.

Most dramatic of the maintenance work is painting the interior of the Capitol dome every seven years. Painters work on a platform suspended 260 feet above the star on the rotunda floor.

There are still a few old-timers around who remember when the grand old building was brand new.

Mrs. Ralph Simon of Dallas was a visitor in Ozona Saturday.

Versatile Dust Developed by Scientists

Researchers have discovered a new method of protecting houses and apartments against roaches and a hundred other insects for the lifetime of the occupants.

Professors of entomology said that a new dust called "Amorphous Silica Gel" has been developed that is harmless to humans and animals, but lethal to termites, cockroaches, silverfish and a hundred other insects. The dust literally dries the insects to death by removing a protective wax on their bodies and causing death through evaporation of body moisture. Once applied, it can last indefinitely without losing its ability to kill pests.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

By Vern Sanford

Float Bait to hot spot — Often a pole fisherman will find a spot where he can't place his bait, even though he knows a lunker lurks there.

That's when he uses one of the small cone-shaped paper cups he carries in his tackle box — providing he has the forethought to bring along a few.

He sets the cup afloat with hook and bait inside. Then, he manoeuvres the bobbing cup into a position to float over the lunker's lair. At the right instant, the fisherman jerks his line, tips the cup, and his bait sinks down to the waiting prize.

Partners Hunt Abreast — One of the best ways to make a gunning partnership pay off is to hunt abreast of each other. Otherwise flushed game may cross behind the leading hunter, or too far ahead of the trailing hunter.

Moving at a matched pace is safer, because you always know where your partner is hunting and vice versa.

Use blanks in training Dogs — When the hunting dog has reached his final training period successful trainers use blank cartridges to accustom the pooch to the sound of gunfire.

Watch the better dog trainers and you probably also will notice that they store their ammunition reloads in a coin purse where they can get at it in a hurry.

Fool that bait Stealer — There are crooks among fishes, too. The slimy thieves slip up and steal your bait without giving the cork more than a bob, or two.

When you know you have a bait-stealer nibbling at your line, fool him by taking the slack out of your line, then give the rod a quick flip downward just as the cork bobs.

This quick action will flex the rod, making the rod tip spring upward just enough to sink the hook before the nibbler can let go of the hook. And it usually puts another flapping fish on your stringer.

One way to assure a Catch — How many fish have you lost this year? More than you can count, most likely.

You can cut this loss to a minimum if you will fish with back-to-back hooks.

Simply take two ordinary single hooks and tie them together back-to-back at the shank with monofilament line.

Next fish won't be able to spit out the bait without getting hooked.

When Bass streams shrink — During the summer months small bass streams sometimes shrink to alarming low levels.

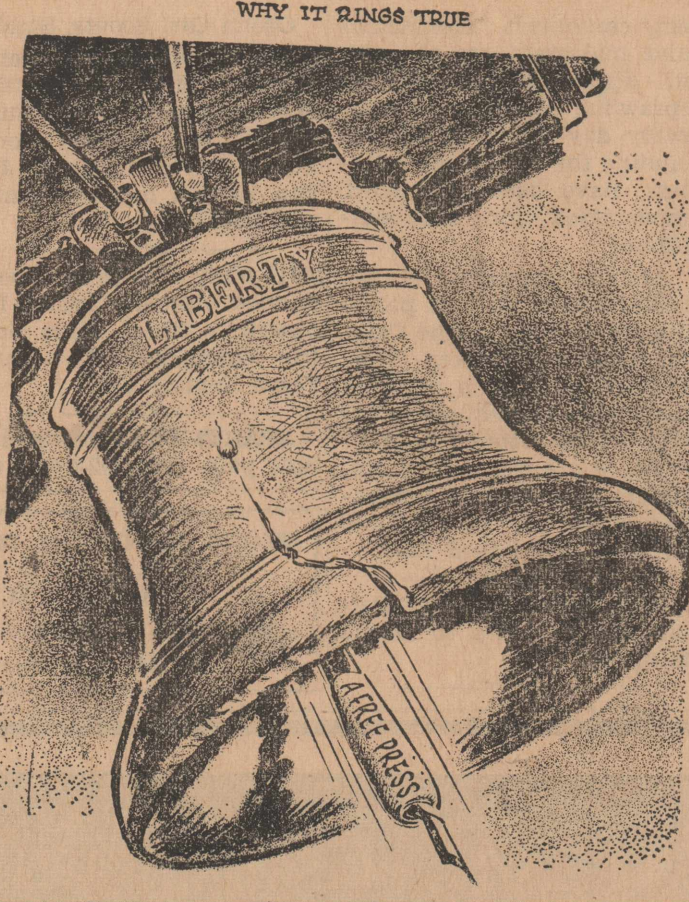

During this period of low water, try fishing the stream bends where the current has scooped out deep, dark pockets and holes close to the bank.

Place a dry fly there early in the morning, or late in the evening, and you will be surprised how many lunkers you can tie into.

Stalk fish like game — It is just as important for a fisherman to sneak up on his quarry, as it is for a deer hunter to stalk his game.

As in hunting, small unimportant things often mean the difference between success and failure.

Always approach your still-fishing spot carefully and silently. Come in slowly from up wind, drop a long anchor line and kill your outboard motor as you drift the boat slowly into casting position.

WHY IT RINGS TRUE

Use shades for targets — Really great targets can be made from old window shades.

Draw, or paste, the size target you wish on the shade and mount on a frame.

When not in use the shade rolls up out of the way.

Move those decoys — There are few things more unnatural-looking than a raft of decoys sitting still on a glass-water surface.

No matter how quiet the water may be, you still can have live-looking decoys, to lure in the ducks. First tie lines on two or three of the blocks in your setting. Next thrust the end of a clothes hanger (one end of which has been twisted to form a ring) into the mud bottom under the decoy you want to activate. Then string cord through this ring, extending to your blind, the other having been tied to the decoy.

When you see ducks coming, pull the strings and make the decoys bob around like live birds.

Soak that axe — When axe or hatchet heads fly off the handle there can be dire results. Keep all axe and hatchet heads tight and secure by soaking the tool in linseed oil for about 36 hours, so the wood can swell tight in its socket.

Repairing a fly rod — Fly rods are delicate instruments and sometimes become bent by use. When this occurs, they must be straightened by softening the glue with heat until the shaft is warm.

Reverse the bend. Then with a weight tied to the butt, hang the rod by the tip until the rod is perfectly set.

Accurate and Complete RANCH RECORDS Are More Important Today Than Ever

Government regulations and heavy tax programs are destined to be a part of the American way of doing business for a long time. For that reason, it is more important today that every business keep accurate records of its operations.

Easy To Keep - Complete Record - In 1 Volume

The ranch business is no exception. With the stiff federal taxes, you will want to take advantage of every saving item in your expense account and at the same time have clear and convincing records available for inspection by tax agents to prove up any item on your income tax return.

Start now to keep a complete record covering all operations in your business with the Stockman's RANCH RECORD BOOK. Your cancelled checks or your present records can be transcribed to this handy record book, together with your income and inventory records and you can have your entire record in a simplified form contained in one volume.

THE STOCKMAN RANCH RECORD BOOK

To hear some people tell it, the javelina stands ten feet tall and has a temper like a short-fused stick of dynamite, ready to go off at the slightest provocation.

Probably no other animal, certainly none in Texas, has a reputation that is blown so far out of proportion to its actual character. Actually javelina, is a fairly small creature weighing 40 pounds or less that will flee at the first hint of danger. There are some people like August Timmerman, game warden at Hondo, who actually run the pigs down with dogs and catch them alive.

Timmerman debunks this talk about the ferocity of the javelina. He says it isn't vicious at all.

Probably much of this talk can be attributed to the javelina's poor eyesight. Often when one whiffs human scent, it will take off through the brush, running right at the hunter. This is because it can't distinguish the human. Naturally, the hunter believes the little animal to be "charging" him. Thus the overblown reputation of the javelina gets another follower. But despite its dubious reputation, the javelina is a sporting game animal. They are quite plentiful in the brush country of South Texas and it is fascinating to hunt them in this thorny environment.

One of the favorite ways to hunt javelina is with dogs. Since a javelina leaves a distinctive odor behind, from the musk bag on its hip, it can be easily trailed by dogs.

This is about as sure-fire as any hunting in Texas. There are people like Timmerman at Hondo who can line up hunts, for $50 per hunter, with two javelinas guaranteed.

This type of hunting requires a trained dog pack, of course, and that's the secret. It doesn't take an experienced dog long to get on the track and bring the pigs to bay.

Although the javelina season runs concurrently with the deer season, Nov 16-Dec. 31, there are many counties where there is no closed season on the pigs and there is no limit on the number you can kill. Winter, after deer season has closed, is the favorite hunting time. Then the weather is cold, which makes for good dog hunting, and there is no danger of snakes.

Counties that have no closed season and no specified bag limit include Crockett, Schleicher, Menard, Sutton, Kimble, Edwards, Uvalde, Medina, Frio, Zavala, Dimmit, and Webb, with the latter six being the best possibility. Karnes, Zapata, Jim Hogg and Brooks, all prime javelina counties, have no closed season but do have a hunter bag limit of two per year.

There are several ways to hunt javelina. One of the most convenient is to hunt them just as you would deer, from an elevated stand.

Get up on one of these windmill-like structures scattered through the brush country and wait and look. Sooner or later, you'll probably glimpse two or more of the pigs stealing into the open.

Another method is stalk hunting.

To me, this is the most fascinating method of all. You creep stealthily through the brush, always looking, listening and smelling. This is one kind of hunting where your nose is a definite asset. Often you can smell the pigs or hear them grunting and clicking their teeth long before you see them.

Probably more javelinas are bagged with deer rifles, by hunters out after deer, than by any other weapon. But actually, this is far too much firepower. The javelina isn't a tough animal and it doesn't require much bullet to bring one down.

When chasing them with dogs, most hunters prefer the ordinary .22 rimfire pistol. They move in close after the pigs have been brought to bay and shoot them in the head.

For stalk hunting, the .22 Magnum is a suitable cartridge. Also quite good is the .30-30 carbine, since most shots will be at close range and must be made quickly, before the pigs are swallowed by the dense brush.

The javelina is very quick on its feet, for short distances, but it doesn't travel very far in one spurt. Often you can stay on the trail of a herd and soon come upon them again.

Traditionally javelina's are gregarious animals. Usually they'll wander in bands of five or more.

Despite what you might have heard to the contrary, the javelina isn't bad to eat. An old boar has a strong taste, but the younger ones are quite delectable.

A javelina is best barbecued. Its meat tends to be dry, as does the flesh of most wild game, so apply a liberal amount of barbecue sauce as you cook.
