Bailey County Hospital District board did not have a quorum at Tuesday night's meeting, although interviews of prospective new board members was held. The vacancy of former member Don Harmon is to be filled at the next regular meeting of the board at 7:30 p.m., November 3.

The resignation of a second Bailey County Law Enforcement officer has been reported to The Journal.

E.C. 'Shorty' Kelley, who has been a Muleshoe City Police officer for approximately two years, resigned, effective October 15. Kelley has been on vacation for the past week and Muleshoe Police Chief Harrold White said Kelley would not be returning to his duties following his vacation.

Kelley did not indicate to Chief White his future plans, or reason for submitting his resignation.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Jerry Hutton said that 27 percent of the 1970 Muleshoe Area United Fund goal had been reached at the first report meeting on Monday afternoon. Workers reported a total of $3,971 collected and pledged.

The second report meeting was to be held Wednesday afternoon and Hutton expected the campaign to be approximately 90 percent complete at that time.

The Motorcycle Scrambler races are scheduled for Sunday, October 18 three miles east of Muleshoe, just off Highway 70 on the Y-L road.

Muleshoe Jaycees are sponsoring the races which will begin at 2 p.m.

Three divisions will be featured, novice, pro and open, plus the added division of a powder puff race.

Major plans are presently underway for the 1970 Sandhill Crane Hunt which is sponsored annually by the Muleshoe Jaycees.

Press releases and film clips are presently being prepared to publicize the nationally popular local hunt.

Deputy Sheriff Ken Petree served his last day on duty in Bailey County yesterday (Wednesday).

He has accepted a position with the Lubbock County Sheriff's office in Lubbock. The Bailey County native has also served with the Clovis City Police Department.

Petree cited his reason for leaving Muleshoe and Bailey County as being the "low pay in this county for deputies."

LOCAL DEMOCRATS HOST SENATOR DOC BLANCHARD--Local Democrats held a rally Monday night and Senator H. J. (Doc) Blanchard of Lubbock was special speaker. Blanchard was in Muleshoe to boost the campaigns of various Democrats vying for office in the November 3 election. Pictured here from left are District

Attorney Jack Young, campaign manager for Lloyd Bentsen; Woods Goforth; Senator Doc Blanchard; Bailey County Democratic County Chairman Harvey Bass and County Campaign Manager for Preston Smith, Lee Pool.

Congressman Asks New Hospital Law

Congressman Bob Price (R.) of Pampa has introduced legislation changing the nursing staff requirements for small hospitals receiving benefits under the medicare program.

Price said, "According to present laws a hospital, to be eligible to receive medicare benefits, must have at least one registered nurse on duty during each of the three eight-hour shifts the hospital operates on. This requirement is extremely impractical in small rural communities," he added.

Price declared, "In Texas alone, more than 150 small hospitals run the risk of having their participation in the medicare program terminated simply because they do not have enough registered nurses to meet Federal requirements. This situation must be rectified. This burdensome law must be changed."

The Texas Republican stated that licensed vocational nurses working with skilled physicians and trained registered nurses can provide an adequate level of nursing care to hospital patients. Price said, "We must never lose sight of the fact that hospitals exist to meet community health needs. Artificial rules must not be allowed to frustrate this simple goal."

"From an economic standpoint," Price observed, "rising hospital and health care costs make it impossible for small rural hospitals to keep their doors open without the aid of Federal funds supplied by the medicare program."

Price said, "I am introducing this legislation in behalf of the many hospitals, administrators, doctors, nurses, and concerned citizens throughout Texas who have contacted me and urged me to help them solve this problem. You cannot imagine what a blow it would be to people in small rural towns if they lost their community hospitals due to unrealistic Federal laws."

Richard Engelking Takes Contest Lead

With the fifth contest this year in the annual Back the Mules football contest, Richard Engelking maintains a slight two point edge lead over all contestants who have won to date this year. He now has two second place wins to take the point lead.

In first place this week is James Roy Jones. He is the first person this year to have a game card that was 100 percent correct. He missed no games and was 25 points off on the tiebreaker score. Jones received the $5 first place prize money and 10 points toward the final grand prize.

Price urged his colleagues to give their speedy approval to his proposal. He said, "The need is great--the time is short--we must act quickly or rural hospitals through Texas and the nation face extinction."

In Muleshoe, Marshall Cook, administrator of West Plains Memorial Hospital said the re-

Commissioners Name Judges During Meet

Bailey County Commissioners met in regular session on Friday, October 2 and the minutes showed they paid routine bills and paid postage. During a meeting on October 12, the commissioners named election judges for the November 3 general election.

For Commissioner Precinct Two, for the West Camp box, Clarence E. Mason, who was unable to serve, was replaced by Ernest Ramm. For the Circleback box, Billy Gore was unable to serve as election judge, so C.G. Lewis was appointed and assistant judge C.D. Darnon was unable to serve so Mrs. Fred Beene was appointed as assistant judge.

The Bailey County Commissioners next meeting will be early in November.

Five Applicants For Registration Says Assessor

County Tax Assessor Jean Lovelady said that five applications have been received for 18-year old vote registration. The applications are being held in her office pending a supreme court ruling on the constitutionality of the new Federal law.

With the 1971 vote registration now underway, there have been 222 persons register for the new voting year.

Bailey County Jam-Packs Jail To Record High

During the past week, a jam-packed jail could be the only description used for the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center.

With several arrests during the week adding to the jail load, the Border Patrol put 22 holdover Mexican Nationals in the jail while waiting for the BP van to transport them back to the border for return to Mexico.

While waiting for the van, the Border Patrol officer added to the load by working with the local city police and booking seven more Mexican Nationals picked up locally Saturday night.

Other than the seven arrests, city police officers also booked three for minor consumption; three for drunk; one person for drunk, resisting arrest and profane language; three sleepers and one for driving while intoxicated.

Adding to the jail list, the Texas Highway Patrol booked one for having no valid driver's license; one for drunk and two for driving while intoxicated.

The county booked one person for drunk to wind up a long list of charges in the law center books.

Democratic Rally Held In Muleshoe

More than 30 persons met in the Bailey County Electric Cooperative meeting room for a Democratic rally Monday night. Special guest speaker during the evening was H. J. (Doc) Blanchard, senator for the 28th Senatorial District of Texas from Lubbock.

'Early Out' For Students On Friday

Muleshoe Independent School District Superintendent Neal Dillman said school will be dismissed at 2:15 p.m. Friday, October 16.

The schools are being dismissed early to enable reading and language arts teachers to attend the annual reading conference at Estacado High School in Lubbock on Friday afternoon and Saturday.

He said buses will leave high school at 2:15 p.m. and asks everyone to arrange their schedules accordingly.

Rally-coordinator Lee Pool greeted the Democrats at the meeting and urged the group to help get out the vote for the November 3 general election. He reminded everyone that only two to three weeks are left for everyone to work on the 1970 election.

Bailey County Democratic Chairman Harvey Bass said several things have to be done yet before the Democrats are well organized. He added, "We don't want to be whipped -- and -- we don't want another depression."

"In order to stabilize our economy, we will have to get someone in who is not afraid to talk and who is not afraid to walk."

He cited figures from the Wall Street Journal denoting a raise of at least 15 percent in the price of new merchandise and said this is a good indication of an unstable economy.

Bass urged the largest vote turnout in the history of Bailey County and said transportation would be arranged for anyone wishing to vote either absentee before the election or to go to the polls on election day.

District Attorney Jack Young introduced special speaker, Senator Blanchard, who immediately commented, "I am here to offset Mr. Agnew coming to Lubbock today."

He told of his youth in the Circleback community in southern Bailey County then of his 14 years as a State Senator from the Lubbock District. Much of Blanchard's talk concerned the possible redistricting of the state senatorial districts as he said with the recent census only three cities on the high plains show an increase in population. The three cities are Levelland, Hereford and Lubbock. All the other counties and cities, including Amarillo and Plainview, show a loss in population, added the senator.

He cited the growth of the metropolitan areas during the past ten years, including Dallas, Houston, Galveston, Fort Worth and several other cities and said the senatorial districts in this part of the state show from 70,000 to 85,000 constituents.

Agnew Campaigns On South Plains

The Vice President of the United States - Spiro Theodore Agnew - was the highlight of the Texas political scene when he made stops -- and a few pertinent remarks -- on the Panhandle-South Plains at Lubbock and Amarillo Monday and later in "Big D" on Tuesday, before returning to Washington, D.C.

Mr. Agnew was outspoken in his praise for George Bush, GOP candidate for U.S. Senate and in making a statewide call for the election of Republican Paul Eggers as governor.

And on hand for his area visits were several dozen area residents who journeyed to Lubbock and/or Amarillo on Monday. Two separate delegations left Muleshoe to join more than 3,500 at the Lubbock airport rally and, later, the more than 1,000 diners and spectators at Amarillo Coliseum.

The Vice President got a big chuckle from the Lubbock audience when he told them that "George Bush has spoken out loud and clear that he is not ashamed of his party leadership ... can his opponent say the same thing?"

He paused, then continued "Suppose George McGovern or Ted Kennedy or Bill Fullbright -- the prime movers of Mr. Bentsen's party -- come wait-zing into Texarkana. You wouldn't find Mr. Bentsen (or your Governor Preston Smith) out at the airport with a band and red carpet; you'd find them out-of-town, hunkered down in the tall grass, 'til they got out of the state."

Lt. Governor Candidate To Visit Muleshoe

Phil Garrett, Bailey County campaign chairman for Republican Lieutenant Governor candidate Byron Fullerton, said the candidate will be in Muleshoe today (Thursday), October 15.

Fullerton will be in the Muleshoe State Bank community room at 9:30 p.m. for a short talk.

The Bailey County campaign chairman said Fullerton will speak for a few minutes, then spend time visiting and getting acquainted with local people.

Garrett invited everyone to attend the meeting at the bank and meet Byron Fullerton.

The crowd gave large applause. Speaking later at the Monday night dinner Mr. Agnew said "We in Washington need George Bush. The big change you voted for depends on getting rid of the obstructionists in the Senate. I can testify personally to the high regard and esteem in which George Bush is held by the President and other leaders in this Administration. He will be listened to -- and he will be effective."

In an addition to his prepared Amarillo speech, Agnew continued that Bentsen, even if elected, would have no influence with those men who control the Democratic party nationally. "The Kennedys, McGovern and Fullbrights don't want any part of the man who beat their friend and fellow liberal, Ralph Yar-

Engelking Has Parmer's First Cotton For '70

Speck Gin at Clay's Corner has reported the first bale of cotton known to be ginned in Parmer County for 1970. The gin processed the cotton for Jerry Engelking, who farms approximately two and one half miles southwest of Clay's Corner.

Jack Speck, owner of the gin, said the cotton was ginned Monday afternoon. The 2,560 pounds of seed cotton taken to the gin turned out a 585 pound bale and 930 pounds of seed cotton.

Engelking added that he had harvested the cotton from slightly less than three fourths of an acre, and expects approximately one and one half bales per acre on the irrigated cotton. He said the cotton was Gregg 35 and was planted on tents short. This will shift the larger share of representation to the larger cities, he added and will reduce the effectiveness of the West Texas-South and High Plains voice in Austin. Senator Blanchard said representatives and senators from the cities would understandably be concerned with problems of the cities, while representatives from this part of the state would be concerned with the problems of farming, ranching, cotton, and water. In asking the Democrats to strongly support the campaign of gubernatorial Candidate Preston Smith's bid for reelection, Blanchard said he was from the South Plains and would understand and work for the people on the South Plains, High Plains and West Texas. He commented, "We need a governor who understands the problems of this area."

The Senator expressed his thoughts on what would bring people out in record numbers in Texas to vote and said it was his thought that Amendment Number Three, the liquor-by-the-drink amendment, would probably create the greatest interest and "really bring the people out to vote, whether they are for or against the issue."

He urged everyone to take a position in the election and back the position, whatever it may be. The senator spoke on welfare and new problems which are being created by federal welfare enactment in Washington. He said, "You people had may as well get ready, you will have welfare to face, the same as everybody."

According to Senator Blanchard, "Eggers said as quick as he got into Austin he would decide to raise welfare or cut it down. That's real fine -- but it would take a constitutional amendment, not the action of just one man."

He spoke on drug abuse, briefly on crime, high power advertising which influences youth and apathy.

The senator spoke highly of Senator Jack Hightower of Wichita Falls who serves Bailey County as senator and lauded Lloyd Bentsen, candidate for State Senator and Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes, who is bidding for re-election.

He conducted a brief question and answer session to conclude the meeting, then visited informally with the group following the meeting when refreshments were served.

Neida Merriott, district court clerk, was named financial chairman to accept contributions for advertising and expenses of the Democratic campaign until the general election on Tuesday, November 3. A number of contributions were recorded by Mrs. Merriott following the meeting.

Visiting in the Charles L. Smith home over the weekend were Mrs. Hattie L. Cade, sister of Smith and Mrs. Wayne K. Smith, a sister-in-law. Both are from Slaton.

During a recent meeting of the Texas District and County Attorney Association in Austin, Bailey County Attorney Roger Gorrell was named to serve on two committees.

He will be a member of the Advisory Committee of Prosecutors to the Texas Criminal Justice Council and will serve on the committee working on the Penal Code Revision. The revised penal code will be presented for consideration in early December.

MINOR INJURY IN ACCIDENT--Ambulance attendants and law enforcement officers prepare to load James Slaughter onto a stretcher following a late accident Saturday night. Slaughter lost control of the late model automobile he was driving and crossed a median in the highway two miles north west of Muleshoe on Highway 84. He flipped the automobile onto its top in Bailey County Memorial Park. Slaughter was treated at West Plains Memorial Hospital for minor injuries and released.

borough," the speaker said. "I'm not here to tell the people of Texas who your senator should be," Mr. Agnew stated emphatically.

"I speak of men like Bush and Eggers and Bob Price. These are men of balance, when men of balance have been needed as never before. These are men strong enough, experienced enough and open-minded enough to represent the Texas of today and tomorrow -- at a time when each of us hold the future in his hands," he spoke clearly. The vice president described gubernatorial candidate Eggers in Lubbock as a "taxpayer's governor" and said Republicans economic philosophy and that of Eggers is to work in government to see that more of the "peoples' money" is left in their pockets to be spent as they see fit and "not as the government sees fit."

PERMISSIVENESS In conclusion at Amarillo he said "... when you hear people running America down, trying to tear America down; when you find people poor-mouthing the American system -- remember ... that the unrest around us has largely been the product of our own progress. And I suggest the cure for that unrest is not only an end to the age of indulgence (Spock-marked, yet) but a speed-up of progress ...

"Only with renewed respect for the American system itself can all of us gain the perspective that shows the system in its true light: changing, improving, succeeding," the Vice President said, "... producing this enormous change for the better."

He had commented earlier in his Amarillo speech that "the last area of Texas life to change," "the one where men of the past dug in the deepest, was in politics." "But now, after 100 years of the Democratic, one-party system in Texas," he continued "that establishment is breaking up and being swept away by leaders like George Bush who are in touch with the Texas of today -- who are in touch with the problems and hopes of people who want to move with the times."

Mr. Agnew discussed the subject that goes beyond politics, unrest, and permissiveness "that has permeated so much of our national life and our family lives."

He commented "A generation that has to sweat to earn the good things in life is shocked to see those material benefits sneered at by some -- certainly not all -- young people who take good things for granted. It is a good and healthy thing for young people to deprecate what they believe to be an undue emphasis on the material at the expense of the spiritual. But it would be better and healthier if they also recognized what has put them in a position of being able to make the criticism," he said. "Some ..." he continued "de-mean the dignity of work; they scoff at the values of the previous generation as they hold out their hands for the keys to the car."

A large crowd, including 13 area residents, joined the dinner guests in Amarillo. A reception was held in the coliseum foyer prior to the fundraising dinner. Following the speech and joining Mr. Agnew in shaking hands with many well-wishers were Congressman Bush of Houston, Eggers of Wichita Falls, Congressman Bob Price of Pampa from the 19th district, and State Rep. Malouf Abraham of Canadian, GOP candidate for state senator from the 31st Senatorial District.

Vice-President Agnew was accompanied by Mrs. Agnew; Bush by Mrs. Bush. The later was in Plainview Tuesday for a Republican reception while Mr. Agnew spoke to a noon luncheon and meeting in Dallas. Among those attending Monday night events were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Mason, Harold Allison, R.D. Precure, Mr. and Mrs. Les Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinkson, Jay Harbin, Mrs. Larry Hall and Glen Lust.

Among the crowd at Lubbock were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Tibbits, Mrs. Johnie Prater, Mrs. Jack Rennels, Mrs. Ted Semmons, Gil Lamb, Mrs. Joe Pat Wagner and a number of other interested persons.

gistered nurse situation has reached the 'critical' stage in Texas, Cook said that as of now, Texas is 10,000 nurses short on registered nurses to meet medicare requirements.

According to Cook, the supply of licensed vocational nurses (LVN) is adequate, but there are very few reserves. He added, "with the health need growing so rapidly and a very gradual increase in graduates in all phases of health care professions, the situation in Texas could become critical where federal requirements are concerned."

Cook urged local residents to support the legislation presently pending which would ease the situation for small hospitals, and would affect some 150 or more small hospitals in Texas. He asked everyone to write, call or see their legislators indicating support in the hospital legislation.

The legislation, which will be considered on October 19, would ease requirements for nurses, ease medicare requirements for small hospitals and eliminate the compulsory 20 percent autopsy requirement.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wyer and Mrs. Jane Morgan were in Ruidosa this past weekend.

Former Resident Medical Student At Galveston

GALVESTON--Lawrence E. Green, son of Mrs. Dorothy Green and the late Dr. L.T. Green, of Muleshoe, has been accepted for admission to the 1970-71 freshman class of The University of Texas Medical Branch.

The 174 new medical students will receive training under a newly instituted curriculum which, according to Dr. Joseph M. White, vice president for a M. White, vice president for academic affairs and dean of medicine, will allow the student more freedom in course selection, and a possible goal attainment at an earlier date than has been previously feasible. He added:

"Each course of instruction will have more specific goals in measurable terms and will provide a variety of means and opportunities by which these goals may be realized. The faculty will then evaluate the student's accomplishments in realistic ways, requiring less that he perform in a stereotyped fashion than that he accomplish the stated objectives of his particular goal in medicine. This approach will allow the granting of advanced standing based on recommendation by the teachers responsible for instruction in a particular area of learning."

Green will be seeing patients as a freshman within four weeks. The standard curriculum will consist of a basic science core with time at the end of the medical school training for compulsory electives. Student research will be elective. The new courses offered will be in endocrinology, cell biology and neuroscience, and two patient-related courses, behavioral science and introduction to clinical medicine. UTMB, sixth largest medical school in the nation, has a full and part-time faculty of 460 and facilities for more than 1,200 patients.

Green attended the Texas Tech University at Lubbock before entering UTMB, he is married to the former Marilyn Barnett, also of Muleshoe.

Natural gas is the healthiest, most economical way to heat your house this winter. Gas is economical because it's the direct way to produce heat - you don't pay to convert heat to another energy source and then back to heat. And with gas you can afford to bring clean outside air into your home this winter instead of having to re-heat the same old stale air time after time.

So, if you're building or remodeling, be sure to specify gas heating. Gas is the "natural" fuel. It's like buying direct from the manufacturer. Call your heating contractor, plumber, or Pioneer Natural Gas.

Missouri-Notre Dame Clash Spotlights Week

This week, for the first time in their history, the Tigers of Missouri meet the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame. Coming just a week after the toughest with Nebraska, it'll be a bit rougher for 16th-ranked Missouri. The Irish were able to breathe lightly all day Saturday as they whopped Army. Notre Dame, rated third, is favored in this one by 13.

The Southwest Conference's annual contributions to football supremacy, second ranked Texas and ninth ranked Arkansas, both have the day off. And there are two other games where the favorites could just as well have the day off. Arizona State, number 14, will be a huge 37-point winner over out-classed Brigham Young, while the Air Force, rated 11th, will clobber Navy by 36 points.

Another of the big powers looks to have a fairly easy afternoon, but in the Big Ten, one never knows. The Alma Mater of the grandfather who writes this column—Minnesota—Notre Dame, rated third, is favored in this one by 13.

The Bucks will humble the Gophers by 21 points. What a far cry from the days of Bernie Bierman and Minnesota's perennial (well, almost) national champions! Enuf flag-waving; for Gopher-land, Harmon! Auburn gets tougher and tougher every week, but this Saturday the fifth-ranked Tigers will have to sharpen their claws. Georgia Tech, smarting after its first loss of the season, is ready to upset anybody . . . and Auburn happens to be in the way. The Tigers are favored by 17, but . . .

In the Big Eight, Nebraska's sixth-ranked Cornhuskers will crumble the Jayhawks of Kansas by 22 points, and Colorado, number eight, should hand Oklahoma its third loss of the season. The Buffaloes are also favored by 22 points.

With a power quotient of 114.9, the Mississippi Rebels are now ranked fourth in the nation. And Southern Mississippi won't be able to do much about lowering that rating. Mississippi to win by 38 points. Michigan, number seven this week, will dampen Michigan State by 22 points.

Facing west, Stanford's Indians pow-wow with Washington State, and Southern Cal hosts Washington. Stanford ranks 12th, the Trojans, 13th. The Huskies will lose to Southern Cal by 17, and Washington State will have to dig out from a 28-point barrage from Stanford. Tenth-rated Tennessee is favored by just one point over 17th-ranked Alabama.

An Analogy: 'Back The Mules'

In the fall of this year 1970, amidst harvest and other busy things, much interest has been generated by football games, some by political events.

Teamwork and good sportsmanship are commendable, we think - whether by our Mighty Mules' eleven and local boosters, or whether by the politicians who offer their services and the voters who support them. It is sometimes exhausting, but worthwhile, work for all those who put forth the effort.

There is slight analogy on which similarities can be readily compared, as this is both football and political season:

For instance, it takes two teams for a football game, in politics (even in Texas) it takes two political parties for voters to have a choice between candidates.

It takes good sportsmanship - win or lose - because we have to play the game again over the years.

It takes teamwork to play a good game. The players' abilities; prowess; working together, in choosing the right plays, in fair play, and in standing behind one's teammates "in rain or shine" -- these make up part of "teamwork".

Players themselves respond to spectators' enthusiasm, interest and concern for them and the game, as coaches know well. The team appreciates its backers and the crowd's interest; they then are pushed forward in putting forth their best in playing the game.

On the other hand, apathy on the part of the crowd often causes a poor show - by players or the team. A team member can then fumble, misplay or default with less conscience or care for continuing to play the game to the best of his ability.

The game is hurt too by any poor sportsmanship - whether by a player who loses his temper, or boos and demonstrations in the stands. Traditionally, such ill-mannered actions hurt the protesting one most but he also hurts those nearby who hear and see him; his neighbors, his teammates or the visiting opposition. We reflect not only ourselves as individuals, but our family, team, school, church, community and generally, "the general state of the nation's affairs".

It takes a team and supporters and informed, sincere, enthusiastic work, to win a game - whether football or politics or a family argument.

Spectators should feel free to cheer for their team - or even to put a bumper sticker on the car. We don't offend our out-of-town friends in Dimmitt, for instance, by putting on "Mighty Mule" stickers and backing our Mules instead of their Bobcats. We are still friends even though we are on different sides of the ballgame!

Those who do not actively participate during the playing of the game have less right for commenting, either on the way the game is being played or the outcome of the game. That old rule "It's what you put into it that you get out of it" applies even yet to the young players as well as the seasoned experienced players.

These are great traditions - football and politics. They are part of our American way of life. The privileges and responsibilities go hand-in-hand, just as respect for the rules, teamwork and good sportsmanship make a better football game for all.

We are free to study the teams and the odds, to choose the team of our choice -- to support -- still maintaining respect for the other fellow's right to choose his own way -- and then all abide by the rules of the game!

We are thankful this is the way of local, district, state and national affairs - whether in football or politics or what.

Congressman

George Bush

Congressman George Bush has called upon "every level of our society" to share the responsibility for protecting the environment.

The U.S. Senate candidate said he supports legislation which requires the federal government to set anti-pollution guidelines and standards, and to provide incentives for compliance.

Bush said he offered an amendment in the House Ways and Means Committee that would encourage industry to take immediate action to repair or improve facilities to check air or water pollution.

"After a reasonable time," Bush said, "and for those who don't get cracking, I support President Nixon's proposal to impose fines of up to $10,000 a day."

Bush noted that he is chairman of the Congressional Task Force that has studied "in depth," earth resources.

"Unfortunately, we've been talked nearly to death by people who've taken up the environment as the latest political fad," Bush said. "Much of what this year's Senate election is about is the big difference between 'talking and doing' with regard to our environment."

Calling for reorganization at the federal level, Bush said he has introduced legislation that would restructure and expand the present Department of Interior. The bill would turn the department into a Department of Resources, Environment and Population, and give it principal federal responsibility in all three areas.

"It's going to take new forms of cooperation to clean up our complex society and keep it clean," Bush added. "We can't sit back and expect Washington to take care of our land, water and air. I believe that the primary responsibility for solving local problems should rest with the people and the communities involved."

San Antonio Chapter of the Council of Jewish Women that evening.

Wednesday, the gubernatorial candidate spoke at a Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon in Fort Worth. That afternoon, he attended a rally at North Texas State University in Denton.

Thursday, Eggers will tour Port Arthur and Beaumont, attending a rally at the Lamar Tech campus in Beaumont that afternoon.

Friday, he will speak at a breakfast in Corpus Christi, and attend a businessmen's luncheon in Dallas. He will visit the news media in Dallas that afternoon, Friday evening, he will attend a dinner given in his honor in Dallas.

Saturday, Eggers will attend the Pasadena Rodeo Stockshow, and will then tour the NASA, Clear Lake, LaPorte areas, visiting with Republicans.

Tuesday, he attended a noon luncheon with Vice President Agnew in Dallas. After the luncheon, Eggers departed for San Antonio. He spoke to the

GOP Traffic Noted By Smith

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS--- Noting that traffic in Texas is going up all the time with another big gain expected this year, Governor Preston Smith said Friday, "one of the reasons is the heavy traffic created by out-of-state Republicans."

In speaking at a breakfast here this morning Governor Smith commented, "It seems that every day or so they bring in a governor or senator from some other state to tell Texas people how they should vote. Personally, I'd rather have the Texas people themselves speaking for me, and working for my re-election."

Governor Smith observed that Republican traffic probably won't slow down even after the election, if their candidates happened to be elected.

"My opponent promised as much last month in a newspaper interview. The question asked him was: How are you specifically going to streamline state government (if you are elected)? Listen closely to the answer he gave: 'One thing (he said) is to get some people who have expertise in streamlining state governments in other places.' End of quote."

"What the Republican candidate for Governor is saying is that not only is he bringing in Republicans from out-of-state to tell us how to vote -- if he is elected, he is going to import Republicans to show us how to run our government."

Dear Editor:

The time of the year now brings an emphasis on campaigns, elections, and issues confronting the people of our state. Since November is just around the corner, I thought you might be interested to have a little information pertaining to the seven Constitutional Amendments that will be on the ballot November 3. I think it is good for all voters to have a knowledge of the amendments before casting their votes. Many times we neglect to study the Constitutional Amendments, but they are most important as our Constitution provides a basic structure of law under which we operate in the State.

Our Constitution was adopted in 1876 and has been amended one hundred ninety-five times. If you will remember, we voted on nine amendments to the Constitution August 5 of 1969, and the following seven amendments are a part of the total of sixteen passed by the 61st Legislature. The amendments appear below in the order in which they will be on the ballot. I have tried to present a little background and the pros and cons of each amendment so that you will have an opportunity to evaluate the issues before casting your vote.

PROPOSITION 1 REMOVAL, RETIREMENT OR CENSURE OF JUSTICES, JUDGES AND JUSTICES OF THE PEACE

AMENDMENT NO. 1 Proposes to amend Article V, Section 1-3, of the Texas Constitution, relating to removal, retirement, or censure of justices, judges, and justices of the peace under prescribed circumstances. The Texas electorate in 1965 adopted the current Article V, Section 1-3. The section greatly expanded the article in regard to the retirement and removal from office of justices and judges of the appellate courts and district and criminal district court judges. However, no provision was made for censure or private reprimand of judges nor did the section include the judges of the other state and local courts. This amendment was designed to change the provision to include these features.

Argument For: 1. Every judge is charged with the equitable enforcement of law. The responsibilities of the judges of lower courts are no less sacred than those of the justices of the appellate courts; therefore, they should be answerable to the same rules dealing with retirement, removal from office, and public censure or private reprimand.

Argument Against: 1. Except in rare instances, the judges named in Subsection (6) are elected by the people and therefore answerable to the people at the polls. Therefore, the expansion of the article is unwarranted. Increasing the power and scope of the commission might also lead to "witch hunts," and such action could subsequently discourage qualified persons from seeking election on the bench.

PROPOSITION 2 LOCAL OPTION MIXED DRINKS

AMENDMENT NO. 2 Proposes to amend Article XVI, Section 20, Subsection (a), to authorize the legislature to enact a mixed beverage law regulating the sale of mixed alcoholic beverages on a local option basis. During the early days of the Republic, Texas has no restrictions against the operation of an open saloon other than the requirement that the proprietor pay a tax and that he be bonded to guarantee that an orderly and reputable house would be maintained. As the frontier atmosphere faded and civilization sank its roots deeper into community life, temperance groups were militant but only mildly successful in attempts to bring about prohibition in the state. In 1887 the voters of the state defeated an amendment dealing with prohibition by a vote of 220,000 to 129,000. Temperance groups found little support during the next 20 years, but in 1911 a similar proposed amendment on prohibition was lost by only 6,000 votes. World War I again brought prohibition into prominence, and when the federal government submitted the national prohibition amendment in 1918, it was adopted by the legislature. However, prohibition lacked the public support necessary for enforcement, and when Congress modified the Volstead Act to permit the sale of beer in 1933, Texas adopted an amendment to the state constitution legalizing the sale of beer. The 21st Amendment to the federal constitution, which repealed the 18th Amendment, became effective in December, 1933. The 44th Legislature of the State of Texas then submitted an amendment to repeal state prohibition, and it was ratified in August, 1935. The 1935 Amendment authorized the sale of hard liquor on a local option basis but prohibited the open saloon. Many attempts have been made over the years to achieve liquor by the drink, but the issue did not become a major one until it was endorsed by Governor John Connally in 1967. Connally's proposal for a "minibottle" plan of liquor by the drink failed to receive a majority vote during the 1st Called Session of the 60th Legislature in June, 1968. Many lawmakers contended that the constitution would first have to be amended to repeal the provision banning open saloons. Such a resolution was offered and passed for submission to the Texas electorate during the Regular Session of the 61st Legislature. Arguments For: 1. The proposed amendment would not force mixed drinks on any locality since it requires that any mixed-drink law be on a local option election basis.

2. Adoption of the proposed amendment and passage of subsequent enabling legislation would lead to stricter control of liquor sales to minors, an end to the subterfuge of private clubs, a decrease in alcohol consumption, a reduced crime rate, and fewer traffic accidents.

Arguments Against: 1. The proposed amendment would make alcoholic beverages more readily available.

2. Although enabling legislation for the proposed amendment could be designed to raise needed new revenue through the taxation of mixed beverages, this revenue would be negligible in comparison with resulting problems such as broken homes, juvenile delinquency, drunk-driving, criminal assaults, and other crimes.

PROPOSITION 3 SPECIAL TAX PROVISIONS FOR RANCH, FARM AND FOREST LANDS

AMENDMENT NO. 3 Would authorize the legislature to provide by law for the establishment of a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm, and forest lands based upon the capability of the lands to support the raising of livestock or to produce farm and forest crops rather than on the value of such lands and the crops growing on them. The present provision of the Constitution requires no enabling legislation since it prescribes in detail the procedures for designating land for agricultural use and the assessment of such land for tax purposes on the basis of factors relative to such use.

Arguments For: 1. Farm real estate taxes per acre have increased by more than 22 percent, according to data compiled by the Economic Research Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, and there is a need for the tax relief for owners of such property which the proposed amendment would authorize.

2. The constitutional amendment approved by the voters in 1966 has not provided tax relief urgently needed by farmers and ranchers who use for agricultural purposes land which has greatly increased in value due to its potential use for other purposes, such as urban development. The proposed amendment would enable the legislature to provide such relief.

Arguments Against: 1. Enabling legislation for the proposed amendment has not been passed; therefore, the voter has no idea how far the legislature may go in providing property tax considerations to the owners of farm, ranch, and timber lands.

2. The proposed amendment could result in a tax ceiling for rural lands while urban Texans would be in a different category.

PROPOSITION 4 RECONSTITUTING STATE BUILDING COMMISSION

AMENDMENT NO. 4 Would amend Article III, Section 51-b, Subsection (a), to reconstitute the State Building Commission as a three-member appointed commission. In November, 1954, the Texas electorate adopted the present Section 51-b of Article III. This section created a State Building Commission, composed of the present membership, with a provision that the legislature may designate some state official other than the chairman of the Board of Control to the commission. It also created a State Building Fund into which is paid the revenue which remains from a 2 cents on the $100 valuation state ad valorem tax after payment of Confederate pensions. This tax may not be levied after December 31, 1976, by virtue of a constitutional amendment adopted in November of 1968. The first structure erected under this section was the State Supreme Court Building. Since then the Capitol Complex has continued to expand. At the time the original amendment was adopted, a person desiring to visit most of the state agencies in Austin had to go to almost 200 locations scattered about the city. The cramped quarters provided by the Capitol also deprived members of the House of Representatives of office space. The amendment was designed to eliminate such situations by the creation of the Capitol Complex.

Argument For: 1. The governor, attorney general, and chairman of the Board of Control do not have the time to consider all the details of the additional duties imposed upon them as ex officio members of the State Building Commission.

Argument Against: 1. Since the State Building Commission makes recommendations concerning the expenditure of large sums of public money, it would seem inadvisable to change its present membership of elected officials responsible directly to the people to an appointive membership which is answerable to the voters only through the governor.

PROPOSITION 5 COUNTY ROAD BONDS ON MAJORITY VOTE

AMENDMENT NO. 5 Would authorize any county to issue road bonds in an amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property in the county for "the construction, maintenance, and operation of macadamized, graveled, or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, upon a vote of a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of the county...."

Argument For: 1. Construction and maintenance of sufficient roads and turnpikes to meet the traffic needs of rapidly growing Texas have been hampered by the constitutional debt limit and the requirement of a two-thirds vote of the qualified electors. The

NEWS REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

The President's Travels- Politics Abroad- Touching The Bases- Nixon Not First-

Washington, D.C.-- The President's recent European trip demonstrated how a U.S. President wins votes back home with foreign travel.

President Nixon refused to attend the funeral of the late President Nasser, at least in part, because he feared this would react badly with Jewish Americans. He made it a point, again, to call on the Pope in Rome--which he knew would score points with many of the 45,000,000 American Catholics.

His trip to Italy, was, in part, designed to appeal to the nation's Italian Americans. His trip to Spain was helpful with the nation's mushrooming Latin and Spanish American population.

His visit to Ireland was a sop to Irish-Americans, which he referred to himself, telling an Irish audience no U.S. politician can get far without attention to Irish Americans.

Mr. Nixon has long cultivated all major ethnic groups, including eastern European peoples and an earlier visit to Rumania and the recent visit to Yugoslavia are points scored in this game.

The President is not the first to touch all ethnic political bases in this fashion but he is one of the more astute professionals in this pursuit. President Roosevelt, perhaps more subtle, was adept at this political tactic.

The danger in this tradition is that domestic politics sometimes intervene in U.S. foreign policy decisions, affecting the course of policy adversely, as far as the national interest, or majority interest, is concerned. It is well known today that the State Department seldom dares defy or openly condemn any militant African regime--because of domestic political considerations.

State has often in the past refused visas to conservative Africans, white and black, not even allowing them to enter the country for speaking appearances on college campuses. Yet practically any militant or leftist comes and goes as he pleases.

Domestic politics in a melting-pot nation such as the United States, then, injects itself readily into the conduct of foreign affairs and only statesmanship of a high type can withstand its political pressures.

WASHINGTON NOTES

DRUGS & AF ACADEMY

Five Air Force Academy cadets have resigned this school year rather than face court-martial boards on marijuana charges. Allegations of drug violations have been made against another 14 students. Air Force officials at the Pentagon report the accusations have led to an investigation into the use of marijuana and LSD on the Colorado Springs, Colo., campus.

Proposed Amendment No. 5 would alleviate this situation. Argument Against: 1. The majority vote requirement of the proposed amendment would make it too easy for a bond election to pass. When bond elections are called with the timing selected to assure turnout of only those in favor of an issue, a majority of the voters could, in fact, be disenfranchised.

PROPOSITION 6

RAISING HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION FROM $5000 TO $10,000

AMENDMENT NO. 6 Proposes to amend Article XVI, Section 51, to increase the value of the homestead exempt from forced sale from $5,000 to $10,000. The precedent for exemption of the homestead from forced sale was established by statute enacted by the Third Congress of the Republic of Texas in 1839. The Texas Constitution of 1845 continued the exemption, establishing it at 200 acres of land (not included in town or city) or any town or city lot or lots, in value not to exceed $2,000. Constitutions of 1861 and 1866 carried forward the same provisions. Then the Constitution of 1869 raised the amount of exemption for urban lots from $2,000 to $5,000 and incorporated the statutory provisions clarifying the maximum value.

Argument For: 1. It has been 100 years since the homestead exemption was set at $5,000, and conditions and economic demands have changed so greatly since that time that the intent of the constitution to protect the home and earning capacity of the citizen is no longer effected through this small exemption.

Argument Against: 1. Since homestead exemptions are often abused by violating the intent of the constitution and permitting the hoarding of extensive assets beyond the reach of creditors with just debts, a larger exemption of $10,000 as proposed by Amendment No. 6 could increase the opportunity for abuse.

PROPOSITION 7

CONSOLIDATING SOME FUNCTIONS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT

AMENDMENT NO. 7 Would authorize the legislature to provide for consolidating offices and functions of government and for performance of governmental functions by contract between political subdivisions in any county. During the past 50 years the population increase and industrial growth of Texas have resulted in more and more demands for governmental services. Because of constitutional limitations that often barred existing political subdivisions from providing assistance, a legislative program of creating "special districts" was established. As the creation of special districts increased, and it became evident that many of them had overlapping jurisdictions and tax assessments, the legislature sought to provide densely populated areas with a means of consolidating many of the services and functions. In 1966 the voters adopted an amendment which would permit Harris County to facilitate consolidation of governmental services. In 1968 the voters approved a similar amendment for Tarrant and El Paso counties.

Argument For: 1. Adoption of the proposed amendment would permit counties to do away with costly duplication of services by consolidation, under which one governmental unit could be authorized to make assessments for all political subdivisions through an equal and fair assessment ratio, thereby providing more equitable apportionment of ad valorem taxes. Such consolidation would also result in coordinated planning to meet the demands of growing metropolitan areas.

Argument Against: 1. Adoption of the proposed amendment would be the first step toward overcentralization of government at the county level. It could result in too much authority resting in the hands of a few.

I realize this has been rather lengthy, but I do hope that it has been of value to you. When the Legislature convenes in January, we will be faced with many serious issues pertaining to state government. Several of the issues, such as redistricting, taxes, water legislation, and tighter enforcement of drug laws will be just a few of the many things that will concern the people of this district. I am hopeful that you will let me have your ideas and opinions on these issues when they are considered next year. I appreciate hearing from you and knowing what your thinking is. This helps me to know what the majority of the people in the district desire. A representative form of government can be at its best only when the citizenry takes a part and voices its concern on the various issues.

Our government is the best in the world; however, this does not necessarily mean that we do not need improvement, because we do in many areas. With this thought in mind, I am hopeful that we can all work together for a better State.

Yours for better government,
(s) Bill Clayton

Lazbuddie News

Mrs Richard Engelking

A community dinner was held after church services Sunday at First Baptist for their pastor, Reverend Johnny Timms and family, who are moving Wednesday to Casper, Wyoming to pastor the First Southern Baptist Church. A money tree was presented to Brother Johnny, his wife Pearl and children Stevie, Tammy and Veldon. Mike Casey and Jimmy Noland representing the Lazbuddie Longhorns presented him with the football of Friday's Homecoming Victory over Texico in appreciation for Brother Johnny's support in school athletics.

Sunday night, October 11, he held his last service at First Baptist. The scene was a most compassionate one with testimonials being given by the congregation showing their love for God and for their fellow man. Brother Johnny and Pearl will be sorely missed by our community as they worked so diligently with all area youth as was demonstrated Monday night when 43 young people attended the Associational Youth Rally at the Trinity Baptist Church in Muleshoe, representing First Baptist at Lazbuddie. Reverend Johnny was guest speaker at these services. Needless to say, they did bring home the attendance banner with this good number going. Afterwards they ate supper at the Corral and presented Brother and Mrs. Timms a love offering to purchase a certain desired Bible.

Children of Lazbuddie Schools receiving certificates in the Summer Reading Program sponsored by the Muleshoe Area Library are as follows: Mrs. Ruby Bruns' second grade, David Lust, Teila Paterson, and Belinda Silvas; Mrs. Jimmie Briggs' second grade Kathy Menefee, Sherrie Seaton, Andy Snell and Todd Gregory; Mrs. Virgil Wilbanks' third grade, Lisa Menefee, Kim Williams and Joe Dan Briggs; Mrs. Hester Barnes' fourth grade, Keith Hicks and from Mrs. Marsella Paterson's fifth grade Judy Lust, Tonya Patterson and Diane McGuire.

Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Engelking spent a few days last week in the mountain regions of Taos, New Mexico, getting a last look at autumn's splendor and the lustrous colors of the Aspens before the onrushing cold front blew all the leaves away.

Jerry Engelking was the lucky recipient of a $50 bill when he brought the first bale of cotton to Speck's gin at Clay's Corner Monday, October 12. The cotton was grown on Marvin Mason's land and was planted about May 6. It was noted last year's first bale was brought in November 7.

My goodness, was that really snow on the morn of October 8 to bring us our first freeze of the year? Oh well, anybody got a good recipe for 'squishy' green peppers??

Killing Police

Federal Bureau of Investigation Chief J. Edgar Hoover says recent murders of policemen threaten the nation's entire law enforcement system.

"Only an aroused citizenry and swift, certain punishment by the courts can reduce felonious acts against police. When a law enforcement officer dies at the hands of a killer, part of our system of law dies with him," Hoover warned.

Hoover's warning will be carefully considered by all thinking Americans. Murder of law enforcement officers, whether under the guise of racial, political or social action, is anarchy in its most dangerous form, which breeds disrespect for the system of law and order and erosion of the democratic republic we live in, which offers opportunity to all.

Obituaries Frank Locke

Funeral services for Frank H. Locke, 75, of Pettit, who died last week in South Plains Hospital at Amherst were held last Thursday in George Price Funeral Home Chapel in Levelland. Officiating were Rev. W. C. Williamson of Carlsbad, N. M. and Rev. Dale Lavender of Levelland.

Burial was in the City of Levelland Cemetery.

Save $3 on a complete CFS soil test!

Does a bargain interest you?

Then clip the certificate below. It's worth a $3 discount on a complete CFS soil test at your CFS Crop Advisory Center.

All you do to cash in is give us a call. A CFS Crop Advisor comes out, takes samples from each field. We send the samples to the CFS laboratories for a complete analysis—soil pH, availability of nitrogen, phosphate and potash, deficiencies of all the critical micro-nutrients . . . also test for organic matter and soil texture.

CFS Crop Advisors then outline a fertilizer and herbicide program for the crops you intend to grow — show you what fertilizer and herbicide to apply and when to apply it for best results. The plan also shows how to adjust soil pH to make nutrients more readily available to growing plants.

Sound like a good bargain? It is — particularly when you see the results you get! Call us today. Offer ends January 1, 1971.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. -- State employees want a 17 per cent pay raise within the next two years. They served notice of their desire at the annual meeting of the Texas Public Employees Association.

TPEA's legislative program for 1971 seeks a three-step (10.2 per cent) raise effective next September; and a two-step (6.8 per cent) hike the following September; plus a 3.4 per cent merit raise for half of the employees.

Also requested are "career incentive" benefits -- a $10 a month automatic raise after three years of service, ranging up to a $60 a month supplement for employees with 30 years' service.

Substantial pension benefits also were included in TPEA's far-reaching legislative package which would give retired employees with 30 years' service 50 per cent of their base pay.

State employees also want their travel allotments boosted to $16 a day per diem and 12 cents a mile.

PEE WEE BOY AND GIRL . . . Keva Roming won the Pee Wee Girl Champion at the 4-H fair and Clayton Ramm won the Pee Wee Boy Reserve Champion at the fair.

AT THE 4-H FAIR--Mrs. Allie Barbour, left and Mrs. Lud Taylor are shown looking over the home canned foods at the 4-H Project Fair last Saturday. They said they enjoyed all the displays at the fair.

SOCIAL WELFARE CHANGES
Continuing growth of welfare rolls will bring changes in basic operating methods of the State Department of Public Welfare after January 2, Welfare Commissioner Burton G. Hackney says that the key procedural change would require welfare applicants to fill out their own "declaration forms." This would replace face-to-face interviews with overworked caseworkers. This method already has been tested in Corpus Christi, Austin and Nacogdoches regions. Another change would reduce social services to that which can be quickly provided and for which specific goals can be defined. Hackney predicts that legislators will be called on for $96 million annually in state funds, just to keep the financial assistance programs at present levels. This is $16 million above the constitutional ceiling. Some $291 million in federal funds would match the state outlay.

INSURANCE LAWS PUSHED
State Insurance Board is pushing four new laws to protect both the policy holders and the ailing insurance industry. Insurance Board told the House probing committee that it is becoming increasingly difficult to get home and auto protection in disaster-hit areas. Therefore, it will advocate these changes in the law:

Stiff regulation of holding companies, assessment of all companies to protect citizens against insolvencies, a mandatory pool to provide fire and windstorm insurance in areas subject to catastrophes and provision for identifying and segregating company assets.

DRILLERS WARNED
Three deaths in a new water well near Queen City in Cass County brought warning to water well drillers in Northeast Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana to beware of escaping nitrogen gas.

AG OPINIONS
Mobile homes or trailers owned by non-resident servicemen are not subject to ad valorem taxation, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

DRINKS PASSAGE PREDICTED
Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso, head of the committee campaigning for passage of the local option liquor-by-the-drink amendment, predicts its passage at the election on November 3.

COURTS SPEAK
Interest on debts after the death of the borrower may not be deducted in computing the net taxable value of an estate, says the Texas Supreme Court.

as' chain store tax.
*An Odessa woman is entitled to $3,750 damages due to a fall at a drive-in grocery store.

Distributorships of a Florida-based cosmetic firm are not subject to state securities registration because investors must work for profits.

*Whether a Fort Worth judge should have postponed a Sunday closing suit until similar cases have been decided will be reviewed November 18.

*Voters signing a petition to get a new party nominee on the general election ballot are entitled to know who the candidate is in advance of signing. Decision was in a case where the High Court ruled La Raza Unida candidates off the ballot in Dimmitt, LaSalle and Zavala Counties.

*Appeal of a Ward County attorney to prevent the county's participation in a retirement system for employees was dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

AG OPINIONS
Mobile homes or trailers owned by non-resident servicemen are not subject to ad valorem taxation, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

*A junior college district has the power of eminent domain to acquire buildings, lands for building, campus sites or other property the board of trustees determines is needed to carry out its functions.

*A minor's driving license automatically is suspended when finally convicted for driving while intoxicated.

*County Commissioners Court can order publication of information relating to redistricting of the county into voting precincts in addition to the minimum publication required by the election code.

*It is not a violation for a motorist to make a left hand turn off a four-lane highway across a double yellow stripe into an alley, a private road or a driveway.

*Nursing home administrators must pass an examination by the Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators in order to get a license. However, the Board may not establish additional training requirements for those with sufficient experience.

DRINKS PASSAGE PREDICTED
Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso, head of the committee campaigning for passage of the local option liquor-by-the-drink amendment, predicts its passage at the election on November 3.

Christie says that sponsors of the amendment hope to dry up bogus private clubs in areas which vote against liquor-by-the-drink. "Hypocrisy" of present liquor laws, argued Christie, contributes to the "generation gap" and promotes disrespect for all laws.

Opponents contend that passage would increase liquor consumption.

NEW PARKS LAND ACQUIRED
Parks and Wildlife Department has acquired new park land tracts in Hardeman, Clay, Burleson and Lee Counties.

A Hardeman county tract of 1,931 acres cost $143,862 and a Clay county tract of 524 acres on Lake Arrowhead, $50,000.

Southeast Texas lands near Somerville Reservoir in Lee county were leased from the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

Local Draft Board Number Call Low

Mrs. Harold Wyer, executive secretary for Draft Board Number Four, announced today that random selection number 195 is the maximum selection number reached by the board in 1970. The national random number is 195.

"The remaining calls, probably, can be met without going above the current high random number of 157 in this office," said Mrs. Wyer. "However, it could be necessary to go to a higher random selection number in order to satisfy the remaining 1970 draft calls."

The draft official said that in compliance with a recent White House executive order, some registrants at the board will be considered for carry-over into the extended priority group if they are classified 1-A as of December 31, 1970. Such young men will have their liability for induction extended for the first three months of 1971.

Affected are those registrants who hold the highest reached number, or lower numbers, and who have not been issued orders for induction.

The board spokesman said that the executive order states that registrants who hold numbers above the highest reached number of Board Four, and are classified 1-A on December 31, will be placed in a lower draft priority group on January 1, 1971.

Affected are those registrants who hold the highest reached number, or lower numbers, and who have not been issued orders for induction.

The board spokesman said that the executive order states that registrants who hold numbers above the highest reached number of Board Four, and are classified 1-A on December 31, will be placed in a lower draft priority group on January 1, 1971.

According to the acting State Director for the State Selective Service, Lt. Colonel Charles M. Duncan, the November draft call for Texas is 450, and local boards will fill the call with men with random sequence numbers one through 145, insofar as possible. He stated, however, that this does not mean that registrants with numbers higher than 145 may not be needed for future calls.

Colonel Duncan stressed that under the new executive order signed by the President September 26, 1970, all men in 1-A, 1-A-O or 1-O on December 31, 1970, with numbers lower than the high number reached this calendar year by their own local boards will be assigned to the Extended Priority Selection Group to be called during the first quarter of 1971. Those with a higher number than the

The Texas November draft quota of 450 is the state's share of a national quota for 8,000 men, all for the army.

The state quota for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in November is 1,310. Men sent for these examinations will be limited to those with random sequence numbers one through 195 from the drawing in December 1969 and numbers one through 100, from the July 1970 drawing for those born in 1951.

All volunteers at the draft boards must be inducted ahead of the non-volunteers selected and ordered to report for induction by random sequence number.

Local board quotas for induction and pre-induction examination in November were scheduled to be mailed to the state's 159 boards Friday, October 9.

Hog Situation Gets Scrutiny Of Specialist

COLLEGE STATION--Hog and pig numbers in the 10 states which produce more than three-fourths of the nation's total were up on September 1 by an estimated 13 percent. And, says Ed Uvacek, Extension livestock marketing specialist, what happens in these 10 states is extremely important to any analysis of the pork situation.

He says the latest Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service report shows that the 10 Corn Belt states had an estimated 51 million hogs and pigs on farms as of September 1, 13 percent more than a year ago.

The June-August pig crop was reported at 18 million, up 14 percent from the same period in 1969. A total of 2.5 million sows were farrowed during the period, 17 percent more than the year before. The litter size was down slightly from an average of 7.35 pigs in 1969 to 7.18 in 1970.

Uvacek noted that farmers in all 10 states expect to increase September-November farrowing by about 13 percent. The increase ranges from 7 percent in Indiana to 25 percent in Nebraska.

Intended farrowings in the December 1970-February 1971 period were reported to be up 6 percent from year earlier levels. Wisconsin expects a 3 percent drop, Indiana expects no change from a year ago but all other states expect increases led by Nebraska's 19 percent increase. Ohio farmers expect to increase their farrowings for the period by only 2 percent.
