Kitty's Korner By Kitty Montgomery

The war, still undeclared and in its eighth year, struck close to home Friday when news came of the death of Gary Pagan on the field of combat in Viet Nam. The news came only five weeks before Gary was due home.

We mourn for Gary and with his family. We know the pain the loss of a child can bring and that neither word nor deed can heal the deep, raw wound that cannot be seen, only felt.

We are proud of Gary. He was called to do a job and he did it. He sincerely believed in what he was doing and was unshakable in his belief that if the disease of communism was not contained in Asia it would contaminate the entire world.

Gary died for his country and for all of us. He died for the war protesters, in order that they might continue to protest. He died for the long-haired weirdly dressed hippies and yuppies, that they might continue their aimless journey down the path of no direction. Most of all, he died fighting for freedom.

He was a part of what the news media calls "the younger generation," but somehow he never became active in it. His hair was too short, he was too clean, he had a purpose and a goal and he didn't even smoke cigarettes, much less "pot." He wasn't allergic to work and when his country called he made no attempt to avoid the service, even though he had been seriously ill with rheumatic fever at least twice in his life.

There are thousands of other boys in Viet Nam, boys very much like Gary. Many of them will follow him and many have gone before, due to our "no-win" policy which has proved a disaster. Now we are in the midst of a bombing halt which will allow the enemy to regroup. We cannot say what the future will bring, but if this war accomplishes nothing more than a refusal on the part of the leaders of this country to allow our youth to die on foreign soil, those who have given their lives will not have done so in vain.

I have been asked to announce that the traditional Thanksgiving Day football game between Texas and A&M will be televised over KCTV, San Angelo, at 1:45 p. m. Thursday. Ozonans receive the station's signal on Channel 6. The outcome will decide the Southwest conference championship.

If the Longhorns win, they will be in the Cotton Bowl, if not, Arkansas will do the honors.

FOUND — Under my typewriter cover Monday morning, 2 clippings reading as follows: "Once we talked out our problems over coffee and cigarettes. Now they are the problems;" and "As reported by the Blue Cross of Oregon, deaths from emphysema are six times greater for smokers than for nonsmokers." I feel pretty sure they were "lost" by my boss, a former cigarette smoker. This came about when I fell off the carton after I quit smoking three days last week.

It pays to advertise in the Ozona Stockman. Joe Tom Davidson was in Monday and wanted to place a WANTED, RAIN ad. Our power of persuasion is so great that we had no more than got the ad written when the bottom fell out. Would you believe?

Community Joins In Thanksgiving Service at 7 Wed.

The Community Thanksgiving service will be observed this evening, Wednesday at 7 p. m. instead of 7:30 as previously announced. The service will be at The Methodist Church.

Presiding will be the Rev. Frank Pullin, Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church. Rev. James M. Hancock of the First Baptist Church will give the invocation. The Scriptures will be read by Father Louis Moeller of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church, and the prayer will be led by Rev. Wm. A. Triggs of Pharr, who has been directing the music for the Preaching Mission at the Methodist Church and he will also lead the congregational singing.

A Community Choir, directed by Hansen Clark, the Choir Director at First Baptist Church, with Mrs. L. B. Cox, III, at the organ, will sing an anthem. The choir will meet in the Methodist Fellowship Hall at 6:15 p. m. for final rehearsal.

The Thanksgiving message will be brought by Dr. Charles L. Allen of First Methodist Church of Houston, who will be presented by Dr. R. F. Curl, local Ozona Methodist pastor. All Crockett County residents have been invited to join in this occasion of gratitude, remembering the many great blessings which have been given the people of this section during the past year.

Cage Coach Eyes State Title For His 1968 Lions

The 1968-69 rosters for the Ozona High School boys' basketball teams were announced this week by Coaches Charles Spieker and Ned Fowler. The varsity journeyed to Del Rio for a scrimmage Wednesday night, but the first game will be Tuesday, Dec. 3, in junction for the A. B. and girls teams.

In announcing his team members, Coach Spieker said he expects a state championship out of his squad this year. Thirteen seniors, a junior and a sophomore will make up the varsity.

Senior members include 12 returning lettermen, Marlin Farris, Charles Childress, James Appel, David Huff, Don Huff, Rodney Pagan, Randal Clepper, Kirk Boyd, Fleet Coates, Johnny Barbee, Beto Vargas and Carlos Sanchez. Other members of the team are senior Kerry Mapes, junior Tommy Jenkins and sophomore David Pagan. Jenkins and Pagan were outstanding on the B team last year.

Coach Ned Fowler's B-team will have nine returning lettermen, a junior, Arturo Torres, and 8 sophomores, Donald Olson, Jim Montgomery, Greg Stuart, Curtis Weant, Philip Perner, Mickey McBroom, Will Collett and David Williams. The freshman team is made up of Bill Edgerton, Herman Fox, Forest Henderson, Chuck Womack, Monty Pelt, Mike Fox, Dean Shaw, Cheo Vargas, Jesse Ortiz, Mike Jenkins, and Ricky Crawford. Many members of the freshman team will see action with the B team.

WANTED — Used clothing household articles and toys for senior class rummage sale December 7. Call 2-3101, 2-3125 or any member of the senior class.

Mrs. Whittenburg, Native Of Ozona, Dies In Stockton

Funeral services for Mrs. Darr Whittenburg, 48, sister of Mrs. J. B. Miller of Ozona, were held Monday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Fort Stockton, with Rev. Harry Trulove, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Whittenburg died at 2:30 a. m. Sunday in a Fort Stockton hospital of an apparent heart attack.

She was born Ora Rhae Word Dec. 18, 1920, in Ozona, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Word, a pioneer Ozona ranching family. She had been a resident of Fort Stockton the past 32 years. She was married Jan. 17, 1948 to Darr Whittenburg in El Paso.

Mrs. Whittenburg was a past Worthy Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter 230, in Fort Stockton, and a Bible Class teacher in the Baptist Church there.

Wildcat Slated In Tippett Area Of West Crockett

Tom Brown Drilling Co., Inc., Midland, will drill the No. 1-29 Tippett as a 6,200-foot wildcat, sufficient to test the Ellenburger, in the Tippett multipay area of Crockett County, nine miles southeast of McCamey and two miles east-southeast of Ellenburger production in the Tippett, West multipay field.

Location, on a 80-acre lease, is 660 feet from the southeast and 1,980 feet from the northeast lines of 39-31-H&TC. Elevation is 2,557 feet.

The Tippett, West multipay oil and gas field of Crockett County gained its fifth 5,050-foot Wolfcamp gas producer and a 3/4-mile southwest extension to that pay with completion of Chambers & Kennedy, Midland, No. 1-C. Amacker, seven miles south of McCamey, for a calculated, absolute open flow of 2,570,000 cubic feet of gas per day, with gas-liquid ratio of 37,627-1.

Production was natural through perforations at 5,442-452 feet, in 7-inch casing. (Continued on Last Page)

Statistics Reveal Team Effort Featured Lion 1968 Grid Season; Coates Top Offensive Performer

Coach Sam Mosley released individual statistics for the 1968 Lions football team at the final Booster Club meeting held recently.

Fleet Coates led the offense, scoring 118 points in 10 games. Coates led the district in individual scoring and was named all-district running back. He was the leading rusher with 1,534 yards in 244 carries for a 6.3 average, 19 touchdowns and 2 points after. He returned 8 kick-offs for 239 yards and a 29.9 average and returned 17 punts for 149 yards and an 8.8 average. Attempted 16 passes and completed 11 for 57 yards, 1 touchdown and 4 conversions. Coates punted 29 times for a 34.1 average, and got credit for 28 tackles on defense.

Ozona Band Wins Second Place In Abilene Contest

The Ozona High School Band, directed by Tommy Sanders, was one of thirty-five bands from Region VII of the University Interscholastic League to converge on Brady Saturday for the annual Marching and Twirling Contest.

In Class AA competition this year the Ozona High School band received a second division rating after receiving a third last year in Class A. Only one of the other schools in Class 5-AA, Big Lake, received a second division. McCamey and Crane got third divisions and Stanton received a fourth.

Sanders said he had hoped for a first division this year, but was very proud of the improvement in the band. He also expressed appreciation for the support given the marching band at half-time from local fans during the football season.

Majorettes from Ozona placed very well in the solo twirling event. Receiving a first division and gold medals were Marsha Moore, Debbie Moore, Chris Clegg and Sherry Saunders. A second division went to Sharon Logan, Elizabeth Jones and Charlene Strickland, with Marla Barbee getting a third.

New Sgt. Assigned Del Rio DPS Post

Midland, Texas — The Department of Public Safety announced today that recently promoted Highway Patrol Sgt. Donald L. Lee will be promoted to Sergeant on November 15, 1968.

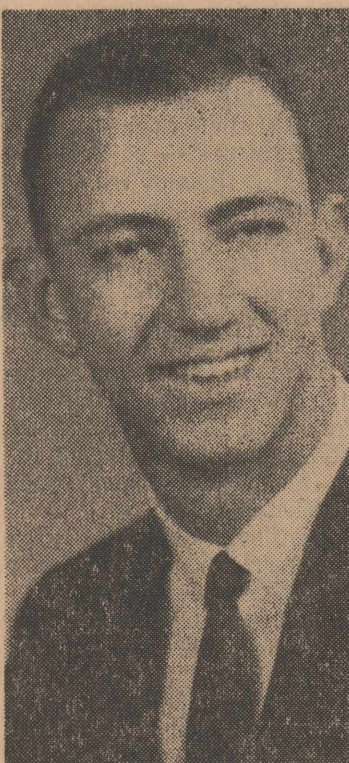

Sergeant Lee will be in charge of eleven Highway Patrolmen stationed in Val Verde, Kinney, Edwards, Sutton, and Crockett counties.

Sergeant Lee will succeed Sergeant Eddie Boyd who transferred to San Angelo on November 1, 1968.

S S REPRESENTATIVE

Jules Gipson, Field Representative for the San Angelo Social Security Office, has scheduled his December visit to Ozona. He will be at the County Courthouse on Thursday, December 12 from 2:00 p. m. to 3:30 p. m. Anyone who wants to file a claim for benefits, get information, or transact other business with the Social Security Administration may contact him at this time.

Sgt. Gary Pagan First Ozonan To Die In Combat Action In Vietnam

Sgt. Gary Pagan

Flags in Ozona have flown at half-mast since Friday when word was received that Sgt. Gary Pagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pagan, had been killed in action in the Republic of Vietnam, the first war casualty from Crockett County since World War II.

A spokesman from the Department of the Army arrived at the Pagan home Friday morning with the news that their son had been felled by an enemy bullet just five weeks before he was due to return home. A telegram from the Department arrived shortly afterwards confirming the fact that young Pagan had been killed by small arms fire during hostile action at 8:30 a. m. on November 20.

Sgt. Gary Pagan, 22, was a squad leader with the 101st Airborne Division. He took his basic training at Ft. Benning, Ga. after being drafted in February of 1967. He stayed at Ft. Benning as drill corporal until his transfer to Vietnam eleven months ago, where he was recently promoted to the rank of sergeant.

Gary was born Sept. 9, 1946, in Big Spring. He attended school in Garden City until moving to Ozona with his family in 1964. He remained in Garden City through football season his senior year, when the team of six-man football won every game they played. Gary joined his family here after his successful football season and attended Ozona high school, graduating with the class of '65. An outstanding basketball player, he was not eligible to play his last year in high school because of the residence rule. However, he was one of the brightest stars on Coach Chick Womack's 1965 championship track team and one of the track captains. He participated in the relays, broad jump, hurdles and discus events but set records everywhere he went in the shot put. He placed second in the state meet that year, beat out of first place by only one-half inch.

Survivors include his parents; four brothers, James, Rodney, David and Steve Pagan; his grandmother, Mrs. M. C. Millhollon of Snyder, and numerous aunts and uncles.

Deer Hunters Vie For Prizes In CC Trophy Contests

Thus far in the hunting season, Doyle Lovell of Ozona holds the record for bringing in the heaviest field-dressed deer, C. E. Scull of Houston is ahead for the most points with a 12-point buck and Don Grider of Abilene has brought in the widest rack with a measurement of 21 1/2 inches.

However, these records may fall before the end of the season with an abundance of hunters expected during the holidays.

Lovell killed his 122 1/2-lb. deer in the trap behind the home of Wilce Owens. Scull's 12 pointer came from the T. A. Kincaid ranch south of town and Grider's entry was killed on the Armond Hoover ranch southeast of town.

Entries are being registered at the Ozona Trading Post and the contest is sponsored by the Ozona Chamber of Commerce. To enter, the kill must be made in Crockett County. A 30-30 Winchester rifle will be given to the hunter bringing in the deer with the most points, 8x40 binoculars for the widest rack and 8x35 binoculars for the heaviest field dressed deer.

Winners will be announced by the C of C shortly after the close of the season and prizes will be presented.

Hunters report an abundance of deer in the county and expect a large harvest once the weather stays cold.

Corsicanan To Preach at Church Of Christ Series

Johnny Ramsey, well known evangelist from Corsicana, Texas, will do the preaching during a series of gospel meetings at the Church of Christ in Ozona beginning Sunday evening at the 6 o'clock evening service.

The gospel series will continue each day Monday through Friday at the church in twice daily meetings. Services during the 5-day weekday series will be at 4 p. m. in the afternoon and at 7:30 p. m. for the evening service. Everyone in the community is cordially invited to attend any or all of the services.

The nursery will be open at each service for the care of small children.

Mr. Ramsey has preached the gospel and taught Bible classes throughout the nation. He has also spent several months in the foreign mission field.

PINON Christmas trees will be here by Dec. 5. Displayed at Gilliam's Station. 37-2tp

Soaking Rain Blankets County On Holiday Eve

Rain, on the leading edge of a cold front, moved in to the Ozona area Tuesday morning early, soaking the town and county with much needed moisture.

Medium to heavy showers fell until around 3 p. m. Tuesday. By noon reports of up to one inch of rain came from the western area of the county, a half inch and up in the southern section. Reports from elsewhere in the county were not obtainable due to telephone failure, but rain covered the county in varying amounts with the official gauge at the Water District office recording 1 1/2 inch for Ozona early Wednesday morning. By 9:00 a. m. Wednesday light drizzle had turned to sleet and snow.

Temperatures fell during the day and more rain with a possibility of snow, along with much colder weather is forecast for the holiday weekend.

THE LAST FULL MEASURE

The far-off war in a far-off land came near, very near, to all Ozona this week with the announcement that one of our own fine young men, Gary Pagan, had been killed in action in an undeclared war in that unhappy land. The flags fly at half-staff and hearts of all are heavy as we seek to share the grief with his family and hold up as best we can the heavy mantle of sorrow that engulfs them.

Young Pagan believed in the rightness of his part in the mission to Vietnam. He was not unwilling to do whatever his duty demanded there, and he believed in the good intentions of his country in attempting to halt Communist aggression in that area. In short, Gary Pagan was a patriot.

Many, too many, young Americans have died for their country. No use dwelling here on the relative few who march, and shout and go unwashed — and damn the country that nurtured and protected them in their warped growing up. It's the fine, clean, Christian young Americans like Gary Pagan who will save this country in the end. May those who give their lives along the way not have died in vain.

Whatever is the right or wrong of the American involvement in Vietnam, history may finally record. Right now, America's finest young men are fighting and dying there. They deserve support with every ounce of their country's power that the mission might be successfully accomplished with as few as possible further losses.

Gary Pagan has given the last full measure of devotion to his country. He now stands in the never-to-be-forgotten ranks of America's heroic dead. And a grateful community and nation mourn.

CAPITALIST HOLIDAY

The first Presidential Proclamation of a day of Thanksgiving in the United States was made by George Washington, in 1789. The day was set aside for prayers and thanks for the new Constitution. Several states continued the practice, each designating its own day.

Abraham Lincoln was the first President to appoint an official Thanksgiving Day, to be celebrated each year on the last Thursday of November. Lincoln issued the Proclamation on October 3, 1863. Since that time the Nation has joined, on one day, in saying its prayers of Thanksgiving, and in remembrance of the small band of religious fugitives who landed, accidentally, at Plymouth Rock.

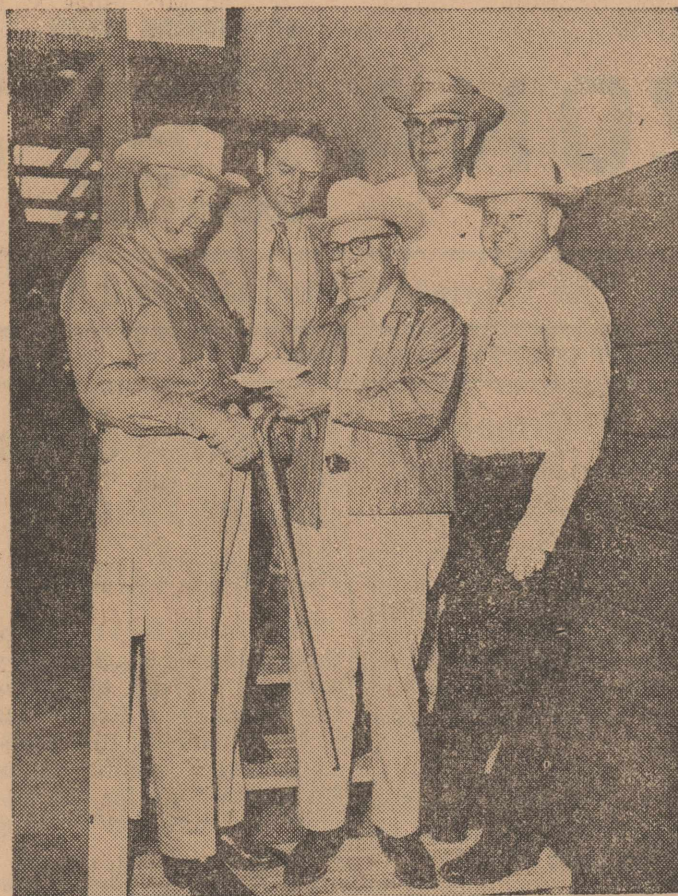

A fact too often forgotten concerning the Pilgrim Fathers is their trial — and abandonment — of the communal system of joint ownership and community labor in the colony. A primary reason for their early hardships on the North American continent was the effort to form a Socialist society.

At first, the young colony seemed to be working, but following the first "Thanksgiving," the colony went into a tailspin. Many found that under the system all shared equally so that not a few began to absent themselves from the fields. Naturally they feigned illness and naturally the number of absentees increased.

The crops failed, and the "starving time" soon followed. Things became so bad in 1623, just three years after they had landed, that the best they could provide for new arrivals from the mother country was a freshly-caught fish, a lobster, and a cup of water. It was a disastrous come-down after the bountiful feast of 1621, when they had hosted Chief Massasoit and 90 of his braves.

And so it was that in that same year of 1623, Governor William Bradford, at the urging of the governing council, established the free enterprise system, and the Plymouth Plantation began to grow and to prosper.

The Pilgrims had learned their lesson the hard way. But, from the agony of "the starving time" there has grown the most productive and most wealthy civilization that the world has ever known. In Thanksgiving, it has shared the product of its hard work with virtually every nation in the world. Thanksgiving is truly a capitalist holiday.

POLLS AND PUBLIC OPINION

This election year has brought the future-gazing pollsters and their computers into the limelight to a much greater degree. The question has repeatedly come up whether predictions of the future, now given the aura of scientific certainty, may not actually influence public opinion to the point of deciding the course of events.

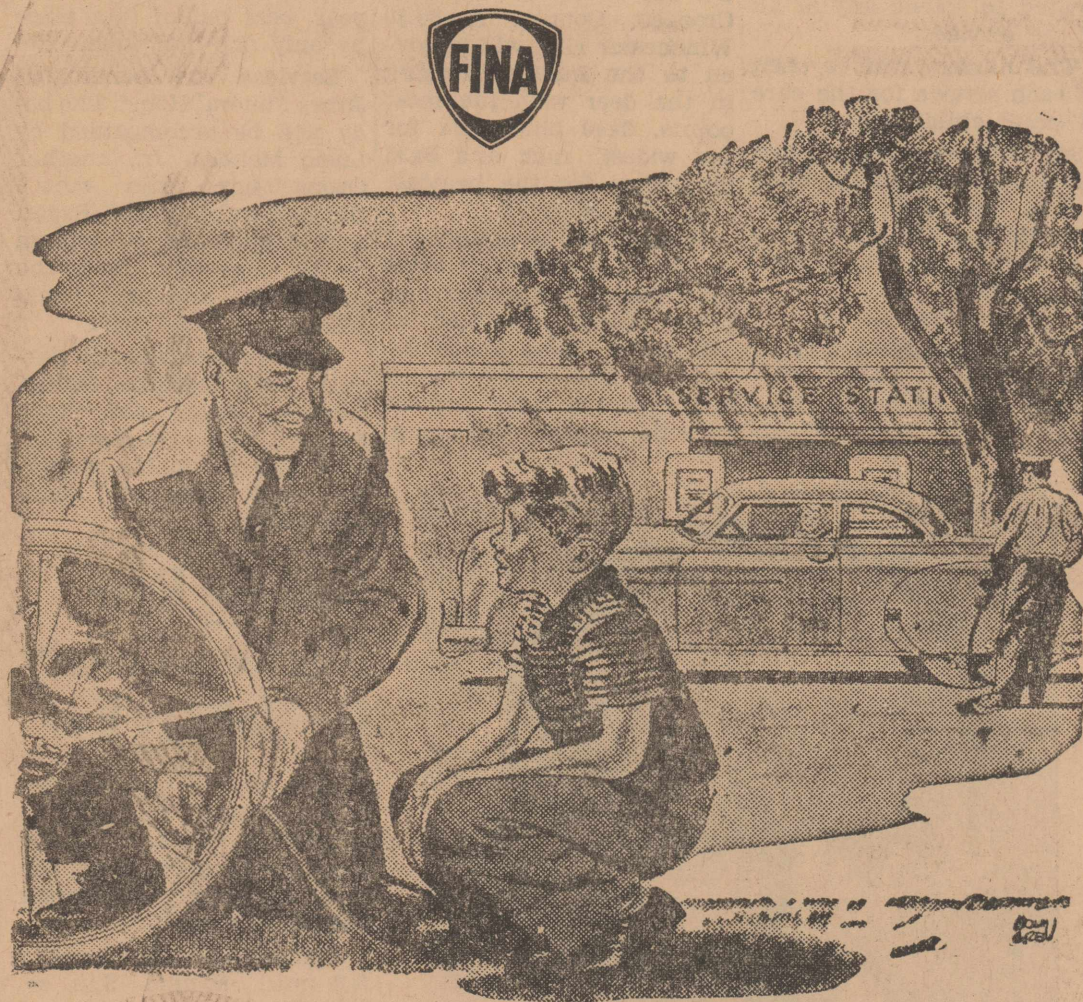

Perhaps when the dust has settled, the 1968 election will offer more clues concerning the effect of heavily publicized public opinion polls on public opinion. It seems likely that the human animal, contrary as he is, still votes for the man of his choice whether he thinks he is going to win or not. As long as the polls are truly and honestly taken, the right of the people to know the results of those polls and the freedom of the press to report them are fundamental in the United States.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

By Mencha Diaz

What do you think about tests?

Dennis D — I think they should be done away with.

Deena V — Although we don't like them, they seem to be necessary.

Marlin F — I like the tests, I just hate to take them.

Bud — They are just a little bit squirrely.

Gary L — Tests aren't bad; it's the studying that stinks.

Charles C — I never think about tests.

Vernon M — I really like tests, tests are fun. They are good, and they are good for you.

Tom — Spot says they're better than newspapers.

Betty A. M. — OK if you study (which I never do.)

Jeanie G — I take them, but I don't like them.

Cathy L — Yuk!
Becky C — They're alright! (except Mr. Well's)

INSECURITY IS:

By Ann Kaylor

Odilia — Not studying for a test

Simply — Not having a car when you need one

Mencha — Not being on the honor roll

Deena — An empty coke

machine

Ann — Not knowing what Irene will say next

Irene — Fear that Ann will hit me for what I say

Becky — Section rehearsals in band!

Bobby M — Knowing you have hurt Mrs. Hayes' feelings before a test!

John H — Knowing that the play, 1984 might flop!

Sandra C — Having a Grandmother living in Bean Creek, Tenn. like Mr. Guntherberg's

Randel Clepper — A wet blanket

Jackie J — Not having studied for a Civic test

Debra A — Not being able to get up in study hall

Marque A — Barely passing an English Test!

NOVEMBER CLASS MEETINGS

By Deena Vargas

The monthly class meetings were held last Wednesday morning after second period. The Senior Class filled out papers indicating their college choices and their majors. Also, they decided what names they wanted put on their diplomas. A theme for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was selected by the Junior Class at their meeting, and the committees began their planning. Jim Bob Bailey was selected to send out invitations to the annual Christmas Dance, which is sponsored by the Sophomore Class. They also began their planning for the event. The Freshman Class had nothing to discuss and held a study period in the library.

GOSSIP

By Vickey Walker

Who got sick in 5th period study hall, Simply? Did the B team girls finally win one? What did Mr. Sanders think about Kathy Lynn's high heels? Wonder when Mr. Moody is gonna wear his toupe? Where was Deaton during Algebra Monday? Were there lots of deer hunters in town this weekend. How about it, Chris? Who pushed all the cars up on the school campus Friday night? Does Jesse have a new fiamé? Does Coach Spieker really have a wooden eye? How about it, Coach? Who called the dog in 5th period study hall Friday? Does Farris really look like a combie? Is Mr. Reavis really Mr. Wizzard in disguise? Why was Coach Spiller running laps Monday? Charlene, did you have a fight with a barbed wire fence? Marla, are you good at fixing flats? Connie, do you seem a little happier lately? Wonder why? Is Mrs. Taliaferro really an ex-girl scout? Did the twirlers really travel first class to Brady? Kirk, do you always put your arm around Donald, even if it is in the play. Nan, why is it that some Jr. and Soph. girls think they know it all. Is it true that the basketball boys have to get haircuts?

THANKSGIVING: A TIME FOR THANKS

By Doug Blanton

Thursday, November 29, Thanksgiving Day will be 346 years old, making it the oldest national holiday in the United States. When the word Thanksgiving is mentioned, our first thoughts carry us to the kitchen. We visualize the kitchens overflowing with many good things to eat; we smell the odor of the turkey baking in the oven. All these things make us want the big day to come even sooner than it does. What we don't remember is that Thanksgiving is a day we set aside to say thanks to the Lord for being so good to us. We put this idea in the back of our minds and just think of our stomachs. For many, Thanks giving is the first of only two days when we get to eat turkey and dressing, pumpkin pie and other trimmings. As we sit down to this huge and elaborate meal, we see the table crammed with food. The table contains a variety of many things, and while we are sitting there stuffing ourselves, there are babies, children, and adults in many places in the world

(and some not very far away from us) crying out for just one small piece of dry, stale bread and a cup of water. We wouldn't know of this hunger; we have too much food now. Much of it goes to waste, and we could care less about the food being thrown away. There are some people who can only think of extending their powers among countries, and they will go to any extent to get these nations converted over to their form of government. There are children plodding through mud fields carrying guns and other supplies to try to prevent the Communists from taking over their nation. Many of these children and other people will lose their lives in the hard struggle for peace. While all this is going on, we are just finishing our meal. We then go into the den or living room and sit down to relax and watch one of the football games on the television. Our minds are miles away from this struggling that is going on in the world today.

We really don't know how lucky we are. None of this has ever touched us here at home. We must experience this before we know how lucky we really are. Before you dig into the dressing, cut the turkey, and fill your plate with more food than you can eat, stop for a few minutes and think back on all these things. Thank the Lord for making you the person you are, being able to sit down to a great meal like this, and having the opportunity to live in this great nation of ours. You will be glad you did, for Thanksgiving is the time for thank.

HARVEST FEAST

By Odilia Sanchez

A banquet, given by the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church, honoring the Seniors of 1969, was held November 21, 1968 at 7 p. m. at the Civic Center. Harvest 69 was the theme at the banquet. The Harvest Welcome was given by Mrs. Bobby Halydier, Woman's Missionary President. Gary Loudamy, Senior President, gave thanks for the food and all the Seniors sat down for the Harvest Feast. The menu was as follows: Roast Turkey, Dressing with Giblet Gravy, Cranberry Mold, Green Beans, Sweet Potatoes, Hot Rolls, and Apple Strudel. After eating, entertainment was provided by Buddy Winfield from San Angelo. The speaker at the banquet was Mr. Dean Rippe-toe, Chief Harvester. The benediction was given by Brother Jim Hancock, Pastor of the First Baptist Church. —OHS—

THE MAN OF TODAY

By Charlene Strickland

As I walked across the lonely land, I thought and wondered of modern man, Is he so great, so true, so kind, As all have said and set in mind? Does he really care, and try to succeed, Or only act and play a lead? Times are hard in the days of now, You can't just play and wonder how It all turned out with no sweat on your brow. Men are dying, do you not care, Or cry, and maybe say a prayer? Who be so bold as not to try, Only sit around in an age old lie? Get up and fight, help earn your freedom; Live, or be proud, for what been born Times are hard in the days of now, You must fight, have courage, But most of all, be proud. Tell me of this man so true Could it be he's really you? Do you think you're really best, Or only trying to fool the rest? Tell to me your thoughts brave one, Of your battles, and medals won. Times are hard in the days of now, Try not to lie cause where you're bound, Will not be on too sturdy ground. —OHS— FOR SALE — 4-bedroom house, den, 2 baths, central heat and air conditioning. To Be Thankful

It used to be that a picture like this could only mean harvest time — big orange pumpkins, shiny red apples, colorful stalks of Indian corn. And, of course, a turkey in the pantry. But what about today? You can buy apples almost any time. Pumpkins are available in a can twelve months of the year. And you can buy a frozen turkey as easily in July as in November. We Americans take for granted what was a real treat in our parent's time. But in the midst of this material plenty, there is a danger of spiritual famine. To keep the proper perspective, to appreciate the gifts of life to the fullest we need the Church and the story it has to tell. Maybe you can't be a pioneer — a Pilgrim. But you can follow your forefathers' example at Plymouth that first November. You can utter genuine thanks in the church of your choice.

Recipe of the Week

From Kitty's Kitchen

Lemon-Pecan Fruitcake
2 c. (one box) light brown sugar
1 lb. butter or margarine
6 eggs separated
2 c. flour
1 teas. baking powder
2 oz. lemon extract
1 qt. pecans
1/2 lb. candied cherries
1/2 lb. candied pineapple, dredged in flour
Beat six egg yolks and cream together with sugar and butter. Add slowly, beating after each addition, flour, baking powder and lemon extract. Add remaining ingredients in order, folding in stiffly beaten egg yolks last. Cover and let mixture stand overnight.

Cook in tube pan 1 1/2 hours at 250 degrees.
This is in Pat Barbee's recipe. She uses it during the holidays because her family doesn't like the traditional fruitcake. She says this cake stays moist to the last crumb.

A Mandate For Change

Though the presidential election had a photo-finish, it represents a mandate for major change in government policies. It was a close victory for Richard Nixon; but to get the real significance of the election one has to count the votes that went for George Wallace. Considered together, as they ought to be, the Nixon and Wallace votes represent a big majority of Americans who disapproved of the policies and programs of liberalism.

Whether the Nixon victory was big or little, the electorate decided that it is time for a change. The Great Society was repudiated, as were the specific solutions offered by the Johnson-Humphrey administration. It is clear that a majority of citizens don't like the way the war has been conducted in Vietnam. They don't like violence in the streets and anarchism on the campus. They don't like inflation that robs the ordinary citizen of his earnings.

Mr. Nixon will not have an easy time when he takes office January 20. His administration will inherit the terrible fiscal mess created by the Kennedy and Johnson administrations. Enormous sums have been wasted in the last eight years, such as the $6 billion poured into the War on Poverty without good results. Unfortunately, American taxpayers will have to pay the bills for the last two administrations for many years to come. They also will be paying for these wasteful programs in the form of inflation.

On the financial front, the need is to cut federal spending. The Office of Economic Opportunity, which runs the War on Poverty, should be abolished as an initial step to save resources. Foreign aid should be brought to a halt, except where it involves the security of essential military allies of the United States. The federal payroll should be pruned of unnecessary help recruited by the Kennedy and Johnson administrations.

Many, many things need to be done. For example, the Post Office Department should be placed on a pay-as-you-go basis under businesslike administration.

It is likely that Mr. Nixon will bring businessmen back into government and be business-oriented in his thinking. His experience of high-level government was during the Eisenhower administration when experienced businessmen were regarded as a national asset. All government programs need across-the-board appraisal from business teams, so as to weed out programs that retard the free enterprise system. No government can create prosperity for the United States. But the Nixon administration, if it makes the right decision, can help create the right climate for enterprising citizens and companies.

The response of Congress to the new administration will be of critical importance. Fortunately, the election returns indicate that the conservative coalition will be stronger than ever. The conservatives have picked up some good allies, such as Senator Edward Kurney (R-Fla.) and Barry Goldwater of Arizona, who will be welcomed back to the national scene. Those who believe in responsible government also have reason to rejoice at some of the retirement also have reason to rejoice, such as Senators Wayne Morse of Oregon and Joseph Clark of Pennsylvania.

Your first thought is that Chevy is a good looking pickup ...

1/2-ton Fleetside pickup

Here are some second thoughts:

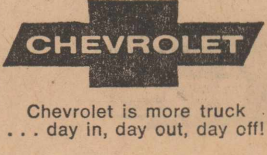

work truck
We could add hobby hauler to the list. Chevy trucks are great for rock hounding. Collecting antiques. Etcetera.
The point is: They're as versatile as anything on the road. Or off. Especially, four-wheel drive versions. They go anywhere.

playmate
Wherever you go, you go in style. Sleek front end features a new aluminum grille. In back, there's a new 8 1/2-ft. box on some models. Great for big campers.
Great under the hood, too. Six or V8. Standard on V8 models is a big 307 cubic-incher.

second car
Under the rugged chassis, coil springs take care of bumps. Inside, thick foam seats take care of you.
There's a lot more. And more you can order. Like: power steering and air conditioning. See your Chevrolet dealer for all the facts and the good word on low price.

Well, Everybody Can Be Thankful For SOMETHING!

Huntsville — The observance of Thanksgiving Day at all the units of the Texas Department of Corrections will have a special meaning for the prison system's 13,000 inmates. It's a day that inmates can reflect on the many blessings they have obtained through the prison's accelerated rehabilitation program made possible from net proceeds of the annual Texas Prison Rodeo.

Following the close of the rodeo held each Sunday in October, it is announced that the 1968 series netted more than any previous four-performance season. According to David Price, Rodeo Supervisor, rodeo profits are earmarked for educational, religious, recreational, and medical services not financed by the State funds.
