Kitty's Korner

Things are sort of calm today compared with what they were Monday when land owners along the Pecos River got word that a hearing on HB 682 was going to be held in Austin that night.

State Representative Hillary Doran got the word to property owners in his district and from word received here activity was just feverish elsewhere.

Telegrams, property owners and Rep. Doran were on hand for the hearing, in spite of the brief notice, and it is general opinion that the bill has been squelched.

The bill, cited as the "Natural Rivers Act," would allow the state to take from 400 feet to three miles of private property on either side of the rivers designated for public use.

After reading the bill, I felt that the tax payers in the state should be getting up in arms about it as well as the property owners. It provides that funds be appropriated for the whole thing. Since they are having such a struggle in Austin to decide what they should slap a state tax on next in order to have enough funds for the present budget, I can't see tax-paying Texans sitting still for the huge appropriation it would take if this bill were enacted.

For years we have needed a tax payer's lobby in Washington, now it seems we need one in Austin.

More help from adults is needed if the Little League program is going to get off the ground this year. They need fathers for managers and coaches in both the Little League and the minor league.

I know plenty of mothers who are willing, ready and able. If they don't fill the various positions soon with fathers, I am going to suggest that they give the girls a chance. I think they would probably do every bit as well as the fathers and please the fans even more.

It was a big disappointment to find that skirts are going to be as short as ever this spring and summer. However, I understand that one of the lingerie manufacturers is compensating for this by making girdles with ribbed lace ruffles on the legs.

This is compensation?

The flu bug seems to be making the rounds again. Most of the victims this time seem to be junior high and high school students and the illness seems of shorter durations than that of the first. However, it pays to take precautions, regardless of age. Stay in bed if you get it, and make an effort to keep your kids in bed if they come down with it. Of course, the latter is easier said than done and the older the kid, the harder to keep in bed.

Sen. McGovern of South Dakota is leading an all out fight against hunger in the nation. He seems to be doing a bang-up job and there is certainly no lack of publicity for his cause. I see him on the boob tube morning and night.

Since it is so near April 15, the deadline for filing income tax, my thoughts turned to the proposed tax reforms I heard about some time ago. I can't recall ever seeing any television interviews of the senators who are working for the tax re-

Crockett County Land Owners Join Statewide Organization For Brush Control Research

R. A. Harrell has been named chairman of the newly organized, statewide Brush Control and Range Improvement Association for Crockett county. Joe Tom Davidson will serve as vice-chairman and Lowell Littleton will serve as treasurer of the local organized group, according to county agent Pete W. Jacoby, who is assisting with the statewide organization.

The BCRIA was established last November by a group of livestockmen to fight one of the state's major agricultural problems — brush invasion of land throughout Texas. Each county has a leader representing the association.

Mr. Harrell said the BCRIA is a non-profit organization and is not directly associated with any university or company. The goal of the organization is to obtain contributions on the basis of one cent per acre, each year, for five years from landowners and other interested individuals and organizations to greatly increase brush control research. Surveys have shown that about 82 percent of Texas rangelands are infested with brush, cutting the animal carrying capacity by 50 percent or more. Despite much research in the past, greater financial help will be needed if the problem is to be solved.

Funds obtained at the county level will be pooled and used to support research and educational projects on brush control and range improvement. A project evaluation committee of landowners, appointed by BCRIA Chairman John Matthews of Abilene, will approve research projects submitted by universities and other agencies. Local leaders plan to ask that some of the research on brush control be carried on in Crockett county and county agent Pete W. Jacoby thinks this is highly possible if cooperation of local landowners is obtained.

Mr. Harrell states that all funds contributed to the BCRIA will be strictly accounted for and are tax deductible. Also, information from research sponsored by the Association will be available to each landowner.

Landowners desiring to support this program may hand their contributions to local leaders or leave their check with Mr. Littleton at the bank, where an account is being opened to receive contributions from local landowners. Landowners also may mail their contributions directly to John Matthews, state chairman of the BCRIA, P. O. Box 176, Abilene, Texas 79664. Checks should be made payable to the BCRIA.

Ozona Hi Golfers Win Third Place In Dist. Tourney

Crane won the Ozona high school District Golf Tournament last weekend with a team total of 321 for the day, followed closely by Big Lake with a total of 322. Ozona came in third with a team total of 333.

Drizzling rain plagued the players throughout the tournament, but David Williams, OHS sophomore, carded a 78 to tie for medalist with Crane's Stan Allen.

The Lions will participate in the Crane tournament Saturday and travel to Big Lake Tuesday. The Big Lake tournament was rescheduled for Tuesday after it was called off two weeks ago due to rain.

Ozonan Killed In Truck Accident In Overseas Oilfield

Billy D. Gillit, longtime resident of Ozona, was killed yesterday in Tripoli, Libya, where he had been employed by an oil company for about a year.

According to word received here, he was run over by a truck. Funeral services are pending arrival of the body.

His wife, Anna Rose, and two children, Randy and Paula, are living in Sonora, having moved there from Ozona when Mr. Gillit left for his overseas assignment. Other survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Gillit of Baird, former Ozonans; a brother, Jack Gillit of Ozona, and a sister living in California.

W. K. (Bill) RAMSEY, manager of the San Angelo District, West Texas Utilities Co., was elected a director of the company at its annual meeting Tuesday in Abilene. Mr. Ramsey, a frequent visitor to Ozona, is a native of Robert Lee. A WTU employee since 1936, Ramsey was District Manager of the McCamey district from 1954 to 1965.

Three Charged In Burglary Of School Building

Three persons, two adults and one teen-ager, were charged with burglary in connection with a break-in at the South Elementary School building here last Thursday night.

Justice of the Peace A. O. Fields set bonds at $1,000 each for Carlos Castillo, Jr., and Jesus Yruegas on the burglary charges and charges against Alex Garza, a minor, were transferred to the county court.

Entry to the building was gained through a window at the school building. Considerable damage was done inside the building in the principal's office, in the office of the school nurse and in some of the classrooms. The soft drink machine was broken open and a small amount of change taken, investigating officers said. An attractive aquarium in the sixth grade room, much admired by the pupils, was broken and its contents, including goldfish, spilled on the floor.

Sheep Field Day April 3 At A&M Experiment Stat.

Sonora — Area producers are invited to attend a Sheep Field Day, April 3, at the Texas A&M University Agriculture Research Station, 28 miles south of here.

Dr. Leo B. Merrill, associate professor in charge of the station, reports that field day activities will begin at 9:30 a. m. and conclude by 2:30 p. m.

During the morning, visitors can tour station facilities and inspect rams included in the performance testing program. A formal program is scheduled after a barbecue lunch to be served by the Sutton County 4-H.

Following opening remarks by Merrill, Jimmy Powell, local rancher and president of the American Wool Growers Association, will speak on "A Look at the Sheep Industry."

The idea of sheep on good and poor ranges will be discussed by Dr. M. M. Kothmann, associate range scientist and project leader for the Texas Experimental Ranch at Seymour. Kothmann formerly did nutritional research at the Sonora station. Ram test and other research results will be given by Jim Menzies, research associate at Sonora.

Funeral Here Saturday For Native Ozonan

Graveside services were held here at 5:30 Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Earle W. Sudderth, 54, of Dallas, who died Friday afternoon in Methodist Hospital in Dallas after a long illness. Services were held at 9 Saturday morning from a Dallas funeral home, the body brought here for burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Sudderth, the former Judy (Ponk) Friend, was a native of Crockett county, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Friend, pioneer Crockett county ranch family.

Mrs. Sudderth was born April 9, 1914, and was reared in Ozona. She attended schools in Ozona through the ninth grade, the family moving to San Angelo in 1929. She finished high school in San Angelo, graduating in 1931. She attended Texas Women's University, Southern Methodist University and was enrolled in the University of Texas at Austin when she married Earle W. Sudderth on Sept. 17, 1937.

The Sudderths moved to Dallas in 1942 where Mr. Sudderth became Sanitary Engineer for Dallas County and the city of Dallas, a post he has held since that date.

Prior to her illness in January for this year, Mrs. Sudderth lived part time on the nine section ranch in Crockett and Sutton counties which she jointly owned and operated with her husband.

Survivors include the husband; two sons, both Army medical officers, Major Jerry Friend Sudderth of Heidelberg, Germany and Captain Michael Earle Sudderth of Ft. Hood, Texas; a sister, Mrs. Floy Friend Hume of San Angelo, and three grandchildren, Scott, Terry and Deborah Sudderth.

Pallbearers for the graveside services here were Henry E. Drumwright and Martin C. Cude, Sr., of Dallas, Batts Friend, Bill Seahorn, Nat Read and Bud Sessom of Ozona.

Driver Unhurt As Unruly Car Leaves Highway

Only one minor accident was reported in the county this week, according to investigating officer Patrolman Orvil Perry.

The mishap occurred shortly after noon Sunday around seven miles west of town on Hwy 290. Larry Boswell, Jr. of Beaumont was approaching a curve, driving a 1963 Chevrolet, when he lost control and ran off the road on the right side, taking three metal posts up before skidding back across the highway, hitting another post and coming to rest on an embankment. Boswell was not injured and damage to the automobile was $100. Damage to the metal posts was $30.

Chairman Heart Drive Honored

Earl Palmer, regional director for the Heart Association, presented Mrs. Jake Young, local heart chairman, a certificate of appreciation from the Association Wednesday morning at her home here.

The Woman's Forum, who sponsored the drive here this year as a club project, also earned a certificate.

Donations for this year almost doubled last year's total.

High school and junior high school cheerleaders, led by head cheerleader Patricia Whitley, will be stationed on downtown streets and in the shopping center to pin Easter lilies on lapels of residents.

The girls will be dressed in their cheerleader uniforms and will be carrying the Easter Seal coin canister.

Bob Lilly of the Dallas Cowboys football team is serving as State Chairman for the Football Boys' Lilly Day for Crippled Children in Texas.

Lions Take 2nd In Track Meet At Crane Saturday

In spite of inclement weather and some key tracksters on the injury list, Coach Rip Sewell's Lions came in a close second in the Crane track meet Saturday. The Golden Cranes won the meet with 116 points, followed by the Ozona Lions with 103 points and Alpine with 99 points.

The Lions will leave here Friday for Plains where they will participate in a meet and will enter the District meet at McCamey Wednesday.

On the injured list last week were Greg Stuart, Fleet Coates, Randal Clepper, Mike Haire and Tommy Jenkins. All will be back in action this week with the exception of Greg Stuart, who is recuperating from knee surgery performed Friday in Shannon hospital in San Angelo.

Piling up points for the Lions Saturday were the 440 relay team with a sixth place, Arturo Torres third and Curtis Weant sixth in the 880 yard dash, Ernest Rios second in the high hurdles and Danny Manes fourth, Don Huff third in the 440 yard dash and Mark Tillman, fourth; Rodney Pagan, third in the 220 yard dash; mile run, Pete Perez, third, Luis Flores, fourth, and Bill Edgerton, sixth; mile relay, second; Pole vault, David Huff second and Will Collett sixth; Rios placed second in the high jump and Don Huff got a fifth place; David Pagan placed second in the discus event with Marlin Farris getting a third place; Farris placed fourth in the shot put with D. Pagan picking up a fifth place.

Two Deer Charge Pickup On Hiway

Deer in the south part of Crockett county are getting so numerous that they are jumping at cars in pairs now.

Ed Cranfill, West Texas Utilities Co. maintenance man, returning to Ozona from the south last week, mixed it in the middle of the highway with two does simultaneously. One animal hit a front fender and bounced off the company pickup's spot light and the other rammed into the door. Both animals, staggered off into the bar ditch, apparently no more than temporarily stunned, and the pickup suffered only minor dents.

Cranfill said he counted 38 deer in the highway right-of-way that night.

April 1 Final Day For Absentee Vote on Trustees

Ballots are available at the office of the county clerk for absentee voting in the April 5 district and county school trustee election. Absentee votes may be cast through Tuesday, April 1.

Three members are to be elected to the district board of trustees. The three present members whose terms are expiring this year are candidates for re-election to the posts and their names appear on the ballot. No other candidates filed for the offices but voters have the privilege, if they choose, to write in the name of any other person. Only three are to be voted for, consequently, any write-in name will necessitate a scratch of one name on the ballot.

District trustees up for re-election are Taylor Deaton, Charles E. Davidson, III, and Ray Boyd. Hold-over members of the board whose terms expire next year are Charlie Fuantoz, P. C. Perner, L. B. Cox, III, and Bill Seahorn.

Two members are to be elected to the county school board, an inactive board whose duties are concerned mostly with school property. Hillery Phillips, a candidate for county trustee from Precinct 1 and Wayne W. West for trustee at large.

Proposed River Legislation In Austin Shelved

A flood of opposition which developed as information leaked out at the last minute before a committee hearing Monday night on a bill which pointed to ultimate opening to public or park use of wide stretches of ranch land along the Pecos and Rio Grande rivers and Independence creek in West Texas has effectively killed the bill for now in the opinion of Representative Hillary Doran of Del Rio.

Representative Doran, who headed the opposition to the bill at the hearing, reported in a telephone call to the Stockman Tuesday morning that some 60 telegrams from the Ozona area were exhibited to the committee in opposition to the bill. Opposition was voiced by a delegation from Del Rio, from representatives of the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers Assn., from the Texas Farm Bureau and numbers of individuals.

Doran contended before the committee that the present strained financial condition of the state of Texas made absurd the consideration of such a vast expenditure, as is contemplated in this bill.

The bill was referred to a sub-committee which appears hostile to the legislation, Doran reported.

Advancing Front Brings Rain To Much of County

Rain and drizzle Saturday amounted to .67 of an inch of moisture here and up to 1.3 inches fell in rangeland west of here Saturday night.

One-half inch up to an inch of rain fell in the southern part of the county and north of town there were reports of over an inch.

The weekend fall brought the total for the year to 3.51 inches.

A GREAT COUNTRY

Only a few days ago an eyewitness was telling of an eye-opening experience at the height of the Great Depression, in 1933. It seems that there was a public sale in this farming community in central Illinois. It was a raw, windy March morning. And the atmosphere was even colder.

The ladies from the Methodist church had set up a stand in the front of the garage which housed a 1928-model pick-up truck. One could buy a quarter of an apple pie and a scalding cup of black coffee for a dime. It was a way to keep the hands warm, and the innards alive. Promptly at 12:00 noon, a deputy sheriff clanged the dinner-bell, and the sheriff mounted a big hayrack standing in the barn lot, followed by the county clerk. The taxpayer's delinquency sale was in progress.

A cold deputy led out a good-looking span of mules. It was a team that many neighbors had admired. Even several of the eleven neighbors of the tax-delinquent farmer, who had taken positions circling the platform of the hay-rack. Eleven of the brawniest. Peculiarly, each had browsed the implements and tools being sold, and picked one. A pitch fork here, a scythe there, a tow-chain. It was customary. It would be bid in when offered for sale.

"What," said the sheriff, "am I offered for this team of mules?" Even in those dread days, $160, $180, or $200 would have been expected.

"Ten cents," shouted the brawniest of the eleven. The silence was endless, or so it seemed. Neither the sheriff nor the county clerk nor any other would be buyer even breathed. And nobody moved. The county clerk knew that it was worth his life to end the sale — or to refuse the bid. The sheriff called "ten cents" three times, and recorded the sale.

A Fordson tractor brought 5 cents; a milk cow 3 cents; in the course of an hour-and-fifteen minutes, all the worldly possessions of a man and wife and 3 school-age children were auctioned for $52.15. There were no buyers other than the eleven brawny neighbors encircling the hay-rack. Each had a bill-of-sale for every item, duly inscribed by the county clerk.

When the last item was bid in, each of the eleven walked over to the coffee stand where a family watched in silence — and handed over the bill-of-sale for every article that had been auctioned. The government had $52.15 in revenue derived from sale for taxes. A man and wife and 3 youngsters had a clean slate.

This is a great country. It can't even be taxed to death.

Goode Stewart of Little Rock, Ark. is here visiting his sisters, Mrs. Jake Short and Mrs. Floyd Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Fields spent the weekend in Fort Worth visiting with Mr. Fields' parents.

IS THE CAVALRY COMING?

In any old movie depicting the Indian wars that abounded in the Old West you could safely bet that at the precise moment of greatest peril the US Cavalry would ride out of a cloud of dust. The bugler would sound the charge; the company pennon would appear, borne by a racing trooper, and alongside would be another bearing Old Glory. The renegade tribe would thereupon flee into the sunset horizon. If there was a heroine in distress, the camera probably recorded a tender embrace.

Unfortunately, history doesn't follow the portrayal. Nor is realism as big at the box office as dramatic fiction. The good guys do not always arrive in the nick of time, nor were the Indians as guilty of treachery in all instances as Hollywood conditioned us to believe.

In non-Hollywood fashion our colleges and universities are now under siege by villains. In appearance these rascals resemble the make-up man's creations somewhat — grotesque faces, bizarre costumes, beads hanging from unwashed necks. All that is missing is the cavalry. Buildings are being sacked and burned; innocent students are being held at bay and denied entry to the classrooms; but there is no relief column in sight.

Or is there? Every epic has a central figure; a rallying force; a hero. Enter S. I. Hayakawa. No relation to the Hayakawa of the silver screen is this take-charge guy. He has issued a warning to oppose the tribal tyranny with all the troops that he can muster, and the students with the "white hats" are responding. Students at San Francisco State College wear armbands to show their loyalties. The anarchists, the Communist-oriented and the New Left

Washington News Letter

Congressman O. C. Fisher

Invoking Federal Laws against those who engage in campus riots and other disrupting tactics, was promised last week by President Nixon.

The President — who recently commended the President of Notre Dame for saying he would suspend or expel any student who violated state laws or campus rules — let it be known that hereafter any student who takes part in a violent action on a college campus will forfeit any right to student loans and/or grants. This has been in the law two years, but has not been enforced.

At the same time, the Attorney General promised to use all facilities at his command to prosecute troublemakers who cross state lines to incite riots or other violence. That's been in the law for two years.

In the meantime, on scores of campuses student radicals and black militants continued their senseless battle against authority. Thus far only a few of the school officials involved have shown any courage or willingness to crack down on the culprits. All they have to do is expel them and then if they hang around, have the police come in and drag them off. The Students for a De-wear red; the conservatives, the moderates, and the legitimate liberals wear blue.

At other besieged universities, armbands are now appearing with a big letter "H" for Hayakawa, emblazoned on the fabric. The villains are beginning to run scared. They are worried that perhaps the cavalry is coming, after all.

Not the courts, mind you; nor the police; but the student cavalry.

mocratic Society (SDS), with chapters in many of the colleges, harbors anarchists and spearheads a good many of the campus disruptions. That group has the hammer and sickle written all over it. The SDS is the most recent — and the most brazen — of a long series of pro-Communist student organizations, committed to the American educational system and to other reddish objectives.

More of the states, including Texas, are beefing up their enrollment. They hope this will keep some of the radicals out.

Black Power and other radical student behavior has been likened to the conduct of the blacks in the Congo after Belgium gave them their independence four or five years ago. For a time wholesale criminal activity was the order of the day. Observers, at the time claimed that outburst revealed ignorance and low-level advancement in a civilized society. We wonder how those same observers would explain Berkeley, Columbia, Rutgers, Howard, San Francisco State, and scores of others where civilization is supposed to flourish.

WHAT IF

By Odilia Sanchez

Bud's Ranch house burned down.
 Odilia, Becky, Christina, and Deena didn't get a diploma from Abilene but a couple of boys.
 Seniors got to go to Mexico on their Senior day.
 People couldn't argue or get mad at each other.
 All steadies broke up.
 Chita wouldn't get mad with Snyder anymore.
 Deena didn't get to be queen of 5th of May.
 Richard Price didn't miss school so much.
 Seniors didn't get exempt from any final tests.
 Someone wrote a book called, 1001 Way to Get Out of Study Hall" (and not get caught)
 The Seniors only had one week of school left.
 The debate teams had beat all of those 4-A schools. Ha!
 All the Seniors got cars for graduation.
 Becky's boyfriend didn't have to go into the Army!
 The order for next years Senior rings got lost!
 Debora Bishop were shorter than Bobby Mayfield.
 We had more time to write our research papers.
 Some Senior girls would learn to quit leaving their purses around. How about it Pat Whitley and Irene Jones.
 What if John's and Irene's prayers didn't come true? Ha about it Ann?
 What if Susy's brownies really got eaten! Ha.

BAND CLINIC HELD HERE TUESDAY

By Doug Blanton

Tuesday, March 24, the Ozona High School Band held its Annual One-Day Band Clinic in the Band Hall. This clinic was conducted by Mr. Joseph C. Bellamah, director of bands at Texas A&I University.

The purpose of the clinic is to prepare the band before it goes to the UIL Concert Contest on April 25 at Cisco Junior College. The clinic is usually held closer to the time when the band goes to contest so the students can remember what Mr. Bellamah teaches them, but due to conflicts in the schedule this was the only time it could be held.

Mr. Sanders leads the band in the three contest numbers, Chant and Jubilo written by Francis McBeth, Tocatta for Band, by Frank Erickson, and the march is Jubiliums March which is written by Mr. Bellamah himself. While the band is playing these numbers, Mr. Bellamah makes notes on the areas which need work. When the band is through with the numbers, Mr. Bellamah then takes charge.

Working on one number at a time, Mr. Bellamah picks out the weak spots in each piece, and works to improve these spots. After an hour and a half practice, Mr. Bellamah then conducts section rehearsals. He takes this time to work with each group separately and with individual people, trying to improve their playing.

After lunch, work continues. To end the clinic, Mr. Bellamah conducts the band through the three numbers to see that the students play each part correctly, and follow the many instructions and tips he has given throughout the day.

When the 3:38 bell rings, the clinic is officially over. Mr. Sanders, Mr. Bellamah, and the band members themselves usually agree that the long day of hard work has been a success.

YOUNG MARRIAGES

By Deena Vargas

Young marriage, can usually be considered a mistake. Everything will be fun and roses for awhile, but the fun will soon come to an end then the arguments begin. The daily routine will begin and soon it will become so boring that the couple will be constantly irritated with each other.

ple will be constantly irritated with each other.

They will not have the money to go out as they used to before they were married. It was much simpler then, because his parents financed their dating, but now they are barely making out with his salary, thus they can't afford to go out and have a good time. All this time they are silently thinking to themselves what fun they could be having if they weren't married, and blaming each other for missing out on it.

They won't get to see their friends as often as they would like to. The boy will want to go out with the boys but she won't want to be left alone. The girl will want to see her friends, but he won't want a bunch of giggling girls around, so that leaves them both lonely and miserable.

A fight may form from this and even result in a separation. She'll run home to her parents, realizing that she no longer wants to be married; and he'll realize that he doesn't want to give up his fun, in order to support a wife.

The young couple finally realize that they really didn't love each other enough to give up everything else, and settle down.

They hadn't stopped to think that now was the time to have fun, and that there would be plenty of time to marry later; for marriage is something that lasts forever, not just for a little while at a time.

Tulips For a King

The lake is green today. Sparkling waves ripple across its surface, borne of the same gentle breeze that ruffles through my tulips. I walk among them, filling my arms with beauty, listening to the murmur of early morning.

Soon I gather up baskets of orange and scarlet, pale pink and lemon yellow and hurry to the church in the valley.

My heart is full. I'd come to this church, some months ago, burdened with sorrow. Here, I'd found comfort and purpose in the life and teachings of God's Son. Since then, I'd been happier than I ever thought possible.

Now, in the stillness, I whisper a long-ago psalm, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" And I see Hosannas gently among palm branches, as though in His presence.

Attend your church. Find the joy and happiness you've been seeking. Sing hosannas to the living Lord.

Sensing The News

By Thurman Sensing

Executive V. P. Southern States Industrial Council
The 'Hunger' Sensationalists

In recent months, Senator George McGovern (D-SD) and a pack of "hunger hunters" in the U. S. Senate have had a field day trying to present rural America, especially the Southern States, as a region of starvation. In recent weeks, for instance, Senator McGovern called on the U. S. Agriculture Department to use food surpluses in "places like Beaufort, S. C., where the children get half the calories they need each day — and the worms eat much of that." Indeed, the Senator has had some success, for he pressured the federal government to set up its food stamp distribution in Beaufort.

Hunger is the "big thing" politically this year. A number of politicians apparently believe that it will pay off at the polls. Overnight, some politicians are discovering malnutrition as an issue.

Now, the fact is that malnutrition exists in some areas in the United States. There is hunger. Everyone knows that. It isn't necessary for a politician to make a big discovery out of it. To be sure, the problem of malnutrition is a limited one. It has been blown all out of proportion by the politicians and the sob sisters of the New Left.

The relevant questions are: why are some children hungry in the richest nation in the world? What should be done about it?

If anyone is hungry in America, it is not because the system is wrong or because community leaders are hard-hearted. Never in history have so many people been so well off in any nation as in America today. The vast majority of Americans know that the free enterprise system is a truly workable system. They obtain the fruits of their labor. More than that, this is a generous society in which we live — generous to a fault.

Every community has an abundance of church, volunteer and civic agencies that seek to help those who are in want. It can't be argued that affluent Americans are indifferent to the plight of the needy.

So why are there hungry children? The answer to that is ignorant, shiftless and morally irresponsible parents. Take Beaufort County, for example, which has been singled out for criticism in the mass media. It isn't a hardship county. On the contrary, it is the site of major military installations, with big payrolls, and has a tourist business. Thousands of Beaufort County residents enjoy a good life. But like hundreds of counties in every state in the union, it has a small element of people who haven't adjusted to a self-reliant society or who prefer a dependent existence.

If one looks at these poverty pockets around the nation, one finds women with six children by as many fathers, homes with color television but no heating stoves, houses with big cars parked outside but no plumbing — not even a sanitary privy. One finds children whose mothers and fathers have moved to big industrial cities and sent their youngsters home to be supported by aged grand parents, men and women who buy a couple of quarts of liquor on payday but no beans and bacon. One finds people who represent the third generation on relief.

A county or state government can't be blamed for the problems of such people, including the hunger. The federal government — the New Deal, Fair Deal, New Frontier, Great Society — is to blame for an environment in which no-work is rewarded with government aid and dependence is encouraged.

In the recent sensational "hunger" disclosures, the Nixon Administration has been persuaded to loosen rules governing distribution of food stamps. But the federal government could give away millions of dollars worth of food stamps and still not eliminate poverty or the tragedy of hungry children. Last year New York City alone had 870,000 people receiving relief checks. There is no end to dependency and to giveaways.

What is needed is order in the hard-core poor. Able-bodied men must be compelled to work instead of lying about the house except when they go downtown to pick up their welfare checks or go to the liquor store. The "permissiveness" that is much discussed today is especially unfortunate with respect to those on relief. Lacking self-discipline, the hard-core poor need to be subjected to external discipline — requirements that they clean their dwelling places, observe sanitation rules and spend their money — the aid they receive — on food, not booze. This is what should be done, but will it be done? It is time that leaders, speak up who will "tell it like it is."

Recipe of the Week
From Kitty's Kitchen

Oatmeal Pie
3/4 cup sugar
3/4 cup corn syrup
3/4 cup quick oatmeal
1/2 cup coconut
1/2 cup butter
2 eggs, well beaten
(recipe calls for dark corn syrup, but I like the light better).

Mix all ingredients together and pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in 350-degree oven 45 to 50 minutes.

This pie was sold at the concession stand in Big Lake during the basketball season. That was some time ago and I have scrounged around all this time trying to get the recipe. Alice Collett found it for me in a dessert cookbook of favorite recipes from home economists all over the nation. If you like pecan pie you are sure to enjoy this one.
