Kitty's Korner By Kitty Montgomery

After observing pant dresses on grown women, I have come to the conclusion that they are strictly for kids. I certainly am thankful I had this opportunity before I bought one. They look just great from the front, but the rear view is something else. This is one style that would soon be on its way out if every woman could get a rear view of herself wearing one and bending, even slightly.

In spite of the fact that it was a holiday and hard to get a crowd together, Ozonans outnumbered those in the caravan from Midland last Friday.

A group of us gathered in the park at the appointed time, the sheriff, accompanied by Mr. White and Mr. Fields drove out to escort the caravan to town. Mr. Baker, of the chamber of commerce set up tables and chairs in the park, special-ordered 5 dozen donuts, the judge was on hand to greet the Midlanders and I was there with my trusty camera. About that time, a car drove up and two couples alighted. We assumed they were tourists, but it came to pass that they were the delegation from Midland.

According to a letter sent to the Ozona chamber last week, there were to be thirty or more people end eight or more cars making the tour. So it's little wonder that the escort was still sitting at the Pandale road turn-off waiting for the caravan while we were greeting it.

As far as having a big crowd from out of town, the whole thing was a flop. But, we all went home with fresh donuts and pride in the fact that no matter how many people are out of town on a holiday, in Ozona we can always get a passable crowd of dignitaries together on a moment's notice.

One Ozona family had more graduates this year than they could say grace over. When Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Huff's eldest son, Joel, graduated Saturday from the University of Texas, it made their fourth graduate in less than two weeks. Their twins, Donald and David, graduated from high school the week before and the day before that their youngest son, Gerald, graduated from junior high. That's a lot of graduates.

A lot of havoc was created last Friday by two little twirps with a pile of rocks. It was reminiscent of the early days in rural areas of our country when the backward 18-year-old burned the school house down to get out of the second grade. I feel like these kids started in to knock out every window pane in the building. If they had not been disturbed, I'm sure they would have done it too. The only rooms that escaped were the principal's office and the teacher's lounge and they were toward the end of the building. Ten good-sized rocks were found in the library, where each pane of glass had more than one hole in it.

The sheriff's department is still investigating and the taxpayers are hoping in the end the culprits' parents will have to finance the new windows rather than them.

My son Jim has reached the point in life when he is thinking about the day he (Continued on Last Page)

Texas Agri-Tour Mobile Unit To Be Here June 23

The Texas Department of Agriculture's popular Agri-Tour mobile unit will be in Ozona Monday afternoon, June 23, showing an interesting collection of slides to familiarize Texans with the high quality Texas Agricultural Products.

The 56-foot long traveling slide show will be open to the public in the parking lot in front of the Foodway Store in the village shopping center. The unit will be in Sonora Tuesday and in Eldorado on Wednesday and then in San Angelo during the Miss Wool of America pageant in San Angelo Coliseum on June 26.

The trailer's appearance is made possible through the cooperative effort of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Assn. the Mohair Council of America and the Texas Department of Agriculture. Operators of the colorful presentation are Mr. and Mrs. Jess Moreland who have traveled thousands of miles throughout the state with the exhibit.

The exhibit features a narrated color slide program that tells the story of Texas fibers. Of special interest will be the color slide show showing the 1969 Miss Wool and Mohair Pageant at the Apparel Mart in Dallas May 26 and the garment display.

Book Fans Show Keen Interest In Library Opening

A great deal of interest was evident Monday night as the library opened from 4 until 8 o'clock to begin the summer schedule. A total of 66 books was circulated. Most of the patrons were adults.

Miss Mildred North, librarian, will be assisted this summer by Mrs. Jerry Hayes. Many new books are being processed daily and book fans will find a much wider selection on the shelves this summer than ever before.

Throughout the summer the library will be open Monday, Wednesday and Thursday nights from 4 until 8 p. m. and on Tuesday mornings from 9 until 12. The public is urged to take advantage of the facility during the summer months.

Defending champions are Bill Clegg of Ozona and Jake Broyles of Fort Stockton.

TEXAS AGRI-TOUR mobile unit will be in Ozona June 23 and in San Angelo for the Miss Wool of America pageant on June 26. The traveling color slide show featuring the 1969 Miss Wool and Mohair pageant at the Apparel Mart in Dallas on May 26, is open to the public. The unit will be set up on the Village Shopping center parking lot.

Weather Front Brings Welcome Rain To County

A severe electrical storm late Tuesday night dumped 1.58 inches of rain on Ozona, bringing the total rainfall for the day to 1.68 inches. Light rain Tuesday morning amounted to .10 of an inch.

The rain fell in sheets, whipped by strong winds. Light hail also fell, but was small and hardly noticeable.

A cool front moved into the area Sunday and brought an end to a week of unseasonably hot weather. The front also brought unsettled weather to West Texas. However, Ozona and surrounding area has escaped the heavy hail storms and tornados which plagued some other cities in the area. The forecast calls for turbulent weather throughout this week.

The rain was general throughout the county with up to an inch in the south sections, an inch and a half in the western part and an inch and over north of town.

Dry, hot weather was showing its effects in the county before the Tuesday night rain, the first appreciable amount of moisture in a month.

Dinner On Ground Honors Pastor On 2nd Anniversary

Members of the congregation of the First Baptist Church expressed appreciation for the ministry of their pastor, Rev. Jim Hancock, and Mrs. Hancock, Sunday when they observed the second anniversary of The Hancock's ministry here with dinner on the ground following Sunday morning services.

The dinner was spread in the back yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Coates and was attended by more than a hundred members and friends.

At the end of the dinner, the church membership gave more concrete expression of their love and appreciation for the Hancock's when they presented them with a food freezer followed by an old fashioned "pounding of the preacher."

Story Time Hour For Children Set Tuesday Mornings

Storytime, sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi sorority, will be held each Tuesday morning from 10 until 11 o'clock throughout the summer, beginning June 17.

Members of the sorority take turns reading to the children and books are also available for circulation. All Ozona children are invited to participate.

Parents will be asked to pick up children promptly at 11 o'clock. If the child is to walk home a note must be sent by the parents for the benefit of the adult reader.

Two Minor Auto Accidents Mar County Record

Two automobile accidents marred the holiday weekend in the county, but there were no serious personal injuries.

Frank Henning of Comstock was slightly injured Friday afternoon when the old-model Chevrolet he was driving hit a bridge railing ten miles west of Ozona on Hwy 290. Henning said a truck crowded him onto the bridge railing. Henning was treated for minor injuries and released.

Sunday morning at 2 a. m. a deer dashed in front of a late model Ford pickup driven by Dionico Molina of McCamey on Hwy 137 about 7 miles northwest of Ozona. Molina was traveling toward Ozona when the accident occurred. He was not injured, but damage to the vehicle was heavy.

Patrolman Orvil Perry investigated both accidents.

Tuesday morning at 9:15 a two-vehicle accident 14 miles west of Ozona on Hwy. 290 was caused by wet pavement. The mishap involved a county-owned pickup driven by Oneimo Ortiz of Ozona and a car driven by Jay Lynn Brawley. Miss Brawley was traveling east and lost control as she rounded a curve. The car slid across the road and sideswiped the oncoming pickup. Damage to the car was $75 and to the pickup, $450. Neither driver was injured.

Observe 30th Anniversary Of Little Leagues

Bill Lewter, president of the Ozona Little League Assn., said this week that the local league will join the nation next week in observance of National Little League Baseball Week, celebrating the 30th anniversary of the organization.

The public is urged to attend the little league games next Monday and Thursday nights when special events have been scheduled to commemorate the week, by the 60 Ozona Little Leaguers.

Originally set aside in Presidential proclamations by the late Presidents Dwight Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy, Little League Week calls for nationwide attention to the movement as a wholesome, beneficial experience for boys throughout the world.

Shotgun Shoot Planned Sunday

A shotgun shoot will be held Sunday at the rifle range for members of the Ozona Rifle club. The shoot will begin at 2 p. m.

Royce Hightower won the first place trophy at the rifle shoot held recently. Second place went to Lee Harris, of Eldorado, and fourth to Jim Weant.

Flying WRancher Cop First Half Championship

Flying W Ranchers, with 6 wins and 3 losses, emerged as champions of the first-half of Little League play Thursday night when they squeaked by B&B Grocers by a score of 6-5. Moore Oil downed Ozona Oil 8-5 to take the second spot with a record of 5-4. Ozona Oil, leading the pack until losing the last four games, came in third with 4-5 and B&B remained last with 3-6.

Going into the final game in the first half of play, Moore Oil and Ozona Oil were tied for the second slot 4-4. Moore Oil broke the tie by defeating Ozona Oil 8-5 in the first game Thursday night. Moore Oilers jumped out to an early lead and were 7-0 in the third inning. They held off a surge by the Ozona Oilers in the fifth and scored again before the game ended. Henry Fay and Ronald Perry led the winners' hitting attack with two hits each and Ronald Koerth had two hits for the losers.

The Ranchers cinched the championship of the first half in the second game with the Grocers. Ray Vargas was the winning pitcher and Dan Crowder the loser. The Ranchers scored 4 runs in the second inning and two in the third, holding off a surge by the Grocers in the fifth and sixth innings. The Grocers loaded the bases in both innings, but were unable to score. Eric Fitzhugh led the hitting for the Ranchers with three and Dan Crowder got three hits for the Grocers.

Second half play will begin Monday with a double header featuring Moore Oil vs. Flying W and Ozona Oil vs. B&B Grocers. Game time is 6:30 p. m. All second-half games will begin at 6:30. Seven games will be played in the second half, ending June 30.

Former Hondo Pastor Named to Ozona Methodist

Rev. John Berkley, former pastor of the Hondo Methodist Church, has been appointed pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church and will assume his duties here next Sunday. Appointment was made by Bishop Eugene Slater and announced Saturday in Corpus Christi at the closing meeting of the annual of the Southwest Texas Conference.

Dr. R. F. Curl, former pastor here, will serve the Methodist Church at Hunt for the next year. He and Mrs. Curl moved to their home in Kerrville two weeks ago. The Hunt church is only 12 miles from the Curl home in Kerrville.

Rev. Berkley is married and has two children, eleven and eight years of age.

DPS Plans Radio Station In Ozona If Fund Approved

An expenditure of $54,585 for construction of a Department of Public Safety (Highway Patrol) radio station in Ozona is contemplated in the DPS appropriations bill now waiting signature or veto by Gov. Preston Smith.

The Ozona radio station is one of three West Texas projects contained in the Department's appropriation bill just passed by the legislature. Other projects include a $55,000 appropriation to buy land and build a transmitter station at Lampasas and $8,000 to complete construction of the DPS office in Kerrville.

The construction of a radio station in Ozona is contingent on Crockett county's furnishing land and a transmitter tower. County Judge Bernice Jones said that she had had no information on the proposed station construction and that as yet no overtures had been received from the state for land or construction of a transmitter tower. It is presumed that if and when the bill is signed by the governor, further plans will be revealed by the Department.

Ranch Accident Results In Broken Arm For Youth

Buddy Couch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Couch, is recovering from broken bones in the wrist and fingers of his left hand, suffered last week when he was thrown from his horse at his ranch home west of town.

The accident occurred when young Couch attempted to mount his horse and the saddle slipped, causing the horse to pitch. He was rushed to the hospital here and then transferred to San Angelo where he received treatment from a bone specialist.

TWO BOYS SOUGHT - Vandals Break 149 Windows In N. Elementary

Vandalism took its toll Friday afternoon at North Elementary school where 149 window panes were broken. Rocks were thrown through windows into classrooms all around the one-story brick building. The only two rooms without broken windows were the teacher's lounge and the principal's office.

Cost of replacing the broken glass will run from $750 to $1,000, according to Supt. L. B. T. Sikes.

Mrs. Harry Joslin reported that she was awakened about 2:30 Friday afternoon by noise coming from the school ground directly across the street. She discovered two small boys with bicycles in front of the school. They were gone by the time the vandalism was discovered and she was unable to identify them. However, she said that one boy had on a blue shirt and the other's shirt was gold. Officers and school officials are investigating.

Officials guessed that it took nearly two hours to damage the school so badly and that the rocks probably were carried to the school since there are no rocks of any size around the building.

TIPS For Gardeners
From The Ozona Garden Club

Gladiolas or sword lilies are among the all-time garden favorites and are perhaps used for more weddings, bouquets for the sick, and win more blue ribbons in flower shows than most any other flower. If bulbs were not planted deep enough, staking may be necessary as they begin to bloom. Keep them reasonably moist and well cultivated. Give them good cultivation and plenty of water for two months after blooming. They should be replaced about every three years for the best flowers.

Climbing roses which bloom only once a year should be pruned now. Be sure to cut out the old and dead canes.

Much chrysanthemums and feed every two weeks with liquid fertilizer.

June is the month to apply summer feeding to your lawn. Keep well-watered if dry weather continues.

One of the most rewarding flowers with the least care are day lilies. They are blooming all over town now. Visit a garden where they are in bloom and perhaps select a variety you may desire.

The Ozona Garden Club wishes to thank the county and others who have helped in any way to clean vacant lots and keep city parks attractive.

Rambling Reflections
By Dr. R. F. Curl

By the kindness of Mr. White and Kitty I enjoy at least one more word with hundreds of Crockett County friends. (By the way Kitty was at Church to hear me preach at my last service. I am praying the Lord will give her an extra star in her crown for that. Now, I guess, her only problem is to get the crown; but I believe she will make it.)

I have been attending Methodist Annual Conferences for more than fifty years. I have always found them gala occasions of fellowship, inspiration, and hard work.

The one in Corpus Christi proved as lively and stimulating as any I ever attended.

Let me lift up a few seeming moods of Methodists in these days as evidenced in this conference.

1. Methodists are becoming more lay oriented and directed. Never have I seen larger lay attendance and participation. Legally all Methodist churches have at least one lay delegate to sit with their minister in this most important Methodist body. Too often, however, the lay representatives do not attend, or if in attendance, do not speak out.

This was in no way true last week. Lay attendance was large and lay voices rang out strong and clear in hotly contested floor debates. I conclude that the lay influence directed almost every action of the conference on controversial issues.

Lay delegate from Ozona was Mr. R. A. Harrell, who with his wife and Cynthia, was present throughout the sessions. Unfortunately the additional representatives from Ozona, Mrs. Roy Henderson and Jack Baggett, were unable to be present.

2. Perhaps lay attendance and participation accounted for the very pronounced trend toward conservatism. I have seen no recent Methodist Conference as pronouncedly conservative as this one.

Such conservative trend was indicated by the rejection, with a vote of considerably more than two to one against, of a proposal that the Annual Conference join Project Equality.

As you know membership in this organization pledges the participant to an exact employment and promotion of its own personnel on a strict racial and ethnic basis. It also requires that purchases of goods and services shall be made only from those observing the same policy.

Personally I believe in every man's right to employment on the basis of his character, ability, and performance without any discrimination on any such purely extraneous matter as the color of skin or the accident of birth into some ethnic group. I long and pray for the day when this will come to pass throughout the world.

But I do not see that this will ever come by legislative fiat or church resolution. Neither I nor Mr. Harrell spoke on this issue although I was able to add an amendment to the proposition which, I think, lessened somewhat its chances of passing. Both Mr. Harrell and I voted against the Southwest Texas Conference joining Project Equality.

This only means, however, that in the long run the community of Ozona and others throughout the nation must labor more diligently to give completest opportunity to all to prepare and advance on the merit of their native and acquired abilities without discrimination.

Let me mention two other actions illustrating the conservative trend of Southwest Texas Methodists. One was a resolution asking the General Conference in its session next year so to clarify a previous action of that body on "The Rule of Law and the Right of Dissent" as to make it plain beyond any doubt that The United Methodist Church stands for obedience to law, against violent demonstrations, and that if any man's Christian conscience demands of him to refuse to obey some law then he must not break another law in his disobedience and that he must not seek to associate others with himself in refusing to obey this particular law and must in any disobedience be ready to accept the punishment society has established for such disobedience.

This resolution was passed almost unanimously with both Ozona representatives in the large affirmative majority. I did not speak on the matter although I was able to secure the adoption of an amendment setting forth the historic Methodist position that all Christians should give moral strength and purpose to their governments by their own sober, righteous, and godly living as citizens.

The one additional matter illustrative of the conservative bent of the Conference came out of action concerning the demands of Mr. James Forman and his "Black Manifesto." You have seen reference to this, I am sure, in the press as it provoked more publicity than any other matter before the conference.

I participated in writing the resolution and had a major part in the floor debate. The Resolution, while declaring the Historic Christian and Methodist position of responsibility to assist all hungry and needy people, declared that we as a Church would not be able to co-operate with nor would we tolerate or recognize the threats, demands, and ultimatums of groups such as those headed by Mr. Forman. The Resolution also requested all ecumenical and denominational bodies to make clear their total rejection of the racist, separatist, violent, revolutionary and Marxist ideology found in the "Black Manifesto."

So much for the conservative mood of the Conference. I wish I might write about the more fundamental features of the Conference: the wonderful Christian fellowship, the high inspiration of worship and great preaching, the searching probe into the meaning of the ministry, the fine group — the largest in numbers in years — admitted and ordained into the ministry, the gentle, kind, and yet firm hand of the presiding Bishop, our own Eugene Slater. But neither my time nor the columns of the Stockman permit this.

But do let me introduce to the community the new pastor who will come into Ozona today to serve the Methodist Church and Community. In my opinion the Bishop could not have made a better choice. John Berkley came from a very successful pastorate at Hondo where the people had no desire to see him go. My wife and I first came to know him and his lovely wife, Nana, and their two children — now 11 and 8 years of age — as Agua Dulce when I was for a few months his district superintendent. The people in that community, whom we have know for forty years loved him and had no desire to let him go.

But when we came to Conference that year and the Bishop and his Cabinet (the district superintendents) met, one chief concern was to find a man who could go to Palacios where Hurricane Beulah had destroyed both the Methodist church and parsonage as well as most of the town. The task of finding a man able to lead a congregation, broken and in distress, and dismay, and also willing to take the task was not easy. John was not in line, being then very young, for a congregation that large and a task that difficult. But I took it on myself to guarantee to the Bishop and the cabinet that John could do the task.

My judgment was validated as he and his wife went into that community and in four years time left a Church with spirit restored, property more adequate, and love and respect for John, his family and their leadership.

The pastorate of John Berkley will mark a new and better day for Ozona Methodists if the Church unites in complete co-operation. He will prove an effective, yet modest and humble servant, to the whole county. I feel good to know that he shall stand in what I have come to think of as "my" pulpit next Sunday.

Mrs. Curl and I are happy to have opportunity to serve an additional year before the law of the Church will compel me to retire — but not to cease to be a pastor and worker, which I hope our strength will enable us to do. We are simply delighted that the Bishop and his cabinet have seen fit to permit us to serve as full time pastor at Hunt, a lovely retirement and resort as well as ranching section, while living in our own home which is twelve miles from the Church.

We have a lovely rock Church building, a good parsonage — which means that with two houses we can put up more of you when you come our way — and a fine small congregation of people who work together, as do the Ozona people, for the cause of Christ.

I was saddened at the close of the Conference by the death of my last brother and last member of our family of 11 children save myself. We do not mourn his going for he had long been hopelessly sick and totally unable to turn in bed, feed himself, or live any life much above a vegetable. But to be left the last is, I find, hard.

Love and God's blessing on you all! I shall miss Louis Moeller, Jim Hancock and Frank Pullin greatly, hundreds of close friends especially, and you all tremendously. But I'll be seeing you!

Miss Nancy Bishop Becomes Bride Of Dennis Schraer In Saturday Ceremony In Rowena

Miss Nancy Lorraine Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bishop of Miles, became the bride of Dennis John Schraer son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Schraer of Rowena, Saturday afternoon, May 31, in St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Rowena. Fr. Louis Moeller of Ozona performed the ceremony.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white gladiolas and the altar was banked with white gladiolas.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of antique satin. The fitted bodice was highlighted with appliques of rosepoint lace sprinkled with seed pearls. The lace design was continued down both sides of the full skirt and bordered the chapel train. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and rosebuds. Her shoulderlength tiered veil was caught by a crown of satin, lace and pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls.

Maid of honor was Miss Joyce Schraer, sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Patsy Bishop, Patsy Schraer, Sue Smith, Charlotte Bock, all of Miles, and Sharon Pechacek of Garden City.

The attendants wore identical dresses of embroidered blue organdy, styled in shirt-waist and featuring long sleeves. They carried nosegays of blue flowers and wore headpieces of brief veils attached by blue flowers.

Best man was Larry Schwertner of Ballinger. Groomsmen were Harvey Schwertner of Miles, Maynard Schwertner of Rowena, Allen Ullrich of Miles, Daniel Seidel of San Angelo and Sylvester Schwertner of Miles.

Ushers were Denny Moore, Ray Don Schwerter, Allen Lange and Mark Heinze.

Ringbearer was Howard Seidel and flower girl was Donna Strotzman.

Nuptial music was furnished by Diane Book, organist. The soloist, Brenda Treadaway sang "The Twelfth of Never," and "Ave Maria."

Around 300 guests attended the church ceremony.

A reception followed the wedding in the parish hall of the church. Arrangements of gladiolas and rosebuds were used for decoration.

After a brief trip, the couple will be at home in Lubbock.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Miles High School and is a junior student at Texas Tech, majoring in Agricultural Education.

The bride is a graduate of Miles High School and Jean's College of Beauty in San Angelo. She recently resigned from the staff of King's Hair Fashions here.

Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Eugene Schraer, Mrs. Don Strotzman, Miss Sharon Seidel, Miss Darlene Seidel, Miss Donna Schraer, Miss Dorothy Jansa, Miss Adelita Gallinda, Miss Beverly Schwartz, Miss Judy Schwertner, Miss Jo Ann Moore, Miss Deborah Bishop, Miss Pam Bishop, Danny Bishop and Mrs. Sidney McCown.

Today it's just a skeleton against the sky. But tomorrow people will live in it, and it will become a home. Within its walls, the pattern of life will be carried out.

But will this be enough? As a home, will this house stand or fall as the years pass? Will the people who live in it develop into better, stronger human beings? Or will they acquire selfishness, greed, indifference, conceit?

Remember the foolish man who built his house on sand, only to have the rains wash it away, and the wise man who built his house permanently on a rock? The future of this house—the future of a home—depends upon its foundation.

In the story, the "rock" symbolizes the Church. Those who build their faith upon its foundation will take into their homes the strength to keep them standing, regardless of what life may bring.

New Diet Publication Guide In Reducing Risk Of Heart Attack

(Moderate changes in the typical American diet can reduce the risk of heart attack, says the Texas Heart Association. Medical and nutrition authorities of the Association recommend fat-controlled, low cholesterol meals. Today's article, first in a series, discusses two new publications based on the latest scientific data concerning diet and heart disease.)

The homemaker has an opportunity to make a real contribution to family heart health in her own kitchen. With this as a daily goal, she can rely for help on two new publications, approved by heart and nutrition experts, that place into focus the entire matter of eating better to protect the heart.

These are the leaflet, "The Way to a Man's Heart," and a companion booklet on "Recipes for Fat-Controlled, Low Cholesterol Meals." Available from the Texas Heart Association, they are based on the latest scientific evidence which indicates, according to the American Heart Association, that most individuals can reduce their risk of heart attack by making moderate changes in the normal diet.

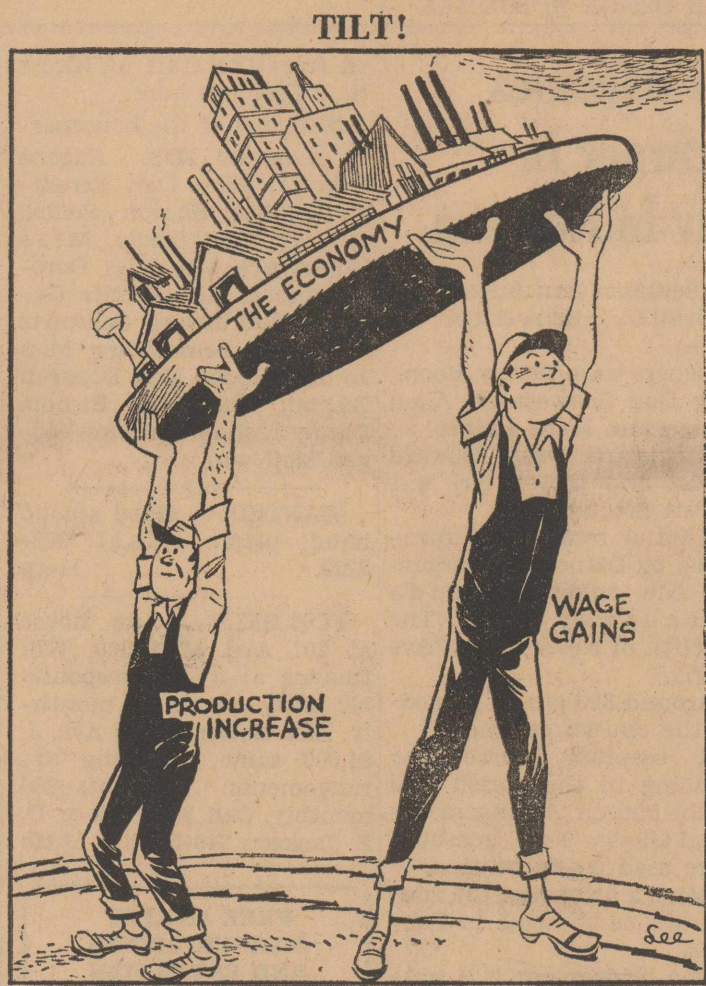

The typical American diet is rich in eggs, which are high in cholesterol, and meats and dairy products which are high in animal (saturated) fats, says "The Way to a Man's Heart." These foods tend to raise the level of cholesterol in the blood, and contribute to hardening of the coronary arteries, which is a forerunner of heart attack. To reduce the risk of this form of heart disease, the leaflet explains the moderate changes needed to adopt a meal plan which is low in saturated fat and cholesterol and high in polyunsaturates, and which provides all the nutrients essential to good health. The leaflet opens into the form of a wall chart measuring 15 by 18 inches. On one side is information about cholesterol and different types of fat in foods, as well as questions and answers about diet and its effects. The other side provides an every-day guide for the homemaker, with lists of basic food groups from which to plan heart-helping meals; recommended foods, those which should be used sparingly or avoided; and servings for each food. Desserts, beverages and condiments also are covered by the chart.

The booklet, "Recipes for Fat-Controlled, Low Cholesterol Meals," is designed to help the housewife carry out the new suggested meal plans. The book let contains definitions, cooking tips, and specific recipes for preparation of meats, fowl, fish, vegetables, salad dressings and sauce, and baked goods and desserts. All cooking fats used in the recipes are polyunsaturated vegetable oils.

Using both publications as her guide, the housewife will be able to plan and prepare satisfying meals for the whole family. In doing that, she will be called on to make only moderate changes in household eating habits. But the benefits may be substantial.

There is increasing encouraging evidence that most people, including those who may have inherited a tendency to heart disease, can substantially reduce their risk of heart attack if they follow a diet to control cholesterol levels, and if along with this they maintain a normal weight, avoid cigarette smoking, exercises regularly, and obtain medical treatment if they have high blood pressure or diabetes. Washington News Letter

Congressman O. C. Fisher

Campus Hooligans and Negro Rioters may run into some real trouble if a new invention of an anti-riot technique is made operational.

Necessity being the mother of invention, a famed scientist, Aristid C. Grosse of Philadelphia, has developed a chemical concoction in the form of golf-ball-size bubbles. Being otherwise harmless, this product could create a wall of bubbles fired from a bubble-blower, and this would be thrown up in the path of charging trouble-makers. If they tried to cross it they would be in a peck of trouble. The bubbles would soon cover the eyes and ears, reducing vision and hearing amid a sort of eerie atmosphere. Unlike soap bubbles, these will not dissolve or go away.

It is claimed one man could stop the movement of a whole mob of people. The President of the national sheriffs' organization is interested and has asked for a demonstration.

Rumor has it that the unshaven and long-haired hippie type don't like this device a bit. Not only would it interfere with their idiotic forays, it might cling tenaciously to those smelly beards and the stringy cave-man hair. Wouldn't that be just too bad!

Prospects for approval of a bill introduced by Rep. Robert Nix, a Philadelphia Negro, to initiate a repatriation program for interested American Negroes, are not bright. Nix's plan would have our government negotiate with African states for undeveloped land where the repatriates would be settled. The African nations would be well compensated. Free transportation would be offered, plus a substantial donation to family heads each year until they become self-supporting. It would be a sort of foreign aid for the countries involved.

This plan is really nothing new. The idea was advanced by Thomas Jefferson, later by Abraham Lincoln, and some Negro leaders in the past have proposed a government-sponsored plan for repatriation to the fatherland.

Outlook for the plan to catch on is brightened somewhat by the discontent of Negro militants who seem very unhappy in this country. The same is, of course, true of a good many of their white counterparts — who if they desire might be included, if an area could be set aside for their use.

Why Plymouth?

(Instead of a Chevy.)

Plymouth Fury III has front torsion-bar suspension for better handling. Chevy Impala still has coil springs that bounce up and down.

Fury III has 195.1 sq. in. brake lining area. Impala has only 184.3 sq. ins.

Fury III has a single-unit welded body for strength. Impala's construction still bolts body to a frame.

To fight rust, Fury III is prepared by a 7-step dip-and-spray treatment. Impala preparation is only by spray.

Fury III wheelbase is a longer 120 ins. for smooth ride. Impala's wheelbase is 119 ins.

Interior room of Fury III is greater than Impala, greater than any car in its class.

Fury III's door opening is 27 1/2 ins. for easy entry. Impala opens to only a 24 1/4 in. entrance.

Fury III gives you 3 cu. ft. more trunk room than Impala.

Fury III's instrument panel is fully floodlit. Impala lighting still comes from behind the instruments.

Ammeter and temperature indicators in Fury III are precision gauges. Impala indicators are lights that come on when trouble occurs.

Fury III has a three-spoke padded steering wheel with horn ring. Impala's is not padded and has only two spokes and horn buttons.

Electric clock? Standard in Fury III. Extra-cost option in Impala.

Add it up, and you see why over 3/4 million owners of competitive cars have been won over to Plymouth in the past two years. Plus, right now, we're putting the big stuff on special Furies (vinyl roof, automatic transmission, radio, power brakes and steering, 8.25 x 15 whitewalls, and deluxe wheel covers) and reducing the price. Why Plymouth? Is there any better way to get a great car and save money in the bargain? See us now.

Plymouth Unbeatables put on the big stuff...

Letters to the Editor

Mr. W. E. White
Ozona Stockman
Ozona, Texas 76943

Dear Mr. White:

For the past week the Texas Water Rights Commission has received numerous letters asking whether a rancher whose livestock drink from a public stream must file a claim under the Water Rights Adjudication Act of 1967. Another frequent question is whether farmers who irrigate from wells must file under the Act.

The answer to both questions is NO. The Water Rights Adjudication Act specifically excludes all uses of ground water and all domestic and livestock watering uses.

We would appreciate your publishing this letter in your newspaper in order that we might clear up the confusion.

Sincerely yours,
Joe D. Carter

Accurate and Complete RANCH RECORDS

Are More Important Today Than Ever

Government regulations and heavy tax programs are destined to be a part of the American way of doing business for a long time. For that reason, it is more important today that every business keep accurate records of its operations.

Easy To Keep - Complete Record - In 1 Volume

The ranch business is no exception. With the stiff federal taxes, you will want to take advantage of every saving item in your expense account and at the same time have clear and convincing records available for inspection by tax agents to prove up any item on your income tax return.

Start now to keep a complete record covering all operations in your business with the Stockman's RANCH RECORD BOOK. Your cancelled checks or your present records can be transcribed to this handy record book, together with your income and inventory records and you can have your entire record in a simplified form contained in one volume.

$101 less than last year's Impala with comparable equipment.

Impala Custom Coupe

Match that, anybody.

We give you an honest increase in car at an honest decrease in price. Take the '69 Impala above. We improved the ride. Made it quieter inside. Added an anti-theft locking device. Put steel guard rails in the doors. Still, this Impala with a 300-hp V8, Turbo Hydra-matic, advanced-design power disc brakes, head restraints, whitewalls and wheel covers is priced $101* less than in 1968. The 300-hp V8 is priced $40 less than last year's 275-hp Turbo Hydra-matic costs less. Power disc brakes about half as much. Whitewalls a little less. Wheel covers about the same. And head restraints are now standard. Upping value and dropping price. That's the way Chevrolet operates.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

This is where the generation gap manifests itself at our house. His father and I both know how smart, level-headed and mature he is for the ripe old age of 15. However, we also know that if he had a car that would do 150 mph, he couldn't resist driving it that fast every now and then, and that's where the rub comes in.

We think the ideal car for him would be something on the order of a Cadillac body with a Volkswagen motor, equipped with rubber bumpers and dented all over with a sledge hammer before it leaves the factory. If he had
