Kitty's Korner

by Kitty Montgomery

Tonight is the big night for Ozona Little Leaguers and their fans. As an added attraction this year, fans will have an opportunity to see a couple of has-been athletes in action. Byron Stuart and Tom Montgomery will come out of the moth balls to officiate as umpires for the Ozona side (this came about, I think, because all the regular umpires were going on vacation or out of town or whatever). It should be interesting, to say the least, I venture to say they will draw a crowd of the curious. In fact, I'm sort of curious myself to see how they get around to make calls after all these years of reminiscing and playing nothing more strenuous than golf.

Speaking of golf, I goofed last week in reporting the annual Fourth of July Ladies Golf Tournament.

When the report was brought in, in parenthesis the words "low scratch" were by Eileen Mahon's name. Thinking this of no consequence, I omitted it. Sounded, somehow like an insult, not being familiar with golf terminology.

Lo and behold, this week I found out to my dismay, that low scratch meant the club champion for the whole year.

Of course, I take full credit for the error and chalk it up to ignorance. However, in the future it might be better for those bringing in reports on sports to sort of point things out to me. It would further my education and credit would be given where credit was due.

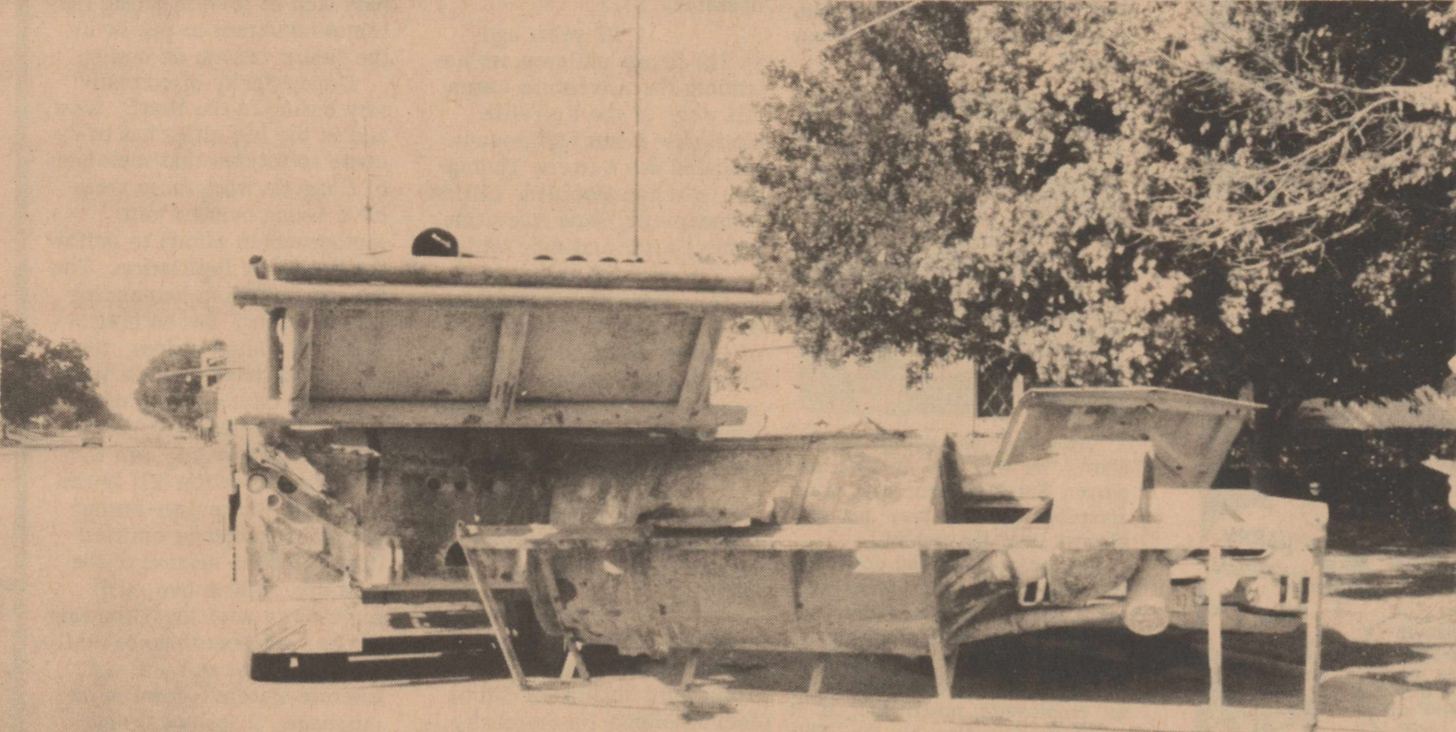

In some areas of journalism I am just out of my element, and sports writing is one of them. I have never been able to write "he flied out" when a baseball player hit a fly ball. I will always consider that phrase "bad grammar."

Local Boys Make Dean's List At UT

Two Ozona students have been notified by their respective deans that they have made the dean's honor list in their colleges at the University of Texas at Austin.

Tom Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson, is on the dean's list in the College of Business Administration with a 3.5 average out of a possible 4, for the spring semester.

Jim Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Montgomery, is on the dean's list in the College of Natural Sciences with a 3.8 average out of a possible 4, for the spring semester.

OILFIELD TRUCK LOSES LOAD OF EQUIPMENT -- A young boy on a bicycle escaped injury by only inches, but the auto you see here wasn't so lucky Wednesday morning when a Wes Tex Drilling Co. truck lost a load of pipe and equipment in the 300 Block of Ave. E, or Hwy 163 north. The truck began losing pipe at the corner of Third Street which narrowly missed an unidentified boy on a bicycle. The lose binding then allowed the large piece of equipment to fall and hit the rear of the car which belongs to Ignacio Mendez and was parked in front of the Ernest Dunlap home. Fortunately, damage was slight to the rear of the automobile. Highway partolman Tom Finley DPS, was the investigating officer.

17th Annual Junior Rodeo Will Get Under Way Here August 2

Ozona's 17th Annual Junior Rodeo has been set for August 2-3, and will be sponsored again this year by the Ozona Lions Club.

The junior rodeo is the highlight of the summer for Ozona cowboys and cowgirls and the town usually perks up from the summer doldrums when rodeo time comes around. Area youth from all over take part, and entry blanks will be picked up at the Chamber of Commerce building.

The contest for 1974 rodeo queen will be under the direction of Mrs. Mike Clayton and reigning queen Sally Bailey. Several events are planned for the contestants.

There will be the usual three age groups with a trophy buckle given to the winner in each event, plus an all-around silver platter for each age group.

There will be one go-round for all contestants with Saturday night's show featuring the top six contestants in each event which promises an outstanding show for the final night of the rodeo.

Activities get under way with a downtown parade Friday afternoon. The show will be held at 7 o'clock each night. There will be a dance following the show each night at the platform on the grounds. Music will be furnished by "Western Echos." The usual fare of barbecued hamburgers and all the trimmings will be served at the concession stand.

Entries must be in the chamber office by midnight July 29. Fees must accompany entry blanks and no entry will be accepted unless accompanied by a signed minor's release. There will also be no married

Oklahoma Youth Gets Probated Sentence Here

Wm. M. Layhe, 18, of Ardmore, Okla. was sentenced to six years in prison, probated, by 112th District Court Judge Charles Sherrill in a session here last week.

The youth was arrested on a charge of burglary after a pistol, holster and belt had been taken from a mobile home at Home Trailer Court here the night of July 6. The incident was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Glenn Willeford and Highway Patrolman Tom Findley and the arrest was made the same night.

Layhe pleaded guilty and was summarily sentenced.

contestants. Drawing for places and go-rounds will take place Wednesday. Contestant numbers may be picked up at the chamber office between 1 and 5 p.m. after the drawing.

Entry fees are $5 for each event except for bull riding in the 16-19 and 13-15 age groups. Entry fee for bull riding is $7 and the event is limited to the first 30 entries in the 16-19 division and the first 20 in the 13-15 group.

In the 12 and under group for girls there will be barrel racing, pole bending and flag race. For boys there will be pole bending, breakaway roping and flag racing. The events are the same for girls in all three divisions. For boys in the 13-15 division there will be bull riding, calf tie down and hair pulling, and in the 16-19 division ribbon roping, bull riding and calf tie down.

There is no limit on the popular Rescue Race for boys and girls. The entry fee is $5 and 2 trophies will go to the first place team only.

Livestock will be furnished by Lester Meir of Fredericksburg.

Bill Littleton Services Held Here Friday

Funeral services for John Clayton (Bill) Littleton, 65, were held Friday afternoon in the Ozona United Methodist Church, with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Littleton died suddenly at his home in Abilene the previous Monday, apparently of a heart attack.

He was born May 5, 1909 in Putman, and was reared in Abilene and Eastland. He was married to Eleanor Ingham of Ozona December 27, 1930 in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Littleton lived in Ozona for many years where he was a clerk in the office of Sheriff W. S. Willis and was employed at Ozona National Bank.

The Littletons moved to San Angelo and later to Abilene where he was manager of the sporting goods department in a large discount store.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Sue Littleton Gottheil of Argentina; a brother Lowell Littleton of Ozona, and three grandchildren.

Services For Mrs. Davidson Held Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Joe T. (Winnie) Davidson, 72, were held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Ozona United Methodist Church with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of James Funeral Home.

Mrs. Davidson apparently died in her sleep early Thursday morning at her home here.

She was born in Fort Worth October 8, 1901, Winnie Elizabeth Piner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finis Erving Piner. She moved from Fort Worth to San Angelo with her parents at age 7. She attended San Angelo schools until moving to Ozona with her family in 1913. She was married to Joe T. Davidson January 15, 1919, in Ozona. He preceded her in death February 6, 1961.

Mrs. Davidson was a past Worthy Matron of the Ozona Chapter of the Eastern Star. She was a tireless church worker and a longtime member of the Ozona United Methodist Church. She was active in church work, civic and social affairs in the community until the time of her death.

In earlier years, she and her husband were prominent in Registered Hereford circles and were quite famous for their herd. They operated extensive ranch holdings in Crockett County.

Survivors include one son, Joe Tom Davidson, Jr.; a brother, Ray Piner of Meridian; a sister, Mrs. A. G. Kester-son of Amarillo; four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Production Is Extended In County Field

Canyon production was extended 1 1/2 miles northeast in the Ozona multipay field of Crockett County with completion of Stoltz, Wagner & Brown, Midland, No. 1-3 Johnson, 12 miles southwest of Ozona, for a calculated, absolute open flow of 2,010,000 cubic feet of gas, with gas-liquid ratio 30,303-1. Gravity of the liquid is 67 degrees.

Production was through perforations from 6,154-614 feet which have been acidized with 3,000 gallons and fractured with 36,200 gallons and 9,000 pounds of sand.

Ozona To Host Sonora In First Little League Play-Off Tonite

Ozona's first Little League All-Star play-off game is set for tonight against the Sonora all stars. The game will begin at 8 o'clock in Ozona's new Little League park north of the city.

After a week and a half of work-outs, the Ozona team is showing promise with good fielding and hitting, plus good work from the pitching staff. Both team manager George Ybarra and coach Don Yeager have high hopes for a victory tonight and feel that this year's team is one of the best all-around teams for Ozona in several years. The coaches plan for all the stars to see action tonight. Joe Rebelez will probably start the action at the pitching mound for Ozona. He was the top pitcher for the championship winning team Moore Oil during the regular season.

Larry McMam, another Moore Oiler will see action in the catcher's slot. Phillip Thurmond also of Moore Oil will be at first base and alternate with Wade Beasley, an Ozona National all-star. Ozona National's heavy hitter, Jeffery Young, will start out on second base with Ray DeHoyos of Moore Oil at third base. Gilbert Gomez of Ozona Oil will start at short stop and probably see action on the pitching mound. Ray Ramos, Gary Yeager and Freddy Garza, from Crockett Automotive, Moore Oil and Ozona National, will begin play in the fielder's positions. Garza is also on the pitching staff. Kim Tambunga, Robert Buckner and Kevin Neyman, of Ozona National and Ozona Oil will see action in the outfield.

Alfred Enriquez had to drop from the all star roster and has been replaced by Robert Tambunga, first alternate from Ozona National.

The winner of tonight's contest will play Big Lake all stars next week.

Umpires will be Tom Montgomery and Byron Stuart for the Ozona team and there will be two officials from Sonora. The flip of a coin will decide umpire positions. There will be an official behind the plate and one at each base. R. B. Babbitt, president of the Ozona Little League Association will announce the game on the loud speaker with assistance from Lions Club members. The Ozona Lions Club sponsors Little League in Ozona.

The concession stand will be open and there is plenty of room to park around the field to view the game. There will be good seats in the stands behind the plate for those arriving early.

Ozona Pair Wins Father Son Tourney Appointed To Mission Board

Rev. and Mrs. Esequiel Longoria Cervantez of Harlingen have been appointed missionary associates of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board. He is the son of Mrs. Santos Cervantez and the late Mr. Cervantez of Ozona, and an Ozona native.

Cervantez, presently pastor of Primera Iglesia Bautista in Harlingen, will assist language churches there.

He has been a student pastor in Donna, Hidalgo, and Corpus Christi. He is a veteran of the U. S. Army. He has worked as a social worker in Corpus Christi and as a teacher at Valley Baptist Academy in Harlingen. His wife has been a kindergarten teacher in Corpus Christi and Harlingen and has worked in recreation and social work.

Ozona Pair Wins Father Son Tourney

An Ozona pair won the championship flight in the annual Father-Son Tournament at the Ozona Country Club last weekend. Winston and Ronald Koerth picked up the coveted first place. Coming in second were Fred and Freddy Slocum. Joe Williams of Ozona captured third place with Mike and fourth place with David.

First flight winners were all from out of town with the exception of Gene and Sooner Williams who won fourth place. Jack and Jack Baggett, another pair of Ozonans, took the first place trophy in the second flight. The others were out of town players.

Out of town players also took all places in the third flight except for fourth place which Freddie and Weldon Nicks won.

A hamburger supper highlighted the first day's play for contestants and club members.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT WINNERS -- Ozona's Ronald and Winston Koerth proudly display the first place trophy following Sunday's play in the annual Ozona Father-Son Tournament held at the country club last weekend. Ozonans Joe Williams and sons Michel and David placed third and fourth in the flight.

ANOTHER OZONA PAIR TOOK FIRST PLACE in the second flight in the Father-Son Golf Tournament. Jack and Jack Baggett show off their first place trophy for their win. Other teams placing in the second flight were from out of town.

ALL IN ORDER IN THE EYE DEPARTMENT -- Now if the legs will just hold up Byron Stuart, r., and Tom Montgomery, l., will make it through tonight's Little League all star game. Dr. C. F. Mitchim gave both men the "go ahead" with a thorough eye check this morning, just to be sure that any "bad eye" charges made by fans at tonight's game would be false.

WATCHING THE WATERGATE COBRA

A national public opinion survey early this summer indicated that 53% of Americans want the impeachment proceedings in Congress to be televised. A second survey, whose results were released by the Gallup organization in July, showed on the other hand that most Americans — an identical 53% to be exact — think the mass media already is providing "too much coverage" of Watergate.

These survey results illustrate the ambivalence our citizens feel toward Watergate and, now, impeachment. We are weary of the whole affair, and yet, like a child sitting before an uncurling cobra, we are helplessly entranced by it.

As the nation now awaits the verdict by the House Judiciary Committee on the involvement of the President, however, our fascination and fear over the possible impeachment outcome should not blind us to the larger significance of Watergate. We join other thoughtful commentators in observing that the processes that have uncovered the scandal layer by layer and have now brought us to the feet of Mr. Nixon himself prove the efficacy of our system of government as surely as they prove its vulnerability.

America is one of the few major countries in the world where such a series of events could have become a celebrated national scandal rather than merely a footnote to history. Our free press, independent judicial system, and co-equal legislative branch of government virtually assured that the facts and figures of Watergate would become public knowledge from the moment two years ago when a group of burglars was apprehended by Washington, D.C., police in the Democratic National Headquarters.

We think that, by and large, our citizens themselves have done a rather good job of putting Watergate in perspective. At the annual meeting of the American Association for Public Opinion Research earlier this year, political scientists said that surveys taken during the summers of 1972 and 1973 indicate that "despite the President's embroilment in the most explosive political scandal since Teapot Dome, citizens retained their confidence in the integrity of the political system." They added that Americans see the exposure, investigation, and prosecution in the Watergate cases as "proving that the political system works."

Long after Watergate has at last been buried — and its lessons hopefully well learned — this same system will still be around. And that's something worth cheering about!

PUBLIC BLAMED FOR INFLATION

Herbert Stein, Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, in a television interview has said that the public is responsible for inflation. He places the blame on the fact that for the past decade the public has fought increased taxes.

We agree that the public is basically responsible for inflation. We also point out that Congress and the Executive Branch of the government have aided and abetted the American public in its excessive demands for services at the lowest tax rates.

By and large the American public seems blind to the fact that the government doesn't make any money. It just operates by spending the taxes levied on the citizens.

Still, we continue to demand better highways, better police protection, more welfare, space travel, better sanitation facilities, clean air, clean water, etc., etc. In fact we want the best of everything we can get from the government at a low, low tax rate.

The result is that candidates for elected offices promise to vote for many of these things if elected, and those who get elected work hard to give them to the public so they can stay in their jobs. They also know that the public does not want higher taxes and so the elected official tries to keep them down.

Common sense tells us that we can't keep running a government that keeps increasing the public debt by spending more than it collects in taxes.

It is time that we realize that there is a limit to the demands we can put on our government, and it is time that Congress and the Executive Branch cut back on their spending.

We support Chairman Stein's proposal that the government adopt a policy of strict governmental spending limits, a balanced budget and no tax reductions. Otherwise, this country is going broke with a bigger bang than it has ever experienced.

LET'S ASSIST POLICE DEPENDENTS

Between 1969 and 1972, a total of 488 law enforcement officers in the United States lost their lives in the line of duty. In too many of the cases, widows were left with too little money to send their children to college.

Although no amount of money can lessen the heartache that comes from such a family tragedy, the country has an opportunity to assure that such children in the future will not be denied an education. Under a bill (S. 2657) now before the Senate, higher education scholarships will be given to dependents of public safety officers killed in the line of duty.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Frank E. Moss (D-Utah), would cover policemen, firemen, and prison guards. It would provide for payment of tuition, fees, books and room and board up to $3,500 annually.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Fitting together an acceptable constitutional revision package proved to be fully as thorny a job as the most pessimistic forecasters maintained.

Constitutional Convention delegates limped back to Austin this week to try again for a showdown two-thirds majority vote after rejecting 91-86 the initial submission proposal which they had stitched together piece-by-piece earlier.

Hang-ups ranged over a wide area—from the separate right-to-work proposition (which is bitterly opposed by organized labor) to internal provisions of the basic revision document.

Some persistent critics argued special interests had too big a hand in drafting the revision. Members of all factions disagreed over sections of the education article—including guaranteed equal opportunity and earmarked college building funds.

First approaches at compromise centered on efforts to eliminate some of the five "separate submission" items—that is, proposals not included in the basic revision.

$72 MILLION TEXAS SHARE—Texas received $72 million in federal revenue-sharing funds for the final quarter of fiscal 1974.

The state government's share is $24,260,347—the same as third quarter of fiscal '74.

Checks will go to all levels of government which are eligible for revenue-sharing funds. About $48 million will benefit cities, counties and other local units.

TEXAS DOMINANT—Texas still dominates the livestock industry on the basis of 1973 statistics.

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said Texas last year produced more than twice as many cattle and calves as the second place state, Iowa — 16,250,000 head, compared to Iowa's 7,660,000.

Sheep and lamb production in Texas also topped the nation, and Texas ranked among the nation's top 10 dairy cattle states. Hog production in the state totalled 1,050,000 head in 1973.

HEARINGS BEGIN—First of 14 Texas Water Quality Board hearings began in Fort Worth and Dallas last week in an effort to find a suitable way to dispose of toxic industrial wastes.

Testimony will also be taken in Beaumont, Port Arthur, Mexia, San Antonio, Pasadena, Corpus Christi, Brownsville, El Paso, Midland, Amarillo, Longview and Austin.

AG OPINIONS — Financial records and information on employees' salaries in a school district are subject to public disclosure, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

- The public has a right to examine and duplicate lists of registered voters who participated in a school board election.

- Hospitals will not lose their tax-exempt status due to incidental operation of a blood bank for public charity where no rent is charged.

- Information provided by banks to local tax assessor-collectors identifying stock-owners and size and value of their holdings is public record.

- State employees must complete 15 or 20 years of employment to qualify for 10 and 14 hours vacation time for each month on the job. Sick leave can be accumulated without limitation.

- Surplus maintenance tax receipts of school districts and junior colleges may be pledged as payment for certificates of indebtedness under law, whether or not the tax election occurred before or after effective date of the act.

- How student service fees are to be charged is decision for governing boards of each institution of higher education.

COURTS SPEAK—The Third Court of Civil Appeals, upholding an Austin district court, said the Railroad Commission can force Lo-Vaca Gathering Company to apportion gas to Austin, San Antonio and Lower Colorado River Authority in the public interest.

Courts can enjoin picketing by strikers only where there is violence or a threat to order, the Supreme Court held.

In other new cases, the High Court held:

- Denied right of a Dallas developer to build a high rise apartment building on Swiss Ave.

- The doctrine by which negligence can be shifted from one party to another applies only to commercial enterprises.

- Two San Antonio lawyers shouldn't be reprimanded by the State Bar for writing letters to a newspaper editor criticizing a district judge and each other.

- A contested 4,500 acres including a large part of Pleasure Island and part of Lake Sabine's bottom belong to Port Arthur (surface rights) and the state (mineral rights).

- Its May 29 decision that radio evangelist Lester Roloff can operate homes for teenagers 16 and over without a license will stand in spite of a challenge by Hill.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Fresh" Clerk

Lois, shopping for sandals, paid no attention to the fact that she and the shoe clerk were alone in the store. But suddenly he seized her in a lustful embrace. Outraged, she struggled out of his grasp and escaped through the front door.

Her complaint afterward to the owner of the store got the man fired. Then Lois followed up with a damage suit against the owner himself.

"After all," she pointed out in court, "he was this fellow's employer. Surely an employer is responsible for the way his employees treat the public."

But the court turned down her claim. Reason: the salesman had acted not in the line of duty but for his own private gratification.

Generally speaking, you cannot hold management liable for an employee's misconduct if it was not related to his job. This rule has been applied not only to amorous advances but also to beatings, gunplay, defamation of character—even practical jokes.

Thus, a motorist who was sprayed with gasoline by a mischievous gas station attendant was denied compensation from the station proprietor. The court said: "The attendant was employed to service automobiles and not to hose customers."

On the other hand, you may indeed have a claim if the employee, while doing his duty, simply overdid it. For example:

A bartender ejected a noisy patron with so much vigor that he broke the man's arm. Could the victim collect damages for his injury from the company that owned the tavern?

In this situation, the court ruled that he could hold the company legally liable. The difference was that ousting noisy customers was part of the bartender's regular duties. An employer must bear the responsibility, said the court, for the employee who does his job not wisely but too well.

Washington News Letter by Congressman O. C. Fisher

To bus or not to bus -- that issue keeps raising its ugly head in the Congress this year. An amendment to the extension of the big education-aid bill -- an amendment designed to remedy the evil embodied in forcing children to ride for miles to schools, bypassing their own neighborhood schools, was approved in the House last March 26 by a margin of 293 to 117.

Then, on June 5, the House voted 270 to 103 to instruct the House conferees on the Senate-House conference to resolve the differences in the education bill, to persist in the House position on busing.

Again, on June 5, while the conferees were still working, the House took the extraordinary step of re-instructing the House conferees to persist in the House version on busing.

Unpopularity of compulsory busing in the North, West, and in the big cities has become so intense that members of Congress from those areas have swung over to join southerners in efforts to outlaw the policy by legislation. The Senate persists in demanding forced busing. But no matter what the Congress does, the courts will have the last word.

A few days ago 140 of us in the House sent a letter to the President urging him to veto the education bill in the event the House anti-busing provision should be omitted from the final version of the measure. This move, will serve as an additional warning to the conferees that we really mean business and will not tolerate watered-down busing language. A few weeks ago President Nixon hinted a possible veto of the education measure if it does not contain a meaningful anti-busing provision. The President will now know that he can count on at least 140, more than enough, to sustain a veto.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club
by
Mrs. Bailey Post

It seems that a constant reminder to water is in order during these hot, dry weeks, though it does get rather monotonous day after day. There seems to be so many things to do in the garden, you must plan to accomplish the most in the shortest length of time. Though our days have been very hot, the early mornings and after sun down have been cool and refreshing -- a good time to enjoy doing the chores.

The beautiful bougainvilleas do best if kept on the dry side when blooming. Over-watering seems to lessen the colorfulness of the bracts. Cut off old blooms, for the bloom on new growth and to extend blooming season. Fertilize, water well and wait for a new blooming period.

Oriental poppies go dormant this month. Dig up crowded clumps before they disappear and divide to make root cuttings before planting.

A July application of fertilizer gives trees and shrubs time to absorb it in forming new growth that will mature before Autumn's first cold spell, but don't over-fertilize while so hot. Summer flowering shrubs that will respond to a feeding at this time are crepe myrtle, althea, buddleia (Butterfly bush), hydrangea, hibiscus, oleander and potted plants.

Gourd season is here, so a few suggestions to help cure

Leave the gourds on the vine until it is perfectly ripe, then cut it off, leaving one inch of stem. Save unblemished specimens. Punch a hole in the bloom end of the gourd before storing it in a dry, airy place until needed. If you want to coat them, wait six months or more before waxing or varnishing to be sure they are perfectly cured.

Fertilize annual bedding plants once or twice each month during the summer. Discontinue monthly feeding of camellias and azaleas after July. Apply iron chelates or copperas to plants suffering from chlorosis.

Plane and prepare soil for your fall vegetable garden.

LEMON PIE

1 graham cracker crust (store bought)
1 small can frozen lemonade, pink or regular
1 small container Cool Whip
1 can Eagle Brand Milk (have cold)

Blend milk WELL in mixer then add lemonade. Beat Cool Whip into mixture; pour into graham cracker crust. Place in freezer until firm.

Are you interested in making your everyday work easier? During the next four weeks my column will have hints to help make everyday tasks easier and quicker. This week's helpful hints will feature clothing.

If you have any hints that are not listed, I would enjoy hearing them.

Securing Buttons: When sewing on a four-hole button, sew through two holes only. Then knot thread, cut it off and sew through the other two holes. When one set of threads breaks, the other will hold the button on.

Polished I. D.: When saving pantyhose with small runs to wear under slacks, dab a little red nail polish on the waistband to distinguish them from good ones.

String Strength: When gathering material, place a piece of string along the gathering line. Sew over string with large zigzag on sewing machine and pull string to gather. String will not break as thread often does.

Neater Notions: Use spray can tops as drawer dividers in your sewing cabinet to keep pins, buttons, snaps and small sewing notions neatly sorted and easily accessible.

Threading Ease: For mending ease, rub lip gloss on your lips before moistening thread for needles. Thread slips easily into eye of the needle.

Magnet Magic: A small magnet tied to a length of string is handy for retrieving pins and needles that are dropped while sewing.

Fuzz Remover: To remove "pilling" of wool on sweater, use very fine sandpaper and brush over the area in one direction. All of the balls and extra fuzz will roll right off. Button Saver: Dab transparent nail polish on the center of buttons. This seals the thread so it won't ravel.

Hemline Remover: To remove seam or hem lines, combine 1 tablespoon of white vinegar with two tablespoons water, dampen crease and press at suitable temperature for type of fabric. Will not stain any fabric and can be used also to set crease in pants, etc. Works especially well on polyester knits. Test for color fastness first.

Teflon Potholders: when replacing a teflon ironing board cover, save the unworn part of the old cover for making teflon side of potholders. Old unworn parts of the ironing board pad also make excellent padding for the potholders.

Softness in Blankets: Add one teaspoon glycerin to your rinse water for fluffy softness in your blankets.

Bluing Stains: Bluing stains usually come clean when article is soaked in cold water. If traces still remain, wash in warm, soapy water.

Removing Soil Lines on Collars, Cuffs: To remove soiled lines on collars, cuffs etc., use an abrasive hand soap. It is easier on the fabric than a brush and removes the soil more quickly.

Where are You Going?

"Look, Daddy! A stopped freeway!" Eight-year-old Kristen pointed at the span of concrete that soared over the road ahead of us and then ended abruptly as if it had encountered an invisible wall.

Two months later, we took a hike in the country. A small trail led us through green fields of waving grass and wildflowers. There the trail ended, gradually, as if reluctant to stop.

Is your life like a freeway—fast, impressive, known to many? Or is it more like a trail—plain, but comfortable, less well-known, but quite adequate?

It really doesn't matter.

The important question is: Does your life have a goal?

A freeway or trail can end, gradually or abruptly, without ever reaching a specific destination.

In God, your life can have a goal. In church, He'll tell you how to reach it.

Dry Ozona Gets .37 Of Inch In Weekend Rain

A brief shower Friday night and a mid-afternoon downpour Saturday afternoon were responsible for .37 of an inch of rain on sun-parched Ozona. The showers gave some relief from the heat but did little to break the hold of drought which continues in this area of Texas.

Friday night .12 of an inch was recorded and the hard shower Saturday added .25. The .37 of an inch amounts to the total rainfall this far in July. Following a hot May and a hot dry June, the yearly record stands at 7.08 inches.

Rainfall the early part of May seemed to promise an end to dry weather, but June was hot and dry with only .51 of an inch of moisture recorded June 13. May has the most rainfall recorded at 2.85 inches at the half-year point.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baggett and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Applewhite were in Austin Tuesday to attend the funeral services of R. Y. Corder, the father of Kenneth Corder of Midland who is married to the former Jo Nell Coose of Ozona. Mr. Corder died in Austin Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Brown have returned to Ozona after spending their vacation in Colorado and New Mexico on a fishing trip.

Small wonder America's No. 1 selling compacts come from Plymouth.

Plymouth Duster

Duster—sticker-priced less than VW Super Beetle, Toyota Corona, Datsun 610, Mazda RX-3, and Mustang II. It's true! Plymouth Duster carries a lower sticker price than all of those other economy cars. But Duster offers a lot more. Read on! You'll see.

Duster seats 5, not 4.

Easy small-car parking and handling.

Those other small cars only seat 4 people. But our Duster carries 5.

Duster doesn't forget that it's a compact, offering small-car maneuverability. It's big inside, but small outside.

In recent USAC tests, Duster's Siant 6 got better gas mileage on the open road than the driving, even got slightly better mileage than the 4-cylinder Mustang II.

The tests were sanctioned and results certified by the U.S. Auto Club. All of which proves that Duster's an economy car superstar.

A trunk larger than Pinto and Vega combined. Duster not only gives you room inside. It gives you room out back, too. Over 19 cubic feet of trunk space... comparable to many larger cars.

Electronic ignition standard. Virtually eliminates costly ignition tune-ups.

In '73 Plymouth took over the lead in compact car sales—and still is No. 1. With so much going for them, small wonder that America's No. 1 selling compacts come from Plymouth... and that's the way we mean to keep it. Come in and let us show you what we mean.

No wonder so many people are moving to Duster

See us for eight great small car buys.
