A Grady Young Wid w. Paris. Tex.. Jan. 6. - There was a romantic wedding in this city Wednesday night. About four years ago Mrs. Jennie Dethridge arrived in the city. She had been left a widow only a short time before. Soon after her arrival she obtained employment in a good family, but when they discovmoney or friends, and in her straightter with a respectable colored woman. when Mr. John Swain found her and took her to his home, keeping her there until her child, a little girl, was born. She then obtained a situation at Dr. Elliott's where she lived until Wednesday. Some time ago a young man named Jack Sligh began paying his accresses to her and they became engaged. He went to Denison, where he secured employment. The wedging was set for Wednesday night. In the absence of Jack Sligh a young man named Joe Biggerstaff began to woo the young widow. He learned of the engagement and of the time set for the marriage with Mr. Slign and pressed his suit with so much ardor that when Mr. Sligh arrived here Wednesday night to claim his bride he learned that Mr. Biggerstaff had secured his license and would be the happy groom instead of himself. He was much chagrined over the turn of BRENHAM, Tex., Jan. 19 .- Sunday at Gladings John Vogler was killed by a train on the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railway. He had just left the Casino hall and was walking down the track to the depot ahead of an incoming train, which, as is customary, ran very slowly until reaching the crossing of the Houston and Texas Central. Just before the crossing was reached Vogier stumpled and fell and in a moment was under the wheels. One leg was crushed and h's head was injured so badly that he died at 9 p. m. He was 35 years of age and for the past year had been clerking for Joe Richards.

IMMIGRATION SUSPENSION.

Senator Mills Takes a Determined Stand Against It.

Washington, D. C. Jan 6, 1893 -The bill providing for a national quarantino and permitting the President to suspend immigration to-day and brought out a very interesting debate. Chandler of New Hampshire, McPherson of New Jersey, Harris of Tennessee and Platt of Conneticutt spoke fn favor of the bill and Senator Mills of Texas delivered the only set speech in opposition to it. The Texas Senator spoke for about 20 minutes with his usual vigor and force. He was opposed, he said, to turning the foreign commerce of the country over to the control of a few estimate the real per cent of losses doctors and specialists. He held the public health the same as they Houston Co. at his uncle's, Enoch had done for a hundred years Broxson's on the 31st day of Dec.

The Ideal Baking Powder

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

For more than fifty years Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda have been used for leavening purposes with sufficient flour added to preserve the strength of the powder unimpaired, and this with the addition of whites of eggs comprises this pure and wholesome leavening agent, that has been the standard for 40 years. In its use pure, wholesome and delicious food is always assured.

Makes cake and biscuit that retain their moisture, and while they are finky and extremely light they are fine grained, not coarse and full of holes as made with ammonia baking powders, latter dries up quickly. Alum powders leave a bitter taste in the bread or cake.
