GRAPELAND.

Christmas has been a gala week in Grapeland, and the mere thought of it has brought joy to many hearts and desolate homes. The Christmas tree at the academy on Christmas eye was a complete success. The large school-room was beautifully decorated under the skillful workmanship of a committee of ladies appointed for the purpose. On the stage was placed a magnificent cedar tree which was loaded down with presents of every description. Old Santa Claus was present in full uniform, greeting all And thy thoughts are a dream of Eden's bowers happy time. Frank makes a good Santa. The beautiful ceremonies at the Methodist church on Christmas day, conducted by Revs. Cane and Whitescarver were interesting from start to finish, especially the remarks of Rev. Whitescarver comparing Grapeland in the 70ties to Grapeland in the 90ties.

C. E. Parnell, our excellent young friend and night operator at this place, left Grapeland on the 21st inst., and returned on the 23rd, bringing with him his lovely bride, late Miss Libbie Cohen, of Hearne. They were married at Franklin, Texas, on the 22nd, and took the train immediately for Grapeland, their future home. Long may they live and always be as happy as they are now.

Dr. L. Meriwether left on the 24th to spend Christmas with his daughter in Austin. Miss Ethel Meriwether is spending the holidays with relatives in Crockett. S. J. Stanford, Wright Pridgen and Ed Keen took advantage of the excursion rates on the I. & G. N. 10 visit the Island city. Mrs Nannie Elkins of Corsicana is spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs A. Drs. Maybe and Mustbe.

Because you don't want to entrust your life in inexperienced hands. True, the young doctor may be experienced. But the old doctor must be. You take no chances with Dr. Maybe, when Dr. Mustbe is in reach. Same with medicines as with medicine makers - the long-tried remedy has your confidence. You prefer experience to experiment - when you are concerned. The new remedy may be good - but let somebody else prove it. The old remedy must be good - judged on its record of cures. Just one more reason for choosing AYER'S Sarsaparilla in preference to any other. It has been the standard household sarsaparilla for half a century. Its record inspires confidence - 50 years of cures. If others may be good, Ayer's Sarsaparilla must be. You take no chances when you take AYER'S Sarsaparilla.

You choose the old doctor before the young one. Why?
