National Book Week Theme Is "Read In '71"

National Book Week Observed By Schools

MARY DESHAZO ELEMENTARY...Admiring a poster about book week at DeShazo are left to right, Angie Puckett, Barbara Foster and Curtis Elder. National Children's Book Week is being observed in all four Muleshoe schools. Mrs. Neal Dillman is the librarian at DeShazo.

"Read In '71" is the theme of National Children's Book Week which is being observed in the four libraries of the Muleshoe Schools.

Neal Dillman, superintendent, announces that from the monthly circulation reports 16,846 books, magazines, and audio visual materials were circulated during September and October of this school year.

Ellen Glover, librarian at Richland Hills reports that a total of 1377 books were checked out by students in grades kindergarten through second and 30 audio visual materials were used by teachers and aids.

Esther Marie Dillman, Mary DeShazo librarian, noted that 4,625 books, magazines and audio visual materials were checked out during this two month period. The children in these grades checked out 2483 fiction books, 2040 nonfiction, 25 magazines, and 102 audio visual materials.

Pauline Griffin, Muleshoe Junior High librarian, reports that a total of 4,576 library books were circulated in grades 6, 7, and 8.

The fiction books totaled 2766 and the non-fiction books totaled 1810. In the Muleshoe High School, Judith Harlin, shows the following circulation:

Magazines-1542; non-fiction books 4366; fiction books 1799; and audio visual materials 73; making a grand total of 6238 materials circulated for the first two months.

An interesting thing is noted in the high school, that non-fiction are checked out more and magazines are widely used writing research papers.

Each student in the four schools has a regularly scheduled library period each week and then he may go at other times to check out books.

"Read-In '71" is a reality in the Muleshoe School Libraries.

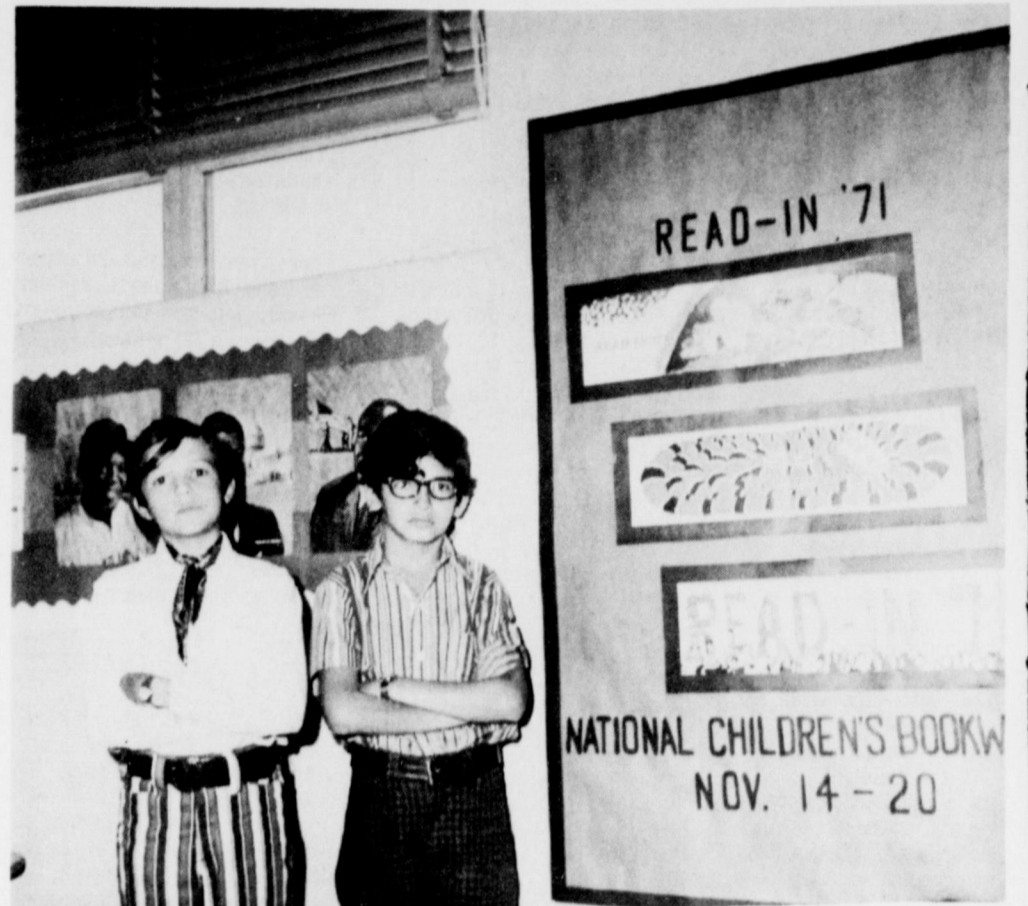

Well-chosen snacks can add important nutrients to the diet. Some of the many nutritious snack foods on the market today are ready-to-eat cereals, raisins, enriched breads and crackers, milk, fruit, and fruit juices.

Joe Mata Gets Scholarship

"We'd like to have more students like Joe Mata. He's intelligent, eager to learn, well groomed, a student leader and a credit to his native Texas." These words of praise came from a man who is not known for his extensive use of compliments, but W.E. "Bill" Bailey, head of Oklahoma State Tech's automotive department, is known as the one man most responsible for overseeing the training of more than 1,000 automotive and machinist students each year at the Okmulgee school, and that certainly qualifies him to recognize the requirements of a good student.

Mata, 18, a Muleshoe resident, is enrolled in auto mechanics at Tech, the residential, vocational-technical branch of Oklahoma State University. Because of the basic auto mechanics course he completed at Muleshoe High School, Mata was able to by-pass the first trimester automotive principles class and begin his training at Tech with second trimester classes in engine tune-up.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Luis Mata of Route 2, Muleshoe, decided to enroll at Tech after talking with his high school counselor, Ben Gramling and Milton Morris, a vocational counselor.

Both men were well acquainted with the quality of training at Oklahoma State Tech, especially in the automotive department, and both "highly recommended the school", Mata said.

"Because I am paying for much of my own schooling, I wanted to get the best education possible for my money," Mata said. "Tech was the best so I enrolled there".

Apparently many of the citizens of Muleshoe also felt that Mata would be a good student. The Muleshoe Community Club provided him with $200 scholarship to help with finances. Mata also works 15 hours weekly at Tech to earn additional money for schooling and expenses.

The Texas-bred student expects to continue his training at Tech for at least another four trimesters, 16 months, and then may specialize in engine tune-up, automatic transmissions or automotive service management. Mata, who worked in an auto body shop part-time and after high school classes while in Muleshoe, says he may even consider additional training at Tech in that field and will probably return to Texas to live.

Cynthia Isaac was installed as patrol leader. Other officers are Alma Leal, assistant leader; Helen Balderas, Secretary; Cindy Morgan, treasurer; Doris Bartholf, reporter; Gwendolyn Reader is refreshment chairman.

The cadets decided to work on the following badges as a group: grooming, child care, hiker, swimmer, aviation and dressmaker.

Market Report

Pork supplies are abundant, and good values include Boston butt roasts, shoulder steaks, one-half or one-fourth loin cut into chops, loin roasts, smoked hams and ham portions, picnics (whole or slices) and canned hams.

Fryer chickens are special features in many markets this week, so buy extras for freezing if you have adequate storage space. Grade A large size eggs still offer the best combination of quality and economy for your egg money.

Frozen turkeys are coming to market in greater numbers this week, with prices about the same to slightly higher than last year. Some stores will be offering specials, but don't wait too long to order a bird if you're choosy about size and type.

Fresh fruit and vegetable items in best supply at the most economical prices include apples, oranges, bananas, pears, grapes, cranberries, potatoes, dry yellow onions, mustards, collards, turnips and greens, cabbage, carrots, salad tomatoes and rutabagas.

US Army Announces ROTC Scholarships

The Army has announced that 1003 four year scholarships will be offered to high school seniors for matriculation at colleges and universities throughout the United States in school year 1972-73. These Army ROTC scholarships are awarded annually to outstanding male high school seniors who are motivated toward a career as Army officers. The scholarships are worth $6,000.00 to $12,000.00 depending upon the university or college the recipient attends. The scholarships is competitive and is based on the results of the CEEB-Scholastic Aptitude Test or the American College Test, high school academic record, and participation in athletic and extracurricular activities. Applications must be submitted by 15 January 1972.

Young men interested in competing for a scholarship should make the necessary arrangements with their high school counselor to register for and take the CEEB-Scholastic Aptitude Test that will be administered on 6 November or 4 December 1971, or the American College Test that will be administered on 11 December 1971. The closing date of 15 January 1972 for scholarship applications will not allow sufficient time for receipt of scores from later scheduled testing dates.

Training Corp (ROTC) exists to develop college educated officers for the active Army and reserve components. It enables a young man to prepare for a position of leadership in either a military or civilian career of his choice.

The ROTC program is specifically designed to give college men "on-campus" training and experience in the art of organizing, motivating, and leading others. It includes instruction to develop self-discipline, physical stamina, and bearing--qualities that are an important part of leadership and that contribute to success in any career. Many college men, if they do not take ROTC, miss this instruction because comparable leadership training and experience are not normally provided in the academic courses required for a college degree. The young man who wants training that will help to make him a leader during his college years and for the rest of his life should take Army ROTC.

Texas Tech University offers both a four year and a two year program of Army ROTC. The two year program is designed to accommodate students from junior college that are transferring to a four year college or university. If a student is attending a junior college and desires to participate in the two year Army ROTC program, he must make application prior to 1 May 1972. A letter of application for the two year program should be addressed to the Professor of Military Science at the college at which the student will take ROTC. Students desiring further information on the four year Army ROTC scholarship program should contact their high school counselor or the Military Science Department at the college or university offering Army ROTC

Humphrey To Speak To Farmers Union

Humphrey will address the statewide meeting of the general farm organization on Tuesday night, December 7.

According to the Farmers Union state office in Waco, several state and national officeholders and political hopefuls will make appearances at the organization's meeting. The Jeannie C. Riley show was a big success for Muleshoe. Although the B.A.C. didn't make any money-- in fact, we lost a little money-- Muleshoe received a lot of good publicity and was the main attraction for good entertainment all the way from Lubbock to Roswell and Amarillo to Midland. We did something few towns our size can do, and that was to sponsor a big name entertainer. To show you what I am talking about, I quote from a letter from Bill Payne, Executive Vice-President of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce; "Great, Jerry..... is the first work I can think of regarding the Jeannie C. Riley performance on November 8, 1971. It takes a real community effort to sponsor a name such as this and your people really need to be commended. Everyone worked and knew what they were supposed to do and when to do it."

A big Thanks goes to over-all Chairman, Bob Stovall, the Junior Class, and especially the sponsors of the Juniors, Kerry Moore and George Washington. There were many others too numerous to mention who worked at picking up prizes and selling candy, but we do want to thank all the merchants who donated prizes for the candy sale. We sold close to 4,000 bags of candy.

Those that attended the performance from Muleshoe as well as those from out-of-town will remember the show as one of the best entertainment attractions they've ever attended, and we say HATS OFF to the B.A.C. for this good project.

Dealer-Manufacturer Licensing Law To Go Into Full Effect

A new era in the giant Texas automobile industry, and in the protection of the buying public, has opened this fall as the new Dealer-Manufacturer Licensing Law goes into full effect.

The six-member Texas Motor Vehicle Commission, set up to administer the law and regulate the industry, is hard at work, licensing the more than 1,600 franchised new car dealers and approximately 1,500 factory representatives in the state, and holding public hearings to pass on the operation of new car dealerships and adjudicate other issues within the industry. The Commission also includes two representatives of the public at large.

The fact that in the four hearings held by the Commission to date no new dealership has been denied a license refutes any charge that the law was set up to perpetuate a monopoly.

The truth is that the law was designed primarily for the protection of the car-buying public. It is, in this respect, a model for the nation. Of the 33 states which regulatory laws for the automobile industry, Texas is the only one which assures the public of a forum for grievances and complaints. Consumers may register complaints with the Motor Vehicle Commission against dealers or manufacturers for failing to carry warranty obligations, for requiring the installation of special equipment in order for the buyer to obtain delivery, for false advertising or any fraudulent act that damages the purchaser.

Perhaps equally important is the fact that the new law preserves and defends the independent dealer system of sales and service, which is the heart of the industry. The industry is concentrated in the hands of huge international corporations, and the independent dealer system stands between the giant and the consumer.

To give only one example: The law requires that the automobile factories be they in Detroit, Berlin or Tokyo—must file their warranty agreements in black and white with the Texas Motor Vehicle Commission, so there can be no misunderstanding about just what the individual buyer is entitled to if his new car develops mechanical faults or failures.

The Texas Legislature earlier this year wisely recognized that in the 70's the need for motor vehicle-consumer protection to solve safety, pollution, highway and transportation problems. The Dealer-Manufacturer Licensing Law was their answer to the challenge.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas--A blue-ribbon study commission has come out strong for state constitutional revision and widespread restructuring of the state and local governmental system. The Texas Urban Development Commission, winding up an 18-month study which enlisted the services of experts and laymen, handed its 200-page report to Gov. Preston Smith. Smith, commending the body for charting "a clear course for those in government to act on," announced appointment of a 17-member, permanent Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations. The latter will follow up the report of the study group headed by Arlington Mayor Tom J. Vandergriff as chairman and Dr. Earl M. Lewis of Trinity University in San Antonio.

"The Texas Constitution," said the Commission, "should be thoroughly changed to allow state and local governments to exercise more initiative and to be more responsive to current and future demands but at the same time free to be truly responsive to changing needs and emerging problems."

Among 50 major recommendations were the following:
*State government should begin moving toward a new organizational and management system and consolidation of urban services in about 20 existing agencies.

*The governor should have more power over budgeting and appointments and removal of state agency governing boards chairmen.

*Local governments should be reorganized to meet specific local needs and granted greater fiscal authority through additional revenue sources and property tax overhaul.

*Growth of special purpose districts must be checked.

*Urban growth planning programs and coordinated land planning should be launched at all levels of government.

APPOINTMENTS-- George E. Stanley of Port Arthur was the Veterans Affairs Commission, succeeding the late Charles C. Ford of Longview.

Governor Smith named 10 members of the Criminal Justice Council executive committee and designated L. O'Brien Thompson of Amarillo as chairman.

Smith appointed an 18-member study committee on traffic court reorganization.

Lawrence L. Jester has been designated district engineer of the State Highway Department's Atlanta district on retirement of G.A. Youngs.

William G. Reid of Austin will serve as general counsel for the recently established Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes named committees to study the system of state licensing and examining boards and retirement benefits for employees of public educational institutions.

BONDS SOLD--Continuation of the veterans land program was assured by sale of $20.8 million in bonds.

The low bid of 4.48943 per cent effective net interest was submitted by a group of 50 investors. The constitutional ceiling on interest rates is 4.5 per cent for the program.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong said the sale means the program can operate until almost the end of 1972 when Texas voters will have a chance to pass a constitutional amendment to raise the interest rate ceiling to six per cent.

The Veterans Land Board is constitutionally authorized to sell another $70.7 million in bonds. More than 43,500 Texans have bought land under the program.

A NEW GOVERNOR--Texas will have a new governor briefly in December--when Sen. W. E.

(Pete) Snelson of Midland takes over as chief executive for the day.

Snelson, as president pro tempore of the Senate, is third in line for the governorship.

Governor Smith and Lieutenant Governor Barnes will absent themselves from the state December 4 so Snelson can have the honor of serving as governor. He represents 35 counties of the 25th senatorial district.

COURTS SPEAK--The State Court of Criminal Appeals upheld Texas' abortion law, and said the state has the right to prohibit operations, in a decision conflicting with a June 18, 1970, three-judge federal court ruling at Dallas.

The Court of Criminal Appeals also reversed a Waco marijuana conviction due to improper questioning of witnesses by the prosecuting attorney.

State Supreme Court heard arguments in a suit seeking to nullify University of Texas acquisition of a 588-acre Odessa site for the new UT-Permian Basin campus because of the proximity of oil and gas equipment and a potential safety hazard.

AG OPIONS--The governor can commute death sentences to life imprisonment even though convictions are on appeal, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:
*A new "surtax" on misdemeanor and felony convictions ($2.50 to $10) cannot be assessed for offenses committed prior to last August 30, date the law went into effect.

*Issue of tax cancellation certificates are authorized, and should cover all tax certificates showing no taxes due which had been previously and lawfully issued.

*Computation of actual interest expense incurred and to be recovered as an item of selling price on long term federal water contracts shall be made by applying the cumulative average effective rate to only that portion of the "direct cost" of the facility which is attributable to Texas Water Development Fund Money.

PESTICIDE DECISION PUT OFF--The new State Pesticide Advisor Committee delayed its decision on banning DDT for household uses.

No recommendation was made because the Environment Protection Agency has not made its official rulings on DDT, committee chairman Dr. Perry Adkisson of Texas A & M University said.

The five-member committee will meet again December 7 to consider the matter, Texas Department of Agriculture, charged with administering the state law on pesticides, asked advice from the advisory panel authorized by the Legislature this year.

HUNT INVITE "DISAPPEARS" State legislators and officials who had been invited to hunt on state game management areas found the invitations suddenly withdrawn after newspapers publicized them.

Parks and Wildlife Department Executive Director James U. Cross issued the invitations although other would-be deer hunters are required to draw for the limited number of free permits in the areas. PW Commissioners expressed doubt special exceptions could be made for state officials and legislators, so the bid was unceremoniously taken back. One commissioner called for Cross's resignation over the incident, but the new director said he plans to stay on the job.

POOL MEET SLATED--Complaints about the new Texas catastrophe pool insurance plan will be aired at a public hearing here December 7.

The State Board of Insurance announced it will "consider all aspects" of the plan approved by the Legislature for 14 sea-coast counties this year.

Texas Association of Insurance Agents will offer testimony and stress "positive steps" that can make the pool work as intended.

SHORT SNORTS
Attorney General Martin lambasted the new state code of ethics for public officials as a "virtual mishmash" and predicted a court effort by one or more political subdivisions to invalidate it.

An experimental fusion machine, which may help revolutionize energy-producing mechanisms, has been dedicated at the University of Texas.

State health authorities checked September rabies tests after a faulty lab check came close to letting a case of the deadly disease escape detection.

Mrs. Betty Arper, of Lubbock City-County Libraries staff and Mrs. Frances Williams, Librarian of the Midland County Library have prepared units on Texas history, culture and geography and American Literature.

Attendance at the workshop will qualify the Muleshoe Area

Public Library for experience books. This is made possible through the Library Services and Construction Act funds.

Christmas Flowers

Fall is the ideal time for home gardeners and housewives to begin preparing Christmas cactus and poinsettia plants for holiday blooming, say Everett Janne, landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Extra care is required each day or the poinsettia and Christmas cactus may fail to bloom for the holiday season.

Both plants should get as much sunlight as possible during the day, but they also need long, cool nights. At night, the plants should not be exposed to any artificial lighting; this will upset their delicate flowering-control mechanisms. At least 12 hours of continuous darkness are required to start the flowering process, Janne points out.

Night temperatures of at least 60 degrees F., are ideal for both plants, but the Christmas cactus can grow at temperatures as low as 55 degrees. During the day, ordinary household temperatures are satisfactory.

Avoid placing the poinsettia in a draft, cautions Janne. Sudden excessive changes in temperature can cause the leaves to drop. Supply sufficient water so that the soil is always moist. During active growth, feed poinsettias regularly, preferably with diluted solutions of soluble fertilizers.

Newer types of poinsettias are commercially available in varying shades of pink as well as white and the traditional red,

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,

If my husband's mother lives with us should she sit in the front seat of the car when we take a ride or go to church. I would like to know what is the proper thing to do?

Eloise--Kan.

Answer:

I do not live with my son but I ride with him and his wife a great deal and this is what I do. When they come for me M usually says "Mother, sit up there with Tom" and I usually say I prefer the back seat. If the ride is short and they insist, the three of us sit in front with me next to the door. Of course I am well and alert but the situation could be different if I had arthritis and found it difficult to get in the back seat.

I think it makes a difference, also, if the mother is invited occasionally for a ride or is a rather regular passenger. On the occasional ride I think it would be proper for the daughter-in-law to offer the older lady a seat by her son but if it is a regular thing with mother living in the house I think she should be the one to ask for the rear seat. Personally, I couldn't care less whether I sat in the front or the back and a wife should always come first with her husband.

Mother will probably have more attention if she is agreeable and easy to get along with.

Louisa.
