CROCKETT, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 3, 1904.

NO. 41.

Dan G. Kennedy Says:

Our Fall Opening Sale was a big success—everybody pleased. Dr. Latham of Porter Springs brought the largest wagon load of ladies—21 in number, and secured the prize which was a $15.00 suit of clothes. When we go after the people, we bring them, and when they get here, we deliver the goods. Sorry this scribe was not able to be present on account of bad health. We are not going to let the log down on you now if the time of the big sale is over, but will still have much of the "Loom Ends" and other special things on hand at the same price, and all other goods will be sold as low as money can buy them.

Our stock is not touched yet. The $4000 sold during the sale is not missed. It's like sticking your finger in a pond of water and looking for the hole. We can't see the hole where the goods came from and are still anxious to sell and sell cheap. Respectfully,

Dan G. Kennedy,

Proprietor Yellow Front and Racket Stores.

the accident. One of the mules was carried by the wagon and harness across the cattle guard and fence and its escape from death was miraculous, being stripped of its harness. It came out of the wreck apparently unhurt with the exception of course of incident bruises. The other mule struck the cattle guard and fence and had its back broken, necessitating its being killed. The train was stopped within its length after the accident and was held thirty minutes.

The crossing at this place is almost dangerous one, at which just such an accident is nothing more than could be expected sooner or later. It would pay the railroad company to tunnel under their track at this crossing. The company will sooner or later have to pay for another accident up near the passenger depot where the roadway is so narrow if something is not done there to widen the passageway.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated leaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by B. F. Chamberlain.

KILLED BY THE TRAIN.

Crossing at the Light and Ice Plant a Dangerous One.

William Willmore, a son of George Willmore, a negro, was killed by the south bound train No. 1 Monday afternoon. The train was due at Crockett at 2:10 and was on time. This is a fast train, making the run from St. Louis to Crockett in less than twenty-four hours. The negro, who was seventeen years old, was driving a pair of mules to a wagon. The wagon and team belonged to R. C. Stokes. In coming down to the track the approaching train was obscured from the driver by the hillside, around which the track runs. The road passes through a deep cut before reaching the track, as also does the track. It was equally as impossible for the engineer to see the approaching wagon. The negro either did not hear the train or thought he could make the crossing in safety. There is diverse opinion as to whether the engineer sounded the whistle. The writer was at the passenger depot and heard the engine blow for the station as it came around the curve and he is of the opinion that there was not time for any further alarm before the wagon was struck. The engine hit the wagon about center, breaking it into fragments and carrying pieces of it into the adjoining lot through which the railroad passes. The negro driver was knocked about the length of a passenger car up track, across the cattle guard and thrown to the right of the track. His head and hips were broken and there were many other bruises. Doctors were telephoned for from the light and ice plant, and Doctors Lipscomb, Wootters and Stokes responded. The negro lived about thirty minutes after

BRYAN ON THE BIG STICK.

Quotes Minister Barrett and Then Asks Pertinent Questions.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 26.—William J. Bryan tonight ended his second tour of Indiana for the National Democratic committee by making two speeches at Hammond, after making nine speeches during the day. A large number of persons heard him at various places. At Logansport, Mr. Bryan was met by Thomas Taggart, Chairman Taggart, who had not seen Bryan since becoming chairman, accompanied Bryan to Monticello, Rensselaer, Hammond and Chicago. At the meeting Mr. Taggart met some of the State leaders, but made no speeches. On the train Chairman Taggart had a talk with Mr. Bryan, who has spoken in West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana, and the political situation was discussed. Chairman Taggart said he was exceedingly hopeful for Democratic success in Indiana and Mr. Bryan expressed himself as pleased with the outlook in this State. Mr. Taggart said:

"What I have seen in the counties and towns of Indiana convinces me that Indiana is now in better condition politically than it has been for the last fifteen years. Every indication points to Democratic success in Indiana this fall. Conditions are also very satisfactory in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Maryland and West Virginia. Mr. Taggart said he would not visit Wisconsin as had been thought possible. He expects to return to New York next week.

After speaking at Knox and North Judson, Mr. Bryan today addressed a gathering in Wayne county. He said: "We have been trying to point out to Republicans the fact that President Roosevelt is changing the ideals of the Nation and substituting the 'big stick' for the light of liberty. But many have refused to believe it. Now an appointee of this Administration has come to our aid and declared this change in language so plain and forcible that no Republican can longer doubt it.

"I refer," he said, "to an article written by John Barrett, United States Minister to Panama. It is a campaign document contributed by the President's appointee and spread broadcast as an argument in favor of Mr. Roosevelt's election. I call your attention particularly to a paragraph which reads as follows: 'If they, who are here today stumping the land against President Roosevelt, could have gone to foreign parts in the old days when the flag stood for nothing, when American merchants and travelers were everywhere snubbed, when our army and navy were the laughing stock of the world, when we had no influence in the councils of the Nations, and if then again they could have journeyed around the world now when the flag means more than the standard of any other Nation, where our merchants have access to all markets, when our navy is respected in every port and when our advice is sought in the conclave of Powers, they would in such sense of stricken conscience renounce their present attitude and pray for the success of a party which has accomplished this mighty change and of a leader whose name is honored in the most remote portions of the earth.'

"Republicans, what do you think of this? What do you think of the old days when the flag stood for nothing? Washington held the flag in his hands. Did it stand for nothing then? Did it stand for nothing when it was held in the hands of Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence? Did it stand for nothing when it was held aloft by the elder and the younger Adams? Did it stand for nothing when Madison held it and when it was held by Monroe? Did it stand for nothing in the hands of Jackson? Did it stand for nothing in the hands of Lincoln and in the hands of Grant? Did it stand for nothing in the hands of Hayes and Garfield and Harrison? What say you, Republicans? And you, veterans of the Civil War? Did it stand for nothing when you followed it through four years of war and upon bloody battlefields? Did it stand for nothing until it became the emblem of an Empire and became the companion of the President's 'big stick'? Did it begin to stand for something only when it waved over Filipino subjects bought in a job lot at $2.50 apiece? Did it begin to mean nothing only when it was carried against men who were fighting for the same doctrines for which our Revolutionary heroes were willing to fight and die? Republicans, what do you think of this doctrine of your party proclaimed by the President's appointee? Do you indorse this doctrine, or will you put it aside and say that it is merely the flattery of an officeholder who kneels before this new-built throne and eulogizes the man from whose hands he receives his daily bread.

"Barrett is a true and faithful exponent of the policy of our President. He speaks with frankness of the new policy that the Nation is to pursue if imperialism is indorsed. We must forget all that we have ever known of patriotism and the principles of Government before we can throw our hats in the air and cheer for Roosevelt and his colonial policy. Surely there must be a multitude of Republicans who will refuse to apologize for a century of glorious history."

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by B. F. Chamberlain.

WHEAT TARIFF A BOOMERANG.

Benefits Nobody Now and Works a Hardship on Everybody.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The short crop of American wheat and the rise in the price of bread, as a natural consequence, has brought the Republicans face to face with a condition which they little anticipated when its leaders framed the Dingley bill. The law as it now obtains places a duty of 25 cents a bushel on wheat imported into this country, and was meant to hoodwink the wheat growers of the Northwest into a belief that the Republican party was really favoring their interests. As the United States is, however, an exporter of wheat, it has afforded its wheat producers little or no benefit, until now, when the scarcity of wheat has become so great that Northwestern mills will either have to shut down or run short handed if foreign wheat is not obtained. The question is a far-reaching one and will have to be solved at an early day. It promises to make the agitation of the repeal of the duty on wheat one of the biggest and most important at the approaching session of Congress.

The duty on wheat, it is now too plain to be seen, is doing the wheat growers no good, is hampering the millers by lowering their output, is reducing the volume of business of the transportation lines, and is wringing from the people, who need bread and must have it, hundreds of thousands of dollars, all for the benefit of a few wheat manipulators. The advance in the price of American wheat has reached such a figure that according to a statement of the Dunlop Flouring Mills of Richmond, Va., it is now possible to import wheat from Russia and the Black Sea, grind it in this country, and export it, less the drawback, at a profit, both the transportation lines and the millers treating it.

These millers say that they were offered, not later than last Saturday, a superb quantity of wheat at $1.05 per bushel c. i. f. Newport News. This, with duty paid, would cost them $1.30, as against $1.26 to $1.30 asked by Democratic shippers of No. 2 red, winter wheat, which has a milling value of at least 5c per bushel under that of the foreign wheat. The foreign wheat, the millers say, is really beautiful, tests 63 pounds to the bushel, is clear and plump and of rich color. They predict that the imports of foreign wheat will, this year, be as great if not greater than the entire American export of wheat and flour.

Another incongruous fact growing out of the present condition of the American wheat market is that the price of wheat in this and exporting wheat countries is greater than the price being asked for wheat in countries which import wheat.

Consumers have not up to the present time fully understood what the agitation of the repeal of the duty on wheat was all about, but now that it is brought home to them in an increased price of bread, they will not be long in understanding it, and it remains to be seen whether the dominant party will stand out against the people to the enrichment of a few traffickers in wheat who alone are benefited by the Dingley law. The product of immense fields of Canadian wheat, but for this pernicious law, would be immediately available.

Our Great Thirtieth Anniversary Sale

1874-1904

"THE BIG STORE"

In 1874, just 30 years ago, John S. Shivers, father of the present owners of the Big Store, launched his first boat with a capital of about $100 upon the mercantile sea. The place was Oakland, six and one half miles west of Crockett. The storms of a financial sea have beat upon it; many times it has looked as if it would sink beneath the furious waves of adversity which would sometimes in its fury almost break it to pieces upon the shoals that were hidden from the mariner's eyes beneath the surface. Guiding this boat upon the tempestuous seas was a heart and hand determined to reach the port of safety. Directing that boat from that memorable day, 30 years ago, from a small beginning, with a capital of $100, to the present time, when the total resources, boat, cargo and its appertinences exceed one tenth of a million dollars, has been no small task for a lifetime, and to celebrate the event we will make this month an epoch in our existence by offering to the good people of Houston county and adjoining counties Our Entire Stock of Goods in the boat which has three decks and contains over 13,000 square feet of space full of numerous needfuls that will go in thousands of homes, making their occupants happy and contented.

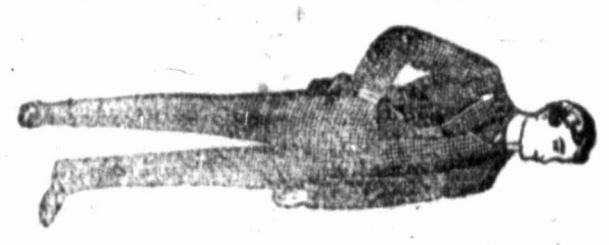

Readers, whether patrons or strangers, no matter whether confident of ultimate success or struggling along through life, it is a duty you owe to those whom you love and live for to watch your chance to save money, and above all your precious time. Money Wasted by the Texas Legislature.

Do you know why counties having but 12,000 ballots should order as many as 75,000 ballots printed for the approaching election?
CLARA Z. SMITH.

Yes, madam. This unnecessary and inexcusable expense was placed upon the counties of Texas
by the Legislature—not intentionally, but through carelessness and neglect. Not all extravagance of the Legislature was intentional; neither does all of it appear in the appropriation bills. The counties also are to suffer because of legislative blunders and carelessness.

The Terrell election law originally provided for a blanket ballot, upon which should be printed all the tickets. Section 60 declared that "two and one-half times as many ballots as there were votes for Governor in the precinct at the last general election" should be delivered to the election judges of each precinct.
The Legislature knocked out the provision for a blanket ballot, and provided instead that there should be a ballot for each of the political parties nominating a ticket.
Section was changed to read that there should be "two and one-half times as many of each ballot as there were votes cast for Governor in the precinct at the last general election."

Evidently, when the blanket ballot was eliminated it was the intention of the Legislature to provide that there should be delivered to the election judges two and one half times as many of each ballot as each of the respective parties cast for Governor in the last preceding general election.
But the law was not worded that way, and as a result of the error or oversight the presses of the State have been running overtime in turning out ballots which will not be needed, and the counties and candidates certainly have a big fat bill to settle.

There were 361,172 votes cast
for Governor in Texas in 1902.
Had the Terrell bill been passed as originally drawn, or had it been properly amended when the blanket ballot was stricken out, it would have called for the printing of but 902,930 ballots (two and one half times as many as the number of votes cast in 1902), which certainly would have been ample. But, with six tickets in the field, and the law reading as it does, it is necessary to provide 5,417,585 ballots, an absurdly large number.

There must be just as many (902,930) ballots for the Republican party, which polled 65,706 votes in 1902, as for the Democratic party, which polled 269,076 votes. The Populists, who polled 12,387, must have as many; ditto
the Prohibition party, which polled 8,708. The latter will have 130 ballots to each voter it showed in 1902, and certainly stands in no danger of running short. Then there are some parties which have tickets in the field this year that had none two years ago—they must also have 902,930 ballots, although it is yet to be demonstrated that they need any considerable number.

There are some counties wherein was cast but one vote for certain of the minority tickets two years ago; nevertheless these minority parties must have as much paper at the election places as any other party. In Dallas County in 1902 the Populist candidate for Governor received 83 votes. That party must have 16,679 ballots, 200 per voter.
The same candidate received 5 votes in Harris county. The party will there have 13,095 ballots, or 2,619 per voter, a very liberal

per capita, it must be admitted.

The News has condemned the Republican National Administration for its dishonesty and extravagance in permitting the publication at Government expense of Republican campaign literature.
The only difference between its action and that of the Texas Legislature in the matter here pointed out is in the motive. The effect upon the tax payer is about the same in each instance. The dishonesty in the one case and the carelessness in the other are alike reprehensible. Let each voter who goes to the polls on Nov. 8 look at the stacks of unused and useless ballots, purchased with hard-earned money, and fit only to light fires, and then draw his own conclusion. So far as The News is concerned, it stands for greater efficiency and for fewer inexcusable and costly mistakes in the public service.—Galveston News.

Resolutions of Respect.

DODGE, Texas, Oct. 15, 1904.
To the Worshipful Master,
Wardens and Brethren of Dodge
Lodge, No. 384 A. F. & A. M:

We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the regret of this Lodge on the death of our beloved Bro. W. L.
Deupree, who departed this life at Oakhurst, Texas, Sept. 25th, 1904, beg leave to report.

That whereas it has pleased our Grand Master to take from this earth the spirit of our beloved friend, companion and brother, and whereas, Bro. Deupree had only been made a Mason for the short space of two weeks still he showed the spirit and the make-up of a real good man and we had looked forward to his becoming one of our leading workers therefore be it resolved,

1st. That while bowing to humble submission to the decrees of an allwise God, Who doeth all things well, it is still with feelings of the greatest sorrow that we part for ever from our brother.

2nd. That in the death of Bro.
Deupree, Dodge Lodge has lost a member whom we feel sure would exemplify in his daily walk the true Masonic virtues. Our county has lost a good citizen and our community one who was ever ready to show true friendship.

3rd. That while sorrowing ourselves we extend to his bereaved relatives our condolence in this their hour of deepest afflictions.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be presented to his family, that they be also printed in the Huntsville Post and Crockett Courier, and that a page be set apart on our record book for recording same. Fraternally, submitted.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary.
There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C.
A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having tried Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c bot-

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house.
We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal."

HAVEMEYER IN A BLIZZARD.

Wind Blew 100 Miles an Hour and He Helped to Shovel Snow.

Denver, Colo.—Almost on top of the Rocky Mountains H. O. Havemeyer's special train on the New Moffatt Railroad ran into a blizzard, and the sugar refiner, who was already somewhat affected by the altitude, gave the trainmen $25 apiece to make a quick return to Denver, where summer weather was prevailing.

Mr. Havemeyer desired to ascertain the advantages the newly opened section offered for sugar beet culture and started for Arrowhead, the present terminus of the line. Soon after getting into the mountains a gale sprang up, and before reaching Mammoth the trainmen were frequently compelled to shovel snow from the track. At Mammoth, which is so situated that the wind is not broken by the peaks, the gale reached an estimated velocity of 100 miles an hour. The cars rocked and the engine driver was afraid to run fast. Although the trainmen advised a postponement of the return trip, Havemeyer insisted upon going back at once.

On this portion of the road there are several new trestles over high chasms, and Chester Foltz, the engine driver, accustomed to mountain railroading, said it made his hair stand on end to cross the gulches in such a gale. Fifteen miles this side of Mammoth a particularly large snowdrift was encountered, and the sugar man, impatient at the delay, donned cap and mitts to direct the work of removing the snow.

Mr. Havemeyer after his return shook hands with the engine driver, and said he would like to know more of a man who had the nerve to run locomotives on mountain roads in winter. Mr. Havemeyer said he would not have missed the experience for anything, but he would not care to undergo it again.

Democrats See Success in Sight.

New York, October 20.—The Eagle says: That Parker will have 256 votes in the electoral college is the real belief of the democratic managers—a belief which is more than hope—indeed, conviction. This fact is asserted advisedly, though its publication will excite their anger. Whether wisely or contrary, the democratic policy throughout the whole campaign has been that of a still hunt. The campaign has been conducted upon the lines which Samuel J. Tilden, nearly thirty years ago, pursued with such astonishing success. Confidence has been withheld from everybody even within the committee headquarters, while the work of thorough organization has been persistently followed. No claims have been made. There has been, indeed, no attempt to arouse local workers by promises of success and a blare of brass bands.

These policies—though the managers are yet maintaining silence, it is their belief, based on proofs of return—have been attended with a success that has more than justified their labors and expenditures. These policies have left to their opponents all the claim making, which, more unopposed is they have been, have swollen to such magnitude until, to quote a distinguished democrat, "The republicans are claiming the heavens above, the earth beneath and all the waters under the earth."

The Eagle has been placed in a position to make a statement upon the basis of the belief in 256 college is based. As a matter of fact, more than 256 votes are hoped for. Wisconsin, it is held, will quite likely cast its electoral vote for Parker and there are even hopes of the State of Washington. Here is the list counted on by democratic managers:

New Jersey 12, New York 39, Connecticut 7, Delaware 3, Maryland 8, West Virginia 7, Indiana 15, Montana 3. Total, 105.

One hundred and fifty-two votes from the Southern States are conceded by the republicans to Parker. Add these to 105 and the result is 256, a majority of seventeen for Parker in the college. Democratic managers assert there are many reasons why Parker should carry all these States. They base their estimates largely on the claim that the independent vote all over the country will go to the democratic candidate. Further than this, the leaders count much on the labor vote. They say it will go largely for Parker on account of the many strikes and the generally disturbed conditions for the past two years.

According to the estimate of democratic leaders, Parker will carry this State by a plurality of 30,000 to 40,000, while some of the more optimistic are confident Herrick will carry the State by 100,000. In this estimate they reckon on Roosevelt coming down to the Harlem with about 85,000 plurality and Parker carrying the city by at least 115,000.

Democratic managers count on carrying Connecticut. All of the independent and the gold democrat vote is said to be in line for Parker.

The democrats scout the republican claim that New Jersey will give Roosevelt a plurality of 17,000. They say this claim is based on the vote of four years ago, and that conditions are totally changed.

The labor vote is expected to carry Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and Idaho for Parker. West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware are reckoned as Parker States.

Democratic leaders are not saying much about Wisconsin, but they have strong hopes for the State.

The Children's Department.

When the managers of the great Floto shows organized this beautiful exhibition they did not forget that to please and amuse the little folk is to please and amuse the entire world.

With this thought in mind they have added to their already costly shows a department for the children, including many fairyland features, the beauties of which have never been equaled by any similar exhibition.

In the parade will be seen many costly miniature wagons, floats, tableaux and open cages containing the smaller species of the animal kingdom. One hundred beautiful Shetland ponies, 100 dogs of all species and sizes; scores of rare birds, baby elephants, and monkeys too numerous to count. These are all for the children and each and every little animal performs its respective part in the difficult programs arranged by Prof. D. G. Markel, the king of animal trainers.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by B. F. Chamberlain.

BUSHELS OF DOLLARS.

Oakwoods Capitalists Are About Ready to Begin Pumping Collier's Lake.

Oakwoods, Tex., Oct. 29.—F. A. Nordin, president, and J. R. Gregg, Sec'y of the F. A. Nordin Pumping Co., returned last night from Collins Lake and report everything moving along rapidly in the way of getting the machinery started. These gentlemen are energetic and will spend most of their time on the lake. Collins Lake is six miles due west of Old Navarre crossing on the Trinity River. The Mexicans crossing there were being hard pressed by the Indians at this point, as some Mexican artillery has been discovered deep down in the mud. A restaurant has been established, so the large number of people visiting the lake can get something to eat, and a back line will be in operation from Oakwoods in a few days. In conversation with a gentleman who has lived in the county fifty years he said that there is no doubt about there being bushels of Mexican silver dollars in the lake. It has created great excitement and a large number of people are there daily.

Eating as a Trade Among Indians.

Yankton, S. D.—One of the striking customs that are preserved by the Indians of today is found among tribes on the Devil's Lake reservation. Supervisor Wright, of the Indian service, gives this account of the peculiar practice:

"From time immemorial the Devil's Lake Sioux have adhered to an old custom in regard to the treatment of the guest. According to their etiquette it is the duty of the host to supply his guest with all the food he may desire, and as a rule the apportionment set before the visiting Indian is much in excess of the capacity of one man.

"But by the same custom the guest is obliged to eat all that is placed before him, or he incurs his entertainer. It was found that this practice would work a hardship, but instead of dispensing with the custom the Indian method of reasoning was applied, and what is known as the professional eater was brought to the front.

"While the guest is supposed to eat all that is placed before him, it serves the same purpose if his neighbor assists in devouring the repast, the main object being to have the plate clean when the meal is finished.

"It is not always practicable to depend upon a neighbor to assist in eating a large dinner, and to insure the consumption of the allotted portion visiting Indians call upon professional eaters whose duty it is to sit beside them through the meal and eat what the guest leaves. The professional eaters are never looked upon as guests, but more as traveling companions with a duty to perform.

"These eaters receive $1 to $2 and even $3 for each meal where they assist. It is stated by the agent at Devil's Lake reservation that one of the professional eaters has been known to dispose of seventeen pounds of beef at a sitting. That they are capable of eating an almost fabulous amount I can testify."

B. F. Chamberlain, THE DRUGGIST.

R. L. Smith of Fulton, Mo., was here last week. He owns a half interest in one of the W. V. Berry farms.

They're Chester Make. That's goodness. They're easy. That's gracious. Goodness, gracious! What more do you want?

Going to need anything to eat or wear? If so the Big Store is the place to get it cheap during their 30th anniversary sale.

Mrs. J. O. Ross, after spending a week with Mrs. Corinne N. Corry, left for her home at Houston Monday afternoon.

We learn of the marriage last week of Mr. G. R. Murchison of Grapeland to Mrs. Cora Stephenson. May success attend them.

We make a study of the tailoring business, is why we do the tailoring business.

On Nov. 4th the Big Store will put on one of the greatest bargain sales that has ever been placed on the pages of the history of Houston county.

The COURIER job department is receiving many compliments on the class of work it is turning out, which is indeed gratifying to the management.

The COURIER job department is well equipped for supplying the wants of those who want good printing—new type, new presses and the best paper.

K. D. Lawrence, Harold Monday, John Wakefield, J. N. Wellborn and Frank Adams were noted among those here Monday from Lovelady attending court.

Henry Dudley came in Wednesday morning and after paying his subscription for a year in advance, paid $1.00 each for the following: Lewis Johnson, Mac Cannon, Geo. Stanton and Henry Jones.

Major McMillan, a negro indicted for the murder of Jake Sheffur, was shot from ambush near Porter Springs Saturday night. No arrest had been made Tuesday and the negro will recover.

More interest is being taken in good stock in this county than ever before. A better class of horses, cattle and mules is being raised, and we hear of a farmer who has shipped one car of hogs and will have two more.

Lovelady was well represented in Crockett Tuesday. Among those we noted were W. F. Dent, G. M. T. Caton, Jim Barbee, Lang Smith, G. L. Murray and W. O. Phipps. They were attending district court, some as jurors and others as witnesses.

From what the COURIER can learn there will be more cotton made in the western and southern parts of the county this year than last, but less in the east and northern parts. Kennard will ship considerable less cotton than it did last year and so will Grapeland, but Lovelady and Crockett will ship more.

Ansel Williams, who has recently bought land near Crockett, was a caller at this office Thursday. Mr. Williams comes from Missouri. He is a mute, as is also his wife. They have a family of three very interesting children. The COURIER hopes Mr. Williams will do well here and believes that he will.

Mr. J. J. Keels, who has lived the past year at Oak Ridge, La., has returned to his farm near Daniel. Mr. Keels left here on account of the boll weevil, but has decided that he can do better here with the weevil than he can in Louisiana without the weevil. We expect to next hear of Mr. J. T. Simmons returning to Houston county.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a dinner in the old cany kitchen, Stokes building, next Monday. The bill of fare will consist of barbecued meats, chicken, turkey, ham, salads, pickles, breads, cake and coffee. The price of the dinner will be 50 cents. The ladies solicit the patronage of the public and promise the finest dinner for the money that can be gotten up.

A rural free delivery mail route has been established from the Crockett postoffice to begin December 1 and designated No. 1. The route lies over the Crockett and Palestine road going, crossing and returning on the Rusk and Crockett road. The area covered is 30 square miles, houses supplied 132, and the population 520. The pay of the carrier will be $702 per annum, including horse hire. Total length of route 234 miles.

The friends of the late W. E. Wellborne will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred at Longview on the 28th of October. During his three year's residence here he made many friends who join in extending sympathy to the bereaved widow and son. Mr. Wellborne contracted tuberculosis of the lungs here last winter, from which he never recovered, but constantly grew worse until the time of his death.

The general election supplies have come and are at the county clerk's office. They include the ballots and instructions and weigh 690 pounds. The express on them from San Antonio was $11.50. Election managers can get them by calling at the county clerk's office with a wagon—a wagon is absolutely necessary. The Terrell election law was framed in the interest of the big city printing houses and has cost every county in the state many a needless dollar.

A Big Advertisement.

Jas. S. Shivers & Co. know the value of advertising. This week's COURIER contains a double page ad, for them and our readers will do well to peruse it carefully and take advantage of the bargains offered. This is the second double page ad. ever carried in the COURIER. Last spring Dan J. Kennedy used two pages in the COURIER with satisfactory results. The merchant who is liberal with his advertising is liberal with his customers, thus increasing his trade and at the same time his profits.

Married Tuesday Evening.

Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Kline, Miss Mabel L. Kline was married to Mr. B. O. Sellers of Morenci, Arizona. Rev. Mr. Herodes of Tennessee performed the ceremony. Only a few of the immediate neighbors were present. The bride has been a resident of Crockett only about three months, but during that time she has endeared herself to our people as a very charming young lady. The groom is a prominent young business man of Arizona. He and his bride left on the north-bound afternoon train Wednesday for their future home at Morenci. They have the best wishes and congratulations of our people.

Cotton and the Market.

Crockett had shipped 176 bales less of cotton Tuesday morning than it had at the same time last year. The reason of this is believed to be the prevailing low price. Cotton is being held by the farmers on their farms and by the merchants in Crockett. It is the general opinion that more cotton was made this year than last, yet shipments are lighter. This may lead some to believe that the size of the crop is overestimated and which may be a fact. Shipments this year up to Tuesday morning were 2136 bales against 2312 bales at the same time last year. The bulk of the cotton crop was being shipped out at this time last year while now it is being held back. Middling cotton was bringing 84 cents Tuesday. Cotton seed were worth $12 a ton or 20 cents a bushel.

District Court.

District court continues to grind away. Judge John J. Word is proving himself an able judge, evincing a quick interpretation and thorough understanding of the law. Jim Williams—forgery; two years.

Archie Smith—murder of Wash Cummings; set for November 9 and venire of 40 ordered.

Looney Taylor—theft of money over the value of $70; set for Friday, Nov. 4.

Mack Eddens—thrift of hog; two years.

Ed Nelms—thrift of hog; two years.

Archie Turner—fraudulent disposition of mortgaged property; reset for Thursday, November 3.

Spence Carson—murder; set for Friday, November 11, and venire of 40 ordered.

Oscar Hart—burglary; two years.

Ben Ondracek—thrift of cattle; acquitted.

Lewis King—forgery, two cases; two years in each.

Frank Adams—embezzlement of money over the value of $50; on trial Wednesday morning.

Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by B. F. Chamberlain.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Smith & French Drug Co.

About Idle Dollars and Idle Hands.

The rainy days and cold weather should remind the enterprising Texan that we are in need of some provision by which those who need to do so may have employment under shelter. In well-ordered communities willing hands need not be folded in idleness merely because it is too wet or cold to perform outdoor work.

There is always little doing during inclement weather in the shops and stores where goods are offered for sale. Few customers come in. But in the larger establishments some of the time can be spent in taking stock or in rearranging matters for another rush of customers when the skies clear. It is not so in many other lines. When the weather is bad all the earners are forced to become idlers.

There are many who are idlers even when the weather is good. There is no work at hand of a proper kind for them to undertake. They can not perform the hard work of the farm. There are not enough places for all of them in mercantile establishments, in telephone exchanges, in the laundries, in the few factories we now have. There is not a community in Texas which has not in it idlers who are idle because opportunities of the kind they require are too few.

In order to round out and make permanent the prosperity of any community it is necessary to give all willing hands a chance. This has not been done yet in many communities in Texas. It can be done. We have both the opportunity and the money. Put this and that together, and a little rain and a little cold will not stop half the wage-earners in their efforts to earn wages.

There are said to be millions of idle dollars in Texas. Let it go that there are millions of them, and still there is no good reason why there should be an idle dollar in the state: Every dollar in Texas could be earning its 4, 6, 8 or 10 per cent, just as well as not. Much better than not. Why not put the dollars to work in some line in which they can earn interest even on rainy days?

The one way to put the dollars to work and to keep all the hands busy is to build and operate more manufacturing establishments. All the conditions are favorable to a general turn toward factory building. The idea is to utilize the opportunity which lies at hand to finish our raw material and thus to double over and over again the value of Texas products. The idea is to open up new lines of industry that may be kept open the year round; new opportunities for thousands of would-be wage-earners, for whom no provision has been made up to this time.—Galveston News.

Nacogdoches Star: The merchants of Beaumont are seriously discussing a proposal to inaugurate bargain days once or twice a month and run cheap excursion trains to drain into Beaumont the trade that should come to Nacogdoches and other East Texas cities. The proposition should induce our business men and property owners to realize that Nacogdoches can't sit still and wait for trade in this age of fierce competition. Our cities of our class are being stirred themselves with schemes of various kinds to increase trade and we must do likewise if we are to keep up with the procession.

IT IS OF IMPORTANCE

The Amendment to Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution.

In explaining the constitutional amendment to be voted upon at the approaching election, involving drainage matters, County Attorney Wheeler said yesterday: "The Governor's proclamation states, among other things, that the people of Texas are called upon to vote for or against an amendment to section 52 of article 3 of the Constitution."

"Owing to the fact that the Democratic ticket will meet with but little opposition, the vote polled in Texas at the Nov. 8 election may be very light, and owing to the further fact that the average voter may not understand the words 'for or against section 52, of article 3,' they may either not vote upon the proposition, or, to be safe, may vote against the amendment."

"The amendment is of importance to the people of the coast country, to the people of Western Texas and to those living along the banks of some of the rivers of Texas. This directly concerns these people for the reason that it permits a county by a two-thirds vote to issue bonds for the construction and maintenance of pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams or canals for the purpose of irrigation, drainage or navigation, or in aid thereof. The drainage law permits of a special tax to be levied on the land to be drained. For that reason it is subject to much improvement and so far as known has never been invoked."

"This amendment to the Constitution, if carried, will permit a general tax upon all of the land in the county desiring to use such irrigation or drainage ponds. It lifts the burden of drainage off of the shoulders of the few and places it upon the shoulders of the general public."

"The citizens of League City have organized a drainage club for the purpose of securing a full vote in this county for the amendment and an effort will be made, through circulars and letters directed to the County Judge of other coast counties, to call the attention of the voters in their respective counties to the importance of the amendment.—Galveston News.

BLOW STRUCK HOME.

Parker's Speech Against Trusts is Giving Roosevelt Annoyance.

Washington, Oct. 25.—There is reason to believe that the hot leveled at the Administration by Judge Parker in his speech against the trusts yesterday is greatly exercising the President. Allegations from such a distinguished source that the trusts are contributing to the Republican campaign fund because of promised or implied immunity from prosecution will, the President thinks, do much harm unless something is said or done to counteract the effect. The President made inquiries of three or four of his visitors today, which indicated that he regarded the speech as very important and far-reaching in its effect.

Among the callers at the White House during the morning hours were Senator Knox of Pennsylvania and Commissioner of Commerce Garfield, who came at the President's invitation for the purpose of discussing the Presidential situation. Both of these are splendidly equipped to advise the President. Another thing which is causing the Republican managers concern is the whirlwind methods which the Democrats have adopted in bringing the fight for votes to a close.

It is said that some of the members are insisting that the only sure means of offsetting the effect of the campaign of reason which Democrats have been conducting is by assessing the trusts to even a greater extent than has been done heretofore and spending the money acquired lavishly in close localities. There will probably be complaints from the corporations which consider that they have already done well by the Administration, but the latter has screws which are ample to bring the reluctant penny from the trust pocket.

A MURDEROUS PORTER.

Iron Mountain Conductor Killed by Negro—Officers Spirited Him Away.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 25.—P. A. Atwood, a passenger conductor employed by the St. Louis Iron Mountain & Southern Railway, was shot at 8:30 this morning near Farrell station, fifteen miles east of Little Rock, by Houston Hooker, the negro. The tragedy occurred on the Pine Bluff accommodation due here at 10 a. m.

Hooker was arrested and brought to this city for safekeeping. His grievance against Conductor Atwood was that the latter slapped him in the face after reprimanding him on the ground that he had been inattentive to passengers.

The conductor and porter, according to the porter's statement, exchanged angry words before the conductor struck him. The shooting followed an hour later.

An attempt was made this afternoon to take Hooker to Benton, the county seat of Saline county, in which the shooting occurred.

Before the train reached the city limits of Little Rock the officers accompanying Hooker took him off the train, believing that a crowd of avengers was in the car.

A small party tried to take the negro from the officers after they left the train, but the attempt was frustrated.

Tonight the whereabouts of Hooker is known only to the authorities.

An effort to lynch the negro will undoubtedly be made if he can be reached by a mob.

MEXICAN NATIONAL WRECK.

Result of Excessive Speed and Bad Roadbed—Banker Speyer Aboard but Uninjured.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 25.—Word has just reached this city that the special which left over the line of the National of Mexico Railroad, bearing James Speyer, of the banking firm of Speyer & Co., of New York, while going at a high rate of speed went into the ditch between Sanchez and Le Jarlia, about twenty-five miles south of here. Details of the wreck are at present unobtainable, but it is learned from a semi-reliable source that both coaches, comprising the special, left the track, the engine, however, remaining on the rails. It is understood that Conductor Sharkey was injured, but it is not stated whether any of the party comprising those in the special were injured or not.

A special train has just reached this city bearing the members of the party who, started out with Mr. James Speyer earlier in the evening.

Mr. Speyer is uninjured. One of the party, J. W. Davis of New York, received a painful cuts about the face but is otherwise uninjured.

The wreck was the result of the condition of the roadbed and the high speed, seventy-five miles per hour, at which the train was going at the time, it having been the intention of the railroad officials to establish a new record between here and Mexico City.

FRIGHTENED TO DEATH.

Strange Man in Mrs. Moran's Room With Drawn Pistol.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 25.—Her heart paralyzed with fear at seeing a strange man in her room at midnight with a drawn pistol, Mrs. Dolores De Moran, a Mexican woman, died in her bed at an early hour this morning. A little child was prematurely born at the same time. H. L. Thompson, Memphis, Tenn., a young man, who is visiting the International Fair, is held, charged with the woman's murder.

According to the testimony taken at the inquest, the inmates of the house were aroused at 1 o'clock this morning, and upon Salome Moran opening the door, he was confronted by Thompson, who said he wanted to see a man with whom he had been fighting and who had run into the house. Moran said he assured Thompson that no one was in the house, when the latter drew a pistol and made him put up his hands. He ran, and when he returned the woman was dead. Dr. D. Berry testified that she died of paralysis of the heart, caused by shock and fright. Thompson had been drinking, and this morning he remembered nothing of the occurrence.

To the Voters of Houston County. But little, if any, interest has been manifested in our County Election, which is to take place on November 8th, and that time is near at hand. All of us know that Democratic success is inevitable in the State and County, but we should not be content with the assurance of Democratic success. Every voter in the county should exercise the right given him under the law, and go to the polls and vote. Many of you may say that your time is worth more than your vote, but with this sentiment prevailing throughout the county, our Republic would soon fall into the hands of, and its destiny be shaped by the Select, the very thing that our party is now combating against, and that which every democrat is opposed to. Then we should not neglect so important a duty. Let every democratic voter in the county come to the election and vote. It is important for many reasons: 1st, because we want a large representation in all conventions in which the county is entitled to participate; 2nd, because there are three Amendments to the State Constitution to be voted on, and every one should be interested, at least when there is a change to be made in the organic laws of our grand State; 3rd, the voters of Houston county have never made an effort to poll its strength in the general election, in fact the vote falls off at least 35 per cent of what it is in our primaries, and this should not be.

To the Voters of Houston County.

Let me urge each and every voter to come out and vote, do not manifest a slothful interest in your Government. Our Republican Government is something to be admired, rather than scorned, though it may not be what we desire. If not, come and show your willingness to help us make the correction. Yours fraternally, J. W. HALL, Co. Chairman, Ex. Committee.
