Augusta Letter.

Augusta, August 5, 1906.
EDITOR CROCKETT:

The political battle of 1906 is now a reminiscence of the past so far as county offices are concerned but the "big fight" for the governorship is yet to materialize at the convention which assembles at Dallas on the 14th day of August. In this struggle where there are four aspirants, the venerable and distinguished statesman, Hon. Tom Campbell the sage of Palestine takes the lead. Through all the campaign he has strictly adhered to his platform laid down in his opening speech at Athens. The attacks some of his opponents have made upon him while receiver of the I. & G. N. were but wasted words, and gained him friends. Being personally acquainted with Tom Campbell for many years, both in private and political walks of life, he is in every essential a man of unblemished reputation and character, a learned and distinguished lawyer and statesman and an acknowledged friend to the laboring class in every avocation of life, and through all these years a glorious name to gain. He has climbed the steep ascent that leads to fame. Yet, may have missed the rugged way.

We learn that Commissioner Sewell has had the county convict gang working on the neighborhood road leading out to his gin near Perella. Why is this thus? If we understand the construction of the law in regard to working convicts they are strictly confined to the public roads. If a property owner lives off from the public road and runs a gin stand for the benefit of the public, he receives full compensation in toll for his work and for the simple reason that he is commissioner draws on the convict gang to put that road in good order, is a mystery beyond our conception. If Commissioner Sewell desires to show that appreciation to his constituents that he should do he had better concentrate all the convict labor that is comatable on the public roads, and let the byways alone. If there ever was a section of country that required road working it is here adjacent to Augusta, leading out to Crockett, Grapeland, Weches and other minor points. One thing is certain, something has to be done on the roads or there will be a terrible lot of trade going elsewhere. They work nothing but public roads in Anderson county, and its a little less than a day's drive to the county seat.

There was a little Juvenile entertainment given at the home of Mr. Stouts Saturday evening, lasting from five till seven, and quite a bevy of little butterflies were present and had a most enjoyable time.

Miss Mary Gregg, only daughter of the late Marvin Gregg, who died at the big mills a short time since, and who is slowly recovering from an attack of slow fever, arrived at the home of her uncle, Capt. Henry Gregg, of this place, where she will be pleasantly domiciled during her convalescence.

Everything is quiet along the Potomac, and the ripple of the gulf breeze through the leafy bower is exhilarating in the extreme. Ever thine,

DONNELLA.

Summer Diarrhoea in Children.

During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, pastor of the first M. E. Church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children." Sold by Murchison & Beasley.

"I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made a well man." It is a medicine free from poisons and will cure any case of kidney disease that is not beyond the reach of medicine.

Memorial Services.

Rusk, Tex., Aug. 5, 1906.
Mr. Editor:—Please say to the people of the 13th senatorial district that the democratic executive committee at its Austin meeting on the 11th of June, 1906, by resolution, fixed Monday night, August 13, at 8:30 o'clock, as a proper time to hold memorial services in honor of the Hon. John H. Reagan, Ex-Gov. Jas. S. Hogg and Ex-Gov. Francis R. Lubbock, the services to be held at the convention hall in the city of Dallas. The following gentlemen will deliver addresses, together with other speakers: Hon. Horace Chilton, Hon. Yancey Lewis and Hon. H. M. Gossett. I hope as many of our people as can will be at this meeting to do honor to our loved and honored dead. The rates on the railroads will be on in time for all to go to this meeting.
L. D. QUINN,
Member of the State Democratic Executive Com., 13th District.

Stop that Cough.

When a cough, a tickling or an irritation in the throat makes you feel uncomfortable take Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Don't wait until the disease has gone beyond control. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, 354 West 5th St., Salt Lake City, Utah, write: "We think Ballard's Horehound Syrup the best medicine for coughs and colds. We have used it for several years; it always gives immediate relief, is very pleasant and gives perfect satisfaction." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Murchison & Beasley.

THREE NEGROES LYNCHED.

Mob of 3000 North Carolinians Stormed Rowan County Jail.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 7.—A mob of 3,000 determined men, shortly before 11 o'clock last night, forcibly entered Rowan county jail at Salisbury, removed therefrom three of the five negroes charged with the murder of the Lyell family at Barber Junction, July 13, and lynched them. Nease and John Gillespie and Jack Dillingham, supposed to be the principals to the crime, were the victims of mob vengeance. The remaining negroes, Henry Lee, George Ervin and Bella Dillingham, were not molested and later the officers hurried them off to Greensboro.

The crime with which the negroes were charged and for which they were placed on trial at a special term of Rowan county court was the murder on the night of July 13, at Barber Junction, of Isaac Lyell, his wife and two children. Feeling ran high at the time, and an effort was made to lynch the negroes. They were hurried away and brought to Charlotte, where they were taken to Salisbury for trial.

CRABBED RATTLER BY TAIL.

Boy Threw It, Killed It and Got $1.50 for the Job.

Gonzales, Tex.; On Mrs. Seidel's ranch, near Smiley, last week, the following incident occurred. It was known by the family that a den of rattlesnakes was under the barn, and numerous efforts had been made to kill the big rattler, and the sum of $1.50 had been offered for its capture. A little Mexican boy "Lala" for it, and when it appeared he grabbed it by the tail, threw it off a few feet, got a board and killed it. The snake was six and a half feet long and four inches around. It was a dangerous feat for the boy, but he got his $1.50.

NEGRO SHOT BY OFFICER.

Later Claims the Other Tried to Draw a Pistol.

Tyler, Tex.—Lee Wiley, colored, is at death's door with a bullet wound in the abdomen as a result of difficulty with Deputy Sheriff H. H. Kaykendall Saturday night.

Wiley was charged with cutting Sarah Fields, a negro, and Kaykendall went to arrest him. The officer claims that the negro pulled a pistol on him, and that he (Kaykendall) then whipped out his gun and shot Wiley. The negro, said, examined later, was in default of working order. Kaykendall has been put under bond.

Can Survey Adjoining Counties.

Austin, Tex.—In an opinion on the land commission, Judge Hawkins of the attorney general's department advises that under sections 8 of the last land law, page 179, a county or district surveyor, in making lines for an adjacent county or district land can run on an adjoining county or district in order to measure the vacancy, that such surveyor is not restricted to his own county or district where the vacancy is, but that he extends to any and all county or district.

Negro Assassinated.

Navasota, Tex.—A strange negro named John Williams was found dead in a road near Neffevan. He had been working on the Central cotton, and is reported to have had considerable money when last seen alive. It was very plain that he had been set upon and killed with knives. Six other negroes have been arrested on suspicion.

Well for Tobacco Farm.

Orange, Tex.; Contractor Chris Geyer, who has just finished drilling the artesian well on the Anderson school grounds here, closed a deal with the Brown Shelter Tobacco farm to drill a well on their farm a few miles out from town. Approves of this company we wish to say they are making a marked success of the tobacco culture industry in this county. Mr. Shelter was for a long time tobacco culturist expert for the general government.

Austin, Tex.: The railroad commission continues to refuse to file copies of contracts between railroads and express companies relating to changes in former contracts, etc., or proposing new contracts.

Berclair, Tex.: August Schweitz & Co. is the name of a new firm that embarked in the grocery business here last week. L. J. Lutenbacher is in charge, and the house is enjoying a good trade.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

India's Cotton Crop.

The cotton crop of India was larger last year, 1905, than the general average. About 20,000,000 acres were planted in cotton and the yield was about 3,500,000 bales. During the year there were exported from India to other countries over 2,125,000 bales of raw cotton at a value of over $81,000,000, the four countries, Japan, Germany, Belgium and Italy, in the order named, being the largest purchasers, they together buying nearly 1,500,000 bales of Indian cotton, while Japan alone took nearly 500,000 bales.

For Twenty Years.

Other chill remedies have sprung up, flourished for a brief season, then passed away—even from memory—but for twenty long years Cheatham's Chill Tonic has been in the field of action. The reason is simple. It has the merit. It actually cures Chills and Fevers, while the majority of others merely promise to. One bottle guaranteed to cure any one case.

EMEUTE IN THE ARMY AND NAVY OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE.

FLAMES OF REVOLUTION

Trouble On Land and Sea, and From All Portions of the Country Comes News of Uprisings and Terror.

Stirring events have occurred in Russia. A revolution started at Sveaborg, one of the strong fortresses of Finland. The mutineers captured the fort, but it was retaken by the loyal troops. Six hundred men were killed or wounded. It is believed that many of the mutineers that surrendered were court-martialed and shot.
 Fort Constantine, at Cronstadt, near St. Petersburg, was the scene of another uprising, and 100 were killed.
 From all parts of Russia comes news of uprising by peasants, and the burning of palaces and looting of estates.
 Several vessels of the Baltic fleet mutinied, among them the battleship "Asla," one of the strongest of the fleet.
 There are rumors that the emperor purposes to turn the country over to a dictator, and that Grand Duke Nicholas, his brother, has been chosen.
 Premier Stolypin, who attempted to reorganize the cabinet, has been turned down by the czar, and there may be fresh troubles from that quarter.
 The revolutionists are apparently undaunted, and intend to persist in their programme of calling a general strike, is the latest news.
 Army and navy officers have been killed, and civil officers obnoxious to the revolutionaries have been assassinated.
 Revolutionaries declare the first of revolt will spread to every portion of the empire.

The Outlook Dark.

Although the mutinies at Sveaborg have been ended and the one at Cronstadt has been practically put down, the outlook is still black. The revolutionists, whose hands were suddenly forced by the premature rising at Sveaborg, apparently are undaunted at these initial reverses.
 One of the leaders of the revolutionists boasted that the word had gone forth and the fire of revolt would spread to the corners of the empire. His closing words to the correspondent were:
 "Now watch Reval, Riga and Libau."
Rumored the Czar May Flee.
 It is reported that the emperor and the imperial family will flee from Peterhof to Tsarskoe Selo.
 The armored cruiser Pamyat Azova has mutinied off the Estonian coast, and is now in full possession of the mutineers, which is sailing northward toward the Finnish coast.
 The battleship Slava has been ordered to find and sink the mutineer.
 The captain and four officers were put to death on the warship by the mutineers. Four officers were killed at Cronstadt, and Rear-Admiral Belem-scheff, who was bayoneted in the back, was seriously wounded.
 Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholavich, the emperor's brother-in-law, in a rage, ordered all mutineers put to death. The executions are in progress. It is declared that many innocent persons have been killed.

EXPOSITION AT MILAN ESCAPES DESTRUCTION.

Celebrates the Completion of the Sion Tunnel, the Longest in the World.

Milan, Italy—Fire in the Hungarian decorative arts pavilion of the Milan international exposition here for several hours threatened the entire destruction of the exposition, and resulted in damage estimated at $2,240,000 to the art collection shown at the exposition.
 The fact that the decorative art exhibits of the nations were installed in separate unconnected pavilions instead of in one large palace, enabled the firemen to keep the flames in bounds.
 Three of the decorative art pavilions were completely destroyed with their valuable contents, those of Italy, Hungary and that containing the architectural exhibits of Italy and Hungary. A number of the sections, near the center of the blaze, were scorched, and much damage was done to the exhibits in the hasty removal to avoid the flames.
 A large force of carabinieri carried the pictures, many of them of priceless value, from the gallery of fine arts into the corridors of pavilions beyond the fire zone.
 The fire is attributed to an electric short circuit. The authorities reject the theory that the conflagration was of incendiary origin.
 The buildings destroyed were of wood and staff, and offered ready food for the flames.
 The exposition has been open since May 1, and is a mecca for European tourists. The damage traces of the fire will be eliminated as much as possible, and the exposition continued until its closing time, November 1.
 The Milan exposition celebrates the completion of the Sion tunnel, the longest in the world, which bores through the Alps, connecting Milan, in Italy, with Geneva and Lausanne, in Switzerland.

PLANS REJECTED BY FRANCE.

Submarine Torpedo Boat for Germany Launched at Krupp's.

Kiel—A submarine boat constructed by an engineer named Mont Justin, at Krupp's Germania works, has been launched.
 The trials will take place in September. Mont Justin, who was born in Vienna, of Spanish parents, offered the plans of his boat to the French government, which rejected them. They were accepted by the late Frederick Krupp, who contracted with the German government to build a boat on Mont Justin's plans. The boat displaces 180 tons. It has a radius of action of 3,000 miles, a surface speed of 12 knots and a speed of nine knots below the surface. Her engines are driven by electric motors and she will carry a crew of from 12 to 15 men.

GREAT DISASTER.

ITALIAN S. S. SIRIO STRUCK A ROCKY REEF OFF CAPE PALOS.

THREE HUNDRED LIVES LOST.

They Were Emigrants, Largely Italians and Spaniards—Bishop of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Drowned.

Cartagena, Spain, Aug. 6.—A terrible disaster occurred Saturday evening off Cape Palos. The Italian steamship Sirio from Genoa for Barcelona, Cadiz, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, with about 300 persons on board, was wrecked off Hormigas Island.

Three hundred immigrants, most of them Italians and Spaniards, were drowned.

The captain of the steamer committed suicide.

The Bishop of Sao Paulo, Brazil, also was lost and it is said that another bishop is among the missing.

The remainder of the passengers and officers and crew got away in the ship boats or were rescued by means of boats sent to them from the shore.

A number of fishermen who made attempts at rescue were drowned. Those rescued from the vessel are now at Cape Palos in a pitiable condition, being without food or clothing.

The Sirio struck a rocky reef known as Bajos Hormigas, and sank soon after, stern first. Hormigas Island lies about two and one-half miles to the eastward of Cape Palos.

The Sirio was owned by the Navigazione Italiana of Genoa. Before he committed suicide the captain declared the steamer had 645 passengers on board and that her crew numbered 127 men. The Sirio had 570 passengers when leaving Genoa, but additional Spanish passengers were taken on board at Barcelona, where the vessel touched a few hours before the disaster.

Eye-witnesses gave awful pictures of the brutal panic on board. For half an hour the emigrants were masters of the situation. They completely overcame the crew by sheer force of numbers in spite of efforts of the officers who tried to save the women and children first.

One report even states that a group of emigrants approached one of the ship boats which already was full and was about to be launched and dislodged the people, killing several with their knives.

Just as they were about to occupy the boat themselves another body of armed emigrants came up and a fierce fight for possession of the lifeboat followed.

Many of the survivors brought ashore were seriously injured and a number had sustained fractured limbs. Some of the injured subsequently died.

It is reported that the celebrated Spanish singer, Lola Minoles, was among the drowned.

OLD MAN MARTIN, HIS BOYS AND FIFTY KENTUCKIANS WHIP SHERIFF AND POSSE.

FOUR FEUDISTS KILLED

Sheriff and Posse Retire, and Will Await the Arrival of Reinforcements—Want Old Man Martin to Surrender.

Whiteburg, Ky.—A messenger from Sand Lick, Ky., brings the news of a terrible battle on the headwaters of Beaver creek, in Knott county, between the Martin faction of the Hall-Martin feud and the posse under Sheriff Hayes, who is trying to effect their capture.

The report says that four members of the outlaw gang were killed, and that two officers were wounded, but that the names can not be learned at this time as the feudists were not routed from their stronghold.

The officers have retreated to Hindman for reinforcements.

The Martins are Wyatt and two sons, Silas and Alexander. They are under indictment for desperately wounding Dick Hall and William Thornberry and Deputy Sheriff Bates, shooting them from ambush recently.

The Martins have about fifty men in their command. They are entrenched at the home of Martin, on Beaver creek.

Every effort is being made to get a truce arranged, and get old man Martin and his two sons to surrender to the authorities, as they will not submit to arrest by force.

"NO DICKERING."

McMeans, Finley and Buckner Say It, and Bell's Manager Would Say It.

Dallas, Tex.—"No dickering," said Mr. McMeans.

"No dickering," exclaimed Judge Finley.

"No dickering," declared Mr. Buckner.

And if Judge Bell's campaign manager had been seen, he, too, doubtless, would have echoed: "No dickering."

That anyone should have suspected him of seeking an alliance with Mr. Colquitt Judge McMeans thinks is due to a lawless imagination. The web with it spun its theory was in a chance remark. They were talking of the contestants and their careers.

"Mr. Colquitt is only 42," somebody in the crowd said.

"Is that so?" Judge McMeans replied. "In four years he will be 46."

Then he added after a momentary pause: "He would not be too old then to run for governor, would he?"

Straightaway some one inferred that Judge McMeans was engaged in a bit of political love making to Mr. Colquitt, and before the afternoon papers had to lock their forms keen thinkers had evolved a theory that an alliance had already been made, whereby the nomination of Mr. Campbell was to be made easy by the complaisance of Mr. Colquitt in return for which favor Mr. Colquitt was to be the administration candidate four years hence.

LOST LIFE IN FIRE.

W. I. Fletcher Killed and Two Others Injured in Houston Blaze.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 4.—One man was killed and two others severely injured by a fire yesterday afternoon which totally destroyed the Gus Japet liquor store and nearly all its contents.

W. I. Fletcher, electrician, was killed by the initial explosion which started the fire, and later another white man and a negro were wounded by falling debris in making their way out of the building. Fletcher's body had not been recovered from the building last night.

Prof 5 o'clock until nearly 6:30 the fire department worked with a vim to get the flames under control, finally succeeding through having soaked the building entirely. During the progress of the fire there were a number of detonations and explosions, resulting from the stored whiskeys and alcohols being heated to the bursting point.

Fortunately the nature of the structure prevented the fire from spreading, although at one time it appeared as if several other buildings were doomed. It is stated that the damage to stock and contents will reach not less than $100,000, with insurance on both to the extent of about $80,000.

DAZED WITH PAIN.

The Sufferings of a Citizen of Olympia, Wash.

L. S. Gorham, of 516 East 4th St., Olympia, Wash., says: "Six years ago I got wet and took cold, and was soon flat in bed, suffering tortures with my back. Every movement caused an agonizing pain, and the persistency of it exhausted me, so that for a time I was dazed and stupid. On the advice of a friend I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, and soon noticed a change for the better. The kidney secretions had been disordered and irregular, and contained a heavy sediment, but in a week's time the urine was clear and natural again and the passages regular. Gradually the aching and soreness left my back and then the lameness. I used six boxes to make sure of a cure, and the trouble has never returned."

BOOKS FOR GREAT COMMANDER.

Library Napoleon Ordered Comprised Many Subjects.

In 1808 Napoleon formed the idea of having a traveling library in order to make his hours of intellectual recreation independent of the exigencies of a campaign or the delays of a courier.

The proposed library was to form about a thousand volumes. The books were to be of small duodecimo size, printed in good type, and without margins in order to save space. They were to be bound in morocco, with flexible covers and limp backs. The boxes for their conveyance were to be covered with leather and lined with green velvet, and were to average 60 volumes apiece, in two rows like the shelves in a library. A catalogue was to accompany them, so arranged that the emperor could readily find any desired volume. The distribution of subjects was as follows: Forty volumes on religion, 40 of epic poetry, 40 of the drama, 60 volumes of other poetry, 60 volumes of history and 100 novels. "In order to complete the quota," ran the instructions, "the balance shall be made up of historical memoirs."—James Westfall Thompson, in the Atlantic.

Close Second to American Tramp.

The American tramp must look out for his laurels in the matter of stealing rides. A Roumanian recently succeeded in lodging himself on the pipes underneath a dining-car of the Orient express at Costanza, on the Black sea, these pipes affording a sort of shelf about 20 inches wide. He left his bed in Paris 53 hours later. It is remarked that at the end of the journey he was very dusty, hungry and thirsty, and possessed a capital amounting to five cents.

PHYSICIAN SAYS

Children Thrive on Grape Nuts and Cream.

A Mass. physician has found a cure for constipation in children—clinging fifteen cases—by feeding them Grape-Nuts.

"Some time ago," he writes, "I became interested in your food, Grape-Nuts, as a cure for constipation in children. Having tried it in my own family, I have advised it in fifteen cases in which all suffered with constipation more or less severe. The result has been absolute relief in all."

"I write this that other children may be benefited."

How much better it is thus to bring about a healthy action in the bowels of growing children by natural means, than to feed them with improper food, requiring some kind of cathartic at intervals to overcome constipation.

Grape-Nuts gives energy to the entire nervous system including the nerves that cause the natural contraction and relaxation of the bowel muscles, that propel the food mass along.

It is predigested also, and the blood easily absorbs the food as it goes through the body, storing up vitality and force for the functions of all the organs.

Children especially, should get the right start as to habits of living. They should grow into bright, strong, cheerful men and women. Grape-Nuts solve the question of the start; a wholesome appetite will do the rest.

Children's teeth are benefited by chewing Grape-Nuts, also. Your dentist will tell you that a certain amount of exercise in chewing firm food, is necessary to grow strong, beautiful teeth.

Teeth need exercise just the same as muscles, if they are to grow strong and firm as nature intended. Grape-Nuts gives the exercise and also gives material from which good teeth are made.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.

There is no one any prouder than the girl who has a party white neck.

PECKS BAD BOY

The Bad Boy Tells the Groceryman How He Rescued His Dad from the Bears in Yellowstone Park.

BY HON. GEORGE W. PECK. (Copyright, 1904, by Joseph B. Howes.)

The old groceryman was down on his knees, with a wet cloth, swabbing up something from the floor with one hand, while he held his nose with the other, his back toward the door, when suddenly the door opened with a bang, striking the old man in the back, knocking him over and landing him with his head in a basket of strictly fresh eggs, breaking at least a dozen of them, and filling the air with an odor that was unmistakable; and the bad boy followed the door into the grocery.

"What's your notion of taking a nap, with a basket of stale eggs for a pillow," said the bad boy, as he took the old man by the arm and raised him up, and looked at him with a grin that was tantalizing. "What is it, sewer gas? My, but the board of health won't do a thing to you if the inspector happens in here. Those eggs must have been mislaid by a hen that had a diseased mind," and the bad boy took a bottle of cologne out of the show case and began to sprinkle the floor, and squirted some of it on the old man's clothes.

"Say, do you know I bought those eggs of a man dressed like a farmer, who came in here yesterday with his pants in his boots, and smelling as though he had just come out of his cow stable?" said the old groceryman, as he took a piece of a coffee sack and wiped yellow egg off his whiskers. "And yet they are old enough to attend caucuses. Go on now," and the old groceryman threw the eggs out in the alley, and washed his whiskers at the sink.

"Oh, I guess not," said the boy, as he sat down on a tin cracker box and began to eat figs out of a box. "I know something about the law myself, and if you drive me away, you could be arrested for breach of promise, and arson, and you could go to the penitentiary. It was all I could do to make the police believe you didn't set this old shebang afire to get the insurance, and my being here has drawn more custom to your store than the quality of your goods would warrant. No, sir, I stay right here, and advise with you, and keep you out of trouble.

"Oh, sugar, no; you don't need to go," said the old groceryman, as he came up to the boy, wiping the soap-suds off, and trying to smile. "I was only joshing you, and, honestly, I enjoy you. Life is a dreary burden when you are away. Somehow I have got so my blood gets thick, and my appetite falls, when you are away from town, and when you play some low down trick on me, while I seem mad at the time, it does me good, starts the circulation, and when you go away I seem a new man, and laugh, and feel like I had been off on a vacation, fishing, or something. It was a great mistake that I did not have a family of boys to keep me mad part of the time, because a man that never has anything to make him mad is no good. I envy your dad in having you around constantly to keep his blood in circulation. I suppose you are responsible for his being, at his age, as spry as a boy. He told me when he and you got back from Yellowstone park last summer that the trip did him a world of good, and that he got so he could climb a tree—just shin right up like a cat, and that you were the bravest boy he ever saw, said that you would fight a bear as quick as cat. Such a boy I am proud to call my friend. What was it about your fighting bears, single-handed, with no weapon but chippy tomato cans? You ought to be in the history books. Your dad said bravery runs in the family."

"Oh, get out. Did dad tell you about that bear story?" said the bad boy, as he sharpened his knife on his boot. "Well, you'd a dide right there, if you could have seen dad. He is one of these men that is brave sort of intermittent, like folks have fever. Half the time he is a darn coward, but when you don't expect it, for instance when the pancakes are burned, or the steak is raw, and his dyspepsia seems to work just right, he will flare up and sass the cook, and I don't know of anything braver than that; but ordinarily he is meek as a lam. I think the stomach has a good deal to do with a man's bravery. You take a soldier in battle, and if he is hungry he is full of fight, but you fill him up with baked beans and things and he is willing to postpone a fight, and he don't care whether there is any fight at all or not. I think the trip through Yellowstone park took the tar out of dad. Those geysers throwing up hot water, apparently right out of the hot place the preachers tell about, seemed to set him to thinking that may be he had got nearer hell, on a railroad pass, than he had ever expected to get. He told me, one day, when we stood beside old Faithful geyser, and the hot water belched up into the air a hundred feet, that all it wanted was for the lid to be taken off, and he'd be yawning right there, and he was going to try to lead a different life, and if he ever got out of that park alive he should go home, and join every church in town, and he should advise ministers to get the sinners to take a trip to the park, if they wanted to work religion into them.

"Well, there is one hotel where a lot of bears come out of the woods in the evening, to eat the garbage that is thrown out from the hotel. They are wild bears, all right, but they have got so tame that they come right near folks, and don't do anything but eat garbage and growl, and fight each other. The cook told me about it, and said there was no danger, 'cause you could take a club and scare them away."

"We got to the hotel in the afternoon, and dad went to our room to say his prayers, and take a nap, and had his supper taken to the room, and he was so scared at the awful surroundings in the park that he asked a blessing on the supper, though it was the bummeat supper I ever struck. After dark I told dad we better go out and take a walk and inspect the scenery, 'cause it was all in the bill, and if you got a bum supper and didn't get the scenery you were losing money on the deal. I saw the man emptying the garbage and I knew the bears would be getting in their work pretty soon, so I took dad and we walked away off, and he talked about how God had prepared that park as a warning to sinners of what was to come, and I knew his system was sort of running down, and I knew he needed excitement, a shock, or something, to make a reaction, so I steered him around by the garbage pile.

"Say, before he knew it we were right in the midst of about nine bears, grizzlies, cinnamon bears, black bears, and all of them raised up, and said, 'Whoof!' and they growled, and, by gosh, just as quick as I could run this knife into your liver, I missed dad. He just yelled: 'Henery, this is the limit, and here is where your poor old dad sprouts his tail umbel,' and he made for a tree, and I yelled: 'Hurry up, dad!' and he said: 'I ain't walking, an' it' and you ought to have seen his short legs carry him to the tree, and help him skin up it. I have seen squirrels climb trees, when a dog was after them, but they were slow compared to dad. When he got up to a limb he yelled to me to come on up, as he wanted to give me a few last instructions about settling his estate, but I told him I was going to play I was Daniel in the lion's den, so I studied the bears for a while and let dad yell for the police, and then I picked up a armful of tomato cans and made a rush for the bears, and yelled and threw cans at them, and pretty soon every bear went off into the woods, growling and scrapping with each other, and I told dad to come down and I would save him at the risk of my life. Dad came down as quick as he went up, and I took his arm and led him to the hotel, and when we got to the room he would have collapsed, only I gave him a big drink of whisky, and then he braced up and said: 'Henery, when it comes to big game, you and I are the wonders of the world. You are brave, and I am discreet, and we make a team hard to beat.' I told dad he covered himself with glory, but that he left most of his pants on the tree," but he said he didn't care for a few pants when he had a boy that was the bravest that ever came down the pits."

BOY'S TERRIBLE ECZEMA.

Mouth and Eyes Covered with Crusts—Hands Pinned Down—Miraculous Cure by Cuticura.

"When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes. Hands, arms, chest and back, in short the whole body was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down; otherwise he would scratch his face and make an open sore. I think his face must have itched most fearfully.

"We finally thought nothing could help, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the child to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be put under good medical care there. But, Lord be blessed, matters came differently, and we soon saw a miracle. A friend of ours spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as never before. F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. Hohrath Company, Manufacturers of Silk Ribbons, 4 to 20 Rink Alley, South Bethlehem, Pa., June 5, 1905."

Still Seek "Treasure Island."

"Treasure island" is still a mystery. The steam yacht Rose-Marine, which left England in October, 1903, to search for the treasure which tradition says pirates concealed on Cocos Island, in the Pacific, has returned to Southampton. Capt. Mathews, the skipper, is reticent as to the results of the voyage, and only says that his belief in the project has been strengthened. The work of searching the island is very difficult.

English the World Language.

The new world language, Esperanto, seems to have already won more advocates than the older Volapuk. No manufactured language, however, seems to have much chance in competition with English, which long ago displaced French as the most useful and widely spoken language and which is gaining faster than ever in all parts of the world. Quite recently the German government has ordered that all railway officials and employees must learn to speak English. In Antwerp also the authorities are urging all classes to study English and are providing special facilities in the public schools; the city has become "almost an English-speaking port." In Japan all school children are now obliged to learn our language. A few years hence tourists from this country will be able to get along there as easily as on a trip at home. With Great Britain, India, Australia, Canada, the United States and large sections of Africa using English, what hope is there for any other language?

"NO TROUBLE"

To Change from Coffee to Postum.

"Postum has done a world of good for me," writes an Illinois man. "I've had indigestion nearly all my life but never dreamed coffee was the cause of my trouble until last Spring I got so bad I was in misery all the time. "A coffee drinker for 30 years, it irritated my stomach and nerves, yet I was just crazy for it. After drinking it with my meals, I would leave the table, go out and lose my meal and the coffee too. Then I'd be as hungry as ever. "A friend advised me to quit coffee and use Postum—said it cured him. Since taking his advice I retain my food and get all the good out of it, and don't have those awful hungry spells. "I changed from coffee to Postum without any trouble whatever, felt better from the first day I drank it. I am well now and give the credit to Postum." ITS MERIT IS PROVED

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Cincinnati Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "About nine months ago I was a great sufferer with female trouble, which caused me severe pain, extreme nervousness and frequent headaches, from which the doctor failed to relieve me. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and within a short time felt better, and after taking five bottles of it was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a splendid female tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain; and what a blessing it is to find such a remedy after so many doctors fail to help you. I am pleased to recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. Sara Wilson, 31 East 3d Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you have suppressed or painful periods, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, pelvic catarrh, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, or some derangement of the organs. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

What is said to be the oldest house in Crockett is being torn down. It is the house occupied by Ed Foster during his life time and still owned by his wife. Mr. N. B. Barbee says the lumber in this house was sawed at a small mill on Elkhart creek and that the mill was run by water power, producing a peculiar cut, which the planks still show. A new house will be built in its place by Mrs. Foster.

COUNTY FARMERS UNION MET

In Session Thursday With the Citizens' Committee Appointed to Solicit Subscriptions for the Cotton Warehouse.

The county farmers union met last Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the court house, with Frank Garrett, president, presiding, and Secretary Pitner at his desk.

The object of the meeting of the union was to decide on a location for the cotton warehouse and meet the committee appointed by the citizens to solicit subscription towards its erection. The committee had taken up subscriptions to the amount of $1100, which amount was donated to the union towards the building of this warehouse in Crockett. The union itself supplemented $400 to the $1100, making a total of $1500 for this laudable purpose. The money has all been collected and deposited in the bank.

The I. & G. N. railroad company will donate a site for the warehouse near the railroad, the exact location not yet having been decided upon. It is proposed by the union to begin the work immediately. The warehouse will be devoted to the storage of cotton, in the interest of the general public, for the purpose of giving the people a chance to hold and realize profitable prices on their cotton.

There will be a competent manager placed in charge of the warehouse, who will be placed under a $5000 bond to insure the faithful discharge of his duties.

Stock Law Ordinance.

Be it remembered, that on the 5th day of April, A. D. 1898, there was held an election of the qualified voters in and for the corporate limits of the city of Crockett, Texas, to determine whether stock, cattle and horses should run at large within the one-half mile corporate limits of said city; and at said election there were 58 votes cast in favor of said stock law and 46 votes cast against, and therefore was declared a law.

Be it remembered that on the 17th day of July, A. D. 1906, there was held a called meeting of the City Council of the city of Crockett, for the purpose of declaring said law to be put in force and effect from and after 30 days from date of publication hereof. Therefore, be it ordained by the City Council of the city of Crockett, Texas, that it shall be unlawful for any stock, such as horses, mules, cattle, sheep, goats and hogs to run at large within the old corporate limits, same being one half mile square, court house being in center of said territory. And be it further ordained, that the city marshal shall take up and impound any one or more stock so found within said territory and shall be allowed the same fee as heretofore allowed for his services, and if said stock should have to be advertised said marshal shall proceed as heretofore to advertise and sell same as the law directs. Done by order of City Council assembled on the 17th day of July, A. D. 1906.

NAMES OF OUR STREETS.

Familiarize Yourself With Them and Learn to Call Them by Name.

In order that the people may learn the names of the streets of the town, the COURIER is going to designate and keep running in its columns for some time each street by its name. The names have been secured from a city chart and are correct. Our people should get the habit of calling each street by its name and thus help educate the public as to the use of proper designations. The streets will be described as follows:

Main street—runs east and west in front of public school building and passes under railroad track.

Public avenue—runs east and west in front of Presbyterian church and crosses railroad track at ice plant.

Pearl street—one block north of and parallel with Public avenue.

Crockett street—two blocks north of and parallel with Public avenue.

Charles street—three blocks north of and parallel with Public avenue.

Houston street—runs north and south and crosses east side of the public square.

Washington street—runs north and south and in front of the Aldrich house.

Church street—runs north and south and passes Baptist, Methodist and Christian churches.

Grace street—extends north from J. E. Monk's residence.

Winfree street—extends through Winfree addition.

Common street—extends east and west and over the culvert near the depot.

Louisa street—extends west from the freight depot.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Supt. A. L. Bowers of the I. & G. N. has resigned his position and taken a contract with the new railroad to be built from Palestine through the eastern part of Houston county. The road has been surveyed to pass Weches and east of Kennard.

We now have the blanket primary rule in Houston county. The COURIER would like to see this extended to district and state nominations, so that the man having the largest number of votes, whether plurality or majority, would receive the nomination.

Under a ruling of the attorney general, delegates to a district or state convention cannot go instructed. After the convention drops the lowest candidate, the vote of that candidate is known as the "emancipated vote" and is in the hands of the delegates to do with as they please. This is not altogether desirable, but is in keeping with the election law.

County Democratic Convention.

The democratic convention of Houston county met in convention in Crockett at the court house on August 4th, 1906, and was called to order by J. W. Hail, chairman of county executive committee. Earle Adams, Jr., was elected temporary secretary.

Resolved, That the delegates from this convention to the state democratic convention, to be held at Dallas, be and they are hereby instructed to cast the four votes to which Houston county is entitled for the respective candidates for governor in proportion to the vote received by said candidates, respectively, in Houston county in the primary held on July 28th, 1906; and in event either of said candidates named shall be dropped at any time after the first ballot from the roll call, said delegates are hereby instructed to cast the vote of such candidate for the remaining candidates in proportion to the vote received by such remaining candidates in said county in said primary.

J. W. Young made the point of order that under the law this instruction could not be given, and the chair so ruled.

A. A. Aldrich made the point that this convention could not send more than four delegates to the state convention, and made a motion that the committee to select delegates be sent out with instruction to return with report selecting only four delegates, but a motion to adjourn then having been made, it was adopted, and the convention adjourned.

[NOTE.—There was a contest in the Crockett delegation, but a committee from the three delegations in the interest of harmony

The Official Count.

The official count, made by the county executive committee Saturday evening, shows the following district, county and precinct candidates to have received a majority or plurality of the votes cast in the primary election held in Houston county on July 28:

Congress, Gregg; district attorney, Newman; representative, Daniel; county treasurer, Cater; district clerk, Stanton; tax assessor, Ellis; county surveyor, Duren; county judge, John Spence; county clerk, Allbright; tax collector, Gus Goolsby; county attorney, Earl Adams, Jr.; sheriff, Lacy; county chairman, Bud Hale. There is no change in any of the above offices over the result published last week.

But there is a change as to the commissioners. Last week the COURIER stated that the result in precinct No. 1 was unknown, but that the race was between Col. Davis and J. A. Morris. In this the COURIER was mistaken. The official count Saturday evening showed Sam Lively to be in the lead with small plurality.

The commissioners are as follows: Precinct No. 1, Sam Lively; precinct No. 2, G. R. Murchison; precinct No. 3, J. A. Harrelson; precinct No. 4, C. B. Isbell.

The justices of the peace are as follows: Precinct No. 1, E. M. Callier; precinct No. 2, T. C. Lively; precinct No. 3, A. J. McLeomore; precinct No. 4, R. T. Payne; precinct No. 5, John A. Davis; precinct No. 6, W. A. Proctor; precinct No. 7, W. L. Vaught; precinct No. 8, J. A. Strozzie.

The constables are as follows: Precinct No. 1, O. B. Hale; precinct No. 2, John Penick; precinct No. 3, J. V. Chapman; precinct No. 4, T. B. Perry; precinct No. 5, Carey Spence; precinct No. 6, J. W. Lot; precinct No. 7, W. N. Ferguson; precinct No. 8, T. K. Furlow.

"Take Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal.
