EDITOR COURIER:

The weather is unusually warm for the time of year, nevertheless we are preparing, wishing and waiting for a cold snap to kill hogs that we may feast on turnip greens and pork.

On last Thursday, the 29th ult., about 2 p. m., B. F. Traynham, an old and respected citizen who has resided in this community for the last 22 years, passed away. He was living with his son, W. D. Traynham, and had been in bad health for some time. He was about 70 years of age and was originally from Mississippi. He died at the home of Mrs. Niissle, his daughter, and was buried in Lovelady cemetery Friday, Nov. 30. He leaves three sons and one daughter and a number of grand children to mourn his death.

Dr. Felix Traynham of Cotton Gin, Linestown county, was in attendance at his death. He has another son, Adolphus, residing at Memphis, Tenn., and a daughter, Mrs. Niissle of Lovelady, and W. D. Traynham of this place.

J. C. McManners of Antioch has sold his farm to J. E. Etherige and will move west as soon as he arranges his business matters. Mr. Etherige moved west and traversed that country for two or three months, and will now settle within one mile from whence he started. While we regret to lose Mr. McManners, we are glad to have Jim Etherige back with us again, for he is a good man and good neighbor.

This moving mania is a curse on any community, for as long as a man is expecting to move he will not do much toward improving his place, building up society or advancing public enterprises in any way. Stick to your home, and if environments are not what you wish go to work to improve them, for as a rule we have just what we deserve.

We notice that J. T. Hartt has entered the mercantile business, he having bought out Geo. Larue's stock of goods at Lovelady.

We have lost another neighbor in the person of Amos Powell, who has rented his farm and moved to Lovelady to engage in business.

John Goodwin says he has been thinking about moving too, but decided it was an unnecessary expense, as the country is all about the same and his old neighbors are all leaving and new ones taking their places, which he says amounts to about the same thing as a move. You are about right, John. We think you are a wise man.

EDITOR COURIER:

Miss Ida Morgan has just returned from a visit to her relatives in Poke county.

Miss Anzo Hurt, who is teaching at Cooper's Springs, spent Saturday and Sunday in this neighborhood.

Thanksgiving passed off well enough down here. All day and a greater part of the night the welkin was made to ring by the noise of hunters. They were very successful in their hunt I am told.

Miss Ella Wright, the teacher at this place, had Thanksgiving exercises at the school house on Wednesday night. It was a favorable night and the house was crowded. The program was well prepared and the children showed that special interest had been taken in every part of the exercises.

Misses Anzo Hurt and Ella Wright and Mr. John Morgan attended the supper at Kennard

Saturday night and came back delighted with the good time they had.

Although the community seems dull at times we manage to have Sunday school, prayer meeting and preaching once a month. We should not be discouraged with the good work, but should continue to do all we can in the noble cause, for we do good when we know it not.

Uncle Tom Brazier has been visiting in this community a good part of the week. He is a good preacher and is always welcomed wherever he may go. REMUS.

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from its use for coughs, colds and lung troubles. This is because the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Guard your health by refusing any but the genuine. Sold by Smith & French Drug Co.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, according to the laws of the M. E. Church, South, our presiding elder, Bro. J. B. Sears and his wife, our much beloved Sister Sears, will soon leave us; and whereas they have by their christian graces endeared themselves to us. Therefore be it resolved:

1. That we, the members of the Crockett Auxiliary of the W. F. M. Society, desire to express to them our appreciation of their work among us and for our children.
2. That their great love for missions and their presence at our monthly meetings has inspired us to greater zeal in the evangelization of the world.
3. That our prayers shall follow them to their new field of labor, and though we will sorely miss them, we commend them to the love of those with whom they will be associated.
4. That copies of these resolutions be furnished the local press and Texas Christian Advocate.

TABLE DELICACIES.

SOME OLD AND NEW DISHES RECOMMENDED.

Foundation For Game Pie of Any Description—Parsnip Fritters—Mock Ox Tail Soup—Chocolate Nut Wafers.

For a succulent all game is eligible, from small birds to venison. Make first a fricassee, having enough thick gravy to cover the meat in a baking dish; cover with a rich biscuit dough or puff paste if preferred, rolling either rather thin. Do not bake so quickly that the top browns before the paste is cooked through.

PARSNIP FRITTERS—Boil four or five parsnips. When tender take off the skins and mash them fine. Add to them a teaspoon of whole wheat flour and a beaten egg. Put a tablespoon or beef drippings in a frying pan over the fire, and to it a tablespoon of salt. When boiling hot put in the parsnips, make it into small cakes with a spoon. When one side is a delicate brown turn the other. When both are done take them on a dish, put a very little of the fat in which they were fried over and serve hot.

BROWN SOUP, OR MOCK OX TAIL—Take the bones from a good cold roast. Sirloin or ribs of beef make the best soup of this kind. Add about a pound of fresh lean beef, which should be cut rather small and browned in a saucepan with a little butter. Make a nice dark brown without burning. Add about two quarts of boiling water or more, according to the soup you require, and bones you have for stock. Take a little mace, a few cloves whole, tablespoonful of whole black pepper and also of whole allspice tied in a piece of cheesecloth; couple of carrots cut up fine, a turnip or two, according to size; three or four onions, sliced up fine. Boil all together, bones and vegetables, for a whole day. Next morning skim off any fat, strain through a collander and serve with sippets of toast. (Of course, heat to boiling point.)

LEMON CUSTARD PIE—One cup sugar, two tablespoonfuls flour and a pinch of salt. Mix. Add to this the juice and grated yellow rind of one large or two small lemons. Beat lightly the yolks of two eggs and add one cup of rich milk. Thoroughly mix, bake in a rich crust and frost with the beaten whites of eggs, with four tablespoonfuls sugar added. Place in a hot oven and brown.

FEATHER CAKE—One cup sugar, tablespoon butter, one egg, half cup sweet milk, two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder; bake in three layers.

Iceing—One cup sugar, one cup water, even tablespoon corn starch, yolks of three eggs, juice and grated rind of two lemons, cook all together until it thickens, spread when cool.

ORANGE SHERBET—Put into freezer in order given, and do not stir. One cup sugar, juice of two lemons, juice of two oranges and rind, grated; two cups sugar, one cup water, one-half pint cream, three cups milk.

CHOCOLATE NUT WAFERS—Two squares of chocolate, melted; one-half cup melted butter, one cup sugar, two eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately; one-fourth cup flour. Spread thinly with knife over bottom of pan and sprinkle with coarsely chopped nuts. Bake and cut into small squares before removing from pan.

Hemstitched Gimpes.

An easy and very quick way to make quite an elaborate gimpes yoke is to draw the thread sufficiently to form 16 of an inch wide stripes at inch and a half distances. Hemstitch both edges and embroider some pretty simple vine, or else featherstitch in vine effect on the parts between. The drawn lines can end at graduated distances to form the yoke as exactly as possible the size to show above the dress edge, and thus avoid any extra or wasted work.

Stuffed Sweet Potatoes.

Stuffed sweet potatoes are a novelty and will be found very nice. Bake some large ones, and when soft make a slit down one side, scoop out the inside, and beat it with salt and pepper, a small half cup of cream and a teaspoonful of lemon juice. Fill the shells, return to the oven and brown.—Harper's Bazar.

Apple Sauce Cake.

Cream together one cup sugar and one-half cup shortening, add a little salt, one-half teaspoon ground cloves, a little nutmeg, one teaspoon of cinnamon and one cup raisins. Dissolve one teaspoon of saleratus in a little warm water, then stir it into a cup of sour apple sauce, beat all together, then add 1½ cups flour (more if needed), Bake 45 minutes.

If you would have contentment, peace, joy and success give religious care to the physical person.

TEN YEARS OF PAIN.

Unable to Do Even Housework Because of Kidney Troubles.

Mrs. Margaret Emmerich, of Clinton street, Napoleon, O., says: "For fifteen years I was a great sufferer from kidney troubles. My back pained me terribly. Every turn or move caused sharp shooting pains. My eyesight was poor, dark spots appeared before me, and I had dizzy spells. For ten years I could not do housework, and for two years did not get out of the house. The kidney secretions were irregular, and doctors were not helping me. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me quick relief, and finally cured me. They saved my life."

Depew Writes Reminiscences.

While Senator Chauncey M. Depew was enjoying his long rest at Ardsley-on-the-Hudson he did a good deal of work on his reminiscences. He is not sure that they will ever be published, his idea being that they might be of interest to his son. In his fifty years of public life Mr. Depew has known a great many prominent personages and his reminiscences can hardly fail to be exceedingly readable.

Never Disappoints.

"Many extensively advertised remedies are failures when put to the test. Hunt's Lightning Oil is an exception. Confidence in it is never misplaced—disappointment never follows its use. It is surely the greatest emergency remedy now obtainable. For cuts, burns, sprains, aches and pains I know no equal."

Geo. E. Paddock,
Doniphan, Mo.

Sounded Praises of Soap.

In a guide to etiquette published early in the last century the writer says that "soap does not irritate the complexion; some of the finest complexions we have known have been regularly washed with soap every day." The same authority remarks that "the daily bath is now the rule rather than the exception, and common sense has triumphed over the decision that washing was injurious." And then the writer has a dig at her great-grandmother, "whose only ablutions consisted in wetting her cheeks with a cambric handkerchief dipped in rose-water." "In all our directions with regard to the bath," adds this early Victorian dictator, "it must be borne in mind that we only refer to those in sound state of health."

Educator on Retired List.

Dr. J. McBryde, president of the Virginia Polytechnic institute of Blacksburg, Va., has been placed on the retired-list as a pensioner of the Carnegie foundation. He is the third educator from Virginia to receive this distinction.

Might Have Been.

When Shakespeare said: "Aye, there's the rub," we do not know for certain he was thinking of the itch. But one thing we do know—and know it twenty years' worth—Hunt's Cure will absolutely, infallibly and immediately cure any itching trouble that ever happened to the human cuticle. It's guaranteed.

Wife Desertion Alarms.

So many Cincinnati wives have been deserted by their husbands of late that the city council has taken steps toward putting a check on such run-aways. It has been found that mortgage loan sharks are contributing factors in a great many cases. A man's ability to mortgage his furniture without the knowledge of his wife is a strong temptation to husbands of weak will. An ordinance has been introduced making such mortgage of no avail unless they bear the signature of both husband and wife.

Stop That Cough.

If you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest, don't delay a moment—cure it. Simmons' Cough Syrup is a sure remedy. It makes you well.

"The trouble with that talkative person is that he frequently contradicts himself." "After listening to some of the things he says," replied Miss Kayenne, "it seems rather creditable that he should."

National Pure Food and Drugs Act.

The Garfield Remedies meet with the highest requirements of the new Law. Take Garfield Tea for constipation.

A man's opinion of himself doesn't necessarily increase the circumference of his forehead.

THE HOUSE THAT BAKER BUILT.

CHAPTER III.

The nutritive value of pure cocoa is coming to be more and more widely recognized by leading physicians and teachers of dietetics. Baron von Liebig has described it as "a perfect food, as wholesome as it is delicious, a beneficent restorer of exhausted power . . . fitted to repair wasted strength, preserve health and prolong life." "But," he says, "its quality must be good and it must be carefully prepared." Those requirements are fully met in the Breakfast Cocoa put out by Walter Baker & Co., Ltd. It is a perfect food made by a scientific blending of the best cocoa beans grown in different parts of the world—the result of 126 years of successful endeavor. There are many imitations on the market, but the genuine goods can be readily identified by the trade-mark of the Chocolate Girl (which is borne on every wrapper) and by the place of manufacture—Dorchester, Mass.

Rigid Rules for Chauffeurs.

According to new regulations in France, no one will in future be granted an automobile license who is not able to prove, in addition to the possession of the necessary technical knowledge, exemption from any physical infirmity which would tend to involve unfitness for the control of an automobile. Persons whose eyesight is impaired, whose hearing is not acute, whose hand is rendered unsteady by drinking-habits or who suffer from fits of nervousness will not be allowed to add to the list of accidents.

Will Study Irish Language.

The education committee of the London county council has decided to recommend to the council that classes for the study of the Irish language and literature be opened in the public elementary schools of Finsbury, Islington, St. Pancras and Stepney.

Improved Wireless Telegraphy.

Paris newspapers report that M. Malche, a well-known inventor, has made a sensational discovery in the field of wireless telephony. His new apparatus consists of two posts which are placed in his premises. Each post consists of a telephone battery, a special form of induction coil and a frame which is formed of a series of insulated wires. One post is placed in the garden and a second one in a room in the building some distance off, about 100 feet, and several walls, doors and windows come between the posts. Conversation can be carried on easily and the sound is clear.

GAINED 34 POUNDS

Persistent Anæmia Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills After Other Remedies Had Failed.

"When I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," says Mrs. Nathaniel Field, of St. Albans, Somerset county, Maine, "I was the palest, most bloodless person you could imagine. My tongue and gums were colorless and my fingers and ears were like wax. I had two doctors and they pronounced my trouble anæmia. I had spells of vomiting, could not eat, in fact, did not dare to, I had such distress after eating. My stomach was filled with gas which caused me awful agony. The backache I suffered was at times almost unbearable and the least exertion made my heart beat so fast that I could hardly breathe. But the worst of all was the splitting neuralgic headache which never left me for seven weeks. About this time I had several numb spells. My limbs would be cold and without any feeling and the most deathly sensations would come over me."

"Nothing had helped me until I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in fact, I had grown worse every day. After I had taken the pills a short time I could see that they were benefiting me and one morning I awoke entirely free from pain. The distress after eating disappeared and in three weeks I could eat anything I wanted and suffer no inconvenience. I also slept soundly. I have taken several boxes of the pills and have gained in weight from 120 to 154 pounds and am perfectly well now."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure anæmia because they actually make new blood. For rheumatism, indigestion, nervous headaches and many forms of weakness they are recommended even if ordinary medicines have failed. They are sold by all druggists, or will be sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Women's Pains

"I was a total wreck," writes Mrs. Beulah Rowley, of Champoeg, Oregon, "from pains I had suffered, for 4 years, every month. Sometimes I would be unconscious for 12 hours at a stretch. I did not know that anything could stop the pain entirely, but Wine of Cardui did. I advise all women suffering with painful periods to use Cardui and be relieved."

It does this by regulating the functions and toning up all the internal female organs to health. It is a pure, specific, reliable, female remedy, with a record of 70 years of success. It has benefited a million others. Why not you? Try it.

The extreme poverty and the low standard of living of peasants from whom the Russian agricultural laborer has recruited assure a low level of wages for agricultural labor.

According to an official investigation conducted during the decade of 1892-1891, the average wages for a male agricultural laborer in Russia were less than those of a female worker in England.

AUBURN (N. Y.) HOUSEHOLD FED ON ARSENIC.

House is Robbed After Head of the Family is Taken to the Hospital.

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 29.—William F. Wait of the carpet manufacturing firm of Nye C. Wait, president of the Cayuga County Savings bank and one of the prominent and respected citizens of Auburn, is a patient in the Auburn city hospital, so desperately ill that his recovery is uncertain.

His son, W. Byron Wait, reported to be one of the wealthiest young men in the town, is in the same institution undergoing treatment based upon symptoms similar to those of his father.

Rev. Harvey Clements, son-in-law of the elder Wait, one of the most noted young Presbyterian clergymen in the county, is in a condition similar, and so seriously affected that his intended trip to Europe with his wife has been postponed indefinitely.

Frederick Hancock, coachman for the Wait family; Margaret Hartney, the cook; Anna Flynn, the waitress; Josephine Watkins, a colored washer-woman; Misses Harris and Skene-toles, both trained nurses, are recovering slowly from an illness precisely similar in symptoms as that which has stricken their employers.

Catherine Walsh, an elderly woman who helps out when the domestic service in the Wait mansion is overtaxed, is the only one stricken who has regained her normal condition.

All 19 see 10 persons, together with a woman guest at the summer cottage of the Waits at Lake Owasco, and a boy of all work employed there, are the victims of arsenic poisoning. In every instance, pulverized or granulated sugar was poisoned.

MORE MONEY FOR 100,000

FALL RIVER LEADS OFF IN ADVANCING MILL WAGES.

Manufacturers in Southeastern Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut Will Follow.

Fall River, Mass.—The full 10 per cent increase in wages demanded by the textile mill operatives has been granted and a threatened strike averted.

The increase affects 30,000 operatives and is effective Monday next. M. C. D. Borden, an independent cotton manufacturer, employing 5,000 operatives, took the lead in meeting the demands of the mill employees.

This restores the wages paid in 1903. According to advices received from cotton mill centers in southern New England, an advance of 13 per cent in wages granted by the Fall River manufacturers to their 30,000 employees will affect nearly 100,000 operatives in southeastern Massachusetts, Rhode Island, eastern Connecticut, and in several towns in other sections. It is not expected, however, that the rise will amount to 10 per cent, except in Fall River, and several print cloth mill villages.

WAS FELT FORTY MILES AWAY.

The Terrific Explosion of Roburite, Near Annen, Germany.

Dortmund, Germany.—The terrible explosion of the roburite factory, near Annen, resulted, as far as is now known, in the deaths of 40 persons. Many others were so seriously injured that there is no hope of their living. Many persons have not yet been accounted for. Among the wounded are about 200 employees of the factory, and the total of persons dangerous and slightly injured amounts to several hundred.

The pioneers have succeeded in removing the roburite from the vaults beneath the factory, and there is now no danger of further explosions.

The damage is estimated at $500,000. The concussion was felt 40 miles. Owing to the bursting of their eardrums by the concussion, many persons have been made deaf.

Physicians regard the condition of 38 of the wounded as hopeless.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION.

Friends of the Liquor Interest Uneasy in Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla.—In the constitutional convention, President Murray submitted his forty-six committees. The opponents of the proposition were disturbed over the appointment of a prohibitionist, K. J. Kurl, of Bartlesville, as chairman of the liquor committee. The statehood enabling act places the Indian territory portion of the new state under prohibition for a period of 21 years, and it is believed that an effort is being made by the Indian territory delegates to bring about constitutional prohibition over the entire state.

PECK'S BAD BOY ABROAD

The Bad Boy and His Dad Arrive in Cairo—At the Hotel They Meet Some Egyptian Princesses—Dad Rides a Camel to the Pyramids and Meets with Difficulties.

BY HON. GEORGE W. PECK.
(Ex-Governor of Wisconsin, Former Editor of Peck's Sun, Author of "Peck's Bad Boy," etc.)

(Copyright, 1906, by Joseph E. Bowles.)
Cairo, Egypt.—My Dear Old Irish Vegetable: Gee, but you ought to see dad and I right now, at a hotel, waiting for a chance at a room, when a bride and groom get ready to vacate it, and go somewhere else. This hotel is full of married people who look scared whenever there is a new arrival, and I came pretty near creating a panic by going into the parlor of the hotel, where a dozen couples were sitting around making goo-goo eyes at each other, and getting behind a screen and, in a disguised voice, shouting, "I know all! Prepare to defend yourself!"

The women turned pale and some said, "At last! At last!" while others got faint in the head, and some fell on the bosoms of their husbands and said: "Don't shoot!" You see, most of these wives had husbands somewhere else, that might be looking for them. I have warned dad not to be seen conversing with a woman, or be may be shot by a husband who is on her trail, or by the husband she has with her.

Well, sir, of all the trips we have had anywhere, the trip from Constantinople here was the limit. For two or three days we were on dinky steamboats with Arabs, Turks, negroes and all nationalities camping on deck, full of fleas, and with cholera germs on them big enough to pick like blueberries, and all of the passengers were dirty and eat things that would make a dog in America go mad. The dog biscuit that are fed to American dogs would pass a delicate test on the man of the steamboat we struck, and I had rather lie down in a barn yard with a dog for a pillow and a cast-off blanket from a smallpox hospital for a bed, than to occupy the bridal chamber of any steamboat we struck.

And then the ride across the desert by rail to reach Cairo was the worst in the world. Passengers in rags, going to Mecca, or some other place of worship, eating cheese a thousand years old made from old goat's milk, and dug from the Pyramids too late to save it, was what surrounded us, and the sand storm-blew through the cars laden with germs of the plague, and stuck to us so tight you couldn't get it off with sandpaper, and when we got here all we have had to do is to bathe the dirt off in layers.

It takes nine baths to get down to American epidermis, and the last bath has a jackplane to go with it, and a thing they scale fish with. But we are all right now, with rooms in the hotel, and rested, and when we go home, we are going to be salted down and given chloroform and shipped as mummies. Dad insists that he will never cross a desert or an ocean again, and I don't know what is to become of us. Anyway, we are going to enjoy ourselves until we are killed off.

The first two days we just looked about Cairo, and saw the congress of nations, for there is nothing just like this town anywhere. There are people from all quarters of the globe, the most outlandish and the most up-to-date. This place is an asylum for fakirs and robbers, a place where defaulter, bribers, murderers, swindlers and elopers are safe, as there seems to be no extradition treaty that cannot be overcome by paying money to the officials. I found that out the first day, and told dad we should have no standing in the society of Egypt unless the people thought he had committed some gigantic crime and fled his country.

Dad wanted to know how it would strike me if it was noised about the hotel that he had robbed a national bank, but I told him there would be nothing uncommon or noticeable about robbing a bank, as half the tourists were bank defaulter, so he would have to be accused of something startling, so we decided that dad should be charged with being the principal thing in the Standard Oil company, and that he had underground pipe lines running under several states, gathering oil away from the people who owned it, and that at the present time he was worth a billion dollars, and his income was $9,000,000 every little while, and, by ginger, you ought to see the people bow down to him. Say, common bank robbers and defaulters just fell over themselves to get acquainted with dad, and to carry out the joke, I put some kerosene oil on dad's handkerchief, and that clinched it, for everybody loves the smell of a perfume that represents a billion dollars.

All the women wanted to dance with dad in the hotel dance, and because they thought I must be heir to all the oil billions, they wanted to hold me on their laps, and stroke my hair, as though I was it. I guess we are going to have everything our own way here, and if dad does not get eloped with by some Egyptian princess, I shall be mistaken. The Egyptians are pretty near being negroes, and wear tangles in their ears, and earrings on their arms. You take it in the dark, and let a princess put her arm around you, and sort of squeeze you, and you can't tell but what she is white, only there is an odor about them like "Araby the blessed," but in the light they are only negroes, a little bleached, with red paint on their cheeks. If I was going to marry an Egyptian woman, I would take her to Norway, or up towards the north pole, where it is night all day, and you wouldn't realize that you were married to a colored woman. To be around among these Egyptians is a good deal like having a pass behind the scenes at the play of Ben Hur in New York, only here the dark and dangerous women are the real thing, instead of being white girls with black paint on.

We have just got back from the pyramids, and dad is being treated for spinal meningitis, on account of riding a camel. I never tried harder to get dad to go anywhere on the cars than I did to get him to go to the pyramids by rail, as a millionaire should, but he said he was going to break a camel to the saddle, and then buy him and take him home for a side show. So we went down to the camel garage, and hired a camel for dad, and four camels for the Arabs and things he wanted for an escort, and a jackass for me. There were automobiles and carriages, and trolleys, and everything that we could have hired, and been comfortable for the ten-mile ride, but dad was mashed on the camel, and he got it.

Well, sir, it was not one of these world's fair camels that lay down for you to get on, and then get up on the installment plan, and chuck you forward and aft, but a proud Egyptian camel that stands up straight and makes you climb up on a step ladder.

Dad got along up the camel's ribs, when the stepladder fell, and he grabbed hold of the hair on the two humps, and the humps were loose and they lopped over on the side, and it must have hurt the camel's feelings to have his humps pulled down, so he reached around his head and took a mouthful out of the seat of dad's pants, and dad yelled to the camel to let go, and the Arabs amputated the camel from dad's trousers, and pushed dad up on top with a bamboo pole with a crotch in it, and when dad got settled between the humps he said, "Let 'er go," and we started.

Dad could have had a camel with a platform on top, and an awning, but he insisted on taking his camel raw, and he sat there between those humps, his trousers worked up towards his knees, showing his red socks and blue drawers, and his face got pale from sea sickness, and the red, white and blue colors made me think of a fourth of July at home. We went out of town like a wild west show, and dad seemed happy, except that every time an automobile went whizzing along, dad's camel got the jumps and waltzed sideways, out into the sandy desert, and chewed at dad's socks, so part of the time dad had to draw up his legs and sit on one hump, and put his shoes on the other hump. The Arabs on the other camels would ride up alongside and steer dad's camel back into the road, by sticking sharp sticks into the camel, and the animal would yawn and groan and make up faces at me on my jackass, and finally dad wanted to change works with me and ride my jackass, but I told him we had left the stepladder back at Cairo, so dad hung to his mountainous steed, but the dust blew so you couldn't see, and it was getting monotonous when the queerest thing happened.

You have heard that camels can fill up with water and go for a week without asking for any more. Well, I guess the week was up, and it was time to load the camels with water, for as we came to the Nile every last camel made a rush for the river, and they went in like a yoke of oxen on a stampee, and waded in clear up to the humps, and began to drink, and dad yelled for a life preserver and pulled his feet up on top and sat there like a frog on a pond lily leaf.

My jackass only stepped his feet in the edge, and dad wanted me to swim my jackass out to the camel, and let him fall off onto the jack, but I knew dad would sink my jack in a minute, and I wouldn't go in the river. Well, the camels drank about an hour, with dad sitting there meditating, and then the dragoon got them out, and we started off for the pyramids, which were in plain sight like the pictures you have seen, with palm trees along the Nile, and Arabs camping on the bank, and it looked as though everything was going to be all right, when suddenly dad's camel stopped dead still and wouldn't move a foot, and all the rest of the camels stopped, closed their eyes and went to sleep, and the Arabs went to sleep, and dad and the jackass and I were apparently the only animals in Egypt that were awake.

Dad kicked his camel in the ribs, but it wouldn't budge. He asked me if I couldn't think up some way to start the procession, and I stopped my jackass and thought a minute, and told dad I had it. I had bought some giant fire crackers and roman candles at Cairo, with which I was going to fire a salute on top of the biggest pyramid, to celebrate for old America, and I told dad what I had got, and I thought if I got off my jackass and fired a salute there in the desert it would wake them up.

Dad said "all right, let 'er go, but do it sort of easy, at first, so not to overdo it," and I got my artillery ready. Say, you can't fire off fireworks easy, you got to touch a match to 'em, and dodge, and take your chances. Well, I scratched a match and lit the giant fire cracker, and put it under the hind legs of dad's camel, and when it got to fizzing I lit my roman candle, and as the fire cracker exploded like a 16-inch gun, my roman candle began to sput balls of fire, and I aimed one at each camel, and the whole push started on a stampede for the pyramids, the camels groaning, the Arabs praying to Allah, dad yelling to me, and my jackass on the ground, and I was left in the desert to pick up the hats.

I guess I will have to tell you the rest of the tragedy in my next letter.
Yours with plenty of sand,
HENNERY.

CAMPING IN THE ROCKIES.

Delights of the Evening Around the Fire Described by an Enthusiast.

About dusk you straggle in with trout or game. The campkeeper lays aside his mending or his repairing or his notebook and stirs up the cooking fire. The smell of broiling and frying and boiling arises in the air. By the dancing flames of the campfire you eat your third dinner for the day—in the mountains all meals are dinners, and formidable ones at that, writes S. E. White, in "The Mountains."

The curtain of blackness draws down close. Through it shine stars, loom mountains cold and mistlike in the moon. You tell stories. You smoke pipes. After a time the pleasant chill creeps down from the eternal snows. Some one throws another handful of pine cones on the fire. Sleepily you prepare for bed. The pine cones flare up, throwing their light in your eyes. You turn over and wrap the soft woolen blanket close about your chin. You wink drowsily and at once you are asleep.

Late in the night you awaken to find your nose as cold as a dog's. You open one eye. A few coals mark where the fire has been. The mist mountains have drawn nearer, they seem to bend over you in silent contemplation. The moon is sailing high in the heavens. With a sigh you draw the canvas tarpaulin over your head. Instantly it is morning.

Very Likely.
"We thought," said the reporter, "that you might care to say something about these charges against you."
"No," replied the crooked public official, "I believe that 'silence is golden.'"
"Well," replied the reporter, "perhaps the public might believe it's merely gilt in this case."—Catholy Standard and Times.

FUNERAL OF SPENCER

INTERMENT OF LATE PRESIDENT AT WASHINGTON.

FINANCIERS WILL ATTEND

Ten of the Oldest Negro Porters in the Service of the Road Active Pallbearers.

Washington, D. C.—The funeral of President Samuel Spencer of the Southern railway, who lost his life in the railroad collision at Lawyers, Va., early Thursday morning, will take place at St. John's church, in this city, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. Roland C. Smith, the rector, officiating. The body will be interred in this city. The burial service will be private. For five minutes during the funeral hour, beginning promptly at 2 o'clock, every train and all machinery of the entire Southern railway system will be at a standstill, as a mark of respect to the late president.

Ten Old Porters Pallbearers.

The active pallbearers will consist of ten of the oldest negro porters in the service of the Southern. The honorary pallbearers will include the vice presidents and officials of the road, J. Pierpont Morgan and other prominent financiers of New York.

Died Where He Won First Laurels.

President Spencer earned his first laurels in railroadng on the section of road in which he lost his life. That portion of the Southern system was formerly known as the Virginia Midland, of which Mr. Spencer was superintendent in 1877. This was the highest position he had held up to that time, and he left it within a year for a promotion.

CAUSE OF THE AWFUL WRECK.

Operator Allowed Two Trains on Same Block at Same Time.

Lynchburg, Va.—The main cause of the awful wreck near Lawyers depot, ten miles south of this city, in which President Spencer and his party of prominent New York and Baltimore men lost their lives, is laid absolutely at the door of C. D. Mattox, the operator, who was in charge of the block telegraph station at Ragoon. Mattox, who disappeared after being relieved less than an hour after the accident, has not been found, despite the fact that railway detectives have scoured the country around the wreck, and about his home at Sandy Level, in Pittsylvania county, 40 miles from the scene of the accident, on a small branch line of the Southern. An official of the Southern railway stated that the company was desirous of apprehending Mattox, in order to secure a statement from him that might throw some light on the causes that led him to allow two trains in the same block at the same time. This official was not prepared to state whether or not the company would take steps to prosecute the missing operator, and he did not then know if he could be prosecuted under the laws of the state of Virginia.

MORE INDICTMENTS AT FRISCO.

Abe Ruef and Chief of Police Dinan Receive Attention.

San Francisco, Cal.—Abraham Ruef and Chief of Police Jeremiah Dinan have been jointly indicted by the grand jury on the charge of conspiracy, in connection with the alleged protection of a house of ill repute. Chief Dinan was also separately indicted on a charge of perjury, based upon his testimony before the grand jury. Bonds were fixed at $5,000 in each case. No attempt will be made to displace Dinan pending the trial of the case.

The President's Thanksgiving.

Washington, D. C.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt spent a quiet Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel attended the morning service at St. John's Episcopal church. The president spent two hours of the morning horseback riding on the country roads north of the city. In the afternoon he devoted several hours to business in the executive offices. Thanksgiving dinner was served in the evening. Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth being guests.

Washburn-Langhorne.

Washington, Nov. 19.—At St. John's church Miss Alice Langhorne was married to Stanley Washburn, of Minneapolis, son of former United States Senator W. D. Washburn. The bride is a member of the Langhorne family of Virginia.

A BRIDGE OF MAHOGANY.

Valuable Wood Used in Mexican Structure for Pedestrians and Teams.

As mahogany is among the most costly woods in the world, it may be inferred that this tropical material is not very extensively employed in the construction of buildings, etc. A bridge constructed of solid mahogany is certainly a rarity, a curiosity. There is one, claimed to be the only one in the world, built of that material. This structure is located in the department of Palenque, state of Chiapas, republic of Mexico. This district lies in the extreme southwestern part of Mexico, near the boundary line of Guatemala.

The mahogany bridge is constructed entirely of that valuable wood, except some iron braces and nails that are necessary. The bridge spans the Rio Michol and its total length, including approaches, exceeds 150 feet, while the width is 15 feet. It is used by both teams and pedestrians and, though somewhat rude and primitive in construction, it is very substantial. None of the timbers of the flooring were sawed, for in that region there are no sawmills, but were hewn and split.

In that section of old Mexico there are several very large rubber plantations, and mahogany trees are quite common. In clearing away the young rubber trees the mahogany growths are also cut down and removed. As this wood is quite abundant, some of it was used in building the bridge.—American Inventor.

LIKE A FAIRY TALE.

The Story of Postum Cereal in Words and Pictures.

The growth of the Postum Cereal Co. is like a fairy tale, but it is true, every word of it.

"The Door Unbolted" is the title of a charming little booklet just issued by the Company which tells, and illustrates, the story of this remarkable growth. It takes the reader from the little white barn in which the business was started Jan. 1, 1896, through the palatial offices and great factory buildings of the "White City" that comprise Postumville, Battle Creek, Mich.

The little white barn, so carefully preserved, is a most interesting building, for it represents the humble beginning of one of the country's greatest manufacturing enterprises of today, an enterprise that has grown from this little barn to a whole city of factory buildings within but little more than ten years.

No less interesting is the quaint official home of the Postum Cereal Co. The general office building of Mr. Post and his associates is a reproduction of the Shakespeare house at Stratford-on-Avon, and upon the house and its furnishings has been expended vast sums of money, until the rooms are more like the drawing rooms of the mansions of our most distinguished than like offices.

That Mr. Post has believed thoroughly in the idea of giving his employees attractive and comfortable work rooms is proven in the general office building of the company and its furnishings, which are as cozy as well as as comfortable as the most luxurious of the interior.

Daniel & Burton will sell you a drop-head automatic lift machine, guaranteed for 5 years, for the small some of $15.00.

Why get cheap stuff for the same money that you can get standard brands of whiskey at Hyman's Saloon, Palestine?

See the celebrated Bartlett sewing machines at Daniel & Burton's, the handsomest cabinet work made, different to all the rest.

Don't forget that you can get mince meat, just as clean, just as good, just as cheap, made by Hyman, at the Saloon.

You can see on display in our window one of the best selection of cutlery ever brought to Crockett.

If you want a tombstone or monument ask me to call on you with my samples. Telephone No. 174.

You make no mistake in getting a sack of our best flour for your Xmas baking.

We heard a citizen say Monday that he would start a subscription list with $2.50 to help fill up the holes in the streets of Crockett.

Santa Claus has a special invitation to call at our store and get his candies, nuts and fire works.

"Hyman's Private Stock," bottled in bond, for family use or medicinal purposes. A high-grade sour mash bourbon. Address Hyman's Saloon, Palestine.

WHO'S YOUR DRUGGIST?

If not us, Why not?

We are at your command.

G. L. MOORE,

Before going to the old states Christmas call at the Big Store and buy you one of those nice suit cases or trunks. They are cheap.

Don't send off your money to other states. Patronize home people. Buy your whiskey from Hyman Harrison, proprietor Hyman's Saloon, Palestine.

During the entire month of December Jas. S. Shivers & Co. proposes to make it a month of bargains in everything sold in their store.

The lecture at the court house Monday night by Dr. Dewart Norton was the best thing for the money that has been in Crockett this season.

W. E. Wherry, one of the COURIER's tried and true friends (and all of them are "tried"), was in to see us Monday, renewing his subscription for 1907.

Tombstones and Monuments.

Let me call on you with samples and designs. All work guaranteed and delivered. Telephone No. 174.

We have in stock Winchester pump, double-barrel hammerless, double-barrel hammer and single barrel guns, in fact guns to satisfy any hunter. DANIEL & BURTON.

Remember me when you get ready to order your Christmas whiskey. Let me send you my price list, order blank and stamped envelope. Address Hyman's Saloon, Palestine.

New Barber Shop.

I have just opened a neat barber shop in Jim Howard's pool room. Your patronage will be highly appreciated.

BARKER TUNSTALL.

For Rent.

The lower floor of my brick building situated on the north-east corner of the public square. Will be vacated January 1, 1907.

S. L. MURCHISON.

If you are not a good judge of whiskey buy brands that you know to be good. I handle all the standard brands, give you full measure, low price and guarantee every shipment to be as represented. Address Hyman's Saloon, Palestine.

Governor Campbell has made his appointments, in which Houston county was overlooked. Although Houston county had several applicants, there should be no disappointment, for no free citizen should vote for another for office with the expectation of getting something in return for his vote, and we don't know of any one in Houston county who did.

Miss Essie Leathers of this city and Mr. F. A. Gayle of Dallas were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents on last Thursday morning. They took the noon train for Dallas, the home of the groom. The bride is the daughter of Mr. J. F. Leathers, one of our most prosperous citizens. The couple have the congratulations and well wishes of many admiring friends here.

Invitations have been received at Crockett to a reception and dance given by the employees of the Louisiana and Texas Lumber company in the company's new store at Kennard Wednesday evening. The occasion was to commemorate the completion of the company's new building, erected on the site of the one recently destroyed by fire. A number of our young people spoke of attending. An enjoyable time was assured, as that prince of good fellows, Mr. J. K. Crawford, was prominent on the committees.

You sometimes wish you had not become astray from church, and you almost feel persuaded to go out to preaching, but you have stayed away so long you are ashamed to go now. And you can stay so easily now, but you ought to attend preaching every Sunday. Accept our cordial invitation to our services next Sunday. Bring a friend with you, and after preaching, come down and get acquainted with the pastor, for he is anxious to know you and to serve you in anyway you may feel your need of him. Don't come in late, for we begin services on the dot, and close the same way. Just one hour and then all can go home. W. S. Jones.

At the Christian Church.

The Christian church has secured the services of Rev. Jake Hodges, who is preaching regularly for them at present. Mr. Hodges is well known in Texas and comes well recommended, being a graduate of Trinity University, also a graduate of Cumberland University of Lebanon, Tenn. Mr. Hodges has spent five years on the lecture platform, touring in the northern states, and is a pleasant and forceful speaker.

New Railroad for Crockett.

Mr. J. T. H. Lipscomb of Abilene, Texas, was in Crockett Monday in the interest of a new railroad to be constructed from Lufkin to Waco via Crockett and Jewett. He claimed to be representing an independent company and said that the road would be built if the proper encouragement was met with from the people along the route. He seemed to be satisfied with the encouragement he received here and left Monday night for points west. He will return to Crockett at a later date and advise further with our people.

Want Crockett Tobacco.

Me. srs. Tausig and Weinberg of Palestine were in Crockett last week in the interest of the tobacco crop for another year. Mr. Tausig is a member of the Chicago tobacco firm of that name, who bought the tobacco crop of Houston county for the past two years. His firm is so well pleased with Houston county tobacco that they want all they can get and are encouraging the growth of it especially in Houston county. His firm proposes to not only contract for the next crop, but to advance money on it to prove their confidence in Houston county tobacco. Mr. Tausig was being introduced and shown around by Mr. Weinberg, who supervised the crop for the government here last year.

It's high time to think about ordering your Holiday Togs. Thanksgiving is most here, then comes Christmas and New Year, and the festive season will be at its height.

Better be sure that your wardrobe is equipped with the proper garment for each and every occasion.

How about a nice black unfinished Worsted Sack Suit or one of the new Greys in a long sack suit, made to your individual measure and guaranteed to fit perfectly?

Our success in the tailoring business is due to the excellence of style and superb fitting qualities which characterize our every production.

We show all the late styles in high grade woollens, Suits and overcoats made to individual measurements and at ready-made prices.

Overcoat Season is Here.

Miller & Shupak,
TAILORS AND FURNISHERS

We Have the Goods.

We have on display in the W. B. Page building adjoining our store one of the prettiest stocks of holiday goods ever brought to Houston county. This stock includes everything that the human mind can conceive of for Christmas, and a sight into it is absolute proof that Santa Claus is making his headquarters here. We have bought with an eye single to the wants of our trade and we think we know our trade. We at least know there is nothing so good for our customers. Therefore we have bought unsparingly of the best, and our customers have the opportunity of making their selections from a large and well selected stock. We say we have everything demanded by the holiday trade. There may be something that we do not have, but we do not know what it is, and if you will call around and suggest, we will get it if possible. Our prices are as low as our stock is complete. This stock is new, beautiful and modern in design, serviceable as Christmas presents and useful in the household. Let us show you.

The Crockett Courier

W. W. AIKEN, Editor and Proprietor

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

Obituaries, resolutions, cards of thanks and other matter not "news" will be charged for at the rate of 5c per line. Parties ordering advertising or printing for societies, churches, committees or organizations of any kind will, in all cases, be held personally responsible for the payment of the bill.

The COURIER is in receipt of a handsome folder from the I. & G. N., advertising its Mexico-St. Louis special, the "train de luxe" of two republics. A prettier folder was never gotten out by any road, the New York Central and Pennsylvania lines not excepted. The train is one of the finest ever built by the Pullman company, being vestibuled from engine to observation.

The proceedings against the Waters Pierce Oil company, instituted at Austin last week, were continued to the March term of the district court of Travis county on the application of the attorneys for the defense. The continuance was granted on the ground that the state had injected new testimony which the defense was unprepared to meet. The only way the Bailey matter can now be aired is by an investigation by the legislature, which, it is hoped, will not result in another white-washing as was the case six years ago.

In view of the recent developments and the fact that Senator Bailey has declared from one end of the state to the other that he received no money for what he did for Waters-Pierce, the COURIER goes farther now than it has ever done before and says that Bailey should be defeated at the hands of the coming legislature. The trust investigation at St. Louis last September and the one at Austin last week have brought out things that democrats did not know of at or before the primary, and all primary action should be waived and an honest democrat sent to the United States senate.

Seattle, Wash.—As a result of President Roosevelt's recent action in discharging the colored soldiers of the Twenty-fifth infantry for riotous conduct at Brownsville, Texas, the negroes of Seattle passed resolutions condemning the course of those who are guilty, but deploring the president's action in discharging the entire battalion without ascertaining who the guilty ones were.

That is just why he discharged them. It was because the negroes would not divulge what they knew of the guilty ones. They were taken out at a time and given an opportunity to tell what they and outrage, and because they refused to do so they were discharged without honor. It was not because they were negroes or because they were all actually guilty of murder, but because they connived at crime and shielded the murderers among them. Such men could not be kept in the army and nothing else could be done but dismiss them without honor. Roosevelt did exactly right.

The New York Sun, in an editorial, says that "the slave holders of the last century did more to uplift and help the negro than all the doctrinaires and societies and governments of our day are doing or are likely to do." The Sun deals at length on the question of negro education now and then, and its deductions are in favor of the old dispensation. It says:

It is a fact that the negro who dwelt under this dispensation seventy-five years ago enjoyed more actual freedom and received more substantial consideration than do his descendants of today, who strut about, inflated and misled by worthless "education" of the latter-day public schools. A detailed record of the fruits of this system would astound the philanthropists of the present generation. It is a fact, notwithstanding, that the slave holders of the last century did more to uplift and help the negro than all the doctrinaires and societies and governments of our day are doing or are likely to do; and that, considering the results in view, is a very inadequate and pallid statement of the case.

Senator Tillman of South Carolina made several grievous errors in his speech at Chicago last week. One of them was in losing his temper and telling one man, who had asked him a question, to shut his mouth, and saying to another, "Damn the law!" The provocation must have been very great, but the senator should have restrained himself under the most trying circumstances. But the most grievous error he made was just before he closed his speech, when he referred to Roosevelt's action in discharging the negro troops. What the senator said showed that he was not informed on the subject, for he said that Roosevelt "punished innocent men for the crime of a few." The men were not discharged for committing murder, but because they would not tell what they knew of it to the end that the guilty might be punished. In this they were all guilty, and men conniving at crime and shielding criminals among themselves should have no place in the American army. Discharge without honor could not be construed as punishment for murder which some of the men were guilty of. Below we publish what Mr. Tillman said, which shows that even United States senators are sometimes not too well informed on subjects of national importance: "Now, a general illustration of the injustice that is sometimes done. President Roosevelt discharged three companies of colored soldiers without a court martial and in doing this he punished innocent men for the crime of a few. In doing this he transcended the authority of the law and he ought not to have done it."

When he read the demand for certain papers and vouchers made by the attorney general of Texas, Senator Bailey was in New York, but hastened to Washington to give out a statement. Pierce was also in New York, where he had gone to get out of reach of process servers. The burden of Bailey's statement was that he himself was on trial. Bailey is on trial before the people of Texas, but not before the district court at Austin. The attorney general only asked for certain evidence to be used in the trial of the Waters-Pierce company. If that evidence could not be produced, Bailey was safe. If it could be produced, Bailey's presence could not save him. The attorney general says the evidence exists, and if it is not produced he will produce other evidence to show of its existence. Both Bailey and Pierce gave out statements simultaneously that they would be in Austin Monday last, but neither one has yet arrived. Bailey, however, turned up at Gainesville Monday and announced that all he wanted was two days in which to drive the attorney general into the gulf. His driving the attorney general of Texas into the gulf will be like his driving all who dared oppose him two months ago into the gulf.

The COURIER told last week of the trial of the suits against the Waters Pierce Oil company at Austin for being in a trust and predicted startling developments in regard to a certain United States senator from Texas. The expected happened—more really happened than was expected. Attorney General Davidson charges the Waters Pierce company with having trust agreements, connections and affiliations with the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. In order to prove his charges he demanded of the attorneys for the defense that certain papers and vouchers be brought into court, his aim being to prove that the vouchers and accounts of the Waters Pierce company were audited by the Standard Oil company. When the nature and beneficiary of some of the vouchers were made known, startling developments came thick and fast and fell heavily on the shoulders of a certain United States senator from Texas. The COURIER has not the space to publish all of the papers and vouchers demanded by the attorney general, but here are some of them:

13. Personal voucher of H. C. Pierce, dated April 25, 1900, for $3300 for money advanced to Joseph W. Bailey as a demand loan on account of Texas cases; also voucher record book showing entry of such voucher; also bills receivable book of defendant showing entry of the demand loan to Joseph W. Bailey on April 25, 1900, for $3300; also voucher record book showing entry of voucher No. F 462, issued June 30, 1900, by Waters Pierce Oil company for $3300 and audited by D. W. Conroy, auditor of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey; also cash book folio of defendant in use June 30, 1900.

14. Voucher record of defendant in use June 15, 1900, showing entry of voucher F-86 to Henry & Stribling of Waco, Texas; "Account of expense in anti-trust civil cases of state of Texas vs. W. P. O. Co. at Waco," approved by J. D. Johnson; also sight draft drawn by J. W. Bailey for $1500 on Waters Pierce Oil company for said amount, paid to Henry & Stribling; also cash book in use at that time containing folio 117, showing a record of said transaction.

15. Voucher record of defendant in use November 23, 1900, showing entry of voucher No. L 130, dated November 23, 1900, for $200, paid to J. W. Bailey "account of Texas cases." Also cash book in use November 23, 1900, containing folio No. 110 showing record of above transaction.

17. Check of H. C. Pierce, dated March 28, 1901, for $1750 sent to J. W. Bailey in response to a letter from J. W. Bailey to H. C. Pierce of that date requesting New York exchange for that amount. Also voucher record of defendant in use on June 12, 1901, showing entry of voucher No. F-41 for $1750 paid by defendant to J. W. Bailey "for legal expenses account Texas matters."

Also draft of Fourth National bank of St. Louis, No. 561800, on Chatham National bank of New York, transmitting to J. W. Bailey $1750. Also cash book in use March 28, 1901, containing folio 223, showing a record of said transaction.

18. Voucher record of defendant in use March 6, 1901, showing entry of voucher No. C-12, audited by C. W. Norman, auditor of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, for $8000 for "amount of loan to J. W. B., as per note in hand of treasurer." Also bills receivable book of defendant in use at that time showing entry of said note. Also cash book in use at that date containing folio 119, showing entry of said transaction. Also check of defendant No. 44430 for $8000.
