Her future plans are to major in music at either Texas Tech or West Texas State University. She is working this summer at Mode O'Day Dress Shop.

Deaf Smith Co. Discusses Hospital Tax

Members of Deaf Smith General Hospital Board of Directors, meeting in regular session last week, discussed at length the hospital tax rate for the 1973 hospital budget.

With cash reserves of more than $200,000, board members debated whether it would be necessary to levy taxes for hospital operation.

Board members also discussed cutting the tax rate from 25 cents per $100 valuation to 20 cents.

Deaf Smith County collects hospital taxes then charges two per cent collecting fees to the hospital.

At least 16 cents per $100 valuation is needed to cover present bond indebtedness and another $30,000 is necessary for operating expenses, according

An expert children's photographer will take the pictures to assure uniform quality and size for best reproduction and this year will be taken in natural living color. Please dress your children colorfully to take full advantage of the beauty of color photography. The pictures will run in black and white in the newspaper.

There are absolutely no strings to this invitation nor are there any charges to the parents. They do not have to be subscribers of this newspaper to participate. Neither are the parents obligated to purchase around muleshoe with the journal staff Sherman Presley Places Sixth In State 4-H Horse Show

Jim Shafer is recuperating at home now after being released from West Plains Memorial Hospital last week. He was injured in a two car accident on July 11.

Sherman Presley, 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Presley of Muleshoe, placed sixth in calf roping at the State 4-H Horse Show held at San Antonio this past week. The event was a judged event, not timed and horses were judged on manners, alertness and readiness in the starting block. The judges also looked at the speed exhibited while running to a calf, on how well the horse followed the calf, stopping in a straight, hard manner, keeping the rope tight while the roper throws and ties the calf and the manners while the roper returns to his horse. In general, the horse is judged on his ability to assist the roper in roping and tying the calf efficiently.

Presley's sixth place was won out of 79 contestants in the state of Texas, so is truly an honor for this Muleshoe boy who also received a trophy.

His horse was Poco Feed Fagan, owned by Jimmy Presley and son. He was bred by L.H. Wall of Vernon, Texas.

County Agent Spencer Tanksley told the Journal that "this is an extreme achievement for Presley and it encourages other 4-H youth to be competitive and makes my work as county agent more enjoyable."

Presley is a sophomore at Muleshoe High School this year and is a member of the Progress 4-H Horse Club.

Also attending the State 4-H Horse Show were Terry and Tommy Wheeler who also competed in the calf roping event.

As a result of actions by the House and Senate in Washington over recent weeks farmers can expect labor costs to increase by at least 15 percent later this year and by over 30 percent beginning in the Fall of 1973, according to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The House on May 11 passed a bill increasing the agricultural minimum wage from the present $1.30 an hour to $1.50 this year and to $1.70 a year later.

The Senate, ardently courting the favor of organized labor, voted July 20 to raise the farm labor minimum to $1.60 this year, $1.80 next year, $2.00 in 1974 and $2.20 in 1975. "Thus the hourly minimum wage for agriculture in the years ahead will be decided by a House-Senate Conference Committee," Johnson said, "and a 30 percent increase by 1973, as written into the House measure, is the smallest increase that can be hoped for."

The House bill would increase non-agricultural labor from a $1.60 minimum to $1.80, this year and to $2.00 in 1973. The Senate would jump the minimum wage for non-farm workers to $1.80 this year and to $2.20 an hour in 1974.

Ostensibly the Administration was pushing on the Senate floor for new minimum wage provisions much more in line with those adopted by the House, including a $2.00 top for non-farm labor and an increase to only $1.80 for agriculture. But Democrats as well as Democrats would like to gain support from organized labor in this election year, and numerous defections from the more modest wage approach were noted in Administration ranks.

Democrats in the Senate were especially anxious to mollify labor union leaders, most of whom were thoroughly disenchanted with procedures followed at the Democratic Convention and with the party's presidential nominee. Political expediency notwithstanding however, both Texas Senators -- John Tower, a Republican, and Lloyd Bentsen Jr., a Democrat -- voted for a substitute bill with minimum wage increases similar to those approved by the House. That bill was defeated by a vote of 46 to 47 and the minimum bill from the Senate Labor Committee passed 65 to 27. Presidential nominee George McGovern flew back to the Capitol from South Dakota to vote against the substitute bill.

Ultimately the Senate measure would jump the federal minimum wage by 37.5 percent for non-agricultural workers and by almost 70 percent for farm labor, the largest increases in history.

Noteworthy in consideration of the minimum wage provisions which eventually will be enacted is the fact that the chairman of the House Subcommittee on Labor, John Dent of Pennsylvania, fought a losing battle on the House side for a bill almost identical to that passed by the Senate. And Dent will no doubt head up the House conferees on the issue.

A History of Bailey County Pioneer Families

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin G. Bass

Melvin G. Bass was born June 29, 1897, in Delta County, Texas, and as a young man moved to Crosbyton in Crosby County. He married the former Laura Lucille Reynolds at Crosbyton on November 23, 1925. Their only child, a son, Raymond M., was born at Crosbyton prior to moving to Bailey County.

In 1922 and 1923, Bass made several 'prospecting' trips to the Circleback and Needmore communities looking for farm land. He remembers sleeping in a cottonseed house in cold weather and drinking gyp water at the windmill well at the Blackshear Grocery at Baileyboro in December, 1922. Bass bought 292 acres of land three miles west of Baileyboro, and in 1924, sold his interest in a grocery store at Crosbyton and moved to Bailey County. He had hired a man to plant his crop in 1924, but had crops on only 100 acres the first year.

He boarded with Holbert Shirley and his mother on the Koen farm just south of the Bass farm. Meanwhile, he had hired three "Graves brothers" to build a farmhouse, barn, sheds and drill a well and erect a windmill.

On completion of the farm buildings, Bass' wife and son joined him at their new home. They farmed west of Baileyboro until 1932 when they moved into the town of Muleshoe. Memories of the '20's include "burning corn, maize heads and mesquite roots for fuel, because feed was so cheap; cattle frozen along the ranch fences because the weather was so cold and large areas of unfenced land."

Moving into Muleshoe in 1932 ended farming days for Melvin Bass, and the years, up to 1955, were spent in public offices at the Bailey County Courthouse.

During the time Jim Cook was sheriff of Bailey County, May, 1932 through May 31, 1938, Bass served as deputy sheriff. He said of his tenure as a law enforcement officer, "He (Jim Cook) was indeed a fine sheriff and a good man to work for; and the willing advice and splendid help of his good wife in the office; as well as the fine association with other help, including W.E. (Raz) Renfrow, J.C. Buchanan, Roy Hogan and my with Uncle Shorty Bartlett the constable; are pleasant memories."

"My 14 years service as County and District Clerk of Bailey County was made more pleasant and efficient by the splendid, courteous help and personalities of the various deputies I was blessed to have to help me," he continued. "Also, the cooperation and friendliness of all the other office holders and employees was valuable and greatly appreciated," he added, "and I also worked for some time for the County Agent's office when J.B. Waide Jr. was agent and Miss Mildred Davis was his secretary."

Bass concluded, "I counted as my friends all who were listed on the poll tax list and those who were not. So many others I knew were personal friends, such as "men of fiber," the Graves brothers, Holbert Shirley, and the Blackshears at Baileyboro. They were outstanding citizens and worthy of highest compliments."

to board members. After the discussion, the board set up a special meeting to be held Thursday.

At the Thursday meeting, the cut in the hospital district's tax rate for 1973 that seemed very possible at the first meeting, failed by a 3-2 vote of board members.

Acting board chairman Lawrence Straffuss was called on two times within a 20-minute period to cast the tie-breaking vote when other board members split, 2-2. Straffuss sat in as chairman in the absence of chairman Ed Line who was out of town.

The final voting resulted from a motion by Dr. Hugh McCrary and a second by Ed Wilson to leave the tax rate at its present level of 25 cents per $100 valuation. The tax rate, although the same as the one for this year, includes a five cent addition for the establishment of an indigent fund to help in the payment of hospital costs incurred by persons unable to pay the full amount.

The 25 cent rate consists of 16 cents for bond indebtedness, the five cents for the indigent fund and four cents for paying hospital insurance, auditing, ambulance service and tax collecting.

The first vote, which called for a 20 cent tax rate, ended in a split decision and Straffuss was called on to break the tie. He voted down the tax cut and again later was called on to break a 2-2 tie in favor of leaving the tax rate at its present level.

The hospital board met for two hours Tuesday morning in an effort to reach an agreement, but failed to do so. The special meeting was called for Thursday and the board spent another two hours discussing the tax rate before the final decision was reached.

Lubbock SBA Office Has Record Year

A record year ending June 30, 1972, was recorded by the Lubbock District Office of the Small Business Administration. The Lubbock district comprises an 81-county area of West Texas. The financial assistance granted by this office amounted to 564 loans totaling $34.2 million. This is an increase of 273% over the previous year.

Philip J. O'Jibway, District Director, stated the increased business activity was due, principally, to the general economic growth of West Texas. The increased participation of the banks and savings and loan institutions has contributed greatly to the increased activity; approximately 85% of the financial institutions serving this area are now participating in the SBA loan guaranty program. Some 90% of the loans currently being processed are in this category.

The primary objective of the loan guaranty program is to make it possible for businessmen to secure term loans to expand and sustain successful small businesses. The local bank or savings and loan makes the loan and SBA can guarantee up to 90% or a maximum of $350,000.

The loan demand for this 81-county area of West Texas should be at an all-time high for this next fiscal year. The Lubbock District Office is located at 1205 Texas Avenue, Room 712, Federal Building, Phone 806-747-3711 ext. 462.

MRS. LARRY DON FLOWERS the former Sharyn Ruth Wittner

Couple Pledges Vows In Candlelight Ceremony

A candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Muleshoe united in marriage Miss Sharyn Ruth Wittner of Maple and Larry Don Flowers of the West Camp community. Rev. Glenn Harlin, pastor of the West Camp Baptist Church read the double ring vows at 8 p.m. on Saturday, July 22. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wittner of Maple and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Flowers of West Camp.

The altar of the church was decorated with twin candelabra holding wood rose tapers accented with white gladiolus and pink carnations with shocking pink bows. Centering the altar were two candle trees holding fresh comadorn foliage.

Musical selections of "The Lord's Prayer," "Because," and "Whither Thou Goest," were presented by Rowland Nitcher, of Fort Worth, uncle of the bride, soloist, and Mrs. Albert Ellis of Tatum, N.M., organist.

The bride's sister, Kathy Wittner of Maple, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Debra Flowers of West Camp, sister of the groom; Karen McKeever of Muleshoe; and Mrs. Clarence Albus of Lubbock. The attendants wore shocking pink flocked Chalet formal length dresses with puffed sleeves. The dresses were accented with tiny lace around the necklines and soft self fabric bows at the center backs. Wide brimmed white laced straw hats with shocking pink bows and streamers in the back complemented the baskets of blends of pink carnations with baby's breath entwined with ivy which were carried by the attendants.

Robin Nitcher of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. The ring bearer was Reggy Nitcher of Fort Worth, also a cousin of the bride.

Mike Flowers of West Camp served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Garry Kelley of Lubbock, cousin of the groom; Ronald Byrd of West Camp; and Lewis Flowers of Muleshoe.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal length gown with a fitted bodice of French imported Alencon lace. The gown featured a silk organza skirt applied in beaded lace scrolls over a pyramid skirt of peau de sole and long full silk organza sleeves with wide cuffs of lace fastened with tiny pearl buttons. The chapel veil of tulle, edged in matching lace and applied in lace scrolls, was fastened to a tiny beaded head piece. The bridal gown and veil were designed by Mrs. Opal Hanna of Maple. The bridal bouquet of white carnations with an orchid in the center entwined in pink sweetheart roses was placed atop a white Bible given to the bride by her aunt, Mrs. Rowland Nitcher.

A reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table, covered with white taffeta and draped in shocking pink, was centered with a candelabra arrangement of light pink snapdragons, dark pink carnations and baby's breath. The four tiered wedding cake, decorated with light pink roses, was topped with white doves. A three tier silver beverage fountain completed the bride's table.

The circular groom's table was covered with a floor length pleated cloth of shocking pink trimmed with swags of greenery. Centering the groom's table was an arrangement of grapes entwined in a silver candelabra.

Presiding at the serving tables were Mrs. Andrew Wittner; and Mrs. Jim Emerson, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Glenn Harlin, Mrs. Edwin Neutzler and Mrs. Jerry Furgeson.

Rena Neutzler, cousin of the bride, registered guests. Judy Neutzler, also a cousin of the bride, handed out wedding scrolls and rice bags during the reception.

For a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, the bride chose a light blue dacron crepe dress with ruffles at the neck and hemline and a small soft bow in the center back. White accessories completed her ensemble.

The couple will be at home in the West Camp community where the groom is engaged in farming.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of Three Way High School and a 1970 graduate of West Texas State University. She is presently employed as girls basketball coach and physical education teacher at Muleshoe Junior High School.

The groom, a 1966 graduate of Farwell High School, graduated from Oklahoma State Tech in 1969.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Flowers Sr. of Miami, Texas, grandparents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Flowers of Canadian; Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Emerson of Coynosa, grandparents of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Emerson and Brenda of Wilcox, Ariz.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at the XIT Steak House.

'Insurance Is Going Up?'

Yes, increased losses force insurance premiums higher. One way to keep them down is to accept a 'deductible clause,' as the cost of handling small claims is a big insurance expense. Also, a 'padded' or false claim has the effect of forcing everyone's insurance costs up—such abuses of insurance should be discouraged.

Your body is like an automobile--it needs "fuel" to go! Just as your car needs gas to cover the miles, so your body needs calories to give you energy to GO. You won't go far without energy and your car won't go anywhere without its fuel. A car's fuel can be compared to the food you eat or drink--fuel and food are vital to a well-run car (or body!).

A car also needs oil and grease to keep it running smoothly and your body needs vitamins and minerals for the same reason. A well-balanced diet will do much to keep your body going. Treat it as well as you do your car: feed it, clean it, keep it in motion, and slow it down when it needs to recuperate.

Market Report

COLLEGE STATION--"It's time to visit food stores to check for this week's best food buys," Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing specialist of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said.

"In general," Mrs. Clyatt advised, "look for best beef values on forequarter cuts that require moist heat and longer cooking." She listed chuck roasts and steaks, short ribs, round steaks and ground beef.

According to the Texas A&M

University specialist, pork prices rank about the same as the past two weeks, Boston butt roasts, shoulder steaks, end cut loin roasts, hams, picnics and pork liver generally boast best values.

"Fryers, in excellent quality, continue as a bargain in most meat departments," she said. "Frozen turkeys stock most markets at prices you can't afford to pass up."

Mrs. Clyatt added that egg supplies are ample and prices about the same as last week. Grade A large size eggs still offer the greatest combination of quality and economy.

The home demonstration agent named bananas, lemons, oranges, cantaloupes, watermelons, peaches, Thompson seedless grapes and nectarines as fresh fruits in good supply at the most economical prices.

Best buys in vegetable sections include potatoes (both white and red), head lettuce, cabbage, carrots, tomatoes, dry yellow onions, corn, cucumbers, green peppers, radishes and green onions.

He that bestows his goods upon the poor Shall have as much again, and ten times more.

-John Bunyan.

Marsha Buhrman wrote the script for the 1962 annual Bailey County 4-H Dress Revue held in the American Legion Hall Thursday, July 19, at 2 p.m. Her theme was "Back to School Fashions for 4-H'ers."

Miss Buhrman, age 16, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kline Buhrman.

Kathy Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Baker, was the commentator. Marcy Baker, also a daughter of the Wiley Bakers, and Ruth Ann Duckworth, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Duckworth, played various piano selections during the program.

Joyce Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.K. Adams was selected to represent Bailey County in the Senior Division, District 4-H Dress Revue, to be held in Lubbock July 31. Pam Avery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Avery, was selected to represent Bailey County in the Junior Division. Gaye Ramm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ramm, was chosen first alternate in the junior division.

Sheryl Stevens and Veta Allison, junior leaders from Lamb County, judged the record books.

Judge Glen Williams presented ribbons of participation to the following: Norene Green, LaDonna George, Pamela Copeland, Darla Kendall, Marilyn Allen, Betty Harbin, Patricia Camp, Carolyn Wedel, Pam Avery, Brenda Harrison, Jean Davis, Narssia Otwell, Connie Julian, Olga Rogers, Gaye Ramm, Glenda Calhoun, Sharon Stone, Susan Camp, Cindy Lorraine, Delores Servantez, Gayle Gant, Barbara Allen, Vicki Julian, LaNita Powell, Brenda Reagan, Joy Eubanks, Cindy Phillips, Ellen Lewis, Kathy Baker, Beverly Anderson, Sharon Hutton, Jona

One of man's best friends is the lowly peanut. It is called many things such as a "monkey nut," a "groundnut," or a "goober" (probably from the African word nguba). The name "peanut" probably came from its appearance (it grows in the ground in pods like peas) and its texture (each pod holds two or three nut-like kernels). The peanut, of course, was made famous by George Washington Carver who discovered over 300 synthetic products that could be made from the peanut. But our interest is mainly to eat it! And it makes a most nourishing bite. It is an excellent source of vegetable protein, so is a great snack food, nutritionally speaking.

Goucher, Barbara Lambert, Gayle Seagroves, Bella Flores, Ruth Ann Duckworth, Marcy Baker, Marsha Buhrman, Joyce Adams, Jane Wedel and Betty Dearing, Glenna and Joyce Ramey entered their garments and records for judging but were unable to attend the dress revue.

Charity and pride have different aims, yet both feed the poor.

-Thomas Fuller.

The Fidelis Class of the First Baptist Church enjoyed a lawn party and basket supper at the H.E. Schuster home Thursday night, July 24, which was family night.

Games were directed by Mrs. Ray Griffiths and Mrs. Bert Mathis. Watermelons were furnished by Mrs. Ray Griffiths and Mrs. Raymond Precure.

Those attending family night were Mr. and Mrs. J.V. Peeler and James D. Mrs. R.D. Precure, Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Howard, John Lee and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brashear, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Damron and grandson, Gary Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Young, Mrs. Lila Spence, Mrs. L.T. Green Jr., and boys, L.T., III, and Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nickels, Mrs. Faye Cox and daughter, Claudia, and niece Patsy Rivers, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffiths, Mr. Charlie King, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Lane, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Schuster and Joannah.

AUSTIN, Tex.--Property tax reform may be one of the big issues before the 1973 session of the Texas Legislature.

This is the prediction of Texas Research League in a newsletter analyzing the subject.

The property tax, notes TRL, is the largest source of revenue for support of the government in Texas. Collections exceeded $1.4 billion in 1970 and rose $220 million between 1968 and 1970.

Recent federal and state court decisions holding public school finance systems based on locally-imposed property taxes unconstitutional focused new attention on such taxation. The decisions stimulated interest of House and Senate committees on extensive reforms.

Criticism of the revenue source and proposals for reform may center on these factors as pointed up in the TRL study:

*Administration is inequitable. Different standards apply to different types of property.

*There are too few professionally-trained assessors, and many tax offices lack even the most fundamental tools such as tax maps and appraisal cards on each parcel of property.

Furthermore, there are far too many tax offices and districts. (Given an "impossible tax law" to administer, local officials do remarkable well, according to a Tax Policy Committee study.)

*Personal property--tangible and intangible--is particularly difficult to assess. Some states have given up attempting to tax all property, and recognize this fact in basic laws.

*Taxpayers are at a marked disadvantage in redressing grievances over illegal or inequitable assessment in the courts.

"Abolish Board"--Former State Insurance Board Chairman Larry Teaver says the best way to promote insurance regulation reform in Texas is by the drastic remedy of abolishing the Board.

Teaver was rejected for Board membership by the state Senate, and apparently has returned to Gov. Preston Smith's staff.

He told an interview panel that insurance industry influence cannot be removed from regulation without getting rid of the Board which he charged is industry-dominated.

The former chairman suggested the present three-member Board should be made a nine-member, parttime citizen board or that an elected insurance commissioner be chosen to head the regulatory agency.

"Death Penalty Review Sought"--Texas and Georgia will ask the U.S. Supreme Court to review its decision declaring the death penalty, as it is most often applied, unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has received a request from the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles for an official interpretation of the June 29 Supreme Court decision. The Board also wanted to know if the death penalty actually had been declared unconstitutional.

Some justices hinted a constitutional death penalty provision may be possible.

The Board will continue to follow the procedure of not recommending commutation for the 45 inmates on death row until it receives a formal request from the prisoner, judge, district attorney and sheriff in each case.

"Deer Season Set"--White-tailed deer season opens November 18 and lasts through January 1 in most counties subject to regulatory authority of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Regular season in the Trans-Pecos is from November 24-December 10.

In portions of Terrell and Pecos counties, seven additional days have been added for whitetails only, with the season opening November 18 and continuing through December 10.

Opening date for all deer hunting in the Panhandle is November 18, and closing date is December 3.

"Courts Speak"--The Court of Criminal Appeals held Texas judged can no longer deny bail in murder cases due to a U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing the death penalty.

The State Supreme Court held cigarette vending machine companies must pay taxes on cigarettes they stockpiled just before a 1969 tax increase.

The High Court upheld a $4,400 judgement for a workman in Nacogdoches County who was injured by a falling tree limb's knocking him into a power saw.

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company can build a parking lot in a residential area of Spring Valley, Harris County, the Supreme Court ruled.

A dispute over sale of Red Ball Motor Freight Inc. and advancing of nearly $2.3 million to a new parent corporation will be heard by the Texas Supreme Court.

A Nueces County man can recover for damages to his property from Hurricane Celia, though he was past due in payments on his insurance policy, the State Supreme Court held.

"Citrus Blackfly Threatens"--Agriculture Commissioner John C. White warned that the citrus industry in the Rio Grande Valley may be wiped out unless the citrus blackfly is brought under control.

White said the fight against the insect has been going on for more than a year, and that eradication measures are a nuisance to Brownsville area residents.

Ground spraying of infested trees is necessary every two weeks. If not controlled, the fly can defoliate and kill a citrus tree within two years. The insect is now contained in trees in Brownsville. There have been only two outbreaks of the pest in the U.S., once in Texas in 1956 and once in Florida.

"Grants Awarded"--The Moody Foundation of Galveston recently approved almost $2 million in grants for 26 worthy projects in 11 Texas communities.

The 26 projects came from a total of 58 requests for funds totaling more than $17.6 million. The foundation has awarded nearly $3.7 million to 62 projects this year. During the last 11 years, the Moody Foundation has awarded more than $58 million in grants to 450 agencies and institutions all over the state.

"Oil Allowable 100 per Cent Again"--For the fifth straight month, Texas Railroad Commission set a 100 per cent statewide oil production allowable for August.

East Texas field is an exception. Production there will be 86 per cent of potential. Another exception is Kelly-Snyder Field in West Texas where the allowable will remain at 76 per cent.

Purchasers' nominations to buy crude totalled 3.7 million barrels daily for August, highest on record and 157,772 above July. Texas crude oil stocks at mid-July stood at 97.4 million barrels, down 6.7 million barrels from a year ago.

"Short Snorts"--First scientific investigation and recovery of artifacts from 18th century Spanish shipwrecks off Padre Island began July 17.

Henry Rothell of Austin succeeds Richard L. Coffman as administrator of Texas Employment Commission.

Rufus H. Duncan of Lufkin is a new member of the Neches River Conservation District Board of Directors.

Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations proposed a cooperative purchasing service between the state government and local governments, to be operated by state Board of Control.

Attorney General Martin held the comptroller can issue a warrant to pay the state's matching share of life insurance coverage for Texas Water Quality Board employees.

Texas Highway Department released a new, colorful movie on Texas attractions available for club, school and television showings.

"Short Snorts"--The Texas Animal Health Commission has lifted the hog cholera quarantine from Jim Wells County, but continues to impose the movement ban on hogs in Nueces, Dawson, Terry, and Portions of Harris, Bexar, Webb, Mitchell and Nolan counties.

Requirements and standards for the installation of heating, plumbing and electrical systems in mobile homes, as adopted by the state Performance Certification Board, went into effect on December 15, 1971, Attorney General Martin says.

Richard L. Coffman, administrator of the Texas Employment Commission, has resigned to become Regional Manpower Administrator for the U.S. Department of Labor.

Mrs. J. Douglass Toole, Sr. of Houston has been named by Governor Smith to the Texas State Historical Survey Committee, replacing Roy Barrera of San Antonio, who resigned.

U.S. Transportation Secretary John Volpe has released $24 million in federal highway funds to Texas. The funds had been withheld pending adoption by the Texas Legislature of regulations complying with the Highway Beautification (Billboard) Act.

Parks and Wildlife Commission has adopted a regulation banning use of firearms and crossbows while hunting deer or turkey during the special Russell H. Perry of Dallas is the new president of the Texas Good Roads, replacing Graham of Austin.

"No Election Money"--Officials in the office of Secretary of State Bob Bullock say the Legislature in its special session made no provision for funds needed to wind up the cost to the state of financing elections in Texas counties.

Bullock aids say the Legislature's budget writers were asked for an additional $400,000 to wind up the bill paying for the primary and runoff elections. No money was provided.

Bullock will make another effort to get the additional funds when the Legislature comes back to Austin for its 63rd

Session in January, 1973. In the meantime, enough money is believed by Secretary of State staffers to be available to at least enable county election officials to pay Texans who worked in precinct voting boxes. Printing companies apparently will have to wait for final payment after the first of the year, aides say.

Fertilized Pastures Are Still Green

COLLEGE STATION---Adequately fertilized pastures are staying green and providing good quality grazing despite the strenuous summertime temperatures.

"The additional plant food supplied by fertilization increases both the quality and quantity of most pasture grasses," contends Dr. Neal Pratt, agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Research by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has shown that fertilized grasses can produce three to four times as much forage with the same amount of rainfall as grasses which have not been fertilized. This is especially important during the hot Texas summer weather when rainfall is often limited."

Added bonuses from fertilization come in the form of more palatable and more nutritious growth of grasses. The improved nutrition is due to the higher level of protein usually found in fertilized grasses, points out the Texas A&M University specialist.

"Plant food encourages a healthy root system of grasses," says Pratt. "Such root systems are capable of obtaining both nutrients and moisture at greater depths than otherwise possible. Thus, an out-reaching plant is able to use moisture more efficiently and water losses are minimized."

Improved pastures and better grasses mean increased returns on livestock. And boosting livestock profits is a mighty good reason to fertilize, believes the agronomist.

For further information on pasture grasses and forage production, Pratt suggests that producers contact their local county Extension office.

Now liquid SEVIMOL®
CARBARYL INSECTICIDE

helps keep borers out of corn

You can't keep profits up when Southwestern corn borers knock down your plants. Protect your crop with liquid SEVIMOL.

Since last winter was mild, billions of Southwestern corn borers are getting ready to rip into unprotected crops. Once the larvae tunnel into stalks or girdle them, your plants lodge and your profits slump.

That's why it pays to protect your crop with liquid SEVIMOL a proven mixture of molasses and SEVIN® carbaryl insecticide, recently labeled for use against Southwestern corn borer.

Start checking your crop now because maximum hatch occurs between mid-July and mid-August. If 50 to 75 percent of your corn shows egg masses or young larvae anywhere on plants, apply SEVIMOL. Then make a second application in 7 to 10 days.

SEVIMOL is used in low-volume applications. It gives you a heavy spray that falls fast and resists drifting. It spreads uniformly to leaf surfaces and "hangs in there" when other insecticides run off in rain or irrigation.

This year, knock out Southwestern corn borers before they knock over your crop. SEVIMOL carbaryl insecticide also controls corn earworm, fall armyworm and certain other corn insects.
