TAMU has the nation's largest veterinary medical college. It produces 10 per cent of the D.V.M. graduates in America and is the only professional veterinary college in Texas.

The building is being built on the corner of Twelfth Street and American Blvd. Company executives report that the construction will be completed and the Dairy Queen open for business by the first of October. Local Social Security Benefits To Be Raised 20% In October Social Security benefits were being paid to residents of Bailey County at a rate of $105,000 a month at the close of 1971. John G. Hutton, social security district manager in Lubbock, said today. The 20% increase recently passed by Congress will automatically raise the monthly payments to $126,000 effective with the October 3, 1972 checks. Of the 1,025 social security beneficiaries living in Bailey county, 673 are retired workers and their dependents. Another 212 are receiving benefits as the survivors of workers who have died, and 140 are getting benefits as disabled workers or their dependents.

Hutton pointed out that although most social security beneficiaries are older people, about one out of every four is under age 60. In Texas, $350,000 people under age 60 are collecting social security payments each month. Nearly 200,000 are under age 18, receiving payments because a working father or mother has died or is getting social security disability or retirement benefits. Most of the 35,000 beneficiaries in Texas between 18 and 22 years of age, are getting student's benefits under a provision in the social security law permitting the continuation of a child's benefits beyond his 18th birthday, and up to age 22, if the child is attending school full time.

Local Athletic Boosters Will Have Meeting

The Muleshoe Athletic Booster Club will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday (tonight) in the Muleshoe High School Cafeteria to elect new officers for the coming year. All interested persons are urged to attend.

Also in this 18-22 age group, Hutton said, are some other type of beneficiaries, illustrating the broad family protection that the social security program provides workers of all ages. Some are children of retired, disabled, or deceased workers who became disabled before they reached 18 and who will probably never be able to work and become self-supporting. The monthly benefits of these young people, severely handicapped by physical or

Jaycees Hear Report On Aug. 11-13 Retreat

The Jaycee prayer was led by Bill Dale; the Pledge by Curtis Walker and the Creed by Jeff Smith.

Dick Howard gave a report on the Miss Muleshoe entries. Chairman Clarence Christian reported that the entry deadline is Saturday, August 12. Tickets are now being sold by any Jaycees. There are now 12 entries in the Little Miss Muleshoe Pageant.

Mac Brown gave the Jaycee Retreat report. The retreat will be August 11, 12 and 13 with special speakers to be Mayor Irvin St. Clair and Joe Harbin. It was reported that last year it was successful in learning experience for the Jaycees, and is expected to be educational and rewarding this year with these two speakers. The aims are to help the Jaycees discuss problems and the future of our community and how Jaycees fit in the picture.

mental disabilities, will continue indefinitely. Benefits are also payable to the mother if the disabled son or daughter is in the mother's care. Hutton said that another relatively small but significant group of youthful social security beneficiaries are those who are receiving benefits as disabled workers. Social security disability payments can be paid to a person who becomes disabled for work even if he has

Water District Warns Of Abandoned Wells

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 recently mailed approximately 50 letters to landowners in Bailey, Castro, Floyd and Parmer Counties informing them of abandoned and uncovered irrigation wells located on their property. Frank Rayner, Manager of the District, issued the letters in an effort to motivate the landowners to cover them properly. District Field Re-uncapped wells and made reports to the Lubbock office.

According to State law and District rules, every owner of land within the District is required to "close or cap the same permanently with a covering capable of sustaining weight of not less than four hundred (400) pounds..." District officers are allowed by law to go upon the land, if necessary, and to serve the landowner with an injunction and may cover the well hole themselves, and "...all expenditures thereby incurred shall constitute a lien upon the land where such well is located..."

The High Plains Water District has seldom found the need to serve a landowner with an injunction or to hold a lien upon his property due to non-compliance with the first request to cover a well. Most farm-

Area Cotton Crops Have Bright Outlook

If the official August 1 estimate of High Plains cotton production proves correct, area farmers will harvest the biggest cotton crop since 1965 and could reap almost $400 million for their efforts. Bailey County has 60,000 estimated standing acres and an estimated yield per standing acre of 400. The estimated 1972 total production is 50,000 which almost doubles the 1971 production figure of 29,400.

The estimate, compiled jointly by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, sets production from about 2,602,000 standing acres in the 25 PGC counties surrounding Lubbock at 1,917,000 bales. Last year's production came to only 1,279,150 bales. The 1965 crop totaled 2.3 million. The all-time high for the plains was 2,457,703 bales, produced in 1961.

Local School Appreciation Luncheons Set

The annual School Appreciation Luncheons will be held again this year, honoring local school personnel.

The Three Way Luncheon will be held Thursday, August 17, at 8 p.m. in the Three Way lunchroom; the Muleshoe Luncheon will be held Wednesday, August 23, at noon in the MHS Cafeteria; the Lazbuddie luncheon will be held Thursday, August 24, at noon in their lunchroom, and the Bula luncheon will be held Friday, August 25, at 8:30 p.m. in the Bula lunchroom.

These luncheons are presented each year in honor of the teachers, administrators, board members and staff of the Muleshoe Independent School District and the surrounding school districts in the Muleshoe trade territory.

These luncheons are sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, Jaycees and Lions Club.

In the past few years, each teacher has been presented a package of advertising specialties from many of the local forms.

Lay Witness Meeting Set At First Baptist

The First Baptist Church is sponsoring a Lay Witness Mission Renewal this weekend, August 11, 12, 13, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. All the services will be conducted by Laymen. There will be singing, sharing of experiences, and good Christian fellowship. About 40 visiting Laymen and women and young people from various churches will be here to help conduct the services. Eldon Davis of the First Baptist Church will be serving as coordinator.

There will be a covered dish meal served at the church at 5:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday. The services will start at 7:30 p.m.

Assuming market prices of 24 cents a pound for lint and $50 per ton for seed and including some $130 million in price support payments the value of the crop would be $389,178,000. That figure, if realized, would just about equal the cash value of the record 1961 crop.

Last year's early season estimates also projected a rosy picture for the fleecy crop on the plains, but unseasonably cool, wet weather in August and September ruined those prospects. The September 1 PGC-LCE estimate indicated the areas would produce a little over two million bales in 1971, as compared to final production of less than 1.3 million.

"It is not at all impossible that the current crop could meet a similar or even worse fate," says PGC Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, "but the odds are certainly against it."

On the other hand, officials of PGC and LCE point out that ideal weather conditions for the next three months and a normal or later frost could bring on a crop considerably in excess of the present estimate.

Based on the acreage now thought to be "standing" the August 1 projection would mean a pre-acre yield of only 354 pounds, as compared to a 10 year average for the Plains of 433 pounds per acre.

The PCG-LCE estimates are traditionally based on "normal" weather conditions, and are updated on the first of each month through December, taking into consideration the effects of weather for the past 30 days each time.

Normal rainfall at the Lubbock Weather Station for August is 1.82 inches and the average temperature for the month is 78.8 degrees. Average maximum August temperature at Lubbock is 91.7 degrees and the average minimum is 65.8.

Many Bailey County farmers, especially those with early cotton are now irrigating and the dryland cotton will need some more good rains by mid-August for maximum production.

Most of the dryland crops could make a crop without additional moisture, but it will have to have some timely rains if top yields are to be harvested.

A prolonged, wet cool spell would be detrimental, particularly on irrigated cotton.

An ideal situation for Bailey County farmers would be a general rain followed by sunny skies and hot temperatures.

Could Be

enough. But those who have chosen this course have done so of their own will. It is hard for me to believe that they love their country more than those who have remained within it. Those who have chosen self-exile as an alternative to military service have placed their own moral judgement above loyalty to their country.

I shall not support efforts to return these men to the United States free from prosecution. If they wish to return, they should be allowed to do so, but they should remain subject to prosecution. They should be given an opportunity to tell the motives behind their actions but they should be willing to subject themselves to justice, and they should not be given amnesty. I shall not support efforts to return these men to the United States with amnesty. If they wish to return to be tried and to serve punishment, if any, then I shall welcome them.

There were many men who would have preferred not to serve in the Armed Forces when their nation asked them to do so. But these men saw their duty and willingly served although they would have preferred not to. And there were a few, on the other hand, who felt so strongly a moral obligation against the war that they stood trial and made their case a forum for their opposition. I am proud of the former; and I disagree with the views of the latter; but I respect both. I do not respect those that fled their country rather than see military service and I do not believe we should grant those individuals our respect after the war is over.

A discussion of amnesty, bring us also to the question of the draft. Because there are many drawbacks to drafting young men for military service, not the least of which is the placing of an unfair burden on those who are selected, I have supported efforts to move toward an all-volunteer armed force and hopefully to bring that dream into reality. Toward this end, I have supported military pay raises, subject to fiscal constraints, which are designed to increase the number of volunteers. And I have offered and supported a number of various pieces of legislation designed to make military service more attractive. These include legislation to improve compensation for our reserve forces, to extend coverage of the Serviceman's Group Life Insurance Program to the Reserves and the National Guard; to credit for pay and retirement purposes service performed as a member of the Senior Reserve Officers Training Corps program or in the Service Academies; and several other bills aimed at improving the quality of life for those on active duty.

Responsible action by the Congress to improve living and working within the armed forces, and thus make military service more attractive for volunteers, hopefully will boost the level of volunteers. Together with our reduced manpower commitments overseas, an increase in volunteers should make the draft no longer necessary.

That is my hope, just as it is the hope of most Americans. But amnesty for those who have fled their country rather than answer the selective service calls would break a faith with those who have served. I shall oppose moves to grant amnesty for draft evaders and military deserters.

Miss Boyd, Kelley Wed In Bovina Ceremony

Miss Gale Lynn Boyd of Route 2, Friona, and William J. (Bill) Kelley of Weatherford Oklahoma, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Larry Heard at the First Baptist Church of Bovina on Friday evening, August 4, at 8 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dean Boyd of Route 2, Friona, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Kelley of Lubbock. The couple exchanged vows before an altar backed with an archway of greenery trimmed with daisy garlands. An arrangement of daisies and gladiolus was centered in the archway. The altar was flanked by pairs of spiral and sevenbranch candelabra.

Mrs. Doris Wilson of Bovina pianist, accompanied Mrs. Dennis Burrows of Lubbock as she sang "We've Only Just Begun," "The Twelfth of Never," and "The Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Weldon Moody, organist, played traditional wedding music. "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet" was played throughout the ceremony.

Mrs. Gary Crump of Amarillo, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Vicki Kelley of Lubbock, the groom's sister, and Patti and Deborah Mills, both of Bovina. Karla and Kara Mills of Bovina were candlelighters.

The attendants wore formal length gowns of yellow polyester floured dotted Swiss. The gowns featured scooped necklines and Empire waists enhanced with yellow velvet ribbon. The long full sleeves were cuffed at the wrist and had ruffles extending over the hands. Each girl wore a white pearl choker with yellow velvet ribbon laced through it. The attendants wore headpieces of yellow and white daisies with yellow tulle shoulder length veils. The matron of honor and bridesmaids each carried a white basket filled with white daisies and yellow bows.

Linda Wilson of Midland served as best man. Groomsmen were Larry Kelley of Plainview, Mark McKinney of Amarillo and Larry Calvert of Muleshoe. Preston and Darrell Wilson of Muleshoe were ushers.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white flocked nylon voile over white satin, styled with a scooped neckline and Empire waist encircled with imported French re-embroidered Alencon lace. The long full sleeves were cuffed at the wrist with matching lace on the cuffs and had ruffles extending over the hand. The two tiered, floor length and shoulder length, veil edged in the Alencon lace was attached to a crown headpiece. The bridal bouquet carried atop a lace covered Bible, was a white cattleya orchid surrounded by yellow roses and white daisy garlands with satin streamers and love knots. The bride wore a pearl necklace, a gift from the groom. For something old, the bride carried an 1853 quarter which belonged to her late grandfather, Ernest Ivor Perry. Her bridal ensemble was something new. She borrowed a silver braided bracelet from her mother and wore the traditional blue garter. She also had pennies in her shoe minted in the years of her births.

The bride's mother chose a yellow dress and coat ensemble of polyester double knit bonded to nylon tricot. The ensemble featured a sleeveless, A line dress styled with princess seams and a lace braid midriff insert and a matching coat. She wore white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother wore a yellow double knit dress with white accessories and a yellow corsage. The bride presented each mother with a long stemmed yellow rose.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. The serving table was covered with a sheer white striped cloth over yellow. The bride's bouquet was used as the centerpiece. The Lady Windemere cake with four revolving tiers at the bottom and three revolving tiers above, was decorated with white daisies and topped with two satin wedding bells, cake, punch, nuts and mints were served from crystal appointments by Betty Paul and Kathy Schueler, both of Friona.

Guests were registered by Shirley Schueler of Friona, who also handed out rice bags.

For travel the bride chose a yellow and green pants suit accented by the white cattleya orchid taken from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Bovina High School and West Texas State University in Canyon.

The groom graduated from Muleshoe High School and West Texas State University. He is now attending Southwestern State College in Weatherford, Okla.

The couple will reside in Weatherford.

Market Report

COLLEGE STATION--Economic food buys this week cover all sections of your local market, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clayatt, consumer marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"At beef counters look for values on chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks and roasts, ground beef and short ribs," Mrs. Clayatt said.

"Pork prices match those of the past three weeks," she noted. "Add shoulder roasts and steaks, picnics, hams, end-cut loin roasts and chops and pork liver to your shopping lists."

The Texas A&M University specialist reported that eggs stock markets in ample supplies and at costs similar to last year's prices. Grade A large size eggs continue to provide the best combination of quality and economy. Stores also offer medium sizes.

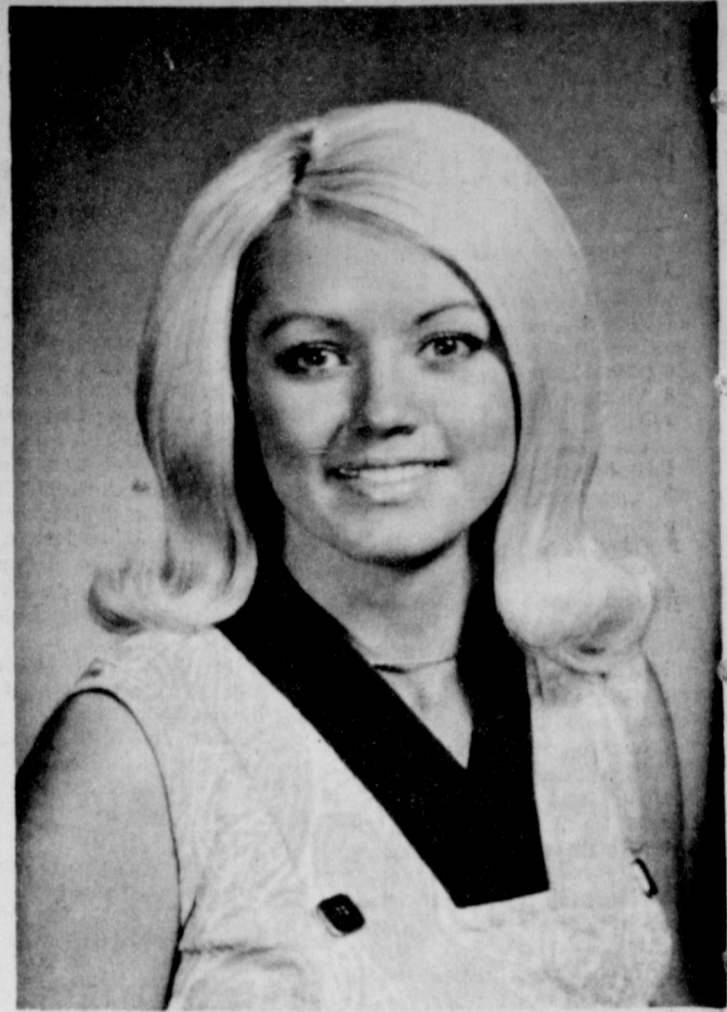

"Fresh fruit vegetable items in good supply at the most economical prices cover cantaloupes, watermelons, plums, peaches, Thompson seedless grapes, nectarines, pineapples and head lettuce," she listed. "Also, potatoes, cabbage, carrots, tomatoes, dry yellow onions, purple hull and black-eyed peas, corn, cucumbers and green bell peppers."

A History Of Bailey County Pioneer Families

Mr. and Mrs. John Benson

John Benson, a native of Tennessee, came to Muleshoe from Lubbock, Texas in 1929. John and his wife, Lovie Rogers, whom he had married in Albuquerque, N.M. first rented a small two-room house from Mrs. Hughes. After finding work in Muleshoe and prospering modestly, John built his two-room house and within five years he had enlarged this to a six-room dwelling with bathroom facilities. In this home the Bensons lived for thirty-nine years. After her husband's death at the age of seventy-five, early in 1965, Mrs. Benson continued to live in the home place for several years before moving to Elizabethton, Tennessee. Of the four children of the marriage only one, Burnis Pearson, continues to live in Texas. John and his wife now live in Canyon, Texas, but John Jr. has moved to San Francisco, California, and both daughters, Virgie and Lila, live in Elizabethton, Tennessee.

By profession, John Benson was a cement contractor, and many of the homes and business buildings in Muleshoe bear the stamp of his pioneer work. The Bensons were members of the First Baptist Church of Muleshoe.

The leader reports that the Club had a good weight loss for July. LaNell Skaggs received a charm for weight loss, June Vinson and Evelyn Moore received hairsets for losing weight six consecutive weeks.

The weekly queen was Linda Vinson, with Mary Johnson as first runner up and Leta Hefner as second runner up. Queen Linda received a gift from the white elephant box.

Jewel Peeler was the birthday girl and received a gift, but did not reveal her age.

"Anyone wishing to visit TOPS may do so by coming to a Thursday meeting at 7 p.m. in the Bailey County Electric meeting room," said Mrs. Redwine.

Music Teachers Assn. Plans 1972-73 Programs

Mrs. Sam McKinstry, president of the Muleshoe Music Teachers Association, called a meeting of the Association on August 4.

The group met to discuss the proposed programs for the coming year. Each teacher will be responsible for presenting the programs featuring the Classical Period of music, and the most prolific composers of that era; Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven. This will be under the direction of Mrs. W.T. Watson, who is vice-president and program chairman.

Discussion was also held on the possibility of having another Piano Festival next year, and the Student Affiliate activities such as Theory Tests, and the Texas Composer contest.

"The Muleshoe Music Teachers Association wishes to encourage area teachers and persons interested in music to join them for the coming year in their efforts to further the appreciation of music," said Mrs. McKinstry.

South Plains Fair Set For Sept. 25-30

LUBBOCK...The Panhandle South Plains Fair will be turning back the pages of yesterday with a free attraction guaranteed to please young and old alike this year.

Tony, the organ grinder, and Chris, the wonder monkey will be entertaining on the grounds throughout the week-long run, slated here Sept. 25-30. The two will be milling around the grounds for about six hours daily and also will present a free 15-minute show each day at 7 p.m. on the outdoor stage adjacent to the Merchant's Building.

At the turn of the century, the organ grinder visited nearly every city in the nation. The distinctive sound of the organ and the comic antics of the little monkey with his brightly colored clothes brightened the day for everyone.

Time has taken its toll, however, and there are only a few organ-grinders left.

Tony is no stranger to West Texas, having spent a few months working in the oil fields at Snyder during the oil boom days. He became interested in monkeys about 1953, bought himself a 3-month-old Capuchin, who became the "star" of the act.

Tony has the largest photo collection of living organ-grinders and has built an interest in old music boxes into a fascinating hobby, one which later will be part of a traveling museum.

Another free attraction, plus

L.C. Childers of Wolforth; and Mr. and Mrs. Dorwin McBee and children of Bula, Mrs. Spell and children will spend the week.

Other guests Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. W.M. McNeely and children and grandchildren of Tahoka, There were 13 of them. The group all enjoyed a fish fry supper.

TEXAS GARDEN-fresh vegetables are in abundance now, and most consumers agree that these Texas agricultural products are first in quantity and quality.

There are 105 counties in 13 areas of the state growing vegetables in commercial quantities on a total of 214,140 acres. The State ranks third in the nation, behind California and Florida, in production of fresh market vegetables; and is first among the states in production of watermelons, spinach and cabbage.

The state is a major producer of 17 vegetable crops, including the three named above and tomatoes, strawberries, cucumbers, honeydew melons, lettuce, beans, potatoes, cauliflower, broccoli, sweet corn, cantaloupe, carrots, onions, and green pepper.

CROP PROSPECTS over Texas are good, according to the regular reports put out by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Grain sorghum prospects are good and wheat yields are higher than were expected earlier. Rice harvest is getting underway, and yields have been cut some by rains and high winds in a few places. A few bales of cotton have been picked in the Rio Grande Valley, and soybeans are making good progress on the Gulf Coast.

In the Rio Grande Valley where cotton harvest is beginning and grain sorghum harvest is nearing completion, land preparation for the fall vegetable crops is well along and next year's citrus crop is making satisfactory progress.

Rains and scattered showers during the past 10 days provided moisture to finish planting peanuts, sorghums and soybeans in the northern parts of the state. Corn is making good growth on the High Plains, and little insect damage has been noted.

stocking had a tendency to slip. Someone finally hit upon the idea of making the button out of rubber. This solved both problems at once. Stockings neither tore nor slipped, because the rubber button gripped the fabric in a new and better way.

Did this change of material entitle the man to a patent? A court said yes.

"Build a better mousetrap," said Ralph Waldo Emerson, "and the world will beat a path to your door."

But the United States Patent Office is not so easily impressed. If your mousetrap is better merely because it is made of better materials, you probably could not get a patent. It must also work in a new and better way.

For example: A man came up with the idea of making towel holders out of plastic rather than metal. The plastic holders did have certain advantages. They were cheaper, for one thing. They were also more colorful.

But these advantages of plastic were already well known. Simply applying them to another product was held not original enough to qualify for a patent.

Even if the change of material means added convenience, that usually won't do. Another would-be inventor put together a map case of lightweight metal, making it easier to carry. But again, a court found no basis for a patent.

"(The lightness) may prove beneficial," said the court, "but it is not invention. There must be original thought or inventive skill, not mere mechanical change of what was old."

On the other hand, a change of material might actually change the way the product functions. Take the matter of garter buttons. Originally made out of metal, garter buttons had two major drawbacks. If the clasp was tight, the stocking had a tendency to tear. If the clasp was loose, the

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm foresees a problem that's going to be hard to handle.

Dear editor: There's one problem coming up in connection with airplane hijacking that the airlines and the government apparently are overlooking.

Here's the situation: the first hijacker several years ago, as I recall, demanded something like $50,000 and got it. Then a little later another demanded $100,000 and that too was produced.

Getting bolder, on account of inflation I guess, the next one demanded $250,000 and got it. Recognizing a trend when he saw one, the next hijacker demanded $500,000 and collected.

And just last week a group of hijackers asked for a cool million dollars, and that too was handed over.

Now here's the problem that's looming up: suppose the next hijacker demands 5 million dollars, the next one 10, and then finally somebody gets on board a plane loaded with say 300 passengers and demands ONE BILLION DOLLARS.

What is the airline going to do? It can't say, go ahead, blow up the plane. And yet how is it going to round up a billion dollars?

It might try borrowing it from Washington, but Washington is so far behind on its installment payments now it's in no shape to take on anything else. One more item added to its monthly payments and everything it's got might be repossessed.

The only solution I can figure out is for the airlines to post signs at airports in big letters saying: "Attention, Hijackers, Positively No Ransom Exceeding One Million Dollars Can Be Paid. Limit One to A Customer."

I don't think this will do any good, but then nothing else is working either.

Yours faithfully, J.A.

Now liquid SEVIMOL®

helps keep borers out of corn

You can't keep profits up when Southwestern corn borers knock down your plants. Protect your crop with liquid SEVIMOL.

Since last winter was mild, billions of Southwestern corn borers are getting ready to rip into unprotected crops. Once the larvae tunnel into stalks or girdle them, your plants lodge and your profits slump.

That's why it pays to protect your crop with liquid SEVIMOL a proven mixture of molasses and SEVIN® carbaryl insecticide, recently labeled for use against Southwestern corn borer.

Start checking your crop now because maximum hatch occurs between mid-July and mid-August. If 50 to 75 percent of your corn shows egg masses or young larvae anywhere on plants, apply SEVIMOL. Then make a second application in 7 to 10 days.

SEVIMOL is used in low-volume applications. It gives you a heavy spray that falls fast and resists drifting. It spreads uniformly to leaf surfaces and "hangs in there" when other insecticides run off in rain or irrigation.

This year, knock out Southwestern corn borers before they knock over your crop. SEVIMOL carbaryl insecticide also controls corn earworm, fall armyworm and certain other corn insects.

Export pens progressing...Fresh vegetables in abundance...Crop prospects good...

CONSTRUCTION of new livestock export facilities at Houston, Del Rio and Eagle Pass is underway, and an appropriation for possibly two more was in the 1972-73 budget adopted in the recent special session of the Texas Legislature.

The appropriation for $450,000 is believed adequate for two more of the sheltered facilities which may be built at El Paso and Brownsville. The new facilities will replace the present facilities which have been condemned as inadequate by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and which have brought a threat from the Mexican government to halt export of Texas livestock through border cities.

If exports through Mexican border towns were halted, livestock exports would have to be re-routed through Miami, Florida facilities which would cost livestock men considerably more in transportation costs. Texas livestock exports have been averaging over $12 million annually.

The new facilities, which Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has said will far exceed standards set by the USDA and Mexican authorities, will be operated by the Texas Department of Agriculture. The USDA will furnish inspection services.

The new facilities will have concrete floors throughout, covered pens, specially-designed loading and inspection chutes, a new hydraulic-type multivator for dipping animals, offices and laboratory space. USDA requires sufficient pens at export departing points to hold all of the animals in a shipment so that the entire lot may be given a clinical veterinary inspection while at rest. Each pen will be separated by curbing that will permit flushing and disinfecting of individual pens.

Don't Miss This Gigantic Grand Opening

CONGRESSMAN

Bob Price

18th Congressional District

The House Rules Committee has voted to bring the proposed Constitutional Amendment, which prohibits forced busing, to the House floor to a vote.

I strongly support this amendment which is similar to one I have sponsored. I am opposed to busing of school children just for the sake of a numerical balance dreamed up by some statistician.

Quality education took a back seat on the bus under this program and it is now evident that such a program destroys the concept of the neighborhood school and parental support for that school.

It has also become evident that using the color of a person's skin to determine assignment to a particular school is in itself discrimination.

There are those who argue that it takes too long to get two-thirds of the Congress to approve such a measure... too long to get three-fourths of the States to ratify. However, I feel as other parents do, that an amendment is the only guarantee we have that the courts will not be running our schools. This issue will come up for a vote within the next week... it is imperative that it pass.

"Federal Bureaucracy Decreases"—The number of persons on the Federal payroll is gradually decreasing under the Nixon administration. At a high of 2.6 million in 1969, the number of government employees now stands at 2.5 million.

This figure would decrease even more when the Nixon plan for reorganization to cut out duplication and overlapping is put into effect.

Thus far, however, the President has been stymied in this effort by an opposition-controlled Congress which continues to implement more federal agencies.

In a letter to Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Elliot L. Richardson, Congressman Bob Price expressed strong concern over practices and procedures followed by the Department which have "adversely affected the public assistance program of the State of Texas by requiring the State to grant welfare to those who would otherwise be ineligible."

Citing recent comments by Texas State Welfare Commissioner, Mr. Raymond W. Vowell, Congressman Price noted that HEW rules and regulations along with a number of court cases have made it easy for people to get on welfare and almost impossible to get ineligible persons off the rolls.

The Pampa Congressman emphasized that welfare is an act of charity and benevolence and that the United States has traditionally been a humanitarian Nation by helping those who suffer misfortune. "Yet, it seems in recent years agencies of government have bent the law and have distorted the intention of charity by granting an open license to those who simply desire to live at the expense of others," Price said. "If everyone demanded his right to collect welfare, who would pay the taxes?"

Congressman Price specifically requested Secretary Richardson information regarding Department regulations "as they affect the size and limitations of state welfare rolls." Price also questioned, "What steps and procedures are being followed by the Department to protect the public interest and to punish those who seek welfare through fraudulent or abusive methods?"

In separate letters to Secretary of State William Rogers and Attorney General Richard Kleindienst, Congressman Bob Price today strongly condemned the recent trip of actress Jane Fonda to North Vietnam.

"Loyal Americans everywhere are shocked and outraged by the conduct of Miss Fonda, which, in my opinion, clearly exceeds the limits of free speech or even irresponsible chatter. That this citizen would by her actions give aid and comfort to an enemy of this Nation which has been largely responsible for the death of over 50,000 Americans, and jeopardize the chances for critical peace negotiations, is so obviously detrimental to the national welfare as to demand an immediate accountability and rebuke," Price said.

Price inquired into the methods used by Miss Fonda in securing permission to travel to North Vietnam and the role of the State Department in allowing or assisting such travel. The Congressman further questioned why responsible representatives of the United States Government who are concerned about the fate of American prisoners of war held captive in North Vietnam find it impossible to visit that country when at the same time accommodations for travel are extended to persons such as Miss Fonda who "serve as a mouthpiece for Communist propaganda and undermine the morale and integrity and motives of their own country."

Price called upon both the Justice and State Departments for an accounting of their intentions to seek prosecution of Miss Fonda for her actions as well as agency recommendations for new Federal legislation to plug any loopholes in existing law.

Meat prices here appear to have stabilized.

Canyon Hospital Dist. Votes 25c Tax Rate

South Randall County Hospital District board members adopted a tax rate of 25 cents per $100 on a 51 per cent property valuation.

The board also reviewed a proposed budget in excess of $100,000 for their next fiscal year. The budget is based on the 25 cent tax rate.

Neblett Hospital Administration Ray Grimes presented to the board tax rate options ranging from the adopted 25 cents to 30 cents.

"I say, unless you can urge me out of it, that I'm in favor of the lowest tax rate," said Vernon Harman, vice president of the hospital district. "It's easy to raise taxes and hard to get them down, so I suggest we start with the lowest we can have and still get by."

And, nobody argued with Harman about adopting the 25 cent rate.

"I think it would be a lot better in the eyes of some people than the 30 cent rate," board member Floyd Tomlinson said.

O.H. Rahlfs, board member, noted that the 25 cent tax rate would be eight cents lower than that which had been publicized by the board during last summer's bond election.

Grimes said only four of the 25 cents will be used to handle administrative financial matters, while 21 cents will be used to retire $800,000 in tax bonds voted last summer and sold in June.

The proposed budget presented by Grimes shows an estimated revenue of $14,000 next year and an expenditure expected to be almost $12,000.

More than $800,000 of the $12,000 would be expanded to pay interest and principal on the tax bonds. The first bond payment is due next summer and then semi-annually thereafter. Grimes said his budget estimate on records from the Randall County Tax collector-assessor's office. The records indicate the county has a certified tax roll of at least $72.5 million.

Grimes told the board that the tax roll in actuality could be as high as $80 million. According to the budget figures, 51 per cent of the certified roll would yield a taxable value of about $37 million.

Grimes assured the board members that the hospital district could run smoothly on the $100,000 budget through next year.

A budget hearing has been called to approve the proposal on August 21 in the Canyon Community Center.

Currently, the hospital board has just over half the $1.5 million estimated as needed to construct a new hospital in Canyon.

Grimes said the board is contemplating issuing about $800,000 in revenue bonds to obtain the other funds.

The hospital administrator told the board that initial work with the hospital district's architect have been completed.

He said the hospital staff has worked with the architect to plan the overall scheme of the new 50-bed facility.

The next step is a review of large plans of the various parts of the hospital—operating rooms, emergency rooms, etc.

Still Around The sick man had been delirious with fever for days, but now he regained consciousness and became aware of his comfortable bed and the gentle assurance of cool, loving hands. "Where am I?" he asked weakly. "In Heaven?"

"No, dear," said his wife soothingly. "I'm still with you."

AUSTIN, TEX.--A recent statewide survey shows 22 per cent of Texans, or 2.5 million, are poor compared to a nationwide rate of 13 per cent. Further, Texas accounts for nearly 10 per cent of the nation's poor.

Texas Office of Economic Opportunity submitted the 300-page report to Governor Pteston Smith, terming it the most comprehensive study ever undertaken among the Texas poor.

The Rio Grande Valley area was shown as having the highest incidence of poverty in the state--42.2 per cent of the population. East Texas was next with 29 per cent poverty rate.

About 55 per cent of the heads of poor households are employed, and 70 per cent of those have fulltime permanent jobs, according to the study.

However, low income levels make it difficult for these persons to bring their families out of poverty.

Guidelines for the report set poverty level for a family of four at an annual income of $3,800.

More than one third of the Texas poor are children under 15, and four out of five are black or Mexican-American.

George P. Taylor, TOEO director, said the report will be the basis of programs to alleviate poverty in the state. Recommendations include bringing in new industry to decrease unemployment, housing expansion and better health care and food programs.

A proposed four-year anti-poverty plan for Texas would seek $6.3 million in aid from national and regional OEO. "Reform Session Studied" --Governor Smith disclosed he is putting together a "full package" of insurance reform proposals in case he decides to call a special legislative session this year.

Reports indicated the governor was serious when he said he may call such a session on insurance matters. Smith himself continued to lash out at the insurance regulatory board. When members ordered a rate cut for auto insurance averaging 11 per cent statewide, Smith said a 21 per cent reduction was in order.

Smith said he must work closely with legislative leadership to achieve anything in a special session, but Lt. Governor Ben Barnes and House Speaker Rayford Price said he hasn't said a word to them about his plans.

If Smith calls the session, apparently he will propose wholesale reorganization of the board and a controlled competitive rate system for property and auto insurance.

"Election Bills Paid" --The state ran out of money before it paid 1972 primary election expenses and fell about $325,000 short of meeting all its bills.

The last $117,000 available was sent to county officials last week. A lot of election workers, printers, and suppliers have not been paid for their work.

The money was dispersed on a pro rata basis, amounting to 26.66 per cent of bills still outstanding in the counties. Remaining expenses will have to go uncompensated until the 1973 Legislature can make appropriations. An appropriation of $2.1 million was set aside by the Legislature last spring for the 1973 primaries.

"I can find no other source of funds available at this time," said Secretary of State Bob Bullock. "When we have paid all the county chairmen, we will not have one cent remaining of the $2.1 million appropriated."

"AG Opinions" -- Death penalties may be commuted to life sentences at any stage between jury verdict and granting of a new trial, Attorney General Crawford C. Martin held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded "One convicted of a felony may have rights of citizenship restored and become eligible to hold public office."

A county clerk may record marks or brands given the same name if the marks or brands are themselves different.

sional Act but can create a professional corporation where all shareholders are licensed podiatrists.

* The county attorney of Harris County may investigate election frauds, although the primary duty is that of the district attorney.

* Established procedural rules for parole revocation under a new U.S. Supreme Court decision are not applicable to revocations prior to June 23, 1972.

* Parks and Wildlife Department officers have duty to preserve the peace and disperse riots.

* A notary who continues to meet any one of three statutory requirements has not "permanently removed" himself or created an automatic vacancy.

* A former state employee who was eligible to be a member of the Employees Retirement System is not eligible to receive a Texas Ranger pension.

"Court Merger Urged" -- Merger of the Texas Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals, eligible of municipal and justice of the peace courts and non-partisan election of judges were proposed by the Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement.

A series of seminars are being scheduled over the state to hear comments on the proposed revisions.

Under the recommendations, courts of civil appeals would become courts of appeals handling both criminal and civil cases.

The Legislature would be directed to create a system of county courts at law to perform the judicial functions now performed by all courts below the district level.

"Unemployment Jumps" -- A jump in the unemployment rate last month was spurred largely by new graduates and summer job seekers, according to Texas Employment Commission.

The jobless rate reached 4.6 per cent statewide, but this was less than the 5.3 per cent rate of June, 1971.

Actually, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports, the Texas economy is getting better and better, and 1972 second-quarter and first-half performances of economic indicators ended on a solid upbeat. No boom is yet in sight, however.

"Appointments" -- Dick Whittington, formerly of Devers in Liberty County, has been named deputy director of Texas Water Quality Board, succeeding Joe P. Teller.

Governor Smith appointed William H. Earney of Marfa district judge of the 83rd judicial district. He succeeds the late C.E. Patterson.

"Short Snorts" -- A special election is set for September 16 in District 46, Place 3 of Brooks, Cameron, Kenedy, and Willacy counties to select a successor to Rep. J.A. Garcia Jr. of Raymondville who resigned.

Agriculture Commissioner John White warned early destruction of cotton stalks in the Lower Rio Grande Valley

New information on Texas fairs, fiestas, and celebrations during August and September is available from the highway department.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong has been elected secretary of the Western States Land Commissioners Association.

New bank charter applications have been filed for Woodway (McLennan County) and Addicks (Harris County).

Four minor party lawsuits to get on the November general election ballot have been set for hearing before three federal judges in San Antonio September 7.

A Senate committee probing health care costs was told hospitalization in Texas isn't quite as high as the national average-if that's any consolation.
