Tired, Aching Bodies At MJHS

Complaints of tired and aching bodies can be heard in the halls and all around the school at MJHS. Some of the causes of the aching bodies are stop and go sprints, callisthenics, running lines, running bleachers, guarding, etc.

Every day you see tired students coming from the gym with red faces and sweat dripping off them from the workouts. The coaches are really getting the students ready for the coming ball season. Edwin Watson and Trey Stoneham.

Reading Tests Given

Muleshoe Junior High School students take two important tests each year. These are the California Reading tests that are given at the beginning and near the end of each school year.

The test given in the fall is to help the teachers evaluate each student's ability to read and comprehend what is read. The students are then placed in reading classes according to their special needs. Later, essential groups are formed in each class. The every individual is taught the reading skills he or she is lacking.

The test given in the spring lets the teachers and parents know how much each student has learned through the course of the year. This same test shows the teachers if their method of teaching needs to be improved. Many students and teachers benefit from these tests. They help teachers to understand the individual needs of their students so they can attain greater goals in reading.

Home-making may be a lost art, but there's much to be said for the ancient custom.

Draft Number Cutoff To Be 95 This Year

AUSTIN - Colonel Melvin N. Glantz, the State Director of Selective Service for Texas has announced that the Lottery Number Cut-Off for induction of non-volunteers for the remainder of the year is 95.

The Department of Defense has asked for 15,900 men from all states to be inducted during the last three months of 1972. This will require raising the Lottery Number or induction from 75 in September to 95 for the last quarter of the year.

Glantz said projections indicate that approximately 1,000 men will be inducted in Texas during the last three months of this year. Induction orders will go to men who are available and fully qualified for military service and who are in the 1972 First Priority Selection Group, which is made up of men born in 1952 and men who lost a deferment in 1972.

Orders for pre-induction Armed Forces Examination will continue for men in the 1973 First Priority Selection Group with Lottery Number 75 or below during the rest of this year. This group is made up of men born in 1953 who are not currently in a deferred status.

John Tower United States Senate COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

The Senate has been considering a Revenue Sharing bill which would return to the States and to local governments a portion of the federal revenues. This is necessary because of the severe financial bind in which most of our state and local governments are finding themselves today. Over the years, the federal government has pre-empted much of the revenue base and there is very little left for our state and local governments to expand into in order to meet their own burgeoning demands for increased services for their citizens. I am strongly in favor of federal revenue sharing, but I hope that this concept will not become a permanent fixture of governmental operations. Early last year, I offered legislation designed to find ways for returning to the State and local governments a portion of the revenue base. This would be a step beyond revenue sharing. While it is important to return a portion of the federal revenues to State and local governments now, I would prefer to see the State and local governments be given a sufficient portion of the revenue base to meet their needs directly, without the revenues having to be passed through the federal bureaucracy at all.

But that is for the future. For now, this Congress must pass a Revenue Sharing measure. The House of Representatives has approved one version of a Revenue Sharing proposal. While I have supported the concept of Revenue Sharing, I lodged strong opposition with the Senate Finance Committee against a formula contained in the House bill which would discriminate against states like Texas which have not yet levied a state income tax upon their citizens.

I was encouraged that when the Senate Finance Committee recommended a Revenue Sharing bill to the full Senate, it

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD DALE LEWALLEN

Miss Lee, Lewallen Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Evelyn LaWanda Lee and Richard Dale Lewallen were united in marriage in a ceremony performed at the home of the groom's parents on Saturday, August 5, at 3 p.m. The double ring vows were read by Ivan Woodard, pastor of the 16th Street and Avenue D Church of Christ.

The couple stood before an archway decorated with blue flowers, greenery and ribbon bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of romantic lace over white satin designed with an Empire waistline, rolled collar and long cuffed sleeves which fastened with pearl buttons. The detachable chapel length train was of the lace. The illusion veil, bordered in lace, was attached to a lace flowerlet adorned with seed pearls. Her white daisy corsage tied with blue ribbon streamers was carried atop a white Bible. For something old, the bride wore her sister's necklace. Her wedding ensemble was new. She wore the traditional blue garter and borrowed the Bible from her mother-in-law.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Lela Hughes, cousin of the bride.

Wendell Vernon was best man. A reception followed the ceremony in the dining room of the home. Nelda Vernon registered the guests. The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over blue and centered with an arrangement of white daisies and blue carnations. Wedding cake, blue punch, nuts and mints were served from crystal and silver appointments. Presiding at the serving table were Kathy Howard and Cynthia White.

For travel the bride chose a blue and white maxi dress accented with a corsage of white daisies tied with blue ribbons.

The bride is a student at Muleshoe High School and the groom attended Muleshoe Schools.

DINNER ON A SKEWER. A "skewered" dinner can be just as nutritious as a formal dinner whether you are in your own backyard or camping out. Try beef steak cubes, mushroom caps, canned potatoes, and strips of green pepper. Or spear cubes of lamb with lamb kidneys, tiny whole onions, sweet potatoes, and wedges of tomatoes. Colorful, nutritious, and appetizing--a dinner-in-one on a skewer!

DINNER IN A KETTLE. Camping or boating chefs can offer just as nutritious dinners as landlubbers or "at homers" and still only use one kettle. Heart-y stews, chowders, or full-meal soups are well-known popular "kettle" meals. Spaghetti heated with franks and a sprinkle of cheese is even easier, and nutritious, too.

OUT DOOR SNACKS AND NIBBLES. Appetites roar when you're cruising on the water or relaxing out-of-doors. So nourishing hearty snacks are the order of the day. Soda crackers sandwiched with peanut butter and honey help stave off the hunger pangs and easily add to the protein of the day. Crisp raw vegetables are as acceptable in-between as they are with meals, and especially satisfying when served with cubes of nourishing cheese. Containers of yogurt are filling and supply nutrition similar to that of milk. Bananas give quick energy before the last swim of the day.

Neither wealth nor position makes a man a gentleman; neither does poverty prevent a man from being a gentleman.

Lubbock Symphony Concert Season Opens

Lubbock Symphony Orchestra opens the 1972-73 concert season with a performance at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, October 10 at Lubbock Municipal Auditorium with William A. Harrod conducting. Miss Mary Costa who will appear as guest soprano is a native of Knoxville, Tenn., but received most of her musical training in California.

Though young, her career has already spanned opera roles, concert tours, television and movie appearances in America and Europe. She is currently starring in MGM's new film on the life of Johann Strauss Jr. - "The Great Waltz."

While studying in California, Miss Costa met Walt Disney and was given a singing and speaking role for his "Sleeping Beauty." Jack Benny, listening at the studio, advised her to study seriously for an operatic career and gave her her first chance to sing opera.

Following intensive study with former Metropolitan tenor Mario Chamlee, she sang "Undel di verdemmo" from "Madame Butterfly" on Benny's show and evoked a flood of mail. In 1971 she sang on Bing Crosby's Christmas Special.

Her operatic roles have included, among others, Micaela in "Carmen" and Violetta in "La Traviata." She has been under contract with both the San Francisco Symphony and the

Fall Fashion Wardrobe Planning Depends On Current Market Trends

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a two-part fashion series on fall wardrobes -- planning and selection -- prepared by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. For Part I, which concerns wardrobe planning, Roxanne Schnorr, Extension clothing specialist, reviews today's fashion philosophy and offers tips on determining current trends and applying them to the present wardrobe.)

COLLEGE STATION -- Fall fashions already on the scene catch the eye and tease the budget.

"Whether we're going to be sewing at home or buying our clothes, the most important fashion goal is to know what's on the market, current trends and how our wardrobe can be updated," Rozanne Schnorr, clothing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, reflected as she discussed today's fashion looks and wardrobe planning.

"To measure fashion today, we don't have one silhouette, one length, one color or one fabric to copy. Instead, we have the look of a particular season," she explained.

"For example, in past seasons we've seen the leg look -- with mini skirts and hot pants -- and the costume look -- with its peasant, Indian, Oriental and American themes.

"This fall, we'll see several looks. The classic look will emerge in pleated skirts with blazers to achieve the still-popular layered look, and the shirt dress will underline classic trends. Also, the sports look promises to enjoy attention and will come in separates," the Texas A&M University specialist predicted.

To know what's in takes some observing, Miss Schnorr advised.

"At the very beginning of a season, study fashion magazines -- particularly those with fashions for your age group. Study newspaper ads and the fashion section of your paper -- fashion writers know the new look months in advance.

"Do some window shopping at the fashion-minded stores of your city, and browse through the fashion departments on a free opening night or Saturday.

"Observe what's new, exciting and different from last season's selection -- the way manikins are dressed and accessorized are sharp clues," the specialist pointed out.

Once trends become obvious, the next step is deciding on new purchases to "build in" a seasonal-fashion wardrobe.

"Begin with what you have," Miss Schnorr advised. "Make an inventory of all categories -- pants, shorts and jeans, skirts, sweaters, shirts, blouses -- and tops, pantsuits, casual dresses and date dresses, coats, underfashions, shoes, boots, purses and other accessories.

"Then decide which are all right for the coming season and which categories need additions. Some garments may be okay, but need a bit of excitement by adding a new accessory," she pointed out.

Citine an example, Miss Schnorr noted the possibilities of creating this season's look with jeans from a past season. A sweater top over a body shirt with a man's tie and jeans, achieves the sporty separates look for fall.

Taking inventory also provides the opportunity for removing unwanted and unused clothing -- "the best way to make all garment count," Miss Schnorr added.

"Studies to determine new looks, what's available in area stores, and what you already have in your wardrobe are the best methods for wardrobe planning," the Texas A&M University specialist concluded. (In Part II, Miss Schnorr will discuss wardrobe selection.)

Auxiliary Makes Plans To Purchase Bennett Machine

The Muleshoe Hospital and Nursing Home Auxiliary voted to buy a Bennett machine for the Hospital, when they met September 6 in the office of the hospital administrator for the first regular meeting of the year. Presiding at the meeting was the president, Mrs. J.E. McVicker. The Bennett machine will be purchased with profits made from the vending machines in the Hospital and Nursing Home, which are maintained by the Auxiliary.

The biggest money making project of the year, for the Auxiliary, will be the annual Christmas Card project, which will be headed by Mrs. Haney Poyfor. Once again, people will be encouraged to give a donation to the Auxiliary in place of sending Christmas cards, and their name will appear in a full page ad in the Journal a few days before Christmas, wishing their friends a Merry Christmas. Sales will begin soon. Another project being planned, and one the Auxiliary decided to try because other Auxiliaries have been so successful with them, is the Tasting Bee. Plans are being made and will be announced soon. Mrs. Gene McGlaun is chairman.

Mrs. Doyce Turner was appointed chairman of the Pediatrics Committee. She will be responsible for seeing that all children who enter the Hospital are given some special attention. The Auxiliary will provide small gifts, such as color books and crayons, and the Beta Sigma Phi will make and donate hand puppets to be given to the children through the Auxiliary.

Very soon, now, a new courtesy will be offered to the visitors and patients who come to the Hospital. The Auxiliary will provide free coffee in the waiting room of the Hospital.

Mrs. Oscar Allison will be chairman of the committee to set up a Gift Counter in the Hospital lobby. Convenience items and small gifts will be sold. This will be another service offered by the Auxiliary Pink Ladies.

Mrs. Dorothy Green, volunteer service chairman, announced that there are now several more fields of service in the Auxiliary, and it is hoped that more people will want to join and find the job that suits them best. One of these is mending. There is a great need for volunteers to do the endless tasks of repairing torn sheets, hospital gowns, and even some of the clothes belonging to the residents of the Nursing Home who do not have anyone to do this for them. Other work areas where volunteers are needed is on the juice cart in the afternoon, and daily manicures for the Nursing Home residents. Also, there is a need for people who will take some of the pat-

Workshop Scheduled To Train Volunteers To Teach Non-Readers

Mrs. Dorothy Barkley of Tulsa will conduct a three-day basic literacy workshop on training volunteer tutors to teach adults to read and write on an "Each One Teach One" basis beginning September 19, according to an announcement being made by Mrs. Gene King, President of the Tulsa Literacy Council.

Day sessions of the workshop will be held Tuesday, September 19th and Tuesday and Wednesday, September 26, and 27, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Evening sessions, for those unable to attend in the day time, will be held upon request.

There will be a $10 registration fee which will pay for all books and materials used in the workshop. The workshop, sponsored by the Tulsa Literacy Council will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church, Tulsa. Enrollment in both day and night classes will be limited to thirty people; so those persons interested in working as volunteers are urged to pre-enroll by calling or writing First Baptist Church in Tulsa, at 995-3591.

Volunteer tutors need not have had college work in order to work in the program...instruction obtained in the workshop will provide the training needed. There are some 803 adult non-readers in Bailey County. This handicap prevents their full participation in the civic, social and economic life of the community.

Please bring a sack lunch. Coffee, tea, and cokes will be provided. A nursery at the church will be provided for preschool children.

Mrs. Barkley received certification as a Master Literacy Teacher Trainer in September, 1971 from the National Affiliation for Literacy Advance in Syracuse, New York. She has held workshops all over the Panhandle of Texas and in Kawasaki, Japan.

She has taught students from Korea, Japan, Thailand, and Old Mexico. Also, she teaches English as a Second Language to non-English speaking school children.

She is a member of the National Affiliation for Literacy Advance, Southern Baptist Convention Home Mission Board's Literacy Teachers, Texas Literacy Council and the Tulsa Literacy Council.

More than 180,000 people in Texas, 14 years of age or older, have not had a year of schooling! Every state, every community has pockets of neglected and undereducated people who are impoverished intellectually, socially, economically, and spiritually. Many are unemployed, bitter, helpless. These are the people whose children swell the number of dropouts and juvenile delinquents.

You play a vital part in America's future, as well as in your own community, by investing in the efforts to help people help themselves. Dr. Frank Lautbach said, "One of the noblest and long lasting acts of Christian service one can perform is to teach one to read and write."

Attend the literacy workshop. You can make a difference!

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT OR CONSTRUCTION
The Texas Highway Department is planning to proceed with the development of the proposed highway improvements on Farm to Market Highway No. 1760 in Bailey County from New Mexico State Line, East to the intersection of F.M. Highway 1731 and F.M. Highway 1760. Since the Administration of the Highway Department has approved the route and design proposed for development of this project, work will begin on the next phase of engineering necessary for the development of this project.

The proposed project contemplates the construction of a Farm to Market type two lane highway with a 20 foot paved roadway. The usual right-of-way width will be 100 feet. The proposed location will follow the existing county road except for a minor realignment to eliminate a sharp curve.

Maps and other drawings showing the proposed location and geometric design, environmental studies and all other available data concerning the development of this project may be inspected at the Resident Engineer's Office at Littlefield, Texas. 37t-tfc

Close cooperation between business and labor is needed to help protect the hearing ability of workers employed in noisy surroundings, according to the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. Crusade officials point out that many persons working in excessively noisy areas probably are not even aware of the hearing hazards they face.

Much time is wasted by listening to others talk.

Eight Teams To Clash

Our apologies for jumping the gun a bit last week with our forecast on the Houston-Arizona State game. We tried to pick a winner one week too soon! However, now that the Cougars have one game under their belts, they might be a little tougher. Arizona State is still the favorite, and the spread is ten points. The Georgia Bulldog comes alive this week against Baylor. The 8th-ranked Georgians will open their season with a 35-point over the Fighting Bears.

All four of last year's Big Eight powers will see action Saturday. Nebraska, upset by U.C.L.A. last week, meets Texas A&M. The Aggies are underdogs by 27 points. Colorado goes after its second victory of the season, playing Cincinnati. The Buffaloes, expected to be the biggest threat to Nebraska's title hopes, will crush the Bearcats by 31 points.

Oklahoma and Iowa State, ranked 3rd and 18th respectively in our final ratings last fall, also take opposition outside the conference. The Sooners will whip Utah State by 30, while the Cyclones, the surprise team of the '71 season, are favored over Colorado State by the same margin, thirty points.

Last year's Number Four power was Big Ten champion Michigan. After being upset in the Rose Bowl last January, the Wolverines are more than ready to resume winning. They will clip the Wildcats of Northwestern in a conference struggle by 12 points.

Before leaving the Big Ten, a game of more than casual interest will be the Illinois-Michigan State match-up. The Spartans are expected to be greatly improved over last year, and the Illinois, after their "last half-undefeated season," are real dark-horses in the conference. Michigan State will win by eight.

Ninth-ranked L.S.U. will be much too tough for Pacific. The spread will be about 31 points.

In the East, Penn State will again be the power... if you believe everything you read! The fifth-rated Nittany Lions face a real toughie in real toughie country... they play 12th-ranked Tennessee in Knoxville. We'll go with Penn State by just one point but we're doing this on a very nervous type-writer!

On the Pacific Coast, the Uclans will whip Pitt by 23 points... the Trojans will beat Oregon State by 26.

One of the prices we are paying for the technological advances of recent years is the steadily increasing noise levels found in urban areas. It is now time, say officials of the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation, for technology to be channeled into a major effort to control excessive sound levels.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses human nature this week, we think.

Dear editor:

Was this farmer, according to an article I read in a newspaper last night, who had trouble with his mail box. Somebody was always knocking it down or shooting holes in it or smashing it with a hammer and after he had replaced in 20 times -- that's right, 20 times -- he finally got action.

What he did was take it home with him every day. About an hour before the mail carrier was due he'd take it down and set it up, then when the mail man came he'd pick up his mail, mail box, and all and return to his house.

In this connection I read in the same paper that the telephone company reported that 11,000 pay phones in this country are put out of commission every day by people trying to rob the coin box of just ripping out the phone for the fun of it.

Clearly, what the phone company people ought to do is pick up their phone booths every night and take them home with them. In this day and age, which is pretty much like every other day and age since man arrived, you don't solve problems by getting at the root cause, you dodge them you out-last them, if you can't outlast them you build an overpass over them; if that doesn't work, re-route the highway entirely or double-deck it. If that doesn't work, come out against high taxes.

Vandalism, like bad colds, is just something there doesn't seem to be an answer to. And that farmer and the phone company ought to remember that it happens in lots of places, for example, in the headquarters of the Democratic National Committee in the Watergate building in Washington.

I have been reading about this bugging case and as un-called-for as it was, I still don't understand it. What did those guys expect to learn. Both national conventions had microphones planted all over the place and the networks broadcast the activities to the world, but I still didn't learn very much.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.
