Mules Will Play Last Game Friday

Perryton will be the last foe for the Muleshoe Mules this year when the Mules travel to the top of the panhandle for the Friday afternoon game.

The Rangers have been playing outstanding football this year as have the Mules. Perryton was once picked to win district this year, but the Dumas Demons diminished that hope.

Area Cotton Harvest Increasing Daily

Cotton harvest operations are increasing daily on the South Plains, according to W.K. Palmer, in charge of the U.S.D.A. Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock. This increase is reflected in the increasing number of cotton samples being received at the area U.S.D.A. Cotton Classing Offices.

Due to this increase in harvest activities, the seasonal U.S.D.A. Classing Offices at Brownfield and Levelland will open on Monday, November 13th. The seasonal office in Lamesa is already in operation.

The U.S.D.A. Classing Offices at Lubbock and Lamesa classed samples from 13,000 bales during the week ending Friday, November 10th, bringing the season's total to 14,200. At this date last year 6,100 samples of the 1971 crop had been classed.

Quality of this early cotton varied widely depending on the condition of the fields at the time of harvest.

Low Middling was the predominant grade at Lubbock last week making up 47 per cent of all cotton classed. Strict Low Middling made up 31 per cent, Strict Good Ordinary 7 per cent, and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 7 per cent. Staples were predominantly 31 to 34. Seventeen per cent had a staple length of 31, 26 per cent stapled 32, 18 per cent was 33 and 13 per cent was 34.

Sixty-one per cent of all cotton classed at the Lubbock office last week had micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 to 4.9, 1 per cent "miked" 5.0 - 5.5, 10 per cent 3.3 through 3.4, 20 per cent 3.0 through 3.2, 6 per cent 2.7 through 2.9 and 2 per cent was 2.6 and below.

Trading was slow on the Lubbock market due to the small volume of cotton harvested. Prices were steady.

Prices on the Lubbock market for cotton in the premium micronaire range of 3.5 to 4.9 ranged from the low for low grade, short staple cotton to $27.50 per bale over the low for high grade, long staple cotton. Prices quoted by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange for the most predominant qualities were: Strict Low Middling(41) staple 31-22.30 cents per pound, Strict Low Middling(41) staple 32-23.50, Strict Low Middling(41) staple 33-24.15, Low Middling(51) staple 31-20.50, Low Middling (51) staple 32-21.45 and Low Middling(51) staple 33 21.85.

Prices paid farmers for cottonseed ranged from $42 to $52 per ton and averaged $46.50 per ton.

last week by a score of 12-1.

Muleshoe held on to its season record lead by defeating the Canyon Eagles 32-22, last Friday.

Muleshoe now has a record of seven wins and two losses, the best season record in the district. Perryton has a six win, two loss record, followed by Dumas, 4-5; Canyon, 1-9; and Levelland, 0-9.

In district competition, Muleshoe is second in district, with a 2-1 record. Leading the district is Dumas with a 3-0 record and following close behind are Perryton, also with a 2-1 record; Canyon, 1-3; and Lev-

Meteorite Found By Local Woman

Mrs. Muri Stevenson who lives six miles south on the Morton highway and two miles east, brought a meteorite by the Journal Monday that she had found three years ago, but just recently found out what it was.

Mrs. Stevenson reports that she found the unusual rock three years ago while hoeing cotton. As she picked it up to throw it out of the field, she noticed the unusual nature of the rock and took it home with her.

Just recently she came across an article in the American Farmer Magazine about meteorites. The article stated for people to send their meteorites in to the American Meteorite Laboratory in Denver, Colorado. From a picture with the article, Mrs. Stevenson identified her rock as a meteorite.

She chipped some off of the rock and sent it to the laboratory. She immediately received a reply from Glenn I. Huess, offering her at least $4,500 possibly more after he had examined it.

According to the article the meteorites are used for cancer research.

Mrs. Stevenson reports that she will be sending her meteorite to the Colorado laboratory sometime this week.

DISCOVERS ROCK IS METEORITE . . . Mrs. Muri Stevenson of Muleshoe is pictured with the meteorite she found about three years ago while hoeing cotton. Just recently she discovered that the unusual rock was a meteorite. She is now going to send the meteorite to the American Meteorite Laboratory in Denver to be used in cancer research.

A total of 171 of the 206 organized county Farm Bureaus showed an increase over last year. Harris County won honors as the largest county FB in the state with 2,274 members and also enrolled the most new members, a total of 479.

Woodson attributed this year's exceptional growth to the organizations' "successes" in several areas:

"In state legislation, we were successful in securing appropriations for animal health, research, and other agricultural programs and a relaxation of strict farm trailer brake and

Six Weeks Tests Again

It happens only six times in the school year. You find students doing last minute studying for it. Many times students don't do well on it. What is it? It is Six-Weeks Tests, of course!

Thursday and Friday of this week are the days on which students will enter classes full of knowledge about their subjects and leave these classes confused about the answers to all those questions. But the tests aren't the end of things, six-weeks report cards will soon follow on Wednesday, November 15.

Field Day On Flail - Type Shredders

The St. Lawrence Cotton Insect Control Association and the Texas Agriculture Extension Service will host a field day on flail - type cotton shredders at St. Lawrence in Glasscock County at 9 a.m. on November 15, 1972, according to Roy Childers, area agricultural engineer - cotton mechanization, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Lubbock. The field day will be held at the St. Lawrence Community Center, located 10 miles south of Garden City on FM 33 and then 5 miles west on FM 2874.

The field day has been scheduled as an effort to demonstrate the use of flail - type shredders on destruction of cotton stalks and of over wintering pink bollworm larvae in seed cotton residue left in the field after harvest. The flail - type shredders will be on display and then taken to the field for a performance demonstration. The flail-type stalk shredders have been superior to the conventional rotary - type shredders on destruction of overwintering pink bollworms left in the field after harvest.

Cotton producers have not utilized flail shredders in the past because of initial cost, maintenance, and operation cost, time required to shred an acre of stalks, etc. However, implement companies have made many improvements on operation and performance of flail shredders in the past few years.

"We will have several implement companies on hand to demonstrate their flail - type shredders at the field day. The field day program has been arranged so that interested people may come in the morning or in the afternoon or come and spend the day," the specialist added.

Cotton producers in the area will be interested in attending this field day. The field day will be very informative and of great interest to cotton producers who want to destroy pink bollworms this winter, rather than during the 1973 cotton season.

Sewing Tips For A Plaid-Mad World

COLLEGE STATION--It's a plaid-mad world for fall-adding new dimensions, built-in interest and excitement to the season's fashions.

"However, plaids are special fabrics--they present a challenge to the homemaker but produce results well worth the extra effort." Clothing Specialist Mrs. Becky Culp of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service pointed out.

A plaid is a woven or printed pattern of stripes that cross at right angles, she explained. They may be spaced evenly, unevenly or repeated in sequence. "An even plaid is arranged in the same sequence, both crosswise and lengthwise on the fabric, forming a perfect square. "When the fabric is folded diagonally through the center of any repeat, spaces and colors of the plaid match in both directions.

"On the other hand, the spaces and colors of an uneven plaid fabric don't match in both directions when folded diagonally. Although they may appear even at first glance, the plaids don't form perfect squares.

For best results in working with a plaid fabric, select a simple-designed pattern with a minimum of seams.

Check the pattern envelope to see if the garment is appropriate for plaids.

"If the envelope states 'unsuitable for plaids,' this means that seams can't be matched due to the garment design," Mrs. Culp continued.

"As a rule, if the garment is illustrated in plaid on the envelope, the pattern designer deems it particularly suited for plaids."

When purchasing a plaid, there are several considerations. First, choose a plaid in scale with the size of the person wearing it. The Texas A&M University specialist noted that a small person is overpowered by a large-scale plaid.

"Also consider the size of the plaid and the actual garment," she continued.

"For example, a suit or skirt generally looks better in a smaller plaid than a dress or coat since there is less area to complement the large, plaid design."

Remember to allow extra yardage to match the plaids. Usually the large plaid, the more widely spaced each repeat or the larger the pattern size, the more yardage is required.

With small plaids, she indicated about one-fourth to one-half extra yardage of fabric is adequate to match the plaids, while large ones require one-half to one extra yard.

Again, refer to the back of pattern envelope for information concerning additional yardage.

"When selecting a printed plaid, check that stripes of the plaid follow the grainlines of the fabric.

"If extremely off-grain, the fabric will not prove satisfactory made into a garment," Mrs. Culp said.

If the design is only slightly off-grain, the homemaker should match the plaids rather than the grain because the plaid is the more noticeable.

Don't try to buy a plaid from a small sample or swatch--the illusion created by several repeats of one pattern may be much stronger than the single design.

"Before laying the pattern on the fabric, hold the fabric up to your figure in front of a mirror," the specialist instructed.

"Different effects can be created by the way the dominant stripes are positioned on the body. Avoid accenting figure faults."

Arrange and cut pattern pieces so the plaids will match at joining seamlines, not cutting lines.

"Do this by placing pattern notches of joining pieces on the same area of the plaid pattern. For example, a notch at the top of a repeat should match its corresponding notch at the top of the same repeat."

From the Journal 30 Years Ago

Actual rationing of gasoline will start November 22 and rationing registration in Texas will be November 12, 13 and 14.

Cotton ginnings for Bailey County were 1,520 bales prior to October 18, as compared with 36 bales for the same period last year, according to a report just released.

Duck hunting season opened Monday morning, but few hunters were out in this immediate territory as compared with previous seasons.

The election Tuesday was one that either few Bailey County citizens knew about or were too busy to be bothered over. You would think by reading the returns that the polling places had been quarantined for smallpox or something.

Muleshoe, which rates around 700 ballots, rang up a total of 82, and Bula, the next largest box in the county with more than 200 qualified voters, polled only 12.

In Fashion

Motley jersey is used extensively by famous designers for fall garments. One slinky long dress has a low V neck which is supposed to be filled in with strings of pearls.

Dolman sleeves are seen in dresses and coats.

Sweaters with elbow length sleeves are worn over long sleeves and collars made of satin.

Hats seem to be coming back in style as the weather becomes colder. But knitted caps and scarfs are popular with the younger set.

The pleated skirt dress with the sleeveless sweater continues to be a favorite with college girls.

Calf Prices Above Parity... Stalk Destruction Deadline Nears... SAD Help Is On The Way... Turkey Time Nears.

Calf prices, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes, are above parity by almost $3 per hundredweight. Effective parity for calves is $44.90; average market price in Texas is $47.70. But only calves are above effective parity levels. All other farm prices remain below parity.

The all-products index of prices received by farmers and ranchers is 15 percent above a year ago; the livestock index is 20 percent above last year while the all crops index is four percent above last year.

Cotton showed the biggest decline in price of all other crops. The average cotton price in the state is 21.6 cents per pound. This compared with 26 cents one year ago. Effective parity for cotton is 56.06 cents per pound.

In other crops, wheat showed a gain of 21 cents compared to a month ago with an average price now at $1.96 per bushel. Corn was up five cents at $1.42 per bushel compared to a month ago. Grain sorghum also showed a nickel increase at $2.16 average per hundredweight.

Hog prices were down slightly in Texas compared to a month ago. Average now is $26.80 per hundred pounds compared to $27.70 a month ago. Effective parity for hogs is $31.10 per hundred pounds. Beef cattle averaged $33.40 per hundredweight, still well below the effective parity of $37.40 per hundred pounds.

Egg producers continue to have pricing problems with a 36 cent per dozen average to 38 cents a month ago. Effective parity for eggs is 56.8 cents per dozen.

COTTON stalk destruction deadline is not far off for 44 north central and east counties. Stalk destruction deadline is Nov. 30. Officials urge farmers in those counties to destroy stalks as soon as possible. Recent rains throughout most of the area will keep farmers from getting into fields in the immediate future.

But when a break in the weather does occur and fields are dry enough to work in, farmers can through early stalk destruction reduce carryover of pink bollworms and other cotton insects. In other areas of the state, regrowth of cotton stalks is a problem, and such regrowth should be destroyed.

SAD but true, help is on the way. SAD is St. Augustine Decline and it has been found in lawns throughout the state. It is a virus disease of the grass, and there is no cure for it.

A new variety of St. Augustine Grass-FLORI-TAM-should be available to the public soon, perhaps next year. The Texas Department of Agriculture is in charge of seed certification in Texas and has certified 17 producers who are now growing out 42 acres of the new variety. The grass is also resistant to chinch bugs and brown patch.

FULL impact of the new pesticide legislation signed into law recently won't be felt for a few years yet, but it will affect every Texan. Rules and regulations as they will apply to states will have to be studied and implemented. States will have a great deal of power in controlling the use of pesticides.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Dear editor:

In all the jumble of election news I read last week I remember one item which said that despite the big voter turnout and the long lines at some polling places, still only 55 percent of the eligible voters voted. This, the article said, was a deplorable thing.

I don't know about that. One way of looking at it is that it wasn't even necessary for that many to vote.

I started watching the returns on television and the first rattle out of the box, when less than one per cent of the votes had been counted, the networks were already telling us who had won and by how many percentage points.

If one per cent of the voters can indicate who's going to win, what are the other 99 per cent doing standing in line waiting to vote?

Why, the networks started giving what turned out to be accurate estimates of the winners and losers three hours before the polls closed in some parts of the country with different time zones.

It seems to me the voters in those zones, standing in long lines waiting to cast their ballots, were about fans standing in line outside a stadium trying to buy tickets to a football game that was already over.

Don't get me wrong. I'm not comparing elections to football. You think I'm crazy? I know which one is more important. Ask any candidate who forgot his knowledge of human nature and scheduled a rally on Friday night when the local team was playing at home.

But what puzzles me is this: if the networks are so smart on elections how come they fall so flat on entertainment? Where do they keep those guys when no election is on?

Yours faithfully, J.A.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, TEX. - The State Legislature which convenes January 9 will be vastly different from the present one which has served through the 1971 regular and four special sessions.

There will be 77 new faces in the 150-member House and 15 new members of the 31 member Senate. (Fifteen of the House newcomers have served before the 1971 session, and sixteen House members will be serving in the Senate).

Dolph Briscoe, of course will succeed Preston Smith as governor, and Bill Hobby will preside over the Senate, succeeding Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes. Rep. Price Daniel of Liberty will be Speaker of the House, replacing Rep. Rayford Price of Palestine.

Basically, the House is expected to be a more liberal body than the present one and the new Senate considerably more conservative.

Republicans women and blacks increased their strength in the House; and the GOP added one more senator for a total of three. There will be seven from Dallas, seven from Houston, two from San Antonio and one from Midland. GOP senators were elected in Dallas, Houston and

Fort Worth. The House, which now has a single woman member, will have five (including two blacks) in January. Mrs. Betty Andujar of Fort Worth, wife of a physician, is the new woman senator. She is a Republican.

The Senate's only woman member at present is Miss Barbara Jordan of Houston, a black, liberal Democrat who was elected to Congress November 7.

Black membership of the House will increase from two to eight.

$91.2 MILLION IN AID SOUGHT
Governor Smith went to Washington last week in search of $91.2 million in additional federal social service funding.

Texas has received $34.8 million in federal matching funds for social services to eligible citizens during the fourth quarter of the 1972 fiscal year.

Smith argues people involved received the same services through-out the year, and the state is entitled to compensation for the first three quarters of fiscal 1972, as well as the last quarter.

The funding will be important in determining whether the next legislature will have to pass a substantial tax bill.

TAX LINE CAN BE HELD --

Texas Research League predicts a major tax increase can be avoided next year if lawmakers can keep reasonable controls on spending.

Spending, say TRL, probably can be held within bounds of a $750 million raise over the next two years -- unless federal court rulings require sharp increases in funds for public schools.

An increase in revenue from existing taxes is estimated at $375 million. A $40 million surplus is expected to be available at the end of the fiscal year, and federal revenue sharing may provide the state as much as $315 million during the biennium, according to TRL. That is within $20 million of the new spending projection.

Texas Highway Department is due to ask for a two-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax hike next year, which would add another $70 million to key fund revenues in addition to earmarked road-building purposes.

AG OPINIONS-- Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin declared unconstitutional a Johnson County system of compensating a justice of the peace $4 only when he gets a conviction for a traffic violation.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded: *Commissioners in counties less than 10,000 have authority to submit to an election the question of creating the office of tax assessor-collector and can appoint the official if approved.

*Hiring of a private accountant in firm of an Ector County commissioner by a 17-county Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission (of which Ector is a member) creates no conflict of interest.

*Harris County Hospital District can employ chaplains in its hospitals as an "established part of medical and hospital care."

*Tyler State College may not purchase fire and extended coverage insurance on its buildings, but can pay for auto public liability coverage.

*A four-wheel riding lawn mower used to mow grass on residential lots is not exempt from registration as an "implement of husbandry." Such a machine used to mow grass on highway right-of-ways does not have to be registered as highway motor vehicle, however.

*Where tax suits are dismissed for want of prosecution, without adjudication of costs, taxpayers are entitled to redemption certificates on payment of delinquent taxes, penalty and interest.

*Motor carrier equipment operated entirely within the boundaries of a commercial zone established by the Railroad Commission is not operated under a certified carrier's certificate and need not be reported upon although employed in conjunction with regulated transportation.

*Judges can be paid the difference between their salaries as district judges and the amount allowed a Court of Criminal Appeals Commissioner while serving in that capacity. Appointees as commissioner are also entitled to travel expenses to and from Austin and a $25 per day expense allowance while serving.

COURTS SPEAK-- A state law permitting landlords to seize property for nonpayment of rent was declared unconstitutional by the Fifth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Texas Supreme Court held good will of a medical practice is not part of community property of a married couple.

The High Court held unconstitutional a statute under which a Nueces County woman seeks to recover as separate property damages for injuries sustained in a car-truck wreck. Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for a man convicted of murder who was not allowed to present testimony on the character of the shooting victim.

A Houston school teacher was awarded $1.5 million in a suit against General Motors for a defective steering wheel that caused a wreck.

APPOINTMENTS-- Jack R. Blackmon of Corpus Christi was named by Governor Smith as district judge of the 117th judicial district.

Smith designated Charles E. Simons of Dallas as chairman of the State Highway Commission. He succeeds Dewitt C. Greer, who will remain on the commission. Simons has been serving on the commission for more than a year.

Lazbuddie News of Yesterday

The Lazbuddie School was dismissed Friday shortly after hearing of the death of the President. The school flag was lowered to half staff immediately after the news was heard. The high school students went to the gym where Coach Charlie Walton led a special prayer. There were mixed emotions among the students. Several students cried. A quiet hush seemed noticeable as the students marched to their buses to leave.

Yes, it was years ago when John Gylley, a 14 year old lad, was named the Parnier County 4-H Gold Star winner. John, a freshman student in Lazbuddie High, has been a member of the 4-H the past three years. His projects have included soil and water conservation, Community improvement, electricity and field crops. John has won first in district in two demonstrations, second in one. He has presented demonstrations in all projects except field crops. Achievement awards were presented to Lazbuddie students at the Hub community meeting last week. Winners were: Katie and Dale Blackstone, Shelia Vaughn, Danny Miller, Gary Foster, Bobby Redwine, Steven and Timmie Foster, Sheryl Ramage, Ann Blackstone, Jill Kimms, Kathy Coker, Judy Kozimier, and James Guley. John Guley was honored among Gold Star winners at the 4-H Banquet in Amarillo Nov. 18.

I have been told by several people that they are enjoying Lazbuddie news of the Yesterday Years; Well do you remember this Halloween Carnival of years ago: - The elementary Queen chosen at the carnival Saturday night was Tonie Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Fox. The King was Bruce Bridges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bridges. The Junior High queen chosen was Delayne Steinbock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Steinbock. King was Victor Schumann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Schumann. High school Queen chosen was Jan Mason daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mason. King was Bobby Redwine, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Redwine. The Festivities at the gym followed the program in the auditorium. The highlight of the evening was the price of eggs. Two eggs were sold for 25¢ and were used to throw at Coach Kent. The coaches head was in plain view, sticking out through a large like trap of ducking. Several dozen eggs were thrown and it didn't seem any one missed their throw. The question of the evening was asked the coach by his wife, "Do you want eggs for breakfast, Dear?"

You can't get a good job without experience. We'll give you both.

There are plenty of jobs in the want ads. Unfortunately, almost all the good ones ask for experienced help. But, in today's Army, we'll hire you at $288 a month to start. No experience necessary. We'll give you free meals, free medical and dental care, and 30 days paid vacation a year. And the training and experience in almost any job you want. A job you can make a career of. In the Army, or out of it. To get complete details talk it over with your local Army Representative. Today's Army wants to join you.
