STAPLES and GROCERIES

Remember we are not to be undersold on staples or anything in dry goods or groceries. Our stock is complete, and you'll make money by getting our prices.

WE are selling more and more Wells Shoes every week, but we don't think a sale pays us unless you think it pays you. That's why we are so particular about quality and fit and that is why we are advertising, recommending, showing and selling Wells Shoes.

This is the time of the year that makes things hum in our store. We are sure of this because our styles, quality and prices are correct. Seeing is believing—look around, then come to us—you'll certainly believe your own eyes.

SHIVERS & LEATHERS.

BROWNWOOD GOOD ROADS.

An Additional Bond Issue Is to be Voted.

Brownwood, Texas, Oct. 19.—Road district No. 1 of Brown County, which was the first in the state to take advantage of the new road law and vote road improvement bonds to the amount of $100,000, will have another election on November 14 to vote on the issuance of $50,000 additional bonds, with which to carry the roads out to the district lines. This move is primarily a farmers' move and they are nearly all getting to be good road enthusiasts.

The town of Brownwood, which pays about 80 per cent of the taxes, voted almost solidly for the previous bond issue and it is believed the bond issue will carry as strongly as it did before, when it carried six to one.

Worth of Newspapers.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Judge Scanlon, in sentencing Thomas Jackson, colored, yesterday, to a term of imprisonment of from one year to life, emphasized the worth of newspapers to a community.

"If our newspapers would publish such sentences, crime would diminish rapidly," said Judge Scanlon. "If robbers learned through the newspapers that they were going to get life imprisonment when they came over here, neither the robbers nor their pals would be long in recognizing the best thing to do."

A jury found Jackson guilty of thrusting a revolver in the faces of several waitresses in a restaurant and robbing the cash register of $20.

DAVID BENNETT HILL IS DEAD.

Long Life and Stirring Career of Noted Democrat Saw Sudden Close.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 20.—David Bennett Hill, former United States senator and former governor of New York, died at his home in this city at 3:45 o'clock this morning.

He was born at Havana, N. Y., on August 29, 1848, being the son of Caleb and Eunice H. Hill. He removed to Elmira in 1862 and was admitted to the bar in 1864.

In 1871-72, he was a member of the New York assembly and presided over the state convention of his party in 1877 and 1881. In 1880-81 he was an alderman and in 1882 was mayor of Elmira.

From 1882 to 1885 he was lieutenant governor of New York and became governor from 1885 to 1891 and from the latter year to 1897 he was a member of the United States senate.

In 1892 he was a prominent candidate for the democratic nomination for president of the United States.

As a lawyer he took high rank at the bar, while as a politician few were his superiors in astuteness, he being during his career the central figure in many stirring battles.

He never married and the remaining years of his life were spent rather in retirement at his home in Albany, to which city he removed from Elmira several years ago.

Of late years his health had not been of the best, but his death came as a surprise, as it was not generally known that his condition was in anywise alarming.

Mr. Hill died suddenly at Wolferts Roost, his country home. About two weeks ago he was seized with a bilious attack while at his law office in this city and although his condition was not considered serious at that time his physician advised him to remain at home until he recovered.

A cold developed and a few days later alarming reports of his condition were circulated. The patient appeared to be improving until last night, when he suffered a sinking spell which resulted in his death.

Your cough annoys you. Keep on hacking and tearing the delicate membranes of your throat if you want to be annoyed. But if you want relief, want to be cured, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by Murchison-Beasley Drug Co.

For More Than Three Decades

Foley's Honey and Tar has been a household favorite for coughs, colds, and ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. Contains no opiates. Will McLean.

Up Against It.

Once the central figure in gay night revels and saturnalias about the heart of the city, where money was plentiful and time hung leisurely on the hands of her admirers, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of Harry Kendall Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, by all accounts, is up against it. The prevailing suspicion that she received a large sum of money from the family of her husband in consideration of her sensational testimony at his trial appears to have had little basis in fact.

There is no doubt that she was promised a fortune, but being of a trusting nature and lacking in business shrewdness, she neglected to drive a good bargain when she could have done so, accepting the assurance of the Thaws that they would provide her with a substantial annuity. But for her testimony nothing in the world could have saved Thaw from going to the electric chair. Realizing this, the shabby treatment accorded her by the Thaw family has since made her feel that she lost a golden opportunity to make herself comfortable for life when she failed to make them guarantee her a fixed sum.

Her discontinuance the other day of her suit for damages against the Knickerbocker Hotel for ejecting her and E. H. Thomas, a banker, from its dining room in 1908, revealed the fact that she is practically without funds of any kind. Depending upon the gratuities of the Thaws, which come along at irregular intervals, she is now forced to live largely on credit, the tradesmen taking their chances of being reimbursed some day.—New York Letter.

What Illinois Census Will Show.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The census of the state of Illinois, announcement of which is expected in two or three weeks, will show a decrease in the rural population, according to predictions of census officials who likewise anticipate a falling off in the rural population of Indiana and Ohio, and possibly other Middle Western states, from which the returns will come in their alphabetical order. The Michigan census, which was given out in advance of the other states on account of election laws which would be affected, showed a marked falling off in many of the counties. More recently the decreased showing in Missouri excited much comment.

Reasons given for the decrease in the rural sections of Illinois, the showing of which is in prospect, are:

Improvements in farm machinery.

Wealth of the farmers, who, with their large holdings, don't care to divide them into small farms, and who are sending their boys to the West to take up new land in the less settled regions.

Kansas Notes.

A man who really knows himself, in the judgment of the Jewell Republican, won't strut much.

A plumber in Ottawa advertises: "You can get gas pipe in any quantity through me at any time."

W. Y. Morgan insists that the hobble skirt doesn't look any worse than the Mother Hubbard.

Speaker Cannon declares he will stand on his record, and Victor Murdock states that Mr. Cannon won't be crowded.

A. V. Napier explains that a man eats because he is hungry, and a woman eats to keep the stuff from spoiling.

A Kansas paper observes that aviation offers exceptional inducements to those who want to get rich quick or die in the attempt.

Clarence Lodge points with pride to Republic County, where the members of a charivari party were haled into court and fined.

In defense of those who accepted money to vote for Lorimer, the Leavenworth Times says you could hardly expect anyone to vote for Lorimer for nothing.

A Salina woman read the headlines in the Salina Journal, "Landslide in Panama," and asked, "I wonder who the insurgents have nominated in Panama?"

Ottawa undertakers have adopted resolutions denouncing the custom of burial at sea. They protest that it is "barbarous." It is also inexpensive.

One of the town loafers in Smith Center says: "I am trying to live my life so that in case the world ever catches on fire folks won't lay it onto me."

A Smith Center man recently paid out several hundred dollars for a wife and then didn't get the wife. "But even at that he got off cheap," adds the Holton Signal.

A small child in Atchison is quoted as saying: "Mamma, isn't it funny how the days go by, one after the other, just like a train of cars, with Sunday for the engine?"

The family of A. J. Hayes, living near Federick, consisting of the father, mother, four sons and one daughter, have a combined weight of 1,526 pounds, an average of 218.

As proof that President Taft is regaining some of his popularity a Hutchinson paper remarks that the New York Republicans indorsed him, and a 5-cent cigar was named for him, both within a week.

"If some men received mail in proportion to their knowledge of other people's business," says the Osborne Farmer's Village Deacon, "they would require four private secretaries to keep up their correspondence."

Social mention from the Howard Courant: "At one of the recent parties a large 170-pound girl went with a boy who weighs 108. Someone referred to him as 'her incubator baby, and she got so mad she forgot what was trumps.'"

Frank Rockefeller, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Sixth District, says he once asked his cousin, John D., why he is a Republican. "I find it pays better to be a Republican," was the brief and characteristic reply.

The Manhattan Mercury notices that an editor isn't the only person who refers to himself as "we." A Manhattan business man who has to lock up his shop when he goes to dinner is always talking about "we" and "us" in all of his advertising.

A 12-year-old girl in Alton tried to elope with a boy of 16, but the sheriff caught her when she reached Smith Center and took her home. "Some girls begin to chase the boys these days as soon as they can climb out of their high chairs," comments W. C. Palmer.—Kansas City Star.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Crockett Citizens Show The Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Crockett citizen says: J. R. Bennet, of Crockett, Tex., says: "At times my kidneys did not do their work properly and my back ached so badly that I could scarcely straighten. When suffering in this way I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, and procured a box at I. W. Sweet's Drug Store. I had taken about one-half the contents when my trouble stopped and two months have since passed without any sign of its return."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Synopsis of Game Law.

Although the game law does not really open up until November 1, yet the issuance of licenses has already begun, the law providing that they run from September 1 to September 1.

Last year the question who, under the law, had the right to issue hunting licenses was settled for all time by a ruling of the attorney general that the county clerk issues all licenses to hunters within each county, and that the deputy game wardens issue them to out-of-state hunters who come to Texas to try their luck.

Under the law, a resident of a county needs no licenses to hunt in his own county and adjoining counties. It is only when he goes outside these boundaries and goes to another part of the state that he needs a license, and this license is to be issued by the county clerk of which the would-be hunter is a resident.

Because of the many inquiries, a synopsis of the game law has been compiled and is herewith printed:

You may kill 25 quails or doves in any one day only from Nov. 1 to Feb. 1 of each year.

You may kill 3 buck deer only from Nov. 1 to Jan. 1 of each year.

You may kill 3 wild turkeys only from Dec. 1 to April 1 of each year.

You may kill in all seasons of year duck, geese, robins, wild pigeons, snipes, jack snipes, curlews, Mexican pheasants or chachalaca; bag limit, 25 in any one day.

You may kill rabbits, squirrel, fox, o'possums, coons, bear, in any seasons of the year.

You may ship or transport to your home such game as you have lawfully killed by making proper affidavit.

You must not buy or sell any of the wild game or game birds or kill, catch or destroy the eggs or have in possession, living or dead, any wild song bird, except hawks, crows, buzzards, owls, English sparrows, rice birds and black-birds.

You must not hunt for any game birds at night with a lantern, hunting torch or any other light.

Any person may hunt for any game or kill any game during the open season, when it is lawful to kill game in the county of his residence, or the counties adjoining the county of his residence, or on land owned or controlled by him, without procuring a license; but they must not be beyond the boundaries of their adjoining counties without a hunting license; said hunting license must be carried on the person when hunting.

You must not use or attempt to use the license of another person; or in any manner make any change in any license for purpose of transferring the same, under the penalty of prosecution for forgery.—Cherokee County Banner.

No More Franks.

Washington, Oct. 20.—That convenient thing, the government frank, by means of which members of congress and other government officials have been known to send everything from a cow to a pineapple through the mails, postage free, is going to be put out of business forever, if Mr. Frank H. Hitchcock, the postmaster general, has his way. He took the first step today toward substituting for it a special official stamp and stamped envelopes.

Under the authority given him in the postal savings bank act, he approved a special stamped envelope to be used instead of franks in the free transmission of the official mail resulting from the business of the new postal saving system. He intends to advocate the substitution of this method in the case of all mail matter, and hopes that congress will enact his idea in this regard into the law of the land.

SAN ANTONIO'S NEXT MAYOR.

Cry Has Gone Forth for D. J. Woodward for the Office.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 20.—D. J. Woodward, the next mayor of San Antonio. It will be thus if the will of the people who favor a commission form of government is obeyed and they pay their poll taxes so that they can vote at the next city election. Woodward himself has not as yet been consulted in the matter, but right now he is regarded as the most available man for the office. That he has no aspirations for the office Woodward has made known on more than one occasion, but he has taken such a deep interest in the movement for a commission form of government, and is such a patriot for the welfare of the city, that with the commission form of government the people would hardly listen to any one else for the office of mayor of San Antonio. As an illustration of the general desire to have Woodward for the next mayor of San Antonio an incident that came up at the mass meeting held Tuesday night in the interest of the commission government movement may be cited. When Woodward got up to make a speech he had hardly risen from his chair when someone in the vast audience shouted, “Our next mayor!” The audience took up the cry instantaneously and responded with an enthusiastic shout. Woodward founded the battle cry when he said: “Get off the soft pedal, pay your poll tax and bury the purchaseable vote.”

Not since the days that Marshall Hicks defeated Bryan Callaghan for mayor has there been such enthusiasm manifested in a mayoralty campaign as now.

TO ONE ABSENT.

Does your thoughts turn back, just a wee little bit,
To the shelter under the hill,
Where there is no one about since the lights went out
To listen to the “whip-poor-will”
Do you see in your mind, just a wee little bit,
The house in the whispering pines,
Where long shadows lay and life was a play,
With the fish on the slender lines?
Have you heard in your dreams, just a wee little bit,
The drowsy hum of the bees;
The mocking bird's song the whole day long,
And the red, on the sweetgum tress?
Have you thought of the time, just a wee little bit,
Of the strolls in the quiet road,
Where the gray moss clings near the grape vine swing?
Oh, would you forget if you could?
Does your heart turn back, just a wee little bit,
To a face and a form like mine,
When the sun sinks low in its crimson glow
Behind the neighboring pine?
Mrs. C. R. Steppenson.

A Very Singular Case.

Austin, Texas, October 19.—According to its own statement the court of criminal appeals has been called upon to consider few cases of more singular character than that of Ed Chanler, who, February 16, 1910, was convicted of murder in the first degree in the district court of Trinity county in connection with the killing of Will Goynes. Chanler did not himself kill Goynes, it is stated, but had Ernest Sweeney to do this. The court characterizes Sweeney as “undoubtedly an active and principal participant in the killing of Goynes.” Goynes was in jail at Groveton, and Chanler desired to get him out and kill him, in order that said Goynes might not be able to testify against him (Chanler) in a case then pending.

Sweeney became the State's witness upon conditional promise that he would be exempt from prosecution. He told how Chanler came to him with a plan to get Goynes out of jail. This was September 7, 1908. Chanler and Sweeney, accompanied by two others, first went to the sheriff's office and secured the keys of the jail, whose door they opened and whose inside door they broke down with an ax, thus permitting Goynes to walk out. When he left the jail Goynes carried a small grip.

After the group had walked some distance, according to the testimony, Sweeney asked Chanler what he proposed to do with Goynes. “I'll get rid of him,” Chanler is said to have replied. “When I raise my hat you kill him,” he is said to have added presently. Sweeney is alleged to have acted on instructions, and after Goynes was dead his body was covered with trash and stumps and burned.

Concluding its opinion, the court said:

“We have discussed every question raised in the record. The case is a very singular one, and it is possible, of course, that appellant may not be guilty. The State's case, however, was developed and marshaled with great skill and directness, and there is, as we believe, testimony in the record which, if believed by the jury, might well justify them in finding appellant guilty of this most horrible crime, and in view of the fact their verdict has received the approval of the learned trial court, we do not feel that on appeal we ought to interfere with or set aside its action.”

Dan J. Kennedy

District Court.

Land suits have consumed the time of the district court this and last week. A verdict for the plaintiff was reached in the suit of Kennedy (col.) vs. Louisiana & Texas Lumber Co. and a motion for a new trial was filed by the defendants.

In the suit of the Louisiana & Texas Lumber Co. vs. Lovell et al. the verdict was for the plaintiff.

The suit of the Louisiana & Texas Lumber Co. vs. Hodge (col.) was taken under advisement by the court.

The suit of Martin et al. vs. Bennett et al., a land case, was on trial the first of this week.

The criminal docket shows the following cases set for trial:

Ed and Irwin Thompson, murder; set for Nov. 2 and special venire of 100 men ordered.

Hager McClain, robbery with fire arms; set for Nov. 7 and special venire of 50 men ordered.

J. W. Ashley, murder; set for Nov. 3 and special venire of 40 men ordered.

Milton Evans, rape; set for Nov. 8 and special venire of 50 men ordered.

Will Tucker, rape; set for Nov. 8 and special venire of 50 men ordered.

Cordia Willis, murder; set for Nov. 9.

Green Burton, murder; set for Nov. 10 and special venire of 40 men ordered.

John Pugh, murder; set for Nov. 3 and special venire of 60 men ordered.

Isan Garner, Bill Henry, Andrew Kirkwood, B. J. Jenkins, Henry Shipper, J. M. Spurger, et al., murder; set for Nov. 14 and special venire of 150 men ordered.

Jim Spurger, assault to commit murder; set for Nov. 14.

Supplying All Industries.

Considering that this country has undergone an unusual drouth, the industries of Crockett are fortunate in that they are finding a bountiful supply of water at a time when nearly all the mills and gins over the county are suffering. The industries of Crockett are being supplied from the city water works and the supply is without limit. The oil mill, both square bale gins, the round bale gin and the light and ice company are all getting their water from the city. This is a big advantage for Crockett, for otherwise many of these industries would be shut down. The fact that the Crockett gins are in operation at a time when many of the gins over the county are shut down for lack of water is a means of bringing much cotton to Crockett to be ginned that has been going to other places heretofore. When it is ginned here it is also marketed here, and thus the volume of business is increased and the general welfare of the town augmented. Crockett's water system should be an aid toward securing further industries.

The Courier has heard considerable complaint of reckless and indiscriminate shooting of target rifles in the city limits. It is said that horses and cattle have been shot and that people have narrowly escaped the bullets. In certain sections it is said that ladies are afraid to venture out on account of the practice. Only a few years ago a young lady was seriously wounded in an eye by a stray bullet from a target rifle. If the practice is not stopped the city council may be called on to pass an ordinance prohibiting the evil. Such an ordinance would also likely include the firing of other firearms within the city limits, as such has got to be a common and annoying occurrence.

School Club.

The Senior Class of the Crockett High School had a most enthusiastic meeting last Friday afternoon. Officers for the first term were elected as follows: President, Mr. John A. Bricker; vice president, Miss Pauline Durst; Secretary, Miss Kathleen Hall; Treasurer, Miss Bella Lipscomb; Reporter, Miss Hazel Berry; Critic, Miss Beasley Denny, and Sergeant at Arms, Miss Lena Jensen.

The colors decided upon were white and gold and the flower—daisy.

This is the largest senior class enrolled in quite a number of years and the reputation of "C. H. S." is safe in its keeping.

Reporter.

Capt. Bogardus again hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well known kidney medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self."

Will McLean.

A Generous and Charitable Wish.

"I wish that all might know of the benefit I received from your Foley's Kidney Remedy," says I. N. Regan, Farmer, Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much pain, misery and annoyance, he could not work, nor sleep. He says Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured him. Will McLean.

COTTON CENSUS BUREAU REPORT.

Ginnings for 1910 to Oct. 18 Stop Right Around Figures, for Preceding Year.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The census bureau's report on cotton issued today shows 5,410,960 bales, counting round as half bales, ginned to October 18 from the growth of 1910, compared with 5,530,967 for 1909, 6,294,166 for 1908 and 4,420,258 for 1907 to the corresponding date.

Round bales included this year, 65,105 compared with 88,716 for 1909, 118,720 for 1908, and 97,957 for 1907.

Sea Island cotton ginned this year 25,324 bales compared with 36,482 for 1909, 32,013 for 1908 and 18,775 for 1907.

Your Money Will Buy More If Purchases Are Made Here

YOU are going to buy winter goods from some one this fall. Now, how would you like for every dollar you spend to buy all that can possibly be gotten for a dollar? Wouldn't it help you economize and to buy many things that you need if every dollar went just a little further than it ever did before? This store can help you. With its spot cash and quantity buying system it is able to sell dependable merchandise for less than other stores. Visit us when you are in town. If you cannot come write for samples and prices.

STOP AND SEE

IT is said that a man named Cartwright once made a wager that he could stand all day on London bridge offering gold sovereigns for shillings and no one would take him up. Cartwright won his bet. The crowd thronged all day, looked, listened and passed on because they did not realize just what was being offered—did not stop to see. The world is full of Cartwrights today—and full of those who do not stop to see. We are not offering gold sovereigns for shillings, nor do we wish you to believe that we are going to give you something for nothing, but our buying position is such that we are able to assure all of our patrons of our ability to meet any and all competition, quality considered. We are here on the ground at your command to render the best possible service. We aim to carry the lines which will enable us to fill all your wants; to carry the goods which will best suit your needs, give the best satisfaction and make you a permanent customer.

Now is the time to prepare. The cool weather of a few days past should be a warning to you who have not made necessary preparation for still colder weather, and right now is your best opportunity. Prices on all lines of merchandise have never been as low as now as compared to the price of cotton. So make your purchases now and let us sell you these goods. No merchant will offer you same or better goods for less money.

Head off those catalogue houses with a good advertisement in your home papers. That is the only way to fight them. Do your part and the newspapers and the people will see that you play the winning hand.—Coleman Democrat-Voice.

The prosperity of Texas farmers in the districts where good roads have been built, has increased by leaps and bounds and the interest which the farmers are taking in the subject and manner in which they are co-operating with the commercial organizations in securing better highways, augurs well for the future prosperity of the agricultural interests.—Conroe Courier.

The Meridian Tribune was one of the few weekly papers in Texas that accepted the enticing advertising proposition sent out recently by Montgomery Ward & Co. However, we don't blame Bro. Dunlap, as a careful examination of his paper fails to reveal the advertisement of a single local merchant, and he evidently considers it the duty of an enterprising paper to inform its readers of some place in the United States where it is possible to supply their needs.—Dublin Telephone.

We started to criticize the Barstow Journal in the matter of having a large advertisement for Montgomery, Ward & Company on the front page of the Journal, but we turned on through the paper and found less than thirty inches of display advertising of the home merchants and business men in the paper, and we could not muster courage or gall enough to say a word of criticism for the editor of that paper running Montgomery ads or any other kind in order to get enough to keep the wolf away from the door.—Lubbock Avalanche.

An old Indian woman was deserted by her husband because she was poor; then she struck oil and now has an income of $10,000 a year. Then she got a divorce, but he cross-billed her and was allowed $50 a month alimony. Now she swears she will not give him a cent, and has gone into a legal fight, with the best lawyers money can get in Oklahoma.—McKinney Courier Gazette.

The life of many an innocent girl has been wrecked on account of the foul mouth of some street loafing liar and his pals have joined in the talk until her name became a bye word in the mouth of fools—all without the least foundation. The young man who has nothing better to do than to loaf the streets, smoke cigarettes, and defame the name of women, is too bad a character to be allowed to run loose.—Houston County Herald.

Have you ever stopped to think that the development of Texas has only just begun? Have you ever stopped to compare conditions in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa or other States of the Central West whose soil is no better, whose climate conditions are not as good? Have you ever figured out what the possibilities of Texas are if she keeps right on growing as she is bound to do? Honestly, when you sit down and put your mind on the problem it grows and grows until you are almost unable to comprehend the possibilities that are ahead of this State. Texans themselves do not realize what a change is going to take place in the next decade even.—Denison Herald.

The man who makes a bill and pays it reluctantly and grumbles about it is either a very unthoughtful man or else is a bad man at heart. If you buy anything on credit you have been extended a courtesy, and no man of good manners will mistreat a gentleman who has shown him a courtesy. Good manners, common sense, in fact ordinary decency, demand that you pay your debts as pleasantly and as respectfully as you made the bills. If you have it in for anybody, don't take it out on the poor bill collector.—Abilene Reporter.

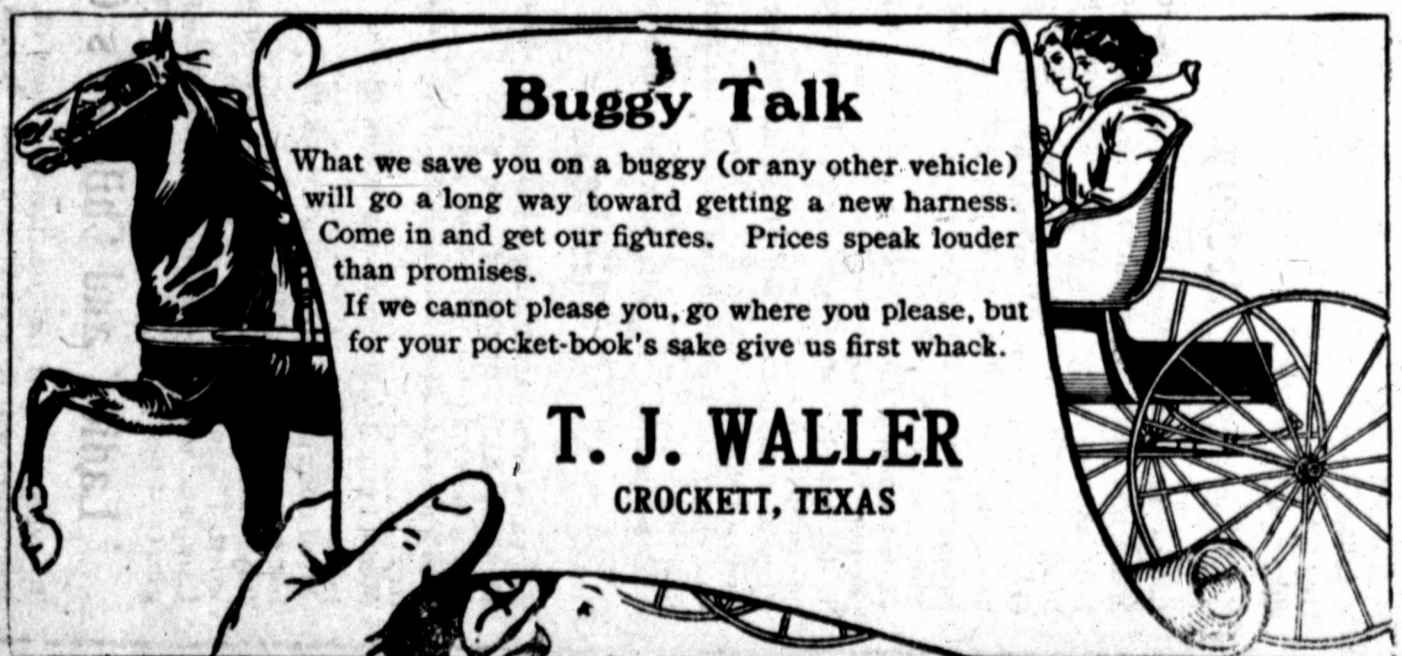

The Brownwood precinct in Brown county recently voted bonds to the amount of $100,000 for road improvement, and about 75 miles of roads have so far been built at an expense of about $80,000. The county commissioners have caused to be published a financial statement showing just how this money was expended, and this statement shows that more than $58,000 of the $80,000 so far expended has been paid for labor and teams on the work. This means that $58,000 of the money was turned loose into local channels of trade, and the tax payers got it back at a time when most needed.—Brady Standard.

Some one has said that the discoverer of a country is not he who first describes it, but he who first learns what it is chiefly good for. If that is so, the fairs which Tyler and Nacogdoches have been holding ought to be called fetes to commemorate the discovery of East Texas. East Texas has been settled a long time; down around Nacogdoches there have been settlements from the time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. And yet it hasn't been over eight or ten years since both the Tyler and the Nacogdoches country were discovered, in the sense of learning what they were chiefly good for. They have their ancient and their modern history, which begins with about the opening of this century. It was a revolution that marked the division, a revolution in the manner of using the soil and climate. When the people living around Tyler and Nacogdoches began to diversify, then they began a new epoch, and then they began to write modern history. Imagine what East Texas would be today if its people were still suffering under the delusion that cotton-growing was the only agricultural effort worth while.—Dallas News.

A TALK TO THE LIVES ONES

If you are one of those people who are alive to their own interests, if you believe that these are times when every one should save a part of his income, we are in a position to interest you and you should attend this

GREAT ANNUAL FALL SALE

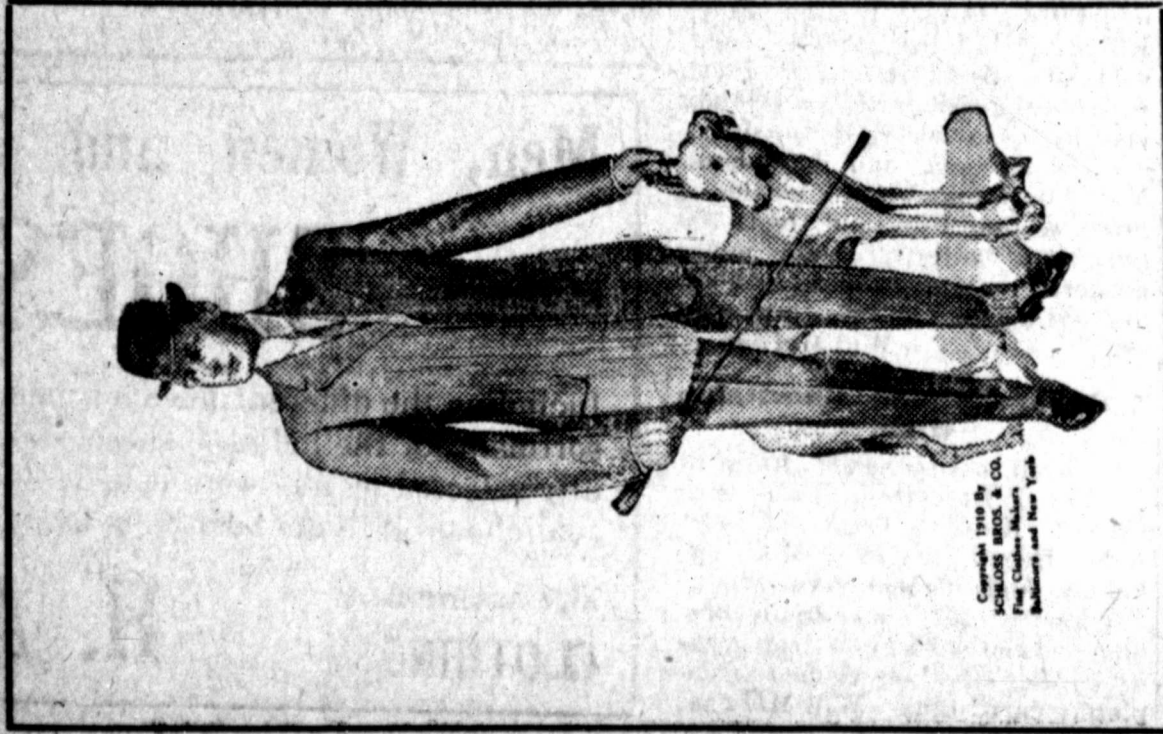

Which has become an established feature of our business, eagerly anticipated by our many friends and patrons.

Beginning Oct. 8th and Continuing Until Nov. 12th

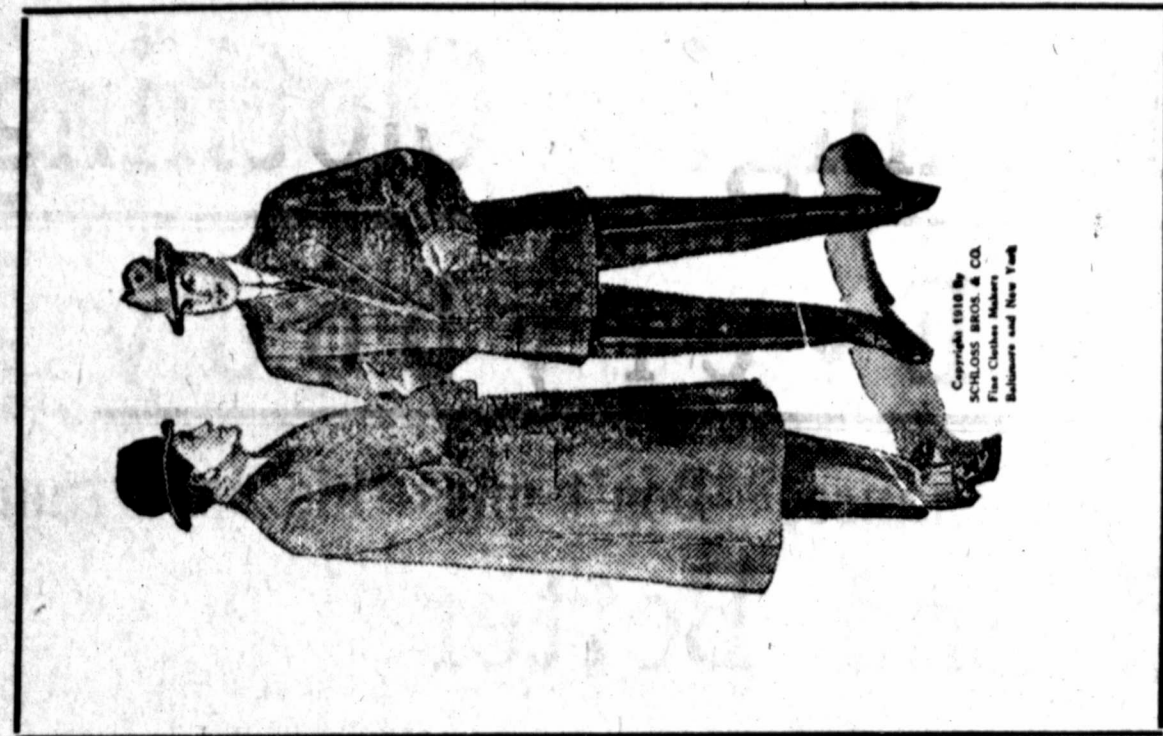

Our buyer has returned from the principal markets of the East, where for thirty days he was engaged in selecting our fall and winter stocks. Our purchases were larger than usual and were selected with extraordinary care from the best and most exclusive lines shown by the big Eastern wholesalers. They are better than ever before, because the offerings were better and larger, and our mammoth purchases represent all that is latest and best in the new things for the coming season. Every item is strictly right in quality, correct in style, perfect in workmanship and bought at a figure that enables us to show you a clean cut saving on every purchase you make.

The items and prices quoted on this page will give you an idea of the many money-saving opportunities offered in this great sale. We invite you to inspect our goods and compare our goods and prices with those offered you elsewhere and then you can fully appreciate the magnitude of these offerings.
