RACE DISTURBANCE AT GRAPELAND.

Citizens Resent Insult to White Woman and Fight Follows—Two Negroes Wounded.

News reached Crockett Sunday morning of a race disturbance at Grapeland late Saturday afternoon, between 5 and 6 o'clock. The information at hand is that a negro woman pushed a white woman off the sidewalk. A white citizen struck the negro woman and knocked her from the sidewalk. A negro man took a hand and ran onto the white man, when another white man came to the rescue. This brought a second negro man into the fight. During the fight several shots were fired and both negroes wounded. Murdock Murchison was the citizen resenting the insult to the white woman and George Calhoun was the friend coming to his rescue, so our information goes. The first negro in the fight was the Rev. Gibson and the second was a negro named Jack Wells. Rev. Gibson was the most seriously wounded of the two. The Courier has no information as to who fired the shots. The matter is being investigated by the Grapeland justice of the peace, who has the assistance of the county attorney.

Confederate Day at Lovelady.

The Confederate veterans of Houston county held their annual reunion at Lovelady on Wednesday last. A large crowd went from Crockett. The attending veterans were met by the citizens of Lovelady at the depot and, led by the Lovelady band, were conducted to the school house where they were welcomed by an eloquent speech from Prof. Hartt.

Commander Martin ordered roll call and nearly fifty old vets responded to their names.

Dinner for all in the grove was announced and everybody pronounced it unsurpassed in quality and abundance.

After dinner the veterans assembled in the school house and Commander Martin requested Adjutant Rencher to read minutes of last meeting, which were approved, and the camp proceeded to elect officers for the next year. Judge E. Winfree, commander; N. B. Barbee, 1st lieutenant; A. M. Rencher, adjutant; —Thompson, 2nd lieutenant, were elected by acclamation and commander instructed to appoint the remaining officers.

A memorial committee composed of Dr. Beasley, N. S. Herod and Skidmore was appointed, which reported the following deaths since last report: Col. D. A. Nunn, C. J. Hassel, Ad Hester, F. A. Beckham and others.

After receiving report of memorial committee, the veterans transferred the exercises to the Daughters of Crockett, Mrs. Norris commanding and Mrs. John LeGory secretary. Chaplain Herod was requested to lead in prayer and Prof. Hartt delivered a neat address in behalf of the Daughters, which was responded to by Comrade Barbee. He thanked the citizens of Lovelady for the enthusiastic reception given the veterans and told the Daughters how proud the old vets were of them, and thanked the Lovelady band for the inspiring music with which they had entertained everybody.

Mrs. I. W. Sweet read an essay by Mrs. Nunn on Houston county and the part the county took in the Civil war and since in maintaining Christian civilization. Miss Grace Denson pleased every one by her rendition of negro dialect. Miss Nell Beasley gave a piano solo that was greatly appreciated, and Miss Otice McConnell eloquently rendered "The Blue and the Gray."

The quartette, Mrs. John LeGory, Mrs. Jas. Shivers, Mrs. Ralph Lundy and Mrs. Fisher Arledge, sang several selections that greatly pleased all, and the veterans were again invited to a lunch and coffee before leaving.

THEY GOTTA QUIT CHUNKIN'.

They gotta quit chunkin' that mule around. It belongs to a widow outside of town; Its tail is short and its ears are long. And when it brays it's a kind of a song Of bitter dregs from an empty cup That happened to it since chops went up.

They gotta quit chunkin' that mule around. Its got a habit of a sorry frown, Its voice sounds like a sorry wail While it brushes the flies with its limited tail.

Its coat is as gray as the "rebs" of old, When feed's in sight it's twice as bold As the clank of battle of armed men— When you drive it away it's back again.

They gotta quit chunkin' that mule around. Kodaks are busy on pictures bound Of the little donkey all in and down That lives in the road outside of town. —Mrs. C. R. Stephenson.

Morning Chocolate.

Thursday morning from 10 to 12, Mrs. James W. Young entertained most charmingly with a morning chocolate in honor of Mrs. W. G. Cartwright of Crockett, Misses Queen of Kerens, Young of Bastrop, Matthews of Athens and Cunyus of Houston. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Johnson Arledge and then announced by the butler. With the hostess and honorees, were the young ladies and graduates returned from college and other friends. The decorations were beautiful in detail and embodied the good taste of the hostess. The color scheme in the reception hall was red, with palms and ferns giving an added touch. In the drawing room, where the receiving line stood, lovely pink and white carnations were banked. Misses Hail and Eichelberger presided in the library over the iced chocolate, with the massive cut glass bowl surrounded by beds of nasturtiums Mrs. Robert H. Wootters conducted the guests into the dining room where Mesdames Satterwhite, Stokes and Woodson served an iced course which was in pink and white, that color being more fully carried out in this as shown in the roses placed in handsome cut glass receptacles. The dining room, lovely in itself, admitted of the tasteful floral decorations, and on the handsome mission table was an exquisite cover of cluny on which rested crystal vases of, and bowls filled with, pink roses and bonbon dishes of pink and white mints.

Mrs. Young was gowned in pink marquisette, real lace and diamonds. Mrs. Cartwright in shadow lace over pink messaline and diamonds. Miss Matthews wore pink messaline with garniture of pink rose buds. Miss Cunyus in embroidered black messaline, real lace and pearls. The sweet notes of the music furnished made the guests linger loath to leave. T. D.

From Mr. Tenney.

Cornelia, Ga., June 6, 1912.

Editor Courier: My wife and I are now starting towards home. In the three weeks we have been absent we seem to have seen a large slice of the interesting portion of the world. Lately we have been in South Carolina. I was surprised to see such a high state of prosperity on the farms and in the cities of this old, and many might think, worn out state. Cotton seed meal, and other fertilizers, have done wonders for these old lands, and I was astonished to learn that South Carolina leads the world in the yield per acre of cotton, corn and oats. Its pine timber lands have also contributed to increase the wealth of this state. If you could see the rapidly growing and extensive city of Columbia, with its beautiful, shaded streets and magnificent residences, you would be surprised to know that when I saw it in 1866, it was sadly scarred with lonely chimneys and the charred ruins of Sherman's raid. In fact our whole South no longer shows the blighting effects of the Civil war, but is a continuous scene of prosperity.

The old town of Camden was famous in its Revolutionary war history. One of the battles was fought in the outskirts of the city. I saw the old war trenches, yet plainly manifest after more than one hundred and thirty years, since they were used. The Baron DeKalb, who fell in the battle of Camden, lies buried under an imposing monument which stands in front of the Presbyterian church. This quaint old church building of brick is nearly one hundred years old. It seemed queer to me to see the people on Sunday going in at the back door of this old church, and then after services opening the front door for their exit. I have not time to tell you of many other interesting things that we have seen. S. F. Tenney.

Late Cultivation of the Corn Crop.

Don't plan to lay by your corn too soon; corn needs late and constant cultivation. Never let the middles bake or crust.

Don't cultivate your corn with any implement that will cut the feeding roots of your corn; they are needed to help grow the ears of corn by carrying food to the plant.

Cultivate the corn late and often with sweeps set to run flat and shallow, or cultivate with a spring tooth harrow, keeping a good soil mulch from 1½ to 2 inches deep. This prevents the escaping of moisture.

Don't wait for it to rain, but keep up the cultivation of the crop by going through the middles often. This will keep the moisture below coming up to help the plant make ears of corn. Corn should not be laid by until a good crop is made.

Don't pull fodder. It has been proven by test that the injury to the corn is greater than the fodder is worth, hence loss of time and less corn.

Plant peas or other crops for forage and have more and better feed. Yours for more feed and forage, H. W. Beeson, Special Agent.

Bailey Criticises the Platform.

Submitting without argument that "no man is expected to say much about what has occurred at his own funeral," Senator Bailey arraigns one plank in the "democratic platform adopted at the Houston convention as follows:

"Under a law made in pursuance of that platform, if a senator or representative should collect a $100 claim for a steel corporation against the hardware merchant of his home town he would be branded as a criminal and driven from the public service in disgrace; and yet Andrew Carnegie, with more than $300,000,000 worth of the Steel Corporation bonds in his pocket, could sit in either house of congress and vote on the metal schedule of a tariff bill.

"That platform would make it a crime for one senator to collect a promissory note for a national bank in his town, and yet another senator, who owned all the national bank stock he could buy, might sit in the senate and vote on a bill to increase the power or extend the privileges of national banks.

"It is impossible for me to understand the reasoning of a man who will trust the men who own these corporations, but is not willing to trust the man who might accept an occasional employment from them."

Tracing with some difficulty the thread of analogy in what the senator has to say, we venture the opinion that Carnegie and men of like financial power will never sit in either the house or the senate. Except in a very few corporation-ridden states, it is a matter of practical impossibility for the masters of American finance to secure seats in the national legislature. However, the placing of legislative power in the hands of such men would be less menacing to the public weal than is the legislator who secretly represents them. When the electorate is fully advised concerning affiliations of an office seeker the voter is left free to choose with full knowledge of what he may reasonably expect of a public servant.

Certainly no man personally interested ought to vote for or against a law involving his interest. No honest man has ever yet done so. It is the rule in judicial matters for a judge to disqualify himself if his personal interests remotely touch the matters under consideration. If lawmakers have a less keen sense of the proprieties, then a law compelling the exercise of common decency ought to be drawn.

We hold that no lawyer in the public service ought to accept a fee, which, if tendered a man not a lawyer, would be nothing less in purpose than a bribe. Laws restraining public servants from accepting improper employment ought never to have been necessary. They challenge the integrity of men elected to conserve the interests of the public. But events have disclosed that the challenge is necessary.—Houston Chronicle.

JURORS ENTITLED TO PAY

Until Finally Discharged—Attorney General's Department Renders Opinion.

Austin, Tex., June 6.—In an opinion to County Judge McCullough of McLennan county, today, First Assistant Attorney General Walthall advised that jurors impaneled for the week and excused on certain days therein, but not discharged, are entitled to compensation from the time they are sworn until finally discharged. This would give them pay for the days on which they are excused, civil jurors $2 and in criminal cases $2.50 per day during service. The statute provides they shall be paid for each day of attendance, and they are required to attend each day until finally discharged. Mr. Walthall's reasons for the holding follow:

Hon. Tom L. McCullough, County Judge, Waco, Tex.: Dear Sir—Your letter of the 31st ultimo received.

You ask me to give you an opinion and construction of article 3232 of the revised civil statutes and article 1158 (1113 old code) of the code of criminal procedure, as amended by chapter 66, acts of the thirty-second legislature, relating to the payment of jurors who have been impaneled for the week and who have been excused for one or more days of the week, but not finally discharged.

Article 3232 of the revised civil statutes reads as follows:

"Each juror in civil cases shall receive two dollars for each day and for each fraction of a day he may serve or attend as such juror."

So much of article 1115 of the code of criminal procedure as is necessary to consider is as follows:

"Each juror who serves in the trial of any criminal case in any court of criminal jurisdiction or who has been sworn as a juror for the term or week shall receive two dollars and a half for each day and for each fraction of a day he may serve or attend as such juror."

Though the compensation provided in the two statutes quoted is different, the rule as to the time for which compensation is allowed is the same. I think a proper construction of both statutes is that the juror who has been impaneled for the week is entitled to pay until finally discharged, notwithstanding he does not serve each day during the week. For instance, if he be impaneled on Monday and excused until Wednesday and again excused until Saturday, he is entitled to compensation for the entire week. It will be observed that the statutes do not require that he serve as a juror but that he shall either serve or attend as a juror.

Trusting that the above sufficiently answers your inquiry, I beg to remain, yours very truly,

James D. Walthall,
Assistant Attorney General.

That Pension Clerk.

Isn't it rather small politics to continue harping about that pension clerk?

Governor Colquitt says he was appointed upon the recommendation of prohibition members of the State senate; that he was never in the saloon business, though his father at one time conducted a saloon; he had been twice elected assistant door-keeper of the senate upon the recommendation of the prohibition leader. When he left the office he was succeeded by the widowed daughter of a pioneer Methodist preacher, and her mother is the president of the Daughters of the Republic.

These facts may not have been known or understood at the outset, but they are known now. They constitute complete defense against the charge of impropriety; they ought to be so recognized by all fair men and the subject ought to be eliminated from political debate.

There are questions of real importance to be discussed, there are issues which mean much to the body politic, and it does seem in all reason that they might receive some attention.

In State politics, as in National politics, candidates and advocates give the greater part of their time to discussing trifles and personalities which bear no relation whatever to problems of statesmanship. The average political "spiel" is an appeal to prejudice and passion; affairs of real moment are slighted or are treated as if voters had no reason. Modern campaigning is a poor compliment to the intelligence of the people. It would be refreshing, if some candidate would rise to the dignity of an appeal to the thoughtful judgment of the voters.—Fort Worth Record.

Do You Like Coffee?

Do you like tea, cocoa, and Coca-Cola? Do you know what it is in these beverages that makes them so refreshing—that helps you so nicely over the rough spots of the day? Scientists tell us that it is the caffeine which they contain.

As a learned Chinese said of it more than two thousand years ago: "It tempers the spirit and harmonizes the mind."

Dispels lassitude and relieves fatigue. Awakes thought and prevents drowsiness.

Enlivens or refreshes the body and clears the perceptive faculties."

In all nations at all times the caffeine containing beverages have been highly valued for their refreshing qualities. What ginger is to the ginger cake, caffeine is to coffee, tea, cocoa, and Coca-Cola. Coffee without caffeine would not be coffee. Tea without caffeine would not be tea. Coca-Cola without caffeine would not be Coca-Cola. You would get no benefit from them. They would be flat, stale and unprofitable.

The old saying of caffeine is "to cheer and not to inebriate." In fact caffeine, according to medical authorities, is the only true or natural stimulant, because it is the only stimulant which does not call for ever increasing quantities and the only one whose regular use does not produce disease of mind or body. Caffeine is the only stimulant that is not only absolutely harmless but positively beneficial to health.

From Mr. Tenney.

Mayesville, S. C., May 31, 1912.

Dear Mr. Aiken:

Your paper greeted us when we arrived here posting us as to the news in Crockett. I think I told you how my wife and I enjoyed the mountain scenery from Bristol to Petersburg and Richmond, and here we passed from Richmond along the peninsula route to Newport News and Norfolk and Portsmouth. The timber cut down by the armies around Petersburg and Richmond, and on the peninsula, has grown up again, and the country so changed that I told my wife I would need a guide to enable me to identify the places I once was, as a soldier, familiar with. I suppose we passed over much historic ground on the peninsula, once familiar to Washington and afterwards to Lee, McClellan, Grant, etc. I remember as Confederate soldier, from the Portsmouth side, looking across the expanse of water in James river and Hampton Roads, to Newport News and Fortress Monroe, then occupied by the Federals. The sail by steamboat from Newport News to Norfolk and Portsmouth was delightful as to pleasant air and beautiful water scenery. At Portsmouth, where fifty years ago I camped as a Georgia soldier, my war-time friends greeted myself and my wife whom they had never seen, as if we had been their brother and sister—their friendship not having worn away in the half century. So as a soldier I found Virginia hospitality and kindness, "Old Virginia never tires." Here we are visiting my wife's numerous relatives. Nearly everyone seems to be kin to her, or at least glad to greet us, even two old negroes who in slavery times belonged to her father. We are both surprised to find such a live and prosperous town here, having beautiful shaded streets, and many fine residences that would compare well with the best houses in Crockett. There is here a large school for colored people, somewhat like our Mary Allen Seminary in Crockett. This school is managed by a colored woman, and I am told is doing a good work in giving an industrial, intellectual and religious training. We are also pleased to see that this is a good farming section, a vast stretch of level, light sandy soil, easily cultivated, and easily fertilized. The farmers have a good oat crop ready to harvest. The cotton seems to be growing well. Soda and cotton seed meal fertilizers are used freely on these crops. The corn often looks to me yellow and sickly, planted in the water furrow and not on the bed, but the farmers tell me that they use the Williamson plan of raising corn, and that when they apply fertilizers in the furrows next to the corn in a short time it will flourish and yield much more than formerly—sometimes fifty bushels to the acre. Again I am astonished to hear farmers tell me they value their land (formerly pine timber land, but now the fields having their stumps all dug up) at seventy-five dollars per acre. In one instance a church here owned a parsonage with about four hundred acres of land nearly half in a swamp. It cost the church fifteen hundred dollars. Later it was sold for twenty-six thousand dollars, yielding nearly enough to build a costly brick church and a magnificent residence for their preacher. If land is worth so much here, surely it should be valued much more highly than it is around Crockett. I tell my friends here that they could sell their lands here for seventy-five dollars per acre, and then buy better lands around Crockett for half that price. The farms here have no fences—farmers keep no cattle except a cow or two—they have no pasture, and rarely have any cattle or hogs to sell. Still this country seems to be in a healthy condition, and has gained wonderfully since I saw it thirty-six years ago. I have been told there is not much surplus money here, and I suppose the banks do not report large deposits like our Houston county banks. I must stop and start on my journey a little further towards home.

S. F. Tenney.

Hot Shots From Creath.

Dear Editor:

The farmers have been busy with their crops. I believe most have their corn off of hands, and are putting in good time with their cotton. You hear the farmers say crops are mighty sorry now. I think as a whole there is a prospect for bountiful crops. We had a nice shower last week, which was welcomed by all farmers. That sounds good for oorn.

The kind of a paper a town has is either a boost or a knock. The outside world in a large measure judges your city by your papers. The Review goes to every section of this state, in fact, it appears on the exchange table of practically every daily and a large number of weeklies in Texas. The men who look through its columns are the men who mould the public opinion of the state in a large measure. They are the men who give to the outside world the progress and record of affairs in the state, and they will judge Cleburne by her papers. If they see no advertisements by Cleburne merchants they will conclude that business is very dull or else that business is not being sought after here. Help make your paper such a paper that it will give Cleburne the reputation that it ought to have to the outside.—Cleburne Review.

COTTON BELT RAILROAD MAY EXTEND

From Kennard to Trinity River if Crockett and Lufkin Will But Cooperate.

(From the Lufkin Herald.)

The writer just having returned from the lock and dam being constructed at a point 14 miles west of Crockett on the Trinity river, begs to ask a co-operation of the city of Lufkin with the people of Crockett to influence a merger of interests with the Cotton Belt system on the Kennard branch to complete this road to Crockett, and if possible to contract with the United States government (which has just completed a narrow gauge from Crockett to the dam) to assume control of this road and widen same to a standard gauge. In lieu of operating said road conditional government material be delivered without delay, and necessary traffic be had from southern Leon county, and its advantage of permanent water to a point 50 miles above the dam. This lock and dam will afford 17½ feet of water, this water will be permanent, and from facts gained while cruising that country for several days, there is several thousand acres now in cultivation bordering on river above dam and that timber, cotton, hogs and corn can easily be assembled at the lock and dam by barge or boat, 100 million feet of as fine hardwood as is found in the world, at least 20,000 bales of cotton could be assembled annually. Now as Lufkin has the decided advantage of most places as a jobbing center, with her 7 diverging lines, it is hoped that she will not feel jealous of any territory at the now terminal of the Kennard branch, but may look for her share of trade at the assembling point at the lock and dam. I am reliably informed a new town will be built one mile above dam known as Swift, that parties of means have undertaken the building of new towns and the shipping out of timber, and, colonizing the several large tracts of as fine a land as in Texas. This road should force the construction of a fine hotel at Lufkin, would give employment to more railroad men, would call for more houses and a better inducement for factories. The writer called upon the general superintendent of the Cotton Belt yesterday afternoon and he was eager to hear facts as to the resources of lower Leon county and that part of Houston county bordering on river. He requested that a blue print be made of the country and corroborative evidence of the products of that section being tributary to the terminus of this branch road, intimated that it would be necessary to have a mutual co-operation all along the line. From my close study of that country and its wonderful resources, in all candor I must say, I never saw a more feasible proposition than extending the Kennard branch to Trinity river, for 100 miles up the river will be a navigable stream. It remains with parties interested with the Kennard road—the Cotton Belt included and the cities of Crockett and Lufkin, to get to work.

Respectfully,
J. P. McKinnis.

They Put an End to It.

Charles Sable, 30 Cook St., Rochester, N. Y., says he recommends Foley Kidney Pills at every opportunity because they gave him prompt relief from a bad case of kidney trouble that had long bothered him. Such a recommendation coming from Mr. Sable, is direct and convincing evidence of the great curative qualities of Foley Kidney Pills. I. W. Sweet.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has made it a favorite everywhere. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women.

Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

J. M. SELLERS IS KILLED.

Assistant Claim Agent for International & Great Northern Is Run Down by Switch Engine.

Tyler, Tex., June 6.—J. M. Sellers, assistant claim agent of the International & Great Northern Railway Company, with headquarters at Houston, was killed by being run over by a switching freight train this afternoon at 2:30 near Front street crossing. He was standing almost in the identical place where Mrs. Broderick was struck by a train yesterday, and who died four hours later from her hurts.

Sellers reached here this morning from Palestine for the purpose of investigating the accident of yesterday. He stepped in front of the train and could not clear the track before he was struck. He was 40 years old.

His mother lives at Mart, where his remains will be sent tonight.

When Buying, Buy Only the Best.

Costs no more but gives the best results. H. L. Blomquist, Esdaile, Wis., says his wife considers Foley's Honey and Tar Compound the best cough cure on the market. "She has tried various kinds but Foley's gives the best result of all." I. W. Sweet.

Mrs. Lela Love, wife of Wiley Love, a farmer living near Covena, Ga., says: "I have taken Foley Kidney Pills and find them to be all you claim for them. They gave me almost instant relief when my kidneys were sluggish and inactive. I can cheerfully recommend them to all sufferers from kidney troubles." I. W. Sweet.

THE TRUE TEST.

Tried in Crockett, It Has Stood the Test.

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Crockett. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

J. R. Bennett, retired farmer, Crockett, Texas, says: "I had occasion spells when my kidneys failed to act properly and there was nothing but scant passages of the kidney secretions. My back ached and at times I could hardly straighten. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box and before I had taken half the contents, I was cured. Two months have gone by without a return of the trouble and I am sure that Doan's Kidney Pills did the work."

The above statement was given in July, 1908 and when Mr. Bennett was interviewed on December 11, 1911, he said: "You may continue to use my name as a reference for the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. I can still endorse this preparation."

DELICIOUS MEAT DISH

POT ROAST OFFERS MOST NUTRI-MENT AND SMALLEST WASTE.

Can Be Made of the Cheaper Cuts of Beef With Excellent Results—Eye of Beef is Best Cut.

Pot roast is one of the delicious meat dishes that can be made of the cheaper (not the cheapest) cuts of beef with excellent results. It is a great mistake to imagine that the cheaper cuts of meat are less nutritious, the fact being that these offer the most of nutriment and smallest waste. For example, the first ribs of beef contain about 13.6 per cent. protoid or body building material, and the hindquarter 18.7 per cent. of protoid material.

Perhaps it is not fair to call pot roast a cheap dish, because the prices vary so widely in different localities, and the cuts vary so much. In the vicinity of Providence, R. I., for example, our correspondents report prices of 12 to 18 cents a pound; in Philadelphia, 14 to 20 cents, and in New York, 18 to 22 cents.

In Providence they sell for pot roast the rump (14 to 16 cents), shoulder (12 to 14 cents), and bottom round (16 to 18 cents); in Philadelphia and vicinity the chuck roast, next to ribs (14 cents), shoulder cut (16 to 18 cents), and the ribs (18 to 20 cents). In New York City and the west prices are higher and their range is greater. The cuts are bottom round, top sirloin (which is too expensive, as a rule, and requires less cooking), top round and brisket, 16 to 22 cents.

The eye of the beef is considered the epicurean cut for pot roast. This is a triangular piece of meat taken from the hindquarter between the top and bottom round after the bone has been removed. In the west, pot roast is often made by cutting vertically through the bottom and top round (inside round) instead of cutting either the bottom or the top round (inside round) separately, as is done in the east. This top round or part on the inside of the hindquarter is exceptionally good for pot roast.

In different localities the names of beef cuts are entirely different. In some places, for example, the flank is cut so as to include more of the loin, in which case the upper portion is often called the flank steak. Sometimes the rump is called the rump steak; the inside round, the top round; the plate, the rattle. Often the cross ribs and brisket are included together under the name of cross ribs; the forepart of the cross ribs is often called the shoulder clod and the leg underneath the second round is called the hind shoulder. Often, too, the socket and rump together are called simply the rump. Consequently one must know from what part of the beef the meat should be cut and how it looks. This knowledge must be acquired in actual marketing.—Good Housekeeping Magazine.

Green Peas, Spanish Style.

To one pint of tender green peas add one onion chopped fine, one green pepper, two large tomatoes and one tablespoon of butter. Put butter in saucepan with chopped onion and pepper. Cook until onion is tender, but not brown. Add chopped tomatoes; when at boiling point add peas; season with salt. Cook until tender.

Making Cocoa.

Two tablespoonfuls of cocoa, two cupfuls of milk, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, two cupfuls of boiling water and a pinch of salt. Mix the cocoa, sugar and salt together; add the boiling water gradually; when smooth, boil five minutes; add two cupfuls of milk scalded, and beat with an egg beater or chocolate stick until frothy.

Asparagus Toast.

Wash and cut the asparagus in half-inch lengths. Bring two quarts of water to a boil, add one scant teaspoon of salt and one quart of asparagus and boil thirty minutes or until tender. Toast several slices of bread and melt one-half cup of fresh butter. When the asparagus is tender remove from the liquor and drain. Dip the toasted bread in the asparagus soup, then in the melted butter, lay in a dish and spread the asparagus over it. Add balance of butter and serve hot. Delicious.

Creamed Salt Mackerel.

Soak the fish over night and wipe dry before using. Broil on a buttered gridiron over a clear fire. Lay on a hot dish and pour over it a cream sauce made as follows: Into one cup of boiling water stir two teaspoonfuls of corn starch, rubbed smooth with one tablespoonful of butter; cook until well thickened. Add a well beaten egg, mixing carefully to prevent curdling. Cook a moment longer, season with a teaspoonful of chopped parsley and a saltspoonful of pepper.

GOT TO THE CAUSE.

And Then All Symptoms of Kidney Trouble Vanished.

C. Hammonds, 1115 E. First St., Fort Scott, Kans., says: "I was operated on for stone in the kidney but not cured and some time after, was feeling so bad, I knew there must be another stone that would have to be cut out. I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and the kidney action improved right away. Large quantities of sediment and stone particles passed from me and finally the stone itself, partly dissolved, but still as big as a pea. With it disappeared all symptoms of dizziness, rheumatism and headache. I have gained about 50 pounds since and feel well and hearty." ### CUTICURA OINTMENT HEALED BAD SORE ON LIMB

"Some time ago I was coming up some steps when the board crushed under me like an egg shell, and my right limb went through to the knee, and scraped the flesh off the bone just inside and below the knee. I neglected it for a day or two, then it began to hurt me pretty badly. I put balsam fir on to draw out the poison, but when I had used it a week, it hurt so badly that I changed to ointment. That made it smart and burn so badly that I couldn't use it any more, and that was the fourth week after I was hurt.

"Then I began to use Cuticura Ointment for the sore. It stopped hurting immediately and began healing right away. It was a bad-looking sore before Cuticura Ointment healed it, and I suffered so I couldn't sleep from two days after I fell until I began using Cuticura Ointment.

"Cuticura Soap is the best soap I ever saw. I have used all kinds of soap for washing my face, and always it would leave my face smarting. I had to keep a lotion to stop the smart, no matter how expensive a soap I used. I find at last in Cuticura Soap a soap that will clean my face and leave no smarting, and I do not have to use any lotion or anything else to ease it. I believe Cuticura Soap is the best soap made." (Signed) Mrs. M. E. Fairchild, 805 Lafayette St., Wichita, Kan., May 8, 1911. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. L, Boston.

Physicians Recommend Castoria

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. B. Halstead Scott, of Chicago, Ills., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria often for infants during my practice, and find it very satisfactory."

Dr. William Belmont, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."

Dr. J. H. Taft, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."

Dr. R. J. Hamlen, of Detroit, Mich., says: "I prescribe your Castoria extensively, as I have never found anything to equal it for children's troubles. I am aware that there are imitations in the field, but I always see that my patients get Fletcher's."

Dr. Wm. J. McCrann, of Omaha, Neb., says: "As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have in my years of practice found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

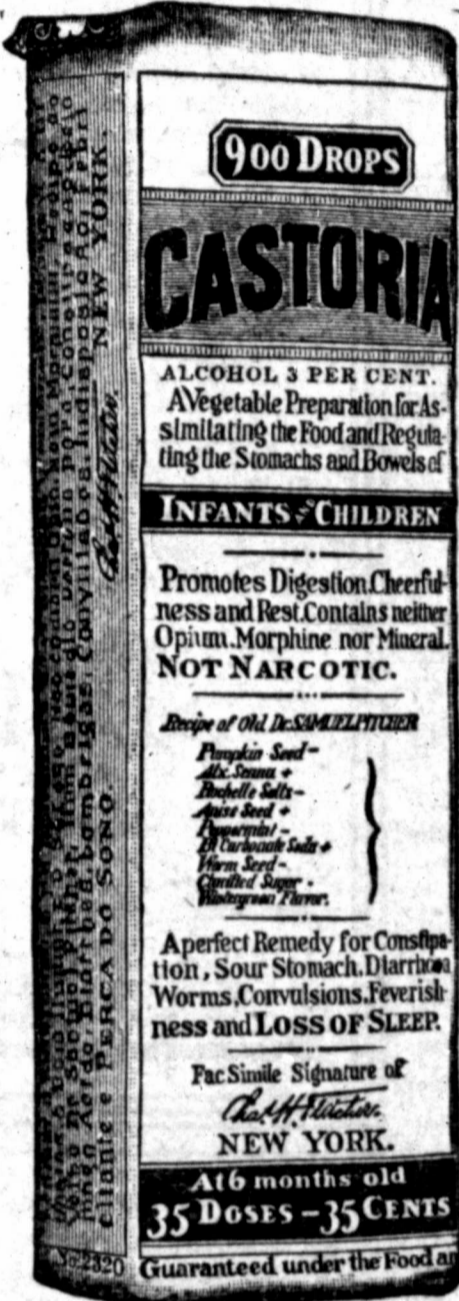

Dr. J. R. Clausen, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "The name that your Castoria has made for itself in the tens of thousands of homes blessed by the presence of children, scarcely needs to be supplemented by the endorsement of the medical profession, but I, for one, most heartily endorse it and believe it an excellent remedy."

Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Castoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physician who has raised a family, as I have, will join me in heartiest recommendation of Castoria."

Ashland, Ky.—"Four years ago I seemed to have everything the matter with me. I had female and kidney trouble and was so bad off I could hardly rest day or night. I doctored with all the best doctors in town and took many kinds of medicine but nothing did any good until I tried your wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My husband said it would restore my health and it has."—Mrs. MAY WYATT, Ashland, Ky.

There are probably hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefitted by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

DIFFERENT NOW. Since the Sigger, Coffee, Was Abandoned.

Coffee probably causes more biliousness and so-called malaria than any one other thing—even bad climate. (Tea is just as harmful as coffee because it contains caffeine, the drug in coffee).

A Ft. Worth man says: "I have always been of a bilious temperament, subject to malaria and up to one year ago a perfect slave to coffee. At times I would be covered with boils and full of malarial poison, was very nervous and had swimming in the head." "I don't know how it happened, but I finally became convinced that my sickness was due to the use of coffee, and a little less than a year ago I stopped coffee and began drinking Postum."

"From that time I have not had a boil, not had malaria at all, have gained 15 pounds good solid weight and know beyond all doubt this is due to the use of Postum in place of coffee, as I have taken no medicine at all."

"Postum has certainly made healthy, red blood for me in place of the blood that coffee drinking impoverished and made unhealthy." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Postum makes red blood.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

BROADWAY'S LURE LEADS TO GRIEF

Atlanta Waiter's Desire to See the Great White Way Results in Trouble.

Mount Vernon, N. Y.—A sudden desire to see the great white way and to live for a short time like a millionaire, led George Kaul, who was arrested here late the other night by Police Lieutenant Silverstein. It is alleged, to loot the trunks, containing $29,500 worth of jewelry, belonging to Sol Gilsey in Atlanta, on April 17. Such was the confession made by Kaul to Lieutenant Silverstein. Kaul, who was a waiter in the Piedmont hotel, Atlanta, Ga., where Gilsey lived when in that city, had visions of affluence and chorus ladies when he learned what Mr. Gilsey had in his trunks. Mr. Gilsey is a member of a firm of diamond brokers in Cincinnati. Kaul intercepted the trunks as they were being transferred from the hotel to the railroad station and had them taken to a boarding house in Atlanta.

After several hours' cross-examination by Silverstein, Kaul broke down and confessed that he, with George Wren and George Roddy, all employed in the Piedmont hotel, had plotted the robbery and had divided the jewels. Kaul said his share was $11,000 worth of the gems, which he hid in his wife's trunk in their home in Atlanta where they were found by the Atlanta police. "He said his wife knew nothing of the robbery nor of the presence of the jewels in her trunk."

"I have worked hard all my life," Kaul, "and I welcomed the chance to come to New York and see Broadway and have some fun with the chorus girls. I wanted to live like a millionaire, if it was only for a week. I know Mr. Gilsey had a lot of jewelry and the temptation was too much for me. That's all." Kaul was traced to New York, where he was lost. Silverstein located him at the home of his cousin, Arthur Von Gastel, at 761 Eleventh avenue, Mount Vernon. He was remanded without bail.

Ends Own Life at 80 Years. Chicago.—Charles Stein, for 30 years a manufacturer in Milwaukee, and a brother of former Superior Judge Philip Stein, shot and killed himself the other day at the Hyde Park Rest Cure, where he had gone for medical treatment. Wants to Dress as Woman. Atlanta, Ga.—From a prominent South Georgian, who lives in Ware county, Controller General William A. Wright has just received a letter expressing a desire to wear woman's attire, and asking permission to do so. "I have very much the appearance of a woman, and when dressed as such and wearing long hair I look a perfect figure of a female and would not be noticed as being a man. I wish to adopt this attire because it is more suitable for me than male attire." "It's the queerest letter I ever received," said General Wright. He withholds the name out of deference to the man's family.

THE SAFE LAXATIVE FOR ELDERLY PEOPLE

Most elderly people are more or less troubled with a chronic, persistent constipation, due largely to lack of sufficient exercise. They experience difficulty in digesting even light food, with a consequent belching of stomach gases, drowsiness after eating, headache and a feeling of lassitude and general discomfort.

Doctors advise against cathartics and violent purgatives of every kind, recommending a mild, gentle laxative tonic, like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, to effect relief without disturbing the entire system.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the perfect laxative, easy in action, certain in effect and, withal, pleasant to the taste. It possesses tonic properties that strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels and is a remedy that has been for years the great standby in thousands of families, and should be in every family medicine chest. It is equally as valuable for children as for older people.

Druggists everywhere sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in 50c and $1.00 bottles. If you have never tried it send your name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and he will be very glad to send a sample bottle for trial.

Being a Baseball Star. A star's job is a hard one. The mental strain is even greater than the physical. For what he undergoes the fabulous salaries are not fabulous.

Before going into details let us define a star—the ball player's definition: "A star is any player who, through individual excellence, achieves a reputation for brilliant work, thus attracting fans to the park to see him play." He is a star only so long as his performances stand out. He is paid the salary of a star as long as his reputation brings fans to the stands and money to the box office. The day that sees the waning of his sensationalism also sees the waning of his salary.—Edward Lyell Fox in Outing.

Withdraws from the Race.

Cleveland Rains has authorized the Courier to announce his withdrawal from the race for county commissioner in precinct No. 3. He gives as his reason for withdrawing, the largeness of his crop, the lateness of the season and a lack of time in which to make a canvass. He feels that he must either give up his crop or the race, and he chooses to give up the latter. He desires to thank those who had promised him their support.

Mrs. M. A. McLaughlin, 512 Jay St., LaCross, Wis., writes that she suffered all kinds of pains in her back and hips on account of kidney trouble and rheumatism. "I got some of Foley Kidney Pills and after taking them for a few days there was a wonderful change in my case, for the pain entirely left my back and hips and I am thankful there is such a medicine as Foley Kidney Pills." ## THIS TOWN'S SIDEWALKS A DISGRACE TO CIVILIZATION.

The Courier prefers to speak good of everything. It would rather not complain of anything. It refers with pride to the many beautiful homes of its town, their well kept lawns and flower yards, and to the magnificent churches and good schools, and it regrets that it cannot refer with the same pride to the town's sidewalks. But with a few notable exceptions, this town's sidewalks, outside of the business district, are a disgrace to civilization. Along Public avenue, around the church and school properties and perhaps in front of a few residences on other streets some pretense has been made at sidewalk construction. But along the great majority of so-called public thoroughfares little effort has been made in the direction of even leaving room for sidewalks and in many places no effort whatever. This town has some inhabitants, and we say it with a feeling of regret, who ought to be prosecuted for maintaining a nuisance in regard to the fearful sidewalk conditions surrounding their property. In saying this we have no particular person in mind, but we mean to state a fact that every wide-awake citizen must admit. Those who are asleep will complain because of this effort to awake them, but they ought to get their eyes open and see things as they do exist. It is humiliating to show strangers about the town. In places there are great, high embankments with leaning fences, in others gulleys and weeds and in others ragged fences extend over what should be a sidewalk. At the northwest corner of the public square is a high, brick-curbed embankment, after the style of fifty years ago when all stores had high galleries in front to keep out the hogs, that requires something like a step-ladder to get upon it at the north end. Along the edge of this walk a barbed wire was stretched to prevent people from sitting there. Only a few nights ago a citizen, in passing along this walk, made a misstep, caught his foot under the wire and was thrown to the gutter below, sustaining severe and painful injuries, which may result in a damage suit against the city or the property owner or both. And nothing short of a damage suit is likely to bring about an improvement in such conditions. Such a suit would be in the interest of the public welfare, for citizens have rights that must be respected and among these rights is the right to use free for passage and unobstructed the streets and sidewalks of the city.

Houston is having some trouble with its police force as a result of uncivility by policemen. Whenever a peace officer so far forgets himself as to lecture, intimidate and abuse private citizens, he disqualifies himself as a peace officer and should be let out of the public service. It is an officer's duty to arrest violators of the law, but he has no right for any cause to insult and abuse them, and any officer doing so is unfit for the place.

The Courier favors the candidacy of Justice R. A. Pleasants of Galveston for the supreme bench and B. F. Looney of Greenville for attorney general. We have known of these men for some time and know them to be thoroughly capable, efficient and praiseworthy, and deserving of the highest honors.

The race for district judge will be made largely in Anderson county. Houston county will support its candidate and the same thing may be said of Henderson county. There are three counties in the district and a candidate at each end, and each candidate is trying to get the biggest slice out of the middle county.

Two congressmen-at-large are to be elected. The Courier is for R. E. Yantis of Athens and Daniel E. Garrett of Houston, one a prohibitionist and the other an anti, but both opposed to graft. Prohibition should have no place in this campaign.

When a public official renders faithful service, he should be given a second and successive term as a reward for merit. When a public official has not kept the faith, there should be no second term for him.

Officers Elected.

Davy Crockett lodge, No. 193, Knights of Pythias, at the last regular meeting elected the following officers: J. L. Monk, C. C.; H. L. Morrison, V. C.; C. A. Hassell, M. A.; L. A. Sallas, M. W.; R. L. Shivers, I. G.; L. E. Barlow, O. G.; John Spence, prelate.

The "Hoosier Cabinet" Kitchen Saves Miles of Steps and Hours of Time

Only Twelve More Women May Join Hoosier Club for $1.00 and Secure a Hoosier Cabinet at Once

A Community of Model Kitchens

Crockett is becoming rapidly a city of model kitchens. Every street nearly has one or more houses in which are Hoosier Cabinets.

The woman who has a Hoosier Cabinet has a model kitchen. Everything is at her finger ends. She saves miles of steps.

The Hoosier is a silent servant that works day in and day out, without tiring.

All over America the Hoosier Company permits its agents to organize Hoosier Clubs during certain periods of the year. The membership in most clubs is limited to 15, but we secured 25 cabinets for our club sale this spring and this entire number, as you see, will soon be taken.

Club Plan in Detail

To join the Hoosier Club, you pay merely $1.00 membership, and $1.00 weekly, and have the Hoosier Cabinet delivered immediately. The Hoosier Company fixes the price everywhere. You pay no more for this liberal credit.

The Club Differs from the Installment Plan

The Hoosier Club differs greatly from the installment plan; is under the direct supervision of the Hoosier Mfg. Co., which fixes the low price that no Hoosier agent can change.

Total Membership Limit 25

Owing to the very liberal terms, the allotment of Hoosier Cabinets that can be sold during this club week is necessarily limited. In many Hoosier Clubs a number of women are frequently disappointed because they delayed too long in enrolling their names. We state this so that any one who contemplates getting a Hoosier Cabinet now may enroll her name without delay and avoid disappointment.

Get a "Model Kitchen Book" Free

The famous Hoosier text-book used in many domestic science schools will be supplied free to all visitors who attend the great Hoosier display now in our store as long as our limited supply of these books lasts.

Call for Executive Committee.

To the Democratic Executive Committee of Houston County:

You are hereby called to meet at the court house, in the town of Crockett, on Monday, June 17, 1912, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of determining whether nominations shall be made by majority or plurality vote, and for arranging by lot all candidate's names to appear on the ticket, and for such other purposes as may come before the executive committee.

All candidates for county and precinct offices are hereby requested to meet with the executive committee on the above date for the purposes of arranging the general campaign in this county. This is a very important meeting for both the executive committee and all candidates, and I request and expect each of you to be present.

I. A. Daniel, Chairman.
M. Satterwhite, Secretary.
