A DEPLORABLE ACCIDENT.

Little Jim Henry Smith Meets a Tragic Death Between Wheels of a Road Scraper.

In the early afternoon of last Friday, just at one o'clock, the hour when the men and teams were starting out to work, little Jim Henry Smith, 10 years of age and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith of this city, met a tragic death between the wheels of a heavy road scraper. A wagon loaded with feed for Smith Brothers' grading camp and pulling three big scrapers behind it left the Smith home. Jim Henry was playing in the yard of a neighbor and ran out to get on one of the scrapers with the view of riding down the road a short distance. In the effort he lost his balance and fell between the scrapers, and before the team could be stopped he was so badly crushed that death resulted in about an hour. Men near by, seeing the accident, ran to the little fellow's assistance and, picking him up, carried him into his home where he died in spite of all the medical aid that could be procured. Mr. Smith was in a buggy in front of the wagons and returned with all possible haste. He and his wife are grief stricken and are making a heroic effort to bear up under their burden of sorrow. The funeral occurred Saturday in the Hill cemetery east of town. Jim Henry was a grandson of Mr. F. H. Hill. The bereaved have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

Dancing.

Written for the Crockett Courier.

There seems to be new developments of public sentiment about dancing. I find the following dispatch in a daily paper, dated San Antonio, May 20th:

"The ban of the Episcopal church was placed upon the turkey-trot, the bunny hug and the Texas Tommy, when the council of the West Texas diocese, in ninth annual session here this afternoon, adopted a resolution approving a pronouncement by Bishop J. S. Johnston on the subject of immoral dances. The Bishop declared that he would refuse to confirm 'any person, male or female, who will not agree to give up these immodest, vulgar, and indecent forms of amusement,' and made it plain that he would expect church members under his jurisdiction to abstain from holy communion if they indulge in the dances which he forbade. He said, 'Immoral dances popularized in high society circles are responsible, both directly and indirectly, for much of the divorce evil. In this connection he asserted that 'San Antonio leads the world in the number of divorces, there being one divorce for every four marriages in the Alamo City.' He further said, 'The finger of history points to a national calamity like the French revolution if these evils remain unchanged.'"

As I have said before, to avoid these extremes, it is wise not to touch dancing at all, not even in the home parlor dance, just as it is wise not to touch intoxicating drink at all. About our Crockett dances, it has come to my ears that a lady objected to being reported as a chaperone at a dance, stating that she intended to see what was done and declaring that she saw a young man hugging the girls tightly, and that her daughter had been forbidden to dance.

Ice Cream Factory.

An industry in Crockett that is coming into prominence is the ice cream business. There was a time when ice cream in large quantities had to be ordered from the larger towns. That time is now a thing of the past. Mansfield's ice cream factory, with C. L. Mansfield as proprietor, is supplying the home trade with the best of high-grade creams and making a specialty of brick creams. His special effort is toward the local trade of Crockett, but small shipments are beginning to be made to other points. Plain and special ice creams are made by this factory and those of our citizens desiring to patronize a home industry should ask their dealer for Mansfield's cream. This cream is on sale at the various cream parlors and soda fountains in this city. Just ask for Mansfield's and you will never regret it.—Adv.

ROAD WORK AGAIN ACTIVE.

Commissioners' Court Passes Orders Placing Teams and Crews in the Crockett Road District.

At a recent session of the commissioners' court an order was passed hiring the Smith Brothers teams and drivers, together with all implements and camping outfits, at $4.50 a day of ten hours each. Smith Brothers to bear all expenses of teams and hands and the Crockett road district to pay Oscar Reynolds $90 a month as superintendent and J. A. Harrelson to be in charge of the Smith Brothers second crew at a salary of $75 a month.

An order was also passed hiring additional teams from Daniel & Burton and Arch Baker at $2 a day, the Crockett road district to feed the mules and hire all labor, the owners to furnish mules, harness and implements, and road district to pay R. A. Hawley $90 a month as superintendent and road district not to pay when teams are idle from any cause.

Also an order establishing a county convict gang and placing C. C. Mortimer in charge at $2 a day and board, and to work under the supervision of the commissioners' court. A camping outfit for this purpose was previously bought by the court.

Jim Cook was retained in charge of the road district teams and crew at a salary of $3 a day and board.

Without a Dissenting Vote.

Here is a news item which should be an inspiration to our people just at this time, as we are to vote on a like proposition Friday, June 20th. Last Tuesday the citizens of Wills Point had a water works bond election and voted unanimously in favor of the proposition. That not a single vote was cast against the bond issue was a noteworthy manifestation of the progressive spirit of the citizenship of Wills Point, and an example that our people would do themselves much credit to emulate.—Rusk County News.

Died of Appendicitis.

C. M. Crockett, civil engineer at the lock and dam on the Trinity river west of Crockett, died in a Fort Worth sanitarium Thursday night. Mr. Crockett was in this city all of last week taking degrees in the Masonic lodge. Before returning to his work at the lock and dam he had an attack of appendicitis and went to Fort Worth, which was near his home, for an operation. His home was at Prosper, Collin county, and the remains were shipped there for interment. On Saturday before leaving this city Mr. Crockett had received notice from the government of his promotion to chief engineer in charge of the Riverside lock and dam. He was a young man of fine physique, gentlemanly bearing and exceptional ability. He made many friends while here whose hearts are saddened by the announcement of his untimely death.

Must Comply With the Law.

There is a state law fixing the speed limit as to automobiles and any peace officer is empowered to make arrest for its violation. The Courier has heard considerable complaint of late in regard to violations of this law and the Courier is asked to sound a note of warning as a means to prevent prosecutions. This law also covers automobiles running without number, describes how and where they shall be numbered and when and how they shall be lighted. Each day the law is violated constitutes a separate offense and if there are in violators in Houston county they had better take notice. Those automobile owners who are complying with the law say they are going to see that all others do so in order that reproach may not be brought upon all of them.

A DAY IN JUNE.

Written for the Courier.

Do I forget the tangled wood?
The wild thyme by the way?
A cure for hearts that ache in vain,
We gathered some that day.
The robins sang in monotone
Its notes the whole day long.
The plowman's weary homeward way,
Just as the sun went down.
The mawking thrush that lingered near
With pretended "fare you well"
The hollow sound for miles around
Save the tinkling of a bell.
The friendly herd of the measured tread
As up the slope they'd climb
We watched the dying of the day
And heard the tinkling chime.
Expression on each face we saw,
A peaceful day in June.
Their path of duty o'er and o'er
With fragrant flowers strewn.
The dimming rays of fading light
I catch a glimpse as then,
The twilight hour when all the world
Its secret praises lend.
In retrospection linger on,
Romantic scenes and sound,
When might in all its solitude
Its mantle spread around.
—Mrs. C. R. Stephenson.

May Day Fete.

The luncheon, tendered the Quid Nunc Club, by Mrs. Charles May, the seventh of last month, was unsurpassed for beauty and elegance.

The guests were cordially received by Mrs. May and Mrs. Jensen, and after the usual exchange of greetings and good wishes, were ushered into the dining room.

Here, pink, always a charming color and one that readily lends itself to lovely effects, was the chosen motif in the decorations.

Broad streamers of pink satin ribbon were suspended from a garland of roses and caught to the table with roses and rosebuds.

Little pink baskets as favors and filled with bon-bons added to the beauty of decoration. Covers were placed for eighteen, Mrs. Frank Edmiston, Mrs. Dan McLean, Mrs. Thomas Craddock, Mrs. Sydney Johnson and Mrs. Robt. Stokes, being guests of honor.

As the guests were about to be seated, Charles Arthur Jensen, the manly little grandson standing at the head of the table and presiding, as host, offered the following address of welcome:

"Grandmama, Grandpapa, mother and friends:

"I am eight years old today and my little life, I dearly love, because you have filled it with sunshine and song. I hope all of you will eat dinner with me, when I am seventy-eight years old."

This sweet little toast was received with enthusiastic applause.

Words cannot do justice to the elegant six-course luncheon which followed.

Mr. May, Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. Ben Satterwhite, assisted Mrs. May in making this luncheon an eminent success.

As the last course was finished, a cordial note was received by Mrs. May from Mayor Young, inviting the ladies to hasten to the train to meet the Palestine tourists who were in Crockett for the day.

Getting into autos and carriages, we were soon whirled to the depot, shaking hands with friends old and new, of our sister city.

To some of us this happy exchange of greeting was a vivid reminder of the sweet long ago, and made us almost wish for "the tender grace of a day that is dear."

To Mrs. May, we will say:

"Here's health to you and wealth to you,
Honors and gifts a thousand strong;
Here's name to you, and fame to you,
Blessings and joy, a whole life long!
But lest bright Fortune's star grow dim
And sometimes cease to move to you
I fill my bumper to the brim
And pledge a lot of love to you!"
Mrs. Corinne N. Corry.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

A Powerful Lobby Trying to Defeat Tariff Bill.

Washington, D. C., June 2.—President Wilson, following his usual custom of striking right from the shoulder, has warned the country that a powerful lobby is at work trying to defeat the pending tariff bill which is designed to lower the cost of living to the American people. This is nothing unusual, however, for when republicans revise the tariff, they always revise it just as the lobbyist or representatives of the great "trusts" dictate. But in a Democratic revision, they are up against sterner stuff, real democratic patriots, and President Wilson's alarm has served to disarm them by the search light of publicity and already they are on the run. Furthermore it has called the attention of Congress to the necessity of passing a law compelling lobbyists to register and state what their object is in trying to influence legislation, and if they do not register so as to give notice to the public they will be sent to prison. Several states have such a law and it has largely destroyed the power of lobbyists in corrupting law-makers.

A New Back For an Old One—How a Crockett Resident Made a Back Strong.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Follow the example of this Crockett citizen.

Albert Smith, Bruner's Addition, Crockett, Texas, says: "I was annoyed by a lame back and pains through my kidneys, showing that my kidneys did not do their work as they should. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from Sweet's Drug Store and they relieved me right away of the lameness in my back and regulated the kidney action."

"When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Smith had, the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Is It Right to Advertise Coca Cola?

Men who play the wily game of politics have discovered that the best way to distract the attention of the public from their own shortcomings is to make a loud-mouthed sensational attack upon someone else. As the cuttle-fish eludes its pursuer by clouding surrounding waters with the contents of its ink sac, so the political adventurer takes advantage of the ignorance and prejudices of the people to escape from his indefensible position by muddying the waters of public opinion.

A case in point is the recent attack made upon the religious press for carrying Coca-Cola advertising. This attack was made by a politician who was supposed to be an expert in chemistry, but who, having brought suit against the Coca-Cola Company, was humiliated by having to acknowledge that he could not qualify as an expert. The court decided in favor of the Coca-Cola Company as it was clearly shown that the only essential difference between Coca-Cola and coffee or tea is that the former contains only about half as much caffeine as the latter and the flavor is different.

The question as to whether it is right to advertise Coca-Cola seems to resolve itself therefore into the question as to whether it is right to advertise coffee, tea, chocolate, coca and other beverages of the caffeine group.—Adv.

A store of this character is essentially a bargain center. The largest selling lines are all bought direct from factories, and bought in two-store quantities for Crockett and Nacogdoches, insuring lowest and closest buying. In many instances the prices we ask will be the same or less than local stores are now paying when buying to sell you.

We urge upon you a thorough comparison of goods and prices—either compare with what you are now paying at home or what you pay when buying from mail-order houses.

We shall be open for business about the middle of this month.

Favors Constitutional Amendment.

Austin, Texas, June 2.

Editor Courier:

At a recent meeting of the student body of the University, the students here from the various counties of the state were brought together, at which time a chairman, vice chairman and secretary of each county delegation were elected for the purpose of effecting an organization of students, ex-students and alumni in each county to work for the adoption of the amendment to the constitution which is to be voted on at the special election to be held July 19, 1913. At this meeting I was chosen chairman, Warner Eaves of Grapeland vice chairman and Earle Adams of Crockett secretary of the Houston county delegation. At the request of the University authorities, and urged by that peculiar interest that every ex or present student has to help build up, better equip and make more efficient the State University, we are induced to make this brief explanation, through the columns of the county papers, of the proposed amendment and to show why it should be favorably received by the voters of Texas.

The part of the amendment as designed to help the University and other state educational institutions is as follows:

"The legislature, however, shall have power to authorize the issuance of bonds, to be approved by the governor, for the purpose of purchasing addition grounds and erecting necessary buildings for the University of Texas, including a medical department, an agricultural and mechanical college, and all departments of a complete university of the first class. The revenue received from the permanent University fund shall be available for the payment of interest on these bonds, and for the creation of a sinking fund for their redemption at maturity; and the legislature also shall have power to issue bonds for the construction of necessary buildings for state institutions."

The proposed amendment further provides in substance: (1) that the legislature, if it deems wise and expedient, may enact a law for the issuance of penitentiary bonds for its permanent improvement, based upon the real property of the penitentiary system and cared for by the income of the state farms; (2) that the legislature may enact a law by which the people of a county, by an election and a majority, may issue bonds for the construction of warehouses for the storing of agricultural products; (3) that every community or county within the state, by a majority vote, may issue bonds for the "construction, maintenance and operation of bridges, macadamized, graveled, sand clay, or clayed sand, or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof." The statement of the last three phrases of the amendment makes clear the intention and purpose of the proposed change and should appeal to every progressive voter in the state.

There are on the campus of the University at present five wooden box houses, which the regents were forced to erect to relieve the congested conditions of the classrooms; the A. & M. College has reached the maximum of its growth until additional buildings are provided; the state normals and the College of Industrial Arts are being checked in their growth because of lack of sufficient buildings. Hence the necessity of the adoption of the amendment to relieve the cramped and congested conditions now existing and growing more yearly.

According to the present constitution no money can be appropriated by the legislature for the construction of buildings for the University and it has been a continued practice to allow the regents to use the $160,000 the institution receives annually from its property holdings for permanent improvements and construction of buildings. If the proposed amendment is adopted, the legislature will enact a law by which bonds to the amount of $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 will be issued and the $160,000 annual income will be used to pay interest and create a sinking fund. This will enable the regents to erect the much needed buildings at once instead of having to wait years for the income to accumulate to a sufficient sum. Consequently, the proposed bond issue will not cause any additional taxes to be paid by the taxpayers of the state. It only gives an immediate means of securing what would otherwise require many years.

The amendment, if adopted, means adequate buildings for all of the state institutions of higher education and not for the University alone. With this condition all will be in a position to better fill the demands and accomplish the purpose for which they were established.

To use the words of Supt. F. M. Brally, "every friend of education in Texas ought to take an active interest in behalf of its adoption."

A New Back For an Old One—How a Crockett Resident Made a Back Strong.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Follow the example of this Crockett citizen.

Albert Smith, Bruner's Addition, Crockett, Texas, says: "I was annoyed by a lame back and pains through my kidneys, showing that my kidneys did not do their work as they should. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from Sweet's Drug Store and they relieved me right away of the lameness in my back and regulated the kidney action."

"When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Smith had, the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

PROPOSED BOND ACT DEFECTIVE.

Walters Says Omission of Words "Drainage or Navigation" Is Serious in Plan to Amend Constitution.

Houston, May 25.—The following is a statement in part given to the press today by J. F. Walters:

"The Thirty-third legislature has submitted an amendment to the constitution of this state authorizing the issuance of bonds for improvement districts, and also for the operation of public warehouses for storing, handling, classing, measuring, weighing, elevating and loading agricultural products. This amendment will be voted on July 19, 1913.

"In the pending amendment the words 'drainage or navigation' are omitted with the result that if this amendment is adopted the taxpayers in various sections of Texas cannot, as now, create drainage districts, vote drainage bonds and drain their lands.

"If we adopt the amendment submitted by the legislature we shall have the power to build warehouses, but we shall lose the power to drain our lands.

"I assume, of course, that the omission of the words 'drainage or navigation' is an advertance. The view from any standpoint is serious.

"Probably others have discovered the error. If so, I have seen nothing of it in public print. I merely desire to call attention to this condition."

A Sad and Sudden Death.

The community was greatly shocked and thrown into an intensely sympathetic mood on last Friday, at the sudden and tragic death of little J. H. Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, worthy citizens of our town.

We know that death comes to whom it listeth, the young and the old are cut down it seems indiscriminately, the bright youth is taken today and tomorrow may be the aged man is called hence, that death is of hideous aspect we all concede and our hearts go out in sympathy and sorrow to those whose loved ones have been taken.

The little boy who so suddenly was called to dwell in eternity was widely and favorably known. He was of a bright and sunshiny temperament, polite and courteous to those with whom he was brought into association, thus earning for himself friends among his elders, and forming with his comrades and school fellows ties that promised lifelong friendship, but alas these ties are now rudely broken asunder and have left behind only the sweet incense that will always cling around the vase that is broken. The citizens of the town thronged the residence of his parents to pay the last, sad tribute of friendship to the little boy who was loved, but now is gone.

Human sympathy tendered the bereaved parents so plentifully fails to fill the aching void in their hearts. Their boy is gone from out their home, his sweet, clear voice is hushed forever and his dear form is hidden in the grave.

Flowers, those silent, fragrant emblems of love and friendship, were in profusion a fitting symbol of the brightness of the little fellow to whose memory they were tendered.

Bereaved parents, look upward; your dear boy is gone and your grief and heart anguish none can fathom. It is sacred to you and cannot be shared, but remember that your dear one is now in a brighter and fairer land than his bright eyes ever looked on before, for with the promise of the Father we are told that the gates of heaven are ever ajar and all can enter there.—Adv. A Friend.

Is It Right to Advertise Coca Cola?

Men who play the wily game of politics have discovered that the best way to distract the attention of the public from their own shortcomings is to make a loud-mouthed sensational attack upon someone else. As the cuttle-fish eludes its pursuer by clouding surrounding waters with the contents of its ink sac, so the political adventurer takes advantage of the ignorance and prejudices of the people to escape from his indefensible position by muddying the waters of public opinion.

A case in point is the recent attack made upon the religious press for carrying Coca-Cola advertising. This attack was made by a politician who was supposed to be an expert in chemistry, but who, having brought suit against the Coca-Cola Company, was humiliated by having to acknowledge that he could not qualify as an expert. The court decided in favor of the Coca-Cola Company as it was clearly shown that the only essential difference between Coca-Cola and coffee or tea is that the former contains only about half as much caffeine as the latter and the flavor is different.

The question as to whether it is right to advertise Coca-Cola seems to resolve itself therefore into the question as to whether it is right to advertise coffee, tea, chocolate, coca and other beverages of the caffeine group.—Adv.

My Doctor Said

"Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to be up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is successful, because it is made especially for women, and acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That explains the great success which it has had, during the past 50 years, in helping thousands of weak and ailing women back to health and happiness.

If you are a woman, feel tired, dull, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's because you need a tonic. Why not try Cardui? Cardui builds, strengthens, restores, and acts in every way as a special, tonic remedy for women. Test it for yourself. Your druggist sells Cardui. Ask him.

Good Roads Constitutional Amendment.

Austin, Texas, June 4.—Every county in the State of Texas where good roads are needed, and it is probable that every county in Texas could improve its road system, is vitally interested in the special election to be held throughout the State on Saturday, July 19.

At that time an amendment to the constitution will be submitted which seeks to permit a majority vote instead of a two-thirds vote on good roads bond issues as at present.

By the majority plan a handicap of considerable voting strength is removed, for the majority in a progressive community is usually favorable to progressive ideas and are willing to spend money to promote business. They are imbued with the idea that a dollar not working depreciates in value to zero.

All sections of the State are seeking to get out an immense vote and practically every newspaper, commercial club and the progressives of each community are urging the voters not to overlook this opportunity to increase the business possibilities of the State.

No Substitute Could Do This.

No inferior substitute, but only the genuine Foley Kidney Pills could have rid J. F. Wallich, Bartlett, Nebr., of his kidney trouble. He says: "I was bothered with backache, and the pain would run up to the back of my head, and I had spells of dizziness. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they did the work and I am now entirely rid of kidney trouble." I. W. Sweet.—Ad.

About eight months ago I began using Foley Kidney Pills, and they have done what other medicines failed to do, and now I am feeling fine. I recommend Foley Kidney Pills." I. W. Sweet.—Adv.

Piano Recital.

The pupils of Miss Sue Denny gave a piano recital at the home of Miss Denny Wednesday afternoon beginning at 5:30 o'clock. The program contained twenty numbers and consisted of piano solos and duets and songs with piano accompaniment. There was a reading by Miss Collins. The pupils acquitted themselves in a manner complimentary to both themselves and their teacher, showing that every detail, however small, had been carefully looked after. The class was made up of all sizes, from little tots up. The hostess' sister, Miss Grace Denny, assisted in the entertainment and in serving refreshments to the guests.

W. V. McConnell Says:

I have two reasons for not being with the boys on this auto excursion.

One is the sadness caused by the quick and rapid departures would exceed the exuberant pleasure of meeting you.

The other I will have to tell in person and as I cannot meet with you I want each and every one when you come to Crockett to call at my store and hear the other reason.

In conclusion, may the remainder of your lives be so replete with happiness, so filled with overflowing with the consecrated essence of existence, that as the warriors who bore the burdens of wounds and death left only a legacy of peace and patriotism, may you leave a legacy of sweet remembrance that will blossom and bloom in the springtime of eternity and when your final hour comes may you ask no more of this world than that some one in sweet remembrance will steal at twilight to your resting place and offer a sacrifice of simple flowers consecrated with kisses and baptized with tears.—Adv.

Will Open Branch Store at Crockett.

Lee Variety Store will open a branch store at Crockett, June 1st. Wallace Lee left Tuesday for market to finish buying stock for the new house.

Mr. C. F. Lee will have charge of the new store and he and Mrs. Lee will move to Crockett in a few days to be ready for the opening.

The new store will consist of a stock of about the same size of the one in this city, and will be thoroughly new and up-to-date.

The Lees came to Nacogdoches about a year ago and opened their variety store in this city last August and have built up a splendid trade, adding to their stock constantly until they now have one of the most complete stocks of this line of goods in East Texas and a store that would be a credit to a city several times the size of Nacogdoches.—Red Land Herald.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

Obituaries, resolutions, cards of thanks and other matter not "news" will be charged for at the rate of 5c per line. Parties ordering advertising or printing for societies, churches, committees or organizations of any kind will, in all cases, be held personally responsible for the payment of the bill.

There are 3,251 mules in Houston county, according to a recent census bulletin, and their total value is $312,562. Of this number 3,108 are mature mules, 104 are yearling colts and 39 are spring colts. Houston county does not raise enough mules. Thousands of dollars are sent out of this county every year for mules—money that ought to be kept in Houston county. No county can prosper long and buy its mules and feed from other sections.

A paying industry that could be established at Crockett is a creamery. The federal census bureau has just announced reports by counties on dairy products. The reports show 11,716 dairy cows in Houston county that have an aggregate value of $468,640, and there are 3,959 yearling heifers in this county that will make excellent milch cows. The annual milk production of this county is 1,375,515 gallons, from which 490,349 pounds of butter are made annually. The value of the annual dairy production of the whole state is $20,162,500. The annual dairy production is 30 per cent less than the annual consumption of dairy products. A creamery is one of the paying industries that is being overlooked by Crockett. A number of creameries have been established over the state during the past few years and we have not heard of one of them failing.

The value of agricultural property in Houston county is $5,943,309, according to a report of the United States census department just issued. Land represents 56 per cent of the total value of all farm property in this county, buildings 19 per cent, implements and machinery 4 per cent, and domestic animals, poultry and bees 21 per cent. The farm property of Houston county has increased $2,099,754 or 55 per cent during the past decade, while that of the entire state has increased 130 per cent. The per cent of increase for the entire United States during this period was twenty. While the increase in Houston county has not been as large as that of the whole state, it has been larger than that for the entire United States. Eastern Texas has not settled up as rapidly as some of the western counties and the difference is explained in this way. A point in our favor is that farm values in the western counties are now so high that the big increase percentage must occur in East Texas from now on. The wise farmer will buy land in Houston county while the price is yet within his reach.

TRADES EXCURSION NUMBER.

This is the trade number of the Courier. A thousand extra copies of this issue will be distributed over the county. The object of this distribution is, first, to advertise the Courier and, second, to advertise trades day in Crockett, which is Saturday, June 21. These extra copies will be distributed during the four days of the trades excursion, beginning Tuesday, June 10. The object of the trades excursion has already been explained. It is to get better acquainted with the people of Houston county and to advertise the advantages of Crockett as a trading point. Trades day will also be advertised on this trip. This issue of the Courier contains the bargains that will be offered on trades day. The business men of Crockett want to meet the people of Houston county on this trip. The editor of the Courier, as one of the town's business men, wants to meet you. We not only want to meet you on the trip, but we want to see you in Crockett on trades day. Come and be with us.

THE REAL QUESTIONS.

The commissioners' court has been considering the advisability of erecting a new jail for Houston county. The plan that has been under discussion is whether or not it would be to the interest of the people of Houston county to sell the present jail lot, take down the old jail and rebuild it on a lot back of the present jail, provided such a lot could be bought at a reasonable price. Sentiment in Crockett is pretty well divided on the question, some favoring the plan and some opposing it. An erroneous impression has gone out over the county to the effect that it is a Crockett scheme. The Courier first heard the matter discussed by a member of the commissioners' court and if there is any combination by the people of the town with the view of profiting at the expense of the people of the whole county we have not heard of it. In fact the strongest opposition to moving the jail has originated in Crockett. Those favoring the movement contend that the old jail has outlasted its usefulness; that it is unsanitary and unsafe and therefore a menace; that the encroachment of the business section on the jail demands that it be moved; that the property at the rear is a more desirable location, if it can be bought cheaply and the old jail lot sold at a good price; that insane people, frequently negroes, are sometimes confined in the front cells, to the annoyance and humiliation of ladies passing. In fact the main reason seems to be to get the jail off of Main street and at the same time improve prison conditions. Those opposed to the movement say that the old jail is good enough; that it is far enough away from the court house; that to move the jail would mean a new jail, for which bonds would have to be issued; that the county is not ready for the issuance of additional bonds at this time; that it would be a hard matter to buy property for a new jail, because no one would want the jail next to them; that its removal would affect the location of the postoffice building, inasmuch as its removal would add to the desirability of that part of the town for the postoffice building. So much for the proposition and so much against it. The Courier is of the opinion that the matter had better rest until the new postoffice building is located and then the question can be more intelligently discussed as to its true merits and demerits. The federal building has nothing to do with it. The real questions are: Does Houston county need a new jail and is the present jail a menace? If so, should the present jail lot be sold and a cheaper one bought?

No Grounds for Alarm.

This week's Courier contains another article from Rev. S. F. Tenney on the subject of dancing. He speaks of the ban placed by the Episcopal church on the "turkey trot," "the bunny hug" and the "Texas Tommy." Those who dance in Crockett are ahead of the Episcopal church in this matter. They have long since put the ban on these dances. So Mr. Tenney need have no grounds for alarm on that score. Evidently Mr. Tenney knows so little about dancing that he cannot distinguish between the decent and indecent kind. The Episcopal church went on record as opposing only the kind of dances mentioned, which it described as vulgar, immodest and indecent. It did not go on record as opposing all forms.

Mr. Tenney brings a severe indictment against the young people of Crockett and some of the older ones toward the last of his article and by some might be construed as libelous. It is at least a serious reflection on the morality of the young people of this city who attend the dances. Very nearly the same crowd attend all of the dances in Crockett. Some of them are brothers and sisters, others are cousins and others are related in other ways. Their parents are frequently there as chaperones. In the face of these facts it seems unreasonable that any one, much less a minister, should believe what has come to Mr. Tenney's ears. Mr. Tenney's alarm is again without foundation and more harm is likely to come to these innocent, young girls from the tongue of his informant than from the dance as conducted in Crockett. The act that he complains of is impossible under the conditions and incapable of toleration. Any young man attempting such a thing would be excluded from the dance by sentiment if not by force. Now we do not believe Mr. Tenney wished to reflect on the young people of his home city, some of whom are members of his church, but he has listened too much and too long to the tongue of the gossip. The writer has attended every dance in this city and can assure Mr. Tenney that he has been very much misinformed. The crowds are selected with the same precision and care that marks the home parties, if not even more so.

The friends of dancing are doing more to rid that social pastime of its objectionable features than are all the other influences combined. The Elk's Club of Laredo has passed a resolution putting the ban on objectionable dances. Like Crockett, Laredo has never sanctioned these dances, the dispatch states. If the objectionable dances are to be barred, it must be done by the friends of decency in dancing, for whatever comes from the opposition to all dancing is like water poured on a duck's back. The friends of decency in the ballroom have aided in the passage of laws in Germany prohibiting such dances as the "turkey trot" and the "tango" and assessing punishment at imprisonment and a fine for violation thereof. Those opposed to all forms of dancing were without influence. W. W. Aiken.

Jefferson Davis' Birthday.

The birthday of the only Confederate president, Jefferson Davis, was celebrated in this city Tuesday with befitting ceremony by the Confederate Veterans and the United Daughters of the Confederacy. A business meeting was held by the Veterans in the court house Tuesday morning, at which E. Winfree presided and A. M. Rencher acted as secretary and at which the routine business of the organization was transacted. At 12 o'clock an elegant dinner was served by the United Daughters of the Confederacy in the restaurant of Martin Scarborough, the ladies themselves acting as hostesses and waiters. Several long tables were filled with the Veterans. In the afternoon exercises of a literary and musical nature were held at the court house and addresses made, after which the Veterans were taken in a body to the moving picture shows by the U. D. C. Those having the day's entertainment in hand made of it a big success.
