USDA Schedules Grocer Meeting To Discuss Food Stamp Program

A meeting to discuss the Food Stamp Program with Bailey and Farmer Counties grocers and wholesalers will be conducted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture on Tuesday, September 25, 1973. The program will open in Bailey and Farmer Counties on November 1, 1973.

The meeting is set for 2:00 p.m. in the District Court Room, County Courthouse, Muleshoe, Texas, according to James Sattler, Officer-in-Charge with the Lubbock Field Office of USDA's Food and Nutrition Service.

Purpose of the meeting is to acquaint grocers and wholesalers with Food Stamp Program operations and responsibilities. "Store owners and employees must understand Food Stamp Program operating procedures before a store can be certified," James Sattler pointed out, "so it is most important that county grocers attend the meeting."

The Food Stamp Program is a cooperative effort involving the State Department of Public Welfare and USDA's Food and Nutrition Service.

Under this program, families certified as eligible by the welfare office can buy USDA food coupons which are used like cash at retail stores authorized by USDA to redeem the coupons.

In addition to the coupons they buy, needy families are given "bonus" coupons to enable them to obtain better diets. The value of the "bonus" coupons is determined by the size of the family, its income, resources and other factors. Co-operating banks redeem the coupons through the Federal Reserve System.

Market Report

Spot cotton prices in Western Region cotton markets dropped sharply this week, according to the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. In earlier producing sections of Texas, merchants actively bid on lots of uncontracted cotton. Volume of uncontracted cotton being currently ginned was short, however. Growers with available cotton appeared to be in no hurry to sell. Elsewhere in the west, lower offering prices and a shortage of uncontracted cotton acreage brought contracting activities to a low level. Offering prices for cotton Contracting of the 1973 crop dropped 6.00 to 10.00 cents per pound during the week. Demand was good, however, and most merchants were in the market for 1973 and 1974 crop contracts. With the bulk of their 1973 crop committed, growers in some locations became interested in contracting their 1974 crop. Volume contracted was light, however as most growers asked for prices near last weeks level. Merchants on the Texas Plains were reluctant to book acreage as far in advance as the 1974 crop. Defoliation was taking place in some of the earlier planted fields in California. Cloudy, wet weather caused some concern in the Pecos Valley of New Mexico. The Arizona and Far West Texas crops made good progress. Harvesting in the Harlingen area of South Texas was estimated at 75 to 80 percent complete. Rains delayed the harvest in the Corpus Christi and Austin territories during the week. Elsewhere in Texas and Oklahoma the crop made generally good progress. First bales were ginned in Lubbock and El Paso, Texas territories during the week. A limited amount of harvesting was done around Yuma, Arizona during the week.

Labor Under Secretary Asks Phase IV "Self-Discipline"

NRW CASTLE -The Success of Phase IV depends upon a "combination of confidence and self-discipline" by business, labor, producer and consumer, Under Secretary of Labor Richard F. Schubert said recently. "The burden must be shared by all of us," Schubert said in a Labor-Industry Day address here.

Texas, Miami To See Action This Weekend

Four more late starters finally get their 1973 football seasons underway this weekend. Texas and Miami, both seeing action for the first time, will meet under the lights in Miami. Notre Dame will raise its curtain at the expense of Northwestern, and Iowa State hosts the University of Idaho.

The Texas Longhorns, Cotton Bowl champs and our number four team last fall, should step right in against Miami just about where they left off against Alabama last January. The Hurricanes, rated 37th last year, are undoubtedly in for a bit of trouble... they're underdogs in this one by 20 points.

And the Fighting Irish will also present problems for Northwestern's Wildcats. This looks to be a 14-point win for Notre Dame. Iowa State won't have a patsy in Idaho, but the Cyclones are favored by 32. The crowd-pleaser of the day should be the tussle between #1-rated Nebraska and North Carolina State, our #11 team. to achieve price stability. Phase IV, Schubert said, "has been designed with the aim of achieving the twin objectives of an increase in capacity and supply and the dampening of the long run inflationary forces in the economy." The current inflationary trends, he told the group, "have been the product of a combination of factors, many of which could not have been foreseen and which would have exerted their influences on prices even if Phase II had been continued." An "exceptionally rapid increase in food prices has been fueled by a combination of domestic supply problem and an expansion in world wide demand for agricultural goods," Schubert said.

"At the same time, bad growing conditions abroad and the devaluation of the dollar stimulated food exports," he said. Schubert noted that the freeze has been lifted gradually, "to spread out the price bulge pressures built up" under the previous price ceiling. These "only created supply shortages and other disruptions within the economy," Schubert said.

Earlier, Schubert noted encouraging signs of a growing trend toward labor peace and more innovative methods for insuring it by government, labor and industry. He referred specifically to the National Commission on Industrial Peace and the National Commission on Productivity, both established by President Nixon, and the recent "expedited" grievance arbitration procedure developed by steel, labor and industry. Referring to the fact that the nation's strike level during the first six months of 1973 had reached a nine-year low, Schubert declared: "The record is even more impressive when we consider that during this period there was a large number of key negotiations covering a large number of workers. And unions and management were faced with a great number of special problems stemming from the Economic Stabilization program."

Schubert also discussed the growth of public employee unionism in local, State and Federal governments and said that, although problems obviously remain, in most cases the parties involved are moving toward more mature bargaining relationships.

In the field of equal employment rights, Schubert told the labor and industry leaders that partly because of government pressure, there is "a growing acceptance on the part of all concerned of the need to meet our national commitment."

However, the battle is far from won and the Federal Government and courts will welcome fresh insights and ideas worked out between labor and management in the collective bargaining process, Schubert declared.

1974 Oldsmobile Cutlass Salon

Oldsmobile Expands 1974 Line

LANSING, Mich. --Oldsmobile's 1974 intermediate lineup has been expanded with the addition of two Cutlass Salons and two new station wagons. These new models as well as all the other new Oldsmobiles will be on display in dealer showrooms September 20.

The Salon, introduced as an option on the Cutlass Supreme sedan in 1973, has been expanded in 1974 to include a colonnade hardtop coupe, Oldsmobile's most popular body style. The exterior features a distinctive flag plaque and Cutlass Salon script to differentiate it from the Cutlass Supreme series. A landau vinyl roof and paint strip also are available.

The interior of the Salons features reclining, velour-covered or perforated vinyl contoured seats and center console with shifter. A headlight dimmer switch is located in the turn signal lever.

Also standard on the 1974 Salons is a handling package built around 15-inch GM specification steel-belted radial-ply tires mounted on seven-inch rims with specific wheel discs. A rear stabilizer bar and a larger front stabilizer bar help reduce roll and a lower-ratio power steering gear and linkage give faster response and improved road feel.

The new steel-belted radial-ply tire, optional on all other 1974 Oldsmobiles, was designed and developed in cooperation with several tire manufacturers to match the requirements of GM vehicles in the areas of handling, ride, tread life, endurance, hazard resistance and traction.

The unique tread pattern has been designed to provide long tire life and high traction while maintaining a low road-noise level. Tread life and traction on wet pavement have been significantly increased over bias-belted tires and hydroplaning tendencies have been reduced. Increased snow traction may eliminate the need for snow tires for many customers.

The new Cutlass Supreme Cruisers are available in two and three seat models on a 116-inch wheelbase. They share the same body with the higher priced Vista Cruisers which have woodgrain vinyl body side inserts and the Vista Vent roof ventilator as standard equipment.

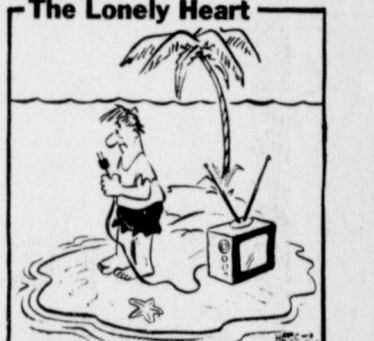

The Cutlass S coupe, Cutlass Supreme, Cutlass Salon and the Vista Cruiser share the same front end with vertical-bar grilles and the parking lamps mounted in the fiberglass front end panels. The standard Cutlass, available in a two-door coupe and four-door sedan, has a horizontal-bar design with the park and turn signal lamps mounted in the bumper.

The 4-4-2 is available as an option on the Cutlass and Cutlass S coupes with a specific grille, body striping, hood and numerals. The option includes the Rallye suspension package and is available with either a 350-cubic-inch or a 455-cubic-inch Rocket V-8 engine.

The 350-cubic-inch engine with four-barrel carburetor, Turbo Hydra-matic transmission and variable-ratio power steering are standard and the 455-cubic-inch four-barrel engine including dual exhausts is optional on all Cutlass models in 1974.

Front disc brakes are standard on all Cutlass models with power assist standard on Cutlass Supreme Cruisers and Vista Cruisers and optional on all others.

Come see the '74 Oldsmobiles.

"But dad, all you said was that Cutlass Salon had reclining seats. You didn't say it came in a new coupe, too."

Last year Cutlass Salon was a new kind of American car—a sedan built for its roadability. This year there's a Salon two-door coupe. Like the sedan, it has a new, lower steering ratio for quicker response. Steel-belted radial tires to grip the road. Special suspension for tight cornering.

"Look Walter! Now we can get an air conditioner that filters smells."

Not only does Tempmatic regulate temperature inside your car to a preset level, it also charcoal filters the air. The filter acts to reduce many offensive odors from the air entering the car. It's available on all full-size Oldsmobiles. The '74 Delta 88 coupe has a brand new roofline. Hydraulic bumper systems, front and rear. And underneath—a suspension system that's as tough as ever. Olds Delta 88. It's really put together. More than just another pretty car.

"Hey! I didn't know we could get these new little windows in the Toronado."

Order a Toronado with an opera roof and you get opera windows and a padded canopy of oxen-grain vinyl. You can also order a new interior with rich velour upholstery, a high-energy ignition system, and True-Track braking.

The 1974 Toronado has a new instrument panel with a message center that lights up to warn you when certain things such as your gas, oil pressure, seat belts, etc., require your attention; there's even an exceptionally accurate digital clock, with quartz-crystal controlled movement. Front-wheel drive Toronado. Engineering can be beautiful.

Stop in at your Olds dealers. He's got surprises for every member of the family in all the other '74s, too: Ninety Eight Regency, Cutlass S and Supreme, Omega and station wagons.

HAWAIIAN LUAA . . . The ESA Hawaii Luau was very successful this year. Some 125 people enjoyed the food, decorations and entertainment.

Both Faye Rampley and her husband O.C. are graduates of West Texas State University in Canyon. They are active members of the Church of Christ, and are dedicated to the ideals of Christian citizenship.

Mrs. Pauline Benefield of the Century Study Club of Silverton accompanied Mrs. Rampley to Muleshoe. Mrs. Benefield is a former member of the Muleshoe Study Club. Other special guests were Mrs. Walter Barthoff, who has resumed her membership in the local club since moving back to Muleshoe, and Mrs. T.L. Kent, a new member of the local club.

Following a brief period of Get-Acquainted fellowship, Mrs. John Agee led the group in singing, "The More We Get Together," followed by the invocation. The dinner menu featured Chicken Supreme, Green Beans, Salad, Muleshoe Grown Cantaloupe and Tomatoes, Home Baked Hot Bread, Coconut Custard Pie, Iced Tea and Coffee. Seasonal flowers decorated the serving tables and the entertaining rooms throughout the house.

Respect, Reverence, and Responsibility is the theme chosen by Mrs. Rampley as she leads The Caprock District of the Federation of Women's Clubs of the State of Texas. In her address, Mrs. Rampley outlined chief objectives for the 1973-1974 Club year, also reviewing District accomplishments of the past club year. Among things specifically mentioned were the recently installed new flooring and tile for the Dining and Kitchen areas of Girlstown, USA at Sundown, Texas.

Mrs. Wilson Witherspoon presided over the business session. Members and guests answered roll call by giving reasons for personal happiness.

The roll call question was, "Why do you smile?" Mrs. Mildred Neeley, Secretary, read extensive correspondence received by the Club during the summer months. The group voted to help effect improvements in Muleshoe City Park, with Mrs. Rufus Gilbreath in charge of the club's efforts toward this important project. Mrs. John Agee announced immediate plans for the September and October meetings, the second and fourth Thursdays of each month.

Hawaiian Luau Big Success

The Hawaii Luau, given by the ESA members, turned out to be big success. There were approximately 125 people to attend the Luau to eat and have a good time.

There was a raffle held during the dance and tickets were sold for $1.00 for a $25.00 savings bond, donated by Tri-County, $50.00 savings bond, donated by Muleshoe State, and another $50.00 savings bond donated by First National. Judy Wilbanks won the $25.00 savings bond, Clarence Christian won the $50. savings bond from Muleshoe State and Orval Fish won the $50. savings bond from First National. Orval Fish is from Tucumcari, N.M. and last week Bob Wilson of Muleshoe carried enough gas to Tucumcari for the Fish to be able to make it to the Luau. All the gas stations in Tucumcari were closed because of shortage. It made the trip worth while for Orval Fish.

There was an estimate of $177.00 made on the raffle. Kenneth Hanks won a grass skirt modeled by Annette Caswell.

Ester-Dorcas Circle Meets

The Ester-Dorcas Circle of the United Methodist Women met in the home of Mrs. Jewell Anderson Tuesday morning at 9:30.

The meeting was opened by the Circle Chairman, Mrs. Robert Hooten, reading selections for inspirational meditation.

During the business session plans were discussed for the all church bazaar to be held November 9. Visitation of the ill and the lonely in our community was emphasized.

Mrs. Oscar Allison introduced and gave excerpts from the new fall study book "The Healing Fountain" by Betty Thompson. This book is a compilation of contemporary writings of Christian leaders. Members of the circle were requested to contribute their favorite selections on Faith, Hope and Love for the next meeting. Mrs. Lewis Shaffer will be the lesson leader.

Members were informed that four new books had been added to their book club shelf. The enthusiasm of the members prevent the books from lingering on the shelf. New books added are "Saints and Swingers" by W.P. Barker, "The Sermon On The Mount" by Charlene Jordan, "Why Be A Christian?" by Rosemary Houghton, "A Time for Love" by Eugene C. Kennedy.

Mrs. Fred Payne read the Desiderata as a closing devotional and Mrs. Hooten lead the group in prayer.

Members attending were Mrs. C.B. Melton, Mrs. J.E. McVicker, Mrs. Robert Hooten, Mrs. Gred Payne, Mrs. Lewis Shaffer, Mrs. J.E. Nickels, Mrs. Oscar Allison, Mrs. Matilda Slemmons, and the Hostess, Mrs. Jewell Anderson.

Hospital Auxiliary

The Muleshoe Hospital and Nursing Home Auxiliary met recently for a business session, to begin a new year of work. They met in the dining room of the Nursing Home with 10 members present. Mrs. J.E. McVicker is President of the Auxiliary, and she presided over the meeting. Mrs. Dorothy Green gave a report on the progress of the Auxiliary's project, "The Thrift Shop" which is open every Sat. in the old Green Memorial Hospital building. She expressed thanks to all the fine people in the area who are interested in the Nursing Home and the Auxiliary's efforts to purchase some equipment for the Home. People have been very responsive to our cause, she said, and have brought us a good supply of used clothing, dishes, furniture, etc. Without this help, the Thrift Shop could not operate. She stated that we are accepting items every Sat. at the Shop, and appreciate everything that is donated. With the money made, so far, a Bennett machine has been paid for, and two new Transportation chairs added to the Nursing Home.

Mrs. Gene McGlaun reported that baby pictures are still being taken in the hospital nursery, and a new folder purchased to put them in, giving them a more professional look. The Auxiliary has realized a nice profit from this project.

Mrs. T.R. White was appointed Sunshine Chairman, and will be responsible for sending cards, notes and flowers to the sick and bereaved.

The group voted to purchase a small set of scales for the hospital. Mrs. White volunteered to make that purchase.

Several members will be planning to attend the TAHA Area meeting, September 21, in Amarillo. The meeting will be held in the Medical Center and will be hosted by the auxiliaries of the High Plains Baptist Hospital, St. Anthony's, and Northwest Texas Hospital. Attending from Muleshoe will be Mrs. Dorothy Green, Mrs. Haney Poyner, Mrs. Herb Rammage, and Mrs. J.E. McVicker.

Mrs. Herb Rammage was appointed Chairman of "Project: Christmas Card". This will be the fourth year that the Auxiliary have sponsored this project. They will ask the people of this area to donate to the Auxiliary what they would ordinarily spend on Christmas cards and stamps, and the Sunday before Christmas, a large page ad will be published in the Muleshoe Journal with all these names wishing their friends and neighbors a "Merry Christmas". This has been a very successful project and one the people of Muleshoe seem to appreciate. Any Aux. member may be contacted about these "cards".

Mrs. McVicker stated that the Auxiliary needs new members who are interested in giving some of their time to the various services performed in both the hospital and the Nursing Home.

Homemakers LOUISA'S LETTER

The Lazbuddie Young Homemakers met September 8. New officers were elected for the coming year and installed by the advisor, Mrs. Robert Gallman.

Officers elected were President, Mrs. Jimmie Dale Seaton; vice-president, Mrs. Elaine McNeil, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Darrell Mason.

The members at the meeting decided to have less money making projects and instead to strive towards more programs and fellowship with each other.

Members who attended the first meeting were Mrs. Robert Gallman, club advisor; Mrs. Harrol Redwine, Mrs. Kenneth McGee and Mrs. Carrol Redwine.

President, Mrs. Jimmie Dale Seaton said, "Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Lazbuddie Young Homemakers Club is urged to attend our next meeting October 4 at 3:30 in the Lazbuddie Home Economics Department of the Lazbuddie School."

Dear Louisa,

I started going with this boy when we were freshmen in high school and now he is going off to college. What do you do when you have been going steady with someone for four years and now you are beginning to get tired of the situation and would like a change. There are so many things to consider. One is that I might be sorry and miss him so much and couldn't get him back. Another is he might be so hurt or mad with me that he would say he had got tired of me and say ugly things about me. But on the other hand he may be feeling the same way that I do but feels that he is bound just as I do. What would you do in a situation such as this?

Dorothy--Wis.

Answer:

The bloom seems to fade on long engagements when they begin with teenagers and many people make the mistake of marrying someone they have out grown or someone they have really ceased to love as a mate should be loved.

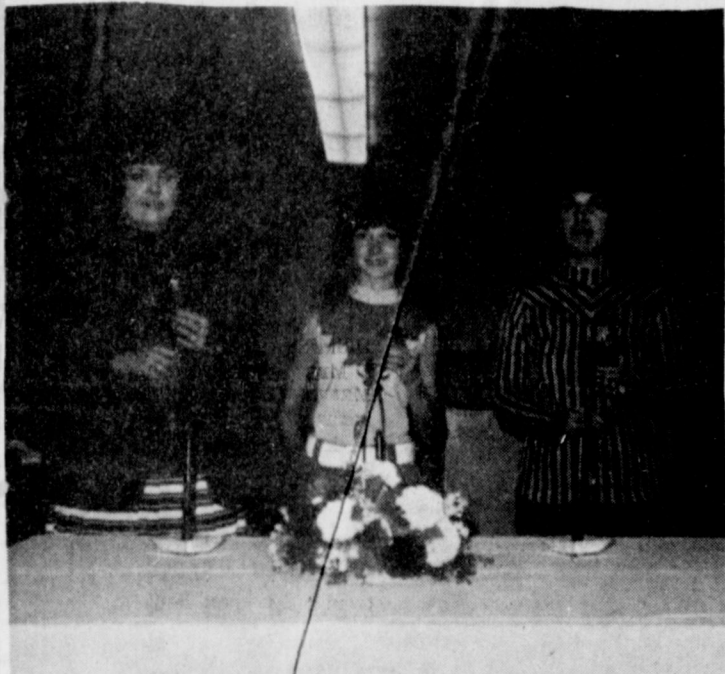

If I were in your place I would have a heart to heart talk with the young man and suggest that both of you take a "leave of absence" from each other for a few months and, if at the end of that period, you feel that you wish to resume going steady you can do so. It is better to hurt a little bit before the knot is tied than a lot later on.

Louisa.

1974 Chevrolet A better-than-ever way.

When the wheel belongs to you, the road goes anywhere you say. And it's so much better with a '74 Chevrolet.

Caprice Classic. Introducing an elegant motor car, just asking to be enjoyed. Outside: an imposing new grille, and on the Caprice, a distinctive new roof line. Inside: peace, quiet and convenience. With standard power steering to do most of the turning, standard power front disc brakes to do most of the stopping, and a standard Turbo Hydra-matic transmission to do the shifting. If you want the luxury and comfort of a car that leaves little else for you to do but enjoy the ride, you don't have to look beyond the '74 Caprice Classic. However, the freedom of the open road begins with the freedom of choice:

Vega GT. This year's version of last year's Motor Trend Economy Car of the Year. (And Car and Driver Readers' Choice as Best Economy Sedan for the last three years.) With a reshaped nose, bigger bumpers, nicer carpeting, new stripes and new colors. Plus more good things to make it better. See what it's like to drive a winner.

Camaro. The way it looks is the way it goes. Quick, sleek and nimble. With a low, wide stance, responsive steering. And comfort that's rare in a car that handles so well. Plus classic new styling, and plushness from the cut-pile carpeting up.

Malibu Classic. A luxury Chevelle, new this year. With full foam seats, a fold-down front armrest. Wood-grained vinyl accents. Elegant inner door panels. Extremely tasteful upholstery and cut-pile nylon carpeting.

That's just inside. The exterior is just as classic, in character and in detail, as the interior. Yet, it remains mid-size. And, it remains all Chevelle. With Chevelle handling and at a Chevelle price. Now that you've looked, come and see the new Malibu Classic--and all the 1974 Chevrolets. The ones shown here, plus Impala, Monte Carlo, Nova, Corvette, pickups, vans and all our new cars and trucks.

Mustang II, Will Debut Along With 1974 Fords This Week

Mustang II, the most changed car in the auto industry this year, will debut along with other new 1974 Ford cars and trucks at Muleshoe Motor Co. in Muleshoe, on Thursday and Friday, September 20 and 21. The Mustang II is a small, sporty and luxurious car that Ford expects to be the forerunner of a new class of cars. It is 19 inches shorter than the 1973 Mustang and seven inches shorter than the original Mustang introduced in April, 1964. "With the growth of the small car market, Mustang II seems to be coming at the right time," said Robert Hooten, owner of the dealership.

"It brings to the booming small car market the luxurious touches and smooth ride of much larger, more expensive cars," he said.

"Mustang II is a car for the Seventies. The gas mileage of its base engine is especially timely in these days of gas shortages, and the small size and handling make it an exceptionally maneuverable car," Mr. Hooten said.

Standard engine for Mustang II is Ford's new 2.3-liter (140 cubic-inch), four-cylinder overhead - cam powerplant, the first metric engine ever built in the United States. Optional is the 2.8-liter (171-cubic-inch), V-6 engine built by Ford of Germany. Mustang II will be the only U.S. car to offer V-6 performance in a small car.

Included as standard equipment on Mustang II are front bucket seats which provide exceptional lateral support, cut-pile carpeting for the floor and lower door, tachometer and full instrumentation, simulated burled walnut accents, European arm rests and door pulls, and full-width headrests.

Also standard are rack-and-pinion steering, front disc brakes, and a unique sub-frame that provides a big-car ride that helps isolate noise, vibration and harshness from the passenger compartment.

Mustang II offers 45 options, including a digital clock, sunroof, AM/FM multiplex radio and stereo tape, air conditioning, left and right-hand remote control mirrors and steel-belted radial-ply tires.

Among the other Ford car lines, Torino receives the biggest change with new front and rear bumpers, grille, taillights and new sheet metal in the rear. Also available on Torino are luxury interiors, a large 460-cubic-inch V-8 engine, sunroof, opera window on tow-door models, and fender skirts.

All Fords, Thunderbirds and Torinos, equipped with the 460- or 400-c.i.d. engines will feature solid state ignition. A new front seat occupant restraint/interlock system will be on all models to provide greater driver and passenger protection.

New options, refinements on light trucks and expanded heavy truck engine availability high-light Ford Division's truck lineup for 1974.

The pickup, new in 1973, has new features for added versatility. They include the 460-4V V-8 engine, optional for the first time in all pickup models, and the two-seat, four-door crew cab F-250 and F-350 available for the first time as a regular production item.

Ranchero has a new front end and new options for greater luxury and performance. The 1974 Bronco retains its 92-inch wheelbase and standard two-wheel/four-wheel-drive. A new engine option, the 300-IV Six, for the E-100 and E-200 Club Wagon and Van, high-light new Econoline features. The 1973 Courier, introduced in May, is carried over into 1974.

In heavy trucks, the NTC-350-horsepower diesel is newly available for the W-9000 and LT-9000 trucks. The V-555 medium-duty 210-h.p. diesel is optional for all 8000-series trucks beginning October.

Ford's C-6 automatic transmission is a new option on the C-600 medium truck.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. --New legislative sub-committee investigations of the amusement and ending machine industry have been ordered amid sensational and disputed allegations resulting from a 1968 probe. Speaker Price Daniel Jr. named Rep. Arthur (Buddy) Temple of Diboll to head a House Consumer Affairs sub-panel inquiry into juke box operations and needed legislation in the field.

The sub-committee was instructed to work jointly with Senate group headed by Sen. Clower of Garland. Clower said his sub-committee will look into allegations the industry is linked to organized crime and that the regulatory Amusement Machine Commission is dominated by operators who do not protect customers.

Daniel said the air should be cleared of speculation, controversy and innuendo which have surrounded operation of the industry for years.

Meanwhile, Daniel unveiled some of the previously-secret records of a 1968 House investigation. Most controversial was a tape recording of testimony by Pete Martinez of Austin that he gave money to a state representative, a state senator (who is now dead) and a judge, on behalf of Raymond B. Williams of Dallas, a major amusement machine owner who previously served on the regulatory commission.

Williams has denied Martinez's testimony. Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir said Martinez, now serving a probated sentence for burglary, failed to satisfy a lie detector test that he was telling the truth and that he refused to repeat his charges to a district attorney or grand jury.

AID FOR RUNAWAYS--An experimental hot line for runaway youths to send word to their families is being installed through leadership of Gov. Dolph Briscoe and with cooperation of the telephone company and its employees. Briscoe announced the facility, which he termed "Operation Peace-of-Mind," will be manned by volunteers for 30 days. The initial Houston office will have two statewide inbound Wide Area Telephone Service (WATS) lines, one national WATS line and three local lines in the city.

The Governor said the network will transmit messages from the runaways to their parents and friends and is not intended to "in form" on them. Volunteers will also tell the youthful wanderers where they can receive assistance anywhere in the state.

Number of the state WATS line is 1-800-392-3352. The national WATS number is 1-800-231-6946.

SALES TAX BONDS REQUIRED--Businessmen delinquent in payment of sales taxes they collect from customers must post bonds ranging from $100 to $50,000 after January 1.

Failure to put up the required bond (based on volume of business) and pay delinquent taxes may result in court action to close a business.

Fred Russ, director of the State Comptroller's Tax Division, estimated $35 million in state and $7 million in local sales taxes are delinquent for the period which began in 1961. Much of this total is due to business failure.

Russ predicted $3 million to $4 million will be produced by the new bonding law from businessmen who are now delinquent.

Under the new law, a bond will be required of all new businesses for a two-year period. If there are no delinquencies, the requirement will be dropped. Discounts will be allowed for timely payments to the state of taxes collected and pre-payments.

BRISCOE LIKES IT HERE--Governor Briscoe says he likes his job and has given no thought to quitting after a single term.

While he said he is not ready to make a formal announcement, the Governor didn't leave much room for doubt that he will

INTEREST RATES AND HOUSING

We are facing a potentially serious situation in the housing industry nationwide, due primarily to a tighter money market and to the actions of some members of the Congress. Monetary policies of the past year or so have caused mounting pressures in financial markets and led to higher interest rates. And, recent efforts to extend the authority of the Federal Housing Administration have seen some members of the Senate at least temporarily successful in expanding the role of the FHA beyond its original intent.

This later provision would require the Department of Housing and Urban Development to compensate the owners of house that contained structural defects, which defects existed at the time of the FHA appraisal and should have been discovered by the FHA, but were not. While I think that the government should compensate homeowners for damages they suffered as a result of government action or inaction, I am opposed to this provision as it recently passed the Senate. As it is written, the provision would be funded out of the FHA insurance funds which would have a very serious adverse effect on the status of these funds.

At the present time, we again face the expiration of the FHA authority on October 1st. Both Houses of Congress passed a new FHA act before the August recess, and a compromise version was reported out of Conference Committee. The Congress should act soon on the conference report and send the bill to the President. The controversial section dealing with compensation for homeowners for structural defects placed on the Act by the Senate is in the final draft; therefore the bill will probably face a Presidential veto. In that event, the Congress will either have to override the veto or start over again on a new bill. Whatever occurs with this bill, I shall do all I can -- including introducing legislation -- to make certain the FHA authority does not lapse again.

Even after the FHA extension controversy is settled, we still face serious problems in the cost of mortgage money and the availability of such funds in the housing industry. These factors interplay with our general economic condition and one can easily raise more questions in this area than he can easily provide answers.

It is very distressing for me to see conventional mortgages with an interest rate approaching the 10 per cent category. For a new house costing about $30,000, which is really getting to be a rarity today, and with mortgage interest rates as high as they are, we're pricing more than half of the families of America out of the housing market. Even if they can scrape together a 20 to 25 per cent down payment, their incomes just aren't sufficient to enable them to make their monthly payments.

Unfortunately, there does not appear to be any relief in the mortgage interest rate situation in the immediate future. Most economists predict that the prime rate will remain at its present level or increase in the next few months. As long as the prime rate is in the area of 10 per cent or even higher, the mortgage market is one of the sectors of the economy that will be severely affected.

While I feel that it is possible to curb inflation without severely cutting production, as is now being attempted, as ranking members of the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee I have a definite concern regarding the availability of housing in our country. And the need is even more critical for those families with low and moderate incomes.

With the tight mortgage market of 1970 which caused a serious problem in the housing industry, we passed the emergency Home Finance Act to alleviate the situation. I am not saying that Congress will pass corrective legislation at this time, but any further reduction in the availability of mortgage funds at a reasonable cost might warrant Congressional action.

Rogers calls mid-east arms sales "stabilizing."

seek a second term in 1974. "I have enjoyed this job," said Briscoe. "I haven't thought about leaving."

While he was at it, Briscoe said he sees no reason to change his mind about not calling a special legislative session. He stated flatly he does not see one as needed for any purpose.

COLLEGE BOND REQUIREMENTS REVIEWED -- The Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System looked over proposed rules and regulations by which three Texas schools may issue tuition-backed bonds to construct new facilities.

Action is expected to be taken on the rules on tuition equalization grant procedures at a September 28 meeting in Dallas.

The 63rd Legislature authorized the University of Houston to issue up to $40 million in tuition bonds for its Clear Lake Campus, Texas A&M College of Marine Sciences and Maritime Resources and Pan American University, Edinburg, a maximum of $10 million.

Schools must provide estimates of enrollment, estimated gross tuition revenues and total cost of proposed construction projects.

AG OPINIONS -- Atty Gen. John Hill ruled state game and fish funds may be used to erect artificial reefs on submerged lands of continental shelf seaward of three marine league limits.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

An automatic, unmanned bank teller machine operating 24 hours a day seven days a week does not violate bank holiday laws.

Proposed plans for a Rapid Transit Authority must be furnished to the Governor's Interagency Transportation Council by the governing body of the principal city rather than by the authority governing body.

Funds contributed to an optional retirement fund by a college employee vest after one year of participation, regardless of whether the employee has been working for more than one institution. The employing college in such case has no right to obtain a refund of the state's matching portion.

APPOINTMENTS -- Mrs. Jess Hay of Dallas, Harold Herndon of San Antonio and Tony Bonilla of Corpus Christi were appointed by the Governor to the Coordinating Board. Reappointed were O.H. Elliott of Austin Dr. George V. Brindley Jr. of Temple and Fred Moore of Austin.

Jimmy Banks of Austin is new chief Texas representative of U. S. Sen. John Tower J. Doug Toole of Houston has been elevated to chairman of Texas Water Quality Board.

Joe La Mantia of McAllen, Edward Messick of San Antonio and Noell Rather of Dallas were placed on Texas Civil Air Patrol Commission.

New members of the Texas Commission of the Arts and Humanities are Mrs. Margaret Crow of Dallas, Mrs. Mary Moody Northen of Galveston, Mrs. Wesley West of Houston, Mrs. Laurel Dammier of Amarillo and Bill Burford of Dallas.

SHORT SNORTS
Agriculture Commissioner John C. White estimated major crop losses from tropical storm Delta at about $100 million.

Texas Water Quality Board approved pollution control and quality maintenance plans for San Antonio, Colorado, Gaudalupe and Sabine River basins. Governor Briscoe declined to comment on speculation he has considered a possible successor to State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert the 81-year-old official retire before 1974 elections.

A credit life insurance rate hearing has been rescheduled from September 13 to October 9.

Life is so arranged that the more you have, the more you want; that's what keeps man going.

stopped the conversion attempt.
They went to the locker room

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Farmcast

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture John C. White, Commissioner

An Even Dozen... Sheep Feeding Declines... Food and Fiber Pavilion Plans Nearing Completion.

An even dozen commodities are above parity for Texas agricultural producers, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

The commodities are wheat, corn, oats, potatoes, hogs, beef cattle, calves, sheep, turkeys, eggs and mohair.

The average wheat price in Texas is $4.24 compared with parity at $3.51 per bushel. Corn at $2.75 per bushel compares with parity of $2.36. Rice at $11 per hundredweight compares with $9.65 parity. Potatoes at $6.50 per hundredweight compares with $4.32 for parity.

All but one category of livestock is above parity, the single exception being lambs.

Hogs at $55.80 compares with parity at $37.10. Beef cattle averaged $56.30 per hundredweight; parity is $44.70. Calves at $68 per hundred average compares with parity at $54.20. Sheep at $19.40 per hundred compare with parity at $12.60. Lambs averaged $37.60, but this is $8.20 per hundred under parity.

Turkeys averaged 46 cents per pound with parity at 40.5 cents per pound. Eggs averaged 69.2 cents per dozen with parity at 64 cents. Mohair averaged $2.30 per pound with parity at $1.49 per pound.

Cotton prices to farmers averaged 34 cents per pound while parity was 66.05 cents per pound.

The all-farm products index of prices received by Texas farmers and ranchers is 20 per cent above the month of August and 61 per cent above a year ago. The livestock and livestock products index is 21 per cent above a month ago and 69 per cent higher than a year ago. The all-crops index is 18 per cent above a month ago and 50 per cent above a year ago.

And though farm prices go up, they also come down. During the period from August 15 to September 6, for example, prices had dropped 14 per cent.

Farm production costs also continue to rise. The index of prices paid by farmers is 19 per cent above a year ago.

DRYLOT sheep feeders with a capacity of 2,000 head or more had 117,000 sheep and lambs on feed for slaughter as of Sept. 1. This is seven per cent below the number on feed a month earlier and nine per cent below the number on feed a year ago.

Current intentions to market are: September 55,000; October 36,000; November 26,000. Placements during August totaled 54,000 head with a total of 10 feeders reporting 1,000 or more head on feed as of September 1.

PLANS for the Food and Fiber Pavilion of the Texas Department of Agriculture at the State Fair of Texas are nearly complete. Theme of the pavilion this year will be to show consumers how to get the most value for their food dollars.

This will be the fourth year that the Texas Department of Agriculture has had charge of the food and fiber pavilion. About one million persons annually have visited the pavilion since then.

A number of programs are planned to show consumers how to get the most for their food money including special emphasis on cost per serving. Special programs are also planned to highlight the natural fibers-cotton, wool and mohair.

Also on display will be features highlighting the top-quality in foods produced by Texas agricultural producers.
