Mail Overseas Holiday Packages Early

This year, as in the past, the Secretary of Defense and the Postmaster General jointly urge the public to mail Christmas packages early to members of the United States Armed Forces overseas.

For regular and air mail to most military post offices overseas, packages must not weigh more than 70 pounds or be more than 100 inches in length and girth combined.

Packages that weigh less than 15 pounds and are less than 60 inches in length and girth combined can be sent at ordinary postage rates and receive air transportation from the east or west coast on a space available basis.

For one dollar more than surface rates, packages can be parcel airlifted from the Post Office to overseas areas. Packages must weigh more than 30 pounds or be less than 60 inches in length and girth combined.

All packages should be wrapped and tied well. Print both mailing and return address clearly, and include the serviceman's identification number in the address. Perishable food items, and flammables (matches, lighter fluid, etc.) may not be mailed. Make sure that the APO or FPO numbers include all five digits.

It is recommended that you also include the mailing address and return address inside the package.

THREE WAY ROYALTY Pictured are the Three Way High School Homecoming Queen and Football Hero for 1973. Named this year were Cindy Hanna and Ronnie Richardson. They were crowned at the Three Way football game Friday night. Queen's attendants were Debbie Furgerson, Connie Richardson, and Shannon Sowder. Hero attendants were Mark Corkery, Lynn Carpenter and Terry Mullana.

Two Men Tie In Football Contest

The first tie in the weekly football contest was recorded this week when Kenneth Henry and Duane Lloyd tied for the top spot. Both entries just missed one game, Navy and Air Force, and both entries were off 21 points on the tiebreakers.

The two will split the money and points for first and second places giving each man eight points and four dollars.

Third place went to J.E. McVicker who missed two games, Miami and Houston and Air Force and Navy. He was off 18 points on the tiebreaker. He will win two dollars and four points.

Others just missing two games, but being further on the two tiebreakers were Mary Watkins, Clark McCamish, Hugh Young, Brad Baker, Dutch LaRue, Buck Wood, Millie May and Earl Richards.

W.E. English is still leading the contest with 20 big points. He has two first place wins. There are also several others who have 10 points and another first place win could put them right up there with English.

The winner of the contest will receive $50 cash and two tickets to the Cotton Bowl Game in Dallas on New Year's Day.

Price Of Cotton Up Over Previous Year

Western cotton markets were slowly becoming more active, according to the Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA. Although the bulk of current ginnings was being delivered against previously made commitments, larger supplies of "free" cotton were becoming available. Demand for most qualities of current ginnings was good. Supplies were not adequate to fill demand. In most locations, growers offered early ginned uncommitted cotton freely. Buyers were active bidders on most lots offered.

In central Arizona, mixed lots of mostly grade 31 staples 34 and 35 brought around 82.00 to 83.00 cents per pound.

Southeastern New Mexico growers sold a small volume of Acala cotton at 85.00 cents per pound, basis grade 31 staple 37, 3.5 to 4.9 mike.

Around Pecos, Texas a small volume was sold at 80.00 cents per pound, basis grade 41 staple 34, 3.5 to 4.9 mike.

In Austin, Texas mixed lots of grades 41, 32 and 42, staples 31, 32 and 33 brought around 65.00 to 70.00 cents per pound. At Dallas, mixed lots of grades 51, 42 and 52, staples 31 and 32 brought around 59.00 to 62.00 cents per pound.

Most early harvested lots in the Lubbock area brought 60.00 to 68.00 cents per pound.

Below grade lots in the Austin area brought up to 40.00 cents per pound.

Contracting of the 1974 crop

continued in most locations. Harvesting activities were rapidly increasing in the San Joaquin Valley of California and in Arizona. Harvesting operations were slowed or stopped by rain over much of Central and South Texas.

Some observers felt that it would be next week before harvesting was in the early stages.

Prices quoted for selected qualities, 3.5 to 4.0 mike, in the six Western Region spot markets are as follows:

Dallas, 58.75 cents per pound this week compared to 59.75 cents per pound last week with grade Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) and staple 31; Houston, 77.00 cents this week compared to 76.00 cents last week with grade Strict Low Middling (41) and staple 34; Lubbock, 64.25 cents compared with 64.25 last week, grade Strict Low Middling (41) and Staple 31; El Paso, 82.75 this week compared to 87.50 last week with grade Middling (31) and Staple

Spring Forward ... Fall Back

Central Standard Time will return this coming Sunday morning, October 28, at 2 a.m. Daylight Savings Time has been in effect since April.

Clocks will be set back one hour at 2 a.m., Sunday.

ALFALFA MILL DAMAGED Fire broke out in the Alfalfa Mill millhouse Monday night around 4 a.m. damaging the wood building structure. Fire Chief Earl Ladd stated that units of the Bailey County Fire Department were called out about 4 a.m. to the burning building. He stated that the cause of the fire was related to a bearing that went out the day before. The place was watched until about midnight that night but the fire caught in the top of the millhouse. Ladd said that no damage was done to the machinery inside the building. Firemen left the scene about 5:30 a.m.

TOP BOXER Loy Domiguez of Muleshoe will be one of several Muleshoe Golden Gloves boxers that will be fighting Saturday night, October 27, in the Muleshoe tournament. Domiguez fights in the 142 pound class and in his first fight scored a knock out over his opponent. In his second fight last Saturday night he won his fight against an opponent that had over 40 fights to his credit and was second in state competition in his class. Fight fans seem to think that Domiguez has the makings of a real fine boxer.

Wholesale Price Index

WASHINGTON -- The Wholesale Price Index for All Commodities declined 1.8 percent from August to September, before seasonal adjustment, it was announced by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor.

The downward movement was due to lower prices for farm products and processed foods and feeds.

The index for farm products and processed foods and feeds decreased 6.0 percent, principally because of price declines for animal feeds, livestock, grains, and meats.

Industrial commodities were up 0.5 percent.

Consumer finished goods, a selection of food and nonfood commodities similar to those in the commodity component of the Consumer Price Index, declined 0.7 percent.

Of the 15 major commodity groups measured by the Wholesale Price Index, 10 increased from August to September and five declined.

In September, the All Commodities WPI was 140.0 (1967-100), 16.6 percent above a year earlier; the industrial commodities index was 7.9 percent higher than in September 1972, and the farm products and processed foods and feeds index was up 39.4 percent over the same period.

On a seasonally adjusted basis, the All Commodities Wholesale Price Index decreased 1.5 percent in September.

Farm products and processed foods and feeds declined 5.2 percent, industrial commodities rose 0.7 percent, consumer finished goods were down 0.6 percent.

In the quarter that ended in September, the WPI rose at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 13.2 percent, following an increase of 23.4 percent in the quarter that ended in June and advances of 21.1 and 9.4 percent respectively in the two preceding quarters. The annual rate of increase for industrial commodities in the quarter ended in September was 4.5 after an increase of 14.9 percent in the previous quarter. The index for farm products and processed foods and feeds moved up at an annual rate of 35.9 percent in the quarter ended in September, after rising at a rate of 43.2 percent in the June quarter.

Both indexes for agriculture-related commodities (farm products and processed foods and feeds) declined substantially in September, following the unusually steep increases in August. A decrease of 6.0 percent for farm products principally reflected lower prices for livestock and corn; fresh and dried vegetables, live poultry, and eggs also declined. The most important increases were for raw cotton and fluid milk. The processed foods and feeds index also dropped 6.0 percent chiefly as a result of lower prices for manufactured animal feeds, meats, fats and oils, and processed poultry; cereal and bakery products and dairy products registered the most substantial increases.

Increases for fuels, textile products and apparel, metals, and lumber contributed about three-fourths of the rise for industrial commodities in September. The upward movement for fuels largely reflected price increases for crude petroleum, bituminous coal, and electric power. Cotton products and manmade fiber products contributed most to the increase for textile products and apparel. The more important increases for metals and metal products included iron and steel scrap, nonferrous metals, fabricated structural metal products, and hardware. Price increases for softwood lumber caused most of the upward movement for lumber and wood products; softwood plywood declined.

In the pulp and paper group, higher prices for wastepaper and converted paper and paperboard products were the principal influences. Machinery and equipment moved up at the same moderate rate as in August. Increases for industrial chemicals and inedible fats and oils pushed up the chemicals index. Rises for leather and footwear outweighed declines for cattlehides and footwear cut stock. Household and commercial furniture were higher. The principal increases among miscellaneous products were for sporting and athletic goods and small arms and ammunition.

During the program, the BAC will hold their annual Candy Sale. People buying lucky sacks of candy will win prizes donated by local merchants.

The BAC is expecting a large turnout for the program and also expect this to be one of the best shows ever presented by the BAC and one of the most enjoyable.

On the downside, a decline for motor vehicles brought the transportation group lower.

Crude natural rubber quotations dropped, depressing the rubber and plastic products index. Prices of some nonmetallic mineral products weakened in September.

Consumer finished goods declined 0.6 percent seasonally adjusted from August to September. Foods dropped 1.7 percent as prices for meats, eggs, fresh fruits and vegetables, and processed poultry declined. Consumer nonfood finished goods rose 9.2 percent over the month. Within this grouping, nondurable finished goods were up 0.2 percent as a result of moderate price increases for women's and misses' apparel and for both leather and rubber footwear. A net increase of 0.2 percent for consumer durables resulted from higher prices for household furniture and a smaller than seasonal drop in new car prices.

Producer finished goods advanced 0.3 percent in September as several types of machinery registered price boosts and motor truck prices increased contraseasonally. The index for processed (intermediate) materials, supplies, and components (excluding foods and feeds) rose 0.5 percent; textile products, lumber, electric power, copper and brass mill shapes, industrial chemicals, and leather posted the most important increases. Higher prices for crude petroleum, bituminous coal, and wastepaper were responsible for most of the 3.3 percent increase in the index for crude materials for further processing (excluding foods, feeds, and fibers).

Notre Dame, So. Cal. To Highlight Week

There's no doubt that one of the outstanding games of every college football season is the struggle between Notre Dame and Southern California. As usual, both teams are in our top twenty, but neither has shown the awesome power that was predicted in pre-season. The Trojans were tied early in the season by Oklahoma, but they were beaten in the statistics. The Irish are undefeated, but playing a schedule that hasn't been that demanding. For 9th-ranked Notre Dame and 10-rated Southern Cal, national prestige is at stake again. Our pick is Notre Dame by just two points.

Missouri goes right from one tough ball game to another. For that matter, everyone in the Big 8 Conference seems to have that kind of schedule this fall. Though they weren't upset by Oklahoma State as we thought they might be, they remained #6 in the nation. 17th ranked Colorado meets the Tiger this week as each game in the Big 8 has both conference and national importance. Missouri will win by 4 points. In the East, there's still just one power, and the Nittany Lions of Penn State are it. But, like Notre Dame, they are without a very strong schedule.

This week they play West Virginia, a team that started strong and has faded in recent weeks. Penn State, rated 5th, will beat the Mountaineers by 30 points. Alabama was the noisy survivor in its big clash with Tennessee last Saturday, and the third-ranked Tide takes on V.P.I. this week. Barring a let-down, Alabama should "survive" again, this time by 35 points.

It gets to be rather old hat in the Big Ten week after week as the two powers, Ohio State and Michigan, move methodically through their schedules toward their eventual championship clash on November 24th. The Buckeyes, still #2, are 37 points stronger than Northwestern, and the Wolverines, in 4th place, will win the annual battle of the Little Brown Jug, beating Minnesota by 27.

top independent this year along with Notre Dame and Penn State is Houston. The Cougars, ranked #12, are still undefeated and are looking for what could be another big win. Houston is favored over Auburn by ten points. Oklahoma and Arizona State will continue their power football. The top-ranked Sooners will beat Kansas State by 31 points, and the undefeated Sun Devils, our #11 national power, will whip Oregon State by 26 points.

The man who admits a foolish act now and then is to be trusted. The "wise guy" who is never wrong should be left alone.

Miss Teen Ager

The 1974 Miss National Teen Ager has been crowned. She is Betty Nightingale, representative of Maine. She was crowned at the National Finals held at the Atlanta Civic Center on September 1. Among the prizes she receives are a full scholarship to the Fashion Institute of America, a week's dream vacation at the prestigious Ocean Dunes Motor Inn for her and her parents, a 1973 Ford Pinto and an all expense paid jet sea cruise to the Holy Land and five countries.

Representing Texas at the National Finals were Charlotte Duggan, 14, of El Paso. Charlotte is the daughter of Major and Mrs. William Duggan. She received the title of Miss Texas Teen Ager at a pageant held on July 5, 6, and 7 at the St. Anthony Hotel in San Antonio. The contestants in the National Teen Ager Pageant are between the ages of 13 and 17 and are judged on the basis of scholastic achievements, civic contributions, poise, personality and appearance. Charlotte spent an activity filled week in Atlanta along with the representatives of the other 49 states and the District of Columbia.

Rights Carry Responsibilities

COLLEGE STATION --- Among the legal rights Texas 18-year-olds recently received is the right to sign legally binding contracts.

"Although this right received less publicity than some others, it seriously affects older teens," Mrs. Doris Myers, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, noted.

"Those in the 18-21 year-old age groups will face increased pressure to buy items on installment or time-payment plans.

"College seniors have long been subjected to strong sales pitches for pots and pans, silver, china, life insurance and other trappings of 'adult life.' Now the pressure shifts to underclassmen and high school seniors."

Before Aug. 27, when someone under 21 signed a contract to purchase an item, the contract wasn't legally enforceable, the specialist continued. "Now 18-year-olds will be held responsible as adults. "Married teenagers, on the other hand, have been considered adults--regardless of age--for some time in Texas."

Mrs. Myers advised young adults to think carefully before signing contracts for home furnishings, insurance, new or used cars, and items on installment plans.

Remember --rental leases also are binding, she added.

"Always read -- or understand -- a contract before signing it. Ask questions if any part isn't clear.

"It's extremely important to know the total cost of an item, including credit -- annual percentage rate and dollar cost.

"Also, determine penalty charges for late payments and whether repossession for non-payment is a possibility.

"Never sign a contract with blank spaces -- or one filled out in pencil," the specialist emphasized.

"Before signing any contract, consider how much money you have, as well as how much is spent for other things on a regular basis. Be sure some is left over for emergencies.

"In contracts -- as in voting and other majority-age privileges--legal rights carry responsibilities."

The families of the couple attended the wedding and the reception that followed in the home of the brides parents. A History Of Bailey County Pioneer Families

Pat R. Bobo

Pat R. Bobo came to Bailey County from Rhome, Texas June 9, 1927 by a 1927 Ford Coupe. He came here to practice law and held the office of county attorney.

He was a member of the Baptist Church, Masonic Lodge and Lions club.

Bobo and Inez Farrell were married February 6, 1932 in Muleshoe.

People in this area in the early days used to meet in the communities and hunt rabbits. They also had local baseball teams and played ball on Sunday.

"There was not much of the modern conveniences. There were many half dugouts in the rural areas. It was mostly cow country with lots of lakes." Said Pat Bobo, "There wasn't much to do in town except on Saturday when all the farm people came to town."

Most of the farming was done by mules. The main crop was feed. Not much cotton was grown. There wasn't a gin at Muleshoe, at one time there had been, but it had burned down.

All the farmers had cattle and raised most of their own food. The Gupton's had a grocery store. There were a couple of hotels, but very crude.

At Muleshoe Junior High Junior High Mules Defeat Dimmitt

by Mark Washington
The Junior High Mules defeated Dimmitt last week 24-20.
Dimmitt won the toss and elected to receive the kick. The Bobcats took the ball back to the 50. About three plays later Dimmitt scored on a 45 yard pass and made the two point conversion. The Mules came right back and Dean Northcutt scored from 10 yards out. The Mules were unsuccessful in making the two point conversion. The Mules took the lead early in the second quarter when David Gutierrez scored around right end from 15 yards out. The conversion attempt failed again. Late in the second quarter the Bobcats scored on a sweep to lead 14 to 12. The Mules received the kick in the second half and David Gutierrez scored on the first play from 65 yards out. The Mules kicked off and Dimmitt ran it back to retain their lead. Midway through the fourth quarter, Dean Northcutt scored from seven yards out to give the Mules a four point lead.

With three minutes remaining in the game, the Mules fumbled the ball; but, they got it back when Dimmitt couldn't make a first down. With a minute left the Mules fumbled the ball again; but, their defense held and the Mules got the ball back with nine seconds left on the clock. The Mules hung on to the ball and won the game 24 to 20.

So far in the season the Mules have three wins and three losses with three games left in the season. Be sure to back the Mules in their next game against Olton here at 5:00 Thursday.

Thursday, October 18, the Raiders and the Redskins played. These teams have met once before and tied 6 to 6.

The Redskins won the toss and chose to be on offense. The first play was a pass intercepted by Johnny Gutierrez. So the Raiders took over and couldn't get a drive started. They punted to the Redskins; but, they couldn't get one going either. This went on until the final seconds of the game and Keith Woodard intercepted a pass from Mark Harmon and gave the Redskins the ball with time for a couple of plays. The Raiders held them and the game ended in a 0 to 0 tie.

The Cowboys and the Dolphins played Friday, October 19. It was a good game and the only score came when Leslie White hit Wayne Ware in the end zone for the Cowboys. There were also two interceptions. One by Keith Hawkins and one by Timmy James. The game ended in a 6 to 0 win for the Cowboys. The Standings now are as follows:

Junior High B Team Beats Dimmitt

by Edwin Watson

In this weeks game against Dimmitt, the Mules B team received the opening kickoff. They were unsuccessful in scoring and Dimmitt got the ball. They were also unsuccessful in scoring. This is the way the game went until late in the second quarter when, with two remaining seconds in the half, a Dimmitt player ran 80 yards for a touchdown. The conversion failed and the Mules went to the locker room trailing 6 to 0.

In the second half the mules kicked to Dimmitt. They held the Bobcats and they had to punt. The Mules put up a good drive and with two 15 yard penalties against Dimmitt, the Mules scored two plays with a dive to Mike Silguero. The conversion failed and the score was tied 6 all. This was the score until late in the game when the Mules had a fourth down play 15 yards behind the line of scrimmage. On the play, with only two seconds remaining in the game, Mike Silguero got the pitch and threw a good pass to Billy James for the winning touchdown. Mike Silguero made the two point conversion and final score was 14 to 6 for the Mules. The high scorer was Mike Silguero with eight points. Congratulations for a great game.
