$152,133 Bid Let On Local Draw Project

Announcement was made last week for a $152,133 bid for construction of the first dam structure for the Soil Conservation Service's Running Water Draw Project. The announcement was made by Edward E. Thomas of Temple, state conservationist and F.F. Calhoun, chairman of the Hale County Soil and Water Conservation District.

Construction of the dam, the first of six in Texas and New Mexico is expected to begin in mid November at a site named Calfish Draw, near the town of Bovina. Co-sponsors of the RWD project are soil and water conservation districts along both the upper and lower watersheds of the draw, the cities of Plainview and Clovis and county commissioner's courts in counties adjacent to the draw, which winds downhill from Curry County Plainview.

The project has been approved under the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act, initially enacted by Congress in 1954, providing technical and financial help to local organizations in planning and carrying out flood abatement programs.

Soil and Water Conservation Districts participating in the draw project are Hale, Swisher, Lamb, Parmer and Castro. Plans call for dam structures to have a maximum capacity of 5,000 acre-feet of water. The lake will catch and hold rainfall, then slowly drain down the draw, preventing flooding.

Also the project will prevent soil erosion, along the watershed. Project engineer for the construction will be Ralph White, of the SCS Stephenville office.

Mrs. Damron Will Attend Arthritis Meet

Mrs. Sam Damron of Muleshoe will be attending the meeting of the board of directors of the West Texas Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation to be held Friday night and Saturday, November 9 and 10 at the Midland Country Club.

Two rheumatologists will speak on the latest in the treatment of arthritis and the rheumatic diseases at 1 p.m., Saturday, November 10, at the Midland Country Club.

Dr. Bruce Bartholomew, Associate Professor of Medicine, Texas Tech University School of Medicine, and Dr. J. Steven Strong, Rheumatologist from Tucson, Arizona, will speak following a luncheon to be held as a part of the Annual Meeting of the West Texas Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation. Anyone interested in hearing the doctors is welcome to attend the meeting. Mrs. Charles Linehan, Chapter Executive Director has announced. For those wishing to attend both the luncheon and the program, it is necessary to call the Chapter office, 684-5864, to make reservations. Those wishing to attend just the program at 1 p.m. do not need to make reservations. Mrs. Lineham said.

Dr. Strong will discuss the latest developments in the treatment of a volunteer fire department. Ordinance Creates Office Of Fire Chief

The Muleshoe City Council met in regular session Tuesday morning, November 6, at the city hall.

The council passed a Criminal Justice Resolution for Crime Scene Search Kits.

A report was heard on the widening of Highway 84 through Muleshoe. City manager Jim Rankin stated that the city would be out about $60,000 on the project.

Other phases of the proposed construction were also discussed by the council.

The city manager also reported on the fuel allocation crisis and stated the city's position in the crisis.

A report was heard on the proposed paving of the Country Club Addition to Muleshoe.

It will cost the city about $11,664.00 and letters will be sent to property owners in that area informing them of their costs.

An ordinance creating the office of Fire Chief was passed at the meeting. The Fire Chief has always been appointed by the City Council in the past, but there was never an ordinance passed on the subject.

The ordinance states "such office shall be independent of other City departments, the Fire Chief reporting directly to the City Manager. Such office shall be filled by appointment by the City Manager, by and with the consent of the City Council, such appointment being based solely upon the professional and administrative qualification of said appointee. He may be removed from office by the City Manager with the consent of the City Council.

"The Fire Chief shall be responsible for the recruitment and training of all volunteer firemen and shall have the authority to promulgate and enforce rules and procedures necessary for the proper operation of a volunteer fire department. "This ordinance shall be held and construed to be cumulative of all other ordinances of the City of Muleshoe except in those instances where the provisions of this ordinance are in conflict with the provisions of Ordinances here to fore passed, and all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance Cont. on Page 3, col. 4

WTCC Sends Telegrams On Fuel Shortage

Telegrams to the West Texas Congressional Delegation and state officials by Emil C. Rassman, President of West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and James P. Rogers, Chairman of the WTCC Agriculture and Ranching Committee, West Texas Chamber of Commerce is asking for immediate action in a change of regulations for fuel allocations to West Texas farmers.

Because of the present provisions of the Federal program for farm fuel allocation, West Texas farmers are facing a large loss in food and fiber production.

West Texas farmers faced a problem last November when most West Texas fields were too wet to get harvest equipment into the fields, and fuel consumption was unusually small. The 1973 monthly allocation

TRAIN, TRUCK COLLIDE . . . A truck driver narrowly escaped injury late Monday afternoon when his semi-truck was in collision with a west bound freight train at the railroad crossing behind Weidubush and Company. The train apparently struck the trailer which was loaded with grain. It took some time to clean up the spilled grain before traffic was allowed through the crossing. The truck driver was not injured.

Mahon Speaks Out On Fuel Allocations

Jim Rankin, Muleshoe City Manager, informed the Journal this week that he had received a response to a letter written by Mayor Alex Williams to Congressman George Mahon regarding the critical fuel shortage.

Mahon reported that he has been getting many calls regarding the shortage from farmers, ginners and others who are reporting on the serious situation which is threatening to hamper the cotton harvest.

Mahon stated that the Mandatory Allocation Program for fuel was launched before the proper mechanism had been set up to make the program workable, and that necessary forms are not available to farmers and fuel distributors.

Mahon said he had received calls from throughout this area from Hereford to Lubbock to Lamesa for help.

He has made the fact known to Governor John Love, energy advisor to the President, and urged that emergency action be taken at once to authorize fuel distributors to proceed on an emergency basis to let farmers and ginners and other involved in the crop harvest have necessary petroleum supplies to proceed with the harvest.

In connection with the fuel crisis, Mahon has talked over the telephone with Albert Sweeney, (Field Office - Office of Oil-Gas, Federal Center, Denton, Texas 76201; phone 817-387-5811), urging his best efforts. He has also been in touch with the director of the Office of Oil-Gas in Houston, (Office of Oil-Gas, Region VI, 2320 LaBranch Avenue, Room 2104, Houston, Texas 77004; 713/226-5487).

Mahon stated that if emergency action is not taken quickly a chaotic situation will develop.

He has discussed the situation with Mel Laird, Counselor to the President for Domestic Affairs, who has promised to

Area Cotton Harvest Increases, Price Drop

Cotton harvest operations are increasing daily on the South Plains, according to Paul R. Dickson, in charge of the U.S. D.A. Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock. This increase is reflected in the increasing number of cotton samples being received at the area U.S.D.A. Cotton Classing Offices at Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa and Levelland.

Samples from 74,000 bales were classed at the four offices during the week ending Friday, November 2nd. This brought the total classed for the season to 96,000. This is far ahead of the pace of last year's crop. At this time last year samples from only 1,200 bales had been classed.

Quality of the cotton harvest continued excellent and is considerably higher than last year.

Grades 31 and 41 continued to be the predominant grades at Lubbock, making up 70 percent of all classed. Grade 31 made up 32 percent, Grade 41, 38 percent and Grade 32, 11 percent.

Staples were predominantly 30 to 32. Twenty-five percent had a staple length of 30, 21 percent stapled 31 and 15 percent was 32.

Micronaire readings continued excellent. These readings indicate that most of the early

Children Of Migrant Workers To Benefit From Federal Grant

A federal grant of $16,078,330 to aid in education of 76,000 children of migrant workers in 46 Texas counties has been awarded the Texas State Education Agency, it was announced today in Dallas by H.D. McMahan, regional director for the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The program will serve students in Atascosa, Bailey, Bee, Bexar, Caldwell, Cameron, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Dimmit, Duval, Ellis, Floyd, Frio, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Hale, Hays, Hidalgo, Hockley, Jim Wells, La Salle, Lamb, Lampasas, Lubbock, Lynn, Maverick, Midland, Nueces, Oldham, San Patricio, San Saba, Starr, Swisher, Terry, Travis, Uvalde, Val Verde, Victoria, Webb, Wharton, Willacy, Williamson, Zapata, and Zavala counties, according to McMahan. With this grant, the State Education Agency will offer a comprehensive education program for migrant students during both the regular and summer terms.

The program will provide instruction in communication skills, math, social studies and other academic areas using methods especially adapted to the needs of migrant students who must move often during the school year. Transportation, regular meals, and medical and dental care will also be made available under the projects, using existing community resources wherever possible. In all projects, a concentrated effort to improve the child's opinion of himself and his capacity for success in school and in life will be pursued through classes exploring his cultural background and heritage, McMahan said.

Special training will be carried out to prepare teachers and other staff members to meet the particular educational needs of migrant children. The Migrant Student Record Transfer System, a computerized, nationwide information system which has been operational for more than a year, will make it possible for the students' health and school records to follow them from school-to-school in a matter of hours.

Nationwide, the program last year served 325,000 children at a cost of $72 million.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes out this week in defense of jackrabbits, of all things.

Putting two blades on one side of a razor, while it took its time like any turtle would and came up with two blades on both sides, thereby winning the race.

Dear editor: I have been concerned about the bad image some people in this country have been giving lately to jackrabbits.

Since neither jackrabbits nor turtles drive cars or shave, this evidence probably would be thrown out of any court, if the judge gave a definitive decision, which is beside the point. What I'm saying is that these commercials are holding jackrabbits up to public contempt and it's unfair.

And I don't understand why the environmentalists haven't leaped to the jackrabbit's defense, for you can be sure that when a species or a man loses his good image each is endangered, as too many people in Washington can now testify.

Jackrabbit starts, while they no doubt are bad in cars, are life-savers with rabbits. Who's to say turtles wouldn't stay out of soup longer if they could manage jackrabbit starts? Or that jackrabbits' lives wouldn't be shortened if they could make only turtle-starts?

Here's the situation: I have noticed that some television commercials are using the jackrabbit as a bad example. A gasoline company for instance says if you take off too fast in your car when a stop-light turns green you're making a "jackrabbit start" and wasting gas.

Those commercials ought to leave jackrabbits out and refer simply to quick starts and slow starts. To do otherwise is species-ism which, like racism, has no place in the world if all living things are to dwell on this earth in harmony.

It shows a live jackrabbit in the act racing a turtle, with the rabbit running out of fuel and holed up exhausted while the turtle wins and has enough money left over to feed its family. A razor blade company says its competitor got off to a jackrabbit start in

I've got to add though that I do not include rattlesnakes and brown spiders in this list. They'll put a man in the hospital. Yours faithfully, J.A.

There's Still Time... Texas Egg Production Cracks... Hog, Pig Population Increases... Not So Sweet.

Hogs and pigs on Texas farms as of Sept. 1 are estimated at 1,100,000 head by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. This is an increase of 15 per cent from the June 1 estimate.

Farrowing intentions for Texas for September-November are 56,000 head, six per cent above the same months last year. Intentions to farrow in December of this year, January, and February, 1974 are eight per cent above the same quarter a year earlier.

Nationwide, hogs and pigs on farms in the 10 corn belt states are estimated at slightly above a year ago. Hogs for breeding are up one per cent while market hogs are up only slightly from a year ago.

Hog producers in the 10 corn belt states currently intend to hold farrowings at almost the same levels as a year ago for the next six months.

HONEY is not so sweet in Texas this year as far as production goes. Even though production is down, the crop is sweet. But production is down 32 per cent in Texas from a year ago. Commercial apiaries had 81,000 colonies this year, the same as last year. But the average yield is expected to be 65 pounds per colony compared with 92 pounds in 1972.

Colony condition is poor this year due to late freezes and excessive rains in eastern parts of the state.

Nationwide, honey production is about three per cent less than the commercial production in 1972. Yield per colony is expected to average 74 pounds, up slightly from 1972.

EGG production in Texas during August is reported at nine per cent below a year ago and five per cent under last month.

Nationwide, egg production is down six per cent from the past year.

Texas layer numbers totaled 11,000,000 during August, which is four per cent below a year ago.

Texas eggs laid daily per 100 hens averaged 57.8 during August, down from a year ago and last month.

THERE'S still time to visit the Food and Fiber Pavilion at the State Fair of Texas. The pavilion is under the supervision of the marketing division of the Texas Department of Agriculture.

When you visit it, be sure and get copies of two pamphlets on how to get the most from your food dollar. One is titled "Texas Round-up of Low Cost Menus." The other is titled "Economic Texas Vegetable Recipes."

Theme of the Pavilion this year is how to get the most from your food dollar.

This is the fourth year the Texas Department of Agriculture has had charge of the Pavilion. Nearly one million people annually have visited it during the past three years. More than a million visitors are expected this year.

TEXAS ranked third in the nation in fiscal 1973 in value of agricultural exports with almost $800,000,000 worth of sales. Illinois was first and Iowa was second.

Total export value of agricultural products reached $12,900,000,000. Exports continue to be an integral part of Texas agriculture since the state is the nation's leading producer of cotton and grain sorghum.

LIVESTOCK producers are reminded to continue to submit samples of suspected screwworms to the fly laboratory at Mission. The Fall season is at hand, and screwworms increase infestations now until cold weather

Cotton Industry Gearing Up To Eradicate The BollWeevil

WASHINGTON, D.C.-----
(Special) -- The cotton industry is gearing up to eradicate the boll weevil, in cooperation with government and private interests, and has pledged its support in carrying out provisions of the 1973 farm law authorizing the pest eradication effort, a Congressional panel was told here Tuesday (Nov.
6).

Robert R. Coker, a cotton producer of Hartsville, S.C., and Chairman of the National Cotton Council's committee on boll weevil eradication, testified before the Cotton Subcommittee of the House Commi-
tee on Agriculture, Rep. B.F.

the subcommittee.

Progress Now Being Made To Standardize Cotton Contracts

Progress is being made in an effort to standardize, insofar as possible, the basic provisions of cotton contracts for 1974 and future years. But it is generally agreed that this will not solve the contracting problem of most concern to cotton producers -- the problem of contract performance.

The Texas Cotton Association, the American Cotton Shippers Association and a committee of the National Cotton Council all are working toward a standard contract. Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and a member of the NCC committee, stated recently that "This is something we need as an aid
in promoting better understanding of each party's contractual

It is also noteworthy that the ing hearings to determine if buyer licensing or other means ducers against loss in the event buyers default on contracts. But

Harmon's Forecast

Because of the letters and questions we receive each fall
about our method of rating football teams, we would like to take time to explain again that in the Harmon system a team's rating is based on its power quotient, not on games won and lost. In other words, it's simplily the average of its past performance against all opposition.
Each of the more than 640
football teams that we follow receives an adjusted rating
each week, which explains why L.S.U., for example, can be 10th one week, 14th, the next, etc., although a team remains undefeated, its power
quotient fluctuates from week
to week.

And - the teams in our Top 20 (Top 16 this week) are not all of the major undefeated teams. Week-to-week performance and calibre of competition can prevent some from establishing a strong enough power quotient. Miami of Ohio is an example.

Also, as in the case of Colorado, a team can be a three-time loser and still be ranked in our elite group. The Buffaloes' losses have all been to teams in our Top 20. . . L.S.U., Oklahoma, and Nebraska. Based on their power quotient, they would still rate as a favorite against 85% of the major teams in the country.

control efforts create other insect problems by eliminating beneficial insects, which in turn allows other harmful pests to multiply unchecked. Bulldozers of bollworms, for example, force farmers to apply additional chemicals.

The weevil is now prevalent
in all Cotton Belt states from Texas east, and is a constant threat to the irrigated West.
"By 1958, direct costs of the weevil to the cotton industry had surpassed 12 billion dollars and the problem was getting worse. What is not generally known, however, is that over the span of years from 1896 to 1958, federal research expenditures on the insect totaled less than five million dollars," Mr. Coker said.

In 1958, the cotton industry and government launched an intensive research program to find a solution. Since then, over 21 million dollars has been spent on eradication research by government, producers, and other segments of the cotton

Medical Costs Soar 66% In Five Years

AUSTIN -- Most Texans are aware that medical costs are soaring, up 66 per cent in the last five years alone.

Despite insurance to protect against the financial burdens of illness, consumers pay more than a third of all medical expenses out of their pockets.
Little relief can be expected under our existing system
of delivering medical services.
The system has been described as "20th century technology shackled to a 19th century delivery process."

industry.
He and Mr. Smith outlined the cotton industry's work on a systematic weevil eradication
program and said its recommendations would be submitted to USDA.
"Out of all this, we would hope that the USDA could announce early next year a final plan to carry out the provision in the new law," Mr.
Smith told subcommittee members.

Medical Costs Soar 66% In Five Years

He said also that a successful eradication campaign against the boll weevil would contribute valuable knowledge and practical methods that could be adapted for use against other crop pests, such as the pink bollworm, which inflicts
heavy damage to cotton in Arizona and southern California.

dern business principles, HMOs provide more comprehensive medical care for less money.
At the state level of government, we must seek solutions to rising medical costs, shortages and maldistribution of health facilities, and inefficient use of manpower. We cannot wait for the federal government to solve this problem.
Experience in other states
has shown that HMOs provide improved health care more efficiently than our present system.
A bill authorizing Health Maintenance Organizations in Texas was defeated in the last session of the Legislature. The State Board of Insurance, under the leadership of Chairman Joe Christie, is now studying whether under other legislation, the Board has the authority to approve HMOs.

Painting Donated To Harvest Bazaar

A beautiful hand painted picture will be auctioned off, Friday, November 9, when the United Methodist Church women will host the Harvest Bazaar '73. Mrs. Webb Watts has very graciously donated one of her lovely paintings to be used to benefit the Bazaar project. The large painting will be on display all day, Friday, in the Fellowship Hall of the Church during the Bazaar activities. Those interested may place their bid on a slip of paper, along with their name and the time of registration. Then at the appropriate time, the painting will be sold to the highest bidder.

Olene Watts began painting several years ago, for her own enjoyment. She has not been in good health and found that her painting was also good therapy. Mrs. Watts has studied in a workshop under the direction of Dr. Emilio Cabalero and Connie Martin. She has also studied with Elizabeth Black and Dana Arnold. She is a resident of Muleshoe and a long time member of the First United Methodist Church. The Bazaar committee are very pleased to have her lovely painting to help them in their fund-raising project, Harvest Bazaar '73.

Happiness is in part the conclusion that you can't remake people or the world.

Mrs. Charles Lewis Speaks To A.A.U.W.

Mrs. Charles Lewis led the discussion group for the Muleshoe Branch of A.A.U.W., Monday, November 5, at the Mary DeShazo Library.

The program topic for the Branch is "Dynamic Learning: Releasing Human Potential", so the members chose to study the book "I'm O.K.-You're O.K." by Thomas A. Harris, M.D.

Mrs. Frank Ellis oriented the group in the study at the October meeting and Mrs. Lewis continued the discussion in the four life positions (1) 'I'm Not O.K. - You're O.K. (The anxious dependency of the immature) (2) 'I'm Not O.K. - You're Not O.K. (the "give-up" or despair position) (3) 'I'm O.K.-You're Not O.K. (the criminal position) (4) 'I'm O.K. -You're O.K. (the response of the mature adult, at peace with himself and others.) Mrs. Lewis reviewed the three active elements in each person's make up: "The Parent, the Adult and the Child." The parent personifies the "don'ts" and a few "do's" implanted in one's earliest years. The Child represents spontaneous emotion. Both Parent and Child must be kept in proper relation to the Adult, whose function is that of a reality computer that grinds out decisions based on the data derived from experience.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, TEX. -- Over 200 leaders of industry and representatives of professions met in the capitol last week to review the new state laws governing campaign contributions, expenditures and lobbying.

Secretary of State Mark White and Attorney General John Hill discussed the major legal changes brought about by the "reform" legislation of the last Texas legislature.

"We are living in a period of legal transition," the Attorney General told the business and professional men and women. "My office has produced over 200 opinions so far this year -- more than the total last year -- and over 100 opinions are stacked up to be prepared."

White outlined his recent "campaign contributions and expenditures directives" at the meeting sponsored by the Texas Society of Association Executives.

Other speakers reviewed the details of the new lobby law and the sections of the penal code which affect campaigns and lobbying.

"H.B. 2 -- the new lobby law -- is unconstitutional," stated Frank Maloney, Austin attorney. "It violates both the first and fifth amendments to the constitution." He cited federal cases which supported his opinion on the new Texas lobby law, and other speakers pointed out that several AG opinions are needed in this state to clarify sections of the campaign expenditures law and lobby law.

Political action committees for state businesses and associations are being formed as a result of the new laws. Labor unions must go the PAC route in Texas now also, because they are prohibited under the new law from contributing to political campaigns.

Speakers on the program indicated that the Sharpstown scandal and Watergate investigations are going to make office holders, candidates and those who work and contribute to campaigns very wary about future political activities in this state.

"Until we get more information from the Secretary of State's office, and additional Attorney General's opinions, most representatives of business, professionals, labor and industry are going to be very cautious about participating in political campaigns and contributing to campaigns," one spokesman for the group said. "None of us wants to be the first 'test case' under these new laws," he concluded.

Others observed that it was going to be harder to get good people to run for public office because of the tough new laws, and predicted the strict campaign laws would make it easier for incumbents to remain in present offices.

Both Jack R. Martin, Houston, president of TSAE, and Gene N. Fondren, chairman of the TSAE Government Relations Committee, outlined the need for future briefings for state business and industry leaders on the new laws governing the mechanics of "Texas politics."

ATTENDS CONFERENCE . . . Governor Dolph Briscoe (Right) confers with Congressman Bob Poage at the recent Governor's Conference on Rural Development. This conference, held in Austin, Texas, drew 2,000 rural and urban leaders from every county in Texas. Congressman Poage, author of the National Rural Development Act of 1972, has been a leader in the development of rural areas for more than half a century. Governor Briscoe pledged to the leaders attending the conference that every effort possible would be made to create a favorable rural urban balance of growth so as to help make Texas an even better place to live.

as a guide at the convention. He again predicted delegates can complete their work in 90 days. The convention, said Daniel, is "the best prepared over to assemble in the history of our nation."

Nobody claimed the new document perfect. "It is not a purely 'pure' constitution of fundamental principles, but neither is it a purely 'political' constitution," Commission Chairman Robert W. Calvert said. "But we assert with the utmost confidence that, if the convention will use this document as a basis from which to work it will find far more areas of agreement than of disagreement; and it will find also that our work has minimized its labors."

The convention's final work will go to voters for their approval or rejection. APPOINTMENTS -- Gov. Dolph Briscoe appointed Ben F. McDonald, former mayor of Corpus Christi, executive director of the Texas Department of Community Affairs.

Briscoe appointed Judge Paul G. Peurifoy of Dallas as presiding judge of the first administrative judicial district, Dallas. He named O.V. Mullins of Henderson to the board of managers of the Texas State Railroad, succeeding E.M. Decker Jr. of Jacksonville.

Frank B. Farrell of Dallas and Edwin H. Baleshke of Houston were selected for State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers appointments.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby picked as his emergency interim successors (in case of disability due to enemy attack) Steven C. Oaks and Dr. June Hyer of Houston and Don Rives of Marshall.

Named to the board of regents of Texas State Technical Institute were Tom Patterson of Amarillo, O. Dale Seastruck of Irving and Lance Sears of Sweetwater.

John Tower
United States Senate
COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

The crisis syndrome which has gripped Washington for these past weeks could in itself create another far more serious problem unless Congress can put aside partisan politics and get on with its most immediate pressing job. I am referring to the confirmation of Congressman Gerald Ford as Vice President of the United States.

There has been far too much loose talk by some narrow politicians of holding up the confirmation until certain demands by certain members of Congress are met. Some have demanded concessions from the President; others have talked of forcing the President to release impounded funds; and still other suggestions have been voiced, generally in narrow, partisan terms.

This country and this government is facing enough trouble without Congress becoming embroiled in a long, drawn-out partisan fight over the confirmation of a new Vice President. We simply cannot afford the luxury of another bitter fight. Our number one priority now is to get this matter settled with proper expediency.

This is not to say that the Senate and House Committees should proceed with haste without proper hearings and investigations into this very important matter. But we must remember that if the President of the United States is still the single most important office in the free world -- and it is -- then a guarantee of a certain and harmonious succession to that office is absolutely crucial.

After all, this is why the 25th Amendment to the Constitution was overwhelming passed by the Congress in 1965 -- a Congress, I might add, which was dominated by the Democrats, who now control the Congress.

Under the Presidential Succession Act, the Speaker of the House is third in line for succession back of the President and the Vice President. The Democrats now have the majority in both houses of Congress, and thus the Speaker is a Democrat. Without a Vice President, at the moment he now stands to succeed the President should anything happen to remove him from office. In such an event, we would have a Democrat, who was not elected by a majority of the public in the manner offered, filling a dangerous vacancy in the Presidential succession should be of overriding concern. Attempts to attach relevant conditions to approval of the nomination -- attempts to make cheap capital out of need for filling the vacancy should be treated with the contempt they deserve.

proportion of new state law providing for resentencing of prisoners convicted of felony possession. Briscoe said the legislature obviously intended that sentences of minor offenders would be lowered. New law effective last August lowered the penalty for first offense possession of small amounts of marijuana to a misdemeanor.

About 800 are serving time in Texas prisons for marijuana offenses. Briscoe is particularly interested in granting clemency to first-time offenders who had small amounts of marijuana in their possession.

GOVERNOR ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION -- Governor Briscoe, addressing more than 9,000 at a record fund-raising dinner in his honor, announced he will run for a four-year term next year.

Estimates of income from the dinner ran in the $750,000 range, less $100,000 expenses.

The governor designated former Congressman Joe Kilgore, Austin attorney, as his 1974 campaign manager.

Sponsors of the Briscoe dinner termed it one of the most successful of its kind ever staged for a state candidate in Texas.

TERMINAL DECISION POSTPONED -- Texas Offshore Terminal Commission put off for a month a recommendation on endorsement of an offshore mooring system for unloading oil from supertankers to allow time for examining a proposal of Galveston officials to build an on-shore deepwater port.

Galveston Wharves proposed a 60-mile, 100-foot-deep channel to accommodate deep draft vessels. TOTC agreed to delay until November 27 action on two phases of its seven-part report to the legislature on feasibility and site location of a future offshore terminal.

SHORT SNORTS
Tyler Oilman Jack Warren announced his candidacy for chairmanship of the State Republican party. The election, by the State GOP Executive Committee, will be held November 19.

South Central Texas cotton farmers have been granted an extension on cotton stalk destruction on a personal-need basis only.

State agency heads received a briefing from top officials on benefits of new zero-tax budgeting.

Sen. O.H. (Ike) Harris of Dallas will serve as governor for a day December 1 -- the first Republican to hold the position.

Linda Ruth Lane of Houston and Judith Ann Prince of Odessa are the first women graduates of the Texas Department of Public Safety's Academy.

Potential temporary directors of water districts in the future must be interviewed by Texas Water Rights Commission.

UNCLE LUKE IS A SKEPTIC

To be truthful about it, Uncle Luke is plumb "ornery" about a lot of things. He rants at the blasted "airplanes" that scare his chickens . . . he fusses about the way women dress nowadays . . . he's never been to a picture show . . . and one of his pet hates is those "ix"x"? squawk boxes" somebody around the house is always turning on while he's trying to read his newspaper. Oh yes! Uncle Luke likes his newspaper . . . dotes on it, in fact. Says it's the only way a feller could tell what's really going on in this crazy world nowadays.

Thank goodness we don't have to put up with many folks like Uncle Luke . . . but if you have an advertising message and want to be sure Uncle Luke sees it . . . put it in YOUR HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER.
