A NEW CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

Mr. H. L. Nelson of Galveston has announced as a candidate for congress from this district, subject to the action of the democratic primary to be held July 26. This place is now held by Clay Stone Briggs, who also resides in Galveston. Mr. Nelson is a college graduate who, after he completed his course, went into the business world and made a notable success. He followed newspaper work, having been connected with the Topeka Capital, the Colorado Evening Mail and the Galveston News. He handled the business end of these daily newspapers as well as the business and editorial departments of a country newspaper. In all of these fields, he has been successful. When he left the newspaper game, he went into the furniture business in Galveston and has been so successful that he is looked on as one of Galveston's outstanding business men.

Mr. Nelson is a Scottish Rite Mason and a Shriner and is also an active church member. His friends speak of him as a most devoted husband and father. He has always been a public spirited man and has been particularly interested in the things that make for the moral good and for the general advancement of his city, his state and his country.

Long before Mr. Nelson thought of running for congress, he was imbued with the idea that we need more business in the affairs of the country and less politics intruding into the affairs of business. In his announcement, he is holding out this idea, that if we had business men in congress and in the senate who transacted the affairs of state as the employees of a business firm transact its affairs without any thought of politics, the problems of our country would be easily solved. While not a rich man, yet he is in comfortable circumstances and can without fear or favor spend his entire time on the affairs of his country and his district without being worried as to what would happen if some one should beat him at a future election. He is tied to no man nor to any clique of men and pledges that he will be controlled by one thing alone in his stand and work, if elected to the office. That which will control him will be solely his judgment as to what is right and best in relation to all his constituents.

Mr. Nelson is particularly anxious to see a recognition of the fact that the interest of the whole district is one and the same and he hopes to see the people unified as one man behind the task of the whole. He expresses himself as feeling that Texas is as yet but in its infancy so far as developments are concerned and that the near future will see, providing we make use of our opportunities, most wonderful advancement made. Our district has in it the second great port in the United States. He has no desire to rob any other port, but he does desire that Galveston may be, as a port, everything it should be to serve this district, but it is not his desire to accomplish this at the sacrifice of the interests of the rest of the district. He hopes to see the interest of the whole district, but it is not his desire to accomplish this at the sacrifice of the interests of the rest of the district. He hopes to see the interest of the whole district equally subserved. He pledges himself, if elected, to work to this end.

JUSTICE OUT FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Hon. W. D. Justice of Henderson county announces this week in the Courier as a candidate for the office of district judge of this (the third) judicial district. Mr. Justice comes well recommended by the bar and the people of his home county, where he has spent the most of his life. He has served his home county in the capacity of county attorney and his home city in the capacity of city attorney. His home is in Athens, where he has a family and is in the enjoyment of an extensive friendship. As county attorney of Henderson county, he established himself as an able and vigorous prosecutor, receiving the endorsement of the Athens bar as a result of his efforts. As city attorney of Athens he was no less active in the discharge of his duties as prosecutor. As a citizen of Henderson county, his recommendations are no less forceful than are those of an official nature. His candidacy is subject to the action of the democratic primaries to be held in July. In the meantime he hopes to meet Houston county voters, whose support he will so much appreciate in the coming primary election.

District Court.

District court adjourned last week. The last case tried on the criminal docket was against Cleve Yarbrough, a white man accused of transporting whisky. Yarbrough was arrested by Sheriff Hale at Mt. Mariah, a negro church on the San Antonio road southwest of Crockett. It was charged that Yarbrough was transporting whisky to sell to the negroes who were attending a festival at the church. The jury gave Yarbrough a year in the penitentiary, but notice of appeal was given.

Prize Appreciated.

Grapeland, Texas,
April 6, 1924.

Dear Judge Moore:
I take this method to express my sincere appreciation of the prize I won in the essay contest. I am truly grateful to you and the men of Crockett who made it possible for us to enter the contest. I feel that it has not only been educational, but it was a great pleasure.

Your friend,
Bernice Gentry.

Mother Gives Tip Which Seizes $150,000 Liquor.

Newark, N. J., May 12.— Acting on what he declared was a tip from a mother who said her "daughter had been ruined by gin," Federal Prohibition Agent Lafara of the New York division office Saturday seized high-grade liquors which he valued at $150,000, at the plant of the Ritz Chemical Corporation. Two men were arrested.

THIS WEEK'S NEW ANNOUNCEMENTS

Leroy L. Moore announces this week as a candidate for re-election to the office of county judge. Judge Moore is finishing his first term as county judge. As the head of the county's business affairs, he has made a most enviable record. With the assistance of the commissioners' court, the county is out of debt for the first time in many years. Judge Moore is painstaking in the management of the county's affairs and his highest ambition is to render efficient service while holding the office with which he has been entrusted by the people. He would appreciate a second term as an endorsement of his efforts, and his candidacy is subject to the action of the democratic primaries to be held in July.

Earle P. Adams announces this week for re-election to the office of county attorney. His announcement, as are all the others appearing in that column, is subject to the action of the democratic primaries to be held in July. When asked by the Courier man if there was anything special that he desired to be said in his announcement, he said there was nothing—that all he desired was for the Courier to announce that he is again in the race. The Courier desires to add that he has made a most efficient county attorney. His record is commended to the voters of Houston county as one of efficiency and fairness. He appreciates the vote of confidence given him heretofore and he will appreciate no less the same loyal support of his friends in the coming election.

There is a new candidate for sheriff in the race this week. Mr. R. R. (Boss) Scarborough, well known in the northern part of the county, announces for that office, subject to the action of the democratic primaries to be held in July. Mr. Scarborough is not without experience as a peace officer. He is now serving the Grapeland precinct as its constable. About five years previous to this service, he served as a deputy peace officer at Alto for some time. Although residing for awhile in Cherokee county, he was born and reared near Augusta, this county, and has spent the most of his life in this county. Mr. Scarborough says his platform will be the enforcement of all laws without partiality and that all law violators will look alike to him. Mr. Scarborough is well equipped in every respect to make a good sheriff and he will appreciate your support in the coming primaries.

LUMBER BELONGS TO ROAD DEPARTMENT

The highway commission at Austin, through its representative, Mr. J. W. Markham, is endeavoring to keep well maintained the four highways and the bridges on same in good repair in Houston county. Some of the bridges have been recently repaired on the East San Antonio road. Some of this lumber, taken from the old bridges, is in good condition and has been placed on the side of the road to be used where necessary on other bridges on these highways.

It seems to be a custom with some few people of Houston county to take this lumber for their private use, laboring under the impression that they are privileged to do so. This act upon the part of any citizen is in violation of the law of Texas and punishable by fine. Not only does it criminally involve the party taking the lumber, but deprives the highway commission of the use of it in another place, thereby necessitating the purchase of new lumber and incurring additional expense of maintaining the bridges on these highways in a passable condition. This practice must stop or prosecution will have to be brought against guilty parties, the Courier is informed by those in authority.

ENDORSED BY HIS HOME COUNTY BAR

Athens, Texas, May 7th, 1924.
Hon. W. D. Justice,
Athens, Texas.

Dear Mr. Justice:
The members of the Henderson County Bar Association, having noticed that the Democratic convention which met on May 6th, 1924, urged you to run for the office of District Attorney of the Third Judicial District, feel that they owe the duty to you and to the citizenship of this district to join their voices with those of the other Democrats of Henderson County in appealing to you to make the race.

We feel the need of strong and vigorous prosecution of law violators, and remembering your fearless and tireless work as County Attorney of Henderson county and your subsequent successful experience as a criminal trial lawyer, we can but feel that you are eminently fitted to represent us as District Attorney of this District.

Therefore we respectfully petition you to make the race for District Attorney of this the Third Judicial District.

Respectfully yours,
W. R. Thomas,
E. P. Miller,
Harvey J. Yarbrough,
Richard Sigler,
Joe A. Johnson, County Judge,
A. B. Coker,

A. B. Culbertson, Secretary Henderson County Bar Association.
H. A. Justice, County Attorney.
E. A. Landman,
W. J. Garrett,
Tom P. Faulk,
Capt. W. T. Eustace,

Traffic Officer Appointed.

The city council, in session Monday night, appointed Gus Merchant to the position of traffic officer. In this capacity he will also serve as deputy city marshal. His duty principally will be to look after violations of the automobile and traffic ordinances and make arrests of violators. If you have not been conforming to the city ordinances and state laws regarding automobile traffic, you had better watch your step from now on, as the city council is determined to have all ordinances and laws enforced.

W. J. BURNS QUILTS GOVERNMENT POST

SAYS HEALTH ONE REASON FOR RESIGNING JUSTICE BUREAU.

Washington, May 12.—Another figure long under attack in Senate investigations passed from public stage Friday in the resignation of William J. Burns as chief of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice.

A center of criticism leveled at the department since the resignation of Harry M. Daugherty as Attorney General, Mr. Burns' retirement was generally regarded as certain to follow that of his former chief, although Atty. Gen. Stone said upon assuming office that he had invited all of his assistants and department heads to remain until at least he acquainted himself with his duties.

Mr. Burns submitted his resignation Friday and it was accepted, effective immediately. Mr. Stone has no one in mind to succeed Mr. Burns at present and may give no consideration to the question for another week.

In the meantime the bureau will be under direction of J. Edward Hoover, assistant director. Mr. Burns declared he was leaving after having built up the bureau to a point where it is functioning with "more efficiency" than ever in its history. He asserted he had accomplished a reorganization of the bureau which should easily be maintained as the greatest crime detecting and crime preventing agency in the world.

The suggestion that Mr. Burns was quitting because of criticisms directed at him when Atty. Gen. Daugherty was under fire were laughed away by the chief, who said he had twice asked Mr. Daugherty to relieve him and each time was requested to remain.

Road Being Improved.

A considerable sum of money is being spent in improving the San Antonio road from Weches toward Crockett. Men and teams have been put to work on the road west of Weches and the work is being pushed toward the Crockett road district. Money for this work was made up in Crockett last fall, but bad weather came on and the work was not started until recently. Contributions for the work were made up also at Weches. In a few weeks the road from Crockett to Weches will be in first-class shape, when it is expected that tourists will again be routed by way of Crockett, the San Antonio road and Alto.

First Big Ball Game.

The "Rinkeydinks" baseball club will meet the high school nine in a special baseball game at the new park Wednesday afternoon. Much rivalry exists between these two teams and each wants very badly to win this fast game. Come out Wednesday and help pack the new grandstand. You will see a good ball game and help pay off the athletic fund's debts. All stores are expecting to close. All receipts go toward paying off the indebtedness of the ball park incurred in building the grandstand.

Jones Wins.

Jones, pitching Monday for the town team in a game at the fair park, had the high school batters on his hip, except Odom, who hit a double and a single. Ewen Hall allowed six hits and fanned a dozen town boys, while Jones was getting sixteen strikeouts and allowing three hits. The score was 7 to 6. Batteries: Town team, Jones and M. McConnell; C. H. S., E. Hall and Craddock.

Crockett Wins Game.

Crockett defeated Shady Grove in baseball Saturday afternoon at the fair park, 13 to 6. Each side made errors in bunches. The Crockett battery of Jones and Durst was too much for the visitors. Each got a single and a double at bat and each scored three runs. Jones allowed only two hits and struck out eleven batters. Smith and Thornton fanned ten Crockett batters and would have turned in a good game with good support. Muckleroy, Shady Grove's fast second baseman, turned in some fancy fielding. Lack of practice was evident.

HOW SHALL THE LAW BE ENFORCED

Dallas, Tex., May 10.—Among the major issues of the campaign now in progress for governor of Texas, next to taxation and public education the subject of law enforcement looms large on the horizon.

The governor is the executive head of the state government. The department of government under his immediate supervision is responsible for the execution of our laws, in contrast with the state legislature which makes the laws and the supreme court of Texas which interprets or explains them. It is therefore of first importance that the man selected to be governor of Texas should clearly understand, not only what he may legally do to enforce the laws, but what he cannot legally do to enforce them without violating his oath and our state constitution.

The state constitution is the fundamental law of Texas, just as the United States constitution is the fundamental or basic law of our nation. No state official from the lowest to the highest has the power or right to violate the state constitution. Every state official is solemnly sworn to uphold its every provision. For those who think the constitution is obsolete, or wrong in some particular, or that it might be improved upon, there is only one recourse or remedy. This is to amend the constitution, and the only way in which the constitution may be amended is by direct vote of the people. Neither the governor nor any other citizen or official has any right to ignore the constitution or act in conflict with any part of it.

The state itself has no direct law-enforcing machinery, because the constitution specially creates the county as the unit of government, with reference to law enforcement. While Section 46, Article 16 of the Constitution does provide for the organization and maintenance of a state militia, of which the governor is commander-in-chief, this law enforcing agency may be constitutionally used only under one of three conditions. These three conditions are, first, to repel invasion; second, to suppress insurrection; and, third, to enforce the law supplementary to the civil authority. If used to repel an invasion, there would be no conflict whatever with the civil authorities, hence no room for argument on this point. When called upon to suppress an insurrection, the militia would be actually directed against officers of some division of the state in open rebellion against the constitution, and therefore in that fact alone would be found justification for its use. The only one of the three conditions that could come into controversy refers to law enforcement, and in this respect section 24 of the Bill of Rights defines the status of the state militia in these words:

"The militia shall at all times be subordinate to the civil authority."

It is therefore clearly apparent that insofar as law enforcement is concerned, the governor can under no condition either replace civil authority with military authority, nor can he subordinate the civil authority to the military authority. If used at all to enforce the laws of the state, the militia must work in co-operation with and under direction of the sheriffs, courts and juries.

The constitution of Texas does not especially create a Ranger force. This being true, the only possible way to justify the existence of the Texas Rangers and their use is to regard the Ranger force as a part of the state militia and subject to the same laws that govern the latter. Conceding this, the governor cannot constitutionally use the Rangers any differently from the way in which he is empowered to use the state militia.

The law against crime must be enforced in the county by the machinery provided for that purpose by the constitution. Is it not true that if either militia or rangers make arrests for breaches of the law, the county machinery must under any and all conditions impose the penalty? It is therefore apparent that the intent of the constitution is to subordinate the use of either state militia or rangers in enforcing the law to the duly constituted county authorities.

It behooves every citizen to learn just how each of the candidates stands on the important subject of constitutional law enforcement, so that his or her vote may be cast for him who is best qualified from a knowledge of the constitution to govern the state along the clean-cut lines established by that immortal document.

For Good Government.

Bobbed Hair Limits Divorce.

Paris, May 7.—The bobbed hair fad among women is reducing the number of divorce actions, according to Attorney Delaney, a leading divorce lawyer here.

He said jealous wives no longer discover tell-tale strands on husband's coat, which removes one of the chief causes of suspicion.

He added that twenty years' experience had proved to him that half of women's suspicions arose over finding long hairs clinging to friend husband, but that during the past year he had not encountered one such case.

TRINITY HI TEAM WINS CLOSE GAME

Trinity Hi won an exciting game of baseball from Crockett Hi at Smith park, Trinity, Friday afternoon—7 to 6. Neither side scored in the first three innings, only ten batters facing Hail. In the fourth inning Trinity scored a pair of markers. Wills got the first hit of the game. Baker popped to third and Cohen fanned, but McNutt doubled over left field, Wills counting. McDonald crashed another double and McNutt scored. McDonald was picked off second by the pitcher for the final out.

Crockett took the lead in their half of the fifth. Halyard walked and swiped second. Baker grabbed Jack Hail's fly. Smith got on and Halyard went to third on an error. Halyard scored and Smith moved up when Starling's grounder was poorly handled. Ewen Hail hit to Cohen in center field, but Odom doubled, scoring Smith and Starling. Odom scored when the catcher's throw to catch him at third was low.

In the sixth Craddock singled sharply to center field and swiped second. He went to third while Linder was being thrown out at first. He scored while Halyard was being thrown out.

Baker took the place of Wills on the mound in the seventh and retired Crockett in order for two innings.

Trinity scored twice in the sixth. After two were out Cohen got to first on an error and McNutt was hit by a pitched ball. Both scored when McDonald's fly to left field was missed. She added two more in the seventh. Stanley doubled. McNeely was out to center and Thornton fanned. Vann waited out a walk. Both Stanley and Vann scored when Baker's fly was not handled.

Crockett tied the score in the ninth. Linder led off with a two-base drive over left field and swiped third. After Halyard and J. Hail had fled to center, Smith singled over short, scoring Linder.

Trinity won the game in her half. Stanley hit to left field and got two bases when the ball was poorly handled. All hands moved up when McNeely's hit was poorly handled. Stanley scored when a low pitch got through the catcher's legs.

Batteries: Trinity, Wills, Baker and McDonald; Crockett, E. Hail and Craddock. Hits: Trinity 6, Crockett 4. Errors: Trinity 6, Crockett 8.

The petition that a change be made in the public road leading from Coltharp to where the Coltharp road intersects the Hager-ville road was rejected by the court.

On petition of G. W. Taylor, C. G. Erwin, Edgar Elliott, W. B. Downs, W. C. Petty, Taylor Fields, Dudley Hester, G. S. By-num, J. D. McCullar, Jr., J. A. Coon, Watt Nettles, Nelson Cook, G. H. Erwin, W. E. Gimon, G. H. Alford, J. L. Alfred, J. H. Nettles, J. A. E. Wilcox and N. H. McDougald, a small change was allowed in the road leading from Creek to Lovelady. The road will go directly through the field of G. H. Erwin from the residence of J. H. Nettles to the Baptist church, thence to the post office at Creek.

On recommendation of citizens' committee, motion carried to ask Mr. F. J. Von Zuben to make estimate of cost of work anticipated on the highways of road district No. 3, the Crockett district.

The state board of education waived its option on road bonds in road district No. 3, as the road district desired to sell these bonds in the open market.

Motion carried to deposit $5,000 of money received from bonds already sold in road district No. 3 to pay for making surveys and plots and for other engineering services.

Numerous claims were allowed by the court prior to its adjournment April 29.

A special session of the court was held May 1 and the following claims were allowed:

Jno. Bell, building bridge, $75.00.

Von Boeckman-Jones Company, printing road bonds, $80.00.

A COUNTY SINGING CONVENTION MATTER

Editor Courier:

The attendance at the county singing convention has become so great that a few suggestions concerning the problem of taking care of the crowds might not be out of place just at this time. Being, perhaps, responsible for the organization of the convention in 1915, acting as secretary for several years, and lately having been placed chairman over it, probably causes me just at this time to bring out some views I have concerning the future existence of the convention.

Those who have been attending the convention for a few years past seem to agree that the attendance has become so great that seating them and keeping order to enable them to hear the singing has taken the form of a real problem.

Here is the suggestion I would like to make just at this time: Begin a movement for the convention to own a site of something like ten acres of ground, build a tabernacle capable of seating a great crowd of people, seat it, build a fence around it so that automobiles and other noise making could not come nearer than a safe distance, our site being one having shade trees if possible and accessible from the standpoint of roads. Such a program would naturally require that our site be as near the center of the county as possible and one having a natural water supply of some sort.

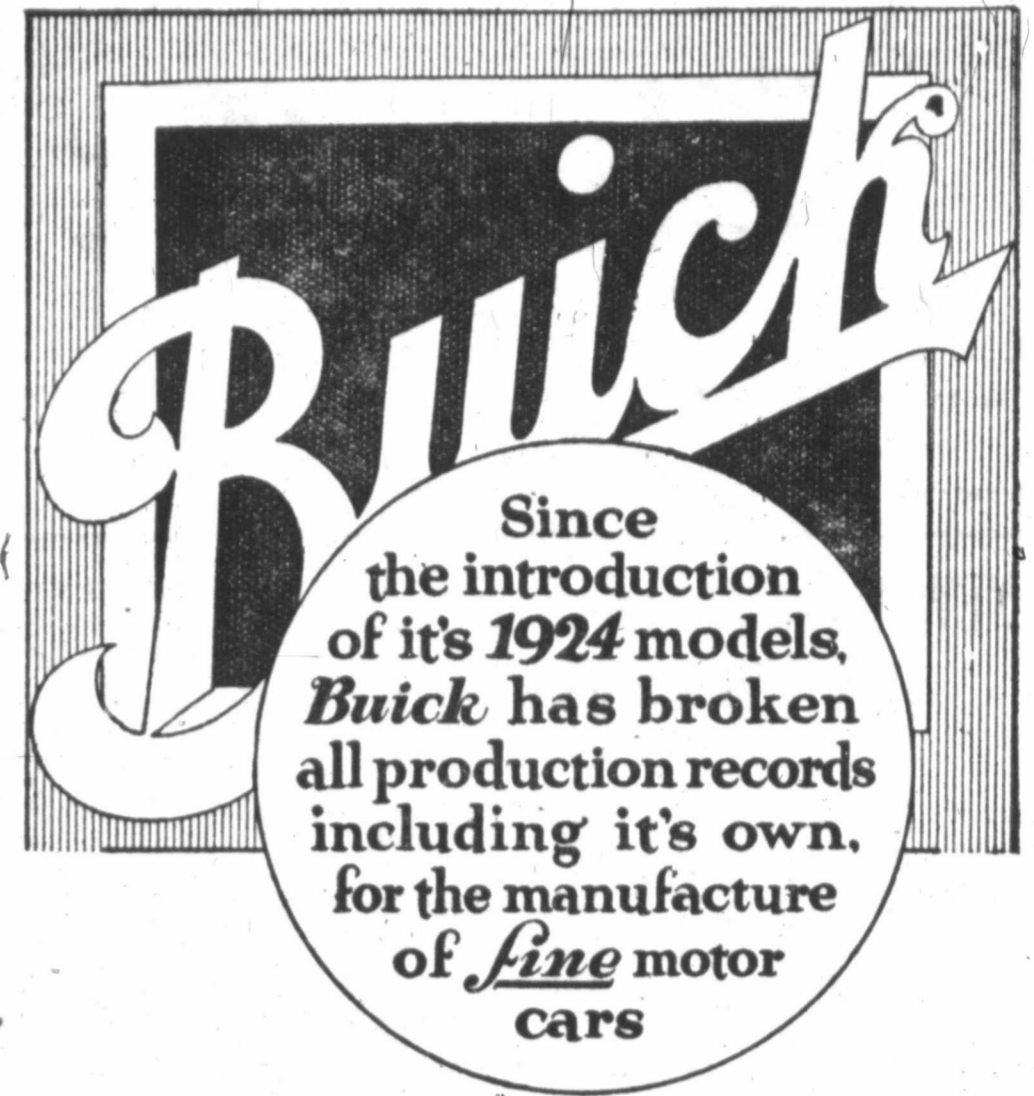

In order to do the thing up just right a kind of board of trustees would need be chosen, who would be expected to see after the business end of the matter, handle the funds, etc. When funds were available, buy the land or receive it if some kind-hearted philanthropist should donate it, as sometimes happens; get a deed, let the contract for the building and seating of a tabernacle that would perhaps better take care of our crowds who really go to hear the singing.

It appears that if the proper movement should be launched with such a goal in view that the funds would be forthcoming, even though it will likely take several thousand dollars to put it over just right. Other countries are doing it up just that way.

On the same day our convention met at Arbor a similar one was in session over near Bryan in Brazos county. The crowd being a large one and the house altogether incapable of seating them, a movement was launched to put over just such a tabernacle program as already suggested in this article and several hundred dollars raised and one man donated the site. We may have such a man in our county, and I'm sure the raising of funds will be no harder here than in other places where such movements are meeting with success.

Our convention has already become one of the greatest semi-annual events with the rural population and under conditions altogether unpromising. For several years we have been unable to take care of the crowds and provide order sufficiently for singers to sing or listeners to hear only for a short interval at a time—due, mainly, to the fact that the people could not be seated comfortably and outside noise making could not be controlled. There are thousands of people in this county that enjoy hearing good singing and I believe they will back up that love for singing with a liberal donation if approached just right with the proper kind of program outlined as the goal to be attained.

I shall be glad to hear from any one having suggestions to make and who can offer their services in various ways in order to bring some or all of these suggestions to become realities. Write me if you feel like it, talk it over in person, or in any way you deem best to get your plan in a tangible form. Let us hear

And we hope to improve on the plan of rendering our programs during sessions of the convention. Why couldn't we canvass the situation and arrange our program even weeks in advance and perhaps avoid some embarrassing situations that sometimes come up in the 'impromptu' programs? Let us think along that line just a little.

Afternoon Hospitality.

A beautiful occasion of Wednesday afternoon of last week was the bridge hospitality extended by Miss Jeannette Craddock to the bride to be, Miss Beasley Denny, and to Mrs. Henry H. Klein of New York City and Mrs. P. H. Hughes of Palestine, Texas.

The always attractive home was made a bower of beauty with its charming arrangement of varicolored spring flowers. The hallways and parlors each carried out a different color scheme combined with which the lovely coloring of costumes made a rainbow effect.

The ice course was served in the dining room, where the central table decoration was as fitting as it was dainty and beautiful. A bride gown in real lace and carrying a shower bouquet was approaching the altar, her path strewn with rose petals.

The honor guests were recipients of artistic gifts.

Miss Craddock was assisted by her mother, Mrs. T. D. Craddock, and Misses Mary and Jennie McLean. X.

APPOINTMENT AT PARK CONFIRMED

Chicago, May 10.—Appointment of Daniel Russell as director of Ogden Park was made permanent this week by the South Park commissioners. Mr. Russell was the first appointee to the place, indicating that he passed the recent examinations in a more creditable manner than did any of the other candidates. The new director had been serving as temporary director at the park for several weeks.

Now a graduate student in sociology at the University of Chicago, Mr. Russell had formerly received a degree from Baylor University, Waco, Texas.

"Commercialized Recreation in Chicago" is the subject of the doctor's thesis at the University of Chicago for which Mr. Russell is now gathering material. In his work at Ogden Park he hopes to put into operation ideas he has on how a community may be served by a recreational center where desire for gain does not enter into the scheme of things.

"The program at the parks has features of interest only to women's clubs and to children," said Mr. Russell; "there is nothing in our program to attract the young people and this is what I intend to do. Dances will be added to our list of recreational activities to induce the young people between the ages of 16 and 21 to attend the park and keep away from the commercialized places where the dollar is the most important interest of the owner."

Previous to coming to the park Mr. Russell was employed at the Marigold Gardens, a north side dance hall, as recreational director, and also occupied the same position at the Midway Gardens, at Cottage Grove and the Midway.

Russell is from Crockett, Texas.

Letter from R. C. Spinks.

Ed. Courier:

I have waited for some Christian in your town to raise his or her voice in condemnation of the brutal treatment the mob gave the negro Hogg, but not a word or cheep have I heard. Still you all claim to be Christians and living in a Christian land. Hogg may have violated the law. If so, he was liable to suffer under our law. If this gang knew of his violation of our law, the grand jury was in session the week before. If they were good citizens, it was their duty to report same, have him billed and tried for same. The men who took the law in their own hands are worse criminals than Hogg. He had violated a law. They have violated and trampled our law, our constitution and bill of rights. You get up and howl when our flag is desecrated, but you are as weak as a mouse when the very foundation that our flag pole sits in is destroyed. Such things as this is a disgrace to christianity, a disgrace to our civilization and a rebuke to Christ who said "do no man any violence." Where are the watchmen on the towers? Are they asleep? Some of them I have heard have had their trumpets spiked (a shame, if true). Last but not least, when these white lathers, who are non-producers, cause our labor to leave, as they have in three of the southeastern states, where eight hundred and fifty thousand left in two years, we farmers will be left with land and no one to work, taxes and nothing to pay with. A traveling man for the Oliver Co. informed me that we were now paying higher for our farm implements because these old states were buying none, and in order to run the factories had to raise the prices to us. Farmers, shall we stand for this?

Now, people, is it not time we were getting down and doing some serious thinking? We must have law enforcement and our constitution, or we will have anarchy. Which will you choose?

Yours for law enforcement,
R. C. Spinks.

NEGRO KILLED BY ANOTHER NEGRO

Richard Murphy, a negro, was killed by Giant Purvin, another negro, Thursday afternoon on the farm operated by Porter & Collins, ten miles southeast of Crockett. Murphy was stabbed ten times with a pocket knife. Murphy's wife had gone to Purvin's field and Murphy had gone to get her, with a shot gun in his possession. The trouble followed, which resulted in the killing.

Purvin was arrested by Sheriff Hale and brought to Crockett. He later made bond of $1000 and was released.

The subject was "Equality of Opportunity" and was ably handled by Hon. Earle P. Adams of our city, county attorney of Houston county. A large number of Masons and members of the DeMolay heard this splendid talk and are looking forward to the next program which will be held in the Temple at Crockett June 12.

HER BUYING GUIDE.

In her capacity as housewife, every woman in charge of a household is its general manager.

Upon her devolves the duty of making rather large purchases, which leads into another duty—that of economical expenditures of the household funds.

The observing housewife has doubtless noticed that her husband reads industriously what he calls his "trade papers," pertaining to his business. He reads them to keep pace with his work and to help solve the problems that arise every day.

The careful housewife will find that the newspapers are her "trade papers." The advertisements tell her nearly everything about the purchases she wishes to make, that she should know.

If she is a good household manager, like her husband, who spends many hours engrossed in his magazine and papers so that he may conduct his business more successfully, she will study with care the advertisements in the newspapers and find that they enable her to conduct her business more economically and successfully, and thus add to the comfort and joy of home life.

After becoming a careful and thoughtful reader of newspaper advertisements, this type of housewife will be able to choose the store that gives her the greatest value for her money. Her choice will inevitably be the store where she can get the advertised goods she asks for and where she has been assured in advance, through advertisements, that the purchases she makes will be as advertised.

The thoughtful household manager will discover that any merchant who advertises will keep the contract he makes with his customers in his advertisements. She soon learns that any retail dealer who advertises regularly will not betray her confidence.

She knows that when the merchant inserts an advertisement in the newspaper, with his own name attached, he is speaking to her.

Health Insurance for the Whole Family

Without counting the daily utility of a Chevrolet for going back and forth to work, shopping or taking the children to school, etc., its value in saving doctor's bills, broadening your mental horizon and keeping the whole family physically fit, amounts to more than the cost of the car and its upkeep. It is more of an essential to the modern family than anything else but a home.

Chevrolet meets the requirements of the modern family because it is economical to buy and maintain, because of its excellent appearance and riding comfort, because it can be depended upon, and because it is so easy to drive any member of the family can use it.

OILY PROMOTERS SEEK TO SWINDLE U. S. CITIZENS

Former Oil Brokers Find New Field of Activity in Mexico.

Laredo, Texas, May 10.—Since recognition between the United States and Mexico became a reality, the headquarters of the unscrupulous brokers and promoters who were not convicted in the American courts were transferred to Mexico. At this time hundreds of thousands of letters are being sent into the United States daily offering opportunities to the investor to make quick fortunes out of different mining schemes. The main bait offered in practically all of the pamphlets is the "untold wealth of Mexico" combined with "recognition by the United States." Trickery and misrepresentation woven about the word "recognition" are being circulated on a large scale throughout Mexican and American mails, tempting remittances for stock in mining companies which have never existed except on paper.

One of these circulars is particularly glaring and contains such phrases as "Mexico will make millionaires of men with vision. Will you be one?" Another sentence says, "Mexico—untold wealth is thy name." The document in question is a classic, better suitable for material to be applied to a motion picture scenario. It says in part: "This folder will tell you a story that will sound not unlike a chapter out of 'The Thousand and One Arabian Nights'."

The remainder of the folder is a work of art in so far as "word" play could be expected to work on the imagination. The description of the wealth of Mexico would better be suited for the information of a first-class fiction writer. At the end of the folder, which is illustrated with pictures of some of the leading buildings of Mexico City together with some of the leading industrial centers of the republic, is a neat little coupon all duly printed and ready for mailing with only a blank left for the amount the victim desires to invest in this "200 per cent within two weeks" profit bearing scheme.

The authors of this folder were the first to be discovered and placed on the fraud order list of the post office department. The cost of each share in this million-dollar-making organization is $10 and the investor is given the option of buying one of these melodramatic certificates or as many as he desires. The coupon contains an expression that the syndicate reserves the right to reject any and all subscriptions in case of oversubscription.

A glance further down the fraud order list of the post office department shows the name of a mining company as among the most active impostors who play their main card as "recognition" granted by the United States government. The company sports elaborate letterheads. This company has been active since last September.

Interwoven in the black and white bait mailed by this concern are the names of several prominent and legitimate mining companies. The claim is made that it is impossible that it should not produce tons and tons of valuable ore. All that is needed to develop this valuable property is cash and as soon as the cash arrives dividends will follow.

There are many others whose names are entered in the fraud list and an intensive campaign of investigation is now being conducted to bring to light the various fraudulent promoters who moved to Mexico when recognition was granted. Efforts are being made to prevent the forwarding of mail from the United States to such concerns whose guilt has been established and to stop the would-be investors' money orders from falling into their hands.

EVELYN GIVES UP BATTLE AGAINST THAW'S RELEASE

Atlantic City, N. Y., May 7.—
"The Thaw millions are too much for a working girl to combat."

Such was the declaration here tonight of Evelyn Nesbit, cabaret entertainer, in announcing she had withdrawn her opposition to efforts of Harry K. Thaw to regain his freedom. Miss Nesbit denied that any settlement had been made upon herself or upon her son, Russell.

Judge John Monaghan had set next Monday for argument on the appeal of a jury's decision which declared Stanford White's slayer sane. The application was made by William A. Gray of Philadelphia, counsel for Miss Nesbit.

"Announce to the world that Evelyn Nesbit was never more fit to take care of herself, but Russell must be provided for under any circumstances," said Thaw's former wife. Miss Nesbit said that she had written to Mr. Gray of her decision and had received an acknowledgment from his office in his absence.

"My decision in the matter is final," she declared. "I hesitated a long time before reaching a decision, but realized it was no use for a working girl to battle the Thaw millions."

"This Thaw case has been dragging along for years and it will continue to drag for years more. I am awfully tired and sick of the whole business. But a mother will battle against any odds when her son is concerned and Thaw will have to make some provision for him."

COME BACK, LOVE, IN THE SPRINGTIME.

(Written for the Courier)

When the perfume of the rose is brought to me,

When twilight is falling—silently

I think of the dear heart;
When the nightingale's song starts.

It is a song of love and yearning
About the love I'm learning.
While you are away
In my heart has entered love's rays.

I want you to come back while the blue birds sing—
When twilight is falling and evening bells ring,
When the mocking birds are singing
And all the world is in dreamland.

Then come back with the springtime—
Come back when the sweet southern wind croons rhymes,
To all the dreamy southerland—
Come back to me—in Loveland.

BLANTON AND CONFRERE IN 'NEAR FIGHT'

Washington, May 12.—In a controversy Thursday in the House District of Columbia Committee, Representative Blanton of Texas called Representative Hammer of North Carolina a "garrulous old grandmother."

Mr. Blanton had been criticised by Mr. Hammer for complaining that he was not notified of the committee meeting.

"That's absolutely untrue," Mr. Hammer shouted.

"You're a liar," Mr. Blanton said.

Mr. Hammer jumped up and started toward Mr. Blanton. Chairman Zihlman of Maryland and witnesses in the room rushed between the Congressmen and held them back.

"Let go of me," Mr. Blanton demanded, wrestling to get free. "I have been insulted and I'm not going to let you get away with it."

"You're a coward. You're bluffing," Mr. Hammer shouted.

Mr. Blanton jerked himself loose and rushed at Mr. Hammer, who grabbed a folding chair and swung it at Mr. Blanton. Committee members quelled the disturbance and the session was resumed, but only for a few minutes.

Mr. Hammer again criticised Mr. Blanton.

"I'm ready to fight for my rights," Mr. Blanton retorted.

"That's a bluff," Mr. Hammer declared.

"That's a lie," Mr. Blanton shouted, jumping across the committee table. Mr. Hammer seized a heavy bound volume as if to throw it.

"Only a coward uses books and chairs to fight with," Mr. Blanton shouted. "If you are a real man you will fight with your fists."

Witnesses intervened and Chairman Zihlman adjourned the meeting.

The two Congressmen then shook hands, admitted they had "lost their heads," and declared peace.

POISONED CANDY SENT BY WOMAN OFFICER FINDS

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 12.—Belief that a box of poisoned candy sent by messenger Saturday to Miss Mary Ann Hays, deputy collector of internal revenue, was intended not only for her, but the entire force employed in the revenue office, was expressed today by Lee G. Gill, assistant county attorney, who is leading the investigation of the affair.

Gill said that it had been established that the box of candy was sent by a woman, who came out of a downtown hotel, gave the box to a messenger boy waiting on the sidewalk and returned to the hotel. The boy today told Gill he could identify the woman. Gill quoted him as saying she was about 24, pretty and well dressed.

When the candy was delivered to Miss Hays several pieces had been turned over in transit and she noticed what seemed to be marks on the bottom of the candy. Cutting into one she struck a tablet labeled "poison." Each piece of candy in the box upon examination was found to contain one of the tablets.

Contrary to the general rule, the street car company finds the hangers on a source of revenue.

CHAIR AND ROPE CLAIM NINE LIVES IN DAY AS PENALTY

Amite, La., May 12.—The hanging of six Italians for the murder three years ago of Dallas Calmes was completed here Friday afternoon when the trap was sprung on the last two at 1:16 p. m. The first pair were hanged at 12:01 p. m. and the second pair at 12:37 p. m.
