GRAHAM, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 7, 1913.

No. 52.

AN OPEN LETTER TO BUYERS OF DRY GOODS

Modern merchandising calls for modern means and ideas. Realizing this, 22 merchants, representing 99 stores, met in Dallas, Texas, in January, and organized THE DEALERS' MERCANTILE CO., to be located on Elm Street, in Dallas, Texas, to sell Dry Goods at Wholesale, exclusively. This enables us to get the net wholesale rate and prices for all these retail stores, eliminating the MIDDLE MAN and doing away with the DRUMMER and HIS 'BIG EXPENSE' ACCOUNT. All the merchandise that we buy comes direct to us from the factory, but billed through our wholesale house, and thus we get the factory price. As members of this affiliation, we are associated with some of the best and largest stores of the State—the Graham-Jarrel Co., with 18 big stores in such towns as Hillsboro, Waco, Beaumont, Marshall, etc., and the Hudson-Davis Co., with 9 big stores in good towns.

With this outlet we can make very low prices for the mills. These goods are now coming in, and we are more than pleased with the results. Shipped direct from the factory, there is only one profit between you and the factory price. We are going to give our customers the benefit of this deal if you will come in to see. We want to prove that these are facts and not an advertising scheme, but a legitimate, straight business proposition, that will save you money. We want you to investigate this now, before you are thinking of buying any Fall goods, and let any clerk in our store show you the merchandise—measure it, weigh it, and compare the price with what you have been paying.

This new buying deal will appeal to any man of reason that the less men who handle any article the cheaper it can be sold.

These are real money saving facts that will save you from 10 to 35 per cent on your Dry Goods. You owe it to yourself to investigate our claims, and if we cannot prove that what we say are facts, we will not ask you for your business.

We will meet any mail order competition, and ask you for your business on a legitimate saving. All goods will be marked in plain figures.

WATER

MAIN BURSTS

The industrial activity of our city was arrested for nearly ten hours Tuesday while workmen repaired a break in the water main at the pump station. The city secretary notified all the water users Monday that the water would be cut off Tuesday while the break was repaired and the citizens of the residence section of the city were not greatly inconvenienced, but the power station which depends upon city water for its boiler, had to shut down and as a number of the industrial and manufacturing plants of the city are operated by electricity, work in all these places had to be suspended for the time being.

This was the first time the light plant had been shut down since the managers began furnishing a twenty-four hour current, the spring and those who had been accustomed to hear the sibilant buzz of the motor missed the main was repaired and the plant was started about noon Tuesday afternoon.

George E. Hall returned from Hillsboro where he had been engaged in a meeting of the State Association of the Sons of the American Revolution.

A refreshing ice course was served to Miss Allen, Mesdames Allen, Price, E. P. Stovall, besides club members. Miss E. E. Bryan will entertain next Tuesday.

All-Day Party

Mrs. Frank Parrish gave an all-day party last Friday, honoring her guest, Miss Nancy Bell, of Baird.

As soon as all the guests had arrived dainty score cards were passed and soon all were enjoying bridge.

At 12 o'clock Mrs. Parrish served a four-course luncheon to the guests, including the honoree and Misses Alline Johnson, Corinne and Camille Gallaher, Eula Logan, Allie Logan and Lillian Manning.

In the afternoon five more games of Bridge were played. Miss Alline Johnson made high score and was presented with a dainty blue boudoir cap and Miss Bell was presented with a souvenir spoon.

At the conclusion of the games an ice course was served.

Priscilla Club

Mrs. E. C. Stovall received the Priscillas and guests Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. A pleasant afternoon was spent in jolly talk, laughter and pretty hand work. Especially pretty piano numbers were played by the skillful hands of Miss Allen. Reports from some of the club ladies on their vacation trips, offered much amusement.

A refreshing ice course was served to Miss Allen, Mesdames Allen, Price, E. P. Stovall, besides club members. Miss E. E. Bryan will entertain next Tuesday.

Les Hiboux.

Mrs. Luther D. Clark delightfully entertained the members of the Les Hiboux Club and a few friends with a porch party last Thursday afternoon. Five games of bridge and rook were played.

Miss Allie Logan made high score and was presented with the first favor. In a cut with all the guests, Mrs. Eugene Crouch, of McKinney, won the second favor.

Delicious par salad, with nut sandwiches, potato chips, and iced tea was served to the following club members and visitors:

Mesdames Frank Parrish, Will Norman, Harry Wadsworth, Q. Street, John Gay, H. B. Graham, of Fort Worth; Eugene Crouch, of McKinney; and Misses Dorothy Graham, Alline Johnson, Eula and Allie Logan, Lillian Manning, Corinne and Camille Gallaher, Quilla Lee Sanders and Nancy Bell, of Baird.

"Little Lights."

A word from Mrs. Jeffrey to the Little Primaries of the Baptist Sunday School, or the recently named "Little Lights."

Attention, Little Lights: "The Old Ship of Zion" will land at the Baptist Annex, the first Sunday in September with her cargo of gospel money to be sent both to the home and Foreign fields.

Don't forget the Ship will arrive at the Annex in time for Sunday School the first Sunday in September.

Mrs. R. L. Woods Dead.

Mrs. R. L. Woods was born in Tennessee June 17th, 1852. Her mother died when she was quite a little child and a few years later her father died also and she was reared to womanhood by her Grandfather Whittley. She professed faith in Christ at the age of 15 and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and later became identified with the Christian church, of which she was a member at the time of her death. She ever lived a life well devoted to the service of the Lord. Notwithstanding the many great difficulties in life she never failed to take all to the Lord in prayer, and she bore all her trials and temptations with that manifestation of faith which never allows a true Christian to waver.

She was a true and faithful mother, sharing the joys and sorrows alike with her children, always ready and willing to do all in her power to make them happy.

Mrs. Woods was married in McNary county, Tennessee, to W. K. Woods November 23, 1871. In 1878 they moved to Texas. To them were born seven children, five boys and two girls. The boys are all living; the girls died in infancy. In 1889 she survived her husband. Since that time she has made her home with her children. She leaves one sister, Mrs. M. J. Gilliland, of Fort Worth, Texas, and one half-brother, Mr. J. W. Gilliland, of Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. Woods was a member of the Baptist Church and was a devoted member of the same.

Improvements in State Fair.

Dallas, Texas.—Constructed of concrete and modern in every way the new livestock barns erected on the grounds of the State Fair of Texas at Dallas for the coming exposition which opens Saturday, October 18, and closes Sunday, November 2, will demonstrate the newest appliances in the scientific raising of livestock. Especially will this apply to the hygienic and sanitary equipment installed in each barn, which will, in itself be an educational exhibit of unusual value. Automatic feed carriers and litter carriers are among the conveniences that will make exhibiting livestock at the Fair a pleasure. All of the old frame barns in the livestock department will be torn down and replaced by concrete structures. The plans of the State Fair management call for an expenditure of thousands of dollars in this department. Rich prizes are offered for displays of cattle, horses, sheep, swine, jacks and mules, and entries already received indicate that the livestock showing will be the largest in history.

Presbyterian Church

The pastor has returned from a very successful meeting at Elginville and will preach at both services Sunday. Public cordially invited.

Mr. S. Boyd Street left for Chicago. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

LIGHTNING CAUSES DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

During a thunder storm last Friday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, lightning struck a barn belonging to Ben Mosely, on his farm about two miles south of town, burning the barn and contents and causing a loss estimated by Mr. Mosely to be in the neighborhood of $1,000.

The clap of thunder which accompanied the stroke of lightning was plainly heard by a number of the citizens of this city and several of them saw the keen flash of lightning which ignited the barn. Almost immediately after the harsh peal of thunder was heard, a heavy smoke was seen to rise in the vicinity of the Mosely place and two auto loads of men hastened to the scene. They were unable to do much after they arrived at the fire, as the barn was practically gone when they got there.

Mr. Mosely was sitting on the porch at his home at the time and he states that the first he knew of the fire was when he happened to look up and saw fire and smoke issuing from the roof of the building. The barn was filled with baled oats, hay, etc., and in addition had several sets of harness in it which was a total loss, with no insurance.

E. W. Johnson withdrew from an extended stay in the city and returned to his home in Central Texas.

America's foreign automobile trade during the fiscal year just ended, amounted to over forty million dollars.

The month of July was the second driest month in Kansas since the establishment of the weather bureau in that state.

The Pierce-Fordyce Oil Association announces that gasoline has advanced two cents per gallon and it is expected that the other companies will follow the lead.

The month scare has advanced the price of corn seven cents per bushel on the Chicago stock exchange within the past week, and prospects are that it will continue to go up.

Secretary of Treasury McAdoo has prepared to distribute from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 of government funds among banks of the southwest for the purpose of assisting in the moving of crops.

We hope the sentiment favoring a county fair for Young county, will continue to grow until it covers the entire county and that demand will become so strong and the enthusiasm so pronounced that, like Bane's ghost, it will not down. We need one, we ought to have one, we are going to have one!

A grasshopper four inches in length and weighing 150 grains was captured by a Pawnee county, Oklahoma, farmer last week and is on exhibition in one of the newspaper offices in Pawnee. So far this hopper holds the record for size and weight. Grasshoppers have been numerous in several parts of that state and some of the farmers are capturing them by sackful and storing them away for chicken feed.

There is a wide difference in the opinions of the President and Secretary of State, which, however, is not likely to cause any change to be made in this government's foreign policy. The disagreement is on the question of which is the most proper drink, orange or grape juice. The President is strong for orange juice and the Secretary of State has votes on grape juice.

Lieutenant Governor J. J. McAlister, of Oklahoma, put the sooner state in a turmoil Sunday by issuing five unconditional pardons to state convicts, and signing several contracts which were being held up by Governor Lee Bruce, while the Governor was out of the state. Friends notified the Governor of his Lieutenant's activities and he hastened home and revoked the latter's orders. The Governor announces that he will not leave the state again.

The Leader contends that a large number of the people of Young county are in favor of holding a county fair this fall. If there are those who doubt this statement, let them enquire of any man they meet and they will be set right on the spot. Especially do the farmers of the county want a fair, and they are willing to contribute their part to its success. What shall we do about it?

The Bible story of the flood is confirmed in many details by hieroglyphics, written by the Babylonians 4000 years ago, or more, according to an announcement made by the University of Pennsylvania. The writing on a tablet of stone of great length purporting to reach back to the creation, has been deciphered by Dr. Arno, of that institution. The writer begins by stating that in the beginning there were seven gods and gives their names and then goes on to record events of history, among which is the story of Noah and the flood.

The Leader has received a number of blue prints of a trap nest from Harry Rubenkoenig, professor of mechanical drawing in the State Manual Training Normal School of Pittsburg, Kansas. These drawings are from an original design by Mr. Rubenkoenig and at the State Corn and Poultry Show of Kansas was pronounced to be the best because of its simplicity of construction and operation. Mr. Rubenkoenig is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rubenkoenig, of this city, and was raised here. His many friends will be glad to learn of his success and popularity in mechanical educational circles in Kansas.

Rule Review.
 S. Boyd Street was here from Graham Tuesday looking after his mercantile interests.

The rains of last Thursday afternoon and Friday night were certainly fine, and have changed lots of faces from long to broad. It came in time to save lots of feed, and will make the cotton grow like weeds.

The United States government today occupies a position different from that of any government in the world, perhaps. Heretofore, governments as a rule have not looked upon the moral side of questions to any great extent, but have judged nations, and men according to their political or financial strength. Now comes this, the greatest government of and for the people the world has ever known, and refuses to recognize a neighboring government because a great moral question is involved. The world is growing better, a great light is seen ahead, the time is coming when men and nations will be judged according to what they are and not what they have.

The present condition of the public mind toward the railroads of the country is a good example of how public sentiment can right about-face in just a few years. A short time ago the newspaper, or the legislator, who could lambast the railroads hardest was most popular and in every damage suit public sentiment could always be counted upon to favor the litigant. Now when a damage suit is filed against a railroad it is looked upon with a degree of suspicion and the snar finds himself in the position the railroad occupied in times past; he must prove by sound logical evidence that his cause is just before he can expect a favorable verdict from any jury. The moral is that things that seem right to us today may seem the reverse, after the lapse of time and in defending any point of view we should be careful to allow others the privilege of seeing things differently, for their perspective today may be ours tomorrow.

Seymour—It is understood that the Gulf, Texas and Western Railway Company has abandoned its previous plans to build additional mileage into the territory west of this city.

Moran—Right of way has been secured and actual construction will soon start on the Pioneer Natural Gas Company's pipe line from the Moran fields to Cisco, Baird, Abilene and intermediate points.

Petrolia—The Lone Star Gas Company is increasing its pipe line facilities between here and Dallas and is laying an additional 30 miles of 16-inch pipe.

Brownsville—According to data compiled by the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico Railway Company 2,538 cars of truck have been shipped from the Gulf coast country so far this year. Compared with 1912 this is an increase of 190 cars. The shipping season is practically closed.

Five men were probably fatally burned and 18 others dangerously hurt in a dust explosion at the Jackson Hill No. 2 coal mine, near Hymera, last Friday. It is believed that dust was fired by a windy shot. The mine property was heavily damaged. All the injured miners were rescued.

THE HISTORY OF YOUNG COUNTY, TEXAS

By JUDGE P. A. MARTIN.

To the men of iron nerve and dauntless courage, who opened up the wilderness of the west and made possible the civilization we now enjoy, this series of articles is respectfully dedicated.

CHAPTER XXV

When George and Charlie Marlow and Louis Cliff were taken to Dallas by the United States authorities, they were accorded nothing very much akin to an honor by the officers of the Federal court. They were at once taken before the Federal grand jury, and upon their statements, indictments were found against everyone who had taken any part in their arrest and prosecution in Young county, and they so far overrode the thing that at least one indictment was returned against a man who never lived in the county and who existed only in the vivid, overwrought imaginations of these witnesses. The sheriff and his deputies, the county attorney, the guards of the jail the constables and the parties most active in the search for and the safe keeping of the prisoners, were all indicted in the Federal court, charged with conspiracy and obstruction of the United States marshal in his discharge of duty. These indictments were subsequently changed to indictments for murder and conspiracy to murder the prisoners.

The State courts also investigated the matter and returned several indictments for murder and assault to murder.

The press, eager at all times for sensational news, published varied and garbled accounts of the affair and most tremendous excitement resulted.

In the meantime, about the 22d of January, 1889, Boone Marlow was in the Indian Territory and was brought to Graham, identified, and the reward was paid to the man who killed him. The man who took up the case of his taking would be a hard matter for any man to organize a lynching party in this county. Mob law is condemned by all and it would be an extreme case indeed to exile the people to an exercise of it again. The evils of mob law were never more forcibly illustrated and its consequences never more suffered by a community in the world than by this. It brought trouble to nearly all the homes of the county; not that there were so many directly implicated, but those who were not had friends who were and the atmosphere of suspicion surrounded almost all. Then, however careful one might be to keep entirely out of it, it was almost impossible to refrain from taking sides with some and condemning others, believing some guilty and others innocent, and so, for a long time, there was bitter feeling engendered among the people.

But all that seems to be over now. If wrongs were done they have been atoned for by years of quiet and peaceful living and useful citizenship, and a vote of condemnation coming out of that distant past, would fall a bit few, if any, welcoming ear in this day. It is a dead past and we let it rest.

RIGHT TO ISSUE REFUNDING BONDS.

Freight Rates Not Affected by Refunding of Securities.

Houston, Texas.—The right to re-issue maturing securities in excess to the Railroad Commission valuation is one that is denied railroads by the State of Texas, although such securities were legally issued prior to the passage of the Stock and Bond law. The opinion of men engaged in financing railroads was sought by the Texas Welfare Commission, recently adjourned. Mr. E. S. Lovett, executive head of the Harriman lines, gave his views in part, as follows:

"Every railroad company ought to be given the right to issue bonds at par, to refund existing obligations. The existing bonds of the Houston & Texas Central, for instance, (and it is true of every other railroad company in the state except those who have recently issued bonds under the ruling of the Commission) have been outstanding for more than twenty years. They have been held by innocent investors for this long period. The railroad company has, year after year, paid semi-annually the interest on these bonds. The Railroad Commission during all that time has been sitting at Austin, with full power (unlimited power almost over the railroads, with the state treasury at its disposal, with the Legislature will- ing to appropriate any amount that the Commission deemed necessary to carry on its work. If there is any illegality in any of these bonds the Commission should have found it out long ago and applied the remedy. I submit that after the lapse of twenty years it is too late to talk about the validity of outstanding railroad bonds. That subject ought to be foreclosed by time, if nothing else."

Mr. E. P. Ripley, president of the Santa Fe, made the following statement in regard to the matter:

"I do not think it is fair treatment of people who own these securities, who buy them innocently, for the state to take such action as will render them worthless, or partially worthless."

The Hadley Commission, appointed by Congress to investigate railroad matters, recommended that no attempt be made to scale down old securities.

The contention has never been made except by unimportant persons that the refunding of outstanding securities would affect freight rates.
