IVAN MAY DEVELOPE NEXT GREAT OIL POOL

Leslie I. Coggins, secretary of the Considine-Martin Oil Company, returned from Stephens county Monday after ten days' inspection of developments now going on in this famous oil producing county.

Coggins predicts that the next big pool in Stephens county will be in or around Ivan, which is about fifteen miles north of Caddo and Breckenridge. Leases in this vicinity could have been purchased two months ago very cheaply, but since the Mid-Kansas Oil Company brought in its Graham-Vick well No. 1 showing 6,000,000 feet of gas and producing about thirty barrels of oil per day with the bit only one foot in the lime, leases have been sought after by all the big companies at boom prices.

The Mid-Kansas Company expects its Graham well to be a big producer and they already have laid an eight-mile pipe line connecting up with their Tullis well No. 1 and will drill into the lime at the end of this week.

If this well is a big producer, as predicted, it will prove up the holdings of the Considine-Martin Company, which will soon commence an active drilling campaign.

The Home Oil Refining Company of Texas has a drilling contract to drill four wells on its lease near Ivan and spudded in its well No. 1 on Friday, December 5, and intend starting on the other three wells just as soon as the roads are in condition to haul in their materials.

At the present time the Humble Oil & Refining Company has erected three derricks and made locations for five new wells in this vicinity; also the Sun Company has made a location and the Mid-Kansas has started drilling on its Manning No. 1, one-half mile northeast of their Tullis well, which is producing 500 barrels per day, having been cleaned out after being shot. An increased production cannot be expected in Stephens county until the road conditions improve so that material can be hauled to the Caddo-Breckenridge-Ivan fields. Most all of the drilling wells have been held up for some time, which has caused a delay in completions.

The scouts for the other companies are watching with keen interest all the new developments being made in this new Ivan field.

Probably the largest producing well in Stephens county at present is the Stanford No. 2 of Stewart & Samuels, which came in for an initial production of 5,500 barrels. This well is three miles southwest of Caddo and seven miles southeast of Breckenridge.

Manning No. 2 of the Sinclair Gulf, which came in for an initial production of 3,000 barrels, is about one mile east of Caddo.

The Swensondale Oil Company, a Fort Worth concern, brought in the first big well in Stephens county, Peter Swenson No. 1. This company paid a state tax on 206,567 barrels, valued at over $461,000, for the third quarter of 1919.

The Gulf Production and the Texas Company also have some large wells in Stephens county. The Gulf's McCauley No. 1, between Breckenridge and Caddo, was the second big producer drilled in Stephens county. It came in for an initial production of 3,000 barrels.—Fort Worth Record.

RINGLING MAY BUILD RAILROAD TO GRAHAM

John Ringling of the Ringling Brothers Circus is expected in Fort Worth tonight on his way to Eastland. It is reported he plans to build a railroad through the Stephens county oil fields to Graham, connecting with the Rock Island into Fort Worth.

Jake Hamon, long time business partner of Ringling, is mentioned in connection with the deal, in which Ringling has the backing of Wall Street, according to the report.

If Ringling and Hamon consummate the deal, it will be the third railroad owned by these two men, the other two being the line from Ardmore to Ringling, and the Chicago, Toledo and Dayton.—Star-Telegram.

SAVING OF FUEL VERY IMPORTANT

It is very important that the people of Graham use every means toward the conservation of fuel. Fuel Administrator Garfield at Washington, by an order, has restored for the entire nation most of the drastic restrictions on lighting and heating which were in effect during the coal shortage of 1917.

The present supply of coal in Graham is very limited. The electric light plant has only 25 tons and the school about two more weeks' supply, so we are informed. However, the school heating could be changed from coal to oil as fuel, if it becomes necessary.

Again let us impress upon the reader—cut out the lights when not in use and save fuel where possible without endangering health.

WHERE FUEL PINCH HURTS

Annulment of one-third of the trains in passenger service on Western lines from Chicago to the Pacific coast has been ordered, beginning Monday next. This foreshadows similar action on all lines should the coal shortage be prolonged. Willynilly, the American public will be compelled to readjust its business and its travel schedules to conform to the new condition. And even worse things may come. Court injunctions, suppression of violence, volunteer operators, whatsoever means may be devised or steps may be taken to cope with the menacing situation, will not insure the production of coal in sufficient quantity to meet the industrial needs of the country. If coal is to be had, coal must be mined, and the inescapable fact is that it isn't being done on an extensive scale.

So, if paralyzing deprivation is to be prevented, retrenchment is in order all along the line. Fuel should be saved in all industries and in all homes. Its use should be lessened by every means. The example of certain municipalities which have discontinued electrical display advertising, and in which the late opening and early closing of stores and factories have been ordered merits commendation. Only such action, while the Government is working to bring about an agreement that will put the miners back on the job, will defer calamity.—Evening Journal.

NOTICE, TRUSTEES!

I shall be out of town from December 19 until December 29, the week of holiday. If you have business with me, please see me before that time.

DELEGATES FINISH FIRST WEEK

Washington, Dec. 6.—Delegates to the second industrial conference concluded their first week's work today confident that substantial progress had been made toward harmonizing relations between capital and labor. It is the tentative plan now to continue holding ten and perhaps twelve executive sessions a week up to December 19 by which time it is hoped a preliminary draft of the conference's recommendations will have finished. Recess then will be taken over the holidays.

On their return the delegates will have available the result of investigations by experts into various phases of the industrial situation and will hear the opinions of labor and capital on the preliminary draft. Using the information the committee will re-draft their recommendations and submit them to the public through the press hoping to obtain constructive criticism before the final report is prepared. While definite conclusions were not reached it was understood that the delegates regarded the first week's work as highly valuable.

The subject has been divided into three phases as affecting workmen in the service of the government, public utilities and private industries. As regards men employed by federal, state or municipal governments and by public utilities the conference is discussing whether there is a right to strike and what machinery should be set to adjust grievances.

The right to strike has not been questioned in the case of men employed in private industry so the only discussion there has been has been the establishment of machinery to prevent to tremendous economic loss due to stoppage of work.

After discussion of means to settle disputes after they arise the conference took up the question of preventing disputes and had before it the experience of numerous plants with shop councils and shop committees when adjournment was taken.

HOUSE DECIDES ON PEACE TIME ARMY

Washington, Dec. 8.—A peace time regular army of 300,000 men and 18,000 officers was decided upon today by the house subcommittee on military affairs. The number of combat troops was fixed at 250,000.

The subcommittee proposal would leave it to the President to divide the forces into infantry, cavalry and artillery units at his discretion.

The provision for 18,000 officers, many more than needed for an army of 300,000 men, was framed in order to give 1,500 to 1,600 extra as instructors for the national guard and the reserve officers' training corps units. Both the guard and the training corps would be greatly enlarged under the committee's plan, as only 300 officers are now needed as instructors.

ELIASVILLE ENJOYING GREAT OIL BOOM

Indications now are that Eliasville will be the next town to enjoy an oil boom. A new addition is to be surveyed off this week and cut into lots to be sold to oil people who will erect residences as soon as material and carpenters can be secured. The Lyden well, which came in last Saturday afternoon at a depth of 3100 feet, and is reported to be good for 500 barrels, is two miles south from Eliasville and completes a circle of wells around the town.

Eliasville is situated on the Clear Fork river about nine miles northwest from where that stream empties into the Brazos, and is an old town, possessing a good three-teacher school, four churches, a gin, a cotton oil mill and a flouring mill.

The Milam well, four miles southwest from Eliasville, is expected to come in at any time. It is now more than three thousand feet deep. The Donnell well, three miles west of the town, is 1300 feet.

JENKINS' RELEASE RELIEVES SITUATION

Washington, Dec. 6.—Combined today with the public's reassurance of the President's improved health was a feeling of Washington that the tension in the Mexican relations had been slackened by the release from prison at Puebla, Mexico, of Consul Jenkins.

Speculation and rumor over the President's health were exploded by the favorable report from his bedside by Senators Fall and Hitchcock, who by direction of the foreign relations committee, conferred with him late yesterday on the Mexican situation.

Other advisers said Eduardo Mestre and Gillelmo Nivola, attorneys for American Consul Jenkins, have refuted the charges that they and four other Mexicans were guilty of treason for leading Jenkins against charges brought by Governor Cabrera of Puebla.

It was also said that President Carranza had called a conference of the state governors in Mexico for December 10.

Officials refused to comment on reports current here that J. Walter Hanson, who furnished the $500 bond, was acting for Luis Cabrera, minister of finance in Carranza's cabinet. They are awaiting reports on this from the American embassy at Mexico City.

The state department it was said has not yet been advised officially that Jenkins was released on bail. It received word today that Jenkins himself did not know until after he was liberated that bond was furnished and that he is conducting an investigation on his own account to determine who was responsible for his liberation.

SENATE BODY ACTS FOR RESTRICTION OF IMMIGRATION

Washington, Dec. 10.—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today laid down a policy of restricted immigration which Congress is expected to endorse soon.

The committee reported favorably a resolution, sponsored by Senator Lodge, Republican, of Massachusetts, its chairman, which provides that $600,000, appropriated by Congress to meet expenses of regulating the further entry of criminal or other objectionable aliens to American ports, be placed at the Government's disposal.

The sentiment of the committee was that Congress should co-operate in every way to aid the Government in barring "Reds" from this country, as well as in deporting those identified with Bolshevism, I. W. O. and similar movements.

The resolution was passed by the Senate without a roll call, immediately after it was reported from the committee.

PANHANDLE TO DRILL IN YOUNG COUNTY

The Panhandle Refining Co., of Wichita Falls, which recently acquired the Wheatcroft holdings in Young county, are rushing material to immediately commence drilling on the McCluskey tract, ten miles southwest of Graham. Contract calls for a 4,000-foot well.

This new location is not far from Roxana well, Donnell No. 1, 1877 feet, which recently made 182 barrels on 12-hour test. A wonderful shallow field is expected in this vicinity.

CIVIC LEAGUE NOTES

The Civic League is conscious of the unmitigated approval of the citizens of Graham in the great success accorded to the Holiday Gift Shop which was held last Monday at the City Hall. The proceeds realized amounted to some $260.00 with a few small items of expense to be deducted. The weather man contributed an ideal fair day—no mud, wind, cold or slush to prevent visiting the shop and adding to the list of Christmas gifts for family and friends or securing a perfectly prepared Southern style confection for lunch. Indeed the culinary booth was depleted by one o'clock. More calls were registered for Nonpollin and Devi's food cake and lusciously brown pies, buns and jolly rolls than could be supplied. A cake of art, prepared by Mrs. John Dowdle, sold readily at $3.00; another smaller one by Mrs. A. A. Morrison at $2.50. Pies made by Mrs. R. G. Graham and Mrs. M. K. Graham were bought quickly at sixty-five cents. Preserves and jellies were also eagerly bought.

Mrs. Q. Street and Mrs. Robert Morrison, disguised as Santa Claus, afforded a big source of revenue by carrying the grab bag into the street and selling there.

The Civic League is indebted to Mr. F. M. Burkett for brewing gallons of his famous coffee which was not at all dispirited by the flavor of sirup sweetening instead of the sugar which is fast becoming a curio in some kitchens. The coffee and sandwich booth probably led the others in contributions to the cash register.

A prompt demand was made for pot plants and this booth also was out of business in a few hours. The League assures not only Mr. Burkett but Rev. Bowman, Mr. Kayser, Mr. T. E. Wallace, Mr. Mauldin, and ladies not members of the organization who sent donations, and all others who contributed in any way toward the success of the Gift Shop of their deepest appreciation.

The Park Committee hopes to be able soon to employ labor to clear off the park grounds, set out shrubbery, install swings, build rustic bridges, and get the park in readiness for a summer's pleasure—perhaps "turn it over to the city" by a formal opening with a May Day festival. The next meeting of the Civic League will be held the third Wednesday, in January.

TRADESDAY MONDAY GREATEST OF YEAR

Last Monday was the greatest Trades Day we have had in years.

The number of out of town people who were here that day surpassed that of any former day in the entire year. From 10 o'clock in the morning until after 4 o'clock in the afternoon it was a very difficult task to get through the throng on the sidewalks. The merchants report the greatest holiday trade they have ever enjoyed at so early a date and, although the large stocks of Christmas goods ordered have not yet all arrived, salespeople were unable to wait on the trade.

The day was exceptionally pleasant for the season of the year and people from all over the country took advantage of it and came to town to do shopping and Christmas buying.

The Civic League had a Gift Shop in the City Hall where Christmas goods were offered for sale and lunches served, but the stock provided for the day was not sufficient for the demand of the large crowd and by 4 o'clock the ladies were practically out of business. The postoffice also came in for a part in the great rush of the day and the already overtaxed force there had to work until far into the night to get the packages and extra mail ready for the morning train.

It was quite likely the greatest day in a business way the town has ever seen and eclipsed by far all former Trades Days of the year.

HARVEY DARNELL MARRIED

Harvey Darnell and Miss Clara Mae Goodrich were married at the home of the bride's parents in Jayton, Texas, last Sunday evening at 4 o'clock and left immediately for Graham, arriving here by automobile at 4 o'clock Tuesday evening. They are domiciled at the Dolman House but expect to go to housekeeping in the near future.

The bride is a popular and accomplished young lady of Jayton, where she has resided for several years.

The groom was reared near Eliasville, but for the past few years lived at Jayton, where he entered the army at the beginning of the war. He returned to Graham about two months ago and accepted a position with the Davis Drug Company. He has many friends here and at Eliasville who wish for him and his bride a long and happy married life.

CASBURN-BILLINGSLEY

Elser H. Casburn and Miss Lola Maud Billingsley were united in marriage in the court house at 4 o'clock last Tuesday evening, December 9, Judge W. P. Stinson officiating.

The bride is the daughter of T. E. Billingsley, a highly respected citizen of Eliasville, where she was reared and where she has won scores of admirers and friends.

The groom is a son of Mrs. and Mrs. W. R. Casburn, of Fort Worth, where he was reared. He has been in Graham for the past six months engaged in the tailoring business and has proven himself a steady, reliable young man, fully capable of providing for a home.

The Leader joins the many friends of these young people in extending congratulations and wishing for them a life of happiness and usefulness. May they live long and prosper.

With Three-Point Cantilever Springs New Overland 4 Seems to "Sail Over The Roads"

THE new Three-Point Cantilever Springs of Overland 4, by their special construction and design, protect car and passengers from ordinary road jolts. Bumping, twisting, swaying and vibrating are wonderfully lessened. The blows of the road seldom reach you. There is less tendency to bodily fatigue after long rides.

The springs of Overland 4 attached at the ends of a 130-inch Springbase give the riding comfort and road steadiness heretofore possible only with cars of long wheelbase and great weight, yet Overland 4 retains the light weight and economy advantages of 100-inch wheelbase.

Three-Point Cantilever Springs protect the car from the hammering and wear of road blows. They lengthen its life and reduce upkeep costs.

Equipment of Overland 4 is dependable and complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting to Tillotson Carburetor.

250,000 miles of test have made the strength and endurance of this car a matter of record.

See Overland 4 at the first opportunity. Ask for booklet. Overland 4 Touring, $845; Roadster, $845; Coupe, $1325; Sedan, $1375. Prices f. o. b. Toledo.

NATION'S GREATEST NATURAL GAS FIELDS

Frankell, Dec. 6.—While official figures are lacking on the point it is generally conceded by drillers and others in the fields that the actual and potential production of natural gas in Stephens and Palo Pinto counties is in excess of the production of the entire states of Oklahoma and Kansas.

Every part of the two counties has developed heavy gas in drilling wells. In many cases the gas has been followed by oil. In some other instances there has been only gas.

The big gas well brought in by the Walker-Caldwell company north of this place this week is the tenth of the character within five miles of Frankell. So far the utilization of natural gas from Stephens county wells has been limited to use under the boilers of drilling wells.

The Texas company has developed a large business in this line and is now earning a big revenue by the sale of gas to drillers. Even the towns of Stephens county have not yet been served with natural gas. For several weeks Breckenridge people have been expecting that natural gas would be available there but they are still burning wood.

In Palo Pinto county a little more attention is being paid to the natural gas resources, a large corporation there having several months ago begun the distribution of natural gas to communities more or less distant from the fields.

That the supply of natural gas for all North Texas will soon come from the fields of Stephens and Palo Pinto and adjacent counties is already certain.

The Oklahoma supply is inadequate and growing less. In the meantime the waste of natural gas in the Stephens and Palo Pinto county fields is such as to cause comment even in the fields where waste of natural gas is more or less of a common occurrence.

In addition to the great resource of natural gas in the region about Frankell and along the line of the new Wichita Falls, Ranger and Fort Worth railroad there is an apparently wonderful pool of natural gas in the Amarillo vicinity that seems as yet to promise no production of oil.

This Amarillo gas supply may be made available both for North Texas and for Kansas and Oklahoma points. It will require long pipelines to reach the heaviest consumers, but if the supply shall hold out as it now promises to do and expand as the indications point it will be worth the investment.

The big problem that confronts the people of the larger communities in North Texas is to save the gas in the North Texas fields and conserve it for use as fuel. That this will be done as the situation clarifies is expected but the net loss of gas that is now wasting will be a big item in the life of the fields.

WISHES SHE'D GOT IT 20 YEARS AGO

Suffered So She Couldn't Use Arms at Times—Tanlac Relieves Troubles

"If I had gotten hold of Tanlac twenty years ago I would have been a happier and healthier woman, instead of suffering like I did," said Mrs. Kate Wisdom, who formerly lived at Norman, Okla., but now resides at Clovis, New Mex.

"For twenty years," she continued, "I had been a sufferer, off and on, from indigestion, rheumatism and other troubles. After eating anything I would bloat up with gas that kept me in misery, my heart would beat like a trip hammer and I would get short of breath. I didn't sleep at all well and would often have to sit up in bed before I could breathe with any ease and by morning I would be all fagged out. Rheumatism in my arm and shoulder hurt me terribly and my joints would be so stiff I could hardly use my arm at times."

"Soon after beginning with Tanlac my appetite improved and I can now eat anything I want. I soon got rid of that bloating and the pressure on my heart was relieved. I tried many other medicines for my troubles, but found no relief till I took Tanlac. I am now feeling all right and Tanlac has been such a benefit to me that I have told many others about it and they say it is helping them too."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

PUBLIC IS WARNED RAILWAY TRAVELING WILL BE DIFFICULT

Washington, Dec. 6.—Warning to the public that railway travel will be "difficult and unsatisfactory until the coal strike emergency has passed and should be avoided wherever possible," was issued tonight by Director General Hines of the railway administration. Many trains are to be taken over to conserve coal, parlor car service is to be sharply curtailed, and persons forced to undertake journeys should consult railroad agents as to available trains before arranging their plans, the statement said.

"The shortage of coal has reached a point where it is vitally necessary to reduce passenger train service and to call upon the public to assume the inconvenience and discomfort which this action will inevitably entail," Mr. Hines said.

Certain trains will be annulled and a large number of parlor cars will temporarily be discontinued. These changes will become effective in western region December 8 and in eastern and Allegheny region on December 10. The average seating capacity of a parlor car is less than half the seating capacity of a coach. This step is taken for the purpose of providing for the maximum seating capacity consistent with the necessary reduction in train mileage. It is the duty of the railroad administration to warn the public that until this emergency has passed travel will be unsatisfactory and to urge every one who can possibly do so to refrain from travel. It is unfortunate the emergency comes as the holiday season approaches but it is hoped and believed that our people will appreciate the gravity of the situation and will give full and cheerful co-operation.

Our merchants are convinced that the people of this section believe in the familiar slogan "Do your Christmas shopping early" and most of them have had to send in rush orders for more goods.

It is not even yet too late to plant those trees you planned to plant during this fall and winter. There never was a more auspicious condition for tree-planting than right now, and if every family in Graham would put out from one to half a dozen trees, we would be reaping some of the benefits from them as early as next year, and the benefits would increase as time went on. An organized campaign seems impossible, but an individual campaign is the next best. Plant a few trees now and as we grow their beauty will repay the time spent in their planting many fold. Shrubbery enhances the value of property.

TIME FOR FIRE PREVENTION

The recent cold spell calls for fires in every Graham home, and fires increase the hazards to property. The emergency urges the exercise of wise precaution by householders, and the taking on of several ounces of prevention. The loss of a home by fire at this time, when building costs are what they are, when surplus houses are not easily located and the hotels are filled to capacity, would prove disastrous to the average family.

The part of self-protective wisdom is to keep fire prevention constantly in mind. Flues should be made safe, pipes and connections made reliable, all recognized hazards eliminated, and for very personal reasons particular watch should be kept on the tail of one's robe de nuit. Loss and damage from fire can and should be reduced to a negligible minimum in Graham this winter. And it will be, if householders keep awake to their own best interests.

Mrs. Ada Bagley and family left this morning for their old home at Cameron, Texas. They have been living at Bunker since last February, where they own some valuable property.

CHRISTMAS

We are near enough to Christmas to realize that it will not match the dreams and expectations of a year ago. Then we all felt sure that the second Christmas after the armistice would see the peace of the world firmly established, the costs of the war pretty well liquidated, and the nation busily and contentedly at work. Instead we have to admit that the condition of the world is unstable; that no one feels any clear confidence about the future; that the cost of living continues so high that fewer and fewer people can meet the cost of giving; that great numbers of men who have suddenly discovered that they have a giant's strength seem determined to use it like a giant; and that everywhere there is unrest, strife and vexation. Consequently, the approach of Christmas does not kindle in all hearts a feeling of cheerfulness.

Yet cheerfulness should be the text and cardinal virtue for Christmas Day. Christmas this year should signalize the assumption of a new cheerfulness to vivify and vitalize an old faith. What is the old faith that has been threatening to break from its moorings and leave mankind to despair? Is it not simply the belief that good must triumph over evil? Let us then have faith that the civilized peoples of the world will frame by degrees a peace that is permanent. Even though sinister influences are working to undermine our institutions, let us have faith that the American people will show themselves sane enough and strong enough to protect them.

Optimism without effort is idle and unintelligent. Our faith must inspire us to defend by word and act the principles in which we believe. Christmas this year may well be the day from which to date our more earnest and active efforts in the cause of good citizenship—the cause, the world over, of peace on earth, good will toward men.—Youths' Companion.

We will soon be in our new home on North Elm Street.—BABB MOTOR CO.

Many Young Men and Women Offer Themselves For Christian Service

Southern Baptists Will Have Ample Working Force for New Program—Campaign Hopes to Strengthen Local Churches and Win 2,500,000 Lost to Christ During Next Five Years.

Group of Young Women Volunteers, Preparing Themselves for Special Christian Service at Baptist Women's Training School, Fort Worth, Texas.

Probably the most encouraging development that has come to the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, so far, is the large number of young men and women throughout the South and Southwest who have volunteered their services for special Christian work wherever God may need them. A special day was set apart in the Baptist schools and churches for "calling out the called," when it was expected to secure a minimum of 5,000 volunteers for special Christian service, this number being necessary, it was held, if the enlarged program of the campaign was to be carried out. Returns from these services are still coming in with the prospect that the number will reach at least 7,500.

These volunteers will enter the ministry, go as missionaries, Christian doctors, nurses and teachers to foreign lands, labor in the homeland for the advancement of the kingdom of God or serve in any special capacity where they feel the Lord directs them. Baylor College, Belton, Texas, an institution for young women, led the list of schools with 420 volunteers; Bessie Tift College, Forsythe, Ga., responded with 248; Louisiana College, Pineville, La., 95; Women's Training School, Louisville, Ky., 115; Southwestern Theological Seminary, Ft. Worth, Tex., 83 for the foreign field alone; Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, 57; while similar responses came from numerous other institutions in the various states comprising the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Prominent among the many interesting accounts of the special services held in the churches was a report from Rev. E. Allison, a Baptist minister of Etowah, N. C., who, now in his eightieth year, looks back over an active ministry of sixty years, practically all of which has been spent in the vicinity which he is now serving. Mr. Allison has the unusual distinction of having baptized 5,526 persons and at least 104 additional converts under his ministry have been baptized by an assistant pastor; since Mr. Allison's health has not been good, due to his advanced years. When this aged minister of the gospel presented the call for volunteers for special Christian service in this campaign, three young men, all of whom were converted and reared under Mr. Allison's ministry, responded for the ministry themselves, one of them being his nephew.

But the campaign hopes to enlist a large number of Christian workers other than those several thousand who will give themselves entirely to special religious work. The campaign hopes to enlist 2,000,000 additional pupils in the Sunday Schools of the South and Southwest; win 2,500,000 additional souls to Christ during the next five years; bring the Baptist church membership in the South to 5,500,000 and enlist all these in all forms of church work; increase the number of Baptist churches in the South to 46,000, and enroll 40,000 young men and women in the denomination's schools where they will prepare themselves for lives of Christian usefulness in their communities or for service in any part of the world where they may be needed.

While it is the hope to raise $75,000,000 to be invested in the larger program of Christian service which gave the campaign its name, raising the money is only one of the objects sought. Baptists are being implored to give themselves and all of their talents as well as their money to God, Director Scarborough announces.

These needs that the $20,000,000 apportioned to Christian education will be expended. To these institutions the denomination is looking for its trained leaders to help carry forward the work along every line contemplated in the $75,000,000 campaign. In Texas alone there are 700 pastorless Baptist churches and probably the same proportion holds in the other states. It is hoped the campaign will call out 5,000 volunteers for ministerial and missionary work and these institutions will be asked to equip these young men and women for their work.

Last year reports show, over 6,000 students in these institutions took voluntary courses in Bible and mission study; nearly 4,000 of them attended student prayer meetings; ministerial students pastoring churches raised more than $80,000 for church benevolences and led more than 10,000 people to profess Christ. The campaign hopes to result in enrolling 35,000 young men and women in Baptist schools within the next five years.

The South-wide institutions that will benefit from the campaign include Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and Women's Training School at Louisville, Ky.; Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Women's Training School at Fort Worth, Tex.; Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, and Negro Theological Seminary at Nashville, while aid will be given to every Baptist institution of learning in all states of the convention territory, and to new Baptist colleges that will be established in Arkansas, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana and New Mexico, along with one somewhere in the region of the Appalachian mountains yet to be definitely located.

Expenses in raising the $75,000,000 sought by the Baptists of the South in their 75 Million Campaign will amount to considerably less than one per cent, Dr. L. R. Scarborough, general director, announces. This includes the expenses of both the general headquarters and the eighteen state headquarters. This is probably the lowest overhead expense in the history of large money-raising efforts in this country.

BAPTISTS PLAN TO FIGHT BOLSHEVISM

SYSTEM IS RECOMMENDED FOR PREVENTION OF RADICALISM IN THE SOUTH.

AMERICANIZE FOREIGNERS

Teaching Them English and Ideals of United States and Christianity is Part of Program of 75 Million Campaign.

Southern Baptists have no sympathy for the I. W. W.'s, Bolsheviks and bomb throwers, and while radicals of that type are not numerous in this section of the country as yet, it is the hope of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign to make the spread of such destructive propaganda here impossible by so pervading with the gospel all centers where radicalism might expect to obtain a foothold as to make it impossible for the professional agitators to receive a sympathetic hearing. In other words, it is the hope of the campaign to so extend the work of Americanizing and Christianizing the foreigners living within the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention that they will measure up to the highest standards of patriotism and religion.

There are 4,000,000 persons of foreign birth and children of foreigners living within the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention, and while considerable work has been done already along the line of teaching Americanism and the Christian religion to these people, this work will be greatly enlarged as a result of this campaign.

In the Southwestern states there are 1,000,000 Mexicans, 600,000 living in Texas, 200,000 in New Mexico, 75,000 in Louisiana and a large number in Arkansas, Oklahoma and Missouri. Because of the growing importance of the Mexican work the campaign has appropriated $75,000 to it alone for the next five years.

But the Americanization and evangelization of the foreigners is not confined to Mexicans. This work is carried on also among the newly-arrived immigrants at the various Southern ports, among those of foreign birth in the mining districts of Alabama, Oklahoma and Illinois and among other groups of people of foreign birth in Florida, Louisiana, Texas, Maryland and Virginia. Some of the state organizations carry on work of their own among these people, while in many places the program is carried out cooperatively between the state mission boards and the Home Mission Board. In many instances a large work is done by the latter agency alone.

Believing that both Americanization and evangelization can be accomplished most effectively by first reaching the children, Baptist agencies have established schools where the English language is taught, along with American and Christian ideals. Such schools are already being conducted with great success among the Italian and Cuban children at Tampa, Fla., for French-speaking children at Church Point, La., for Mexican children at El Paso and other Texas points, while community center work is carried on extensively at many of these points and at numerous towns and mining centers where people of foreign birth make up a large percentage of the population, the social work of this character being conducted by Baptist women.

Large results are expected to follow the work of the Baptist Bible Institute, at New Orleans, where instruction is given in English, French, Italian and Spanish. All foreign-speaking people are required to take some English work and the Bible is taught in certain practical subjects to them in their own languages, thus facilitating their grasp of it. Practical Christian activities are also required of all the students, some of whom are training for foreign mission work and others for service among the peoples of foreign birth in this country. Patriotism and high ideals of Christian civilization are given emphasis throughout the institution and it is the belief of those familiar with its work that it will prove a potent factor in the Americanization and Christianization of the peoples of foreign birth in this country.

HERE'S where the particular smoker meets the particular smoke—Chesterfield.

Particular is right! Not only do we use the four choicest varieties of Turkish tobacco—Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samson—but to these we add the rich, sun-ripened leaves of specially choice Domestic tobacco.

Fine as these tobaccos are, it's the exclusive process by which they are blended that gives to Chesterfields that satisfying body, that mellow richness which makes a smoke mean something.

Chesterfields certainly do satisfy as no other cigarette has satisfied you before—and to top it off, they are packed in a glassine paper package that preserves for you all of that delicious flavor.
