ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION BRINGS LARGEST CROWDS TO GRAHAM EVER SEEN HERE

"The end of a perfect day" expressed the feeling of the immense crowd assembled from all sections of the country here last Friday to attend the Armistice Day celebration given under the auspices of the American Legion. Graham has had big days and our people thought the climax had been reached when the completion of the Wichita Falls and Southern railroad to the city was celebrated, April 22. That was a huge success but the Armistice Day celebration here November 11 surpassed the railroad celebration.

The American Legion with the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce, the Daughters of the Confederacy, the city council, the public schools, in fact all Graham had planned an elaborate program which was carried out to the letter. The Legion boys left nothing undone to make it a great day. Early in the morning people began to arrive from every direction. They came on foot, in wagons, in buggies, in cars and on the trains. By noon the city was literally filled with people. The crowd was estimated all the way from 7,000 to 10,000. No one questions the fact that it was the largest gathering ever seen in the city. Some came from other cities to meet friends and relatives here that day but failed in some instances, to find them on account of the vast throngs in Graham. The true American spirit prevailed throughout the day.

Memorial Service
The first exercise of the day was the memorial service at the Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. One of the most touching incidents of the day was when one of our own Graham boys, who lost both feet over seas in defense of his country, came in on crutches and took his seat on the stage. Richard Taylor had charge of the memorial services which opened by singing America. Mrs. R. A. Duncan favored the audience with a vocal solo. Judge M. D. Brown of this city delivered the principal address. He is an able and forceful speaker. His address was appreciated by all present.

The day was so full of events that many were absent from this service preparing for other parts of the program which followed during the day. It was a great service and the beautiful and appropriate solo by Mrs. Duncan and the able address by Judge Brown will be remembered by those who were fortunate to be present at this service.

Elaborate Parade
Graham has always had the reputation for doing things worth while. The parade at 1:30 o'clock eclipsed anything of the kind ever attempted in this city. A. D. Stewart was chairman of the day and did his work nobly. He worked faithfully and his efforts were rewarded. The entire city cooperated with him in making the parade a decided success. The South Bend Derrick had the following to say about the celebration: "Graham pulled off an Armistice Day celebration that would have been a credit to Fort Worth or Dallas. We rubbed our eyes to see if we were awake or dreaming, when the magnificent parade a mile and a quarter long passed by. We were awake all right and realized that Graham is awake."

There was strong competition for the prizes offered by the Chamber of Commerce for the best business float, decorated private cars, etc. Space forbids giving the names of the long list of competitors. Eddie-man Brothers won the prize for the best decorated business men's float. E. C. Reed had the best decorated private car. The grammar grades won first prize offered for best school display. Second prize was won by the senior class.

The following served as judges: Art Ernest, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Dr. Gregg, Olney, Texas; Mrs. Isabell, Olney, Texas; Miss Mollie Elkins, Elkinsville, Texas; Carl Kisinger, Graham, Texas; Will Seddon, Graham, Texas.

Wrestling Match
The Legion boys had planned for one of the best wrestling matches ever seen in Texas. Pet Brown, the Texas champion, met George Stevens, who had made quite a reputation in Graham as a wrestler. The match followed immediately after the parade but the crowd was small. Preparations had been made for several hundred but the crowd was a disappointment to those who had charge of the match.

Both men were in good condition and it was a great match. Stevens threw Brown in the first five and one-half minutes with the toe hold. Brown limped off the mat but when he returned he came with the determination which showed plainly that he intended to win the match. He had no difficulty in getting the next two falls. Both men are clean sports and the crowd was satisfied with the result.

Football Game
Football is becoming a favorite sport in the fall term of school. The Decatur high school football team was on hand to meet the plucky Graham high team. Both teams had good records and the largest crowd that ever witnessed a football game in Graham greeted the teams. It soon became evident that the Graham high team had an easy victim. The Decatur boys fought hard and played a good clean game but could not match Graham's fast team.

The Decatur boys were not able to cross Graham's goal line but made one field kick which netted them three points. Only one time, when Decatur completed a long pass was Graham's goal in danger. Graham crossed Decatur's goal six times but kicked only one goal, making a total of thirty-seven points.

It was a good game and was enjoyed by a record-breaking crowd. This closed the program for the day save the banquet given the ex-service men and their ladies by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Banquet
The climax of the day came when the United Daughters of the Confederacy served a banquet to all ex-service men. The entire day was "a joy forever" but the great feast by the ladies will never be forgotten by the boys.

The building formerly occupied by Valliant and Company on the north side of the square was used for the banquet room. Two tables the entire length of the building were arranged and literally loaded with the best things to eat that could be found. The Daughters took a delight and special pride in preparing the best in large quantities. The Adler Sign Company prepared a large picture of Columbia holding this inscription: "You fought for me, I will cook for you."

On account of not having a banquet hall large enough to seat all at one time, some could not wait for the second and third tables. More than 400 were served. This is only another evidence that Graham needs a large hall for occasions of this kind. The banquet was all that could be desired but the program was a rare treat to the ex-service men and their ladies. Hon. J. B. Rhea delivered an address on Americanism that struck a responsive chord in the hearts of the large number of ex-

RANGER GAS CO. READY TO SERVE GRAHAM PEOPLE

The Ranger Gas Company has been serving Graham more than one month and every one using gas is well pleased. We are sorry that all parts of the town are not supplied with gas. One instance has come to our attention in which the customer has piped his house and the company refuses to connect him because there is no service pipe through his alley. The company would connect him if he would pay part of the expense in running a line to his property, but he does not think that he ought to join with the company in piping the town. He lives only three blocks from the public square.

More than 200 meters have been placed and plumbers are busy piping houses. The weather has been so warm that the people have not been reminded yet that winter is coming. When cold weather really comes there will be a rush. The company has a large number of meters on hand and can place them quickly.

Eleven hotels, five cafes, and six industrial plants, besides about 250 residences, are now using gas. The company is anxious to render the best service possible and will gladly cooperate with the public in giving Graham the best system in the country.

R. D. Owen, a reader of The Leader since 1876, was in to see us Monday and renewed for the paper another year. Mr. Owen was the owner of the first oil well in the Bunger field. He still reads The Leader and we hope will be moving to Graham soon. His farm will soon be full of oil wells and he will have to move away. He is an estimable gentleman and Graham will welcome him here.

SPECIAL TRAIN CARRIES OIL OFFICIALS TO FIELD

The special train carrying the officials and stockholders of the Noco Petroleum Company passed through Graham last night about 10 o'clock on its way to South Bend to look over the interests of the company, purchased recently from the North American Oil and Refining Company. The Noco Petroleum Company is a $25,000,000 corporation and will mean a great deal toward the rapid development of the Young county fields.

The North American, from whom the Noco bought its interests, owns 8,000 acres of leases in this territory where the Roxana Petroleum Corporation is carrying out a development program for a one-half interest in 6,000 acres, and the other 2,000 is owned entirely by the North American.

The party is headed by C. J. Webster, president of the Noco Company, and H. E. Lunsford, its secretary and treasurer, and is being "chaperoned" by C. F. Colcord and M. H. Warren, president and vice president of the North American. Mr. Colcord is popularly known as the "Daddy" of the South Bend field, ten miles southwest of Graham in Young county.

"We pulled out of the Pennsylvania Station in New York Monday morning," said President Webster "and came straight through to South Bend via St. Louis, Oklahoma City and Wichita Falls.

"We have seen some splendid properties owned by the North American at Duncan and Burkburnett, but the 8,000-block here in Young county is one of the most valuable oil properties to be found anywhere in the Mid-Continent field.

"I was mighty glad recently to complete our alliance with the North American and Mr. Colcord so that the

AMERICAN LEGION BRINGS MUSICAL PROGRAM, NOV. 25

Visitors in old Italy come back with wonderful stories of blue Italian skies, of the land of romance, and particularly of the charm of old Italy as expressed in song and delightful melody. And they tell us of roving minstrel bands, who serenade most beautifully with Italian harp, with violin and cello, and quite often with the old Italian grind organ.

As a part of the program to be given on the evening of November 25 at the school auditorium by the Harp Singers Company, the street songs and scenes of old Italy will be featured. The same old beautiful Italian melodies which have charmed the ages, and the same old instruments, the harp, cello, violin, and last—but not least—the old-fashioned grind organ. The latter, of course, is only used for the novel entrance in the Italian scenes, but it is effective in bringing out the atmosphere of old Italy permeating this part of their interesting and delightful program.

The four clever artists comprising the Harp Singers are not maids of old Italy, however. Not by a long way. They are, rather, four mighty talented young ladies from Chicago, and they are bringing with them a splendid miscellaneous concert program, both vocal and instrumental, with some fine readings and character work. The harp solos, too, are a feature on this most enjoyable program. In the scenes from old Italy, the young ladies are charmingly costumed, and the picture is indeed one long to be remembered.

This program is given under the auspices of the American Legion and deserves a large patronage from our people. It is one of the best musical programs ever brought here.

TWELVE PRODUCING WELLS IN BUNGER FIELD; MANY ADDITIONAL LOCATIONS MADE

The news reaches us as we press that the Reed, Edgett-Grimshaw No. 1 on the J. E. Dowdle survey, section No. 34, has come in for 350 barrels at 2600 feet. This well extends the Bunger pool 2800 feet south. This promises to be a large pool. Young county has been the third county in production for some time but the indications are that it will soon climb higher than that.

Bunger is the newest oil field in this section but it has been carefully planned and is being developed rapidly. It has been only a few weeks since the Owen discovery well came in. There are now twelve producers in the field making more than 40,000 barrels of oil monthly. The past week has witnessed many new locations in this territory, and new locations are being made in every direction from the Bunger pool. There are about sixty wells under way at present and it is thought that there will be at least 100 by the first of the year.

Surveyors are kept busy south of Graham and, in fact, every direction from Graham. The Texas Company has been surveying their leases and has made three locations in the locality lying between the Owen and the Askew wells. One location is on the west side of the Driver, another is in the northwest part of the McClendon survey and just south of the Grimshaw land, and the other location is in the northeast corner of the Mercer survey. All three tests will be drilled at once. The Texas Company believes in the future of this oil section as they not only were the first to get in with a pipe line but are showing their faith by starting a drilling campaign. Another location of interest is the one made by the Sims Oil Company in the northeast corner of their fifty-acre lease in the J. N. Lisle survey No. 33, which will be drilled at once. The New Domain Oil Company is starting a well in the same survey on the west part of their thirty-one acres lying south of the Sims lease. The Gulf Production Company has made locations for their Nos. 2, 3, and 4 wells on the Grimshaw land in Survey 39. The Godley Oil Company has made a location for its No. 2 well on the Owen land. The Elk Basin Petroleum Company has a rig up for its No. 4 location on the Driver land ready to drill at the northeast corner and has made two additional locations on this lease. The Planet is getting ready to drill at the northeast corner of the Cunningham survey.

Applegate and Hedrick have found a new sand in the Bunger section at 2,550 feet on the Whittenburg No. 1. This puts a new light on the district, as they only touched the sand which looks to be at a similar depth to the McCluskey sand at South Bend. Operators have long thought there was a 2,500 foot sand in this section and the results will be watched with great interest at this well. Another well that is about to reach this horizon is the Rosell 1-E well located in the north central part of Survey 34 and being drilled by the Brooks interests, which is now 2,450 feet deep. Another well that will test this sand is the Browning & Hodges on the Durham lease northeast of the field which is now 2,500 feet and drilling. The Barnes Production Company well on Survey 44, Parsons No. 1, found some more gas under the 2,100-foot sand and this indicates that the structure contains oil in the vicinity. The Applegate & Hedrick well on the Whittenburg land gives further evidence of oil on this northwest trend.

Much development work is expected on this strike to locate the pay. J. S. Cosden is starting a well to the east on Survey 46 and the Leslie Spoonstons interests have made a location on the J. E. Parsons land.

The Sims well on the Owen land is still holding up around 700 barrels in the 1,900-foot sand and they have made another location 400 feet to the west. The Burton well at the northeast corner of the Whittenburg land is now 1,725 feet and expected reach the oil horizon in the next few days. The well being drilled by Mann, Leslie Scott & Reed at the northeast corner of the Cunningham survey, found the oil sand at 1,894 feet and a well is expected to be brought in any minute. The Rosell has gone back into its Owen No. 1 and increased the flow from 200 to 310 barrels per day.

Snowden & McSweeney are starting a well on the Corner Survey six miles east of the Bunger section which will be a test for that district and have an important bearing on oil conditions north of the river. The Penn Cities Oil Company has their rig-up on the Herron land northeast of the old Lisle No. 1 about two miles and has made a contract to drill to the deep lime if necessary.

The northern part of the Goose-neck district will soon be tested by the well to be drilled by Capt Colgrove and J. S. Cosden. There is more development planned for this section also.

WONDERS BY THE TELEPHONE

Washington, Nov. 11.—The call of a bugle, the chime of bells and the voice of a man were swept across the continent from San Francisco today to be hurled by amplifiers over a wide stretch of ground about Arlington National cemetery with every note, every jangling vibration of the bells and every spoken syllable as distinct as though sounded a hundred feet from the listener's ears.

Similarly, there was a long reading of speeches from the stag of the amphitheater here to be carried out over the wires to San Francisco. The voice of the reader went on and on. Every syllable penetrated clearly to every nook and hollow, and hundreds of thousands could hear the president's address, the prayers, singing and music in the grounds about the structure.

Then the voice announced that the next words to be heard would be spoken in San Francisco. The faint whirl of the mechanism rose to a higher hum and a new deeper toned voice announced that chimes played on a phonograph record would come next. As clearly as if it were not a dozen feet away, the click of the phonograph mechanism came as the needle dropped on the facts of the whirling record 3,000 miles away; the familiar introductory scrape began, then the bells boomed out wailing echoes in the cemetery, pealing over the thousands of graves.

The deep voice took up the task again with the announcement: "Spoken from the roof of the civic auditorium in San Francisco."

It read out the words of President Harding's inaugural address, then announced the bugle call records, and the clear note of a trumpet in stirring army calls swept over the field.

To accomplish this latest marvel of communication, the telephone company employed nearly 10,000 miles of wire circuit, double that length of wire; it had linemen stationed every 15 miles all the way to San Francisco, 308 picked men to keep it going; it had more than 90 telegraph operators on Morse circuits paralleling the talking lines to see that all moved smoothly, that orders were prompt. It handled all of the Armistice Day proceedings, the president's words in his own voice, the strains of the marine band, the roar of the gun salvo that marked this unknown soldier's burial, and the notes of "taps" sounded above the grave. Only lack of equipment, officials said, prevents extension of the service to other cities than New York and San Francisco.

When Emma Goldman cries out of her misery in "Free Russia" that America is the best place in all the world to live, what must her adherents in this part of the world think? She has so long maligned American government, that it seems strange to hear the old bird squawk just as soon as she gets out into a land ruled after the fashion that she has so immortalized. Evidently consistency is not the chief jewel in Emma's basket of treasures. She wants to come back, but the United States government will rather reluctantly open the door for this old fowl whose foremost delight in times past was to agitate the citizens, inflaming their minds and inciting revolts.—Amarillo News.

Men Equal Women in Numbers Waco, Nov. 14.—Out of a total enrollment of 1083 students at Baylor University 541 are men students and 542 are women students. So far as is known this is about as equal a division of men and women students as Texas Collegiate records show.

Baylor's enrollment shows a slight decrease from last year. This has been necessarily unavoidable on account of the raising of scholastic standards. Not a first year student entered Baylor this year unless he came from an affiliated high school and with records showing him to have completed the required number of preparatory courses.

This raising of entrance requirements has placed Baylor University in the front rank of Southern universities and colleges. Her ranking in the Southern Association of Universities and Colleges now enables her to draw to her halls that type of student which makes for higher scholarship and good citizenship.

GRAHAM SOME CITY SAYS FORT WORTH MAN

W. B. Hibbs, of Fort Worth, thought he would take advantage of the holiday there November 11 and come out to Graham, a quiet country town, as he thought, and transact some business with our popular tire man, A. N. Hamrick.

When Mr. Hibbs reached Graham he found one of the busiest places he has seen in a long time. He hunted all day for Mr. Hamrick but failed to find him although he was on the streets. After he returned to Fort Worth he called Mr. Hamrick over the telephone and transacted his business.

Friday, November 11, was a really great day. There was an unusually large crowd here and it was difficult to find any one. Mr. Hibbs changed his mind about Graham being a quiet country town.

SECRETARY DENBY ORDERS MARINES TO SHOOT TO KILL

Washington, Nov. 12.—To 1,000 marines, detailed today from Quantico, Va., to guard the mails, Secretary Denby sent the following message:

"There is no compromise in this battle with bandits. If two marines guarding a mail car, for example, are suddenly covered by a robber, neither must hold up his hands, but both must begin shooting at once. One may be killed, but the other will get the robber and save the mail, that mail must be delivered or there must be a marine dead at the post of duty.

"You must be brave, as you always are. You must be constantly alert, and you must, when on guard duty, keep your weapons in hand, and, if attacked, shoot, and shoot to kill."

WHOSE WATCH?

"Glen from Mamma 10-29-11" I have a watch that I traded for just as the ship left France and which, I am sure, was taken from an American soldier, probably dead or wounded. POULTRY BUSINESS VERY PROMISING

"Now is the beginning of the best five-year period for profitable egg-production ever known. We believe it will be the best five years that will ever be known. All Europe has very little poultry. Some parts none at all. All Europe will become a bidder in American markets for poultry and eggs.

"American breeders must furnish the breeding stock for the renewal of the European flocks. It will take at least five years before Europe can be self sustaining in poultry products.

"These facts make for continued high prices of poultry and poultry products, even after prices of grains have declined. This means that farmers will be able to realize for the next five years more for the grains fed to hens for egg production than will be possible by any other process of marketing. We feel confident that by following proper practices in poultry keeping at all seasons of the year that double the market value of grains may be realized by feeding of it to hens for egg production. Begin now—this season—to make your poultry work count. Give it a definite place in the daily work, keep accounts and compare returns for effort expended with other farm operations. If this is done results will be more evident and you will appreciate your poultry as revenue producers.

Practice right selection in breeding. Provide proper housing conditions. Feed liberally rich foods to obtain high egg yield.

Hatch early. Early-hatched pullets lay fall and winter eggs. Practice good sanitation. Keep hens free from lice and roosts free of mites.

Take good care of eggs, gather daily, market often.

The hen lays a perfect egg. See to it that a perfect egg goes to market. Good eggs bring top prices."

Fifteen Texans Go Out As Baptist Missionaries To All Parts of Globe

(1) Miss Mina Garrett, Waco, teacher of science, Eliza Yates College, Shanghai, China; (2) Miss Bernice Noel, Decatur, educational work, Rio, Brazil; (3) S. S. Hawkeye State; (4) Miss Effie Evelene Baker, Bangs, educational work among girls in Japan; (5) Mrs. Vecie King, Chapman, Houston, educational work in Japan; (6) Mrs. Caroline Smith Taylor, Lampasas, Bahia, Brazil; (7-8) Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hamlett, Austin, representatives of Foreign Mission Board in Near East, with headquarters at Jerusalem; (9) Francis Willard Taylor, Bangs, Bahia, Brazil; (10) Miss Marjorie Taylor, Belton, educational work, Sao Paulo, Brazil; (11) Miss Minnie Alexander, Lometa, secretarial work, Kaifeng College, Kaifeng, China; (12) Miss Lucille Reagan, Big Springs, evangelistic work in African Mission; (13) Miss Viola Humphreys, Dublin, evangelistic work, Kaifeng, China; (14) Mrs. Leta Denham Scott, Seminary Hill, evangelistic work among Hakkas, South China; (15) Miss Nora E. Hawkins, Childress, educational work, Campos, Brazil; (16) Marcus J. Scott, Seminary Hill, evangelistic work among Hakkas, South China.

From the larger proceeds of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has been enabled to send out more than 160 new missionaries since that movement was launched, it is announced, and of that number sixty young men and women, representing fourteen states, have just sailed for China, Japan, Africa, Brazil, Argentina and Chile. In addition to these, Dr. and Mrs. Everett Gill of Kansas City will sail September 14 to become representatives of the Board in Europe, while Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hamlett of Austin, Texas, have just sailed for Jerusalem, where they will maintain headquarters in acting as the Near East representatives of the Board.

The new missionaries to China and Japan sailed from Seattle, Saturday, August 27, on the Hawkeye State of the Admiral Line, while those for Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Africa sailed from New York on the Aelius August 17. They will be engaged chiefly in evangelistic, educational, medical and agricultural work and will be stationed at various points in these fields. While a large number of new workers have been sent out by the Board since the beginning of the Campaign, at least 100 other capable young men and women could be employed to advantage if they were available, Secretary J. T. Love advises.

Mission Money Gets Results.
Of the more than $25,000,000 that has been collected in cash on the 75 Million Campaign to date, about $5,000,000 has gone to foreign missions. This has made it possible not only to strengthen the old work on all fields and employ a large number of new missionaries, but to do much other work, including building or making substantial additions to 15 boys' schools, 17 girls' schools, 37 mission residences, five hospitals and dispensaries, four light and power plants for mission compounds, 26 church buildings, four colleges, seven theological seminaries. In addition, assistance has been given seven church building loan associations, six new stations have been opened and equipped, land has been bought for the enlargement of several mission compounds, a home for orphans in Italy has been established, and a block of ground has been purchased in the heart of Rome for headquarters for the work in Italy, a theological seminary, publishing house, church and mission residence being provided on this property.

Enlarge European Field.
As a result of the Campaign, Southern Baptists have been enabled to greatly enlarge their work in Europe. They have carried on mission work in Italy since 1870, but now they have opened up new work in Jugo-Slavia, Hungary and Roumania, and have made a beginning, through the distribution of Bibles, in the Ukraine and Southern Russia and Siberia. To act as the European representatives of the Board in this enlarged program, Dr. and Mrs. Everett Gill of Kansas City were recently named. They will probably make their headquarters in Switzerland.

The first work Southern Baptists have ever done looking to the evangelization of Mohammedan lands has just been undertaken in Palestine and Syria, and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hamlett of Austin, Texas, have gone to Jerusalem, where they will superintend the work of the native evangelists. It is planned to establish a church, theological seminary and college, hospital and orphanage at Jerusalem as soon as practicable and thus seek to reach other points in Palestine and Syria from this center.

Minister to 900,000,000 People.
With the enlarged foreign mission program of Southern Baptists that denomination is now operating in 18 countries on every side of the globe, and has in its employ practically 500 foreign missionaries and twice that number of native workers trained in the mission schools. Through its present missionary operations the Board is seeking to minister to 475,000,000 yellow people, 4,000,000 brown people, 200,000,000 black people and 225,000,000 white people, making a total of 900,000,000 people, or more than half the population of the globe. Numbered among its workers already on the field are 21 foreign physicians and 8 foreign mission nurses who last year gave 154,070 treatments. There are now 611 mission churches on the foreign fields and of this number 134 are self-supporting. The average contributions of these mission churches last year to denominational causes was $5 per member, the Christians on the foreign fields responding more liberally as a result of the 75 Million Campaign.

The new missionaries sailing at this time were contributed by the following states: Alabama two, Arkansas one, Georgia five, Kentucky six, Louisiana two, Mississippi four, Missouri four, North Carolina three, South Carolina five, Tennessee five, Texas fifteen, Virginia six, Iowa one and Pennsylvania one.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION BY PRESIDENT W. G. HARDING

"That season has come when, alike in pursuance of a devout people's time-honored custom and in grateful recognition of favoring national fortunes, it is proper that the president should summon the nation to a day of devotion, of thanksgiving for the blessings bestowed and of prayer for guidance in modes of life that may deserve continuance of divine favor.

"Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace, and the approach to normal ways again. The year has brought us again into relations of amity with all nations after a long period of struggle and turbulence. In thankfulness, therefore, we may well unite in the hope that Providence will vouchsafe approval to the things we have done, the aims which have guided us, the aspirations which have inspired us.

"We shall be prospered as we shall deserve prosperity, seeking not alone for the material things but for those of the spirit as well; earnestly trying to help others, asking, before all else, the privilege of service. As we tender thanks anew for the exaltation which came to us, we may fittingly petition that moderation and wisdom shall be granted to rest upon all who are in authority in the tasks they must discharge. Their hands will be steadied, their purposes strengthened, in answer to our prayers.

"Ours has been a favored nation in the bounty which God has bestowed upon it. The greatest trial of humanity, though indeed we bore our part as well as we were able, left us comparatively little scarred. It is for us to recognize that we have been thus favored and when we gather at our altars to offer up thanks we will do well to pledge, in humanity and all sincerity our purpose to prove deserving. We have been raised up and preserved in national power and consequence as part of a plan whose wisdom we cannot question. Thus believing, we can do no less than hold our nation the willing instrument of the Providence which has so wonderfully favored us. Opportunity for very great service awaits us if we shall prove equal to it. Let our prayers be raised for direction in the right paths. Under God, our responsibility is great; to our own first, to all men afterward, to all mankind in God's own justice.

"Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November, to be observed by the people as a day of thanksgiving, devotion, and prayer; urging that at their hearth-sides and their altars, they will give thanks for all that has been rendered unto them, and will pray for a continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the United States of America.

"Done at the capitol of the United States, this thirty-first day of October, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundredth and forty-sixth.

"WARREN G. HARDING.
By the president:
CHARLES E. HUGHES, Secretary of State."

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Is your diamond genuine? If there is any doubt in your mind the best thing is to take it to a reliable jeweler. You can, however, test the stone yourself if you know how. And here's how:

A clean drop of water on the face of a clean diamond will be rolled about with the point of a pin without losing its globular shape. On an imitation diamond the water will spread. A genuine diamond immersed in a glass of water will flash and sparkle as brightly as in the air. A counterfeit gem will be almost invisible.

An imitation squeezed between two silver dollars may be crushed by the pressure of the fingers. This test, when performed by the strongest fan, will not injure a diamond. A steel file applied to a diamond will not scratch it. Rub the diamond with a pencil a genuine stone may be easily cleaned of dirt. A counterfeit stone holds the mark stubbornly.

The best test of all is that of specific gravity. All diamonds have a specific gravity of 3.52. If you don't know how to take specific gravity any chemist can take it for you.

The latest word from the syndicate which controls the diamond market is that the price of diamonds will not come down. The directors of the company say, on the contrary, that conditions at the South African mines make it probable there will be a slow but steady advance in price for several years.

U. S. IS CREDITED WITH 63.8 PER CENT OF OIL PRODUCTION

Washington, Nov. 5.—The total production of petroleum oil throughout the world from 1857 to 1920 is estimated by the United States Geological Survey at 8,744,972,000 barrels. Of this tremendous output the United States is credited with 5,429,693,000 barrels, or 62.1 per cent, while its nearest competitor has been Russia with 1,904,021,000 barrels or 21.8 per cent, while Mexico's production has been but 536,524,000, or 6.1 per cent.

During the year 1920 the United States produced 43,402,000 barrels, or a total of 63.8 per cent of the world production of 694,854,000 barrels. Mexico was second with 163,540,000 barrels, or 23.5 per cent and Russia third with 25,429,000 barrels. The Dutch East Indies produced 17,529,000; Persia, 12,352,000; India and Rumania, 7,500,000 barrels each; Poland 5,000,000; Peru, Japan and Trinidad, 2,000,000 each; Argentina, Egypt and Borneo, 1,000,000 each, and scattering production from Venezuela, France, Germany, Canada, Italy, Algeria, and England, closing the list with 2,909,000.

Misses Nona Akard and Una Adams spent the week end visiting in Fort Worth returning by the way of Weatherford for a brief visit.

STATE GIVES BACK BOOZE

Court Rules That Man's Hoard Was Personal Property and Wrongfully Seized by Peace Officers.

Laramie, Wyo.—George Longpre is being overwhelmed by the ardent manifestations of a wide circle of "friends."

Reason: He has just received thousands of dollars' worth of liquors and beer, handed over to him by order of the state courts.

Sheriff Trabing hauled the truckload of "items" to the home of Longpre under an order of Judge M. C. Brown, who held that this "personal property" was unlawfully seized by Wyoming peace officers.

Amid the buzzards of hundreds of onlookers, Sheriff Trabing transferred the following "items" to Longpre's cellar:

- Fifty-three cases of bonded whisky.
 - One ten-gallon jug of gin.
 - Four three-gallon kegs of "liquor."
 - One gallon keg of "liquor."
 - Four one-half-gallon kegs of "liquor."
 - Twenty bottles of beer.
 - Forty bottles of "mixed liquors."
- The consignment, estimated at local "bootleg" prices to be worth nearly $20,000, was seized at Longpre's home in August, 1919, by a squad of state prohibition officers. Longpre immediately brought action for the return of his "property," and the decision was rendered in his favor.

THIS BIRD HAD REAL TEETH

Lived 25 Million Years Ago and Chewed Its Food, Says Museum Curator.

Lawrence, Kan.—One of the two known specimens of bird's teeth was found in the chalk beds of western Kansas and has been preserved at the University of Kansas museum, according to Curator H. T. Martin, who found the specimen.

The other is at the Yale university museum. The Kansas fossil is of the cretaceous period, about twenty-five million years ago and includes ten teeth.

It is the most complete specimen of the bird's teeth. The bird was of the Hesperornis family, was five feet long, had a short vertebral tail and possessed no wings. It was a marine bird.

The specimen is more valuable than any other, according to Professor Martin, because it gives a clear idea of the semi-palmaceous feathery covering that the bird possessed. No other known specimen gives this evidence.

MAKE BALLOON INTO CANOES

Hudson Bay Indians Get Wonderful Craft from Wreck of Giant Airship.

Cochran, Ont.—Some wonderful canoes appeared mysteriously recently in the Hudson Bay region. They were constructed out of birchbark, but of a strange material the North had never seen.

The big balloon that carried three United States airmen into the wilderness several months ago has since lain where it descended. Officials of Moose Factory, one of the earliest posts established on American shores by the Hudson's Bay company, had given orders to all the Indians who owe allegiance to the ancient for company, to leave the great gas bag undisturbed. These orders had been strictly observed, but a band of outlandish Indians, whose home village is sixty miles northwest of Moose Factory, found the balloon and from the sides of the fallen monster made canoes that rode the waves like thistle-down.

Hand-Made Toys

Here are two of many animals that are due to arrive on Christmas morning. A black kitty that will stand any amount of hard usage is very easy to make, requiring only a pair of silk stocking tops that have survived the worn-out feet. Cut off the worn feet and trim out the ankles in a curved line to form the ears. Sew a seam along this line, turn right side out and stuff with cotton to form the body. Wind the remainder of the tops with small cord to form the tail and tie a gay bow of ribbon at the end. Two white bone buttons make the eyes and heavy silk floss the mouth and whiskers and Miss Kitty is dressed up with a bow at the neck. The elephant is made of gray dretyn, plush or cotton flannel and cut by a paper pattern. His eyes are shoe buttons, his tusks white cloth.

Pretty Home Gifts

Anyone who knows how to handle a paint brush and oil colors or understands the new art of painting with colored sealing wax can make the book for telephone numbers pictured here. It is merely a piece of black cloth folded over leaves of white paper. Small holes punched through at each end allow a black silk cord to bind the book and provide for hanging it up at the same time. A powder box and a rouge box shown below it are covered with black lacquer and decorated with colored sealing wax that simulates ribbon and flowers.

Gay Skipping Ropes

A skipping rope is a joy to the sturdy little out-door girl, especially when it has Nannette and Raintin for handles. They are painted a deep pink with faces, hair, neckties and buttons of black paint. By substituting the cloth handles for these handles and attaching the rope to them it is easy to make this treasure of childhood at home.

Handy Gifts for Men

Every man, young or old, will appreciate a good-looking rack to place within easy reach of his dressing case. The rack requires an oblong or oval board, smoothly covered with cretonne and a small nickel towel rack, which is screwed to the front of it. It is suspended by a silk cord fastened at the back with screw eyes.

COURTED THEM OFF THEIR FEET

Remarkable Story of Lydia Southard, Said to Have Had Five Husbands.

FOUR MEET SUDDEN DEATHS

Now Woman is Charged With Murder of Number 4 and Will Be Tried in Montana—Present Husband Remains Loyal to His Wife.

San Francisco.—"She swept the men of her choice off their feet—courted them so persistently that they could not escape."

That's the way V. H. Ormsby, a deputy sheriff of Twin Falls, Idaho, describes the romance of Mrs. Lydia Southard, under arrest at Honolulu on a charge of murdering Ed Meyers of Twin Falls, her fourth husband.

Mrs. Southard denies the charges and says she can satisfactorily explain the deaths of her former husbands. She told officials she believed she was a "typhoid carrier," and that this may have been responsible for some of them.

"Take poor Ed Meyers, for example," says Deputy Sheriff Ormsby. "He was the woman's fourth husband. In 1920 he was running a little ranch out near Twin Falls, when Lydia came home after Harlan Lewis, husband No. 3, had died in Montana and she had collected $5,000 in insurance. "She rigged herself out to kill, bought a long mink coat and a closed car. Everybody in town was talking about the way she ran around to dances.

"She courted Ed right off his feet. "Well, in August she and Ed were married after he took out a $10,000 insurance policy. In September Ed died.

"The townsfolk weren't just satisfied. They started a lot of talk and the insurance company held up payment on the policy.

She Didn't Worry. "But Lydia didn't seem to be worrying. After Lydia left Twin Falls late in 1920 she met Southard, a petty officer on the U. S. S. Chicago at a dance. Later they were married, and when Southard was transferred from San Francisco to Honolulu he took his bride along. He's still loyal to his wife.

The marital experiences of the one-time Missouri country town girl eclipse even those of fiction. Ten years ago while still in her teens she was living on a farm of her father, William Trueblood, about two miles from Keytesville, Mo.

Following the opening of new irrigated territory in Idaho, Trueblood moved his family to a section near Twin Falls. Robert Dooley, a school-teacher sweetheart of Lydia, and his brother, Edward, followed soon after, and settled near the Trueblood farm.

Married to Dooley. In 1920 Robert Dooley took Lydia, then twenty, into Twin Falls one day and the two were married. Edward went to live with them.

One day Edward Dooley became ill. Within a few hours he was dead. Lydia explained that he had eaten salmon from a tin that had stood open for some time. Lydia and Robert Dooley accompanied the body back to Keytesville for burial and folks in the home town got their first glimpse of baby Laura Marie, daughter of Lydia.

About three weeks after Lydia and her husband returned to Twin Falls, Robert Dooley died. Three weeks later baby Laura was dead.

Mrs. Dooley collected $1,500 on insurance that had been carried by the husband and a short time later was married to William McHale.

The two went to Montana to live and settled near ranch. McHale took out a $500 insurance policy and made one payment on it. In a short time he died, but when Lydia went to collect the insurance she found that the policy had lapsed a few days and the company refused to pay it.

June, 1919 Lydia married Harlan Lewis, an automobile salesman, with whom she had become acquainted in Montana. One month later, on July 6, Lewis died from what doctors said was ptomaine poisoning, and Lydia collected $5,000 in insurance.

Following the death of Lewis, Lydia returned to Twin Falls, where she met and married Myers, husband No. 4.

WOMAN IS MINUS STOMACH

Operation Not Needed, Says Doctor Panchet, French Specialist, if Diet is Properly Regulated.

Paris.—That the stomach is a superfluous organ is the startling dictum of Dr. Vincent Panchet, reported in the Annuaire de Medecine. "Admitting that he has successfully removed the stomach from a woman fifty years old who had continued to live happily in perfect health, he reports that the operation also cured her of cancer. "The stomach's action is purely prophylactic," stated Doctor Panchet. "The mechanism for the vital part of the digestion is in the small intestine with the intervention of the pancreatic juice and the bile. Therefore, providing the patient follows a light diet, the stomach can be dispensed with advantageously."

YANK PRINCESS MAY BE QUEEN

Widow of Ralph Thomas May See Husband Acclaimed King of Albania.

LOSES HEART TO PRINCE

Princess Viora is Granddaughter of Eugene Kelly, Millionaire New York Banker—Her First Husband Was Frank Jay Gould.

New York.—Princess Viora, formerly Mrs. Helen Kelly Gould and more recently Mrs. Ralph Thomas, may be the first American to be addressed as "your majesty."

If she attains the throne of Albania, as seems possible, she bids fair to eclipse socially Princess Anastasia of Greece, formerly Mrs. William B. Leeds, who, through her marriage to Prince Christopher of Greece, has climbed the royal ladder higher than any other American woman.

Princess Viora is in New York "on business," while her royal consort, Prince Viora, is at her house in Paris arranging plans to ascend the throne of his grandfather.

The father of Viora, Ferid Pasha, is prime minister to Abdol Hamid, and is working quietly with Turkish leaders.

She Prefers Paris.

"What will you do in Albania, where most of the men are polygamists and addicted to bloody feuds?" I asked her in her apartment in the Hotel Lenox. "I don't know," she said, smiling. "perhaps remain most of the time in my Paris home with my two children—Helen, who's nineteen, and Dorothy, who's seventeen—who are now in school in Switzerland."

The princess was Helen Margaret Kelly, granddaughter of the millionaire New York banker, Eugene Kelly. She was married at eighteen to Frank Jay Gould and after divorcing him married Ralph Thomas, son of the sugar king. After a brief married life he died suddenly in 1914, leaving her several millions.

During the war she sailed for Paris where she became a war nurse. While recuperating in Switzerland, she met Prince Viora, who was brooding over the fate of Albania and meditating schemes for its restoration.

Loses Her Heart.

"He told me sad stories of Albania," she continued, "of its wild scenery and the picturesque quality of its people. It was a delightful chap and I realize that I lost my heart to him. We were married quietly.

"Whether the prince will become king of Albania is not certain. He is well known in diplomatic circles but the problem of finding a satisfactory ruler is a hard one. The prince is a natural ruler and is mapping out his course in Paris and London now.

"Albania is the roughest country in the Balkans, a country of wild mountains, entirely without railroads. Only towns are situated on the coast of the Adriatic. The entire population is less than 1,500,000.

"The people consist mainly of the mountaineers, walking arsenals of rifles and knives. They are Mohammedans in religion and confirm polygamists."

The princess explained that she before the war Prince William Wied, with German and Austrian backing, succeeded in getting installed as king of Albania at Durazzo. He succeeded, she said, in winning the allegiance of the mountaineers, but King Wied and his cabinet had been hostile to him, so he returned to Germany. Since then the Italians occupied more of Albania and she has been with the allies, operating a station in the Balkans.

"I am here to assist my husband in his own way," Princess Viora said. "He wants the throne of the sun here and will help him all I can, but I would prefer to spend most of my time in Paris."

"My mission here is to rest and see certain friends on certain days of importance."

ARTIST ONLY 18 MONTHS

Two of Baby's Studies Exhibited at London Display of Drawing Society.

Cardiff, Wales.—Helen Williams of South Wales is stated to be the world's youngest artist. Her first drawing, this distinction is that, although it is only eighteen months old, it is up in her cot every day and she thinks that adorn her nursery.

Two of her studies from the exhibition are exhibited at the exhibition of the Royal Drawing Society in London. Her pictures are of a cat with a ribbon and a running gamecock.

Lapland Rich in Minerals. Stockholm.—The Swedish government made a survey of Lapland's mineral wealth by direction of Professor P. A. G. report that they discovered copper deposits. One vein is more than fifty yards wide and of considerable thickness. A mountain of potter's clay found near Silverberg and DR. Near Strömmens are rich in cement deposits.

BOARD EXONERATES KING IN TRAINING SCHOOL TROUBLES

Austin, Nov. 5.—The State Board of Control today, by a vote of 2 to 1, declined to make any change in the management or personnel of the State Juvenile Training School at Gatesville. The vote was taken following a recent investigation of the school by the board, which was occasioned by the death there of Del Thames, a boy inmate.

The majority opinion of the board, as given by the votes of S. B. Cowell and L. W. Tittle, was to the effect that the preponderance of the evidence adduced in the investigation was "overwhelmingly conclusive that Superintendent King was not in the remotest way responsible for the death of Del Thames, which occurred at the training school on Sept. 25, 1921," and that the testimony does not show that Superintendent King "has ever authorized or approved any system of discipline or method of punishment which in its extreme form could result in such a tragedy."

DIET IN PELLAGRA

There is only one preventive and one cure for pellagra, according to the best results of medical study, and that is proper diet. Medicines will do little, if anything, to care for this disease, and are useful only in treating some of its complications. Foods differ in appearance and taste. They also differ in what they are able to do in the body. Body tissue must be kept repaired; energy generated to make the body move; iron, lime and other minerals furnished to regulate the body functions, and certain necessary substances, called vitamins, must be used to produce full health and growth. If this diet were followed, there would be no pellagra:

DR. PRICE MOVES OFFICE

Dr. L. W. Price has moved his offices to his former location over the Young County Drug Company, first door west of the Graham National Bank. He has equipped three rooms for his growing practice. One room is especially equipped for use in operations for tonsillitis. The other rooms are his reception room and consultation room.

MRS. SAFFELL HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

Mrs. R. S. Saffell, of Bakersville, California, was in The Leader office Tuesday and ordered The Leader sent to her home in California. She has been here several months looking after her oil interests in north Stephens county. She moved to California with her husband about twenty years ago but they did not sell their lands here.

STATE EMPLOYEES AT CAPITOL NUMBER 520

Austin, Nov. 7.—Officials and employees in and about the state capitol and the land office building located at the southeast corner of the capitol grounds and which is nearly as large as the state house, number 520, exclusive of Governor Neff.

Of this number approximately two-fifths are women and three-fifths men, a close check of the rolls show, the exact count at the last legislative session showing 316 men and 204 women.

These figures were compiled from reports submitted to the house of representatives in accordance with a resolution asking that each department head show the number of women and men employed in their respective departments together with the information as to whether they were married or single and where the husbands of the women worked. The resolution was introduced by Representative Owen of Navarro county and the statistics are compiled from his copy of the reports of the department heads. The legislature abolished numerous places in the capitol, but these were discounted in the compilation.

Of the 204 women employees, 151 are single and still bear the title of Miss; 25 have been married, but are now widows, while 28 have husbands living.

The compiled report does not include traveling inspectors of the banking and insurance department, the health department or the marketing and warehouse department, the railroad commission or the agricultural department. Neither does it include the shore deputies and boat men of the fish, game and oyster commission. These excluded inspectors total 119, exclusive of the dozen women supervisors of the department of education.

The ranger force also is not included in the report. Neither does it include the surveying parties of the board of water engineers now working with the United States geological survey in Texas.

The departments total twenty, which are listed as follows: Governor's office; education; board of control, attorney general, state treasurer, comptroller, markets and warehouses, health, highway commission, state library, railroad commission, industrial accident board, fish, game and oyster commission, agriculture, bureau of labor, land commissioner, insurance and banking, adjutant general, board of water engineers, and fire insurance commission.

Postoffice Clerk (in a country office in the west of Ireland): "Here our letter is overweight." Pat: "Over what weight?" Clerk: "It's too heavy, you'll have to put another stamp on it." Pat: "O' git out wid your foolin'! Sur, if I put another stamp on it, won't it be heavier still?"

MRS. IRO JARNAGIN RETURNS FROM DALLAS

Mrs. Iro Jarnagin of the Henry Chapel community, returned last Friday from a three weeks visit to Dallas. She went prepared to stay a month or, at least, her children asked her to take a month's vacation, but after spending three weeks in the Texas metropolis she was anxious to return to good old Young county.

She enjoyed her visit and was "on the go" all the time. She visited Mrs. Callie Shannon, who is an efficient teacher in the Dallas schools. She attended the North Texas Conference which met in Dallas while she was there. She also attended the Dallas Fair but she says she did not ride the merry-go-round and other similar devices.

Mrs. Jarnagin was a pleasant visitor at The Leader office Tuesday and shows that she was well cared for while in Dallas.

SIX SLAIN IN ELECTION BATTLE IN KENTUCKY

Jackson, Nov. 8.—Six men were killed and five others were wounded in an election fight shortly after the polls opened at the Claypole voting precinct on Troublesome Creek, Breathitt county, fifteen miles from here today.

The dead: Cleveland Combs, 35; Leslie Combs, 37; Ephern Allen, 35; George Allen, 31; John Robert, 30; George McIntosh, 30.

The wounded: William Barnett, 50; Ed Davis, 45; Will I. Davis, 30; French Combs, 35; Tom McIntosh, 30.

The story of the affray as it reached Jackson was that Ed Combs, an uncle of the Combs boys and defeated Democratic candidate in the August primary for county judge, was active in support of the republican nominee for the same office.

Combs, it was said, entered the polling place today and attempted to give orders to the election officers. His relatives, according to the story, remonstrated with him, and out of the argument grew a fight in which pistols were drawn and the shooting became general.

W. F. & S. TO EXTEND LINE TO WAURIKA

Wichita Falls, Nov. 10.—Definite developments resulted today from a conference of a delegation of Waurika, Oklahoma, business men, with Frank Kell and Capt. McFarland of the Wichita Falls and Southern railroad and upon the delegation agreeing to assist in financing the project, Mr. Kell said that he and his associates will build the road.

Capt. McFarland, who has just completed the making of a survey for the proposed line, presented construction estimates which showed that the big item of expense will be the bridge across the Red river.

The extending of the Wichita Falls and Southern road from Wichita Falls to Waurika, Oklahoma, where it will connect with the Rock Island, will place Graham on a direct line to the north and east and passengers from Graham will be able to complete a trip to New York in approximately fifty-eight hours.

BOARDING PLACES FOR OUR TEACHERS DURING INSTITUTE

There will be about 250 teachers in attendance at the Young-Jack counties teachers' institute to be held in the Graham high school building from December 19th to the 23rd inclusive, and the County Superintendent desires to complete the housing arrangements at the earliest possible date. A majority of the teachers will prefer to stay in private homes as near the school building as possible, but persons in any part of town who desire to furnish rooms, meals, or both rooms and meals, should confer with the County Superintendent at once. About 75 per cent of the teachers will be women.

The public should bear in mind that the teachers of the two counties will meet a heavy expense in bringing to the institute some of the leading educators of the State. That fact should be appreciated to the extent by the citizenship of the town that they will make the item of board and rooms merely a matter of protecting themselves against financial loss in furnishing the accommodations. Towns everywhere offer strong inducements as a meeting place for every kind of convention from the dog catchers' local to nominating a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, and no town could be more highly honored than when the public school teachers of several counties choose it as a meeting place for a week of school for themselves in order that they may go back to their individual schools better prepared to give efficient service to the public. It is also highly commendable when the public school teachers are willing to subscribe from their meager salaries sufficient funds to bring to that town men and women as directors of the work who stand at the top of their profession and who are able to give to the public the same class of intellectual entertainment that it often pays dearly for. The teachers coming to your town will cheerfully meet that expense, and they will feel honored if you, the public, will visit the meetings as often as you can and take advantage of sharing with them the good things of education that they are thus providing.

This is not a begging appeal because the real teacher is willing to pay her way wherever she goes, but, being human and poor, no act on the part of the public for the teacher ever falls to the ground. Therefore, for the above reasons and many more that space will not permit mentioning, the County Superintendent is asking that a uniform rate of $1.50 per day be charged for room and meals combined and a proportionate rate for either separately. He realizes that no profit can be made at such rates, but profit financially is not the basis of this article, but it is an appeal to the town to give every individual teacher such a loyal good time that they will want to come again and again. The superintendents and teachers will leave nothing undone to make the coming institute the best ever held in this section of the State.

GEORGE STEVENS RECEIVES INJURY IN WRESTLING MATCH
George Stevens sustained a painful injury in the wrestling match here last Friday. The mat was small and early in the match Brown threw him over the edge of the platform and injured one of his ribs. He was not able to do his best after this injury which explains why Brown had the best of the match, according to Stevens' supporters. It was a good match as both are good men and believe in clean sport. Stevens left yesterday and will be away some time recovering from his injury in the match last Friday.

This section of the country is well supplied with skunks this year. There seems to be more than usual this season. They are so plentiful that they are becoming domesticated. One morning this week Mrs. F. M. Burkett went into her back yard and found one sleeping in a box. She first thought that it was dead but upon closer examination she saw that it was breathing. She called a neighbor who shot and killed it.

FELIX URY VISITS
CORSICANA-MEXIA FIELD

Felix Ury left yesterday for Corsicana and Mexia to interest oil men to come and look over the famous Young county pools. South Bend and Bunker are two of the best paying pools in Texas. Mr. Ury has several good drilling contracts to offer and he says the only way to get people interested is to go after them.

He believes Young county is destined to be the best paying county in Texas. The true oil sands in this county will be producing when others are gone. Mr. Ury preaches Graham and Young county wherever he goes.

Regarding the Jeffery north of the city he says: "I feel confident that a lime will be found in the next 300 feet. Just think what that would mean to Graham and Young county." "I predicted," he says, "oil would go to the price it is and I feel sure that in the next year the price will be higher than ever known."

He goes to the Mexia field as a Young county representative to place before the people there the future possibilities of this field. The large wells are attracting large numbers to that field while this is one of the best paying propositions known in oil circles. Great sections of this county are yet untested and Mr. Ury will endeavor to turn real oil operators this way.

The Young County Lodge, A. F. & A. M., is planning a big time Thanksgiving evening. A special meeting has been called for six o'clock, November 24, at which time there will be work in the third degree. Immediately following the degree work a banquet will be served all members of this lodge and all visiting brothers. Every Mason is expected to bring his wife or sweetheart. The banquet is absolutely free. Cards have been mailed all members of the Young County Lodge and all other brothers whose names could be ascertained. All who have received cards should sign them and return to J. T. Rickman at once. If you did not get a card see Mr. Rickman and make your reservation. Be sure and state on your card if you will bring your wife or lady friend with you.

This will be a great day for Masonry in Graham and every Mason is urged to be present at the meeting at six o'clock and report at 8 o'clock with his wife or sweetheart for the free banquet. It is necessary that Mr. Rickman be notified if you can be present at the banquet.

A card was received this week from Mrs. B. R. Walker asking that the address of their Graham Leader be changed from Itasca, Texas to McGregor, Texas. Mrs. Wagner formerly lived here and she and her husband have many friends in Graham.

Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Padgett and children are in Dallas this week transacting business, attending lodge meetings and visiting friends.

THE TEXAS BAKERY

The Texas Bakery, which opened on the west side of the square last week, had an attractive Armistice display in their window last Friday. A large cake with the word Texas cooked on the top with other designs of cakes made up the display.

The new bakery has had a good trade this week and are prepared to supply the trade with the best bread and pastry on the market. Read their advertisement in this issue of The Leader.

C. W. HINSON UNDERGOES

His friends will be glad to learn of his successful operation. Very few knew that he had had previous attacks of appendicitis. He had been suffering several months and felt that it would be best to undergo the operation before complications set up.

DEWEY WILEY TEACHER

COAL MINING TO START THIS WEEK ON ENORMOUS SCALE; TWO SHIFTS TO BE WORKED

Union Miners From Thurber Will Spend $20,000 or More at Once on Mine

Two shifts of miners will be put to work this week on the Donnell No. 1, and a second shaft will be sunk at once under a deal closed this week whereby a group of Thurber miners obtained a lease on 640 acres of the Donnell & Childress coal land, due west of Eliasville.

Ed Tidwell, president of the Miners Union local at Thurber, and Angelo Costaldo, also a union leader, negotiated the deal, and it is understood to be practically in the name of the miners' local. The sum of $20,000 or $25,000 will be spent in improvements at once, it is understood. Plans for the winter call for the construction of a spur track out of Eliasville to the mine, the building of a church and school and many homes for the families of the miners, it is understood.

It is probable that two or three hundred people will be added to the population of this community as winter comes on and the market for coal grows.

Tidwell will be general manager of the mine, and will have headquarters in Eliasville. From here he will direct the production and sale of the product.

The organization already has a market for enough of the coal to keep two shifts of miners busy.

The plan to mine the Eliasville coal is a direct outcropping of the trouble between the miners and the operators over the country, which has existed for a long time with no prospect for a direct settlement. The Eliasville mine will form a double purpose. It will keep miners at work all the time, whether strikes are in progress at the private mines or not, and it will keep the public supplied with coal at all times, regardless of the labor conditions at other mines.

For the present trucks and wagons will be used to bring the coal from the mine to the railroad yards at Eliasville. Negotiations for the spur track to the mine are under way.

This announcement is considered the most important for the welfare of the Eliasville country that has come to light in a year or more, as it is the first active step toward certain development of the natural resources which abound here. The coal is of a good commercial quality which improves as the shaft is carried further underground.

GULF AND SUN GET NEW LEASES ON TACKETT MT.

Tackett Mountain got additional prominence as desirable oil acreage last week with news that the Sun and Gulf had both acquired additional acreage on the high lands. The Sun is reported to have paid $7.50 per acre for the lease on the Long farm of about 200 acres on the southern end of the Tackett chain, while the Gulf gave $12.00 per acre for nearly 300 acres out of one of the A. M. Graham surveys on the north end of Big Tackett.

According to general belief, the Gulf and probably others of the Standard companies are waiting only for a rain which will give them a water supply before starting a general drilling campaign in this district. The Gulf's new lease is in the neighborhood of the New Domain on Fish Creek.

The Gulf is now the leading leaseholder of the district north and northwest of Eliasville. It has either renewed or taken new contracts on many parcels of land since summer, when the New Domain developed its splendid showing on Fish Creek.

The Texas Company, which had 32,000 acres of Young county land last winter and began to unload its leases as rapidly as possible, also took its western Young county leases off the market and has made several renewals since the Fish Creek well struck oil.

Completion of the Fish Creek well, which has dragged slowly since mid-summer when the showing was first encountered, will be further delayed by the water shortage.

GRAND JURIES WITH WOMEN HELD VOID

Austin, Nov. 15.—Women are not eligible to serve on grand juries in Texas, the Court of Criminal Appeals held today in reversing and dismissing the case of Dick Harper, given two years for burglary in McLennan county.

The records showed that ten men and two women composed the grand jury which returned an indictment against Harper. He appealed his case, claiming that such a grand jury was illegal and could not return a legal indictment.

In returning the decision the court held that the Constitution says that grand juries must be composed of "twelve men" and that it cannot be construed as including women. Also that the suffrage act by Congress the women right to vote but that did not qualify them as grand jurors.

Two other cases from McLennan county were reversed and dismissed for the same reason. They were: Ernest Carter and R. H. Storms, both sentenced to nine years for felony thefts.

The case of Robert J. Riddle, sentenced to life for murder indictment by the same grand jury, was not decided as the court held that it was not submitted in the proper way.

Very Little Law Breaking Over Throckmorton Way

Throckmorton county is a regular paradise of morality, judging from the report of the grand jury there just submitted. It marked contrast to the grand jury reports lately published in Young and Stephens counties.

The Throckmorton report reads: "We have carefully considered each and every violation of the law that we have had any reason to believe since the last grand jury and have had been committed in the county examined fifty witnesses, found eight true bills, six misdemeanors and two felonies. We examined the jail, the public toilets and the court house and we recommend that the toilets be kept more sanitary as well as the court house and court grounds. We find that the jail is in fairly good condition."

DUCK SHOOTERS ARRESTED FOR SHOOTING FROM BOATS

Fort Worth, Nov. 13.—Thirty persons, alleged to have been hunting ducks from boats, were arrested at Lake Worth this morning by Federal Game Warden George C. Shupee of Austin. To hunt ducks from a boat is a violation of both Federal and State statutes, Warden Shupee said, and is punishable by a fine of $500 and six months in jail. No complaints were filed today, but the matter will be taken up tomorrow, he said. Names of all persons arrested were taken and they were released on their own cognizance. The practice of

SPINNER'S SIZE REGULATES BETS

Fat Man, Big Numbers Win; Thin Men, Small Numbers, Is One System.

"KILLINGS" LIVE IN CASINO

Heavy Losses at Monte Carlo Prove Big Card for Advertising—Many Systems Offered the Quillible—Yet Casino Continues to Make Profit.

London.—There is one infallible way of winning money at Monte Carlo, writes a correspondent of the London Times, and that is this: When a fat man is spinning the wheel bet on the high numbers; when it is a thin man bet on the low. It stands to reason—does it not?—that a small man cannot throw big numbers.

Of course there are people who tell you that you have no right to begin to gamble until, at least, you know the color of the numbers, both on the wheel and the table, by heart.

Also you can buy elaborate and infallible systems, which makes no mention of fat men or thin men, at fifty shops in Monte Carlo. For forty francs you can buy a system which tells you how, on a capital of £20, you can make—"infallibly"—£10 a day.

Others guarantee—well, nearly guarantee—a winning of from $40 to 1,000 francs a day, and there are any quantity of systems under which "losses" are "impossible." Yet, in spite of it all the Casino is one of the most successful business institutions in Europe, and will doubtless weather even the difficulties of the exchange and the rise in the cost of living.

Three days ago there a man won, at one of the tables, 37,000 francs at a single coup. The rules, it should be explained, forbid a larger stake than will produce more than 6,000 francs at a single bet. But, having staked the limit on an individual number, you can also lay bets—each to the limit—on the various combinations of that number as well as on the "color," the high or low, odd or even, the "dozen"—whether the first, second or third of thirty-six numbers—and so forth.

I am told, but I have not calculated it, that it is thus possible to win over 50,000 francs on a single turn of the wheel. But 37,000 is good enough and the friend who had seen it and told me added: "And that loss of 37,000 will be worth 370,000 to the house." He probably underestimated it.

As it was three days ago, the man who won the money has probably lost it again by now and in any case the fame of it has gone far abroad and brought any number of new gamblers to the table. It is by such advertisements that the Casino thrives.

They Keep at It. Almost every year new books telling you how to win at Monte Carlo are published. Every year series of charming articles are written for one journal or another, analyzing various "systems." One peculiarity that the writers receive no payment from the Casino for their labor. But how handsomely it could afford to pay them! There is surely no other means of distribution in the world which pays so much and such admirable free advertisement as the machine has. Paris is the Mer (the proprietors' organization is called) of Monte Carlo.

The one cardinal and dominant fact is that there is always one extra chance in 37 against the better. The odds are 19 to 18 in favor of the house. With absolutely even luck, in every 37 bets you will lose one more than you will win. The odds are all calculated on the basis of the thirty-six numbers on the table, and the thirty-seventh number (zero) is the petquisite of the establishment. With this qualification the game is absolutely fair.

For some reason, I think, suspect the Casino of cheating, it does not need to. That thirty-seventh chance—which is so cheaply, but so certainly, is sufficient. It operates fearfully, as repeatedly as "the blind Fury with the abhorred cheeks" does at the end of the life of each of us.

The tables in the various shops in the Casino and the Sporting club do not all run for the same hours. Also some of them are for treats of quantity and not for roulette. But I believe it is fair to say that the result is about equivalent to twenty-one tables at roulette running for ten hours a day. At all events the rough calculation will suffice.

Now, the time taken by each turn of the wheel, with the necessary settlements, is about three minutes; or it has been when I have timed it in these last days. That is to say that on one or other of the 21 tables seven coups are being cleaned up every minute. The house wins one bet in every 37; and it is, again, not unfair to reckon that same number—37—as the average number of bets on every table, taking the two ends together. There may be only 10 or 200. But it is not an unjust average. Therefore, if seven tables clear up each minute, in each minute the house is seven bets to the good.

The average unit staked is impossible to guess. The bets range all the way from the humble 5f. white counter to (rarely) the permitted limit of six plaques of 1,000f. each. But whatever the average unit is, the Casino wins it seven times over every minute, or 420 times every hour, or 4,200 times each day.

So far as the individual is concerned that 37th chance—the pesky zero—may not operate to his disadvantage in a long sitting, and if luck is with him he will win. Or it may operate so actively as to ruin him in half an hour. But regarding the public as a single better, that better is roughly losing regularly to the tables 4,200 units (subject to more accurate calculation) every day in the year.

It has to be so. The Casino, with all its adjuncts, is an immensely costly institution to support. Besides its own upkeep it provides the money which makes Monte Carlo the most beautifully ordered and most luxuriously appointed town in the world. The dividends of the Societe, over and above all this, are no secret. And the public has to pay for it all. Against that inexorable 37th chance no system is of any avail, except for the fun of working at it and for the pleasure of self-deception. Even the fat man and the thin man are powerless.

GIRL, 4, FALLS 50 FEET, LIVES

Slips Through Fourth Floor Fire Escape—Bumps Her Head and Knees.

Brooklyn.—Little Ruth Sader, four escaped death in a remarkable manner when she fell from the fire escape on the fourth floor of her home to a concrete sidewalk and suffered only a bump on her head and contusions of the knee.

She was carried to the Norwegian hospital, where she regained consciousness within a half hour; but a little later she complained of pains in the abdomen and became delirious. It is not believed, though, that the internal injuries are serious.

Ruth was visiting her playmate, Elizabeth Baerfeldt, three, in the next apartment. The fire escape crossed the front windows of both apartments. Ruth went to Elizabeth's home by her customary route, the front fire escape. The Teddy Bear was big and cumbersome, and Ruth tripped and fell through an opening. She struck the fire escape between the fourth and third floors, and bounded out into space.

AMERICAN HELPS FRENCH ART

Two New Bursaries for Artists and Writers Are Announced by Mme. George Blumenthal.

Paris.—Two new bursaries for French artists have been announced by Mme. George Blumenthal, the American founder of the American foundation for French art and thought. Each of these like the ten funds already being distributed, is for 12,000 francs yearly. They represent the income from invested funds given by Mrs. Blumenthal and other Americans.

One of the new funds to encourage painting is in the name of Henry Frick. The other, devoted to science, is to be called the "Joffre" bursary. It is endowed by an American who asked that his name be withheld.

When Mme. Blumenthal made formal announcement of the extension of the foundation's work to Marshal Joffre, he began an expression of "gratitude." Mme. Blumenthal, who is of Abanin ancestry, replied: "Monsieur le-Marshal, do not speak of gratitude. We love each other, that is all."

JUDGE NELSON PHILLIPS RESIGN FROM SUPREME COURT

Austin, Nov. 16.—Judge Nelson Phillips, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, announced from the bench at the session this morning that he would resign.

The court then adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon and Judge Phillips retired to his office to prepare his letter of resignation to the Governor. It is understood that he will enter private practice in Dallas. The announcement was a distinct surprise to all members of the judiciary and to the capitol in general as there had been no rumor whatever of his quitting the bench.

Judge Phillips has been a member of the Supreme Court for the last ten years and Chief Justice for the last six years.

Judge Phillips sent his resignation to the Governor's office shortly before noon. It was a brief announcement of his resignation, giving no reasons therefor. The text of the letter is as follows:

"I hereby tender my resignation as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, effective today.

"In laying down the office, which in the surrender of the association of the court is not without some regrets, I return to the people of Texas my grateful appreciation for having been honored with their confidence and trust. As a private citizen I shall give to their interests and their welfare, the same full measure of devotion, which I have tried to express in my judicial service."

Judge Phillips was appointed Chief Justice by Governor Ferguson when the place was made vacant by the death of Judge T. J. Brown in May, 1915. Before that he was Associate Justice, being appointed to the bench by Governor Colquitt.

FRESHMAN PARTY

Thursday night, Nov. 10, the Freshman class gave a tacky party in honor of the Freshman football team at the high school building.

Everyone was dressed appropriately which caused much amusement. The first attraction was a wedding which was very amusing and was enjoyed by everyone. Following the wedding was the banquet consisting of soda pop and all day suckers.

The party was progressing smoothly when the fire alarm blew which of course caused much excitement and as several left the party had an abrupt ending. In spite of this fact everyone pronounced it a decided success.

BUCHANAN IS SUED FOR $50,000 BY CROW'S WIFE

Waco, Nov. 11.—Sheriff Bob Buchanan of Waco and the sureties on his official bond, C. H. Graves, J. L. Pippin and W. N. Lazenby, are made defendants in a suit filed in the Seventy-Fourth District Court here this afternoon by Mrs. Inez L. Crow, wife of Louis Crow, who died here on Oct. 5 last as a result of injuries received at Lorena on the night of Oct. 1. Damages in the sum of $50,000 are asked, half of this amount actual and the remainder exemplary damages.

Mr. Crow, prominent Waco business man, was stabbed during the occurrence at Lorena, which resulted when an effort was made by Sheriff Buchanan to stop a parade of masked men. He was the only one of the ten men hurt at that time who did not survive.

Sheriff Buchanan, who was shot twice while the disturbance was in progress, was removed to his home last week. He has not yet recovered sufficiently to leave his room.

Mrs. Crow is represented by former District Judge Erwin J. Clark.

R. W. GUINN LOSES FORD RECENTLY

The Leader neglected to state in its columns last week that R. Guinn had lost a new Ford. So many cars are stolen that it is hard for The Leader to keep up with the number. Mr. Guinn's Ford was behind locked doors and had on a safety wheel in addition but to no avail. Two men opened the door and pushed the car some distance through the sand. When a safe distance from the house the wheel was changed and the car driven away without disturbing the family or any of the neighbors.

The most expensive long distance telephone call recorded by the Bell Telephone System was one from New York to Palm Beach, Fla., which lasted 67 minutes and cost $168.00.

Raymond Leslie, editor of the Eliasville Journal, was in the city Tuesday.
