BROWNFIELD MERCHANTS OFFERING MANY TRADESDAY SPECIALS

A Large Shopping Crowd From the Entire Area is Expected to Be on Hand Monday. Such an Array of Bargains Seldom Seen in Much Larger Towns.

This Pre-Tradeday issue of the Herald will carry more than the usual number of Tradesday Specials from local merchants, and will represent almost every class of merchandise to be found in the city. You will get your paper Friday, so look them over at your leisure, either Friday or Friday night, if you live on the routes, or at any of the neighboring smaller towns, and see just what your Dollar will DO here Saturday and Monday.

People in general in the farming and ranching section surrounding Brownfield are about up with their work, with the possible exception of corn harvesting, and that isn't usually finished until the first of the following year, so a bumper crowd of pre-holiday shoppers are expected here both days. There are many articles in some of the stores that you may purchase for Christmas, and have them stored for you to be called for later. Better shop early before the stocks are exhausted or so reduced that you will not be able to find what you want.

Another thing, the way holiday shopping has started off in the larger cities, many are predicting that there will be the heaviest holiday buying since 1928 or 1929, and that many articles will be off the market long before the 25th, with dealers and wholesalers unable to replenish their stocks. So, be on the safe side and be an early shopper for one time.

And don't forget those tickets, or call for them after you reach town Monday. They might be the means of paying for your Christmas shopping. Who knows?

Johnny Haynes Buys Burnett Bakery

A trade was consummated recently wherein Johnny Haynes became the owner of the Burnett Bakery, oldest bakery in the city. The building is being redecorated and will reopen Saturday.

Johnny has had three years bakery experience in the Cary Bakery and is said to be very efficient in the art. The bakery will go under the name of "Dixie Star Bakery" hereafter.

Mr. Burnett has not indicated what his intentions are for the future.

Scout Banquet at Ropes Dec. 4th.

Judge R. A. Simms informed us this week that there would be a Scout meeting at Ropesville on the night of December 7, to which all Scout officials are expected, as well as parents of Scouts and others interested in scouting.

At this meeting officers for the ensuing year in the Southwest district will be elected.

Is There a Red Ring 'Round Your Paper?

If so, your subscription to the Herald has expired, and we are asking you to please renew. Don't think this is a dun—just a reminder that we sure do want to keep your name on our list.

We have not bothered you through the dull season, when we knew you had little money to spare, and probably needed it to pay for groceries. It has been hard for us to meet our bills promptly, as paper houses must be paid, as well as printers who work for us.

Now, don't get sore—that won't do any good—but come in and pay up some if you possible can. Otherwise, we would like to know just when you can pay, and if you want the Herald continued to your address.

We thank you!

The Carnival Comes To Brownfield

Come to the High School Auditorium and Gym next Tuesday night, December 6, and help the Band Mother's Club stage a carnival for the purpose of securing additional uniforms for the band.

Come early and hear prominent citizens tried in Kangaroo Court by County Attorney Hackney and Judge Simms. Hove your fortune told, take a chance at a pass to the Picture Show, a chance in the fishing pond, visit the Hall of Terror, play Bingo, go for a scenic ride, and participate in other thrilling events.

Attend the Amateur Half-Hour and register with Mr. Emmett Smith if you wish to enter.

Come to the "Nigger Wedding" under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Griffin.

Join us in a full night of fun. No General Admission. Nothing over ten cents.

So Here We Go With Santa Claus Letters

With this issue, we are really stepping out kids with our messages to dear old Santa Claus, and the Herald wishes that each and every one of you will be more than pleased with his visit this year. Each child in the area, who is not "wise" are asked to write individual letters. Letters from entire school rooms written for practice in English are not invited. The issues of the 2, 9 and 16th,

All Fixed Up With Hogs and Hominy

It has been a good many years, about twenty we guess—since we spent the night on a Terry County farm, until last Saturday night. Time was when it was quite common for town people to spend Saturday night and Sunday on the farm with friends, and we even used to practice that habit to some extent right here in town with one another, until the coming of the railroad and more people. We do not mean that we are not friendly and neighborly, but at bit more formal.

On occasions we take a meal with each other. Sometimes in there is a barbecue or a lawn picnic, but we don't use each other beds to sleep in that night. But we had been promising Mr. and Mrs. Money Price to come out and spend some Saturday night, and—that is, the wife and I—did that very thing last week end. But unless you'd look out doors, you'd never guess you was in the country, as we knew the country 20 year ago.

In the first place, they have only will contain these letters, so get a wiggle on, and get them in. Remember the North Pole is away up yonder and it takes time to get letters there even by air mail. If the child can't write plain, other members of the family should write it, as printers this time of the year do not have time to figure them out.

SCHOOL CONTRACT IS GIVEN LUBBOCK FIRM

LAMESA, Nov. 19.—Sampson Bros., of Lubbock was low bidder on construction of a new school building in the Union Independent School district, it was announced today after bids had been opened by the school board.

The general contract bid submitted by Sampson Bros. was approximately $18,000. The contract was awarded subject to approval of Public Works administration.

The school, to be built about nine miles west of Lamesa, will cost approximately $20,000.

LOW BID OF 552,147 IS GIVEN ON SEAGRAVES SCHOOL PROJECT

SEAGRAVES, Nov. 21.—Bid of $52,147 submitted by W. S. Moss, Lubbock contractor, was low among those opened for a new high school building here.

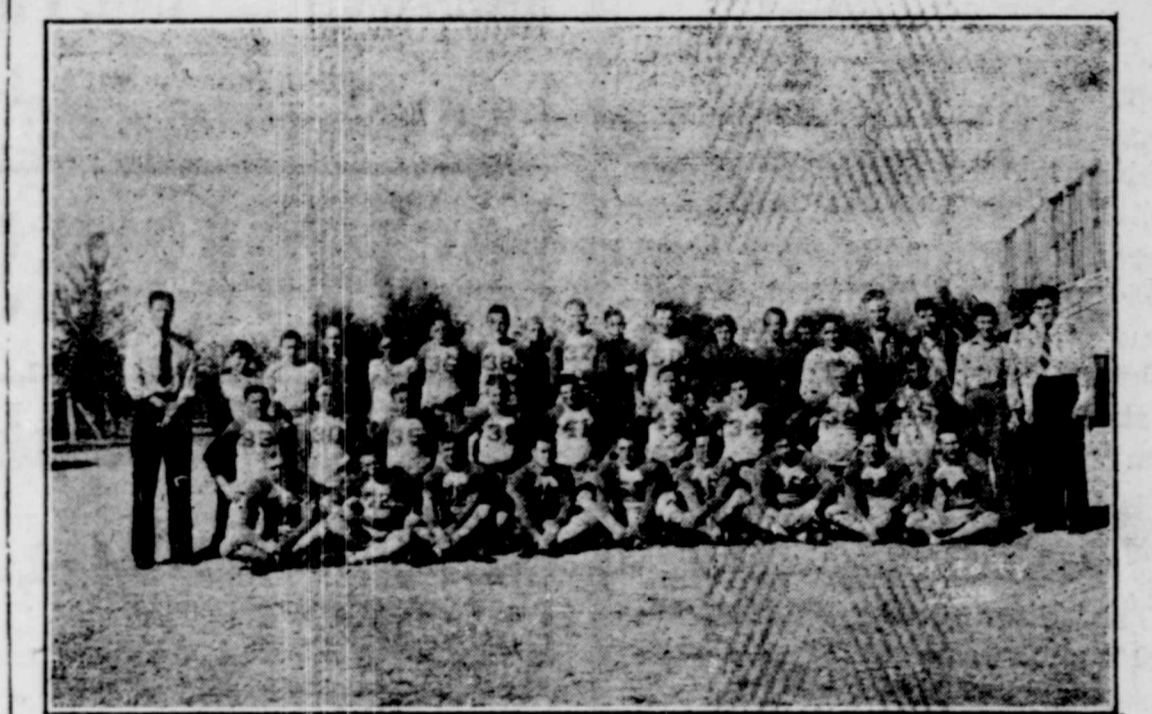

The Works Progress administration of the Works Progress administration.

Haynes and Strange of Lubbock are architects for the structure.

BROWNFIELD CUBS MEET THE ROTAN YELLOWHAMMERS IN CHAMP GAME

The Fighting Cubs Unsuccessful in Two Previous Bi-District Contests, Hope to Break the Jinks Today. All Stores to Be Closed During the Game.

Unsuccessful in two previous representative of the Herald that trials for bi-district honors on every member of his squad, with foreign fields, the Brownfield the exception of Murphy, would Cubs, hope to fare better this time be in shape to play in today's in their own backyard, when they game if needed. The arm injury meet the Rotan Yellowhammers, winners of district 6-B, this afternoon at 2:00.

Little can be learned about the comparative strength of the two teams as they have played no common opponents. Like the Cubs, the "hammers" have had a perfect season piling up some very impressive scores against their opponents. Reports reaching here say that one of the Rotan backs approaches the 200 mark in weight and that he is noted for his ability to wreck opposing lines. The rest of the team, as a whole, is rather small but extremely fast. Coach Nooncaster told a rep-sustained by McCraw in the Oton game was not as serious as was believed at first.

Arrangements have been made with the Amarillo Tri-State Fair Association for bleachers to seat a thousand people, half of them are to be erected on the south side and half on the north. These seats are specially constructed and it is most improbable that there will be a recurrence of the Armistice Day accident.

While it had not been decided at the time this article was being written, it is almost a certainty that the stores will close for the duration of the game.

A Drive to Uniform More Band Pupils

Mrs. Jim Miller, one of the leading Band Mothers, was in this week, preparatory to starting a drive for funds to uniform and equip more band pupils. As we understand it, the ladies, assisted by other band supporters, will in the near future stage a Band Carnival, from which they hope to raise needed funds.

Next year, many of those in the Junior Band will be ready to take the place of some that will graduate this coming year, and there will be a dearth of equipment as well as uniforms. Therefore, it will behoove each and all to try in every way to assist these ladies who are making such a decided success with the local band, despite lack of funds, and in many instances, lack of interest from others.

Soon, they will announce the entertainment as well as place and date. So, watch these columns.

SEEDLING TREES FROM PLAINVIEW TO BE PLANTED IN SHILTERBELT

PLAINVIEW, Nov. 19.—Digging of seedling trees at the Prairie States Forestry project nursery here is under way, where approximately 5,500,000 trees are growing, for use in the shelter belt areas of Texas.

Between 40 and 45 workmen are employed and an average of 50,000 seedlings can be dug a day. It will take about three months to complete the task of digging, shipping and trimming the trees.

Albert S. Klein is supervisor of the nursery here.

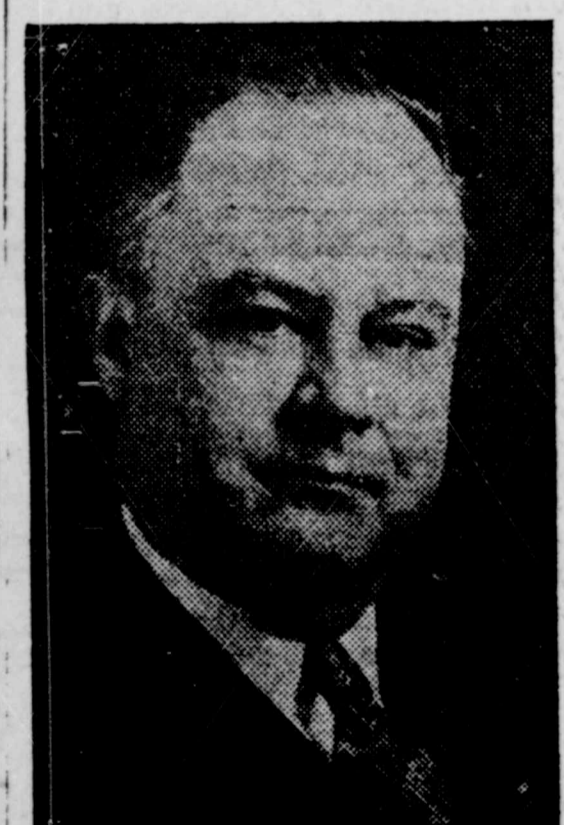

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McClish and Miss Martha, were Lubbock visitors, Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. John R. Turner were business visitors to Lubbock, Monday afternoon.

Clifford Jones New President of Tech

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 26.—Directors of the Texas Technological College, meeting in Fort Worth Saturday afternoon, elected Clifford B. Jones, Spur, as president of the Lubbock institution. He will succeed the late Dr. Bradford Knapp.

Jones, 53, native of Colorado, was raised in Kansas City. In his youth he became a cowhand on a Nevada ranch and finally came to Texas, where he took the management of the vast Swenson ranching properties. He had been chairman of the board of directors of the college, a position which he resigned immediately after being notified of his election to the presidency. Spencer A. Wells, Lubbock, was raised from vice-chairman to fill the vacancy temporarily. A permanent chairman is to be elected at the next meeting, of fourth Tuesday in January.

Third Largest School

Jones' election followed months of examination of applicants for the position. He was nominated over at least a dozen men who had been found to be qualified for the job. Technological College is the third largest school in the state, with an enrollment of 3,800. The University of Texas enrollment is nearly 11,000 and Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College 5,584.

Protracted Meeting To Run Over Sun.

The series of revival meeting being conducted here by James F. Black, of Levelland, will go on over Sunday night, according to J. H. Killion, local minister.

Despite cold weather nice crowds are hearing him each night. There will be two services as usual Sunday, morning and evening.

Showing Public How Newsreel is Born

A vital story of the newsreel industry, which newsreels have completely overlooked, is told at the Rialto Theatre Sunday and Monday, on the screen in latest Clark Gable - Myrna Loy co-starring drama, "Too Hot to Handle."

It is the story of the birth of an exciting newsreel scene and its progress until it reaches the breathless audiences in theatres throughout the world.

In creating the drama of the newsreel, the "inside" story begins in far away China, with Gable, his cameraman and equipment recording stark tragedy that makes world history.

It reveals the newsreel as it is sped to the coast and placed aboard a China Clipper, the airliner racing it across the broad Pacific to San Francisco where it is quickly transferred to a transcontinental plane that speeds it to Newark Airport on the Atlantic Coast.

Newsreel employees await for the arrival of the precious film. It is checked swiftly through the mail department at the airport, and is quickly transferred to a motorcycle messenger who streaks with it, escorted by four other screaming motorcycles, to the newsreel headquarters in New York.

Safe in the newsreel building, the split-minute drama continues. It follows the China scenes on celluloid through the laboratory, through the amazing developer and dryer departments, off the printer and onto the drums, off the edrums and onto the spool again, emerging a positive print with perfect sound track.

The story of the newsreel continues through the various departments—the foreign editor's job, the functioning of the make-up department where the film is cut and assembled.

It progresses on through the company's small projection room and from there it advances to the screen of a modern motion picture theatre where an audience of three thousand sits breathlessly watching the actual reenactment of drama which took place ten thousand miles away little more than a week before it is projected on the screen.

While the story of a newsreel scene is in itself interesting, in the case of "Too Hot to Handle," the work of the newsreel men is so deftly woven into the plot that it is a vital part of the picture whose powerful dramatic theme is of course the story of the adventure and romance of Gable and Miss Loy.

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield

Willard Bright's paper, the Gaines County News, Seagraves, has discovered an ex-Arkansawyer in that city, who tells Bright that they have adopted a newer and cheaper mode of capital punishment in his native state. They catch the criminal, put a pair of shoes on him and let him pitch himself to death.

A communication to the Herald from Rotary headquarters in Chicago, states that Rotary Clubs are disbanding in Italy of their own initiative, as some of the fascist departments are "yaching about the same thing as Rotary Clubs." This anent the articles in these columns last week. But we'd bet a stack of black cats to a cage of war rats that there was some pressure brought to bear in the transaction.

The editor of The Toredor, official publication of Texas Technological College, sent us a copy of the home coming edition, and asks that we criticize it. It is no easy matter to criticize a journal that is better printed, illustrated and perhaps edited than your own sheet, but what the Toredor editor meant, perhaps, was not to try to "make light" of criticism can be either positive or negative. There was no point or place that we might offer a helpful suggestion in the make up of the copy sent us, and we hope Tech wins another first place when the time comes to judge college papers.

Two of our valued exchanges had birthdays last week, the Lamesa Reporter having celebrated their 34th birthday. This fine journal now under the editorial management as well as publicity management of Connally Baldwin for the past three years, is in able hands, but has passed through many hands during its life, the Smith family keeping it longest. It also, many years ago, absorbed the Dawson County News, the original Lamesa paper. The State Line Tribune or Farwell, also celebrated its 28th birthday, of which 13 years it has been able edited and published by W. H. Graham, present head of the Panhandle Press Association. Hearty congratulations!

While no one seems to mind it, or display resentment, from talks with those who attended the ball game at Plainview, we learn that few Plainview people turned out for the game, saying that fully 80 per cent were from Brownfield, and the other 20 per cent made up mostly of Olton people. So far as we can learn, there was no kind of reception committee, and the people had to find their ways around as best they could. Perhaps it was a mistake to go there in the first place, but we blame no one, and no one is to blame. In fact, Plainview is a class A town, and they probably attended the Lubbock-Amarillo game, if they wanted to see a football game. But thinking of the matter from a purely financial standpoint the money spent on a special train or driving one's own car up there, would have moved a whale of a lot of dirt, and perhaps bought lots of material for seats out at our proposed stadium in the county park.

Farm experts are now busy figuring what is to become of the small farmer, the man who once tilled from 25 to 35 acres in the old states, and increased as he went west to some 100 or to 125 out in this section. These experts tell us that gradually since the middle twenties the farm has been enlarged instead of growing smaller, and that Texas alone has 37,000 tractors now, each of which eliminates from one to two farm families, and puts them on the relief rolls or doing odd jobs in the nearby towns or cities. way found by most people who have studied the matter is to replace these rented-out farmers by placing them on small farms of their own, similar to the Ropesville project. Will it be profitably to the nation to denude the rural sections of population, and make larger towns of all the villages, and great cities of all the rest? It is time to put on our thinking caps and study about these matters. The Herald is not fighting modern methods or labor saving machinery. It would not discard its line-type machine and go to hand setting of type again, but we are just wondering what is to become of the small farmer.

Next to Governor O'Daniel, Coke Stevenson is likely to be big man at Austin after January 17. O'Daniel could not do better than to team up with Stevenson. It looks now like O'Daniel is going to have to fight the politicians at Austin as he did last summer. In such a contest he could not have a shrewd aid than Coke Stevenson, who is about the keenest lawyer known. In an interview Ferguson, parenthetically noting his wish "for him a successful with the state government in many administrations," said: "However, years. He is the only man, as far as we can recall, that has ever been reelected as Sepaker of the House of Representatives. A remarkable thing about it was the fact that he won over the bitter opposition of Gov. Alfred. Legislators who served with Stevenson say that he was never at a loss in forming his rulings. As Lieutenant Governor he will preside over the Senate, and that is a body that has brought many a governor down in defeat. Already such reactionaries as Senator Clint Small are threatening the O'Daniel program, and it looks very much like the services of Coke Stevenson will be needed.—Anton News.

We are not knocking civic clubs; they are about the best things a town can have, and we'd belong, only that we can't hear a darn word that is being spoken, on account of a lot of racket going on elsewhere near the meeting place. But we'd like to call attention to just one paragraph in the Lions Code of Ethics: Here 'tis: "To remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's." That is a nice platform if a member lives up to it. Also, that paragraph could be rear, pondered and heeded by a lot of people other than Lions.—Brownfield News.

The Knox County Herald, Knox City, clipped the above from the Terry County Herald instead of the Brownfield News. But its ok with us Bro. Garner. Every man, woman and child will benefit from reading that one paragraph from the Lions Code of Ethics.

Well, it now looks like we ain't-a-go-in-tu get a bite of deer meat this year. All our friends have gone and come, and not a morsel, but no one but our preacher really promised to deliver, and he comes back from the deer country picking his teeth and grinning and says, says he: "Well, I had a bad cold while down at Alpine, so I just stayed in, as all the people I visited had plenty deer and turkey." Now, ain't dat sumphan.

TEXAS FARMERS ASKED TO RAISE MORE FIGS

Texas Grown Figs Best Quality For Preparing Mentho-Mulsion —The Famous Cough Medicine

When interviewed recently, M L. Clein, President of Mentho-Mulsion, Inc., stated, "I hope that the Texas farmers realize the value of the type of figs that can be raised here. Although these figs are really best for the manufacture of Mentho-Mulsion, it is impossible for us to obtain sufficient quantities of them to make a much Mentho-Mulsion as is necessary to supply the demand for it from all over the world. Therefore, these figs have to be purchased from other sections." Mentho-Mulsion is the well known cough medicine which combines beachwood creosote, menthol and five other important ingredients in a base of fig syrup, and is sold under the money-back guarantee to give complete satisfaction in the treatment of coughs due to colds. Despite its expensive ingredients, Mentho-Mulsion costs the customer less per dose than most any other cough medicine on the American market. Its action is immediate, its taste is delightful, and it is guaranteed to do the work. Mentho-Mulsion is recommended, sold and guaranteed by Corner Drug Store.

HUNTERS, BEWARE OF TULAREMIA

New hazard for hunters: Tularemia is on the increase this year. Tularemia is a disease usually contracted in skinning rabbits. Last year at this season, forty cases had been reported. This year, 75 afflicted persons have been treated.

The infection reaches the body usually through abrasions on the skin. It also may be transmitted by ticks.

Miss Maxine Kelley of Quemado, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ross Black.

Dr. M. C. Bell of Quemado, N. Mex., was a business visitor in our city last week end. The doctor was a long time citizen of Brownfield and is always welcome here.

Brit Clare was in Tuesday after supplies.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD A LOCAL CAMERA CLUB

Exchange of ideas on picture-taking leads to better pictures and more snapshot fun. Every town should have a camera club.

IN EVERY town where there are several camera fans, there should be a local camera club. Such clubs are of value to anyone who takes pictures and wants to improve his picture-taking.

The camera club brings snapshots together. It enables them to exchange ideas, and swap experiences. They can work together on problems, hear useful discussions, and organize special events such as picture parties, hikes or excursions. Contact with other camera fans helps each member, for there is always something new to be learned.

In the club, one member may know a great deal about taking snapshots at night. He can advise others on lighting, film and exposure for night snapshots. Another member may own a miniature camera, and specialize in "off-guard" snaps or human-interest pictures of children at play. Still another may know something about sports pictures, or flower pictures. Thus, each member can contribute some knowledge which will help all the others make better snapshots.

So popular and practical are camera clubs that, in the past few years, several thousand have organized in the United States. Some clubs have hundreds of members; others, only four or five. But no matter how small, the club is of value. In many instances, the camera club is part of a larger group, such as a Boy Scout troop or woman's club. Often, the club is able to have regular meeting rooms, and members "chip in" to fit out a darkroom with better equipment than each could afford by himself.

Organization of the club is quite simple. Camera fans simply get together, arrange for regular meetings, and plan a series of programs. Literature and suggestions for program material are obtained from various sources—often from manufacturers of cameras and film, who have special departments to supply such material without charge for club use. Picture exhibitions or "criticism nights" are usually planned, and whenever possible, tours, hikes, or other special picture jaunts are arranged. Under the stimulus of these activities, it is small wonder that pictures improve, and the snapshotter gets more fun and benefit from his camera hobby!

World's Most Modern Tractor Coming to City

If you should happen to see a sleek powerful looking, streamlined, modernistic vehicle gliding by on the highway, don't be alarmed! It's not an invasion from Mars! Chances are it will be the new MM Comfortactor coming to town. This new Power Unit for farm and industry was designed and built by Minneapolis-Moline and recognized throughout the country as the world's most modern tractor. This latest MM creation is fully equipped with a sound proofed safety cab, cushioned seats, radio, heater, self-starter, electric lights, windshield wipers, safety glass, electric horn, fan, cigar lighter, ash tray, sun visor, rear vision mirror, clock, ignition and cab door locks, and a handy group of instruments on the dashboard; namely, an ammeter, oil, temperature and gas gauges, speedometer, ignition and light switches, throttle control, and choke knob. But don't let the luxurious surroundings of this model fool you. It is fully capable of performing any task required of a standard tread tractor of 3 to 4 plow power. By simply removing the front fender this modern tractor is ready for heavy duty belt work; long hauling jobs are no longer a worry with road speeds up to almost 40 M. P. H. In fact, this tractor has 5 forward speeds and with the variable speed governor it should handle every job at just the right speed. Provision has also been made for the easy installation of a power-take-off.

To really appreciate the amazing versatility of the COMFORTACTOR, it must be seen, and local Minneapolis-Moline dealer, according to Brownfield Imp. Co., we are all going to be able to do just that. Mr. Grady Goodpasture reports that this tractor will be on display at his place of business on Saturday, December 10, 1938. Everyone is invited to come and see the world's most modern tractor—truck—mobile.

Baptists to Hear From Their Missionaries

When ten Missionaries from five different nations begin their itinerary of public speaking with in the territory of the Brownfield Baptist Association which territory is composed of Terry, Lynn, Yoakum, and a part of Gaines and Hockley counties, the Baptist of these counties are in for the greatest amount of inspiration and fresh information that has come our way in a year.

Missionaries, Representing the War Torn nation of China, will bring fresh news from that country of many difficulties and many problems. The missionaries from Mexico our sister Republic to the South, will tell us about her problems. From Argentina will come echoes of hope from their returned missionary. The great number of European speaking people of Texas will have a representative in the Coming of the Texas Baptist General Convention Missionary, Dr. John A. Held, of Waco, Texas. The needy sections of the Mountains regions of the Southland will be heard from in the person of Miss Esther Von Bockern, a convert of our Mission effort in the Mountain mission schools, and a native of the mountain region.

Moving pictures of the effort on the Foreign Mission field will be shown to as many churches as have line voltage to permit the utilization of a 16mm projecting machine. These will be pictures definitely taken with a view to acquainting the people back home with the results which their monies invested in Foreign Missions lands. They will be interesting and educational, as well as inspirational.

These Missionaries will speak at the following places throughout the week, according to a definitely planned itinerary: Ropesville, Meadow, Brownfield, Seagraves, Allred, Johnson, and Gomez. The places of speaking will be the Firrst Baptist Church of the places named, with the exception of Johnson, at which place they will speak at the school house.

This effort is in line with the Brownfield Baptist Associational-wide School of Missions, at which books of missionary stories will be sold, and studied in the various churches mentioned. These books represent the nations where Southern Baptists are doing Foreign Mission work. All the people of these territories are urged to attend the services at these churches each evening beginning December 4, and continuing through the date of December 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Chrestman and little daughter, accompanied by Mrs. M. V. Brownfield, are visiting relatives in Denver, Colo., this week.

Miss Espie Castleberry, a teacher in the Ben Wheeler schools, was a guest in Brownfield last week visiting Mesdames Telford, Randal and Bowers.

Cubs Down Mustangs In Hard Fought Battle

The Fighting Cubs downed a heavier Olton club 20-6 at Plainview last Thursday, November 24 to capture their second consecutive district championship and the third in the history of the school. The Cubs, although playing sluggishly at times, managed to reach pay dirt early in the first quarter to take the lead and had pushed over two more tallies before the Mustangs were able to push over their lone counter. The Mustangs were prepared for a passing attack and Brown was unable to get the Cubs passing offense clicking as in previous games, getting off only one touchdown pass. However, by strengthening their pass defense, the Mustang defense on runs was weakened and Hill was able to make many long gains around end and through the line. Morton also did beautiful ball carrying on reverses to the weak side, getting completely away from the Olton team one time except for the tail of his jersey.

The Cubs first counter came early in the first period. Beginning a march down the field from their own thirty yard line with Hill doing most of the ball carrying the Cubs were finally pulled in on the Mustang 15. On the next play, the Cubs executed as nearly a perfect play as any coach would ever wish to see. Brown faded back to the left, the decoys pulled the entire secondary out of position, and Morton, coming from left wing-back position, sneaked out into right flat and took a beautiful pass from Brown for a touchdown. Jenkins converted, making the score 7-0. Three minutes later, Huggins, Mustang fullback, dropped back to punt. Jenkins bolted through the line, blocking the attempted punt, picked it up and raced across for the second tally. He immediately added another point from placement and the Cubs led 14-0. Midway in the second period, the Mustangs, with the ball on the Cub's 45, sent Hedges crashing through the line. A swarm of Cub tacklers met him at the line, cracked him hard and caused him to fumble. McCraw Cub center, coming in fast took the ball in midair and after stumbling almost to his knees, finally managed to straighten out and race 55 yards to score. Jenkins again converted, but a Cub holding penalty nullified the point and the next kick was short. The Cubs now led 20-0.

Opening the second half, the Mustangs kicked to the Cubs on the 40 where big Tom Rowden took the ball and returned it to the 45. After an exchange of punts, the Mustangs punted to the Cub twenty. On a reverse over right tackle, Capt. Hill fumbled and the Mustangs took over. With line drives the Mustangs placed the ball on the two yard line and from there Huggins plunged over for a touchdown. They attempted to run for extra point but Hedges was stopped at the line. Neither team threatened seriously to score any more and the game ended

Meadow

Thanksgiving has come and gone, so far as we know no one was sick from eating too much turkey, the old red rooster or "dominecker" hen. Just a few more weeks and then old Santa will leave his beautiful castle up North and distribute his gifts among the boys and girls.

Mr. Robert Welch came home from the sanitarium at Brownfield, Thursday and is reported to be doing fairly well. Mr. Welch's mother, Mrs. Harris is still with him.

The following students spent Thanksgiving and the week end with homefolks: James Burleson from State University; Marcell Burleson from Texas Tech; Fred Finley, Norris Norman and Junior White from John Tarleton; Stephenville; Misses Elsie Della and Ceba White and Noble Harris from ACC, Abilene; Neal Turnbough and Steve Warren from Draughon's Business College; Vanoy Turnbough from Tech and Miss Eloise Nettles, McMurry, at Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hicks and family had Mrs. Hicks' mother and father from Spur for Thanksgiving, and her sister and husband from Hobbs, N. M.

Miss Mattie Morgan spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Whitney, Texas.

Mr. Homer Franklin and Mrs. Francis Zachary attended the State Teachers Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crabtree and children spent Thanksgiving and week end with his brother and wife, teachers at Forsan, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Pool had guests for dinner, Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Greer and sons ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. D. J. Harris and children. Mr. Greer is teaching in the Cooper school, Lubock county and Mrs. Greer is attending Texas Tech.

Mr. Alton Webb who is working in Cave's Variety store at Brownfield ate Thanksgiving dinner with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Webb.

We hear that Miss Opal Sisk formerly of Meadow, now of Stillwater, surprised her friends and married a Mr. Powell, of County Line last Sunday. Wonder if she will mind if we say, congratulations, through this paper even if she didn't ask for our presence.

Mr. Milton of Las Vegas, N. M., filled the pulpit for the church of Christ, Sunday. We enjoyed his sermon very much. Mr. Milton is a student of Abilene Christian college.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collier and family of Brownfield attended church at Meadow, Sunday and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welch and Glenola.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Padgett have rented Miss Bonita Chandler's house and moved, Thursday.

Mr. W. B. McMillan visited relatives near Gorman over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Deckard and family were in Lubbock, Saturday.

Mr. John Cadenhead was in Brownfield on business last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lucas of Ropes visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peeler, Sunday.

Paul Goodman was a visitor from Seagraves, Sunday.

"Behind the Scenes In American Business"

NEW YORK, November 28—BUSINESS—Arrival of Old Man Winter last week, with some localities reporting a foot or more of snow, brought cheer to retailers. Previous warm weather this fall has hurt sales in some lines. The day following Thanksgiving, however, saw heavy demand for overcoats, men and women's winter suits, children's snow suits, heavy gloves and other paraphernalia with which Americans fight wintery blasts. Retailers became enthusiastic overnight, predicted that Christmas sales this year will be far greater than last. Consumers will benefit also, since prices are down about 7 per cent on the average from 1937.

WASHINGTON— Though making few sensational headlines, a Senate Committee is now digging into facts behind the profit-sharing systems used by some of the country's largest companies. The Committee's aim is to learn how a sounder basis can be provided for improving relationships between employers and workers generally. An official of Proctor & Gamble Company, describing the method his firm uses to aid workers in purchasing stock in the company, said that operation of the plan had reduced labor turnover to around one-half of one per cent. This witness, however, testified strongly against the practice of substituting profit-sharing schemes for wage increases, which he insisted are an entirely different matter.

John Witt Hendrix, Pastor
Church school opens at 9:45 and closes at 10:50 a. m. And we have had you in mind in making out classes — one is made out for you. Come next Sunday morning and claim it!

Each sabbath morning we offer two periods of worship—11 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Three essential elements go into making up a worship period, namely, a choir, an audience, a minister; and each of these bear equal responsibility, neither can fail without hurt to the other, one has as much right before God to be absent as the other. Into this trinity of obligation we enter. The average people would never cease to talk if the minister were to claim his freedom in this combination. Out of the thousands of ministers in America who last summer went regularly to their task on Sunday morning one went fishing; that fact got in the Associated Press.

The subject of the morning sermon will be, "And He Took It Upon Himself." This is a very common expression and it will be taken apart and examined. Suppose you examine it with us. At this hour also—within this hour—we will observe the Holy Communion. In fact, the service will center in the communion service.

The subject of the evening sermon will be, "There's a Fly in the Ointment." This will be a careful examination of the real need of religion in our make-up. It will endeavor to answer that age old question, "Why Don't We Get Along in the Higher Reaches of Life?"
League and Young People will meet at 6:30 p. m. If you are of that age you are urged to be present.

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling germ-laden phlegm.

The Medical Profession has for generations recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a good dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and may be taken frequently by both adults and children.

Did You Break It?

Well, now, that's just too bad. But perhaps a new part will cost you a sight of money, while a weld or some other repair will make the piece as good as now.

WHOOPIING COUGH DANGEROUS

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 28. — "Some communicable diseases are measurably controllable from public health point of view. However, whooping cough is not yet one of them. It appears and spreads rapidly despite every effort to hold it in check. Because of the great difficulty in applying effective measures, many parents consider this childhood trouble as inevitable. They foolishly argue that since their child is bound to get whooping cough anyway, the sooner it is history, the better," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"It is true that many older children do not appear to suffer serious consequences from this disease, nevertheless in this group pneumonia and tuberculosis sometimes follow in its wake, which is serious enough. But when the attack is experienced by the very young, it is likely to be extremely dangerous. For example, of the whooping cough. Once this pos- 1937 totaling 337, ninety-five per cent were under five years of age," Dr. Cox pointed out.

"While it is impossible to keep children from other youngsters, parents must realize that a cold actually may be the forerunner of whooping cough. Once this possibility is appreciated, a physician will be summoned when a cold evidences itself and the child prevented from mingling with other children. It should be understood that it is at this period of the attack, usually before a diagnosis has been made, that whooping cough is most contagious. This rule may seem unduly harsh. However, if parents would apply it, there is reason to believe that the whooping cough incidence would decline, and perhaps markedly so. And in this connection, the necessity for early recognition of the disease in very young infants cannot be stressed too strongly.

"As it now stands, in most instances physicians and health officials have no knowledge of the case until the disease is well defined and usually noted by the parents themselves through the characteristic "whoop" in the cough. By that time the child has contacted many other children and has been the spreader of the infection. Moreover, the possible damage to the youngster himself through this delay has been increased.

At best, whooping cough is a mean antagonist. It requires wholehearted and prompt cooperation not only on the part of the physicians and public health officials but by parents also. Until this happy combination is more generally recognized the likelihood of definitely diminishing the present power of whooping cough will continue to be slim.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

SNAPSHOTS at night are fun, and a delightful way to spend long winter evenings. Nowadays, with inexpensive lighting equipment especially designed for the amateur, night snapshots are easy with any camera.

You can arrange interesting and artistic "table-top" pictures, using toy automobiles, doll houses and miniature furniture, with a bit of dark carpet for grass, or sugar for snow, or a bit of glass on top of a dark surface to portray a quiet pool. You can also take informal portraits of members of the family, pictures of their reading or busy with other activities, snapshots of the pets, and interior views of the home. Indeed, there is a wonderful range of picture chances, none of which occur outdoors.

The picture above shows how night snapshots are made. A photo bulb is screwed into a bridge lamp, with a cardboard reflector replacing the lampshade. The photo bulb yields an extremely bright white light, especially suited for picture-taking. With two large photo bulbs in cardboard reflectors, three or four feet from the subject, you have enough light for snapshots with a box camera. With a focusing type camera you would get satisfactory results by setting the lens aperture at f.11 and the shutter speed at 1/25 of a second.

In the picture shown here, the light colored wall serves as a reflector to illuminate the shadow side of the "table-top" scene. Ordinarily, two lamps are used for a picture, one to illuminate each side of a subject. By changing the angle and position of the lights, many interesting shadow effects can be obtained. A piece of cardboard can serve as a background as in the picture above.

For night snapshots, the camera should be loaded with a fast film of the "super" type. With slower films, it is necessary to provide two or three times as much light. And for close-ups, as shown here, a portrait attachment must be placed on the camera lens (unless yours is one of the finer focusing cameras).

In night picture-taking, it is important to have your photo lights at a correct distance from the subject—not too near, and not too far away. An exposure guide is helpful in placing the lights—or you can make several "test" pictures of each scene.

Don't miss the fun of night snapshots this winter. You will learn much about picture-taking, and provide many an interesting addition to your album.

Support of all Texans for the annual Christmas Seal drive has been urged by Governor James V. Allred.

The campaign conducted annually by the National Tuberculosis association will extend until the first of the new year. In an official proclamation, the governor said:

Confronted with the necessity of continuing the important battle, now that the fruits of victory have been achieved in large measure, I urge every support to this great humanitarian endeavor."

He pointed out that the gains made in fighting the disease were reflected by many agencies which carry on the work.

CLINT SMALL HITS O'DANIEL'S SECRECY ON PLANS

Directing a questionnaire at Governor-elect W. Lee O'Daniel in regard to the reorganization of the entire State Government, Senator Clint Small of Amarillo has attacked O'Daniel's policy of keeping his plans secret before he delivers a message to the Legislature.

"Well," Small said, "of course reorganizing the government is a trivial chore, so he really ought to let the Texas Legislature in on the secret. It seems to me there is something in our Constitution providing the Legislature shall be the lawmaking body. But maybe the Constitution is all wrong."

Will Adams, Mary Nell Adams, Earlene Jones and Jane Brownfield spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Waco as guests of Mildred and Irene Adams, co-ed students in Baylor University.

MISS TITTLE IN WHO'S WHO IN COLLEGES

Ona Faye Tittle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tittle, who is a Senior in Hardin Simmons University has been selected as a representative of her university as one of the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. These representatives are elected by popular vote of the student body.

This honor is the highest honor that a student can achieve while in college, because only a very small number of seniors and juniors are selected from each institution.

Ona Faye is active in the school activities, she being a member of the Cowgirl organization, and is secretary of the Student Body.

FORMER RALLS BOY IS MARRIED IN TAHOKA

Word was received in Ralls this week of the marriage of a former Ralls boy, Randolph Rutherford, on November 6.

Mr. Rutherford, who was reared here, is a former member of the Banner staff, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rutherford. At present Randolph is manager of a Dry Goods store in Tahoka.

He was married to Doris Jean Cadem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cadem of Tahoka, where the couple are now at home.—Ralls Banner.

Randolph lived here several years before moving to Littlefield with his parents, a few years ago.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Methodist Missionary Society will meet in the home of Mrs. Jessie D. Cox at one o'clock, December 6th, with a covered dish luncheon and a Christmas tree. Bring presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rogers, who have recently moved to Big Spring were visitors in Brownfield over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bright of Seagraves were visitors in Brownfield over the week end.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

The unusual cool weather had a bearing on our attendance in Bible study Sunday morning with only 250 present. If we reach our goal of 300 average attendance which should be easy with 550 enrolled, our people must resolve to attend more regularly.

Average attendance at the preaching and B. T. U. hours.

A resolution was offered by the deacons proposing that 15 per cent of all monies paid into the general treasury of the church be placed in the building fund was unanimously adopted. Some who paid money into the general expense of the church expressed their desire that a certain portion be used in this manner thus enabling the smallest contributor to help every phase of work.

This same policy of setting aside a certain pre cent of all receipts to the general fund for missions has been pursued now for some years and has been very satisfactory, and in addition about three free will offerings are taken during the year for the mission cause every cent of which is forwarded to those causes without a cent of expense deducted.

The Womens Missionary Union of the church met Monday and packed a box for the Buckner Orphanage valued at $136.94 and their cash offering was $39.89 which will be supplemented by a free will offering from the church as a whole.

It will be remembered that this church sends this orphanage $10 per month out of their general fund and the above was over and above.

Beginning next Sunday and through the coming week the church observes the church school of missions where information relative to the different mission fields will be taught to every age and return missionaries from several of the fields will bring special lectures on their field at night.

The Workers Conference of the Association meet with our church Wednesday all day, when lunch will be served at the church.

The W. M. U. meets next Monday in circles for Bible study at 2:30. Lottie Moon, to be announced Sunday. Annie Long, with Mother Green. Reagan with Mrs. C. A. White. Lockett with Mrs. L. C. Heath.

Wide co-operation on the part of all the membership of the church will be greatly appreciated in all of these worthwhile activities.

NEW METHODIST PASTOR

Brother J. W. Hendrix, newly appointed pastor of the local Methodist church is a well known preacher of the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences, having served a number of the good charges of both. The beautiful church at Tulia was built during his ministry there. His work everywhere has been of a solid and lasting character.

We have known Brother John Hendrix for several years and have learned to esteem him as one of the best men in the Conference. Scholarly and gentlemanly, always, it is a delight to associate with him. Always a good preacher and a tireless worker, it is a privilege to hear him in his pulpit ministry. An immaculate in his conduct as in his personal appearance, he is always agreeable and pleasant to meet. We wish for him every success, and solicit for him the same hearty reception we have had in this city.

You will be delighted with him and his wife. They will undoubtedly win your friendship and loyal following.

—R. T. Breedlove.

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Methodist Missionary Society met at the church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Carpenter led the Monthly World Outlook lesson. Assisting on the program were Mesdames Webber, Toone, Cook, Williams and Harris.

The following officers have been elected for another year:

President, Mrs. J. H. Carpenter; Vice President, Mrs. Judson Cook; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Jesse D. Cox; Cor. Secretary, Mrs. W. B. Downing; Local Treasurer, Mrs. G. B. Chaney; Cor. Treasurer, Mrs. H. O. Longbrake; Supt. of Study, Mrs. G. S. Webber; Supt. Social Relations, Mrs. Fred Seale; Supt.

Publicity, Mrs. Hendrix; Supt. Baby Division, Mrs. Glen Harriss; Supt. Supplies, Mrs. B. L. Thompson; Supt. World Outlook, Mrs. J. T. Gainer.

There were ten ladies present Monday. The society planned to quilt at the church Wednesday afternoon. Next Tuesday Mesdames Cox and Cook will be hostesses to the society, with a Christmas social at the home of Mrs. Cox. Names have been drawn and gifts will be exchanged.

WEST WARD P.-T. A PICK UPS

The ready response of the citizens of Brownfield in the activities of Parent-Teacher Association prove how the best and wisest parent wants round, sound, full development of his child. The food was prepared by one group to be bought by others, who needed, cakes, chickens and pies for Thanksgiving. Now the money will be used to purchase the badly needed play-ground equipment.

Don't forget the play "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," sponsored by the P.-T. A. to be given the night of December 13, at the High School Auditorium.

COURTESY CLUB

The 5-B Courtesy Club met November 22, 1938, and in the absence of the President, R. B. Walls, Jr., the Vice President, Clyde Watts, Jr., presided.

The character study committee under the leadership of Alvis Bradley gave the following program:

A poem, "Thanksgiving Day,"

Glynda Fay Ross.
Song, "My Banjo," Neta Jean Worsham, Jackie Lee Seale,

A Story, "A Pilgrim Lad Walks Into 1938," Willie Merel Jackson.

The following persons were selected as best citizens: Neta Jean Worsham, Alvis Bradley, Glenna Faye Ross, Clyde Perry, Jr., Dorothy Copeland.

The Thrift Committee, under the leadership of Jackie Lee Seale will give the next program, meeting on Friday, December 2, 1938.

HARMONY P.-T.A

The Harmony P.-T.A. met last Friday night, November 25, at 7:30 o'clock at the school house, Mrs. John Garner presiding. After the reports of standing committees the following program was rendered:

Poem by Charles Wayne Garrett. Song by Misses Opal D. Murry, Barbara and Claudine Garrett. Reading, Mrs. Geo. Murry. Special music by Mrs. John Garner, Clea Garner, Joe Merritt and Rev. Dean of Plainview. Reading by Claudine Garrett. Remarks and Reading by Rev. Dean. An interesting report of the Wednesday morning session of the State Convention of

Parents and Teachers at Lubbock was given by Miss Velma McManis. Next meeting, second Friday night in December.

OIL-PLATED...
oil-change!

SEE how refreshing it is, the way Your Mileage Merchant—here in the paper and at his Conoco station—backs up his statements about Germ Processed oil. It brings you more than an oil-change, because right after it is pumped up from the crankcase like any oil, it does something any oil cannot do. Energized by the Germ Process—patented—it bonds to every working part and stays up lastingly in the form of OIL-PLATING. Even grindstones can scarcely remove OIL-PLATING, so it certainly cannot drain down while your car stands cold—no matter how long. Therefore the instant you want to start up, every engine part swiftly and safely slides into action on its ready OIL-PLATING—the lubricant that plainly can't be held back by any cold; that can't hold back your battery. The quick starts tell you there's no grinding wear in your OIL-PLATED engine. It won't get hoggish with your Conoco Germ Processed oil, another good straight reason for you to change to Your Mileage Merchant today.

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN — A quickening of interest in Texas in national Democratic politics was expected to follow the parley of Democratic leaders from all states scheduled for this week in Chicago, called by Jim Farley, national committee chairman. Texas was to be represented by E. B. Germany, Dallas lawyer-geologist, new chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, named at the instance of Gov.-Elect W. Leamonth, however, were damaging O'Daniel, and by Clara Driscoll, of Corpus Christi, Texas' national committeewoman, and other state leaders. A possible contest between President Roosevelt for a third-term nomination, and Vice President John N. Garner, Texas conservative, has already received considerable speculation by Texas and national political writers. Jesse Jones of Houston, chairman of RFC has also been mentioned as another Texan who may figure in the long-range contest for convention delegates, which will get under way in various states soon after the first of the year. The heavy inroads which Republicans made in Democratic congressional and gubernatorial strength in the elections this to the prospects of all "Solid South" favorite son candidacies, making it likely that a standard bearer from a doubtful state will be the choice of the Democracy in 1940.

Third Term Talk

Abolition of the two-third rule, under which Democratic candidates were nominated for nearly a century, which will take effect at the next national convention, is also regarded as lessening considerably the strength of Southern states and their candidates, by eliminating the possibility of the "Solid South" delegates blocking a nomination, as they have done at many past conventions. Many observers here incline to the belief that Republican gains have added considerably to the possibility of President Roosevelt seeking a third term, on the theory that he is the only leader behind whom "progressive" political thought can be solidified, and a New Deal victory in 1940 achieved. The tremendous influence which the huge New Deal political machine exercises, particularly in the heavily populated Eastern urban centers, with their millions of reliefers and WPA workers, many believe, can be mobilized in sufficient strength to give Roosevelt a majority of convention delegates—all he would need for a 1940 presidential nomination.

Many Texas political observers believe the Garner movement in Texas is being nurtured more to place the Vice President and his friends in a strategic trading position, than with any serious intent of nominating the 72-year-old Vice President as the party standard bearer. The fourth-session of Congress, of course, will bring much party political maneuvering, and may conceivably develop a candidate not now regarded as a contender.

Proration Test Welcomed

Test of the authority of the Texas Railroad Commission to prorate production of oil by shutting wells down on Saturdays and Sundays will get under way in District Court in Travis County, Dec. 7, when a hearing on a suit for injunction, attacking the shut-down order, is scheduled before District Judge Ralph Yarborough. The suit was brought by Ray Starnes, East Texas operator, who takes the unique position that the price of East Texas oil has been arbitrarily fixed at more than it is worth, thus placing East Texas at a competitive disadvantage. Chairman Ernest O. Thompson of the Railroad Commission, announced the commission would welcome a legal test of its authority, to clarify the marginal well law, which has been subject to various interpretations by oil operators and a majority of the commission. The Saturday and Sunday shutdowns were expected to be continued in force in the December proration order, due to be issued this week.

CRA Rejects Power Offer

Max Starke, operations manager of Colorado River Authority, and representatives of Texas Power & Light Co., this week continued discussions of the offer of Texas Power & Light Co. to sell all of its distributing facilities in 16 Central Texas counties to CRA, following Starke's refusal to accept the price asked by TP&L, $7,398,016. TP&L claimed this was its actual investment in the properties. Starke claimed they could be duplicated for $2,000,000 less, and also objected to the TP&L proposal that CRA confine its operations to the 16-county area, in the event the sale is made.

If negotiations finally collapse, cities and towns in the area which have voted bonds to build competitive municipal plants, will be confronted with the alternative of duplicate competitive power service. Neither party to the controversy wants this, because division of the volume of business in the area would tend to limit profits of both the private distributor and the municipal plants.

Job Hunters Worry O'Daniel

Gov.-elect W. Lee O'Daniel, who has been learning rapidly about the Legislature, the constitution, and other important phases of the State government, has also learned something about that plague of all political office-holders—the job hunters—he indicated this week by a statement in which he proposed a civil service system for state workers. The job-hunters have descended upon his Fort Worth headquarters in such hordes he was forced to hire a secret them. Dero Cowley, secretary to them. Dero Cowley, secretary to Gov. Allred, and former Representative from Hillsboro, was borrowed from Allred to aid O'Daniel in meeting legislators, and this has given rise to rumors here that Cowley may be a member of the in-coming governor's official staff.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

He sharpened razor blades for years in the lobby of a down-at-the-heels office building in Fort Worth. One day, an acquaintance happened to mention the Spanish-American War and the frail, stooped man's face brightened as he remarked that he was in that war as a sailor. And he told of an experience:

"One day, our battleship caught sight of an enemy cruiser in the distance. We gave chase but she widened the space between us so NEW ENGLAND WEATHER (or, in this case the ocean) hid her from sight. I was ordered aloft and could still see her. From my position, I signaled to the officer below as to whether the shot had been to the right or left so that the aim could be changed.

"I believe I was the first man in the history of the world to direct the fire of a battleship at an enemy out of sight of officers and gun crew."

And he resumed sharpening a razor blade.

"They had their hour," the poet wrote—and, in even the most prosaic lives, there has been at least one adventure that has become a golden memory.

Paul Holcomb, picturesque El Campo editor, is responsible for this information: El Campo gins more cotton and handles more rice than any other town in the United States. There are some towns that gin more cotton and others that handle more rice but no other towns deals in as much of both cotton and rice as El Campo does.

Visiting the Hood County Tablet recently at Granbury, this columnist was greeted—in the absence of Publisher A. W. Crawford—by Ashley W. Crockett, who was busy setting type by hand. He is 81 years old and is a grandson of David Crockett hero of the Alamo.

Here's a candidate for that meanest-man-in-Texas title. He is a lawyer in a West Texas town. Last summer a candidate for state office—thinking that the attorney was supporting him—called on him and that worthy introduced him, right and left. But after the candidate had gone, the Lawyer went back around and said:

"Boys, I ain't for him, I'm supporting the other fellow."

Painted on the back of a dairy truck in Austin: "I try to drive carefully; if I don't, report truck No. 9."

Oscar Lyerla of Flatwood (which, as readers of this column ought to know by now, is in East-Land County) has a droll sense of humor. Heavy-set, twinkling-eyed, the county Democratic chairman, draws this story on himself:

Quite a few years ago, the prosecuting attorney was inexperienced. Lyerla, it seems, had neglected to get a new automobile license until he came to town, before he returned to the car with the plate, an officer put a tag on the windshield.

So Lyerla went to see his friend, the county attorney, to protest that he hadn't violated the law.

"Well, you'd better just go ahead and pay a fine," the prosecutor said. "The fine won't amount to as much as it would cost you to hire a lawyer."

Lyerla replied, "I wasn't intending to hire a lawyer unless you did. I wouldn't want to take unfair advantage of the State." The whole thing was dropped.

NEW ENGLAND WEATHER

I reverently believe that the Maker, who made us all, makes everything in New England except the weather. I don't know who makes that, but I think it must be raw apprentices in the weather clerk's factory, who experiment and learn how, in New England, for board and clothes, and then are promoted to make weather for countries that require a good article, and will take their custom elsewhere if they don't get it. There is a sumptuous variety about the New England weather that compels the stranger's admiration, and regret. The weather is always doing something there: always attending strictly to business; always getting up new designs, and trying them on the people to see how they will go. But it gets more business in spring than in any other season.

In the spring I have counted one hundred thirty-six different kinds of weather inside of four and twenty hours. It was I who made the fame and fortune of that man who had the marvelous collection of weather on exhibition at the Centennial, that so astounded the foreigners. He was going to travel all over the world and get specimens from all climes. I said, "Don't you do it, you come to New England on a favorable spring day." I told him what we could do in the way of style variety and quantity. Well, he came, and he made his collection in four days. As to variety, why, he confessed that he got hundreds of kinds of weather that he had never heard of before. As to quantity; well, after he had picked out and discarded all that were blimished in any way, he not only had weather enough, but weather to spare, weather to hire out, weather to sell, to deposit; weather to invest, weather to give to the poor.

(Excerpt from speech on New England weather by Mark Twain.)

STOP Coughing and Stop It NOW

Enjoy A Good Night's Rest BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE certainly makes short work of relieving those stubborn old hang-on coughs and colds that other cough remedies fail to budge, according to Mr. H. A. Allen.

Mr. Allen says: "For years I suffered every winter with a terrible cough. I have had many sleepless nights and coughed until tears ran, and my stomach ached. I started again with the same old cough this year—but after a few doses of BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE my cough was gone."

You can't go wrong on BUCKLEY'S—by far the largest-selling cough medicine in all cold Canada. One or two doses and stubborn tough hang-on coughs are often on their way. And it's only a few cents at drugists everywhere. Money back if not delighted.

New Minister Makes Bow to Public

Permit this personal word from the new pastor over at the Methodist church. We are here, located comfortably in the parsonage. We have been here over one Sunday and met our people—part of them. We assuredly expect to meet all of them as soon as possible. Of course we are primarily pastor of the Methodist church; but we are also a citizen of our town and community. We crave to fulfill that part of our task creditably. We are subject to your call. Our phone number is in the book and we will respond to any in need, day or night.

Then further we are one of the pastors of your town. It shall be our pleasure to recognize the other brethren of the ministry, not as competitors, but as brethren in a common task—the superb task of building the Kingdom of God among men, in the hearts of men. It has long ago been seen, recognized, that we all go up or down together. That is, God has set us as one in the very deep of our task and we will not be able to escape the equalization set for us in that depth.

Allow me now to say to all churches and church people, to laity and pastors alike, we are fellow workers with God—co-workers with God in the high and holy privilege of spreading abroad among men the conviction Jesus had concerning our living for his Father. Will you accept me as such?

MRS. A. L. TURNER PASSES

Mrs. A. L. Turner, 77, long time resident of the county and city, passed away Friday morning slightly after 6 o'clock, after only a few days illness. Mrs. Turner had a host of friends over this section, and friend or stranger always felt a sense of welcome in her home.

Mrs. Turner, nee Ella Fisher, was born at Grosbeck, Texas, but the family moved to Abilene, where the family lived about 25 years, soon after her marriage in 1878. The family moved to this section 27 years ago, and have watched it develop from a ranch to a farm, ranch and oil section. Besides her husband, she leaves a family of 9 living children, four Bill and Dick; Mrs. J. E. Lisman, girls being dead. The living children are, Al, George, John, Ed, Mrs. J. O. Hughey and Mrs. Carl Lewis, as well as a host of grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at the family residence on Hill street at 10 a. m., November 26, by Rev. R. T. Breedlove, of Leveland, her former pastor. Burial in the Brownfield cemetery followed immediately, with Brownfield Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Herman Trigg of Pampa is here, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stricklin.

The Herald had the pleasure this week of a visit from the new Methodist pastor, Rev. J. W. Hendrix. From our first meeting with the new pastor, we feel sure that Brownfield Methodists are going to be pleased with their new minister. Read his general statement elsewhere in this issue.

Queenelle Sawyer was down from Lubbock to spend Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sawyer.

Raymond Pittman, local dairyman, is at College Station this week attending a Dairy Short Course at A. & M. College. Mr. Pittman attended A. & M. college when a young man.

J. W. Spear was in this week to renew for the Herald and Dallas News and announced that he had been a reader of the Herald for 24 years, starting with the first issue. That's a long time to take and pay for one paper. He reports Mrs. Spear is unable to be about much now.

C. P. Buchanan of the Tokio section, was in Saturday complaining that he didn't get his Herald. Any time any reader fails to get his paper, let us know as we always print extra copies.

HARMONY—

Our teachers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilhite and Miss Velma McManis entertained the local trustees and bus driver and their families with a social last Saturday night. Those attending were, Mr. and Mrs. John Garner, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Sexton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Murry, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis. Games were played for a time, after which all enjoyed refreshments. They reported a very pleasant evening.

Mr. Fred Willis went to McAlester, Okla., to visit his father who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Garrett and family were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Richardson of Lamesa last Sunday.

Mr. C. A. Wilhite, Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Murry, Miss Velma McManis and Miss Opal D. Murry went to Plainview last Thursday to see the football game and to see the Cubs gain another victory. Mrs. Wilhite went as far as Lubbock, where she stopped to visit with her sister, Mrs. H. F. Maner.

Misses Claudiabell Whitefield and Opal D. Murry were guests of Miss Velma McManis last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirb Fitzgerald of Munday visited Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Murry last week, Mrs. Fitzgerald is Mrs. Murry's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Davis were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilhite last Sunday.

The first man to present the Herald with a 1939 calendar, was L. Nicholson, hustling insurance man. And it is a beauty. Not a pretty gal, but a lovely scene along a creek bank, when the leaves are turning to gold, yellow, red, purple, and other beautiful colors.

Pat Patterson, manager of Piggly Wiggly, is sporting a new Chevrolet, which he purchased from Carter Chevrolet Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Mon Telford had as guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Chas Webb and children from Roby, Texas. On Friday and Saturday, three sisters of Mr. Telford's were guests, Mrs. D. S. Day, Mrs. H. A. Garner, Mrs. W. E. Butler and a niece, Mrs. John E. Johnson of De Kalb.
