SANTA CLAUS TO BE IN BROWNFIELD FRI. DECEMBER 16TH

ONE OF BIGGEST PARADES IN HISTORY OF THE CITY TO BE STAGED FRIDAY

The Parade is To Start Near School Buildings, Headed By the High School Band and Santa. Packages to Be Handed Out Down Town. To See Free Show.

Everything is being shaped up on the Santa Claus celebration that is to be staged in Brownfield on December 16th and the Maids and Matrons club distinguished themselves by contacting our business and professional men and succeeded in procuring the necessary funds to enable us to put the affair over in good style.

Under the present plans, the parade will be formed at or near the High School building and headed by the High School band and Santa Claus, will march down Main Street and as far West as the Texico Station, then South to Broadway, to a point near the Southeast corner of the square, where the distribution will be made. We hope to handle this part of it in better shape than was the case last year, and avoid the "jam" around the Santa Claus float during the period that packages are being handed out. Details of this plan are not yet worked out, but will be by the time the day arrives.

Santa Claus letters to the school children will be sent out to the teachers sometimes during the present week or the first of next week and County Superintendent, Fulton, is mailing requests to the teachers in Terry county and to Superintendents of Yoakum and Gaines counties, asking them to share a holiday so that the children can be on hand, both for the packages and for the Free Picture show at the Rialto Theatre, which is being staged with compliments of Mr. Earl Jones, without cost to anyone, other than himself. Mr. Jones has advised us that mothers who have children under the school age will be admitted

Edition to Cover the Trade Territory

This edition of the Herald might easily be called the Shoppers Guide, as it is well filled with the message of the merchants of Brownfield, who are extending a message to the entire trade area to visit Brownfield immediately to make their holiday purchases, promising to meet the prices of any town in the section, quality considered.

We are printing sufficient papers to reach every boxholder in each town in the area, as well as the rural route box holders, and if you know of someone who lives in town that failed to get a copy notify us by phone and one will be delivered immediately.

Will say to the new people who receive this edition, if you like the Herald and believe it worth one dollar per year, we would certainly appreciate entering your subscription.

Nowell & Mangum Open Work Shop.

Jarvis Nowell and Alfred Mangum, two of the best automobile mechanics in the city, are this week announcing the opening of a work shop in the rear of the old Brick Garage, and are adding just as fast as possible a full line of needed tools and supplies, all new.

We don't know of two young men in the city whose training and characteristics are more congenial free in order that they may look after the young ones. Teachers are also asked, where possible, to accompany their pupils and they will also be admitted free.

Now let's all get together and undertake to pull off the biggest party that Brownfield has ever had.

An effort is on foot to undertake to decorate the city during Christmas, and the Chamber of Commerce is going to offer first and second premiums for the best Christmas decorated residence and hopes that different business houses will also join in and dress up the fronts of their buildings.

The residence section will be divided in three divisions, as follows: All of the territory East of 5th and North Main, and all territory East of 5th and South Main and all territory West of 5th, known as divisions, one, two and three. A prize of $5.00 will be paid to the best decorated home in each of these divisions and a prize of $2.50 will be paid for the second best decorated home in each division.

All decorations must be in place by the morning of December 16th and remain in place until December 28th. The Maids and Matrons club, will probably undertake to interest our people in the decoration of homes and business houses and will also appoint committees to pass upon or decide the winners of prizes.

The streets of the city will be strung with colored lights and we are informed that several additional strings have been arranged for. These lights will be in operation a few days before the day of the Santa Claus celebration.

Hamlin Hatchery Man Here This Week.

Mr. Curtis Martin, owner and operator of the Hamlin Hatchery, one of the largest in west Texas, was here this week, and called on the Herald, as he is making up his list of newspapers to use in advertising beginning soon after New Year.

Mr. Martin says that the four counties of Garza, Lynn Terry and Dawson is his best territory on the Plains, but owing to bad connections, he has had bad success making deliveries. He is fitting up a large school bus, which he will convert into a delivery for this section, preparing it so that it can be cooled or heated, according to weather conditions.

PIXLEY APPOINTED CHIEF CLERK TO H. B. LAUTZ

The appointment of Ross F. Pixley as Chief Clerk to General Manager H. B. Lautz of Santa Fe lines serving this territory, was announced today. Pixley's appointment was to fill the vacancy created through the recent death of Charles Doud.

The appointee is a veteran in railway service and served this area in various capacities for many years. Until the present promotion he served as Chief Clerk to F. L. Myers, assistant general manager. Howard E. Eaglen, contract clerk, is to succeed Pixley as aide to Myers.

for a partnership. Both have years of training and experience in repairing automobiles of all makes, and their work must stand the test. You must be satisfied before they are satisfied.

If any one thing is to be more stressed than another, it will be the carbureter. These boys have made extensive study, including course in a school of this very essential part of the automobile. If your carbureter don't work, you're out of luck. Give these young men a trial.

BROWNFIELD IS THE PLACE TO DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING—REASON

Our Merchants Are Prepared With An Array of Holiday Good That Would Do Credit to A Much Larger City Local Dealers Help Our Community Every Day.

The merchants of Brownfield have gone to heavy expense this week to tell the people of the trade territory about their wonderful array of Christmas goods that are now on display here for the eager shopper. The Herald has joined in with them in doing its very best to reach every section of the territory with their messages. Therefore, Brownfield is your logical place to buy your Christmas needs. The goods are here. They are competitive with prices anywhere else, quality of goods considered.

Do Your Shopping Early

You have often heard of that old catch, "the early bird gets the worm." It might just as well apply to the Christmas shopper. Perhaps you see something on display, and in your mind have the very person picked out for that particular present. But you are in a hurry and return in a few days to find the present has been purchased by some other shopper. You are disappointed. Why not pick out what you want, NOW, while the stocks are least unbroken? Why wait and take the leftovers?

Judge Allison Trying To Help Farmers

We had a letter from Judge Alvin R. Allison, of Levelland, our State Representative elect, in which he enclosed a copy of a letter he had written Sec. Henry A. Wallace, of the U. S. Agricultural department, calling his attention to the fact that a serious drouth prevailed over Terry, Yoakum and Gaines county this year, and asking that arrangements be made just as soon as possible to make the 1938 crop payments in these counties. The letter in part follows: "For about six months last summer I was throughout the whole of these three counties and I know that rainfall was not sufficient to produce crops of the usual quality and quantity.

"Hence the farmers are in great need because of this unusual condition. As a representative of these people, I would like for the 1938 crop payments to be made to these farmers in these three counties at the earliest possible date.

"In my opinion this would be in keeping with the present Government program as it is now in effect. Any further information required for immediate payment of farmers of Terry, Gaines and Yoakum counties will be supplied and I will consider any action that you may take in effecting immediate payment as a personal favor to me."

Assuring you of my personal good wishes, I am, Yours very truly, Alvin R. Allison

Make Light of Cubs But Ate His Grub

Our old side-kick, Lense Price, had a good one for us one day this week when he stopped us on the street to make us take another dollar on subscription. Somehow we got to talking about kinfolks and visitors, when he informed us that he and the wife entertained their folks, the Hargrove family from Rotan over the week end. Two of the Hargrove boys are on the Rotan Yellowhammer football squad.

Well, says Lense, I didn't mind them eating up my grub, but darn them they poured it on me about our football team all the time they were consuming it. Nothing fair about it, says Lense.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hudgens of Levelland were here Sunday visiting friends.

You Owe It To Your Town

Really and truly, you owe it to your town and community to buy your Christmas goods as well as other merchandise from local dealers. We call on them dozens of times a year to help out in some community enterprise, and most of them readily respond. It is their tax money that helps to keep our state, county, schools and city supplied with the money to keep us on the forward move. It is due to them largely that we have our churches and other enterprises and community benefits. If you spend your money in some other town, you aid and help that section to the distress of the local community. It would just be too bad if we did not have these community aids.

Read the ads in this paper carefully, and come in immediately prepared to make your purchases. You will find what you want at a price you can pay. Don't be fooled by glowing pictures in catalogs. See what you are buying before you buy.

Bad Farm Years But Makes Good

On May 15th 1935, there arrived in Terry county a school teacher by the name of A. H. Glasco with his family, who decided that he would settle down on a farm, and become one of the better class of farmers of Terry county. They purchased the old headquarter quarter section of the old John Burnett ranch, and after some repairs, settled down to make their first crop.

If we did not misunderstand Mr. Glasco, he had just about $35 left when he made his payment and repairs, for the family to live on until a crop was made, but they had good land to work, and the family went at the work like they meant business. Out of the four, three good crops were made, and despite the handicap of not having modern machinery, has succeeded very well. Recently they traded the farm to a lady for a $4000.00 apartment house in Lubbock, and are moving up there this week. We understand the lady, who will marry again right away, will move on the farm, four miles east of the city.

The Herald regrets to lose the Glasco family for they have been boosters for Terry during the time they have been here, and still are, and have taken the Herald all that time, and it will follow them to their new home in Lubbock. They leave a host of friends here in Terry county, and especially in their former neighborhood. But Lubbock is not far away, and we shall expect to see them occasionally.

Earnie Greenfield Remodeling Premises

Earnie Greenfield is having his home set back from First Street, which is also highway 51, and having the dirt removed to a depth of some two feet, and letting the house down that much lower than it was originally. When this is done, the premises will be resodded and as it stands next his Wheel Inn cafe, will in the summer put tables on the lawn.

By the way, Earnie informed us that he would have some more of that good old Son-of-a-Gun Sunday, and you fellows that like it better appear early. Others who have not tried it are invited to do so.

L. C. Green, Jr., of Littlefield spent Sunday with his parents.

Cubs Have Completed Mighty Good Season

This paper is not one of the few who have been rather critical of the Cubs since their defeat by Rotan last Friday. On the other hand, when a team with no more reserves than the Cubs have, go through a hard, grinding season, meeting the best with high schools much larger than Brownfield, with ten straight wins, we think you have something there. And you have.

So, if any of the lay coaches, or any of the street corner quarterbacks have held a session of criticism against you boys, forget it. The rank and file of Brownfield and Terry county people think you are just the cat's ankle yet, and are for you lock, stock and barrel. It is not in the crystal for any team to win always and lose nothing. We all have our off days. And that was just what happened Friday. One of the boys was delirious with fever the night before the game and a number of them were crippled. Had they been in the shape they were when they played Slaton, perhaps another story would have been written.

Perhaps you would be critics, had too much money up on you. Really, Rotan pulled a good one on those who are inclined to gamble. They unloaded their smaller boys down town, keeping the big bruisers up at the gym. But perhaps it is just as well. While we would like to have seen the Cubs win Friday, crippled as they are, they could not have been any match for the huge Wink team, which a Star-Telegram sports writer says will match anything in Texas Interscholastic League in football, be they A, B, C, or what have you. They are so heavy and well trained together, as well as speedy, that they seldom punt or pass—just open a hole in the opposing line and march down to the goal.

Yes, sir, those Fighting Cubs are still fighters—just failed to get the breaks last Friday, and the Herald is for them 100 per cent.

ALEXANDER DRUG AN OLD FIRM WITH MODERN MERCHANDISING METHODS

The Rapid Growth of This Popular Drug Store is the Outcome of Fair, Square Dealings With the Public, As Well as the Sale of Quality Merchandise.

It is the intention of the Herald to give some facts and figures about Brownfield business firms, new and old from time to time in these columns, much of which may come from our files, running back perhaps for years. This week, the subject of our sketch will be the Alexander Drug Co., the oldest drug store in Terry county, yet using the most modern system of merchandising. These sketches are to cost our customers, not one penny.

The Alexander Drug store, if we are not mistaken, was started by Dr. John R. May as the City Drug Store, back in 1915 or 1916. About 1917, the year of our worst drouth, and the year we entered the world war, two young men, Earl G. Alexander and Clifford Graves, came here from Paducah, as a new railroad was being built into Brownfield, and purchased the interest of Dr. May in the store. About 1918, Mr. Alexander bought out his partner, who was a lawyer, and the name of the store changed to Alexander Drug store.

Two years later, the Brownfield State Bank had completed the bank building, and the store was moved from the old Arthur Alexander wooden building on the west side of the square, about where the Hudgens Grocery is now located, to where the palace Drug Store is now located. Soon after this, Mr. Alexander purchased a building site on the north side of the square, and in 1923 completed their present building and moved in. An adjoining lot was later purchased and a two story building erected, where the Stephens-Latham store is now located.

Glady's M. Green, present manager of the Brownfield store, started to work for the firm in 1922, when the store was on west

Main, and became a partner in the business in 1929, and manager after Mr. Alexander moved to Plainview. The Stokes-Alexander store at Littlefield was started in 1922, being the second of the chain of Alexander Drug stores. In 1928, Mr. Alexander purchased the Laird Drug store at Plainview, and moved to that city, where he and family have since resided, but he has always had a lively interest in Brownfield, keeping his banking account here during the time Plainview was without a bank in the early 20ties. And, as Mrs. Alexander stated to a reporter recently, "we have always thought of Brownfield as home, for it was here that we really started into our business life, and here it was that our first children were born."

The last of the chain of stores, the Alexander Drug store at Levelland was started in 1927, with George Bragg in charge. Each of these stores have done good business from year to year, and are stable fixtures in these four towns. The local store is your local Rex-all Store, handling and dispensing this famous national line of drugs and drug sundries.

They have always kept plenty efficient clerks to wait on customers with a minimum of delay, and their goods must always meet the approval of their customers, or your money is refunded or the goods exchanged. You must be satisfied before they are satisfied.

We suppose that Gladys Green, who is president of our school board has his off days the same as any of us, but outwardly, you'd never think so. He is never gruff or grum, always meeting his friends and customers with a smile and good word of cheer, no matter how the world wags. He has the makings of a real business man, and has made one.

WORK ON NEW WATER AND SEWERAGE EXPANSION NOW WELL UNDER WAY.

A 100,000 Gallon Underground Reservoir, as Well as Another Overhead Reservoir, Which More Than Doubles the Capacity of Available Water.

In conversation this week with Mayor Clyde C. Coleman, he informed us that the huge excavation being made on Fourth and Tate streets, two blocks from the square, was to be an underground storage, with a capacity of 100,000 gallons of water. It will also act as a settling tank, in which sand pumped out of the wells will settle before the water goes into the tower reservoirs, and thus keep sand out of the mains, to a minimum degree.

Just to the west of the settling tank will be built the second water tower and reservoir, which will be the same height as the one on 7th street, but will be a third larger in capacity. The old reservoir has a capacity of 100,000 gallons and the new one 150,000 gallons. A new pump house will be built over the new well on Fifth street, and the old pump house over the old well on 7th is to be wrecked and a new house built.

These improvements with a great extension of water and sewer mains will make Brownfield one of the best protected little cities in west Texas, so far as water supply is concerned, and will no doubt have the effect of lowering insurance rates. Our little city already enjoys a very low insurance rate, as it has had a mighty good fire record.

The city will also stay up-to-date so far as fire fighting equipment is concerned. Of course it is too small to think of having a paid fire department, but we'll bet there is no better volunteer department in towns of 3000 to 5000 in the state than we have right here in our city.

Clifton Jones Puts One By on Us.

Just heard last week that Clifton, son of Mrs. O. L. Jones had joined the "chain gang," in other words was married. Fact is, Clifton put it by his mother and family for some time. However, he and wife were here a few weeks ago over Sunday, but we were out of town and didn't hear the news.

Clifton married Miss LaVeda Handley of Fort Worth on September 15th at Paducah, where Clifton manages a gin for the West Texas Gin Co. While we are not acquainted with the young lady, we understand she answers to every description of a fine young

WET-DRY STORE STRADDLING LINE DESTROYED BY FLAMES

MARSHALL, Texas, Nov. 29. — Fire swept two states Tuesday, when the general mercantile store of J. N. Morgan at Old Latex, which straddles the Louisiana-Texas line, was leveled.

The place was unique in that one half of it was wet—the Louisiana half—and the other was dry. The west half of the store in Harrison County, Texas; the east side in Caddo Parish, Louisiana.

Right here we are going to make use of that new word, to us, and even Mr. Webster, now being used so extensively in speaking of aiding products of the south. The word is chemurgy, and we suppose refers to chemistry, or transforming, say sweet potatoes into starch, goobers into peanut butter, etc., etc. Anyway we have it off our chest.

Well, a Texan can now go through with a dueling contest, and if he survives, and is elected to office, will not have to swear that he has never engaged in a dueling contest. Nor will he even have to affirm that he has never acted as second in a duel. That part of state and county official oath is now as dead as Hector's pup. The constitutional amendment in November decapitated that part of the oath.

A lot of the prominent Democrats of Texas met over there at Detroit, Texas, old home of Catus Jack Garner this week, and organized Garner-for-President, Club No. 1. A huge crowd was on hand, and Roy Miller of Corpus Christi, an orator of whom there is no whomer, did the call to colors. At the same time, John was down somewhere near the Mexican border probably hunting deer or turkey, or picking his teeth with a catus needle following a sumptuous camp fire feast. Such is John Nance Garner, who is seeking no office at the hands of the people.

One on us. With apologies to the new Texas Technological President, the Herald herewith acknowledges that the picture we ran with the announcement of Clifford Jones' promotion last week was not his picture. We make 'em, but we don't mind correcting. A certain daily in this area recently repeated three or four times in both its morning and evening editions that Jal, New Mexico, beat the Cubs. Perhaps in its very next paragraph it would contradict this by stating the Cubs had not lost a game. Their attention was called to the matter over the phone, but if they ever corrected the matter, they hid it down among the "classified" ads. Some folks think they don't make mistakes, and least of all don't wish to correct them.

A rancher in the Clovis area applied for a government loan, and the department in question decided to give him some advice about how to operate his ranch. In making the application the old boy had to list all of his equipment, expense, etc. According to the story, some smart aleck clerk or efficiency expert wrote him and said: "We note that you list seven cattleguards; after checking your cattle, we recommend that you fire five of them, two will be enough.—Hereford Brand.

Of all places in America the German actress had to put up in Hollywood. And was her face red at thereception. She should have known Hollywood was owned and dominated by Jews and what they think of a German is a plenty.—Lorenzo Enterprise.

There's a rumor around that the White House is acquiring a new carpet to call people on. A kind of purplean rug.—Dallas Dispatch-Journal.

One of the strongest believers in advertising is a woman living near Little Rock, Ark. She spent $1.60 advertising for a husband, and got him. She then enlisted him in Uncle Sam's army where he died. She is being paid $10,000 in life insurance on monthly payments. Sure, advertising pays!—Clarendon Leader.

Patronize the Home Photographer

So far as we are aware, there is not a photographer in this section of the country that produces better indoor pictures than our local studio, operated by Fred Lowe, and his outdoor scenes are well up to standard.

Then why go somewhere else to have pictures of the family or members of the family made? Giving photographs to your friends for Christmas presents is very acceptable and appreciated.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Last Sunday's services were not attended quite up to the average, 247 in the Church school. The Syntex Harmony Club gave a special song before the sermon which was appreciated by the congregation and showed much preparation by members of this musical organization and they have an invitation to come back.

The morning sermon was a strong presentation of the claims of God's Word for systematically bringing into the church tithes and offerings as God has proposed on the first day of the week, which is our day of worship.

The Associational School of Missions being held over the Brownfield Association this week has brought to this church missionaries from several of the fields of work not in Texas alone but in other lands as well and has proven a great inspiration to those who have been in attendance each evening in these sessions. We greatly appreciate the visits of these consecrated missionaries who are giving their lives to carry the gospel to those who have it not, as they realize the marvelous success of their efforts and we are made to realize as prhaps not before, that Christ commanded us to "Go ye therefore and teach all nations," proving that his message is for all men everywhere and his command is final and conclusive to those who believe in him, and to be non-missionary is to deny his right to command us.

It is hoped that our church will make a great free will offering to foreign missions which our W. M. U. designate as the Lottie Moon offering honoring the great missionary of that name to benighted China. Every missionary church in the Southern Baptist Convention is expected to take some worthy part in this offering this month. People who are anti-missionary think of this campaign as a burden but most of our people are delighted to have a part in it, even if the offering must be small, as the "Lord loveth cheerful givers," and some will deny themselves in order to make this offering.

May next Sunday be a great day in our church with an increased attendance at all services.

Visitors are always welcome and bring your friends with you to the services.

—Church Reporter.

Postoffice to Be Open Saturday Afternoons

The postoffice will remain open all day on the next three Saturdays in order to handle the Christmas mailings.

Here are some things that mailers should remember:

Mail your Christmas packages early. Put a good legible address and return on one side only. Do not seal packages—this makes them first class matter. If you do seal them put a "Parcel Post" sticker to distinguish it as parcel post. Please do not put letters in packages. This also makes the whole package subject to first class rate of postage. Put the letter on the outside of the package with a three cent stamp on it—the package will then be subject to parcel post rate. Please do not seal packages with Christmas seals or put Christmas seals on address side.

Insure and register all valuable mail—because the mail is heavy during this season and the greater the chance of getting lost. It is mighty cheap insurance.

With reference to Christmas cards: Christmas cards may be sent anywhere in the United States for 1-2c if the letter is unsealed, but remember that these go as third class matter and are not entitled to the same privileges as first class mail. They cannot be returned of forwarded if 1-2c only is paid. We do not necessarily want to increase our revenue on this but if you want to be sure that they are received—mail them first class. Remember that they may be sent for 1c in town.

If the above rules are observed it will make it easier on you and on us.

Herbert Chesshir to Operate Station

In this week's Herald will be found the announcement that Herbert Chesshir, of Meadow, has taken charge of the Magnolia Service Station on Lubbock Ave., almost across the street from the Rainbow Inn. He will move his wife and baby down about Jan. 1.

Mr. Chesshir has had considerable experience in the Service Station business, has a nice place, and is a young man we feel sure will always be on duty. Welcome to Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Frosty Ellington and son were visitors in town Tradesday.

A STATEMENT OF FACTS

As it is rumored on the streets that the Dixi Bakery and the Cary Bakery is one and the same, I wish to make this statement, as it is not the truth, and I am sure that Mr. Cary feels that it is injurious to himself and his bakery, the same as I feel that it is an injury to my business.

Will state that I have in all sincerity bought the Burnett Bakery, and had the papers refinanced; that no one but myself in Brownfield or anywhere else has any interest whatsoever in the Dixi Bakery.

(Signed) Johnny Haynes.

Just suppose it is 20 degrees colder today and they bought their Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronz-z-z yesterday. Just the same, they can start right up, and they won't lose out on mileage, either—because their Conoco Bronz-z-z is refinery-adjusted according to all the weather records ever made here at this exact time of year. Probably most of my customers don't even think of that, because they just know they can start. That's all—they start. SINGING LEGIONS
NEW YORK—The eerie sensation of being high above the earth and its mundane affairs is to be experienced by those who top upon the "magic carpet" within the 200-foot Perisphere of the New York World's Fair 1939, and thence gaze down a distance of "two miles" upon a concept of the "City of Tomorrow." The drama of this unparalleled presentation is to be heightened when, by means of adroit projection, legions of workers come trooping from the distant skies, arms upraised, singing the Song of Tomorrow.

The bright young pupil looked long and thoughtful at the second examination question, which read: "State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States in any given year." Then his brow cleared and he wrote: "1492—none."

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN—The "kitchen cabinet" — a group of citizen-advisors who will tell the Governor how to run the State—has long been a dream of certain candidates who aspired to the State's highest office. Tom Hunter was the first to make the kitchen cabinet a campaign issue way back when he made the first of his many unsuccessful races for Governor. This week the kitchen cabinet became a reality, as a group of 34 Texans—mostly business and professional executives who have made outstanding successes of their own lives—were assembled in Fort Worth for a secret conference, closed to the press, with Gov. Elect W. Lee O'Daniel.

The Governor-Elect announced personell of the cabinet with considerably publicity, pointing out to those selected that their choosing was without political significance or pressure. The list includes heads of utility corporations, major oil companies, educational institutions, wholesalers, an independent merchant, a labor paper editor, a hotel man, and the wife of a tenant farmer.

The committee will not be without some expert political advice, however, should the need arise. After the original list was announced, O'Daniel added the name of Captain J. F. Lucey of Dallas. Capt. Lucey, an oilman and asphalt refiner, was national campaign manager of Herbert Hoover in his pre-convention campaign in 1920, and again in 1928, he was manager for Hoover in five southwestern states, including Texas, which the Republican nominee carried, for the first Republican victory in a Texas national election since the Civil War.

Pension Plan Still Dark

Out of his conferences with this group, O'Daniel may formulate some plan of raising money to pay promised pensions, for submission to the Legislature, although he has said he will not reveal his program in advance of his first message to the solons. State Auditor Tom King, completing an audit of the Pension Fund's operations for the year, revealed that to pay $15 a month to all Texans over 65, estimated to number 284,742, will cost a total of $51,250,000 annually, or about $42,000,000 more than the present pension cost. About 113,460 pensioners now on the rolls receive an average of $13.76 per month each. At present, Texas pensions 392 persons per 1,000 over 65, being outranked by only four States, Oklahoma, Utah, Colorado and Montana in percentage of aged pensioned. Only two states—Illinois and California—actually pension a larger number of aged persons than Texas.

Journalist Urges Force

Isaac Marcosson, noted author, lecturer and student of world affairs, who has interviewed virtually every important world political figure for 20 years, commented on the position of the United States in Latin-America while in Austin for a lecture. He praised a proposal by Senator Clint Small and other Texas legislators to seek adoption of a resolution asking the State Department to take more aggressive action on Mexican seizure of land and oil properties belonging to Americans. "Mexico is like the European dictatorships," he said. "She respects only force, and that it what the United States should use. The problems never will be satisfactorily solved under this fantastic Good Neighbor policy."

Benefit Aids Refugees

A generous gesture to aid the thousands of European Jews who are suffering medieval persecution in European states were the benefit performances held this week in the 137 Interstate theatres of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germy mucus.

The benefit shows were 100 percent for the cause named, all expense being paid by the theatre circuit, and the entire gross receipts going to the sufferers. The plan was typical of K. A. L. Hobitzelle, whose wide-spread charitable and civic contributions are usually masked behind his extreme modesty, and given little or no publicity. Bob O'Donnell, Hobitzelle's able associate, worked out details of the circuit-wide benefit performance.

Economy Move Balked

Austin observers were slightly amused, after all of the economy talk that has been going around, when Railroad Commissioner Lon A. Smith, and Commissioner Elect Jerry Sadler were offered a "show-down" on a real economy move this week, and backed away hurriedly. Smith and Sadler have been filling the newspapers with announcements of the firing of arious appointees of retiring Commissioner C. V. Terrell, and the appointment of their successors. Thompson quietly submitted a list of 45 employees, including some named by himself, some by Terrell and some by Smith—whose salaries total over $8,000 a month—and suggested they be let out as an economy measure and their salaries saved.

Smith hurriedly announced he thought it would be "bad taste" to act on the matter, with Sadler not yet in office, and the matter was dropped.

Names and News

Secretary of State Ed Clark and Railroad Commissioner C. V. Terrell will join the ranks of those practicing law in Austin after January 1, Clark probably in partnership with Everett L. Looney, a former assistant to Gov. Allred when the latter was Attorney General. Official launching of the Garner-for-President boom was staged Monday at Detroit, Garner's old home, with Roy Miller, of Corpus Christi, Garner's close political friend, directing the show.

Bascom Giles, new Land Commissioner-elect, made a hit with the Senate economy committee when he asked for a budget $13,000 less than the current figure for his first year in office, as a contribution to the economy movement. The Senate economy committee will recommend appropriation bills with each employe and each salary listed separately, so the Governor may abolish any job he sees fit, by vetoing the salary appropriation for that particular place, without killing the entire bill. The Supreme Court will pass finally upon the highly controversial Polk County vacancy suits, which were a campaign issue in the Land Office and other races this summer. The court agreed to review the decision of the Beaumont Court of Appeals, which ruled in favor of the land holders, and against the vacancy claimants.

STOP Coughing and Stop It NOW

Enjoy A Good Night's Rest
BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE certainly makes short work of relieving those stubborn old hang-over coughs and colds that other cough remedies fail to budge, according to Mr. H. A. Allen.
Mr. Allen says: "For years I suffered every winter with a terrible cough. I have had many sleepless nights and coughed until tears ran, and my stomach ached. I started again with the same old cough this year—but after a few doses of BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE my cough was gone."
You can't go wrong on BUCKLEY'S—by far the largest-selling cough medicine in all cold Canada. One or two doses and stubborn cough hang-over coughs are often on their way. And it's only a few cents at druggists everywhere. Money back if not delighted.

ginal buildings, the Nemitz in Fredericksburg and the Crosbie in Beaumont are others that come to mind. Gone, and with no successor to carry on the name, is the McCleskey in Ranger, where deals involving many millions of dollars were made during the big boom.

Politics, with its excitement, humor, and triumphs has its tragic side, too. Recently, a man who was a candidate for high office the past summer told this observer: "For three weeks before the primary, I knew I was defeated—that there wasn't a chance." (Everybody else knew this even before he candidate did). "But there was nothing I could do; I couldn't quit; I just had to keep on making speeches, shaking hands, greeting people with a smile and predicting victory. I felt like a man in Condemned Row as he counts the days separating him from the electric chair."

The other day, James V. Allred made a speech in which he came out in favor of "adequate provision for the State's insane, epileptic, feeble-minded and delinquent at any cost" and he asserted that the treatment of these unfortunate was so lamentable as to "constitute an indictment against Texas." Who has been Governor of Texas the last four years, any way? It musta been two other fellows.

Thousands of old folks, facing a cold and cheerless winter because only a small pension—or none—has been provided under the Allred administration no doubt read with great interest that the Governor is going to recommend additional buildings to care for delinquent negro girls.

Two Jefferson citizens met in a cafe and one of them raised his arm in the Swastika salute but greeted the other, not with "Heil Hitler," but "Hi, heel."

A clever idea, and one which is being widely adopted by motion picture theatres, is to have two clocks in public view at the box office, one giving the correct time and the other showing what time it will be when the patron comes out of the show.

But let's hope that other theatres don't adopt the "barker" idea of a Dallas theatre. A man stands in front and, hour after hour, he tells what the picture is, who the stars are and why you will like it. He talks longer every day than the late Huey Long did when he was conducting his filibuster in the Senate.

Mustard, tender greens, rape, and kale are ready to eat in from hree to six weeks after planting.

INDIAN GRAVE FOUND ON KNOX COUNTY FARM

An old Indian grave was uncovered in Knox County several days ago by Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hord of the Antelope Flat community on land owned by Pete Moody of Knox City and located about 10 miles northwest of Truscott.

Many Relics Found
Other than the well-preserved skeleton of an Indian that has long ago gone to his happy hunting ground, Mr. and Mrs. Hord unearthed a large number of interesting relics.

The most valuable of these relics were thirty-one Spanish and Mexican coins, on which the dates ranged from 1781 to 1845. At the skeleton's side was found his rifle and hunting knife. A rifle ball and rifle flint were also taken from the grave. Other relics included bridle bits, beads, bracelets, metal decorations from the bridle, bits of leather presumably part of a saddle, a small whetstone, a round stone with the center hewn out similar to an old Indian corn grinder. The most interesting article found was a 6-inch braid of the hair, still in a good state of preservation.

Found by Children
The grave was found by Mr. and Mrs. Hord's two sons and two sons of Mr. Hord's sister. They were playing on a hillside and discovered the skeleton which had gradually been uncovered by wind and rain of many years. The children immediately told their parents about their discovery and further search revealed the interesting relics.—Knox County Herald.

Arnold Pippin underwent an appendix operation this week. He has been employed at the Lee O. Allen gin at Tokio the past six years.

H. R. Thames is one of our new readers on route 4. Welcome!

CHEMURGY AID TO AGRICULTURE TOLD PUBLISHERS

HOUSTON, Texas, Nov. 29. — Farm chemurgy is one of the most significant movements in the United States today and is destined to have a favorable effect upon agriculture, Victor H. Schoffelmayer, agricultural editor of The Dallas News, told the fall meeting of the Texas Newspaper Publishers Association here Monday.

"Especially applicable is the chemurgic movement to Texas and the South because of the wide variety of farm products which the region may produce annually from cotton, corn, grain sorghums, rice, and pines to cattle, hides, wool, mohair, sulphur, natural gas, petroleum, lignite and limestone," Schoffelmayer said.

Aubrey Thomas of Ropes, was here Monday shopping and attending to business. Aubrey is a nephew of the senior editor.

Fighting Cubs Upset By Yellowhammers

By J. W. Chambliss

While playing for Bi-District Honors, the Brownfield Cubs ended their 1938 schedule by being defeated 12-0 by the powerful Yellowhammers "eleven" on the Cubs "dust bowl." A strong wind swept across the gridiron from the north which hampered the playing of both teams. It was almost impossible to complete any passes and punting was difficult.

The Cubs were unable to ward off the vicious onslaught of the Yellowhammers who were led by two outstanding backs, Smith and Swan. They tore the Cub line almost to shreds with powerful drives and smashes in the first half, chalking up 5 first downs and gaining 96 yards from rushing. However, the Cub defense held them fairly well in check in the second half. The Cubs offense never really got to clicking. It seemed that the Rotan boys knew exactly what Brownfield's next play would be, and they charged in fast stopping the Cubs before they could get started.

The game opened with Jenkins, Cub tackle kicking to the Yellowhammer 10 where Swan gathered it in and returned to the 15 yard line. After an exchange of punts, one of which, from the toe of Smith, went out on the Cubs one yard line, the quarter ended with no scoring by either side. The second period opened with the Cubs in possession of the ball on their own 18 yard stripe. Jenkins punt went out on the Cub 32, and from there Smith faded back and tossed a pass to Swan who raced the remaining distance to score. Attempt at conversion failed. The next counter came a few minutes later after an exchange of punts in which Rotan had managed to work the ball into the enemies territory. Smith dropped back in deep punt formation and, taking the ball from center, circled wide around left end. After almost being trapped for a loss by Morton he evaded two Cub tacklers and sprinted thirty yards to score. The attempt at conversion failed putting the Yellowhammers in the lead by a score of 12-0. The half ended a few minutes later with neither team having an opportunity to do much.

The second half was rather evenly matched with very few long gains being made by either side. The longest run was an end sweep by the Cubs with Captain

Hill carrying the ball which netted 11 yards. In the last quarter the Cubs took to the air in a last desperate attempt to score, but the Yellowhammers were not to be caught off guard and, with great pass-defensive work by Underhill, who intercepted four of Brown's passes, kept the Cubs from threatening seriously to score. There was no scoring in the last half, and the game ended with the Yellowhammers leading 12-0.

The Cub line was paced by Hudie Bagley, guard, who played a whale of a defensive game. Rowden and Murry also turned in a fine game. Capt. Hill in the backfield, did most of the work on the offense, while Bowers did an excellent job of linebacking on the defense.

The Yellowhammer line was led by Day at tackle, while Smith and Swan kept the fans on edge with their sensational mail-carrying and punting.

A brief summary of the game is as follows:

Construction of Lyntegar Lines Expected To Be Started At An Early Date

Contracts were let Tuesday by the board of directors of the Lyntegar Electric Corporation, Incorporated, for the construction of approximately 320 miles of electric light and power lines in Lynn, Garza, Terry and Hockley counties, and also for meters and meter sockets.

Construction contracts were let in two sections, one comprising 123 pole miles on the Meadow substation extending from the John Heck residence near Wilson westward, and the other comprising 187 pole miles on the Hackberry Substation and extending eastward and southward from Wilson.

Contract for the construction of the line on the Meadow substation was let to Reinhart & Donovan of Oklahoma City for $92,646.65, and for construction of the line on the Hackberry substation to the same company for $103,824.68.

Five companies submitted bids, ranging from $92,646.65 to $96,803.01 on the first section, and from $103,824.01 to $110,090.31 on the second section.

These contracts call for the use of copper wire. Other bids for other character of material were submitted, but the bid of Reinhart & Donovan was the lowest in each instance.

Identical bids were made by the General Electric Supply Corporation, the Graybar Electric Company, and Westinghouse Electric & Supply Company for Watthour meters and meter sockets, each bid being for $9,131.70. The bid of the Graybar Electric Company was accepted.

H. N. Roberts of Lubbock is the project engineer who, made the surveys for the line and furnished plans and specifications.

John Heck of Wilson is the chairman of the board of directors. Miss Ellen Nixon of Grassland has been selected as stenographer and the bookkeeper in the office.

Construction work on the project will begin within the next few weeks.

The AAA Program in Terry County

To date $147,063.20 have been received on the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program and paid to those who earned payments in Terry County. This amount was earned on 771 farms which averaged $190.75 per farm. There have been 996 checks issued averaged $152.24 per check.

On the Cotton Price Adjustment Payments or probably better known to most of us as the Subsidy Payment for Terry County as of November 16, 1938, 886, applications were paid amounting to $154,860.50 or $174.28 per application. This means that Terry County has received from the Government a little better than $300,000 in the past eight months on Conservation Payments and Cotton Adjustment Payments. There will be about another $100,000 to come around the first of the year on 1937 Cotton Price Adjustment Payments which will make a total of around $400,000 received in the period of a year. This may not sound like much in a good year but in all probability it was a much appreciated amount in a lean year as we have just experienced.

The above figures do not include any 1938 Payments which will be paid to Terry County farmers the first part of 1939 and will amount to close to a half a million dollars.

AN INTERESTING CONTEST

Elliott Roosevelt has gotten crosswise with W. Lee O'Daniel on the pension question. As a result Elliott's admirers are talking of running him for governor two years hence.

Assuming that Mr. O'Daniel runs for a second term, we should like to see Mr. Roosevelt make the race. A contest between Pappy's biscuits and Papa's boy should be most interesting.—Austin Times.

The C. M. A. program at the high school auditorium in Lubbock was well attended. Members from Brownfield who enjoyed the program were, Mrs. Roy Wingerd and Marion, Mrs. M. E. Jacobson, Mrs. R. B. Parish, Mrs. John R. Turner, Miss Gertrude Rasco and Jane Brownfield.

Farmers to Vote on Marketing Quotas Sat. Every One Urged to Vote His Sentiment

Farmers of Terry County are to vote Saturday Dec. 10th on the cotton marketing quotas.

All farmers who were engaged in the production of cotton in 1938 are eligible to vote in the referendum. No farmer shall be entitled to more than one vote. And only one member of the family shall be allowed to vote, except where they own or work different farms.

The Texas Agricultural Conservation committee in monthly session this week urged every cotton producer to exercise his voting right—whether for or against cotton marketing quotas—in the south-wide referendum Dec. 10th.

George Slaughter, state chairman, said acreage allotments are pouring out as fast as possible and that he expects every farmer to receive his acreage allotment before time to vote.

"The 1939 program is coming out on time," Slaughter said.

"Naturally we felt the control exercised by marketing quotas would increase the effectiveness of the 1939 program. Marketing quotas, and the 3 cents a pound penalty for exceeding them, is the farmer's legal device to check over-production and whittle down the price depressing cotton surplus.

"However, the program would continue, on a voluntary reduction basis, without marketing quotas. But a cotton loan in 1939 will be available only if marketing quotas are in effect. Quotas are regarded as security against such a loan."

It is a question for you to decide for yourself. If you want it, vote YES. If you do not want it, vote NO.

C. P. Obar, prominent farmer of the Meadow section was down Saturday on business.

ANOTHER OLD TIMER PASSES

G. W. Alexander, 70, one of the oldest settlers of northwest Terry, passed suddenly last Friday morning while out tending to his chickens. He had been gone some time, and the family missed him and found him unconscious in the chicken yard. A physician was called, but Mr. Alexander was probably dead when he was found. The Alexander place is near the old Mallet headquarters in Cochran county. Mr. Alexander was a good man, a fine neighbor, a loving husband and father.

Funeral was conducted at the church of Christ in Levelland, by Elder Garrett, of Tahoka, at 3:30 Saturday afternoon. Besides his wife, he leaves seven children, as follows: George, of Tokio; Mrs. L. C. Green, of Union, this county; Carl of Levelland, Mrs. H. D. Hughes, of Roswell; Bob of Levelland; Dick, only one remaining at home, and Mrs. J. W. Gressett of Levelland. The body was laid to rest in the Levelland cemetery.

Other relatives attending, were, E. J. Purcell of Burnett, and Jack

Frazier of Llano, brothers-in-law; two sisters, Miss Kate Alexander of Dallas, and Mrs. Harris of Burnett; a brother, Charley Alexander of Trinidad, Colo.; Walter Frazier and family, brother-in-law of Levelland, and Mrs. Henry Chisholm, niece, of this county.

Recent experiments have shown that greens canned by approved methods retain more of their vitamins and as much of the minerals as freshly cooked greens, food specialists of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service report.

Cook vegetables only until tendered vessels to preserve the color, Extension Service food specialists advise.

Vegetables contain vitamins that are necessary for body building, good digestion, and appetite. They regulate body processes and safeguard against infection.

Vegetables provide bulk, and bulk helps the intestinal tract carry off waste and prevents constipation.
