

The First National Bank of Brownfield Has Grown Rapidly the Past 20 Years

There Were Many Changes in Directory and Official Body the First Few Years, But Few in Past Few Years. First Call Showed Deposits of $128,000 As of December 31, 1919.

The records are not real clear as to the date of the opening of the First National Bank here, but referring to our files, and according to the memory of R. M. Kendrick, President, the institution opened its door to customers along about the last week of July, 1919, in the building now occupied by the Hancock Cafe. There were not a great many people here then, and the rise in deposits was necessarily slow, there already being a bank here, but the first call was of December 31 1919, and published in the Herald in January, 1920, showed deposits of over $128,000. Of course that sounds small compared to statement in this issue of the Herald of $553,512.37, as of March 29, 1939. But let us not forget that deposits of $128,000 the first six months in a new bank in a small unincorporated town in a county of some 4,000 people at that time is not to be sneezed at.

In opening for business, we find that H. H. Longbrake was the president, and R. M. Kendrick, cashier. They didn't need any vice-presidents or assistant cashiers, as Mr. Kendrick attended to all that himself. The directors were Messrs. Longbrake and Kendrick, Joe J. McGowan, D. J. Broughton and John Scudday, Jr. These were all stockholders, along with three other gentlemen living elsewhere, whom none here will remember, and no necessity of mentioning them. This lineup did not last long however, as the business of the bank got heavy in the fall, and J. C. Scudday, Jr. resigned as stockholder-director and W. A. Bell was elected in his stead. At the same time, R. M. Kendrick became the president, following the resignation of Mr. Longbrake, and W. A. Bell, cashier. The beautiful new bank building which had been started the fall before, was by that time finished, and the bank moved to the new quarters early in 1920. In August 1920, Joe J. McGowan resigned as director, and Dock Powell took his place. During the stockholder's meeting in January 1921, the following were elected directors, the officers remaining the same: T. R. Prideaux, Tom May, Fred Smith, Earl Alexander and Dock Powell. In July, 1922, Luther French was elected as assistant cashier. In April, 1923, T. R. Prideaux resigned as director, and E. A. Graham was elected to take his place.

One of the biggest events in the history of the bank was the absorption in January, 1924 of the First State Bank of Plains, paying each depositor of that bank in cash, or giving them equal amount of deposit in the First National Bank of Brownfield. E. B. Free, who had been cashier of the Plains bank entered the First National as assistant cashier, Luther French resigning. In September, 1924, Mr. Free resigned, and was succeeded by W. R. McDuffie, who came here from Waxahachie. In 1928, the lineup of directors was as follows: R. M. Kendrick, W. R. McDuffie, Jake Hall and S. J. Dixon of Plains. In the shuffle, Mr. Bell Mr. Bell became vice-president and W. R. McDuffie succeeded him as cashier. Jake Hall was made assistant cashier. Mr. Bell resigned in 1930, and in 1933 Jake Hall resigned and Clovis Kendrick became assistant cashier and a director. Since that time there has been little change in the personnel of the directorate of officials of the bank.

consists of: R. M. Kendrick and two sons, Clovis and Spencer Kendrick, S. J. Dixon and W. R. McDuffie. For the past several years Mr. Dixon has been honorary vice-president. In 1920, the

R. M. KENDRICK, President capitol stock was raised from $25,000 to $50,000. The First National is a pleasant place to do business. Of course they are particular about letting out their funds, as most of them belong to depositors, but obtaining accommodations at this bank, the wealth of a person is not the only consideration by any means. A man's personal honesty and stability has a lot to do with whether he obtains a loan or not.

Now just a bit about the personnel of this 20-year-old institution. Taking the president, R. M. Kendrick first, will say that our acquaintance with him runs back for more than 30 years. When we landed in Terry county in January, 1909, Mr. Kendrick was cashier of the First State Bank of Gomez, and like he is now with 30 years added, and president of a large bank and a lot of land in Yoakum county with producing oil wells and many more potential, he is just the same old Marshall, Kendrick, with a glad hand for his friends and a smile on his face and that ever-present hand rolled Bull Durham cigarette, but he cusses us every time we call him a Klu Klux. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick have raised four children that are a credit to them as well as to the community, one daughter, Mrs. Orb Stice and three sons, Clovis, Spencer and Richard, the latter attending the University of Texas at the present time. Spencer has two children, and Mrs. Stice has two. Clovis is married but has no children.

Dick McDuffie came here and accepted a position as a single young man, but he did not long remain so, as he went back to Waxahachie that fall and married Miss Maurine Owens, to which union two children came to bless their home. Dick, as he is more frequently called by his friends, is progressive in every sense of the word, and is a valuable member of local society, now serving as member of the school board. Other members of the personnel are O. L. Stice son-in-law of the president, whose wife and children was mentioned above. Orb is the baby member, having come here from Midland since the first of the year. John Kendrick is the son of another old timer of Terry, Yoakum and Gaines counties, and a nephew of the president. He has been with the bank since early last fall when Richard went to Austin. Barton McPherson is the son and grandson of other pioneer settlers, his father, B. L. McPherson being maintenance superintendent of the state highways centering in Brownfield.

The two bank statements are being published in the Herald this week. Read them and make the discovery that Terry county is not broke by any means.

Quite a few here attended the Libby-Collins wedding in Lubbock.

Pedestrian Underpass Started Monday

Some 32 men were put to work Monday morning in preparation to digging the pedestrian underpass at the junction of Main street and Highway 51. This is a very dangerous crossing for school children and is being built for that reason. Other nearby cities are watching the results of this underpass.

The underpass will be some 10 or 12 feet deep and about 8 feet wide, and will be well lighted. It is believed that it will take some 40 days to finish the job, but it will eliminate a great danger to school children going to and from school from downtown.

Mayor Coleman offhand said the underpass would cost around $7,000, the city to furnish around $3,000 and the other to be supplied by WPA.

Large Drilling Crews Expected This Week

Oil well drillers and crews, representing some fifteen families, are expected here this week from Odessa, to make their homes here and work out in the Benmett, Allred and Denver pools in Yoakum county.

Inquiries were put out by the Herald to those in position to know if they thought this amount of new people at one time would be hard to take care of. Most of those asked stated that enough had left of late to make it reasonably easy to care for the new comers.

The Herald joins with others in bidding them a hearty welcome to Brownfield. Drillers are good livers and good spenders, and are always welcome to town. Also, they are usually very law-abiding, high class people.

Hot Topping Contract To Be Let April 25th

We had a copy of a letter this week written to Judge R. A. Simms by Senator G. H. Nelson, announcing that contract would be let for hot topping on U. S. Highway 80, 12 miles west of Brownfield, to the Yoakum county line. This stretch of unfinished road is a bit over six miles, and its completion will give Terry county a completely paved road across the county from east to west and No. 51 across the county from northeast to southwest.

Contract on this six miles to be let April 25, at Austin. Judge Simms informed us this week that the engineers had completed their survey on the Leveland road, and were working up the field notes and other data to be presented right away to the commissioner's court, probably at their next session.

There Are Now Three Names Drawn Weekly

Instead of one family, there are now three names drawn each week to attend the shows at the Rialto or Ritz Theatres. This arrangement was made with the late Earl Jones a few weeks before his death. As heretofore, the name on the front page box entitles the holder to a show at the Rialto, usually the Sunday show, and provides for the whole family. It is classed as the No. 1 name. The second drawn from the box entitles only one person, whose name appears in the box, to the Saturday show at the Rialto. The third name drawn, also one person only, entitles the drawee to Saturday show at the Ritz.

397 Checks Come In For Terry Farmers

County agent R. N. McClain informed us this week that 397 checks totaling $70,266.84 had arrived to be distributed to Terry county farmers. As we understand it this is for 1938 Soil Conservation. Something over $400,000 is still due to come in.

Mack and his force are now located in the basement of the new Federal building, and they have

B'flid. Jr. C. of C. Organized Tuesday Night

Tuesday night, April 11th will go down in history in Brownfield as a red letter day, for on this night there assembled one of the largest group of young, business and professional men, along with a sprinkling of Seniors, for the purpose of organizing what this writer believes to be one of the most important clubs the town has ever had or ever will have, a Junior Chamber of Commerce, for the city of Brownfield.

First let us state that it is not the intentions or belief of this organization to take the place, or even the lead of the Senior Chamber of Commerce. But the sole purpose and ideals of this club is to work in cooperation with the Senior club at all times. To create new ideas, thoughts and projects for a "Bigger Brownfield," then lay those ideas before the Senior club, and both work together to make these visions come true. In other words to get to the point: To be an asset and not a liability to the present organization.

If this is carried out, in perfect coordination, there should be nothing impossible to accomplish. Like one of the speakers remarked: "Together, nothing can tear us apart." Also, isn't it a fact that most all activities of the present day, are thought of by the younger men, and with the guidance of a few Seniors, carried out. Take the European situation today. It is made up of the youth of those countries, headed by, Senior leaders, fighting for what they think is right.

There are a few in town who think the new organization will detract, and slow down the account. Let us state here that if such was the aim or the thought of the new complishments of the Senior club, that you would have never heard of the "Brownfield Junior Chamber of Commerce." As we stated before, we believe it will be the biggest asset the Senior club has ever had.

The organization was held in the Venetian auditorium, preceded by a lovely banquet, served by Hancock's Cafe, to some 120 men.

Introduction of visitors, directors of the Senior club, and the principal speaker, Mr. "Tanlac" Strange, of Lubbock was made by Toastmaster, Burton G. Hackney. The constitution and bylaws of the club were read to the assembly by Mr. Hackney. Immediately after this, organization of the club was made, whereby 90 men pledged themselves as members.

Mr. Ray Christopher, local oil agent, was elected president; Burton G. Hackney, County Attorney, Vice-Pres.; Spencer Kendrick, Asst. Cashier of the First National Bank, Treasurer. As we understand it, a secretary is to be appointed by the directors. The assembly was entertained by one of the best afterdinner speakers in West Texas, Mr. "Tanlac" Strange, Architect, of Lubbock. He opened his address with his famous "Tanlac Tonic" speech, but closed by bringing out some very fine points, and the most impressive morals we have ever heard.

Short talks were made by Messrs. Bruce Zorns, J. O. Gillham, Emmett Smith, Ed Shelton, Tom May and Brownfield's own "Tanlac" Homer Winston, and possibly others.

A brass quartette from the local high school band rendered musical numbers during the feast. All in all, it was one of the biggest and best group of men of our town ever to be brought together. And our prediction is that this meeting was the beginning of big things for the betterment of our city.

Mrs. J. C. Criswell was over Saturday and spent the night with her daughter, Mrs. Blankenship.

Mr. and Mrs. Audry Cox of Lamesa, were over this week on business. Mr. Cox owns the three theatres in Lamesa.

A real swell, well lighted and cool place to work and are highly elated.

Remodeling New Chevrolet Bldg.

Remodeling of the building on east Main street, until recently occupied by the Teague Motor Co., is progressing nicely. The filling station part out in front has been removed, and an entirely new and modern front is being put in that will not only add much to the appearance of the building itself, but that section of the city as well.

An addition of several feet is also being added to the rear of the building, giving more display and stock room in the front, and a larger and better equipped shop in the rear. The sidewalks between this and the next building to the west are also being made full width, and the floor in the building is being put down to one level.

When the building is completed, it will be occupied by the Tankersley Chevrolet Co., for their sales and repair business.

Claude Bryant Injured In An Explosion

Claude Bryant, member of the firm of Perry & Bryant, was seriously burned last Saturday while doing a job of welding a pump on a crude oil tank last Saturday morning. The explosion was heard all over town, and rocked buildings nearby. A column of smoke shot 100 feet in the air, apparently, blowing hole through the ceiling and roof of the building. The truck was wrecked.

Claude was badly burned below the waist. R. L. Jenkins driver of the truck, who was standing near, was burned about the face, but needed little treatment. Claude is still in the Treadway-Daniell hospital and will likely be there for the next few weeks until his burns heal, but apparently he is doing as nicely as could be expected.

Perry & Bryant recently sold their filling station, but retained their work shop, battery and electric works, and welding plant, which is located to the rear of the Texaco Service Station. The many friends of Claude hope to see him out again before long.

Abilene Presbytery To Meet in Brownfield

At a meeting of Abilene Presbytery in Merkel last week it was voted unanimously to accept the invitation of the Brownfield Presbyterian church to hold the fall meeting of that body in Brownfield. This is a semi-annual affair and will bring the pastors and some laymen from each of about twenty-five Presbyterian churches in this section of West Texas.

The local church was further honored by having its pastor Rev. Fred A. Walker, elected Moderator of this body. Rev. William Rogan of Stamford was elected State Clerk for a period of three years and the pastors from Abilene, Albany and Lamesa were made chairmen of important committees.

Wolf and Rabbit Drive Next Monday

C. Sears and George and O. H. Murray were in this week to announce the big coyote and rabbit drive centering in the Harmony community, Monday, April 17. Hunters are invited to meet at the Harmony school house, where the organization will take place and a captain appointed. Lunch will be served at the George Murray home. Everybody invited to come and bring their guns and plenty ammunition, as well as greyhounds to chase the coyotes. Come and have a good time and lots of sport.

The local fishermen have returned reporting no luck. They fished in the vicinity of San Angelo.

Ed Aryain had a touch of the flu this week.

The Passing of Earl E. Jones Was A Distinct Shock to This Section

Town and Area Had Become So Use to His Many Aids and Encouragements That His Passing is A Heavy Blow to the Community.

It is a hard matter for the friends and business associates of Earl E. Jones, as well as his many friends from the tot to the aged, the well to do or poor, to realize that he has passed from us and is no more on this earth. All of us miss that ever present smile and those optimistic words of cheer that he carried with him from day to day, and which anyone, even a child could tell were not faked, but the genuine article.

Did some worthy enterprise, church, school or club want a benefit play? If so, they only had to mention it, and it was put on. Was there need of money for the alleviation of the poor or sick? If so, Earl generally headed the list. No barefoot, shivering boy could stand long in front of his theatres until they were invited to see the show at his expense. For the past two years he gave shows that ran all day and entertained around three thousand school children, and in some instances some around twelve years of age got to see their first picture show. Can you feature a man of this type not being missed and mourned by the entire community? He never stalled or argued a question of benefitting the community. His answer was always yes, if at all worthy.

Earl E. Jones was born in Howard county, Ark., in 1895, but came with his parents to Hardeman county, Texas in his boyhood. During the late years of the teens, Earl came to Brownfield, and started the first real steam press tailor shop somewhere near where the Noel Tailor Shop is now located. At the outbreak of the war, he went to Colorado for training, and was later sent to the Hawaiian Islands where he was with the coast artillery for the remainder of the war. Soon after returning home he started a motion picture show in the American Legion hall after it was completed, later moving to a better and a building erected for the purpose on the north side of the square. With that small beginning, his theatre interests spread until he not only owned the Rialto, but the Ritz and Rio as well. He married Miss Ethel Barton in 1920, and to this union was born two fine daughters and two manly sons, Earline, Evelyn, Bobby and Sammy, listed according to age.

Earl's widow, Mrs. Ethel Jones, will carry on in the place of her husband, and let us say that we believe she is thoroughly capable of doing so, as she has been with him almost constantly for the past few years or since Earl has been in poor health.

The small auditorium, seating around 300 at the church of Christ would not begin to hold the people who attended the funeral. Many stood around the walls and some 300 more had to remain outside. Nor could ushers begin to bring all the flowers inside. Business associates from Dallas and many other places attended the funeral, as well as many theatre men from this section. Also many relatives other than the immediate family were here from great distances in some instances. Sider Robert Jones of Wichita Falls, long time friend of the family preached the funeral. American Legion had charge of the burial in the Brownfield cemetery. Arrangement by the Brownfield Funeral Home.

Earl always took a leading part in the American Legion, and was a booster for the Boy Scout movement. Scout as well as school children in the grades of Earl's children attended the funeral. Other than his own family, survivors are: his mother, Mrs. S. W. Jones, city, Mrs. B. Tidwell, Quemado, Texas; Mrs. John Post, Nashville, Ark.; Luther Jones, Nashville, Ark.; Mrs. Mary Williams, Roswell, New Mex.; Douglas Jones, Amarillo; Eunice Jones, Mrs. Ned Self and Jim Jones, city; and Mrs. Lee Tankersley, Roswell New Mexico, brothers and sisters.

Waples-Platter Test Carrying 1,600 Feet Of Oil

MIDLAND, Texas, April 8 — The North Permian Basin had its promised new pool Saturday as Shell Oil Company No. 1 Waples-Platter Company, about two miles northeast of Yoakum County's Bennett field, drilled ahead with cable at 5,297 feet in porous lime with hole carrying 1,600 feet of oil.

Logging stains at intervals from 5,196, the well picked up porous lime at 4,243 with first free oil noted at 5,276 when hole filled ten feet with oil in forty-five minutes. This increased to 500 feet at 5,280 and after standing forty-five minutes rose to 850 feet.

Located in section 616, block D, Gibson survey, the well is considered a pool opener rather than a field extension. It has been the center of considerable lease and royalty play since its structural position early promised production.

Brunk's Comedians Coming Monday

The entire personnel of the Henry L. Brunk's Comedians have arrived in Brownfield and have been busy all this week in preparing everything for the season's grand opening which will be next Monday night, April 17.

A grand line of plays have been selected, and each one is being carefully rehearsed, and every person with the company will be in perfect trim for next week's offering. The initial play will be "Going Hollywood" which is an entertaining comedy drama, and will give each performer a selected part. Other plays for the week will be "Gang Buster," "Jed the Country Jitterbug," "Lavender and Old Lace. Then the is variety of

SOUTHSIDE GROCERY ENTERED SUN. NIGHT

The Southside Grocery on highway 51, was entered sometime Sunday night, and burglarized of some cigarettes. Nothing else was missed. The burglars, believed to be local boys, made entrance to the store through the rest room, as only sheet rock board separated them.

Officers report considerable burglary and stealing of late. A farmer came in Tuesday afternoon and reported that three bags of beans had been stolen from him, and that one bag of them was poisoned, as he aimed to use them for planting.

Broadcast by radio was made of this theft from the Lubbock station as it was feared the thief or thieves would sell the poisoned beans, and cause the death of several people where they are sold.

vaudeville numbers, which include Herman Munden and his trick bicycle, Dell and Florence Phillips, Buddy Brown, Michael Thornton, Amber Wright, Ralph Blackwell, Lloyd Gilbert, and special musical settings by Klink Lemmon's orchestra.

The show will start each night at 8:00 p. m. and the entire program will be changed each night.

This will be the first appearance of the "Henry L. Brunk's Comedians, Blue Ribbon Unit" since last April. New low prices will prevail and the large tent will accommodate 1200 people.

Show grounds are located on the Seagraves highway loop, just across the draw.

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield

The trouble with most propaganda intended for weekly papers is that it is so lengthy that it would appear in print as the first instalment of a continued story. If press agents had half as much sense as they think they have, they would brief their articles and get more of them printed.

There was a hefty cry out of West Texas last week when the heavy reduction order of the Railroad Commission was in effect, and some of the oil towns in this section were talking of being depopulated by half. But with the new order of letting the wells put out a bit more of black gold, the outlook became more rosy.

Mr. Adolphus Hitler may be ready to conquer the world, but every nation in past history that has accomplished that feat has had an abundance of gold to buy cannon fodder, and food for soldiers. With Italy and Germany broke and depending on barter trade with other nations, it is a bit hard to see how they intend to carry on a war that lasts more than a few months.

Old Charley Guy of the Avianche-Journal tread all over our sore feet in his Plainsman column last week. In conversation by phone with him about other matters, we let the cat out of the bag that our old feet were hurting again, and he made up a rich man's story with a gout complex about us. See you at Amarillo this week end at the Press Convention, Charley, and doggone you you're going down the line for a treat. Get us?

That great journal, The Texas Weekly gets rather sarcastic this past week anent the questioning of the senate about the edomocracy of one, J. M. West of Houston, newest nominee of Gov. O'Daniel for highway commissioner for east Texas. The Weekly asks if a man who voted for Landon instead of FDR is unfit to build roads in Texas? No, perhaps not, but as has been said and practiced for the past 100 years, to the victors belong the spoils. We might offer this suggestion to The Weekly. For years and years Brownfield had a Republican postmaster, when that party cast less than a dozen votes in the county. Were there no Democrats in Terry county capable of handling out the mail here, Editor Molyneux?

One often sees certain articles advertised as having great medicinal value. It is possible that some have a bit of merit. Sulfapyridine is the name of the latest gift to humanity from the medical world. It comes from England and is being extensively used to combat influenza and pneumonia. Though a recent discovery, practically all the doctors in this nation know about it and most of them are using the new drug with great success. It all goes to show that when some new thing of merit comes out, the public knows about it right now.—Clarendon Leader.

Brownfield physicians have tried the new remedy with quite pleasing success so far, but they refuse to become overenthusiastic until the remedy has been tried over a longer time and under diverse conditions. But everyone hopes the remedy is all the manufacturers hope for it.

hatched up the so-called "Fair Trade Law" which is nothing more than a scheme of lobbyists to make a pot of money getting it passed, and professional politicians another pot for passing it. The consumer will be stuck plumb plenty for higher prices.
Professional labor agitators demand that the hours of labor be shortened, and pay per week be advanced, and all the employers have to do is to boost their selling prices accordingly. If it were all that easy, there would be nothing to it.
The trouble with the present era of hogghishness is that everybody wants more for his efforts and is ready to boycott the other fellow for having the same ideas. The most rabid union man is quite willing that his wife should buy dresses made in a sweatshop and purchase foodstuffs at a chain store because the prices are lower. Human nature has not changed a bit since Eve sold Adam the apple.

The professional politicians multiply as the years roll on, and not only do they want more year after year but there are more and more wanting more and more. The desire on their part is to "buy" votes with cheap propaganda, then ignore the rights of the voters altogether as soon as election day is passed. Nationally speaking, officeholders are becoming a pest and a nuisance due to their numbers. Bureau heads are becoming more arrogant because they owe loyalty only to professional politicians who made their jobs possible. Those who actually do the work get a very small salary, while the "uppers" knock down more money in a month than they could earn in competitive every day life in a year.—Clarendon Leader.

No doubt, one of the most interesting and inspiring programs in the history of the local Parent Teacher Association was presented on Monday evening, April 10 in the school auditorium. Being a culmination of the year's work, the program was fittingly christened, "The Round-Up." It was as follows:

Gas Refrigerator

IT'S PERMANENTLY SILENT because it has no moving parts in its freezing system

Since the Servel Electrolux refrigerator operates on gas, a single burner takes the place of moving, wearing parts . . . a tiny flame circulates the refrigerant, without wear or noise.

These are important advantages in themselves, but equally important are the other results that you get in refrigeration freezing without moving parts . . . the fact that the low operating cost is never increased, that Servel gives you more years of service, and actually can save enough in food alone to pay for itself.

Ask your friends and neighbors who own Servels what they think of gas refrigeration . . . then, before you decide on any make, get all the facts about Servel Electrolux "the gas refrigerator you hear about but never hear!"

these advantages:

- ▶ NO MOVING PARTS in its freezing system
- ▶ PERMANENT SILENCE
- ▶ CONTINUED LOW OPERATING COST
- ▶ MORE YEARS OF DEPENDABLE SERVICE
- ▶ SAVINGS THAT PAY FOR IT

Time did not permit the visiting of KFYO, the City Hall, Kress, Woolworth, Lubbock Egg and Produce Company, a ride on an elevator, as we in the original plans, but the day was acclaimed by all who were in attendance as "Our Biggest Day" ever.

We cannot recall the day's events without being most grateful to our parents and friends who made the occasion possible for us. To the following we wish to extend our heartiest thanks, and deepest appreciation, for transportation and guidance on the tour: Messrs and Mesdames A. L. Tittle, E.D. Newsome, Jno. In brief, "Our Hat Are Off" to each one who had a part in making the day the grand success it was, and may we prove worthy of your faith and confidence in us. Again, we say "Thanks, for Everything!"

RIGHT NOW PHILLIPS 66 IS MATCHED TO APRIL WEATHER

The Dip That Gives Goose Flesh in April is undoubtedly grand fun in July... And the gasoline that is full of zip and zing in August can easily be a dud during these early days of spring.

To protect the performance of your motor, to smooth out the differences which changes in climate may make, Phillips custom-tailors gasoline to the weather. Changes the specifications of Phillips 66 Poly Gas every month to parallel the monthly changes in temperature in your locality. And scientific laboratory and field surveys prove that no other gasoline—not a single one—is so accurately matched, all year round, to the monthly variations in your weather.

It's a real thrill to feel that difference behind the wheel when the tank is filled with this outstanding, custom-tailored, high test gasoline. And it is thrifty, too, because Phillips 66 Poly Gas costs nothing extra... at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

The Passing of Pink L. Parrish

Pink L. Parrish, 57, former State Senator, passed away Monday at Lubbock with double pneumonia, following the amputation of his leg, which had left him in a weakened condition. Senator Parrish was well known all over this section and had many close friends.

He came to Crosby county some 40 years ago as a young man, and followed cowboying for some time; was later elected county judge of that county in which apathy he served for 12 years. He later moved to Lubbock and was elected mayor soon thereafter, but resigned after the first term to run for State Senate. He was a very useful member of the State Senate, introducing and helping to pass several major bills, one of which was limiting homesteads under $3,000 for state and county taxation.

In 1932 he ran for Congressman-at-large and was in the runoff, being defeated by George Terrell. He was a member of several secret orders and was a Methodist.

WEDDINGS OF MERCEDES LIBBY AND BILL COLLINS TOOK PLACE WEDNESDAY

In a wedding solemnized at high noon Wednesday at the First Methodist church, Miss Mercedes E. Libby of Lubbock, daughter of Mrs. Frederick E. Libby of San Jaun, Porto Rico, became the bride of Bill E. Collins of Lubbock son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Collins, of Brownfield. Dr. L. N. Lipscomb, pastor, officiated with a single ring ceremony.

Miss Gady's Hall, organist, played "Melody" (Massenet) and accompanied William Sewell of Cleveland who sang "At Dawning" (Cadman) before the ceremony. She played the traditional wedding marches and as the vows were spoken offered "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell).

The service was performed before an altar banked with palms and Pickard's gladioli. Pedestal candelabra furnished light. Greenery and gladioli were entwined in the organ pipes.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Alfred B. Strehl, the bride wore a Tahitian rose silk costume suit with woolen coat of matching shade, navy accessories and ivory doekin gloves. She wore a corsage of camellias and lilies of the valley and a camellia decorated her navy straw hat which was trimmed with navy and purple veiling. For "something old" the bride carried her mother's wedding handkerchief; "something borrowed" was a lapel watch, her father's wedding gift to her mother, and "something blue" was a costume pin.

Mrs. Strehl, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her navy alpaca dress was trimmed in Tahitian rose and she wore navy accessories, shell pink gloves and a corsage of Wedgwood iris.

Ellis Foreman served the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were Robert E. Maxey, Jimmie Wilson, A. B. (Jelly) Brown and Dick Carter of Plainview.

After a wedding trip of unannounced destination, the couple will return here to live in a new residence at 3114 Twenty-second street.

Mrs. Collins, a former student at Boston university, is to retain her position as secretary to W. T. Gaston, business manager at Texas Technological college. Mr. Collins is a graduate of Texas Technological college, where he was a member of the Centaur club. He is immediate past president of the

METHODIST CHURCH

John Witt Hendrix, Pastor

Yes, we had a great Easter! We had a better crowd than on Go-to-Church Sunday. It was a keen inspiration to all who bear the burden of the church and enjoy its blessings. You weren't there! Well, you missed some of the very best Easter music! It is the hope that you received such a blessing as will lead you back again regularly.

Church school opens at 9:45 a. m. Come and join our happy band. Public worship both morning and evening. Good music will please you at each service. Big Sing in the evening, 7:45. At each service the pastor will deliver a sermon. Theme for the morning hour: "The Building Game." The pastor has greatly enjoyed watching the Post Office go up; has watched the crafts and craftsmen come and go, and has observed their contribution to its on going. This is like another building in which we are engaged.

"The subject for the evening hour is the nicest ever. "Sleep On Now and Take Your Rest." Could anything be nicer? It's a theme after our own heart! With it we'll serve up some good music, with your help. We'll garnish it with fine fellowship and serve as a relish of good cheer. You might like it. Some do take chances, quite an interesting group.

Leagues come on at 6 in the evening, one of them, and another comes on at 6:45, and in time for the evening service. Twenty-two of these were out last Easter morning to a Sunrise breakfast, out on the prairie east of Leo Holmes' home. Had a big, happy time. Join them for training in worship, in service and in social hours.

MISSIONARY NEWS

The annual conference of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church is in session this week, began Tuesday evening in Pampa and closes Friday night. Mrs. Jesse Cox was chosen delegate from the local society and left Tuesday morning for the session. This body is made up of about 300 delegates, selected from all the churches in the Northwest Texas Conference.

Circles one and two of the W. M. S. of the Methodist church held their session together Monday afternoon at the church. The program was made up of a study of "The World Outlook. This program is made up out of material sent each month from the Headquarters of the Council at Nashville, Tennessee. After a very profitable session the society adjourned. Circle No. 2 meets with Mrs. Dr. Jacobson at 2:30, with a Year Book program, designated for newer circles.

Hendrix. This church stood second in the district as to percent raised on the Benevolences. An increased evangelistic zeal was one of the most marked elements of the session.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Last Sunday can be called a great day in the church without any exaggeration as 416 registered in the teaching service and a total of 600 were seated in the auditorium at the morning preaching hour with every seat taken in the opinion of this writer after bringing in all available seats from the teaching rooms. We do not mention this to brag about it as it should be this way every Sunday and with the new auditorium and additional facilities for the teaching service to begin in a few weeks we expectantly hope to greatly increase the attendance.

The meeting which was in progress and being conducted by pastor Rogers and pastor evangelist Hugh Bumpas of Ennis, Texas, closed Sunday night. Brother Bumpas has his own style of preaching the Word but brings the truth in simple form illustrated of ten by his own experience and only those who heard him can appreciate what a forceful speaker he is, and he left a host of friends in our city who much appreciated his messages.

The number received into the membership of the church during the meeting were 34 and while the preacher urged that each regenerated person should unite with the church it was rightfully emphasized that only such should ask for membership or were invited to do so.

The pastor of the church with perhaps five teachers of the Sunday school are at Waco, this week attending the great Sunday school convention of Texas, and will return with much inspiration to their work next Sunday.

The Lottie Moon circle meets next Monday with Mrs. E. L. Redford, and the Lockett circle meets with Mrs. Ame Flache, for Industrial Day. The Annie Long circle will meet with Mrs. Gladys Green and they will go from there to the Negro church for a program.

It is hoped and expected that all the cases in the teaching service next Sunday morning will have a large attendance and that all of the days services will be helpful to those attending.

"Foresake not the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some is" can be applied to this church equally as well as to the church to which it was written.

Bring your visitors with you to church, where they will receive a hearty welcome.

Sunday morning the pastor will discuss, "The Burning Heart," basing the sermon on the story of the experience of two disciples on the way to Emmaus soon after the Resurrection of Jesus. The public is cordially invited to all services.

TWO-TON ROCK OF INDIAN CARVING PRESENTED TECH

LUBBOCK, Texas, April 11. — A 4000-pound slab of sandstone containing several Indian pictographs, taken from the R. F. Madera ranch in Culbertson county, has just been presented to the West Texas museum, located on Texas Tech campus.

Drawings are apparently of recent origin, many of them being of horses. Other symbols picture the sun, Indian chiefs, and travelers.

The rock weighing approximately four tons, which had fallen from the roof of a rock shelter in Chico canyon on the Madera ranch, was chiseled to its present size by members of an expedition which returned the rock to Lubbock by truck.

Dr. W. C. Holden, dean of archeological research and curator of the museum, headed the expedition.

VALUE OF BIRDS

If all the earth's birds suddenly ceased to exist, man and all other animals would perish by starvation within two years, due to the total destruction of every trace of vegetation by insects. Ninety-tenths of all living creatures are insects, and only the ceaseless activity of our winged friends enables man to hold his own against the incredible reproductive powers of the insect world. The common cabbage-aphis weighs about one-sixteenth as much as a grain of wheat, yet its descendants, if permitted to multiply unhindered and if they could find enough cabbages to feed on, in a single summer would all together weigh 22,000,000 tons, or several times as much as all the people on earth.

Similarly, the descendants of a single pair of vinegar maggots at the end of one year could be rolled into a ball considerable larger than the earth itself. Thus we literally owe our existence to the birds that day in and day make war upon our insect enemies.

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN — Going into the homestretch of the last month of the customary 120-day regular session, the Legislature this week prepared for a showdown in the immediate future on the question of raising money for social security. Unexpected reversal by the Senate of its previous action revived the sales tax constitutional amendment plan, which most observers had believed was finally dead. The issue now is clearly between a constitutional amendment and a tax bill; and also between a sales tax and some other form of levy. Pending bills and resolutions in both House and Senate make it possible for the solons to go either route. A comprehensive omnibus tax bill by a large group of House anti-sales taxers proposes levies on about 30 commodities, some of them sales-taxes in form, but not of a general sales tax nature. In the Senate, revival of the sales tax resolution, which was passed to engrossment with 21 votes, enough to insure its final passage, was regarded as a political precautionary move, which would leave the Senate with a chance to clear its political skirts in case the House produces no tax legislation. There was considerable doubt whether any constitutional amendment, or any sales tax levy, would ever get through the House, but both Houses have reversed themselves so unpredictably on the tax question that the shrewdest observers of legislative trends were extremely wary about committing themselves on predictions. Gov. O'Daniel, apparently learning a lesson from the extremely bad reaction his "fighting" talk aroused in both houses two Sundays ago, didn't mention the legislature or the tax question in his Easter Sunday broadcast, but stuck to a "sweetness and light" program of hymns, poems and banjo harmony.

West Seems Sunk

Close observers here this week were speculating on who Gov. O'Daniel's next nominee for Highway Commission chairman might be, with Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, wife of the former Governor, of Houston, frequently mentioned. Insiders declared James M. West, the Houston multi-millionaire oilman, would fail of confirmation, if a vote is taken. Many believe he would withdraw, in the face of bitter opposition aroused by his wealth, his activity in behalf of Republican Candidate Alf Landon, and the enmity which has grown out of the battle on the Texas Tech board of regents over election of a president for that institution. West is a member of the Tech board. Although West's name was favorably regarded at first, revelation of his political activity has aroused bitter resentment among Senators, and his opponents claim sufficient votes to block confirmation.

Insurance Gyp Cured
The Legislature this week armed the Department of Insurance with a weapon which it has sought for years, to end one of the most scandalous abuses in Texas, when it passed a bill tightening regulation of mutual assessment insurance companies, burial societies and similar insurance groups. The bill permits the Department to name a conservator and take charge of the affairs of such organizations when they fail to "pay off." Many honestly managed mutuals and burial clubs have given protection to a large number of Texans, but a few crooked operators have for years practiced a "racket" under which thousands of poor Texans, both negroes and whites, have been "milked" of thousands of dollars for worthless "life insurance." The bill underwent two days of bitter debate in the House, but finally went over 123 to 3.

Oil Proration Row Rages
Who wrote the protection order that drastically shut down production in West and South Texas, hiked East Texas allowable, and abolished Sunday shutdowns? This question was being asked in Austin this week end, in the wake of the bitter row which broke after the order, signed by Railroad Commissioners Lon Smith and Jerry Sadler, brought hundreds of protesting oilmen, bankers and businessmen to Austin to protest. The order was not written in the capitol, but in a downtown hotel, and was brought to the Railroad Commission, signed and issued, without Commissioner Ernest Thompson, admittedly the best-posted man on proration in Texas, ever having seen or signed it. Later, Sadler and Smith, weakening under the terrific storm of protests, issued supplemental orders restoring about two thirds of the cuts in the original order, but they did not satisfy Oilman Jim Abercrombie of Houston, who obtained a temporary injunction from Houston Federal court, restraining enforcement of the order in certain South Texas fields. Abercrombie's lawyers contended there was not a scintilla of evidence in the record at the last proration hearing to support the order.

Lawyers Will Govern Selves
Climaxing a six year fight, the Legislature finally passed a self-governing bar bill, under which attorneys of Texas will govern themselves. The bill permits the Supreme Court to formulate rules of practice, charges a $4 annual fee to each attorney, provides a method for initiative of rule changes by 10 per cent of the bar, and provides no lawyer may be disbarred without a court trial in his home county. The attorneys contend the law will raise the standards, and permit elimination of crooks and shysters. The bill has gone to Gov. O'Daniel for signature.

Senate Goes Silly
A new high in silly legislation was reached when the dignified Senate, virtually without debate passed a legal a legal monstrosity sponsored by Franklin Spears, of San Antonio, permitting barbers to "get together" and fix the prices of haircuts and shaves, by a popular vote—among the barbers. Amendments pegged the price of a haircut at 40 cents. Every lawyer in the Senate, except Spears, questioned the constitutionality of the bill, but the barbers vote and talk to lots of voting customers, and they brought a strong lobby to Austin when the bill was in committee. The first court test is expected to knock the price-fixing haircut law for a loop on constitutional grounds.

Drive on Loan Sharks
A big boost for the pending bill to regulate loan sharks came when County Attorney Paul Holt, of Austin, joined by Attorney General Jerry Mann, obtained an injunction under the nuisance statute against 19 loan brokers, which practically tied them in a legal knot. Mann announced the drive would be taken into other large cities, where the loan brokers charging exorbitant interest rates, have been doing a thriving business. The pending law permits legitimate loan companies to charge service fees in excess of the present legal 10 per cent interest rate, but prevents exorbitant charges on small loans.

Boy Scouts Building World's Fair Camp

Layout of the two-acre Boy Scout camp at the New York World's Fair, to be used by 3900 different Scouts and leaders from all sections of the United States during the Fair season.

Any qualified member of the Boy Scouts of America may apply for an opportunity to take part in a unique demonstration and service camp at the New York World's Fair, Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, has announced. The plan for a Scout camp of approximately 150 different Scouts and leaders each week, on a two-acre site within the Fair grounds from April 30 to October 31, was approved by formal action of the managers of the World's Fair Corporation and the National Council, Boy Scouts of America.

have produced outstanding articles of handicraft and campcraft to have them shown in this tent at the World's Fair and the exhibit will represent the finest craftsmanship so far developed by Scouts.

Near this tent there will be an open area for flag ceremonies, together with a rustic campfire amphitheatre for dramatics and other spectacular demonstrations and a dining hall with full equipment.

Totem Pole at Gateway
The gateway is to be an imposing one with a 40 foot totem pole. The headquarters building will serve as the administration center for the camp, and a stockade will surround the entire camp area. In line with the symphony of colors of the World's Fair the Scout camp will be most colorful with the flying flags of all Scout nations waving aloft, a symbol of world brotherhood and a friendly greeting to visitors from all over the world.

Contacts with Officials
Service projects will be an important part of a Scout's program during four or five hours each day. This will put Scouts in touch with the management of the enterprise, and they will have many occasions to meet the distinguished persons involved in the Fair.

There will be accommodations for only 3,900 of the 1,271,000 present registered Scout membership, most of whom, judging from requests already on hand, would like to avail themselves of this privilege. The opportunity will be open to Scouts in any part of the United States who meet the standards prescribed by the National Council, and preference will be given to applications in the order of their receipt.

All camp reservations must be made through local Scout Councils and not directly with the National Council.

Aim of Farm Security Administration

Mabel Whitney, Home Supervisor, FSA

Farm Security Administration is accomplishing a task set forth by its name—securing the farmer of America against disaster, by education, and by loans for betterment. Its program is to help the farmer help himself.

For years the American farmer has worked to pay off a perpetual debt. He has not worked for himself, he has worked for the man he owes. He has given his time and work to cash crops. The Farm Security Administration hopes to make each farmer self-sufficient, planning his farming and home-making so that he will be working for himself. To accomplish this, there must be the following: No unemancipated farming units

A 75 per cent live-at-home program
 The farm a business unit
 Security of tenure
 Correct tillage and conservation practices

When families borrow money from FSA, they do so with the agreement that they will produce as much of their living at home as possible. The requirements for 75 per cent living at home are as follows:

1. Can 100 qts. of vegetables per person.
2. Can 20 qts of fruit per person.
3. 150 baby chicks.
4. Fifty hens.
5. 2 hogs to butcher.
6. 1 beef to can.
7. 2 cows for adequate milk supply.
8. Record book kept.

In addition to this, FSA families are urged to have a frame garden if at all possible, in order that they may have a year-round supply of fresh vegetables for table use. Quite a number of families in Terry county have built frame gardens and will be enjoying fresh vegetables in a few days.

Officers Kind Even To Drunken Negro

A lady whose name we are not at liberty to disclose, related the following to us recently. She stated that she noticed an old negro man stumbling along in front of her home, and that he finally fell and was unable to get up. At the time, she did not know whether he was drunk or paralyzed.

Finally, Joe Price and another officer she did not recognize, came up, talked with the old negro a few minutes, assisted him to a waiting car, and carried him presumably to jail or his home where he belonged.

Here's the point. The lady had heard so much about officers being cruel to prisoners, especially to poor white people or negroes, that she scinged when the officers came up for fear they would hit the old fellow. But, she added, at least our Brownfield officers have a sense of human kindness.

Miss Jewel Edwards spent the Easter holidays with relatives in Paris, Texas. She reports everything lovely down there with wild flowers beginning to bloom and trees in full leaf.

Mrs. M. G. Tarpley visited her son and daughter in Abilene last week.
