Poor Foundation to Cost Baptists Plenty

In rebuilding their church with an auditorium over their basement, as well as enlarge the entire building, the membership of the Baptist church was greatly disappointed in the old foundation. It was found that it had little steel in it, and one member informed us that the material used was very inferior. As a consequence, instead of saving money by using the old foundation, they find they will have to tear the whole thing out.

The old foundation supposedly was sufficient to carry two stories easily when it was built back in the twenties. It is true they had an architect to draw the plans, but did not employ him to see that plans, materials and specifications called for were actually put into the building. That matter was left to some of the membership, who themselves perhaps were not capable judges of what should be used.

This is not only an added expense unlooked for by the Baptist people, but to their friends as well, who are helping them all they can to put up the first real nice church building in the city. But disappointments must come to all individuals; it comes to church congregations, but we know of no body of men or women who can take it better than the Baptist congregation of Brownfield.

Needless to say, members will perhaps have to strain an extra point, and friends who have donated to the building will have to come in with some more funds. We believe they will go over the top anyway, but with a bit of encouragement here and there, we know it.

Stripping is Made Easy Now and Increases Used Car Value

Attractive stripping often puts the finishing touches on a reconditioned used car. It adds to a good finish like a necktie adds to the appearance of a shirt, in the opinion of J. M. Welborn, head of the Welborn Pontiac dealers in Brownfield.

"Stripping a car used to be a job that only experts could undertake with any promise of satisfactory results," Welborn said, "but today a good automobile paint man can do the job attractively. Modern stripping tools take the guess-work out of the operation. These tools can be adapted to all types of work—wide or narrow stripes, louvers, mouldings and other parts of the body requiring stripping."

"In my opinion there has not been enough stress laid on this important feature of used car reconditioning. In nearly every instance, appearance is the factor that first draws the used car buyer. Once he is assured that the car is mechanically sound, appearance is the factor that clinches the sale."

"Many of our late model used cars have a good finish that requires only a thorough polish to put them in new-like condition. But by the addition of a stripe we make these cars stand out in the used car lot and give them a distinctive and individual appearance."

"Some of our higher priced used cars are custom-stripped. That is, we will let the buyer choose any color he wishes for the stripping, and it can be single or double stripping, too. That gives a custom appearance to a good used car."

Peace Officers Meeting Considered Good

While the Tuesday meeting of the District Peace Officers Association was not attended as largely as some, nearly every section of the 28 counties in Texas, as well as eastern New Mexico was represented here. Therefore, we can state that several of the officers, parolmen and cattle inspectors informed us that they considered it a great meeting. By the way, the New Mexico officers present, representing both the sheriff's departments as well as cattle inspectors, agreed to cooperate in every way with Texas officers in apprehending criminals crossing the line in either direction. In fact, most of them we heard talk were in favor of joining the Association.

Sheriff B. L. Parker of Tahoka, president of the Association, was present and presiding, but in the absence of Secretary Truett Smith, our district attorney, also of Tahoka, who is in court at Lamesa, Burton G. Hackney, our county attorney, acted as secretary. There was a great deal of discussion along the line of cattle thievery, and Sheriff Parker stated that when the officers organized five months ago, there were as high as 78 cattle thefts a month. There was none reported in the district in October, and for November and December to the present time, only six have been reported. He stated that the organization had undoubtedly helped.

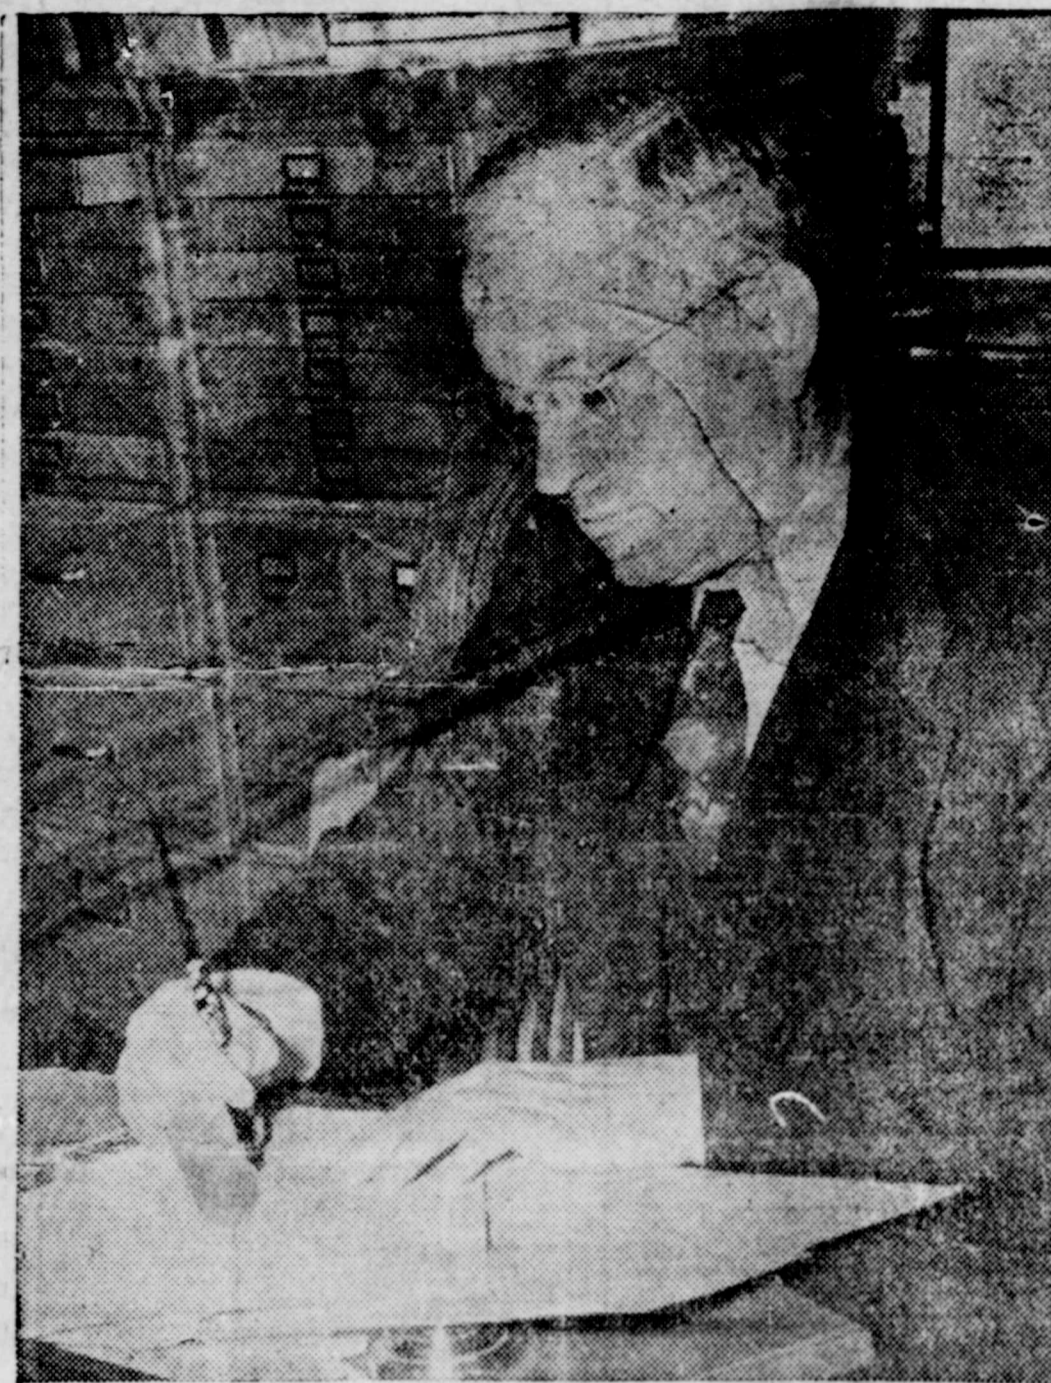

The discussion went further than theft of livestock, and included automobile parts, tires, poultry, and the theft by juveniles in rural homes when people were away of clothing, guns, etc. Mr. Parker said he had his full share of that, but most of the youths under 17 got off with a slight reprimand by the judge after a few tears by the boys and their mothers. Just have to wait until they get 17 to send them to the pen, he stated, and they give officers a lot of trouble. The officers are going to ask the legislature for a more rigid law concerning selling second hand articles to the second hand and junk stores. One officer related one case of where some lads wrecked a $50 hot water cooler to get a dime's worth of brass. After listening for one and one-half hours to their trials and tribulations, concerning the loopholes defending attorneys find for criminals, when on the spot, we decided peace officers have just about as tough a time as a country editor.

Visiting officers included the following: W. R. Honea, Sheriff, Silverton; Dick Dillard, Sheriff, Andrews; W. A. Langtry, cattle inspector, New Mexico; Jim Black, deputy sheriff, Lovington, N. M.; Bob Coffee, cattle inspector, Pecos; Robert McReynolds, deputy sheriff, Andrews; Estis Aldridge, Midland, cattle inspector; B. L. Parker, Sheriff, Tahoka; Horace Owens, Lovington, N. M., Sheriff; Norvell Redwine, Lubbock district patrol; B. Johnson, Lubbock district patrol; Bob Summerrall, cattle inspector, Ft. Stockton; Don Bell, sheriff, Ft. Stockton; Ed Sanders, deputy, Tahoka; Jess Slaughter, sheriff, Big Spring; R. P. McCaffland, district patrol, Big Spring; H. C. White, sheriff, Tulia.

H. N. Zimmerman, sheriff, Stanton; Max Westerman, highway patrol, Big Spring; Sam Hudson, sheriff, Littlefield; Ed Hopkins, deputy, Littlefield; Grady Harriet, deputy, Lubbock; Ed Price, deputy, Seminole; B. J. Patterson, highway patrol, Lubbock; W. C. Alder, Lubbock district patrol; Drew Story, deputy, Post; Sam Price, deputy, Tahoka. Possibly there were others that came in too late to register and that we failed to get.

Sheriff Ches Gore and deputies, Joe Price and Sam White had prepared a great feed for the peace officers, assisted by that fine barbecue cook, Sam Pyeatt. The menu consisted of barbecued beef (unbranded some said) which was really cooked; the best son-of-a-gun you ever popped your lips over, prepared by Mrs. Gore;

STATE SUPT. L. A. WOODS

Shown above is State Supt. L. A. Woods as he signed a letter to all county and school superintendents asking that each school child in the state contribute ten cents toward continuing construction on a Texas Warm Springs center. Construction is now underway on the first unit of the center, sponsored by Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, which when completed will provide facilities for treatment of sixteen crippled children. The first unit, a $28,000 NYA project is a part of the Foundation's master plan for the center, designed to care for more than a hundred crippled children at all times.

pickles, onions, real ranch style beans, and Arbuckle, as fine as was ever and good to the last drop. Judge R. A. Simms and the commissioners as well as a few other close friends, and representatives of the press were invited to this great feast, which was prepared in Cary's Bakery.

The next meeting of the officers will be at the T— Ranch in Lynn county, a few miles west of Tahoka, on Tuesday after the second Monday in February 1940. Sheriff Parker, as host is expecting a fine crowd at that date and promises a rousing time as well as much educational work which will be worthwhile to the officers.

Deputy State Supt. Visits Terry County

Mr. E. Esten Day, Deputy State Superintendent, was a visitor in the local schools last week. He has approved approximately $15,000 of aid for the schools of the county.

His inspection showed that some of the standardized schools are doing remarkable work, whereas, all schools are doing commendable work. Two of the schools are now equipped for hot lunches for school children, seven schools now have radios, all of them show signs of clean-up campaigns with fresh paint and repair jobs plainly visible, and most of the schools have Parent-Teacher Associations or similar organizations that serve in the same capacity. Altogether, the schools drew highly complimentary praise from Mr. Day.

We thank H. C. Stephenson of Meadow for his renewal.

Street Paving Started Again This Week

In conversation this week with Mayor Clyde C. Coleman, was informed that street paving was again underway, and would last perhaps through most of the winter, as there would be many days perhaps when the work cannot be carried on, and well into the spring. Mr. Coleman says he feels sure there will be ample funds to pave all the streets that were originally listed to be paved, and that will be practically all the main thoroughfares.

At the time two or three months ago when paving was temporarily stopped, there was a reason that perhaps some did not understand. It became imperatively necessary that the work on the Levelland road start at that time, and as there were too few idle men in the county to carry on both jobs, owing to the fall harvest taking many off, the city deferred their street work for the time being in favor of getting the road work started.

Now that the harvest is practically over, there are plenty of men on the WPA payroll to successfully carry on both jobs. Over at the local highway department, we were informed that caliche had been laid on the Levelland road out about three miles, and that only the sandy section would be caliche at this time, but that the full length of the highway would be drained and graded. It appears that another appropriation, which will probably be some time in 1940 will have to be awaited to finish the caliche job as well as the hot topping.

But it was up to Brownfield and Terry county to get the job on the Levelland road started when they did, as it was put up to us in that light by the highway commission, or perhaps lose designation and a long delay and wait for appropriations would have resulted. So, we think the city officials are to be commended for delaying their work in favor of the road work, as the street work money had been appropriated and could be used at any time.

CITY SECRETARY HAS EYE OPERATION

Roy Herod, city secretary has recently had an eye operation for removal of a cataract. He had one last summer that was not as successful as it should have been, and returned to Lubbock last week for another.

His many friends hope that this one will be all he hopes for, and that he will soon be his normal self again.

Lesley Thurman of Draughton's Business college of Lubbock, spent the Thanksgiving holiday at home.

They Had to Stick to Locales Where the Male Isn't Allowed

Scenarist Jane Murfin spent three months of the current year avoiding men. And she admits that it was one of the most difficult assignments in her long and brilliant writing career.

"It's amazing how many places men go," she said. "Attempting to locate spots where they aren't likely to show themselves was as near to finding a needle in a haystack as I've ever been."

To Jane Murphy and Anita Loos went the difficult task of adapting to Clare Boothe's stage success, "The Women," to the screen. The production starring Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford and Rosalind Russell will be shown at the Rialto Theatre Tues. & Wed.

"The limitations of the stage made avoiding men comparatively simple, Miss Murfin said. "But on the screen we just can't drop a curtain then raise it again with the explanation that so much time has passed. Audiences want to see what went on in the meantime. They have been educated to witness those things that the stage suggests through conversation."

In attempting to fill in these blanks and still make this stronger sex an unknown quantity, Miss Murfin admittedly had her hands full.

"Naturally, there couldn't be a street scene," she said. "We couldn't put women in taxis because of the chauffeurs. As a matter of fact, they couldn't even be shown in cars of their own because their positions in life would call for men drivers."

Men elevator operators, complicated scene in office buildings and smart restaurants were naturally taboo. As a matter of fact, Miss Murfin's research on the subject rather takes the edge off men's arguments that in these modern days they can't go anywhere where they don't find women. This truth works both ways. "Every place Miss Loos and I could possibly think of where men were apt to be absent is shown in the picture," the scenarist declared. "These include afternoon bridge parties, beauty salons, night club and restaurant powder rooms, boudoir baths and showers. These just about sum them up, with the possible exception of modiste shop fitting rooms."

Mahon Makes Statement—Returns to Capitol

LUBBOCK—Congressman Geo. Mahon closed his Lubbock office December 14 and stated that he would return to Washington immediately to attend the Session of Congress convening January 3rd. The Appropriation Committee of which he is a member is now holding hearings in Washington and he will meet with the Committee before the Christmas holidays.

Mahon made the following statement in connection with the forthcoming Congress:

"I am disturbed about the movement in some quarters to drastically cut appropriations for the farm program. I shall resist every effort that may be made to cut agricultural appropriations. The chief complaint which I find among both landlords and tenants and among people generally against the present farm program is that it is operating in such a way that it tends to encourage the displacement of tenants rather than the utilization of tenants. This must be worked out in a mutually satisfactory manner and the utilization of tenants encouraged or the whole farm program will be seriously threatened. I have repeatedly pointed out this fact to Secretary Wallace and his assistants. I shall support an enlargement of the farm tenant home purchase program.

"As to the war situation, I would not try to diminish the importance of domestic problems, but our greatest problem in 1940 will be keeping out of war. I am more convinced than ever that we will not be drawn into the European conflict. Both Congress and the people are determined on a course of non-involvement. But we must not neglect our national defense. I have advised the President that as a member of the Appropriations Committee I expect to support a strong national defense program.

"The Dies Committee has done a fairly good job investigating un-American activities and I expect to support its continuation."

Terry County Farmers Vote to Comply Again

By an overwhelming vote of 396 to 69 last Saturday, Terry county farmers again agreed to comply with AAA rules for 1940. This is much better than a two-thirds majority, although the vote was close in only one box, Meadow, being 39 to 25. Union had one no vote, and Wellman and Johnson about two each.

It is believed that the yes vote in the state ran about 91 per cent of the total and in the entire south about 90 per cent.

4,000 School Children Expected Here Today

Invitations have been mailed to around 4,000 school children in the area, and are expected to be here today to see old Santa Claus in person, witness a big parade with the high school band leading, and to spend a great day in general. We believe this is the third annual time the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce has pulled a Santa Claus Parade.

As we understand it, each and every child will receive a package from old Santa, and that later they will be admitted to the three picture shows on passes complimentary of Mrs. Ethel Jones, who owns the Rialto, Rio and Ritz. Heretofore many children have had the privilege of seeing a show for the first time in their lives during this gala day.

The Herald hopes the kids enjoy the day to their full capacity. They are the children of our friends and neighbors, and all of us should do all we can to entertain them.

Mention of this day should have been carried in last week's paper, but we were expecting an article from Secretary Ed Shelton of the Chamber of Commerce, but as he was busy he expected us to do the doping, but we had not seen a program, and have not to this hour. So, when two or more parties expect George to do it, it generally is not done.

Nobody's Business

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN — Those citizens of Texas who have believed that the answer to the problems of the state lies not in increasing taxation on anybody—either on the people through a sales tax, or on the oil industry through increased natural resources, but in retrenchment, increased efficiency of government, may be without a candidate to represent them in the election of a governor next year, but they are nevertheless growing into a group that is substantial in numbers, and powerful in influence. Candidates for governor and the legislature may well take note of the growing sentiments for a return to sanity in state taxation and expenditure. The law of diminishing return has already begun to operate, as the burden of taxation has mounted. It is inexorable, and those Texans who think before they vote, are getting a little weary of the constant cry of the demagogues for more taxes to raise more money to give more people something for nothing.

Want No Sales Tax

There is a definite, powerful and growing sentiment against a sales tax in Texas. There has never been, in the opinion of this correspondent during the five years of close observation of the Austin scene, a time when a preponderant majority of Texans were not opposed to a sales tax.

So far as additional taxes on natural resources are concerned, it is becoming increasingly obvious that the limit of taxation on oil is being approached. The Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association has just completed an authoritative study of oil taxation in Texas, made by competent research experts. They have gone to the state and county records for their data, and there is no valid reason apparent for questioning its accuracy.

Briefly summarized, this study shows that every barrel of oil produced in Texas during 1939 will pay an overall tax of 9.8 cents per barrel. That is approximately 10 per cent of its average value of $1.00 a barrel. The oil men, and the millions of merchants, farmers, doctors, lawyers and others in every line of trade who live off the oil dollars which circulate in 140 Texas counties that are now producing gas and oil, think that is enough. It is, according to the Mid-Continent survey, the highest overall tax paid on oil produced in any state in the union.

What Oil Pays

The figure is arrived at as follows: Gross production tax at 2 1/4 cents per barrel, on total production of 460,000,000 barrels, 612,500,000; regulatory tax, 3-16 of a cent per barrel, $860,000; other state taxes, including franchise, gross receipts, social security, permits, fees, car and truck licenses, and gasoline taxes paid by the industry on its own cars and trucks, $2,800,000. This totals $16,875,000 state taxes, exclusive of the state ad valorem taxes on oil property, which figure $7,686,000 this year. The grand total of state taxes is $24,561,000.

The survey shows that local taxes—paid to counties, school districts, cities, water districts, drainage districts, levee districts etc.—totals over $20,000,000 additional. On a per barrel basis of total production, it makes the tax bill average 9.8 cents per barrel on all oil produced.

Despite the fact the Legislature passed no increased taxes on oil at the regular session, the industry's tax bill went up this year $3,600,000 to the state alone, due to the 57 per cent increase in the State ad valorem tax rate, payable in 1940.

High Rate Cuts Revenue

Texas has no monopoly on oil. If a tax burden on any non-monopoly becomes so heavy that it cannot carry the load and make a reasonable return, that business quits and moves into a competitive field, where it can operate. With production of oil or gas now a fact in 140 Texas counties, and exploration under way in 105 others, and with most voters cognizant of the part the billion dollar a year oil industry plays in the economic life of every Texan, it becomes fairly obvious that no Texas legislature is going to recruit a majority of members willing to stifle development of the oil industry with heavy additional taxes. That would be cutting the throat of the goose that lays the golden egg, and, in fact, official figures from the Comptroller, showing a decline of more than $2,000,000 this year in receipts from the gross production tax under 1938, would indicate that the law of diminishing return has already begun to operate. Several states, which piled taxes of seven, eight and nine cents a gallon on gasoline in the early days, and saw the net yield less than under a reasonable tax rate, learned about that law.

The answer, then, is not more taxes on anybody, but a wiser and more efficient expenditure of the $175,311,068.53 of income which the state of Texas took in during the 1938 fiscal year.

County Taxation

The big problem of all of the taxpayers of Texas, including the oil industry, is not the State's tax bill, big as it is, but the hundreds of millions exacted by cities, counties, school districts, and the 101 other independent taxing bodies throughout Texas. The East Texas Chamber of Commerce, through its tax department, ably administered by Curtis Morris, has made a splendid start with its county tax control program in 70 East Texas counties. Actual reductions in tax rate were obtained in 1939 in 24 counties, by direct work with the county taxing bodies, totaling millions of dollars in savings to taxpayers. Next year, every county in East Texas, will operate under an intelligently planned budget,—something that was never done before in nearly half the counties. The citizenship of East Texas is being encouraged to take an interest in local tax affairs, attend budget hearings, discuss matters with the taxing authorities. Morris works in cooperation with county officials, who are usually quite willing to do what the people take the trouble to let them know they want accomplished.

In East Texas, the folks have let their officials know they want economy and efficiency in county affairs. And they are getting it.

The Anton News got out a special edition of 12 pages last week, which is really going somewhere when one knows what it means to get out an edition like that by the hand-set method. Congratulations, H. G., we enjoyed it.

Herald Ads Get Results

See by the papers that the derick of the Santa Rita well, which marked the discovery of the great West Texas oil field with millions of dollars for the University of Texas, may be dismantled and re-erected on the University campus—a pleasing, sentimental gesture.

But more worthwhile would be for the University to use a very small trickle of that golden stream to make possible the writing of the story of oil. Within a brief span, oil has revolutionized the life of our nation; it has made the magic carpet of the fairy tale a reality and not simply for a prince but for every workingman. How much simpler and more intelligent it would be to write the story now while so many of the principal actors in the grand drama of petroleum are still living to give first-hand accounts instead of waiting a century and trying to piece the story together from fragments.

Such an undertaking would be as worthy of a truly great university as building a telescope to study the stars or a machine to smash the atom. After all, they have stars and atoms everywhere but oil is peculiarly the story of Texas for this state produces 40 per cent of all the oil in the U. S. Since the Lucas gusher roared in at Spindletop in 1901, the value of the petroleum produced in Texas is far greater than the non-existent wealth of the cities of Cibola; it would make all the lost mines and buried treasures of the Southwest look like pocket change. The present flow of oil in Texas, if maintained for 50 years, would amount to more than all the gold produced in the world since Columbus sighted America—and the oil has meant infinitely more in service to the human race than gold.

Raise additional money for old age pension by a tax of 10 cents on each 1,000 cubic feet of gas leaving the State, an increase of 1 cent a barrel on oil, 25 cents on each telephone box and a 5 per cent pipe line tax—so suggests Jerry Sadler. Supporters of the plan say it would be paid mainly by people living in other states whereas a general sales tax, they contend, would be paid entirely by Texans and would bear heaviest on the poorest.

MODERN WAR HAS NO VICTOR

This holiday season the United States has much to be thankful for—and the ancient greeting of "happy new year" should have more than ordinary significance. Alone of the great powers of the world, we are at peace, and remote from the bloody shambles of war.

That we will stay at peace should be every American's passionate resolution. For war does more than destroy lives and property. It destroys ideals, institutions, principles—the best that centuries of our forebears have bequeathed us. Certainly this weary planet should have learned by now that there are no victors in modern war—there are only losers.

Peace is the finest Holiday gift any nation in this war-torn world can have.

Time For Contagious Diseases is Nearing

Isolation placards for the various communicable diseases will be tacked upon hundreds of Texas homes during the coming winter months, but even then there will not be enough of these signs in use," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, declares.

"The reasons for this, is that many parents who do not call a physician unless their child becomes seriously ill, will fail to report the case to the local health officer or their family physician. The physician reports existence of communicable disease when he sees a case, but reporting is the parent's responsibility when the physician is not called.

"If parents neglect this duty, their home will not be placarded, and visitors, particularly children, will not be properly warned there is communicable disease within. By entering the house, they risk the danger of exposure and possible illness as a result.

"A number of parents erringly consider an isolation placard to be a sign of disgrace when in reality it is a symbol of honor. Displaying the placard indicates that the family in which there is a case of communicable disease is doing its part in helping to reduce the spread of infection. Use of the placard when necessary this winter will help protect others against measles, whooping cough, scarlet fever, mumps, and other diseases which increase in cold weather.

"Whole-hearted cooperation in the observance of isolation is both desirable and necessary for the control and prevention of communicable disease. The law pro-

KILLED 25-POUND GOOSE

DEER FIGHT HELPS HUNTER

Deer frequently are seen fighting each other and one of these battles proved disastrous for both combatants recently. A. T. Wendler of Boerne, Texas, came upon a fifteen-pointer, weighing 175 pounds, and a 155-pound seven-point buck fighting on opening day. Wendler bagged them both.

A mighty fine lady from out in south Yoakum, whose name we cannot call under penalty of losing her yearly dollar, was in recently and set her paper up to October, 1940. Said the paper wasn't worth a whoop but guessed we needed the money. Now you old timers can take a guess who the lady was.

Just before the opening of hostilities in Europe in 1914, cotton prices were about 11.9 cents a pound. When the exchanges were closed (August 1-November 17, 1914), prices dropped with the diminished market to nearly half this level. It was two full years after the war began before domestic prices recovered to the levels existing immediately before the war.

The Eastern Star had their regular meeting Monday evening at the Masonic hall and planned a Christmas social for December 15. There were 30 ladies present.

ABOUT TO MOVE

A negro tenant farmer amazed William Brannan, sheriff's deputy at Macon, Georgia, with this story:

"I want to find out who owns the house I live in," the negro said.

"Well, who do you pay your rent to?" asked Brannan.

"Ain't paid none."

"How long have you been living there?"

"Nine years."

"Well, what's your trouble?"

"Well, boss, the roof done started to leak," the Negro explained, "and if the landlord don't fix it quick, I'm goin' to move out!"

TEXAS STEER IS SOLD AT $135 PER POUND

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Lucky Boy, grand champion steer of the International Livestock Exposition, was sold at auction for $135 a pound.

The price paid for the Hereford steer, raised in Texas, was only a dime above the depression low of $1.25 which was paid in 1932. The 16-months-old animal weighed 1,220 pounds. It was owned by Mayfield Kothmann, 18, a 4-H Club boy from Mason County, Texas.

Oil Industry Starts Paid Advertising Educational Campaign

With December issue of state newspapers, the Texas Oil industry through its service organization, the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, will begin a series of institutional and educational advertising.

"It is logical that Texas, being the biggest oil producer, should think along lines of institutional advertising," George C. Gibbons, executive vice-president of the oil and gas group, said. "Twenty-five per cent of all the oil in the world and forty per cent of the oil in America comes from Texas. One hundred and thirty-four counties located throughout the state are now in production with exploration or leasing under headway in all but 14 counties of the 254."

"Outside competition has forced average well production to such a low figure in Texas today that only by most careful management can our industry survive its fixed overhead costs. If through this institutional advertising program we can stimulate the bringing of other industry into the state, we can help stimulate added employment and incidentally our own industry through the use of more of our products at home."

"Each time we interest other industry in coming to Texas to use our oil products we cut down exportation of our surplus. The new paper mill at Lufkin is an example in point. Though the paper is made of another raw product, timber, it is made possible through the tremendous supply of cheap fuel. Much of our raw product is yet to be processed within the state. Wool and cotton are both examples of such opportunities."

"The oil industry has made tremendous strides in the processing of its crude oil, now refining more than eighty per cent within the state's borders and thereby furnishing employment for many thousands of Texas people."

"The advertising series will endeavor to portray to the public the part the oil industry plays in the economic life of Texas and its contribution to employment tax revenues, distribution of new wealth created through constant production of oil and the advantage it offers to new industry."

FIND UNUSUAL ANTELOPE

Should Texas ever have an open season on buck antelope, which is far from being an impossibility, you may hear of a doe being mistaken for a buck and being killed. It is a very rare occasion when an antelope deer is found with a full pronghorn as large as those grown by a buck antelope. However, one was rounded-up in the State Game Department's drive on antelope on the Brennard Ranch near Sterling City recently. The doe appeared to be a barren animal. Buck antelope have a horn which curves back in a hook-like shape and the prong is full. Doe have a straight horn which does not boast a wide prong.

Uncle Joe Bryant Passes

Having exceeded the three score and ten mark by 22 years, Uncle Joe Bryant of south Terry passed away Tuesday at the ripe old age of 92, showing that he observed the rules of Jehovah to reach such an age by living the life he should. The writer first met Uncle Joe 39 years ago in Johnson county, Texas, but Uncle Joe and family moved soon after that time, 1900, moving to Scurry county, then one of the frontier settling counties. A few years later he moved on out to this still more pioneer section, and settled in what is now known as the Union community. Most of this time we have kept track of this aged gentleman, and we have never known a more moral, law-abiding citizen, or a better husband and father. There is nothing that anyone can say against the moral principles of this good man.

Uncle Joe was reared in deep east Texas, and while not old enough to be permitted to go to the front, the hard pressed south had to train their youths as home guards to help keep away Indians, or later join the ranks to fill the place of fallen Confederate soldiers. Therefore, being sworn in and drilled made him a Confederate in every sense of the word. After manhood, he moved to Johnson county, then the frontier, where he met and married his faithful wife who preceded him in death just a brief few years. Most of the family of children were born in Johnson county.

Surviving are seven children: Mrs. Cleve Williams and Joe Jr. of this city and county; Bill and Jim of California; Mrs. B. Everett of McClean; Mrs. Bayne Price of Plains, and Mrs. Guthrie Cook of San Antonio. All were present at the funeral except the two California boys. Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian Church by the pastor Rev. Fred Walker, following which, the body was laid to rest beside that of his wife, the local American Legion firing a salute. The floral offering attested the esteem in which he was held in the community.

Federal or State Oil Control?

Secretary of the Interior, Harold L. Ickes is a pronounced advocate of Federal control of the oil industry.

On every occasion he has sought to capitalize upon every circumstance as an argument for Federal control.

His latest concern a fine imposed by United States Judge James C. Wilson, in Houston in a so-called "hot oil" case. The Judge assessed a penalty of $1,000 each against two defendants. Mr. Ickes asserted the Court refused to hear all the government's evidence and pre-emptorily assessed the fine.

With the controversy between Mr. Ickes and a United States Judge, we are not concerned. If the Judge was guilty of malfeasance or misfeasance in office, there is a remedy provided by law. If not, Mr. Ickes has been guilty of talking out of turn.

The thing we are concerned about is the control of the natural resources of the state, which, of course, include oil. When Texas became a member of the American Confederation of States, it reserved all its lands. Therefore, there are no Federal lands in Texas. The University lands have been the scene of a great oil field, and under State control, such development has made the University the richest of its kind in the Nation. Our public schools have profited immeasurably from State control of this resource. Its development has materially assisted in the building of our great highway system. Capable men in Texas can control the great natural resource of oil. The government closest to the people is the best government, said Thomas Jefferson. It's too far to Washington. Mr. Ickes must be halted in his latest attempted invasion of the sovereign rights of Texas. Texans when they go to the polls can and will select capable men on the Railroad Commission. This will, as they have, handle our oil situation.

Merchants in State Face Best Yuletide Trade in Ten Years

Texas' retail merchants this year will have their busiest Yuletide season since 1929, with Christmas sales mounting to an estimated $93,987,000, the National Consumers Tax Commission predicted today.

Not since the booming 1920's have the prospects of a freespending holiday shopping splurge been so optimistic, Mrs. Melville Muckelstone, leader of the commission's drive against "consumer-penalizing" taxes, stated in the business survey reported.

"Throughout the country reports from business—from large industries to small storekeeper—point to the heaviest holiday trade in 10 years," Mrs. Muckelstone added. "The buying spree, following the trend in recent months, probably will carry the year's retail sales total to $37,916,000,000 for the nation, an increase of more than 7 per cent over last year." The increased Texas trade, the NCTC reports said, will mean added seasonal employment, heavier employees bonus checks and improved dividends. However, less cheering is the fact that an estimated $14,380,011 of sales in the state will go to pay taxes which producer, manufacturer, shipper, and distributor, of necessity, pass on indirectly to Christmas shoppers in the price of their purchases.

The NCTC's crusade against hidden taxes is headed in this state by Mrs. Volney W. Taylor of Brownsville, national committee member and leader of Texas' 810 local tax study groups.

THE WORLD'S MOST CARELESS PEOPLE

We Americans are the world's most careless people when it comes to fire. Nowhere else in the world is the "crime" of fire so prevalent.

A simple set of statistics readily proves this. Fire loss in this country runs in the neighborhood of $2.00 for every man, woman and child of the population. By comparison, loss in Sweden is 89c per capita; loss in Great Britain is 82 cents; loss in Italy is 78 cents; loss in France is 61 cents, and loss in Germany is 11 cents. In other words, we destroy more than twice as much property with fire as is destroyed in the next highest country—and close to 20 times as much as the lowest on the list.

Here's a case where alibis are no good. For the greater percentage of all fires, great and small, are the product of human carelessness. Somebody is thoughtless—somebody forgets—somebody takes a chance. And a home or a factory goes up in smoke. Human failure is the great fire breeder.

The record is the more shameful in that we Americans have the best of all chances to fight and lick fire. Organized fire prevention, supported by insurance companies, fire marshals, civic organizations and others have reached a high peak of excellence in this country. Experts scour the country searching out hazards—other experts fight arson 24 hours a day—others examine machinery, building materials, electric appliances and similar commodities and draw up fire-resistant standards of construction—others keep check on fire departments, water facilities and alarm facilities. A wealth of invaluable information is ours for the asking.

We can't pass the buck. Fire is our fault. And fire can be prevented only by the concerted, thinking efforts of us all.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson and children of Colorado City will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam White. Miss Evelyn White, who attends college in Abilene, will also be home.

CHRISTMAS PLAY TO BE PRESENTED

A one-act play entitled, "Pop Reads the Christmas Carol", will be presented Friday, December 15 in assembly. The play is for the benefit of the Junior-Senior banquet fund, and is under the direction of Miss Edwards.

The cast includes the following: Mr. Jones, Stephen Zenter; Mrs. Jones, Lois Chambliss; Paul Jones, Edgar Self; Mary Jones, Ida Mae May; Junior Jones, Larry Tarpley; Jane, Jean Knight; Jack, Ted White.

The admission will be 5c. Be sure to bring your nickel and be present at assembly instead of having to go to class.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Dennison have returned to their home in Jacksboro after a week's visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. S. Smith and their son, C. W. Dennison.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Hossey Lisenbee of Lamesa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McLendon, Sunday.

Volunteer Firemen's Annual Meeting

The volunteer firemen of Brownfield met in their annual feast at Terry's White Kitchen Wednesday night, with several invited guests, including city officials and members of the press. Mr. and Mrs. Terry had certainly done a good job of providing a banquet for these boys who risk their lives any day for the protection of the property of the city.

There was nothing formal about the affair; they don't make anything formal when they answer a fire alarm. They just go where they are directed to put out a fire. The same way with their annual banquets; they all go; and if there ever was any body of men that have a really good time, it is the firemen.

The men that risk their lives daily for the protection of your property, and that keeps your insurance rates at a low ebb, certainly deserve a good time each year. But the Herald is of the opinion that the citizens should pay for these banquets. It would still be money in their pockets if they paid for these banquets, although the volunteer firemen ask for nothing.

Death Takes Mrs. A. P. Moore

Another pioneer lady who numbered her friends by her acquaintances, passed away Monday, but owing to the fact that her initials instead of those of her husband were used, many friends of the family did not know until after the funeral service that it was Mrs. A. P. Moore. Mrs. Moore at the time of her passing was 75, a ripe number of years, and those years had been put in as only a good wife and mother would. She was beloved by her family and friends. She had been in poor health for several months.

The Moore family had been in Terry several years when we came here 30 years ago. They ran a grocery in Gomez up to the time that Mr. Moore felt that his age required that he retire. Their home was always open to friends and even the visiting strangers, as all good pioneer homes were. She and Mr. Moore reared a large family, all of which were a credit to them and the community. She was a member of the Northside Baptist church, and had been a member of that denomination for many years. They move to Brownfield several years ago.

Her husband and the surviving children are as follows: Will, Charley, Fred and Jim of this city; A. R. of Lamesa; Walter of Brady; Mrs. E. W. Key, Clovis, N. M.; Mrs. Alvin Duke, Lubbock; Mrs. Ben Brannen of Indian Gap.

On account of lack of room in the Northside church, funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church, with Rev. Ben D. Johnson officiating. Interment in the local cemetery.

Mrs. Jay King and Mrs. Queenelle King left Wednesday for Oklahoma City to transact business.

Mrs. Tom Kizer will leave next week for Deming to join her husband who is putting in a bowling alley in that place.

Last of Killers of Cochran Officer Arrested

Over the past week end perhaps the greatest manhunt in the history of the section was staged by county and city officers, highway patrolmen and rangers, when Deputy Sheriff D. T. Smith was shot down last Friday when he and Sheriff Tom B. Standifer stopped three men in a car for questioning concerning theft of a car. The men were Lackey, Davis and Mann. Lackey started shooting when being transferred to the Sheriff's car.

Deputy Sheriff Smith killed the man who shot him; Davis, unarmed surrendered, but Mann made a break and was not captured until Sunday near Crosbyton in a cave, by two highway patrolmen who had been hot on his trail since Saturday. Davis claimed to be driving the car against his will. The other men had criminal records.

Mann was unarmed at the time of capture as he had lost his gun when he was shot from a car by patrolmen Billy Johnson and Bruce Woodell, Saturday, when he had to take to a rough ranch section.

Mann was placed in the Lubbock county jail where he will be held for the murder of Smith. Officers cannot afford to take any chances with criminals.

3-SHELL LIMIT ON QUAIL

With the quail season under way, quail hunter will do well to bear in mind that they cannot legally hunt bobwhites with a gun holding more than three shells. The law requiring guns to be plugged to the three-shell limit is often regarded as being only for ducks. However, it applies in turkey, dove, and quail hunting, the executive secretary of the Texas Game Department warns sportsmen.

ALL HAVE LICENSES

The director of the South Dakota Game and Fish Department recently was dismissed when he was caught by one of his own wardens hunting without a license. That can hardly happen in Texas because the executive secretary of the State Game Department insists that all wardens and other employees of the department who hunt or fish purchase license and he is generally the first one to obtain them.

UNDULANT FEVER COMES FROM ANIMALS

"Brucellosis (undulant fever) is caused by a germ found in hogs, cows, sheep, and goats. In human beings the disease is known as brucellosis, or undulant fever; in animals, Bangs' disease or contagious abortion. The condition was formerly termed Malta fever. Man acquires undulant fever as the result of direct contact with infected animals or following the use of raw dairy products from infected dairy cows," states Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Though brucellosis, or undulant fever is reported every month of the year, case records show that it occurs most frequently in July, August, and September.

"Because of its nature, the disease is more prevalent on farms than in cities, with the exception of packing house workers. The handling of infected cows or sows or the animals at the time of birth represents hazardous types of contact. The germs of undulant fever enter the body through the mouth or skin; therefore, care should be used in handling animals known to be infected, and dairy products from the same source should be pasteurized if used.

"More men than women acquire the disease, and adults seem more likely to have it than children.

"Undulant fever is so named because of the wave-like variations in temperature. The symptoms include rising temperature, loss of weight and strength, chills, sweats, and joint pain. The mortality rate of undulant fever is comparatively low, but the disease itself possess symptoms which may persist for a number of weeks and even months before normal strength and health are restored. The patient often appears fresh in the morning, but is extremely fatigued by afternoon.

TYPICALLY AMERICAN

One phase of our national defense system is equaled by no other nation. William Allen White, "the sage of Emporia, Kansas," put his finger on this phase when he recently pointed out that life insurance is the bulwark of free government in this country.

"American life insurance," he observed, "is in reality a front line trench of democracy. Our American life insurance brings self-respecting old age to millions. It stimulates education. It removes the sting of poverty from widows and children. It maintains a level of consumers' cash . . . It fills and refills a vast pool of credit which is the life of American business. This could be done only in a democratic republic."

This is more than a testimonial to life insurance. It is a testimonial to the greatness of America and her people.

I. A. Stephens, his father and Cye Wilson of Lubbock, accompanied by Everett Latham went to Pecos the first of last week to hunt.

AN EDITORIAL

IS AMBITION TRAMPLED UNDER BY SUCCESS?

Those of you who succeeded very often discourage the ambition of those trying for success. Lack of understanding of those trying may be a result of this. Those trying for success by building air castles daily see them blown to bits, if not slowly but surely weakened by discouragement and environment through the years until they finally crumble away. Despite all this hindrance, success may eventually be attained by trying until a castle is realized which will withstand the discouragement of others.

You who have succeeded naturally want to walk by others who have succeeded, and in doing so you discourage the ambition of others sometimes by failing to realize that you too once crawled, then took a few halting steps, and if you are honest with yourself, you will probably admit that you received a few pretty hard falls before you learned to take steps. This isn't true of many of you, but if it is, try giving the ambitious a little encouragement which will be of great help to them, and if it doesn't, certainly it won't cost you anything.

BASKETBALL NEWS

The second team of Brownfield High played Johnson's team in the local gym December 12.

Johnson made the first goal in the first two minutes of play and was well in the lead when Coach Huff sent in more competent guards, Johnson, Bagget, and Erwin. May and Murphy substituted for Tankersley and Starnes.

Brownfield improved their playing quickly but failed to defeat the small but speedy Johnson team. Melba Green and Frances Malcolm were outstanding forwards from Johnson.

The Brownfield High team then played Wellman. This game was December 5 at Wellman. We were defeated 19-40. Nevertheless, the Brownfield team on December 12 went in to play to win their second game of the season with Wellman.

Ellis and Luker, by their excellent passing, enabled Moore to make several scores in quick succession.

Most of the scores on both sides were made in the first half. Then the guards exhibited their ability to guard.

Montgomery, Claunch and Whisehunt played good basketball. However, Whisehunt made three fouls in rapid succession and Dubose, who also played a good game, was substituted. The game ended with a tie of 19-19.

Brownfield's first team plays Meadow, at Meadow, Friday, December 15.

BASKETBALL NEWS

By Flaura Lee Shults

The girls basketball team went to Wellman Tuesday, December 5, and played the Wellman team. They were defeated 41 to 19, as some of the main players were not presents. The forwards were Frankie Lou Ellis, Thelma Jean Moore, Billie Dean Luker and Genevieve Murphy. The guards were Linnie Rene Whisenant, Iva Dell Claunch, Dorothy Gray, Winnie DuBose and Helen Simmons.

SPONSORS COMMISSARY STUDENT COUNCIL

The members of the student council of Brownfield High are now sponsoring a commissary in the book room where any school supplies, candy or gum may be purchased. A member of the student council will always be at the bookroom to serve you, and your patronage will be greatly appreciated. The receipts of this venture will go to the annual fund. This year the members of the student council are attempting to publish a bigger and better annual for this year than the school has ever known, so let's support them in this worthy cause.

SEVENTH GRADE VISITS THE MAYS' HOME

By Roberta Underwood

On Friday, December 8, the seventh grade, which is studying better homes, visited the new home of the Mays'. As they entered, they registered in the guest book. They then went through the living room, sun room, the downstairs bedroom, and then upstairs, where they saw the four bedrooms and bath rooms.

After that they were taken to the dining room where they were served with delicious spiced tea, cookies and mints. They were given yellow napkins with "The Mays" written on them in green, and many are saving them as souvenirs of the lovely occasion. All said they thought it was a very beautiful home and enjoyed their visit very much.

WEST WARD PARENT-TEACHERS MEET

The West Ward Parent-Teachers met on Thursday, December 7, at the high school auditorium in their general meeting. The meeting was opened with the group's singing Christmas carols, which were led by Mrs. Bruce. Our organization was fortunate to have as our speaker, Mrs. David Perry, who gave us a very interesting talk on "Creating Better Christmas Spirit". She brought out that we should keep our Christmas simple for children as well as ourselves.

Our West Ward Parent-Teacher study course will meet December 14, with Mr. Vernon, our West Ward principal, as the speaker. Mrs. Vernon Brewer Publicity Chairman

Daughter: "But, dad, don't you believe that two can live as cheaply as one?"

Dad: "Sure! Your mother and I are living as cheaply as you."

"As soon as your children grow up and it is safe to redecorate your house or build a new one, along comes the grandchildren to play havoc with it again."

New Furniture Store Opens in Brownfield

C. McWilliams, who has had years of experience in the furniture business, has opened a new store with a full and complete stock in the Hankins building just east of the Rialto Theatre. For the past several years, he has been employed by another popular furniture store in this city. Mr. McWilliams stated to the Herald that he believed Brownfield had become large enough for another good furniture store. Mr. McWilliams is not only a judge of good furniture and what the people of this section want, but being an expert upholsterer, he knows pretty well what is under cloth or leather. Mr. McWilliams and wife will for the time being conduct the store, adding help as his business grows and shows need. Aside from furniture he is handling a popular brand of gas stoves and radios. Read his ad in this issue and call on him and see what he has in the newest in furniture. Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Kern left Saturday for Houston, Texas, where he will continue his work with an oil company.

MEADOW GIRL HELPS WITH TECH LOAN FUND

LUBBOCK, Dec. 11.—Clarice Mackey, junior home economics student, is on the publicity committee for the Margaret W. Weeks Loan Fund sale now being conducted by the home economics division at Texas Technological college. The sale began December 8 and will continue through December 19.

Miss Mackey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mackey of Meadow.

The first loan fund sale was held in 1925, and a sale has been held each year since. Pottery, Christmas cards, luncheon sets of Russian linen, Moroccan leather boxes, bed spreads, candles and brass candlesticks are being sold this year.

The Margaret W. Weeks Loan Fund is for the purpose of assisting home economics students. Forty-five loans have been made to thirty-one persons during the past two years.

"It is very seldom that we ever make a bad loan," Miss Weeks, dean of home economics, said. "Most girls are able to pay off their loans very readily."

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Sullivan, motored to Hobbs, New Mexico, Sunday morning and had a sunrise breakfast with Mrs. Sullivan's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Easter. Mr. Easter has been employed by the Texas Gas. Co. in Hobbs for a number of years.

From there, both families motored to Jal, N. M., to a big county sing song. They reported a wonderful time with plenty of good singing and lots of good eats.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison Arnett of Snyder, Mr. Dedman of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hudgens of Levelland were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stricklin, Sr., Sunday 3rd.

The Santa Fe railroad is offering some mighty cheap round-trip fares to various points during the holidays. If you are traveling any distance, the railways are the most convenient and least tiresome. We've tried both. Note their ad in this and next issue.

Tom Bingham and wife of Quemado, Texas, are here visiting relatives. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Troy Harrison and husband and another daughter, Mrs. Ernest Shipman. Tom says they shipped about 100 cars of tomatoes from here this fall and winter, the first car being loaded from his field. Tom and family will get the Herald for the next twelve months.

Tom Toombs Reads Our Ramblings too

Boy, we thought we just had two readers of our Ramblings but we are finding a lot of people who SAY they read them, including our ma-in-law and sister-in-law out in California, but Tom Toombs of the Meadow section is the latest to tell us he got a kick out of them. He donated his dollar for another year, in a cafe, recently, and said keep 'er comin'.

Tom also stated that his daughter, who attends Tech college recently reminded him to renew, as she wanted to keep up with where the Old He went and what he said. Say, young lady, the Old He and She and all the ducklings are preparing for a short visit Christmas with relatives at Grandview, Fort Worth and Dennison during the holidays, and we'll tell you about our capers when we get back—when and if we get back.

In the meantime, we hope to add two or three more Regular Ramblings.

G. D. Wade, Union merchant, was in this week and says that the farmers of that community recently presented Ed Evans, the gin man with a pair of boots and since then, Ed won't even feed his calf without his boots on.

Miss Lela Partin, an A. C. C. student, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Partin.

George Alexander, another faithful old reader from out in the old Harris section, was in this week to renew for the Herald and Star-Telegram.

Mrs. Harold Carpenter was the guest of Mrs. Earl Unger at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Green of Union, Sunday.

ling readers. Ed Lanier made us feel good this week, when he stated that every word of the Herald came nearer being read than any paper in 1000 miles of here.

Miss Jean Wood, Lubbock, will spend this week end here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Raymond Pittman.

Mrs. Hardin Joyce and mother, Mrs. A. M. McBurnett, were in this week from the Pool community, to renew for the Herald and Star-Telegram.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Busby spent Thanksgiving in O'Donnel with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Busby and Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Womack.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Quante and son, O'Dell, returned Friday from a deer hunt in the Davis Mts. They both got their deer.
