

Should We Have Old Settler's Reunion?

Ben Hurst, manager of the Cicerro Smith Lumber Co., Wellington, and old settler of Terry county, sends in his dollar-fifty this week, and wants to know if we are going to have an old settlers reunion here this summer. What do you think about it?

As new as this county is, anyone who has been here 20 years would be classified as an old settler, and from that on up to 35 years or better, at the time of or before the county was organized. Ben was here before organization, but that old red-faced, sandy-haired yap don't look much older than that, although he was grown at that time.

We would like to have the reaction of some of the other old timers, however, before we say too much, for it will take some real cooperation to put the stunt over. But wouldn't you just like to lay your eyes on some of the old chaps that were here many years ago, and talk with them just a few minutes?

A date sometime in July or August could be arranged, and a beef barbecued, and together with pickles, bread, coffee, and perhaps cakes and pies furnished by the ladies, need not cost us a great deal.

Some of you old Terryites, who have lapped sand for the last 20 years or more, say something, but don't all speak at once. We are not setting any arbitrary date on the time people came here, but 20 years would catch all that drifted in with the building of the Santa Fe railroad in 1917.

To The Citizens of Terry County

I am announcing my candidacy for the office of Tax-Assessor and Collector of Terry County, Texas, subject to the Democratic Primaries in July.

In asking for this office I feel that I am fully qualified to perform the duties of Assessor and Collector. I received my grammar and high school education in the public schools of Brownfield, and attended John Tarleton College at Stephenville for two years. For the past nine years I have been regularly employed in Terry County doing general accounting work.

I was born and reared in Terry County, am thirty years old, married and have two children. I intend to see every voter in the County before the election.

I will appreciate any and every consideration given me in this race, and if elected, will perform the duties and responsibilities of the office to the utmost of my ability.

Respectfully yours,
J. Virgil Burnett

These girls assured us that it was really worth seeing. It is to be staged at their community auditorium next Friday night, the 19, 8 p. m., at Tokio.

Banks Show Gain In Deposits Since Jan. 1

Generally speaking, the two banks of Brownfield, the First National and Brownfield State, show their greatest amount on deposit around the first of the year when crop harvest is in full swing, or just over. But this time, there is an increase of more than $400,000.00 in deposits since that time, which shows that several things have happened to account for this perhaps.

One of them is the increase in population in the area; the increase in population of people in the several oil pools near us, who do their banking here, and the natural increase in wealth of the citizenship of the section. There may be other reasons, but these are surely facts that cannot be denied.

There is only one item that is shy of the December 31st call, and that is cash available, which shows a decrease of $33,894.84, from the high at that time of $1,262,952.61. This is accounted for in that loans have increased $202,740.93, to $691,408.70, as of March 26th. This of course is a combined statement of the two banks in all figures used.

On the other hand, the total resources have risen from $1,787,124.29 three months ago to $1,836,151.51, March 26th, an increase of $49,027.22. In the same period the deposits have increased from $1,836,493.15, Mar. 26, an increase of $28,104.56 to $1,668,828.81, an increase of $40,724.35. At the present time the combined statements show the following:

Resources	$1,836,493.15
Cash and Exchange	1,209,057.77
Loans	691,408.70
Deposits	1,668,828.81

Is Pete Getting Old And Forgetful?

A week or so ago, we reminded Pete Pope down at Alvarado, that he was letting his Herald run arrears. Now Pete was being a reader for years, owns some land out in west Terry, and we hated like ripe to lose his dollar-fifty per annum, whether he likes the Herald or not.

So, in a few days, here comes the card back in an envelope with the notation, "Here is the $1.50, Jack." But there was no sign of a check, bill or money order there-in, so we just sent the card back with the notation: "Nothing found."

It just so happens that a friend of Pete's saw him open the rejoinder and read the card. This friend told Pete that he had suspected a gradual drift into a state of senility on Pete's part for some time, and that proved it.

But Pete didn't forget the check the last time.

Seeing What School Lunch Room is Doing

Tuesday of last week Mrs. A. J. Stricklin and Mrs. Money Price were lunch guests of the school lunch room. Mrs. Stricklin is a frequent visitor and has been a staunch supporter of the lunch room since its beginning having contributed food supplies on several occasions, the past week gave twenty pounds of pinto beans.

Mrs. Price gave us twenty lbs. of home cured meat to season with and will send in peaches for pies.

The lunch room management wishes to thank all who have been so generous with their contributions of food and dishes, also to those who have given cash donations. We invite you to see just what we are accomplishing.

Quoting Mrs. Stricklin, "I have never seen such improvement in children in such a short time, not only in weight, but their color has cleared, their hair has more sheen, showing their bodies are better nourished, and they don't have that listless expression that most of the under-nourished ones had at the beginning, in fact you have a new bunch of happy children, they seem to have taken on new life."

Praise for the work we are doing, coming from one who has kept in close touch with the work makes us feel that the day the lunch room was put in operation was a red letter day for the ones that were responsible for its beginning.

Each school day we feed from 160 to 190, however, we feed more, but that is our average.

Crosley Salesman Notes Eating Habit Change

John Chisholm of Chisholm Hardware, and local selling agent of Crosley Shelvador refrigerators, stated recently that the widespread introduction of quick frozen foods is perhaps one of the most important developments of recent years so far as the average housewife is concerned.

"This change in eating habits—where it is possible to have fresh strawberry shortcake or fresh cherry pie in the winter and fresh peas and asparagus whenever they are desired—make it necessary that the household refrigerator be of a type that will permit the correct storage of such goods," he said. "The Crosley Freezorcold Shelvador Refrigerator provides the perfect answer. Only Crosley has the Freezorcold and the miniature cold storage plant that stores frozen foods, freezes fresh meats, game, poultry and fish.

"Of course, the Crosley Shelvador is already famous for making and keeping the ice cream and desserts as well as an abundance of ice cubes at all times and in every kind of weather. The heart of the Crosley Shelvador refrigerator is the Electroavac, aptly named, for it saves a lot of electricity, providing the maximum of refrigeration at the minimum of cost.

City To Issue $90,000 Bonds For New Engine

The City Council met Wednesday night for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of about $90,000.00 in revenue bearing bonds for the purpose of purchasing a new engine for the power plant of sufficient capacity to care for the city power and light for several years to come, even with the present rapid growth.

As we understand it, these bonds will be paid for out of the earnings of the plant in the next six years at $15,000 per year, without any increase in taxes. City authorities say this can easily be done, with some economy in other departments, with present sale of power and light, not taking into consideration the inevitable increase in the use of electricity here.

The people of Brownfield are proud of their power and light plant. It has meant a great saving in taxes to the people, we having one of the lowest tax rates of any city in the state. Not only that, but we get a rate in line with towns with large utility companies that have the franchise. Lubbock has some cheaper rate, but they have both a city owned and a utility plant. And Lubbock, like Brownfield, has a very low city tax rate.

But, the local plant must be kept up-to-date, and with sufficient power to take care of any and all needs. With dozens of new homes tying in each month, as well as new business firms who are using juice, an increase of engine power at the plant becomes imperative.

Tillage

By Odell Spears, FFA Reporter

"Therefore Jehovah God sent him forth from the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken." The man with the hoe is pictured by the artist and sung by the poet as fulfilling in toil the curse upon the ground. Yet the tiller of the soil by his every act evidences faith in the further promise that there shall be a seedtime and harvest. He knows that upon his skill depends the abundance of the harvest, and he has contrived to lift the burden of toil by utilizing the intelligence with which he was endowed by his Creator.

The first practice of the art of soil tillage marks the beginning of civilization. In its most primitive form, the primary object of tillage was to subdue or destroy the native vegetation in order that the desired plant might fully develop from its competition. To destroy competing vegetation is still one of the primary objects of tillage in its most highly developed form.

The first tools were crude chopping or digging implements of wood, stone, shell, or bone, depending on the material available. The area that could be tilled was sharply limited. The second stage of tillage came with the application of the power of domesticated animals to the task. It was now possible to substitute a steady forward movement of the tillage implements for the successive chopping or spading motions of the hand implements. The crooked-stick plow to stir the soil and the brush drag to smooth and fine the surface, to kill small weeds, and to cover the seed became standard implements, and their use greatly extended the ability of man to produce a sufficient food supply.

In the further developments of tillage practices, the fundamental purposes and methods have remained unchanged, but efficiency has increased through the developments of implements. The sprink shanked field cultivator is the modern steel prototype of the crooked stick plow of the ancients. The development of steel has made possible the sharp cutting edges and the curved and polished surfaces with which all soils may be cut, stirred, or turned in any way that may be desired. The straight line movement of the drag and plow has been supplemented with the rotary movement of such implements as the disk and the rotary hoe. Finally, there has come the substitution of mobile mechanical power for animal power. This, with modern machinery for tilling the soil and harvesting the crops, has so multiplied the power of man to subjugate the soil to his needs for the necessities of life as to release untold energies for other activities.

Johnson School Play Put On Tonight

On account of rainy, muddy weather last Friday night, the Johnson P.-T. A. play, "Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost," was moved up to tonight, April 12. This is said to be a mighty good play, and one that will hold your attention from start to finish. You will get your money's worth, and at the same time get many thrills.

That Grand And Glorious Rain

That grand and glorious rain that we have been looking for several weeks, has not gone with the Wind, but came with it—plenty of it—wind we mean. The Herald crew worked until 3 a. m. Thursday night getting out the paper, and that time it was lightning in the east. So the rain started after we hit the hay sometime.

According to the government gauge here, 1.85 inches was recorded, which put a fine season in the ground, as it fell slow and none ran off in creeks, if we had any creeks. Farmers and ranchmen are rejoicing.

But it blew off four square feet off the back of the Herald office roof, and next morning (late) when we came down the office was not leaking, it was pouring in, mostly on the linotype. But that faithful old Merg. is turning out slugs as usual this week after its wetting.

FREE FLOWER EXCHANGE IN RANDAL BUILDING

The building formerly occupied by the bowling alley, on the west side of the square has been offered by Mrs. John Randal, owner, as the place to hold the Maids and Matrons annual free flower exchange, Saturday 13.

The exchange had several thousand plants last year, and not near enough to last the day, so if you have any plants at all, even just a few, it will help out and may be just what the other party wants. If you can bring your plants to the designated place it will be a great help to the committee, who will have to separate and tag, but if you can't, phone some one of the following committee: Mmes. Money Price, Herman Heath, W. M. Adams, T. L. Treadaway or Mrs. Mon Telford.

BUILD TWO NICE RENT HOUSES

Our old friend J. F. Winston was a very pleasant caller at the Herald office this week and informed us that he and Mrs. Winston were doing their bit toward relieving the housing shortage. They finished two strictly modern nice homes just one-half block east of the Lubbock highway in northeastern Brownfield, Saturday afternoon and tenants moved in Sunday.

Mr. Winston stated that he could have rented several more if he had had them.

Mr. Winston has been a reader and booster of the Terry County Herald for better than thirty years and we hope he may enjoy it many, many more years.

2000 Passenger Car License Sold

Sam White, deputy tax collector says we got things kinder balled up last week that caused him to have to do some tall explaining. We said they had sold 1184 tags up to that time, but the linotype made us miss it 600! it should have been 1784.

This was up to and including April 1. Up to Wednesday this week they had sold an even 2000 passenger licenses, which is 380 more than had been sold to the same date last year.

2 Terry Wildcats Are Nearing Completion

The wildcat oil well in northwest Terry, offset from the Hockley county fields, was down about 4700 feet Monday, and drilling in lime. Like most wildcats as well as in absolutely proven areas, little is known about the showing.

The one in south Terry, offset from the Cedar Lake area, was also down about the same distance, and looking good. They had a split joint of pipe which had to be repaired before finishing that well.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Edwards were Tahoka visitors Monday.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Herald is authorized to announce the following candidates for the office to which they aspire, subject to the Democratic Primary Saturday, July 27, 1940.

- FOR CONGRESS, 19TH DIST. George Mahon, re-election. FOR STATE SENATOR Alvin R. Allison Marshall Formby...

FOR CITY OFFICES We are authorized to announce the following candidates for city offices of the City of Brownfield...

From about 2:30 to 5:00 p. m., Sunday, a drive up and down our streets revealed that a considerable portion of our population was out in the open with smoked glasses focused on the sun...

You have heard of "snakes in people's boots," perhaps, but have you ever heard of a cemetery being so infested with these reptiles that people were warned to watch for them when visiting the city of the dead?

No one perhaps was surprised when they saw the announcement of Congressman George Mahon for re-election in last week's papers. The surprise would have been that he failed to announce. George has been our faithful servant in Congress for the past six

LAHEY

Prospects look good after the fine rain we had over the week end. Maybe there won't be so many sand storms now. Everybody enjoyed the weiner roast Saturday night at the school house...

We want to urge all the people around Lahey to share their help to our new president of the league. He is Wallace Cox and really a good one. He is going to build our community up in a big way.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Cheek of Levelland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ballard, Saturday of last week. They were enroute to Lovington to visit Mr. Cheek's parents.

Mrs. Tillman Stitt and children of Seattle are here visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Sawyer and other relatives and friends. She is the former Miss Christova Sawyer.

Our old friend and bi-annual politician, Thomas B. Love, of Dallas, has written in that a "Third Term" organization has been formed with himself as secretary, and no other officers—yet. Which leaves us to wonder how many were present at the formal launching of the move.

Eight years is a long time for one officer to trail a criminal, but the "born to be" officer never gives up the trail until they have their man. To the general run of folks when nothing shows up for a period of six months or a year, the crime and criminal are forgotten, and new crimes and criminals take their places in the headlines of the paper...

We are just now discussing what some term impertinent questions asked by the census takers. We might add that the time has come when school boards are going to have to ask prospective teachers if they are to any degree saturated with the several and various 'isms' of Europe, facism, nazism, communism, etc.

Another sure sign that spring is here again, is the annual crop of "rabbit drives." Farmers don't seem to mind the jacks and cotton-tails living off the waste from their feed lots in winter, but they just won't put up with their eating their green grass in spring. So, the rabbit drives are organized, the old shotguns cleaned and oiled, shells are purchased, and—boom! bang! blooy! and the kill-fest is on.

years, we believe, and during that time, has not only won the respect of his constituency, but members of the Congress and administration. His services are in demand, as well as his advise and council in both his district and national capitol.

PARTNERS IN A GREAT TEXAS ENTERPRISE

Oil

TEXAS farmers and ranchers received last year from oil men the huge sum of $132,478,000 for leases and royalties as their share in this partnership.

All but seven of Texas' 254 counties now share in this cash return from leases and production on more than 50,000,000 acres of Texas land.

Then, too, the Texas farmers and ranchers sell to oil workers and their families more than $60,000,000 worth of farm and livestock products each year.

Thus the farmers and ranchers of our state receive nearly 200 million dollars a year as their share of oil's total expenditure of 750 million dollars annually in Texas. These 200 million dollars in turn flow into every channel of Texas trade.

The Texas farmer and rancher and the oil man are partners in the development of Texas.

In This Corner

Nothing is really work unless you would rather be doing something else.—Sir James Barrie.

Right now we would rather be planning a summer vacation than filling "This Corner", we have in mind Old Mexico, the most popular of all vacation spots for students and sightseers who really want to see natural beauty . . . We were at the San Luis Potosi Agua Caliente and Tampico a long time ago, but can still vision the exotic flowers, beautiful parks and inspiring missions of San Luis Potosi and the boiling geyser of Agua Caliente; also San Dieguito with its myriad of vari-colored parrots and birds, sugar cane and tomato fields; with its oranges, grapefruit, bananas and limes growing wild—then Tampico, situated on a river made picturesque by flat top boats laden with vari-colored flowers and vegetables and rowed by Mexicans with their big sombreros and bright colored serapes—it's wide plazas and market squares, with their beggars, makes one feel they must be seeing the lands of Sinbad the Sailor. The nineteen mile trolley ride to the Gulf and the skulls of victims of the yellow plague bleaching in the sun, uncovered by the wind. So many people died they had no time or means to bury their dead. They just dug trenches and had mass burial.

Mexico is the land of lovely old Catholic churches with their altars inlaid with precious stones . . . well, anyway we can plan a rocking chair trip and dream of the times that were.

A perfect family combination: The affable Arthur and lovely Mrs. Arthur Sawyer and vivacious Miss Queenelle, an outstanding graduate of Texas Tech and at present home from Boulder, Colorado, for a much-needed rest. Everyone loves Arthur, Irene and Queenelle.

One of the most patient persons we know of is Claude Bryant. Seriously burned, more than a year ago in an explosion in the Bryant and Perry welding shop. Friends say he has never lost his ready smile and is cheerful even though he as yet cannot walk and will probably be months before he can. He is at present at home to his many friends at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. L. M. Perry, in west Brownfield.

Our mother, who lives in Redlands, California, frequently sends us copies of the Redlands Daily Facts in which there are things she knows we are interested in and in their "Of Interest to Women," we read of a "Mad Hatters Luncheon," and we just thought if we had one what fun it would be to wear some of the hats that were made here in the years gone by before we had store hats—we know they would be equally novel and amusing—old hats, futurist hats and hats with a history.

MRS. RUTH MOORE TO REVIEW "DECADE" A NOVEL BY STEPHEN LONGSTREET

They called him "an immoral, blasphemous old pirate"—but he was of the stuff of which America is made!

He was a giant left over from the earlier days, he'd sailed clipper around the Horn and mined gold in California, and finally he built a business that reached half way around the world . . . he'd watched his family grow and spread out, and he'd seen some of his children grow soft with too much ease of living and others show the same rugged strength he gloried in himself . . .

And then suddenly, the world he'd done so much to build came tumbling down . . . the values of a lifetime vanished overnight . . . and John Rowlandson, the "Old One," decided that it was time to come out of his Hudson River castle and fight for his family, and for the thousands who worked for him and looked up to him.

The public is cordially invited to hear this book review by Mrs. Ruth Moore at the Methodist church, Tuesday, April 16 at 4 p. m. There will be no admission fee but the club would appreciate a small silver offering or a book for the library.

The meeting is under the auspices of the Maids and Matrons club, and this alone puts the stamp of approval for the public, come and hear about the old man. "There were many women in the "Old One's" long life.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Spring weather is improving the Sunday school attendance and the objective for next Sunday is four hundred present on time.

The building is progressing and on schedule and only three more Sunday services are expected to be held at the school building before the opening of the new building which is expected to be Sunday, July 5th and this is exactly the time in which $4700 in additional funds are needed to finish and furnish the building in addition to the loan being secured.

If you have been expecting to make this enterprise an offering and expect your name and the amount of your contribution to be placed in the corner stone and perhaps not to be opened for fifty years, the time is short.

All services as usual next Sun. The WMU will meet in circles for their industrial day.

Next Monday 8 p. m. the Brotherhood will have their regular monthly meeting and bring their program as usual. These Brotherhood programs are interesting as the men talk more freely with men only and if you have not been in attendance you are invited.

We extend a cordial invitation to all not studying the Bible elsewhere Sunday at 9:45 to be with us and urge every teacher to make the best preparation with the helps in your hands.

SCHOOL ELECTION LIGHTER THAN CITY ELECTION

You'd think that the people of Brownfield Independent school district care little about their school, if you take into consideration the thousands of dollars invested in buildings, the near 40 teachers, and some 1200 students. Then a measly 24 ballots are cast in the election Saturday. But we shall be the last to swear at the slackers — we'uns were among them.

Here is the lineup, however. Three trustees were to be elected, they were already on the board, and the people were satisfied with them. Then too, people were so busy talking about the good rain that they forgot the election.

The three lucky (?) men were: D. B. Gordon, C. E. Ross and W. B. White.

Mrs. Tom Anderson of Lubbock is spending the week end with Mrs. R. N. McClain and others.

Mrs. Roy Bradshaw of Fort Worth visited her sister, Mrs. L. Nicholson, this week.

Mrs. Clifford Atkinson visited her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Atkinson in Lubbock, last week end.

H. E. Holleman of route 3, is sending the Herald to his sister at San Antonio. She liked Terry while out here visiting her brother last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Davis of Tahoka, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Spencer Kendrick and Mr. Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Youree and daughter Maurine, of Lubbock, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McDuffie, Wednesday.

Delbert Swindle, who is employed at Hobbs, spent the week end here with friends.

Plans are complete for the annual conference of the 14th district of Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers. The conference will be held at Lamesa April 11-12.

Truman Zachary, who has been making his home here, recently accepted a position with the Curtis candy company and has been in Chicago this week in regard to the new connection He will likely locate in Stamford and his family plans to go there when school is out.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Line and children spent Sunday in Denver City visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy De. Busk and Mr. De Busk.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hancock visited relatives in Lawton and Altus this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ray and sons, Jack and Joyce, and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Beck, of Allred visited Horace Beck, Wednesday. The Ray family has returned from California to make their home in Texas.

Homer Lasiter has moved to the Tokio section, and ordered his paper sent there.

T. S. Day, Tokio, has recently been added as a new reader.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Self were called to Clovis, Thursday because of the illness of his mother. They returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Sam Gardner and family of Ropesville were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Griggs, Sunday.
