A Statement From Pierce Brooks

DALLAS, August 8.—Pierce Brooks, candidate for Railroad Commissioner will co-operate to the fullest with Governor W. Lee O'Daniel in his plans to co-ordinate Texas resources with the National preparedness and defense program. Brooks sent the Governor a telegram in which he pledged him whole-hearted cooperation as soon as he take office on January 1.

"I feel that Texas, producing half the Nation's oil, has a very important spot in the preparedness picture," Brooks said. "As the chief executive of Texas, Gov. O'Daniel will take the lead in coordinating the great resources of Texas with Federal plans. As a public official I shall carry out the pledge I made in the beginning of my campaign to lend my fullest co-operation to him in this work.

"The time has come in Texas and in the Nation when professional politics must be laid aside and all of us must work for the common good regardless of former political alignments.

"This is no time when the public should be worried about who the next Chairman of the Railroad Commission may be, or who will hold a majority on the three-man board. It is immaterial who the Chairman is. It is purely an empty honor. The majority vote on the commission ought always to be in favor of the general welfare of the people. That's where my vote will be cast every time. When Col. Thompson is right I will vote with him. When Jerry Sadler is right I will vote with him. When, in my opinion, either or both of them are wrong I will vote against them. My obligation will be to the people, and to no politician. I will do my duty on the Commission independently and without regard to the political fortunes of any man or any clique which may desire control of the Commission."

Real Old Timers Visit Herald Office

J. A. Hartfield will be remembered by many of the old timers who were here 30 odd years ago. He lived in the Gomez community and was a noted corn raiser at that time. Also at that time there was a bounty of 3c each on rabbits (their ears counted) and he killed 38 coming into church one night.

Well, this gentleman called for a short time Wednesday afternoon, and stated that he lived in Harrison county near the Louisiana line. He was accompanied by his daughters, Mrs. C. R. Mayes of Seminole, and Mrs. H. Hisey and little daughter Martha Nell of Huntsville, Tex. Just up from Seminole looking up the old timers that are left, he stated. He lost his companion about two years ago.

A Statement From Olin Culberson

ALVARADO, Aug. 8.—"I can get along with the governor and any other honest man," Railroad Commission candidate Olin Culberson told a Johnson county audience at the Old Settlers' Reunion here Wednesday.

Culberson, introduced by Dr. J. T. Campbell, chairman of the reunion, pledged his efforts toward a more harmonious and cooperative railroad commission when elected.

"By making every effort to support all constructive and progressive programs offered for the best interest of Texas and Texans, I believe a split railroad commission can be made a thing of the past," Culberson declared.

The candidate returned to the scenes of his boyhood here where his parents had taught in the Johnson County school before establishing the Culberson School in Hillsboro.

"The vast majority of Texas voters will endorse my platform for honest, capable and fair administration of railroad commission affairs because they will not tolerate either having public office bought nor held through political favoritism," Culberson said. "The primary campaign proved once and for all that even unlimited money and political trickery of the smoothest sort cannot stampee enough of the voters into electing an unqualified candidate."

Culberson expressed gratitude to Johnson County Citizens for the plurality given him and pointed out the impressive majorities given him in Hill and Jackson counties where he has lived most of his life.

"It will be my policy on the railroad commission to work for harmony and cooperation not only on the commission itself but with other departments of government in order that the most efficient service may be had in these times of preparedness and industrial uncertainty," Culberson added.

Jaycees, Wives, Attend Amarillo Meet

According to Vernon Brewer, local Jaycee secretary, two of the most important resolutions adopted at the regional meeting of region 6 of the organization held at Amarillo Monday, were, in effect, to change beginning of fiscal year of organizations in region 6 to July 1 and to request State Legislature to prohibit anyone from teaching in state supported schools and institutions who subscribes or belongs to subversive activities or elements in any form, and to drop any state employees from the payroll who belongs to any subversive group.

Those attending from here were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Christopher, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Kendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Glover, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey, Gene Hurt, Bud Gillham and Vernon Brewer.

Besides the business meeting, a dance and banquet was held. Next regional meeting will be held at Lubbock in October.

While at Amarillo, Brewer secured the services of Binford Arney, state president, as principal speaker for the stag banquet which is to be held at the Cocanougher Cafe August 13.

Soil Conservation Ser- vice Conducts Tour For Terry Farmers

Early Tuesday morning a party of fourteen people in three cars left here on a tour of inspection of the Soil Conservation project which lies within the camp area of the Littlefield C. C. C. camp. Those who made up the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stevens, Mrs. T. G. Sexton, J. L. Millsap, W. G. McDonald, L. J. Hollers, Wood E. Johnson, C. J. Bonham, all well known in Terry county farm circles, and: R. N. McClain, County Agent; Dennis Q. Lilly of the Farm Securities Administration; B. W. Carmichael, Conservationist in charge of Water Facilities Area, E. R. Steen, Assistant Soil Conservationist; E. E. Reynolds, Area Soil Conservationist who had charge of the party, and Jack Stricklin, jr. Mr. Reynolds is located in Lubbock. The rest of the party reside in Brownfield and Terry county.

The group was met near Whiteharrell by A. B. Chapman, Camp Superintendent of the Littlefield C. C. C., and Hobart Wallin, C. C. C. agronomist. At this point the party left the highway and drove through that portion of the camp area that lies south and west of Littlefield. We might add here that the camp area is the territory lying within 25 miles of Littlefield. About the first land under cooperative agreement that we saw was some belonging to Tom Cobb. It seems that Tom is the pride of the whole Camp area as he has cooperated with them in every service they have to offer. Tom has both pasturage and land under reclamation. His tracts which are devoted to agriculture have been terraced and the rows are laid out to take advantage of the contour of the land. The whole tract has been strip-cropped alternately with feed stuff and cotton and border planting. Extensive tree planting has been carried out. Tom's pasture has been ridged in order to check excessive run-off of rain water, a dam and stock pond is under construction and he is cooperating with the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission and the Soil Conservation Service in a game demonstration.

The party dined in the city of Littlefield and after dinner, the party inspected projects lying north, east and south of Littlefield. A farm belonging to M. F. Klattenhoff, who lives in Slaton, but also has land in Terry county was among those seen in the afternoon.

Due to the fact that Lamb county has not been nearly as fortunate as Terry in receiving rainfall this year, crop conditions in that county were far below those of Terry county and consequently the whole demonstration was shown at a great disadvantage but the entire party readily took this under consideration and it is believed that all were in agreement that Terry county farmers are extremely fortunate in receiving the offer of cooperation in a similar program.

That Lamb county people believe in such a program is shown in the fact that the Service has on file some 300 cooperative agreement contracts covering approximately 115,000 acres and has more applicants on the waiting list than they can possibly take care of. Also, 95 per cent of the farmers in the county, whether they have an agreement contract or not, are practicing soil conservation in varying degrees.

Hackney and McCord In District Runoff

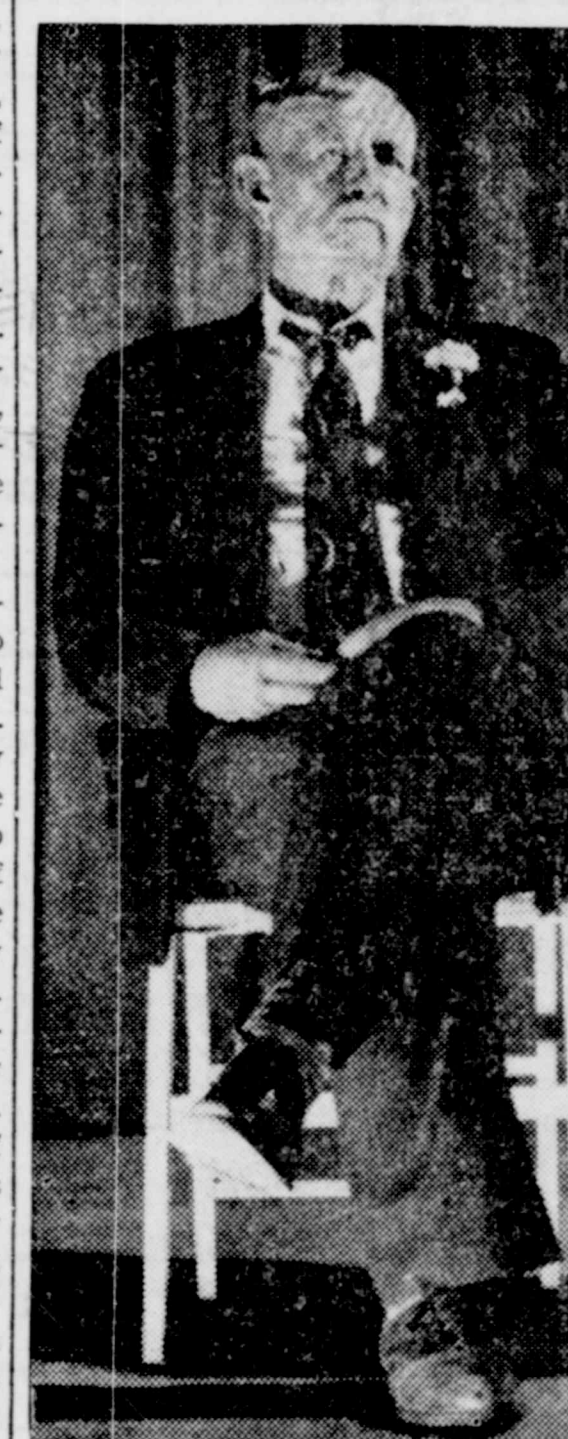

The official count sustained the talk on the streets last week that there had been a mistake of four votes in Lynn county in favor of Burton G. Hackney of this county, putting him three votes in the lead of Alton Freeman of Gaines county.

So, the race will be contested between Hackney and Rollin McCord of Lynn county, both being young men and at present county attorney of their respective counties. It promises to be a horse race, as both are well known over the district.

Mrs. Shorty Brown of Seminole visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McPherson, Tuesday.

"Put On Your Old Grey Bonnet"

Fifty years is a long time for a man and woman to look across the table at each other, but not a few do. In the olden days it was the rule rather than the exception, if both parties lived that long. But in this day of Hollywood fashions, they could have had a score or more of mates in that time and not half tried. Last Saturday, two of our pioneers, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Walters finished the fifty years and both seem to be going strong. Perhaps the Diamond Wedding is in store for them. From 1890 to 1940 is a long time.

MR. AND MRS. F. E. WALTERS

Somewhere about 1861, F. E. Walters was born in the good state of Illinois, and a few years later a little lass was born in Kansas. At manhood, F. E. was also a citizen of the suflower state, and they met, liked each other, and the parson hitched them for keeps. And Frank said Sunday that one time was enough, and he'd have no mock second second ceremony. Soon there was a child, then others, until there were 10, and later there were grandchildren, 19 being born with one death during infancy among the grandchildren, the first and only death in the family. There is now a great-grandchild.

The Walters family moved to the Rio Grande Valley at San Benito about 1910, but moved to Terry county in 1913, and this has been the home since. Here the children all grew to maturity and married, all making good, law-abiding citizens. To make it more convenient for all the children, the celebration took place Sunday instead of Saturday. About 37 plates were set at noon Sunday at the Cocanougher Cafe for the big feed. The program took place Sunday

Work Progressing Nicely on Kendrick Home

Work is progressing nicely on the $12,000 home of R. M. Kendrick, president of the First National Bank. When this home is completed, it will be the finest thing in the way of a residence in the city.

We suggested to R. M. recently that we wouldn't mind waging a cold drink that it would cost him more than that when completed. His answer was, "it had better not." But we have built two or three homes, and they always cost more than the estimate.

The good lady will have to be there more than R. M., and look after it, and keep it in prime condition, and if she wants this little dodad and that little gigad, R. M. will just do like all other men, "put up and shut up."

Mrs. Howard Swan are the parents of a boy, born Sunday, August 4.

afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Venetian auditorium, at which some 85 old friends called and registered. They were served cake and punch by some of the lovely daughters and granddaughters before the program started, which in itself was fine. Homer Winston was chosen as master of ceremonies. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, Mr. and Mrs. Walters leading, and the children marched by two's up to the front of the auditorium. Frank was called on for an address, and let us say that we heard several remark that Brownfield has at least one good after dinner speaker. But he had to remove his quid of gum to put on his song. The seven sisters gave two songs, "Love's Old Sweet Song," and "When You and I Were Young," Mrs. Dallas accompanying.

There were readings by the following grandchildren, Betty Snodgrass and Marvanell Snodgrass, a song by Connie Ray Lloyd, and a clarinet solo by Billy Smith. A very appropriate poem for the occasion was read by Mrs. W. A. Bell. Miss Ola Belle Brown played and sang, "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Gene Hurt with his own accompaniment on the guitar sang a medley of old time songs. In the Sweet Bye and Bye was then sung by the audience, completing the program.

The children here for the affair were, Chester Walters and family, Houston; Mrs. Belton Howell and family, Tahoka; Mrs. Clifford Dickson and family, Lubbock; Mrs. Bill Smith and family, Ruidoso, N. M.; Mrs. Pete Kyle and family, Ft. Sumner, N. M.; Earl and family, Seagraves; Lorn and family, city; Mrs. Ethel Snodgrass and family, Lubbock; Mrs. Charles Brown, Socoro, N. M.; Mrs. Owen Short, Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Walters received a large number of appropriate gifts.

Heath and Lilly Re- turn From Havana

Heram Heath and Dennis Lilly, representing the local Lions Club, returned last week from Havana, where the Lions International Convention met. They drove from here to Miami, Florida, then took a boat to Havana. Glad they didn't carry their car on the boat, as there are absolutely no traffic rules in the Cuban city.

They report a fine time, and a great convention, and that Havana, while quite modern in some ways, was unlike the U. S. in many other ways, and more like Europe. Dennis brought back a Havana daily mostly in Spanish, but some of the ads were in English. We noted many American products that are well known in our own dailies and even weeklies, such as the Norge and Zenith radios, advertised, as well as many others.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swan are the parents of a boy, born Sunday, August 4.

'Friends Elected Me,' Says Formby

"My friends elected me!" This was the statement issued at Dickens this week by Marshall Formby who on July 27th was nominated State Senator of the 30th District on the Democratic ticket. Judge Formby, serving his fourth year as Dickens County Judge, defeated Alvin R. Allison of Levelland approximately 8,000 votes in the 24-county primary.

"I am deeply thankful to my friends who elected me," Judge Formby said. "A man is helpless working alone, and I shall always be thankful for my friends who came to my aid. I could not have possibly won without my friends and I am grateful to them all in this county and in this district. I ask now for the cooperation of every man, woman and child in this district to help me make the kind of a State Senator you want."

Judge Formby said he expected to visit here as soon as he catches up with his work in Dickens.

and congregation in seeking those who are lost in sin and point them to the Christ who alone can save their souls.

The church and christian community need a great spiritual uplift and may have it if they will surrender themselves to the will of Christ. People knowing themselves unsaved are earnestly invited to these services where Christ alone will be offered as a Savior and church membership will not be offered as a means to salvation, but will be exalted as the method used by Christ to preach His gospel to all the world.

Lions To Stage Donkey Ball Game

The Brownfield Lions will tangle with the Seagraves here Thursday night at the Cub Football field in what promises to be a really hot contest and anybody's game from beginning to end. However, we believe that the Seagraves fellows have had one game this season and should be in practice, if practice is possible in a donkey game.

The charge for admission is very reasonable, 25c for adults and 10c for children, and we'll guarantee that you'll get plenty laughs. And the money will as usual go for a good cause, benefitting the underprivileged children of Brownfield and area in many ways.
Don't miss this game.

102-YEAR-OLD CONFEDERATE VETERAN DIES

Fort Worth Press: "One of Texas' oldest Confederate veterans, Capt. W. M. Arnold, died at his home in Greenville, (Hunt county), less than two months before his 103rd birthday. A native Tennessean, Capt. Arnold had lived in Greenville for 83 years—since the days when he could stand in his parents' log cabin home and shoot deer through chinks in the walls."

"Brother" O'Daniel, as one of Ece Eye Hill's preacher correspondents calls him, had a hummingbird song during the last two weeks of his campaign, entitled, "There Ain't Gonna Be No Run-off." One of the lines stated that "they did away with the runoff when Pappy ran before," and that "the common folks of Texas are in the saddle to stay." Does that mean that "Brother" O'Daniel is perpetuating himself in the office of governor of Texas? Are we to have a Huey Long regime in Texas? We hardly think so.

While not a candidate for any office, A. E. Richards of the Meadow Star received one vote for constable and 19 for JP. Have not had an interview with Afton, and don't know whether he'll buckle on a six-shooter, or buy a lawbook or both. By the way, the Herald and the Star didn't get a smell of the Constitutional Amendment now running. This business is given out by the Secretary of State, and it of course goes to papers supporting or silent on the administration in power, and old Afton and old Jack had too dern much to say not altogether favorable to O'Daniel. Say, we'd better learn to keep our gills closed, old hoss.

The office of railroad commissioner is one of the most important of state offices. The control and regulation of two of our biggest industries rests in the hands of these three men elected by the people, that of transportation (railroads, buses and truck lines) and the huge Texas oil and gas industry. In the August runoff, you will have two men to choose from, Pierce Brooks and Olin Culberson. This week we are running their pronouncements side by side so that Terry county voters may better make choice. The Herald is supporting Culberson for the simple reason that he has worked for this commission for several years, especially in the oil fields, and knows it from A to Z, while Mr. Brooks would have to learn from the ground up. The oil industry is in its infancy in our section, and while it should be regulated, we don't want any man experimenting that might ruin or hinder development.

In one of his epistles as "The Plainsman" in the Lubbock Journal recently, old Charley Armour Guy really got off something good. We can't quote verbatim, but it was something like, "it is far better to guess how many friends you have than to pay good money to make a race and find out how few you have." We imagine friend Editor W. D. Starcher, of the Spur Times has thought of that several times since July 27th. He was in the race for County Judge of Dickens county, and received 194 votes. The other 2540 votes were divided between his three opponents. However, Editor Starcher can take heart, for he still has a good job with little pay or praise editing his paper, but it's a job. And judging others by ourselves, we have oft voted for one less a friend to us than some one else running, because we thought them better qualified. Our friendship for the other man was not cooled because we voted for the other man. We are sure Editor Starcher would make as good county judge as the other men, maybe better, but the people of Dickens county just didn't believe it.

Something happened over at the Lorenzo Enterprise office last week to make Editor Stockton Henry very pessimistic. We can't believe his daughter, just out of college, and editing the paper through the summer could get that way. Perhaps Editor Stockton got "tetch-ed" with the heat? Anyway, judge for yourself. On page one he had a big headline and a long article wherein, Hitler will be over here in full force in the next few weeks, seeking whom he may devour. On page 2, another glaring headline, and another long article, telling us that there is going to be a 50 years drought.

Welborn Anticipates A Good Business

General business in America should become better because of the momentum generated by foreign and our own Government purchasing, despite hysterical war talk, according to J. M. Welborn, head of Welborn Pontiac Co., Pontiac dealer in this city.

"Automobile companies will bring out their 1941 models this fall as usual, according to information I receive from reliable sources in the Motor City," says Welborn. "Car production will not be curtailed, and there should not be a shortage of materials for at least a year. Briefly, these are the answers that I have received to the four most general questions that are being asked by an interested public.

As to business the Pontiac dealer says, "Why should we worry about that? There is little or nothing we can do about the war. War, the very thing we hate most in this country, is making business better."

Oil Mill Men Attend Tech Short Course

LUBBOCK, July 31.—Thirty-one representatives of cotton oil mills of the Panhandle-Plains area completed the short course in Live-stock Feeding held for oil mill employees from July 22 to 25, according to W. L. Stangel, head of the animal husbandry department of Texas Technological College.

Objectives of the school, sponsored by the College at the request of the Educational Service of the National Cottonseed Products Association, were to aid oil mills in rendering more efficient service to farmers and livestock raisers of their territory. Practical feeding information was presented by College authorities to give oil mill representatives a better understanding of the principles of nutrition, livestock feeding, and the value of feeds that will enable them to cooperate effectively with County Agents, Vocational Agriculture Teachers, and other agencies assisting farmers and stockmen with their feeding problems.

FLAG SUPPLY EXHAUSTED

As further proof that Southwesterners are patriotic, jobbers in Dallas report they are unable to fill orders for American flags. Factories, running day and night, can't supply the demand.

SADDER, BUT WISER

A Dallas merchant during rush hours cashed a check without looking closely at the signature. Bank returned check as worthless. The signature was: "U. R. Stuck."

Eli Rushing of Stephenville is visiting his aunt Mrs. D. P. Lewis for an indefinite time.

E. C. Cleveland is over at Hot Springs, N. M., taking the baths. Says hello! to all friends. Hope the hot waters of the New Mexico health resort restores him to usual activities.

Among mill representatives was H. R. Belew, of this city, representing West Texas Cotton Mill.

And the Rains Came

A rain that finally measured something like nine-tenths of an inch, began falling slowly Monday afternoon and continued through most of the night, measured 82-100. There were some light showers Tuesday noon and afternoon that probably brought the total to 90-100.

From what we can gather from farmers and others, this amount was pretty general over the county, although some claimed to have received around two inches. While not as much as was desirable, it will suffice for the time, and with the cooling of the atmosphere, helped a lot. Perhaps, too, we'll have cooler nights.

Old feed and cotton, especially on the harder lands, were suffering and had begun to fire up at the bottom. This should give such feeds a new lease on life. On well cultivated lands, there was still some deep moisture, farmers state, and this will probably make it meet.

Athletic Council Elects Members

Members of the Athletic Council for the years 1946-47 have already been chosen. It has been decided, beginning this year, that from now on, members shall be selected before the first day of August, and shall be picked from the following bodies: City Council, 2 members; School Board, 2 members; Lions Club, 1 member; Rotary 1 member; Senior Chamber of Commerce, 1 member; Junior Chamber of Commerce, 1 member. The school superintendent shall also be a member of the group. Since the above mentioned bodies have given much material aid to the Athletic Department, it was believed to be no more than fitting that they be allowed to have a say in the manner in which the funds received by the department are expended.

Members of the council and the group they represent are: City Council, Marion Craig, C. J. Smith; School Board, Mon Telford, O. B. Gordon; Chamber of Commerce, T. L. Patterson; Jaycees, Pat Patterson; Lions Club, C. C. Primm; Rotary Club, L. Nicholson, and Supt. Smith.

Further, it was decided that the city secretary shall also be secretary of the Council.

Roy Moreman and son R. V. Moreman and Lad Brownfield left Sunday for a ten days fishing trip to Old Mexico.

HOMER NELSON WAS BOUND FOR HOLLYWOOD

Tother day we'uns up at the Nelson-Primm Drug store found Homer Nelson's paper published back in old Arkansas, and was perusing it. It had several ads of state officials and some of them with the picture of the candidate. We remarked to Homer that they were pretty good looking men despite the fact that they were Arkansas lawyers. But, we added, "I believe you outfavor them Homer."

"Shore, shore," says he, "I was on my way to Hollywood but decided to stop in Brownfield."

Part of every Texas oil dollar finds its way

EVERY merchant in our State—every business and professional man—every worker, shares in Texas oil's huge expenditures.

Many Texas cities with all their varied businesses and employment exist and prosper today because of oil.

Last year petroleum created a direct buying power in our state of 550 million dollars.

Of this, Texas retail merchants received 324 million dollars, landlords 44 million, utilities 38 million and professional men 22 million, while 83 million more went for insurance and savings.

This huge sum is distributed and redistributed in an endless chain of income for our State and its people.

Texas oil payrolls are over 60 per cent of all the wages paid to all Texas workers. Directly or indirectly, you get a part of your income from oil.

If you're a Texan, you're in the oil business.

FIRES MAY START FROM FISH BOWLS, ETC.

AUSTIN, August 5.—Summer's terrific heat waves bring out stories of some mighty peculiar fire hazards, reports Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner. A fish bowl, placed on a table where it could catch the full force of the sun rays, was responsible for a fire in Fredricksburg, Hall declared. He said a water bottle was held to be the cause of a blaze in Dallas.

"Of course fires from this cause are few and far between", the Commissioner explained, "but one fire is one too many."

Rotarians Believe U.S. Needs World Trade

In a discussion led by W. R. McDuffie and James F. Black, Rotarians were told last Friday that the United States would find it practically an impossibility to "live alone and like it" even in time of peace and that difficulties would be increased immensely in case we were involved in war. It was revealed that this country was lacking in bauxite, rubber and tin, which are essential in the prosecution of a war and that synthetic substitutes could not offset wartime demands, and that even in peacetime, we must keep up an active export trade to prevent an unhealthy surplus in practically every commodity we produce.

Today's program will deal with safety and health. Dr. John Turner will be in charge of the program.

Another Pioneer Crosses the Divide

With the passing last Friday afternoon of the spirit of Ben Broughton, the county is deprived of another one of the pioneer settlers that has helped the county make what it is, morally and physically. Certainly few men that we have known through life, have exerted a better influence on the community, in a quiet way, than Ben Broughton. And a more excellent family has few men and women raised than he and Mrs. Broughton, who preceded him in death some 18 years ago.

Ben has not been strong for several years, but he felt so well this spring that he started a small crop while living on the place with his daughter, Mrs. Virgil Brown, Mr. Brown cultivating most of the land. But two weeks ago, the extremely hot weather combined with a weak heart, was too much for him, and after two weeks in the hospital, he passed away, as he gradually grew weaker. He was 71 years of age, having passed the three score and ten mark.

Mr. Broughton was born in 1869 in East Texas, migrating with his parents to Comanche county in his youth. He moved to Terry county in 1903, purchasing a fine section of land just north of Gomez, and participated in the organization of Terry county in 1904, as well as the election of its first officers. With the exception of a few years spent with his children in the Odessa-Monahans section, he has made Terry county his residence. In fact it has always been home to him.

Rev. J. W. Hanks, assisted by Rev. L. C. Morrison, conducted the funeral Saturday afternoon at 2:30, at the Methodist church. A large crowd of old and new friends were present, and a profusion of flowers attested the esteem in which deceased was held. Rev. Hanks made a splendid talk, comforting to the bereaved family. A choir composed of Clyde Lewis, Judge R. A. Simms, and Mesdames Gladys Green and Harry Longbrake rendered the appropriate songs, favorites of the deceased. Mr. Lewis also sang a solo. Following the services at the church, the body was carried to the cemetery and interred beside the grave of his faithful wife. Brownfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Surviving members of the family are two boys, and three girls, all married, as follows: Ernest and Charley of Odessa, Mrs. Z. J. Clements of Quemado, Texas, Mrs. V. V. Brown of the Gomez community, and Mrs. Otis Longbrake of White Deer. All were present at the funeral.

Active pall bearers were, Crede Gore, Reuben Leach, Dewey Runnells, Happy Hudso., James Heartsill and Wiley Beasley. The flower girls were, Misses Helen Norris, Lemma Leach, Leta Leach, Ida Leach, Nellie McLeroy, Eunice Tittle, Vera Carmelius and Ruby Webb.

Honorary pall bearers were, H. D. Leach, I. H. Hudson, H. H. Longbrake, R. S. Heartsill, L. L. Blackstock, Enoch Hunter, Will Adams, W. H. Black, Joe Whitley, Will Brigrance, G. G. Gore, Frank Condra, Wes Key, A. P. Moore, C. Sears, A. J. Stricklin, John Powell, M. B. Sawyer, W. A. Fulton, W. H. Dallas, W. A. Bell, R. M. Kendrick, Pat Brothers, Lester McPherson, Geo. W. Neill, R. W. Glover, T. M. Cargill, Geo. E. Tierman, Sam Miller, all of Terry county; Mike Ralph of Odessa, and George McPherson of Post.

Crowds Increasing At C. C. Revival

The crowds have been steadily increasing this week at the church of Christ revival. The young evangelist, W. Wallace Layton of Ranger is a very interesting speaker.

Leaders of the church say that if the crowd keeps increasing as fast as the last two or three nights, seating and lighting arrangements will be made outdoors on the lawn. You are cordially invited to all services.

Misses Earlene Jones, Evelyn Jones, Twilla Graham, Wanda Graham, Mattie Jo Gracey, and Ethelda May, city, and Misses Olivia and Katherine Barrier of Seminole and Mrs. W. T. Ince of Lubbock enjoyed a swimming party in Lubbock Monday afternoon.

The Davis Travelogue

By Mrs. E. C. Davis

We drove into Baton Rouge, La. about 4 p. m. and immediately headed for the capitol building. The capitol is a huge edifice, the tallest building in the South (450 feet high), and has 34 floors. The grounds are beautifully landscaped in the center of which stands a statue of Huey P. Long. His grave is at the right of the statue. The entire garden is surrounded with Magnolia trees, many with blossoms. The 49 steps leading to the main lobby floor are in four sections; the first tier of 13 steps are the names of the 13 original states; the next 3 tiers of 13 each are the names of the states as they joined the Union; the last step of which was E. Pluribus Unum.

The lobby was magnificent with statues and paintings. They told us there were 20 varieties of marble, and stone from all over the world in the building. The doors were of bronze, cast in such a way that 8 bas relief pictures of the history of Louisiana were on each side. I had to see them all, much to the disgust of Doc and Esther. On either side of the lobby were the "House of Representatives," and the "Senate Chamber." We looked in both of them and just made the last elevator to the top of the building at 4:45 p. m. We got a grand view from the top; a bird's-eye view of Baton Rouge, the L. S. U. campus, the University Lake, the beautiful landscaped garden, the silver oil tanks to the north and the ferry boats carrying cars to and fro as there was no bridge across the Mississippi here and the mighty Mississippi river with its meanders. It was truly a beautiful sight. We saw an oil tanker flying the French flag anchored in the center of the river. We asked the elevator boy about it and he said that it was interned by the Government for the duration of the war. He said the sailors on it vowed they were not going back across the ocean to France and be taken by the Germans.

In the basement of the building was a coffee shop and dining room. In the east wing was a museum that contained all varieties of woods, textiles, naval stores, and grains and every natural resource found in Louisiana. One wall was an aquarium, and in the center of the room was a huge glass case in which was a tree, mounted with every bird found in Louisiana.

Upon reaching the main lobby again we found a throng of people coming in and messenger boys running here and there. We inquired why, and the boy told us that the Governor had called a special session of the Legislature to meet that night at 7:30 p. m. We all looked at each other and of one accord decided to stay and look on as none of us had ever attended a meeting of the Legislature. We hurried back to town for something to eat and write some cards and came back at 7:15 p. m. Such a bustle you never saw. We went first to the gallery of the Senate chamber, where we looked on for an hour. In the course of events too many motions on an insurance bill were before the house. The speaker of the Senate called a halt and the Parliamentarian and one other got out their rule books before it was straightened out. It was sure enough interesting. Then we went into the House where they were re-voting on bills already passed that had minor changes made by the Senate. They ran through them in a hurry.

At 9:30 we said "where do we go from here?" Doc said, "Let's go to Natchez, Miss." I said "I thought we were going to cross that ferry, then go to Shreveport." But to Natchez we went, 95 miles from Baton Rouge, and arrived there at about midnight. A station attendant told us to go and spend the rest of the night at Mrs. Browning's rooming house, which we did. We asked her about getting a guide the next morning to show us the beautiful homes, etc. She told us that she would call Mrs. Carroll early the next morning, that she was a member of the Natchez Garden Club and could tell us Natchez history by the hour.

At the conclusion of the meeting a dance was given in the Crystal ball room of the Herring Hotel.

Mrs. Frank Wier and daughters

Nancy and Frances Jane will leave today (Friday) for Itasca, Fort Worth and Waxahachie to visit relatives for three weeks.

At 7:30 a. m. we went to breakfast and Mrs. Carroll was waiting for us when we returned at 8:30. She was a charming person and told us a bit of the history of old Natchez. She said, "I will take you to a typical plantation home, a typical town home and 'The Auburn', a town home and the King's Tavern, the latter owned and restored by the Natchez Garden club." She told us that many of the old homes had deteriorated because of the lack of money. After the slaves were freed the people could not keep up the plantations as formerly and gradually they became poorer and poorer. She said that many of the owners of these ante bellum homes actually went hungry rather than part with their priceless possessions. To restore these homes the Garden Club started "The Pilgrimages" in 1932, charging a fee and using it for the upkeep and the restoring of furniture, etc. much of which was broken and stored in attics.

First, we drove through the sunken lanes or roads caused by erosion and trails of the Indians. These roads were overhung with beautiful moss laden oak trees and vines of all kinds. The birds were singing and one would think they were in fairy land. We soon came to the plantation home called the "Lansdowne" now owned and lived in by George Marshal and his sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. James Ward, descendants of the original owner.

SWINDLE-BROCK RITES READ AT SUNSET

Miss Frances Brock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Brock of Brownfield became the bride of Mr. Delbert Swindle, jr. of Hobbs, New Mexico, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Swindle of Tuscola at Sunset, August 3.

Rev. R. T. Breedlove, pastor of the Methodist church of Levelland performed the double ring ceremony. Vows were exchanged in the south back yard with trumpet vines as a background. Tall white baskets filled with pink and white gladiolus were placed on either side of where the wedding party stood.

John S. Powell, accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Carson, played "Silver Threads Among the Gold," a dedication to the bride's parents for their 29th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Brock were married in Sweetwater at high noon August 3, 1911. Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Smith sang "O Promise Me." Mrs. Carson played Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" (Wagner). During the ceremony Mr. Powell offered "Flower Song" and while friends were congratulating the couple, "The End of a Perfect Day."

The bride wore a white net gown with gold accents over white taffeta with sweetheart neckline and a full skirt. Her finger-tip veil was caught with baby carnations and baby breath. Her "something old" was a locket and chain which is an heirloom in the G. N. Couchman family. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of red rosebuds, white carnations, corn flowers and feverfew.

Miss Florence Brock, twin sister of the bride was bridesmaid. She wore a pink net frock over taffeta and carried an old fashioned bouquet of deep pink asters.

SOUR DOUGH RECIPE

Will Martin of Plainview, (Hale county) an old XIT ranch cook, gives the following recipe for sour-dough bread. He cautions not to be "too dern clean" if success is expected.

RECIPE
"Take flour and water with enough sugar to sweeten, so that it will ferment good within 12 to 24 hours, depending on the weather. Mix into a batter like consistency and place in a crock or jar (crock preferred) and keep covered in a warm place—not too warm. "When fermented, add flour and water so that you will have a reasonably stiff dough; knead considerably; make into biscuits, smear with grease, set aside for a time, then bake in a hot oven."

Martin said never to use all of the batter. "Leave some in the vessel, stir in more flour, a little sugar and water, and you are ready for the next time," he advises.

When It's Grape Time In Terry County

By Maretta Holloway, H. D. Ag't.

And it's that time now! Looking around for ways to take care of these grapes so that you may enjoy them all winter, Some make jelly, then some prepare the juice to make the jelly when desired, but how many utilize the left-over pulp? If interested, here is a suggestion.

Ripe Grape Marmalade: (To utilize pulp leftover from grape juice) 3 quarts strained grape pulp, 1 quart sugar.

After the juice has been strained from the grapes, force the pulp through a container, using a wooden potato masher. A potato ricer is also excellent for this purpose. An even mixture is desired. Combine sugar and grape pulp. Place in an enameled kettle and cook until thick. Fill sterilized 1/2 pint glass jars. Seal, clean, and label jars before storing in a cool, dark place.

Grape Juice—To be made into jelly at future time. Follow these steps:

1. Select sound ripe grapes of good color.
2. Remove grapes from stem and crush slightly.
3. Heat to boiling temperature to extract the pectin or jelly substance in the fruit.
4. Strain through flannel or cheese cloth bag, allowing the juice to run through freely rather than pressing. This juice which runs out freely makes the finest jelly, and the clearest.
5. Heat the juice in a double boiler, or heat to 160 degrees F. which is not boiling, as boiling

Contouring Pastures Pays In Terry

The value of contour furrows and ridges in pastures is becoming more and more evident in the summer advances, points out E. R. Steen, Asst. Soil Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service at Brownfield, Texas.

Numerous farmers of this area report increased grass growth in their pastures this year as the result of moisture having been held on the land by the furrows and ridges.

Farmers whose pastures have been treated for soil and moisture conservation observed last spring that the first green grass appeared along the contour furrows where the water had been held and permitted to soak into the soil. During the summer, they also observed that the tallest and greenest grass is growing along the furrows and that livestock usually can be seen grazing along the contours.

During heavy rains, farmers found that the furrows and ridges held practically all the water on the area where it fell. With extended periods of hot, dry weather, it can be observed that the tends to destroy the natural flavor of grapes.

6. Fill hot cleaned containers and seal at once.

7. Process in water bath at about 165 degrees F. for 20 minutes.

8. Remove bottled juice from water bath, let cool, label and store in cool dry place. Later to be made into that jelly that is Oh, so Good!

5 1/2 pounds of grapes will yield approximately 2 pints of juice.

grass along the furrows remains green while vegetation on untraced areas has a tendency to become dry and turn brown.
