Three Hundred Acres Of Melons Ripening

What is perhaps the largest watermelon field in the U. S., 300 acres, is now ripening 3 1/2 miles east of the Union school, belonging to W. J. Wingo. Mr. Wingo said Monday that he sold a few last Sunday, the first to go out of his field. He says they are not only more prolific than his 86 acres last year, but superior in quality. In fact, most melons we have seen this year are way too large for the ordinary family. One has to invite in some neighbors and friends to consume them. But maybe that is better, as we get acquainted better with neighbors over a melon feast.

Mr. Wingo has decided that one of the best ways to advertise his melons is to have about 1000 placards printed to tack on each side of a truck, and wherever that truck goes and sells melons, the people get the idea of the Wingo melon, Brownfield, Texas, in their minds, and they give repeat orders unhesitatingly. Many who have seen his field this year say it is a dandy.

Mr. Wingo stated that he was expecting one of the largest seed men in Texas up in a couple of weeks, and that this seed man had proposed to go in with Mr. Wingo on a wholesale melon seed house in Brownfield. At the time, the seed man is here, Mr. Wingo has invited the writer out to see his field.

Mr. Wingo of course is not where he was last year, but we asked him if they were raising melons on his last year's field. He stated that corn was planted there, but volunteer melons had come up all over the field, and that they had a fine melon patch there again this year.

8 Miles Paved Streets In Brownfield

With a map of the streets paved or to be paved soon, Postmaster James H. Dallas takes pencil in hand and finds that Brownfield will have when the present paving program is completed a total of about eight miles of well paved streets. Would you have thought it?

James is getting ready to supply the inspector that is due here some time this month with all the figures and statistics he can dig for a season, with the hope and expectation of getting another clerk at the post office, as well as two city carriers, one in the business district, and one in the residential district.

Mr. Dallas confided to the Herald that if he got another clerk, he would try to so arrange his work in the office that he could keep the office open Saturday afternoons. This will be a big help, not so much for the home town folks, as they can anticipate their needs in the forenoon, but to farm folks who come in after noon.

And have you noted the great display of whiskers that are being grown by the P. M. and his gang of late? Maybe you have thought they expect a wild west rodeo soon. But such is not the case. They are fixing to give the artist who is coming soon to hang the mural in the post office lobby such a surprise as that bewhiskered guy has not had in many Colorado moons.

Only trouble is that James Harley and James King should fertilize a few places as the soil in some places on their faces doesn't seem to be adapted to whisker growing.

Farmers Didn't Get Up Much Steam

The farmers of Terry, Yoakum and Cochran county seemed to have refused to get steamed up last Saturday in voting for the officers of the proposed Cochran-Terry-Yoakum Soil Conservation District. In fact, only thirty participated at Brownfield and 14 at Plains, and we understand a like measure at Morton.

But here's the reason: There were only three names on the ballot and all three of them were to be elected. There was no competition, and Texans just won't vote unless there are two or more opponents, and they must have two or three weeks of campaign thunder to get hot up. The three men elected were Lee Brownfield of this county, Fred Cox of Yoakum, and W. Smith of Cochran.

These men with Willie McDonald of this county, and W. A. Woods of Cochran appointed by the State Soil Conservation Board, will form the Board of Supervisors for the three county district. For the present the headquarters are located in Brownfield, and will be permanently located here unless the board elects to move to Plains or Morton.

Several Cases In Court This Week

District Court really got down to business this week trying civil cases. The criminal docket will come up next week. The Earnest vs. Burleson case had gone to the Jury, Wed., but there had been no decision. The Carruth vs. Walker case was being tried at that time.

Among the visiting attorneys were, Ed Burleson, Waco; Davis Scarborough, Abilene; L. E. Klef, Judge Robt. Bean and son, Robt. Jr., Lubbock; Joe Earnest and mother, Mrs. Fannie Earnest of Colorado City.

Cochran County Dry In Beer Election

Cochran county voters placed themselves in the "dry" column for the first time in several years yesterday by casting a 131 majority vote for prohibition in Thursday's beer election.

Every precinct of the county voted "dry" with the exception of the Bledsoe box which cast a 10 vote majority in favor of retaining sale of alcoholic beverages.

Great American Unites With Franklin Life

Texas Interests Assume Control of Large Company

Announcement that the major resources and business of the The

CHAS. E. BECKER

Great American Life Insurance Company of Springfield, Illinois,

was made today by Chas. E. Becker, President of both companies.

The Franklin Life is one of the prominent companies of America, operating from coast to coast in 20 states. It has done business in this state since 1898 and will now have over $65,000,000.00 of Texas business in force. The funds it holds to guarantee policies, together with those which have been disbursed since it was founded in 1884, total over $112,000,000.00.

The Great American Life was organized in San Antonio 10 years ago, and has had a phenomenal growth. The Company today has approximately $40,000,000.00 of insurance in force.

Several months ago the entire capitalization of The Franklin Life was acquired by The Great American organization and the unification program, effective today throughout the operating area of the two companies, is the result of the identical ownership. Stockholders of The Great American will also become stockholders in The Franklin through the distribution of Franklin stock on a share-for-share basis. The Great American management states that the arrangement has been developed in order that maximum economy and important tax savings may be effected.

The business of The Franklin will be increased to over $200,000,000.00 and its assets to a point in excess of $43,000,000.00. It will be the largest life insurance company domiciled in Illinois writing ordinary business exclusively.

The Franklin Life is well known in Texas and will now have about $10,000,000.00 of investments in Texas bonds, real estates and mortgages. It invests a larger portion of its funds in Texas than in any other state, and produces more life insurance in this state than in any other area. The Company's capital and surplus has been increased to over $2,000,000.00. All investments and cash now maintained by The Great American in Texas will remain in this State. In making the announcement the management states that a large amount of voluntary insurance reserves in excess of legal requirements are now on deposit in Texas.

The Great American Life will remain in San Antonio as a separate unit of the organization specializing in industrial business with a substantial capital structure and with approximately $10,000,000.00

Local Schools Open Without Fanfare

The Brownfield public schools open Monday without the least bit of fanfare, according to Supt. Emmitt Smith. There were two reasons, the main thing being that there is not sufficient room to accommodate the present scholastics and faculty with possible visitors in one assembly. Another was that after a faculty meeting, they wished to get started to work. Thus, there was no oratory.

Mr. Smith handed the Herald the following list of high school and grammar school faculty members: Vernon Brewer, high school principal and civics; Phillip James, science; Mrs. Vivian Gore, home economics; Thomas Neely, Vocational Agriculture; Mrs. Virgil Keyes, physical culture; Virgil Keyes, algebra and Geometry; John Bost, industrial arts; Mr. Edwards, English and Gr.; Aubra Nooncaster, football coach and English Literature; Curtis Barrett, history and football; W. McBrayer, Business ed.; Marietta Montgomery, junior business; Irene Adams, English; Durward Boyd, Vocational Music; William Ano, Gen. Mathematics; Reva Newsom, English, speech; Paul Peacock, Math; Mrs. Peacock, Social Science; Mrs. Elmer Brownlee, arts; Miss Maudie Fields, full time librarian.

Primary department: Mrs. P. R. Cates; Mrs. E. Smith, Mildred Fouts, Second grade; Mrs. Will Fitzgerald, Mrs. Homer Newman, Mrs. Vernon Brewer, Third grade; Mrs. Johnnie Bost, Viola Brown, Mrs. W. L. Lee, Fourth and Fifth grades; Mrs. Burton Hackney, Elmer Brownlee, Mrs. Elmer Brownlee, Mrs. J. B. Patterson.

It is possible that a course in Journalism will be offered the third period. If you are interested in this course, try to arrange your schedule accordingly.

All colleges require three credits in English; most colleges require two credits in a natural science, two credits in history, and two credits in mathematics. Some colleges will allow you to substitute two credits in foreign language for history, mathematics, or natural science. The Engineering schools require three credits in mathematics.

A course in Solid Geometry carrying 1/2 credit will be offered the sixth period of the last semester.

The Little Baby Comes Back to Teach

Some twenty years ago, the Banowsky family was our closest neighbors across the track, in the northwest part of town. They had several little fellows, the baby of which was Blanche, who used to clamber around over us when we would visit the Banowsky's.

Well, that little lassie is now Mrs. Virgil Keyes, and she is to teach Physical Education and her husband is to be Junior Coach and will teach math. Met them at church Sunday, and while we, nor other old timers would never have recognized her, perhaps, as soon as we found out who she was, the Banowsky-Benton favor stood out like a sore thumb. Welcome to Brownfield again.

Traffic Light Installed At Broadway & First

A traffic light was installed last week at the juncture of Broadway and First Street, the latter being the route of highways 51 and 137 through the city.

This was done none too soon, as that is becoming an increasingly busy corner, and as school is reopening this week, increases the hazards greatly.

of industrial insurance in force.

Branch offices and general agencies are maintained in all leading cities of Texas by The Franklin Life. Branch office of the combined organization handling business for this area is maintained at Brownfield with A. W. Turner as Special Representative.

Mr. Turner has been associated with the company for many years and has been one of its outstanding leaders. He is prominently identified with the religious, social and civic life of Brownfield.

Our Crying Need Is Some Rent Houses

An Editorial

It is really pitiful to see as well as hear of the number of people in our town almost daily, begging to rent a house fit to live in. And many of them are people who are drawing a good salary, and willing and able to pay their rent. T. L. Patterson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce informed us Wednesday that he could rent half a dozen small rent houses if he had them.

It is the chamber of commerce to which many of these would-be citizens apply to rent homes. The chamber of commerce makes no charge either to the owner or renter for placing them. If you have a vacant house, either furnished or unfurnished, phone 207. Then when it is rented, be sure to notify them.

And you local men who have more money than you know what to do with, build some houses; not large, but something you yourself would not mind living in. No time to look after them, you say. Then give an agent a job doing it for you. Lots of people will take the job and be responsible to you.

Be a blessing to the community. There was a house moved here from Seagraves, Wednesday, a nice little home, but what few houses will be moved here will not help matters. Be a patriot, and build a few little houses.

Mrs. Jewell Rentfro Goes to Wickett

Mrs. Jewell Rentfro, who has been on the faculty of the Brownfield school for the past several years, has accepted a position as principal of the Wickett, Texas, schools, which is a part of the Monahans system. She and son, Dale, left Saturday for that place, and will make their home in the teachers' quarters.

Mrs. Rentfro will be greatly missed here, as she was not alone a splendid teacher, but had the school spirit at heart, and we are sure she will prove entirely satisfactory as the head of the Wickett school. Higher grades go to Monahans. The school employs five teachers, and Mrs. Rentfro will get a considerable increase in salary.

Just before leaving Brownfield, Dale won a gold medal for putting in the most hours in Scouting. Lynn Nelson, local watchmaker, very graciously engraved Dale's name on it free of charge. By the way, the Herald will follow the Rentfro family to their new home.

Lynn County Man Shot To Death

Ernest Kirkland, 35, died shortly before midnight, Saturday, of gunshot wounds suffered a few minutes previous on the farm of H. H. Williams, 18 miles southeast of Brownfield.

Sheriff Ches Gore said a 55-year-old man had surrendered to him here. He said charges would be filed against the man.

Kirkland was a resident of the New Moore community in Lynn county.

The man who shot Kirkland helped put he wounded man in a car before coming to Brownfield. Two other men reportedly accompanied the victim.

Seagraves Newspaper Publisher Stabbed

Amos Harper, publisher of the Seagraves Reporter, was seriously stabbed Tuesday about 5 p. m. in front of the Reporter office by a Seminole man. Harper was stabbed in the abdomen, the knife penetrating his stomach.

After the stabbing, Harper was rushed to the Davidson Clinic Hospital for emergency treatment. His condition was reported satisfactory Thursday night by physicians at the hospital.

Harper's assailant was arrested early Tuesday night in Seminole and is being held in jail there pending filing charges.—Gaines Co. News.

Brownfield Should Buy Airport Site

Let's see! Looking back over the past thirty years, we find that people in general at the beginning of that period were regarding the automobile as a rich man's play thing. Hardly anyone, perhaps, outside of a trained engineer could possibly see the day when they would almost be a public necessity. When with their quick long trips of thousands of miles made in the same time we used to visit 100 miles, has almost made a universal language of Yankee brogue and Southern drawl.

In the meantime, thousands of men are at work making new wells in the ground to get more oil to make gasoline and lubes. Pretty new and convenient filling stations along the highways and streets have taken the place of the gasoline barrel in front of the hardware store that was pumped out of the barrel five gallons at a time, and put in the car. There was no such thing as a commercial truck. Where there were a few refineries in Texas, there are hundreds, and huge things at that.

Thousands of men and women right here in Texas, more than works for any other industry, are employed because of the great expansion of that industry in the past three decades. Little did we dream thirty years ago that our streets and highways would be lined with cars carrying tourists and home folks, great buses carrying passengers hither and yon, and trucks, farm and commercial, carrying on commerce from one end of the nation to the other. And now has come the tractor age of farming. War is on wheels that are propelled by gas.

Now then, let's drop ten years, and we see a very crude, heavier than air, flying machine come into notice. This machine got its greatest boost during World War No. 1. Since that date, you seldom see one of these machines just come to town to carry up a few passengers for the thrill of it. Most people who wish, have had that thrill. Now these machines are carrying passengers, mail and express not alone across the continent, but are spanning oceans in a few days that used to take weeks.

With the urge of war again, these machines are making the world air conscious, and they are going to become common as flies before long, and the town or city that has no airport or landing field will be just as old fashioned as the school that does not have a gym at this time. This is something for the town to think about. Get the land before it becomes more costly, and later develop the airport idea.

Where would we be today without our four paved highways, and the prospect of two more in a year or two? Think about this, folks. We'll admit that we had not thought much about the matter until we received a letter from our friend Terrill Isbell of Jacksonville. He put us to thinking. Of course he is an engineer, and has had experience laying out airports and would of course like to lay one out for us. But his letter was also full of horse sense from our point of view for the betterment of the community.

Would this be a matter for the chamber of commerce, the Lions, Rotary or other civic organizations to get under way? We have a live body of business and professional men here who are betting their last dollar that Brownfield is going places, and if they wake up to the importance of a landing field, it will go over.

HAYHURST EMPLOYED AS ASSISTANT COACH

Marlin Hayhurst, who has been teaching and coaching football in the high school at McCamey has accepted the position as assistant coach and math teacher in the Seminole high school. He is a graduate of Texas Tech and was a member of the Tech football team while a student there. Before going to McCamey he taught in the schools at Brownfield.

Mrs. Hayhurst will teach voice and piano here. Her studio will be in her home. Mrs. Hayhurst is a graduate of Texas State College for Women at Denton, and the Fort Worth Conservatory of Music at Ft. Worth.—Seminole Sentinel

Burglar Fails To Get The Money

The same fellow perhaps that cracked the C. D. Shamburger Lumber Co. safe about the first of August no doubt, ran out of money, and Sunday night tried the Cicero Smith Lumber Co. safe but he never got the cash drawer open, as he either got suspicious or the tear gas got too strong in there for him. Anyway, Fred Smith, manager, stated there was very little cash in the drawer, even if he had reached it.

It is also stated that Luther Jones, night policeman who has the southwest beat, saw the man from his shoulder up as he rised up above the counter, but whether or not he recognized the man is not stated. Anyway, while Luther was away notifying Mr. Smith and other officers, the burglar escaped out of a south door, using a ladder in the yard to scale the fence. But he left his tool kit, which was found.

It seems that when the burglar got into the tear gas concealed in the combination, he raised windows and turned on the air conditioner. But gas was so strong in there that Mr. Smith and officers had a hard job staying in there with all doors and windows open. And even Monday, the gas would cause one's eyes to smart.

We hope officers locate him, as petty thievery and burglary has gone on over a long period here, and it looks to everyone like it has been done by local people.

Moore Gets Contract On Magnolia Buildings

Chas. Moore, local contractor, informed us this week that he was the successful bidder on the first four residences and a 36x44 office building, to be put on the Magnolia production headquarters, site just outside the city limits on Lubbock Avenue. These are all to be built, substantial homes, costing in the neighborhood of $5,000. The manager of Magnolia stated that he wanted good, well built houses, as they are expecting to be here for 25 years to drill out known producing areas.

One of the home will have a three stall garage, and the others will have two car garages, the garages alone costing around $500 each. Mr. Moore stated that with what he got and other work under way here, he had not bid on the large Magnolia warehouse, which is being let soon, but might do so. Material is to be furnished by Mr. Moore. Two are six room houses, the others five rooms.

Two large trucking concerns have decided to come to Brownfield, we understand, being the Walker Trucking Co., and the Sam Montgomery Trucking Co. It is also believed that the Hughes Tool Co. will announce a location here in the next few days. Other concerns are reported to be very much interested.

Veterans To Hold Reunion at Fort Worth

Sam Pyeatt, local American Legion member and a member of the famous 36th division of Texas and Oklahoma troops who participated in the first World War, handed us a circular letter the past week and asked us to print what needed to be published in order that veterans who may not have gotten one, might know.

The reunion will be held at Fort Worth, October 5th and 6th, and the Texas Hotel will be headquarters. The Women's quarters with sessions to be held at Auxiliary is also preparing to put on good entertainment for the ladies division. Gen. John A. Hulen, who is president, says that it would be a great patriotic demonstration for all the veterans to have a great attendance this year, and all veterans are urged to attend. Registration fee will be $1.00 as usual, and banquets $1.00 per person, and also the annual dance Saturday night. Sam will have some more information later.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Dodge of Abilene were guests of her brothers, Walter and John Gracey and families, last week end.

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield

It is stated that the GOP press as well as the rank and file of the party were disappointed in Wendell Wilkie's opening or acceptance address. It is reported that he hemmed and hawed, repeated, sturred words and mispronounced a great many, one writer giving a list of them. Well, the Republicans can't expect their man to have the masterful "teck-neck" of our good friend of the White House, "My Frands!" Of course they were disappointed, and will be worse so November 8th.

Politics leads us to queer conclusions. The favorite political cry of 1940 was being poor. The more the candidate would holler about being poor and needing the public job, the surer his chances were of election. Being well off, or even rich, is no crime, if the wealth was honestly secured—as most wealth is created. Electing a poor man to public office does not insure that he will be efficient, or even honest, any more than electing a wealthy man insures that he will practice greed and graft. There is no substitute for character, whether it be as a private citizen or an office holder.—Canyon News.

We here and now join with the Anton News in sympathy for those who have met defeat at the polls in the past two months. We never have had the command of words to personally approach a defeated candidate and say the right thing to him, and therefore we rather say nothing. We thoroughly feel for a candidate who has worked hard, spent money and lost, even though we chose to vote for the other fellow. We even at times vote for a person that is less a friend than another person, because we think he is better qualified for the job, but we have never seen a name on a ballot that we really enjoyed scratching. All the candidates, the successful and otherwise, were very nice to us, and we congratulate the winners.

By a vote of 62 per cent to 38 per cent, according to a national Gallup poll, the American people have gone on record as opposed to sending food to people in the countries of Europe occupied by Hitler's gang. The reason of course being that they do not want to send food that might and would very likely be confiscated by Hitler for his army, which in turn would prolong the ravishment of that country, or hasten the time when that ambitious outlaw would try to invade our own country. So, despite Herbert Hoover's aim to help the Belgians again, it looks very much like we'll keep most of our food in America, and avoid high prices for our own people. Then too, one must reckon with the British navy before placing any food near Hitler's claws.

Our daughter down at Snyder is very much disappointed in her recent trip to New Orleans, Mobile and other Deep South points. She expected to hear a lot of deep south drawl, and their peculiar pronunciation of words such as "moah" for more, and "doah" for door. But she admitted that she heard a lot of "yes suhs" for yes sir. This is accounted for by the fact that the most people she met were business people, who have had to talk and wait on people from all sections of the country who tour or travel over the deep south. With the close communication now available with fast cars to most people to "See America First," there is not a great deal of difference in the language as she is spoken anywhere in America, and it is becoming less noticeable each year.

The Seminole Sentinel came out in two colors last week, being red and black, and if they had just added a touch of blue, they'd had the national colors. The celebration was of course the opening of the Seminole schools. While we grown-ups and perhaps the teachers like to make a big hula-baloo over the event, the kids themselves are not so keen for it. In fact, we have taken the trouble of casually interviewing several of the school age, from primary to high school, and have found not one sold on the idea of opening school now or any time. But this is not saying these children will make trouble, or that they will not work hard once they get in harness. Some of us grown-ups dread going back to work after a good lunch, but that is not saying we cannot perform after we do return. It is the exception rather than the rule to find a student that is really rearing for school to open. However, school is a great blessing in more ways than one. They keep the mind of the student off frivolous things, for several hours each day and at the same time that mind can be taking in things that will be advantageous in after life. America's free schools have made her great.

Editor Andy Jack Stricklin of the Terry County Herald last Friday celebrated his 63rd birthday, and his 31st as publisher of The Herald. To him go sincere congratulations for the fine job he's been doing all these years. His news columns are among the most interesting on the South Plains, and he's truly a popular character in the Texas Press.—Brownfield News

Mighty nicely said by our contemporary and competitor, and we hate like ripe to ginsany any of it, but being born on August 23, 1880, we could hardly be 63 until that date in 1943. The Star-Telegram made the same error last week in our age. Like the ladies, God bless 'em, we don't like the idea of being three years older than we really are. No, we are just Sweet Sixty.

The schools that have been designated as standardized will take a new title this year as Elementary Accredited Schools. There are eight such schools in the county. Scudday, Foster, Gomez, Tokio, Johnson, Harmony, Challis, and Pleasant Valley are in the group. Lahey is making application this year and we hope by another year the schools of Terry county will be 100 per cent accredited.

Health Unit Offers Sanitation Services

By Dr. Wm. S. Brumage, Director Five County Health Unit.

Sanitation facilities on the farm and on camping areas in our towns should be checked and made satisfactory before the arrival of migratory farm laborers for the coming cotton picking season.

The several cases of typhoid fever in this county this year have all shown a history of having lived or visited on premises which, upon investigation, were found to have unsatisfactory toilet facilities and unprotected water supplies.

An outdoor toilet which is open to flies, rats and fowls, and which is used by the visitors and migratory laborers as well as the farm family, is recognized by health authorities as a real menace to the health of the community. Such a method of disposal has been found to be prevalent in areas where typhoid fever and other filth born diseases originate.

A safe waste disposal should include the use of a fly and rodent proof privy, where a water-type system cannot be made available.

A safe water supply from the standpoint of sanitation should include a well which is sealed against water infiltration and filth at the surface and to include a covered and protected storage tank. The average farm well with no surface protection against storm water, dusts, and rodents, is potentially dangerous.

The Sanitation Department of your Health Unit in Brownfield will be glad to furnish, without charge, plans, specifications, and other information relative to a

Few Changes in 1941 AAA Program

College Station, Sept. 2.—Few changes of importance to Texas were made in the 1941 AAA program as approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Such changes as were included were based on the recommendations of the national conference of farmer-committeemen and of ranchmen held earlier in the summer.

Soil conservation and maintenance of adequate food and fiber supplies continue as the basic principles of the program, George Slaughter, chairman of the Texas state committee, declares, and still more latitude has been granted the county committees for adaptation of the program to fit local needs.

The $20 minimum payment for each farm has been continued, the chairman pointed out, and an additional $15 is available for planting trees. Thus, any farm can earn as much as $35 by cooperating with the 1941 program.

In addition, on small farms where the maximum payment is not more than $20, any part of the soil-building allowance may be earned by carrying out locally adapted conservation practices not included in the program where recommended by county committeemen. This provision will be applicable in designated areas only.

Encouraging feed production, the program provides that in areas where feed crops are not generally produced for market, any farmer may grow as much as 30 acres of soil-depleting crops without incurring a deduction for exceeding the total depleting acreage allotment.

In view of the substantial acreage reductions made by established cotton growers, not more than one per cent of the state's 1941 cotton allotment may be used for new grower allotments, a reduction of the two per cent allowed in 1940. No payments will be made for cotton produced in 1941 on allotments for new growers, Slaughter said.

Mrs. J. W. Bilbo and Miss Hazel Shirley of DeRidder, La., and Jack Sheppard of Baton Rouge are the guests of Mrs. S. A. Sheppard. Mrs. Bilbo is Mrs. Sheppard's sister. Miss Shirley a niece and Jack, her son.

Miss Oleta Cole of Littlefield was the guest of Mrs. John King, Monday.

Charley Mathis, son of Frank Mathis, suffered painful bruises when struck by a tractor, Monday.

Mrs. Vernon Brewer and son recently visited Mr. Brewer's parents at Littlefield.

Uniform Classing of Loan Cotton

College Station, Sept. 2.—All cotton used as security for government loans in 1940 will be classed by official boards of cotton examiners of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Used for the first time in 1939, this system of classing cotton will avoid any inequities among producers whose loan cotton formerly was graded by warehousemen and individual licensed classers, and only slightly more time will be required for approval of the loans, Donald L. Cothran, state AAA committeeman from Paris, points out.

The class placed on cotton by a board will be final, thus avoiding for the producer any expense or inconvenience for reclassing and for making deficiency payments for overclassing. In addition, the cost will be only 15 cents per bale as compared with the usual charge of 25 cents per bale under other procedures.

"The uniform and reliable classing by the boards will give the producer information of value in negotiating with buyers for the eventual sale of his equity or his cotton," the state committeeman said. "The increased value of such classing will more than offset any inconvenience arising from the additional time needed."

On delivery of cotton to the warehouse for the Commodity Credit Corporation loan, samples will be drawn by the warehouseman and shipped to the nearest central classing office. The samples will be classed and each bale listed on a special form signed by the board and returned to the producer. Loan values will be based on the class shown on this form. The Agricultural Marketing Service predicts samples will be classed usually within 36 hours at the longest, 72 hours.

State Fair Cattle Show Has $100,000 Prizes

DALLAS, Sept. 3.—The livestock show at the State Fair of Texas, headlined by the National Hereford Show and the Regional Show of the Holstein-Friesian Breeders Association, promises to make Texas and Dallas the livestock capital of the world between October 5 and 20, date of the Fair. Pedigreed stock of every breed, already being culled and manured for the event, will compete for a record-breaking $100,000 in cash premiums.

Among features of the week-long Hereford judgings, to be held in a big arena with the public invited, will be an auction of 50 head of Herd Bulls by the Texas Hereford Breeders Association, a sale sponsored by the American Hereford Breeders Association, and the Parade of Champions in which selection will be made of the grand champion of the show. Cattlemen from 13 states and the Dominion of Canada will enter prize stock.

Increase in exhibit space and amount of premiums by the Texas Jersey Cattle Club, the National Holstein-Friesian organization, the American Shorthorn Breeders Association and by breeders of Guernseys will insure the most extensive Dairy Show ever to be held at the State Fair, according to Frank P. Holland, Jr., director in charge of the Livestock Dept. The State Fair and 23 spring dairy shows held over the state accredited with materially boosting Texas from 19th to 4th place among states in the dairy industry in the past 20 years.

Premiums shown in the 1940 Premium List of the State Fair for Shorthorn cattle indicate an increase by 35 per cent over the 1939 show. Due to increased interest throughout the Southwest in Shorthorn production, many northern breeders are shipping fine herds to the Fair for competition. An added feature of the 1940 livestock show, and one drawing widespread interest from 4-H club boys, Future Farmers and other youth groups, will be the Junior Fat Stock Show. Winners of the junior show will be entered in senior shows.

Insurance Rates on Car and Trucks Ordered Reduced

AUSTIN, Sept. 2.—Highway users of Texas will be saved more than $2,000,000 annually by the reduction ordered last week in insurance rates by the State Board of Insurance Commissioners, Lynn Shaw, manager of the Texas Motor Transportation Association, declared today, following the receipt of the order from Casualty Insurance Commissioner R. G. Waters.

With a reduction of 10 per cent in rates on fire, theft, and comprehensive coverage insurance for private passenger cars, a tremendous saving will be given September 1, 1940, when the new rates go into effect, to all private car owners in Texas who carry insurance on their automobiles, Mr. Shaw said.

Automobile dealers' fire and theft rates were reduced 25 per cent by the order, and the owners of Texas' 335,467 trucks will enjoy reductions in various types of insurance, ranging from 10 to 25 per cent. Long-haul truckmen's bodily injury and property damage rates were reduced 10 per cent in all territories in Texas by the order.

College Station, Sept. 2.—The cotton bagging program of the Surplus Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be continued for at least another year, F. E. Lichte, cotton gin specialist of the Texas A. and M. Extension Serv., has been advised.

The program is designed to encourage the use of American grown cotton for cotton wrapping or bagging. A normal crop of cotton in the United States would require the use of about 135,000 bales if all were wrapped in cotton.

A maximum of a million wrappings will be used for the current year's crop and the six manufacturers who have received contracts will get payments of 25c per wrapping to offset losses from small volume.

The cotton bagging was first tried in 1938, when less than 17,500 bales were so covered. In 1939, the number of bales of Texas cotton covered with cotton patterns rose to 233,976.

Asked Postmaster James Harley Dallas, Wednesday, if he had any alien registration so far, and he replied that one had registered, and might have another this afternoon. Alex Karl, Bulgarian who entered the United States as Alex Demoss (his grandfather's name) had registered.

Alex is trying his best to get his citizenship papers, as he stated that "my country over there is getting into quite a mess," but so far has not received his papers. Alex runs a cafe up on the highway, and is regarded as a good, law-abiding man.

The other fellow is employed in a local store, and had an appointment Wednesday to register, but failed to show up, Mr. Dallas stated. There is quite a heavy fine attached if one fails to register.

TO EVACUATE METEOR AT ODESSA

ODESSA, Aug. 26.—After several months' probing in the country's second largest meteor crater—a 600 foot-wide, debris-filled pit near here—University of Texas geologists have reported the discovery of the object they sought.

The meteorite which blasted into the Earth thousands of years ago is so deeply imbedded, however, that University-WPA excavators will have to dig for it, according to Dr. E. H. Sellards, director of the University's Bureau of Economic Geology.

The crater, second in size to that made by the great Arizona meteor, is almost completely filled in. The Texas meteorite, whose presence was spotted with a magnetometer, may be as much as a hundred feet underground.

Since the project was launched several months ago, there was considerable doubt as to whether the original mass would be recovered, as the meteor might have exploded on impact with the earth.

To study the effect of that impact, trenches have been cut through the upturned and twisted layers of rock which form the lip of the crater. Major object of the excavation, however—now possible with the knowledge that the meteorite is actually still in the pit—is the analysis of the projectile itself, Dr. Sellards said.

MUST BE CAREFUL WITH FIRE IN EUROPE

AUSTIN, Aug. 31.—Interesting changes in the public's attitude toward fire were pointed out today by Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

In the United States a man who has a fire in his home, store or factory is regarded as unfortunate, but during pre-war days in Europe he was assumed to be a public offender, the Commissioner said.

In France, if a fire spreads beyond a man's property and damaged that belonging to his neighbor, he had to pay his neighbor's loss. In Germany, if a man had a fire the police ordered an investigation.

Carelessness was assumed from the fact that the fire occurred. If he could not prove in court the next day that he taken every reasonable precaution, he was fined, and for his negligence he had to pay the city for the unnecessary use of the fire department.

Some folks worry so much about getting ready for that rainy day that they can't enjoy the sunny ones.

Mrs. Webber and daughters, Misses Marie and Roberta, and Barton McPherson spent the week end in Ruidoso.

Got to see the bride of Clyde Dallas last week. Welcome to Brownfield, Mrs. Dallas.

Fifty-six years ago The Franklin Life Insurance Company was founded... For forty-two of those years (since 1898) it has served the people of Texas; helped to protect their families from unforeseen calamities; educated their children; bolstered their thrift plans; and today after all these years of continuous service has in force over $31,000,000.00 of insurance on Texas lives. Throughout the 20 states from coast to coast in which it operates, The Franklin has insurance in effect exceeding $177,500,000.00 and assets of nearly $41,000,000.00.

The Great American Life Insurance Company likewise has made insurance history. Born of Texas initiative, energy and capital, it first saw the light of day a short ten years ago in the depths of the nation's worst depression. (Certainly a beginning under most trying conditions.) But the indomitable courage, will, and determination which in Texas are legendary, dared all obstacles. And today, after ten strenuous years, the Great American is a sturdy, thriving company, with a record of growth and success unparalleled in the South — or the nation — during the same decade, and with over $40,000,000.00 of protection in effect.

A few months ago, the same financial interests which have successfully guided the Great American Life through its first ten years of achievement acquired the entire capitalization of The Franklin Life. And now the major resources of two great companies are combined to create a still greater institution.

The advantages to Texas will be numerous. The unity of the two organizations produces an institution with combined insurance of over $200,000,000.00. The Franklin Life already has an investment of nearly $6,000,000.00 in Texas mortgages, bonds, and real estate and will now be an even greater factor in the future development of Texas. Additional funds will be available for investment in innumerable Texas enterprises. And for the purpose of properly administering these funds throughout Texas and other Southern states, Franklin investment offices will be maintained in several important cities of the state.

In order that maximum economy may be secured, and important tax savings effected, the ordinary business of the Great American will hereafter be joined and united with that of The Franklin. The Great American Life will remain in San Antonio, primarily an industrial company with a substantial capital structure, and with approximately $10,000,000.00 of industrial insurance in force. The Franklin and the Great American will join hands cooperatively to the extent that all stockholders of the Great American will become stockholders in The Franklin.

Every dollar of cash and investments now maintained by the Great American in Texas, either in its own vaults or on deposit with the State Treasurer or under the specific control of the Texas State Insurance Department will remain in Texas. This means that a large amount of voluntary and additional insurance reserves (in excess of legal requirements) are on deposit in Texas to guarantee all policies.

Capital and surplus of The Franklin has been increased to over $2,000,000.00. And in this greater company, over $200,000,000.00 of insurance will be in force beginning with today. Volume of new business produced will likely exceed $30,000,000.00 annually, of which over $10,000,000.00 should be on lives of Texans.

We are proud of our past record of success in Texas and our contribution to its growth. With the combined strength and resources of two companies, the 56 year old Franklin Life can look forward to making even greater contributions to the development of the vast empire of Texas.

If Willkie Loves A Free Press?

An open letter to Wendell L. Willkie, Republican candidate for President, addressed to him by the Philadelphia Record at his home on Fifth Avenue, N. Y., reads:

"Who killed the Chattanooga News?"

"Published by George Fort Milton, the Chattanooga News was one of the foremost liberal newspapers in the country, and one of a very few papers in the South which opposed you and your Commonwealth & Southern Corporation in your fight against the TVA."

"Mr. Willkie, we ask you, 'who killed the Chattanooga News' for two reasons:

"First, because at Cheyenne, Wyoming, on July 23, you declared that 'a free and untrammelled press is one of the guarantees of democracy.'"

"Second, because the Tennessee

Utilities Commission found your power company, Tennessee Electric guilty on 917 counts of 'using unlawful devices' to destroy the Chattanooga News by illegally aiding its competitor, which was 'friendly' to your interests. Tennessee Electric was a subsidiary of your Commonwealth and Southern.

"What is the truth, Mr. Willkie? 'Do you believe in freedom of the press for all the press?'"

"Or only for those newspapers which do not stand in your way or in the way of your corporations?'"

"The public is entitled to a clear answer."

"You naturally know all the facts in this case—for the killing of the Chattanooga News took place while you were president of Commonwealth & Southern."

"Milton's paper first supported TVA, then favored a publicly owned power plant for Chattanooga. What followed? We refer you to the records of the Tennessee Utilities Commission, which show:

"(a) That your company withdrew its advertising from the Chattanooga News after a competitor, the Free Press, had been set up in business by a group of men whose chief stockholder was Silas Williams, an attorney for your Tennessee Electric Power Company."

"(b) That your company was found guilty of turning over to this Silas Williams the sum of $10,000 'under the guise of counsel fees... all of which the said Williams shortly turned over to the Free Press in ostensible considerations for the issue to him of certain shares of stock.'"

"(c) That your power company bought $19,303 worth of advertising in the paper set up to fight the Chattanooga News, and paid an advertising rate 'far in excess of the regular rates' (about 25 per cent higher)—the only conclusion being that your company paid more than it had to as a subsidy."

"(d) That your company granted a 5 per cent discount on the power bills of the Free Press, even after they had become delinquent, and when, according to your company's advertisements, they were not subject to discount."

"(e) That your company further gave indirect financial help to the publisher who was fighting the Chattanooga News by giving him 5 per cent discount on the bills of some 40-odd grocery stores in which he was interested."

"(f) That when the Congressional committee investigating TVA came across this whole episode, its counsel, Francis Biddle, declared: 'Tennessee Electric has been subsidizing the Chattanooga Free Press.'"

"There were 909 other counts on which your company was found guilty; of trying to destroy a newspaper whose policies it didn't like. 'As directing head of the corporation in control of this situation, we'd like to hear your explanation, Mr. Willkie.'"

"What finally happened to the Chattanooga News? Surely you recall, Mr. Willkie, that it was sold by the sheriff to the Free Press, the same paper the Tennessee Utilities Commission said had been subsidized by your power companies..."

"The News was sold—and a lot of people are still wondering where its competitor got the money to buy it."

"What could other American newspapers expect, Mr. Willkie, if you were to become President—and they were to oppose your policies?"

"Would they share the same fate?"

Mexican Bed or Kissing Bug Dangerous

AUSTIN, Aug. 26.—Discovery in Texas of Mexican bed bugs (kissing bugs) infected with trypanosoma cruzi, a parasite capable of causing Chaga's disease, was reported this week in the United States Public Health Service report, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

While no human cases of Chaga's disease have been reported to the State Health Department, the presence of the organisms in the insects that transmit the disease make it a potential health problem, Dr. Cox pointed out.

About 65 per cent of 150 specimens of the bed bugs collected in one Central Texas town were found to be infected with the parasite trypanosoma cruzi. Experience with the disease in the tropics has indicated that adults are less susceptible to the disease than children and that in some instances persons may harbor the parasite of Chaga's disease in their blood stream without the actual condition of the disease being present.

It has further been shown in areas where the disease is prevalent that infants of about one year of age are most susceptible to the disease and in the presence of the disease show a low grade fever at night. During the period of infection the face becomes puffy and the thyroid gland and superficial lymphatic glands are enlarged. The puffiness of the face accompanied by sore eyes is so characteristic as to be almost diagnostic of Chaga's disease. In the final stages a child develops symptoms that resemble meningitis or sleeping sickness and death generally takes place within a month of the onset of the disease. Should the child survive, the disease passes into the chronic form.

The State Health Department, through its Division of Bedding is intensifying its activities to secure proper sterilization of second hand mattresses before resale and to supervise closely the manufacture and retailing of bedding products so as to minimize the potential infection of mattresses with the Mexican bed bug and other disease carriers.

Cooperation of the public is urged in buying new or used bedding products by demanding that each product carry the regulation labels and stamps certifying the product as being approved by the Bedding Division of the State Health Department. Compliance in purchasing only approved bedding products will insure that the bedding obtained will be as free as possible from the carriers of disease which may be harbored in mattresses.

AMARILLO FIRM GETS HIGHWAY 380 CONTRACT

Highway construction in Yoakum county will be started on the basis of bids received by the State Highway Commission on August 20. Subject to a few formalities work orders will be issued soon to the low bidder, according to advise from Austin.

The contract is for 14.8 miles grading, draining, structures, flexible base and double asphalt surface treatment on U. S. 380 and 62 from the New Mexico state line to Plains. Bell and Braden of Amarillo was low bidder at $139,397.—Yoakum County Review.

ELECTIONS OVER, LET'S BUILD TRENCH SILOS

Fort Worth, Aug. 19.—Now that Texas primary elections are over, bankers, merchants and civic leaders can do no more effective political work, according to M. E. McMurray of the Texas Dairy Productive Association, than to join county agents and other agricultural workers in their campaign to see that farmers, dairymen and ranchers place as much of the bumper feed crop now growing into trench silos as possible.

To do so will insure a supply of highly nutritious feeds which, due to climatic conditions, may not be available next year. Tests have proven conclusively that the feeds placed in trench silos may be kept indefinitely without deterioration and is automatically insured against fire and rain loss, as well as rodent damage. Other arguments which may be advanced to dairymen and others are:

1. Feed put into trench silos will go two to three times as far as dry feed.
2. As a substitute for green pasture it has vitamins not found in dry feed.
3. It is especially suitable when pasture is not available because of its water content.
4. It requires no investment; any farmer with his own tools and team can build a trench silo suited to his needs—one ton or a thousand ton capacity.
5. It has equal value as a maintenance feed or fattening element.

Particularly is the trench silo program applicable to the State's dairy program which is attracting a great deal of attention at this time. Dairying in Texas can never be successful without cheap and nutritious feeds. Talk trench silos until this year's feed crop is back in the ground.

SCHOOL BOARDS SHOULD DEMAND VACCINATION

AUSTIN, Sept. 2.—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, in a statement issued in Austin this week, urged all local boards of education to pass regulations providing for exclusion from school of all children not presenting certificates of vaccination against smallpox and immunization against diphtheria.

"School children are exposed to so much infection during the school year that where a definite preventive against a disease is known, parents should be urged to take advantage of this knowledge. Vaccination may save a period of prolonged absence from school, doctor's fees, and even life itself. It is foolhardiness not to require that all school children be rendered non-infectious from the communicable diseases, smallpox, diphtheria, and typhoid, before they start to school this year," Dr. Cox stated.

Because of the fact that authority of school boards to pass such regulations has been upheld by the courts, the Texas State Department of Health wishes to recommend that the various local school boards adopt regulations, taking further into consideration that such action on their part may mean the difference between a successful school year and prolonged illness, failure in class work, or death.

MR. GARNER SULKES

The News supported the candidacy of John Garner for the Democratic nomination largely because he had devoted his life to the public welfare of this state and because he had done his work well. We have a letter from Dallas asking for a donation to the Willkie campaign fund.

Says this letter: "Willkie is the only genuine Democrat nominated for President. He is not seeking election as a party man but as an American citizen who aggressively believes in our form of government as outlined and safeguarded by the Constitution. During the half century of public service Mr. Garner has sincerely sustained the Constitution of the United States. These two gentlemen, fellow Democrats for years, did not leave their party—the New Deal under Roosevelt has appropriated the Democratic label."

If John Garner did not authorize the use of his name in this appeal for Willkie funds, he should denounce the organization which is seeking to disrupt the Democratic party in Texas.

However, The News is just about decided that Garner knows what is going on, and should be ashamed of himself for his recent action. He stated that he was going to Texas to vote on July 27. He could have mailed his vote to Texas rather than come here to vote. He has stayed for a full month, and says nothing about returning to his post in Washington.

The people of the United States hired Mr. Garner for a four year term. Instead of being on the job for which he was hired, he sulks at his home.

In the meanwhile, the United States is going through a most critical time. The Senate, over which Mr. Garner is supposed to preside, is wasting time over war measures, while Hitler lays waste to England. John Garner is lowering himself in the estimation of his fellow countrymen for not being on the job for which the people elected him. He is in position to hasten national defense—which is being made a political gesture by a group of Senators.

Go back to Washington, Mr. Garner, and play the game like the fighting man that all Texans know you to be.—Canyon News.

LIVE STOCK MOVEMENT SLOWS IN JULY

AUSTIN, Sept. 1.—Movement of livestock from Texas ranches to Fort Worth stockyards and to other states for July dropped 20.5 per cent from July, 1939, University of Texas business statisticians report.

Only 4,632 cars were shipped, consisting of 2,614 cars of cattle, 741 cars of calves, 565 cars of hogs, and 712 cars of sheep. Cattle shipments were down 9 per cent, calves 43.8 per cent, hogs 12.5 per cent and sheep 27.8 per cent.

During the seven-month period from January 1 to August 1, 40,951 carloads of livestock were shipped, 16.8 per cent less than during the corresponding period last year, University Bureau of Business Research figure show.

POULTRY, EGG SHIPMENTS SHOW BIG INCREASE

AUSTIN, Sept. 2.—Poultry and egg shipments from Texas to interstate points during July registered a large increase over those of July a year ago, University of Texas business statisticians report.

Rail forwardings of poultry—36 cars—were 80 per cent above the comparable month last year, and 68 cars of eggs left the state as compared with 33 cars in July, 1939.

The poultry movement was made up of 30 cars of chickens and six cars of turkeys, compared to 20 cars of chickens and none of turkeys a year ago.

"Behind The Scenes In American Business"

By John Craddock
 NEW YORK, —In view of the general recognition that the pace of national defense goods production is the chief governing factor in the state of business, news that the "log-jam" which has held up aircraft procurement apparently has been broken up is of prime importance. An agreement has now been reached between the government and the aircraft industry that will allow for awarding of contracts and immediate undertaking of production—without waiting for enactment of the new tax bill covering excess profits . . . Within a few hours after the agreement was reached it had borne fruit, in the form of an $11,000,000 contract with one firm for 700 planes, and other contracts were expected to be signed within a few days. These would involve about a dozen other aircraft, accessory and engine manufacturers, for production of approximately 4,000 ships for the air corps—at a complete cost of around $400,000,000. This development will almost surely open the way for similar arrangements with respect to production of many kinds of munitions.

 WASHINGTON—Just what does all this national defense plant-building and equipment-installing amount up to? Government economists have just surveyed the whole scene, and come up with the estimate that plant expansion and new equipment purchase of industry, for 1941, will be right around $3,000,000,000—as the result of the defense program. Such figures, of course, are always only relative. It makes them more meaningful when it is explained that this is about one third more than was spent, on the average, in the years of the last decade—and about three times as much as for the low years of 1932 and 1933, when capital outlays for new plant and equipment dropped below a billion. And if it finally become necessary to create brand new industries to supply Uncle Sam with rubber and other strategic materials now mostly imported, the expenditure may go well beyond that $3,000,000,000 mark.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. Jensen have as their guests her mother, Mrs. Alice Hybarger of Arkansas City, Kansas.

Half-Inch Rain Last Wednesday Night

Around half an inch of rain fell here Wednesday night from about nine to 9:45, which amounted to about a half inch. The rain was accompanied by quite a gale of wind, but no damage that we heard of.

While the rain was not needed on the farms so far as we know, West Texans will always take just a bit more ain. Most people think more rains will make worms worse, however.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The pastor has been assisting the church at Tokio, in a meeting but was in his pulpit here last Sunday as usual, and is expected to be present next Sunday.

Teachers and officers in the Bible school for the ensuing year are being recommended to the church and will be elected and it is hoped that good leadership may be obtained who will succeed in greatly enlarging the school.

It will soon be necessary to spend one thousand dollars for heating which was not installed when the building was being finished and this added to the regular payments on the building will call for liberality for the building fund and some money was pledged for this fund and not paid in and it is hoped that payment of these amounts may be made during the next sixty days for these purposes.

Next Monday is mission study day for all of the W. M. U. circles, all of which meet as the church at 3 p. m. and study the life of a great missionary to China, Eugene Salee. All women of the church are urged to attend.

We express our thanks that this country is one of religious freedom to worship as our conscience dictates, but we observe that many have no conscience as to worship and do not worship in the church or out of it, but rather ignore the matter of religion and we admonish you, dear reader, to attend the services of worship and support it with your influence and money, as you should be a "cheerful giver" and not give to the Lord "that which costs you nothing" as we are admonished in God's Word.

BROWNFIELD FRIDAY-SATURDAY TEXAS

MARK TWAIN'S WAR PRAYER

O Lord our God, help us to tear their soldiers to bloody threads with our shells; help us to cover their smiling fields with the pale forms of their patriot dead; help us to drown the thunder of their guns with the shrieks of the wounded writhing in pain; help us to lay waste to their humble homes with a hurricane of fire; help us to turn them out roofless with their children to wander unfriended through wastes of their desolated lands—for our sakes, who adore Thee, Lord, blast their hopes, blight their lives, protract their bitter pilgrimage, making heavy their steps; water their way with tears, stain the white snow with the blood of their wounded feet! We ask of one who is the Spirit of Love and who is ever-faithful refuge and friend of all that are sore beset, and seek His aid with humble and contrite hearts. Grant our prayer, O Lord, and thine shall be the praise and honor and glory now and forever. Amen.
