THE OLD TOWN HAS MADE GREAT PROGRESS IN PAST 12 MONTHS

This Has Been Reflected in Three Ways; Increased Building Permits, Big Gain in Postal Receipts and a Million Increase in Bank Deposits

There are three ways to find out what a community is doing in the way of progress. Take these three, and there is no use for further argument about the matter. A Great Speaker One of them is building permits, the second is postal receipts, and the third bank statements. You may tell all about how many raised on 100 acres, but if your cil, Boy Scouts of America, will tors, etc. bank deposits are down, your postal receipts normal or below, meeting, George P. Kuykendall, and your building permits nil, general chairman, predicts. your community has not progressed.

Building Permits Around $350.000

We could not get the exact figures for the building permits within the city limits from City Secretary Roy Herod, as the books were in Lubbock for auditing, but he did say they would run around $350,000, probably a little more or less. This does NOT include the many building projects just outside the city limits, such as the West Texas Cottonoil Mill, the Magnolia project and others. Pos-

As to the bank statements, and particularly deposits, at the time that this is written, we have been able to get only one condensed statement, but have been quite reliably informed the amount of deposits the other bank will show. The call for December 31, 1939, a year ago, showed combined deposits, $1.628,104.56. This year, if we have received correct estimate, the deposits will be near a million dollars more, or around $2,700,-000.00.

Nightwatchman Catches Two Boys In Ice Plant

According to Cliff Fitzgerald, one of our efficient night officers, there is a bunch of boys over across the track who do not attend school, and who have been giving officers trouble for some time. They have been practicing petty burglary in various warehouses for some time, but he happened to catch them in the Brownfield Ice Plant last Sunday night about dark.

They had obtained a small amount in cash, and it seems they. had been using this money to attend the movies. They were fined Monday in police court, but were released to their parents, who promised to look after them better in the future.

We noticed not long ago that one police judge sentenced a couple of boys to attend school regularly, and not only that, but made them promise to attend some Sunday School each Sunday or they would go to jail. Local officers might try that plan some time.

For hauling a ton of freight one mile the railroads in 1939 received an average of 9 3-4 mills.

effects on her movie career. She can be "sensible" also as she was in "The Citadel". For acting, intelligent acting, is her life. She loves it.

Born to wealthy James E. and Clara Knight Russell in Waterbury, Conn., she attended primary school there and, later, fashionable Marymount private school at Tarrytown-on-Hudson. She was the loud, black-stockinged youngster who played all the athletic games hardest.

After extensive traveling in Europe, she returned to give serious thought to doing something on her own, and hit upon acting.

After the customary slow start in stock, Miss Russell came up with a good part on Broadway in "Talent", which starred Mady Christians. Then came another, "The Second Man," starring Bert Lytell and next a contract with, MGM in Hollywood.

Her pictures include: "No More Ladies," "Evelyn Prentice," ."The President Vanishes," "Forsaking All Others," "Reckless," "China Seas," "Hired Wife," and now, "This Thing Called Love," showing tonight and Saturday.

DEFINITELY IN THE WAR

A nation-wide feeling has existed for several months that the United States is not in the war and will not get into the war.

During the presidential camministration. paign both the President and Wendell Willkie stated time and again that they opposed the active participation of our troops in the European conflict. Both stated that they favored giving all possible aid to England, short of active participation.

Since the campaign, Hitler, Mussolini and Japan have warned this nation that any aid to England means war in so far as they are concerned. The United States has been defied, and Hitler has 'announced his worldwide plan of dominion.

There are some people in the United States who have taken the stand that we owe no obligation to England, and that we should build our own armament and allow England to fall if she could not withstand the dictators. These parificists have been growing in numbers, and pressure has been brought by this group on the President to join in their plan of not giving more aid to England ated. than necessary.

With a new Congress soon to take office, it was well that the President state in clean - cut phrases the unmistakable position of the United States. This he did Sunday night. No one can misun-
