THE FIVE COUNTY HEALTH UNIT MAKES ITS FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

Has Done Much to Keep Down Epidemics; Advise to Town
And Farm People in Regards to Sanitation, and Advise
In Individual Cases.

The Five County Health Unit rounded out its first year's work December 31, 1940. The Unit was set up January 11, 1940 by the Texas State Department of Health in cooperation with Dawson, Terry, Lynn, Gaines, and Yoakum counties. The Unit has been very successful in setting up a type of health program which is and will be a great benefit to every citizen in the five county area. The following is a brief summary of the work done during the year by the Unit along the various health lines.

Communicable Disease Control

Since one of the chief purposes of public health is the prevention and control of communicable diseases the Health Unit has during the year made a concerted effort to control all of the communicable diseases in the five counties. This program in brief is as follows: Each disease reported was investigated to determine its origin so as to stop further spread. All cases of communicable diseases reported were quarantined or isolated and instructions were given on how to prevent family contacts from taking the disease. All contacts of the disease were immunized for the disease whenever possible. Immunizations were given by the Health Unit during the year were as follows:

Typhoid Fever	1984
Smallpox	1521
Diphtheria	149

These immunizations were limited in most cases to indigent people. There were many persons immunized by the family physician, as a result of the educational program by the Health Unit.

School Health Program

The Health Unit has improved the health in schools by setting up a specific school health policy as drawn up by the Texas State Department of Health and State Department of Education. The nurses work closely with the teachers in trying to secure maximum health of reach child. Many physical defects such as poor vision, poor hearing, diseased tonsils and many others were held by the Director and nurses during the spring and summer in an effort to obtain corrections of physical defects in the children before entering school. Over two thousand children were inspected and examined by the Director and nurses.

Maternal and Infant Health Program

Three hundred and seventy-six maternal cases were visited by the nurses during the year and a special effort was made to see that every expectant mother is under the care of a doctor as early in pregnancy as possible. In this way it is hoped that maternal and infant deaths as a result of childbirth can be reduced. Two hundred and forty-five infants have been admitted to the nursing service for care and supervision. The nurses have worked in close harmony with the family doctor to see that the expectant mother passes through the dangers of pregnancy with a minimum of mental and physical discomforts and a maximum of mental and physical health.

Veneral Disease Control

The Health Unit has set up a definite program by which veneral diseases will be brought under better control. An attempt has been made to inform the general public.

School Heads Attend Educational Meeting

County Supt. Lee Fulton and Emmitt Smith, Supt. of Brownfield schools recently attended the two day session of the conference of school administrators and supervisors, held in Austin, Jan. 6-7th. This was one of the most interesting meetings held in educational circles in Texas, according to Mr. Smith, the main theme being, "Education to Meet the Needs of Democracy." A panel discussion was led by Dr. J. G. Winstadt, professor of education, University of Texas. Subject: "Does Our Education Meet the Needs of the Day?"

The subject was also discussed by Drs. Tittenger, Arrowood, Fancher, and Ayer, also of U. T. Represented in the meeting was organized labor, religion, public schools, state health department, army, P-T.A., and the Federation of Womens Clubs. Mr. Smith stated about 1000 attended the sessions. The banquet was held on the night of the 6th, the principal speaker being Dr. White, the president of Hardin-Simmons U. State Supt. L. A. Woods presided at all sessions.

Another outstanding feature of the sessions, said Mr. Smith, was the array of musical talent provided by Miss Nell Panney, director of music in the state department of education. Miss Panney has traveled all over the state and really has assembled some musical talent, a representation being at Austin, with an hour of music before each session. Outstanding, remarked Mr. Smith, was the A Capella group from the Bryan, Texas high school.

Trustees Re-elect Supt. Principals, And Coaches

At a recent meeting of the trustees of the Brownfield public school system, Supt. Emmitt Smith was re-elected for a two-year term beginning with the 1941-42 term. This term makes his second that he has served as Supt., although he has been connected with the faculty as principal of high school for several years.

Principals Vernon Brewer of the high school, and W. M. Vernon of the elementary school were re-elected for a one-year term, as was also Aubra Noncaster, head coach; Curtis Barrett, assistant coach, and Virgil Keyes, assistant coach and coach of the Juniors. Messrs. Brewer, Vernon and Noncaster are old hands, while Barrett and Keyes are here for their first year.

We believe that each man has a good grasp on the duties that are before them, much better perhaps than any new men that might have been chosen in their places.

Max "Alibi" Terhune Entertains Jaycees

On Friday, January 10th, Max (Alibi) Terhune, actor and radio star entertained the Jaycees and their guests with a 15 minute program at the Wines Hotel. The luncheon was attended by about 60 members and guests, of which there were about 12.

Mr. Terhune, or Max as he requested that he be called, is an entertaining performer. His imitations of locomotives, ancient automobiles, canary birds, barbers clippers and barnyard animals were excellent. These were given in rhyme with a poem.

High light of his program was a poem, "Courtship of the Son of Swat," a parody on baseball. Other numerous stories, and poems rounded out his program. All those present expressed themselves as having enjoyed the entire program. Ray Christopher, president of the Jaycees presided.

A short business meeting was held and Vernon Brewer, secretary of the Jaycees, announced that on January 22nd the Jaycees Civic Service Award Banquet would be held. This is a nationwide event of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce in which the outstanding young man between the ages of 21 and 36 would be given an award for his work in civic undertakings for the year of 1941. Each Jaycee organization that is a member makes this award to some local young man each year.

On February 20th the Americanism Week Banquet of the Jaycees will be held, it was decided by the membership present.

Another Fatal Auto Collision Sat. Night

It seems that we don't get through regretting one fatal automobile accident in Terry county until there is another. The second one in recent weeks happened just beyond Lahey, about six miles southwest of the city about 1:30 Sunday morning, in which a car driven toward Wellman on 51, by Miss Lizzie Dumas, and another driven by Claude E. Lang, coming northeast, featured in a collision.

Miss Dumas and Mr. E. W. Collier were in her car. Miss Dumas, luckily was not injured sufficiently to be treated. Mr. Collier had a hand hurt. The Lang car was not so lucky. It seems that it was more of a sideswipe than a head-on, and the Lang car swerved and turned over several times, landing on its top. A. J. Jordan, Jr., was thrown clear of the car but was so badly injured that he died three hours after being brought to the local hospital. Others broke the doors of the car and helped the more injured to get out. The car burned.

Others injured were, Doris Lang, 16, broken pelvis, head cuts and bruises; Lang, head injuries; Wanette Riddle, 17, head cuts and bruises; Roy Armstrong, 26, bruises, Sheriff Joe Price and Highway Patrolmen were in session here Monday investigating the accident, and stated that they found that Lang was not on his side of the road.

Lang is held by Justice Court on a charge of murder without malice. Funeral services for young Jordan given elsewhere in this paper, were held at the Methodist church Monday afternoon.

BROWNFIELD ONE OF LARGEST BANKING CENTERS OF NORTH PERMIAN BASIN

City With 5,000 Stands Ahead of Many Larger Cities in Deposits and Resources. People of Area Proud of Their Banks.

On the north, with the exception of Lubbock, and on the south to Big Spring and Midland, to the east possibly to Abilene, West to Roswell, Brownfield stands supreme as a banking center, and we are not sure that Roswell heads us. In the past few years, Brownfield has gone ahead of both Lamesa and Plainview as a banking center. In the past year, the two Brownfield banks have increased one million dollars on deposit, a record that probably stands out above everything in this section.

Plainview, with a population around 10,000 and Lamesa with more than 6,000 have been left far in the rear of Brownfield with deposits as well as resources and quickly available cash. Some of them perhaps have more money loaned. In conversation with one of the bank presidents here last week, he informed us that there was very little outside money deposited in Brownfield, that a very large percent of it belonged to the business men, farmers and ranchmen of this immediate section. Below, we first wish to give the reader the combined resources, cash, deposits and loans of the two banks here, and then give the figures for the same time last year. In other words, the first figures are for the December 31, 1940 call, and the other for the call of Dec. 31, 1939, a year ago:

Resources, 1940	$2,808,918.56
Resources, 1939	1,787,124.29

Prisoner: "But, your honor, she keeps irritating me all the time."

Judge: "How does she irritate you?"

Judge: "Discharged."

WHY NOT INCLUDE GIRLS?

Publicizing of a motto "Take a Boy Hunting and Fishing," brought an inquiry recently from J. C. Cross of the department of biology of A. & I. of Kingsville, Texas which read: "Why not change your motto of a real sportsman to include girls as well as boys. Girls like to hunt and fish." Thanks, Mr. Cross.

You Can Get Star-Telegram For 10 Months

While the yearly bargain rate on the Star-Telegram has been discontinued, you can still get it for ten months, up until Feb. 15th, when that offer expires. This will put you in line for the bargain days this fall, for if you subscribe this month, your Star-Telegram will expire in November, or if in February, your time will expire in December.

The new rate is $5.20 for the daily and Sunday, or $5.20 for the daily only. If you wish to club with the Herald, we can make you an offer of Daily and Sunday Telegram 10 months and the Herald one year for $6.60. The club rate with the daily only is $5.70. In any case, this clubbing rate applies only to the Brownfield trade area, which covers Terry and Yoakum counties, and the adjoining portions of Hockley, Lynn, Dawson, and Gaines.

You will want a daily to keep up with the war and what the national and state legislatures are doing. You will also want your home town weekly to keep posted on the events of this area.

With The Weather

After a week of foggy weather last week, there was about a half inch of rain Sunday afternoon, accompanied by thunder and lightning, just like spring. What is the old saying about thunder in January means a freeze in May?

There was another rain Wednesday afternoon and night, about a quarter inch perhaps when this was written.

Sometimes it is good for men to have a rude awakening. Ex-U. S. Senator Holt of West Virginia is a noted anti-new dealer. More, he is a rabid appeaser, and is placed in the same category with such birds as Senator Wheeler. To other night he was addressing an assembly of isolationists at Philadelphia, when he mentioned Hitler. Whereupon, some hecklers yelled for him to "lay off Hitler, as Der Fuehrer was doing a good job." Perhaps Mr. Holt had no idea just what his audience was composed of. We dread to contemplate what would happen to Hitler heilers in a Texas audience instead of in the "city of brotherly love."

The tourist may pick up a nail or tack the first time he starts a tour in the new car. Again, he may be able to make a trip to the coast and back on old tires with the air he started out with. In Texas, we have some 18,000 miles of highways, and only two nail picker trucks, but they are kept busy all the time, each clearing some 32 miles of highway and shoulders each day of pieces of iron, tobacco tins, nails, screws, tacks, and what have you. They clear the highways of some 80,000 pounds of scrap iron per year, and they perhaps save many lives caused from blowouts and punctures on nails, etc.

The A. F. L., and of course the C.I.O. affiliates in organized labor, maintain that they have a right to strike, defense or no defense. Suppose that draftees, that are to get $21 per month took that position. Suppose the manufacturer of guns and munitions, and tanks and battleships and planes took that attitude? Suppose the taxpayers all over the USA took that position about paying their taxes to keep the schools, government, state, national and local going? What would the consequences be? Labor, both organized and non-union is getting the square deal they ever got from any government on earth. Our notion is that they had better quit biting the hand that is helping them.

Those who know the draft law and just what its intentions are, state that those who have hurried up a marriage to beat the draft may be out of luck. They say the law never was supposed to exempt those who decided after they got their draft papers to pull off a hasty marriage. That would not be fair to boys and men who decided to take the year's rap in the army or navy before their wedding.

One of the local reporters for the Avalanche-Journal sorter tickled us this week about the joint installation of Odd Fellows officers in that city. The reporter stated that there was a right and left "seam" supporter installed. We dont know whose seams were giving away, or whether the supporters were armed with needle and thread, a nail or a safety pin. We have an idea, however, that the reporter meant "scene" supporters.

Census Figures For Major Cities

Final population for all cities in the United States having 100,000 inhabitants or more were released by the Bureau of the Census a few days ago. There are 92 such cities in the U. S.

Of these 92, only four are situated in Texas, these being Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, and Fort Worth. Fifteen others are situated in the South, and three, Baltimore, St. Louis, and Louisville, are situated on the borderland between the North and South.

There are still just five cities in the United States with over one million population, the same five that had more than a million in 1930. These are: New York with a population of 7,454,995 in 1940 against 6,930,446 in 1930; Chicago, 3,396,808 in 1940, 3,376,438 in 1930; Philadelphia, 1,931,334 in 1940 against 1,950,961 in 1930; Detroit, 1,623,452 in 1940 against 1,568,662 in 1930; Los Angeles, 1,504,277 in 1940 against 1,238,048 in 1930.

It will be seen from the above figures that Philadelphia actually lost more than 19,000 in population in the decade while Chicago gained only a measly 20,000. New York made a gain of more than a half million or more than 7 1-2 per cent. Los Angeles made the largest percentage gain, 21 1-2 per cent. Detroit's gain was only 3 1/2 per cent.

Cities in the South having more than 100,000 population in 1940 together with the figures for 1930 are given below. We include Baltimore, St. Louis, and Louisville, though, strictly speaking, they are not Southern cities.

Jack Bailey To Head Birthday Celebration

Jack Bailey, Brownfield, has accepted the chairmanship for the 1941 President's birthday celebration for Terry County. The appointment was made by W. L. Clayton, Houston, chairman of the Texas State Committee and announcement of acceptance came from George Waverley Briggs, Dallas, vice chairman and campaign director of the Texas Fight Infantile Paralysis Campaign.

Fifty per cent of the net proceeds derived from the local celebration will be retained here this year, Mr. Briggs announced. After payment of all expenses incumbent upon holding the celebration, January 30, the residue will be divided between the local organization and the State Committee. In counties where chapters are operating the county's share of the fund will be turned over to the chapter while in unorganized counties the fifty per cent will be retained by the local campaign chairman until such time a local chapter is organized.

Selection of committee members will be made immediately for the local drive and definite plans will be announced within a few days by the county chairman.

Again the celebration is of nation-wide scope, Mr. Briggs said, and in almost every community, hamlet and city throughout the land President Roosevelt's birthday will be celebrated the night of January 30 to the end that crippled children everywhere in the land might be benefitted. Mr. Briggs urges that every citizen in every community in Texas enlist now in this fight against infantile paralysis.

An intensified drive for funds is to be made throughout the county.

The Brownfield Baptist Association is holding its convention this week with the Tahoka church and in connection with the State Baptist Convention, who are holding 110 meetings over the state this year. The Brownfield church was well represented.

The writer and son, Jack Stricklin Jr., accompanied by J. A. Roberts of Coahoma, visited the town of Sundown just over in Hockley county Sunday afternoon, for the first time. Just a typical oil field town with one main street a mile long, but lots of supply houses, cheap hotels, cafes, etc., but doing a brisk business.

DIDN'T LEAVE BECAUSE HE WANTED TO

Had a letter recently from our good friend of many years standing, Joe A. Davis, who has lived for several years in the Harmony community, but who with his good wife has recently moved to Plainview to make their home. In his letter enclosing some money he owed for an ad, and another dollar on subscription, Mr. Davis stated that the place he had been on for a number of years sold, forcing him to look for another place or move to town.

Mr. Davis stated that he spent 20 years of the happiest part of his life among the good people of Terry county, but he had to say goodbye to the farmstead and the people he loved and neighborhood with for years. He hopes, however, that although now a town man, he may find some congenial neighbors, and be happy.

Mrs. Davis has made the Harmony community an A-1 correspondent. Year in and year out, she has found time out from her domestic duties to give the news of her community. We have appreciated this very much, if we have not expressed ourselves orally. We hope we may find another correspondent for the community as good as Mrs. Davis.

WEIGHTED DOWN

A man said the only reason why his dwelling was not blown away in a late storm was, because there was a heavy mortgage on it.

BEGORRA, IT WORKS!

Take your house number and double it. Add 5. Multiply by half a hundred. Then add your age (no cheating). Add the number of days in a year. Subtract 615. The last two figures will be your age; the others, your house number.

Achievement Event

By Maretta Holloway

The Lahey Home Demonstration Club met January 9, to see the improvements accomplished by Mrs. B. L. Walker in her bedroom demonstration, and to hear the story of how she added to the comfort and attractiveness of her room.

"An oil finish, I found was one of the surest and most economical ways to refinish my floor and wood work," said Mrs. Walker. "I had on hand about two gallons of linseed oil which I applied to the floor in three coats. For each coat, I heated enough oil to apply generously to the surface. This I put on while hot, allowing to dry for about one hour. I then wiped off the surplus oil with cloths, being careful to get the oil out of all crevices. The floor dried thoroughly between each coat of hot oil, sometimes several days lapsed between coats since there was no hurry and I wanted the wood to absorb as much oil as possible. Lastly, I applied a thin coat of wax for a top dressing. I am well pleased with the floor and woodwork and only regret that I did not know about this treatment when our home was new because it hardens the wood, and the floor would not have been marked up from moving the furniture about over it.

"The walls I papered myself with the help of my brother who was visiting during the holidays. I found that by cutting strips of wrapping paper about four inches wide and pasting it over the joinings of the sheetrock before putting on the wall paper none of the joinings would be visible and a smooth job resulted.

"For the curtains, white checked-abr diminity was selected. I used this in spite of the fact the diminity is a little more expensive than some curtain materials because it is long wearing, easily laundered, and always looks cool and crisp. We think the curtains add much to the beauty of the room."

The hooked rug recently completed by Mrs. Walker and placed beside the bed gave an additional 'homey' touch to the room, as did also the gaily printed cushion she made for the bedroom chair. As bedroom demonstrator, Mrs. Walker, has well shown how a room can be made comfortable and attractive by planning and a little work.

The storage problem for the bedroom is to be solved sometime this year when a clothes closet is to be built. Improvements are not to stop but to continue in another bedroom and the kitchen is to be papered.

DON'T GIVE UP
By Clyde Riggs

If business is bad today,
It will be good tomorrow,
But if it turns out wrong
Look for happiness, not sorrow.

And if business is bad tomorrow,
Just say: "There'll be another day."

The Lord is with me
And he'll be with me all the way."

So don't give up
When things are bad.
Just dream ahead of things to come,
That will keep you from being sad.

Gladness and love
Are the things of today;
If you keep that policy,
You will always be gay.

The Lord loves you,
Whether you are happy or blue,
He'll stick with you through thick and thin,
Just accept him and he'll be with you to the end."

Reorganization Bill Ready for Legislature

ABILENE, Jan. 13.—The bill for state financial reorganization will be ready for the 47th legislature when the gavel falls. Monday a pre-session conference on the bill's contents was under way in Austin. Conferees were D. A. Barden, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; Rep. Joe Humphrey, of Abilene; and Geo. C. Hester of Southwestern University, WTCC- engaged collaborator with Barden on the widely discussed plan to equip the administrative department of the state government with a system of budgetary control and fiscal management designed to actually supervise spending and at the same time provide adequate information to the legislature as a basis for its policy making.

This involves creation of a governor's cabinet with advisory functions, a new department of finance and control, a complete centralized purchasing scheme, and a civil service system for employment of state personnel.

The bill covering the plan, to be jointly presented by the West Texas, East Texas and South Texas chambers of commerce, will bear the name of Rep. Humphrey of the 116th District, who will introduce it in the lower house. It is expected to go before the two houses early in the session which opened January 14, and to have behind it an immense weight of public opinion. The West Texas chamber has taken the plans to its own territory in 35 regional taxpayers' meetings attended by groups from 132 towns, and the Etex and Sotex Chambers are now actively pushing it in their sections.

WHOOPIING COUGH DANGEROUS TO CHILDREN

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 6, 1941—Careful isolation of a child ill with whooping cough is a measure that pays health dividends, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

There is no other communicable disease so dangerous as whooping cough to the very young, and there is no other infection to which there is a more universal susceptibility in infancy and childhood. Over 90 per cent of all deaths from whooping cough occur in children under five years of age. Whooping cough is dangerous, moreover, because there is no natural immunity against it during the first six months of life as there is in measles.

Whooping cough is usually transmitted by direct contact with the secretion of the mouth or the nose, or with articles freshly soiled with the secretion. Only a short exposure is required to contact the infection. The communicable stage extends from seven days to three weeks after exposure until development of the characteristic whoop.

WILLING TO BE DRAFTED, BUT—

A young business man in Washington, D. C., whose wife is employed by the Government, was put in Class I by a Local Draft Board. Called for a physical examination, he appealed to his Board for a special hearing. He argued that his business was such that his wife could not run it and that it would be a great deprivation for him to dispose of it.

This young man, who is in the liquor business, said there are plenty of single men with less responsibilities who should be called to serve their country ahead of married men in business.

It is believed that, in light of the crisis with which the democracies of the world are faced, this young man, whose wife holds a good government position, will find little sympathy among the real patriots of the country.

Texas' Silo Would Dam Grand Canyon

College Sta., Jan. 14.—Enough silage is buried in Texas to make a dam 15 inches thick across the Grand Canyon as an average place.

There were approximately 38,000 silos in Texas at the end of 1940, with an average capacity of 115 tons each.

This colossal pantry contains enough to feed approximately 2,000,000 head of dairy cattle in the state for 143 days.

Some of nearly every kind of feed known is stored in these trenches. The greater part is grain sorghums, sweet sorghums, corn, sudan and Johnson grasses.

From this reserve a cow can get her table with grapefruit for breakfast, a big assortment of vegetables for dinner and pears for supper.

Eudaly said there was one case on record of trench silage keeping for 20 years.

"There are lots of cases, too, where it has been kept seven to ten years."

"The trench silo means feed insurance," he added.

BASED on the fact that paint will not set well under freezing conditions, home owners frequently believe exterior painting to be impossible during the winter months.

With the heavy dews and frost common to winter nights, painting should be confined to the hours around noon.

Although slight variations are essential from standard warm weather formulas, winter painting follows the same application procedure.

Pontiac Completes Big Year In 1940

Deliveries of new Pontiac cars for the final ten days of December were 7,773 making the total for the last month of the year 23,851.

Used car sales were equally good with 12,517 for the final ten days period, 37,452 for the month of December and 449,097 for the year 1940.

General business expansion, growing employment, bigger payrolls throughout the country, together with improvements made in our product plus the fine stability of our dealer organization during 1940, have been largely responsible for the fine Pontiac sales record in the year just closed.

Mobile Dental Unit To Be Here Jan. 21-30

A Mobile Dental Unit from the State Department of Health will be in the schools of Terry county from January 21 to January 30.

The program of the Mobile Unit is made possible through the cooperation and efforts of the Five County Health Unit. This Unit is a complete, modern dental office set up in a large trailer and is operated by a staff dentist of the State Department of Health. Its program as conducted in the public schools is both educational and corrective for a limited number of children of the lower grades. The educational features reach the children of all grades and teachers are furnished materials and information for teaching dental health.

Only a limited number of children can be given free dental work—these to be selected by the nurses and teachers in cooperation with the local dentists. The plan is that prior to the arrival of the Unit the local dentists will examine all children of the schools where it is to go and the parents of the children selected for the free work are required to sign a card requesting that the necessary work be done.

The Mobile Unit and its programs are attracting a wide spread attention over the State and it is serving to stimulate greater interest in dental health education as an important phase in the program of general health.

On the first afternoon in a given school an educational program will be held, at which time all patrons are invited to attend. Some motion pictures will be shown and a lecture given on the importance of the teeth and dental health.

It is desired by the State Department of Health and the Health Unit that the Mobile Unit be received as a part of the community life and of the public school when in a given locality. Citizens and patrons are invited to visit and inspect at any and all times. Schedule: Jan. 21-22, Brownfield; 23-24, Meadow; 27-28, Wellman; 29-30, Union.

ADVERTISERS AND EDITORS

Terry County Herald: We have never had an advertiser in the thirty-one years that we have been publishing the Herald that even hinted that he wanted to control the editorial policies of the paper. It is true that advertisers support the paper, but they do not dictate the policies of them. Dictators can't stand a free press for the reason that readers learn to think for themselves. Dictators wish to do the thinking for their people. Without advertising support 75 per cent of newspapers would have to close shop, and the rest would have to charge such an exorbitant rate that no one but the rich could take them. So, here is where the advertiser does another great favor to the reader. He not only advertises, and makes mass production and mass sales keep down the price of merchandise, but his ad makes it possible for the publisher to sell his paper to readers at a price they can afford.

State Press in the Dallas News: The pure in thought, like Secretary Ikes, who say advertisers dictate the newspapers' editorial policies seem to be under the impression that all advertisers are of one mind. Advertisers in fact are as varied in their opinions as any other class. As a rule advertisers are smart men who advertise because it pays, not in an effort to control the editor. The chief critics of the newspapers' policies are fond of saying "big business" dictates through the advertising columns. But how good is big business at advertising? Merchants are the chief advertisers and they advertise to improve sales. Improved sales bring mass sales and with mass sales come lower prices to induce more and more sales. Advertising is a business, not a political effort. Mr. Ikes and the likes of him, who hate the newspapers, assume that all advertisers have political objectives in view. The critics can't understand that advertising is a promoter of business rather than a slick way of making the editor change his policies, if any. A few years ago there was a book written by a Socialist who presumed to prove that sixty families control 90 or 99 per cent of American wealth. How much advertising does anyone in that absurd category do? Just about none at all.

Miss Genevieve Smith has returned home after visiting her sister in McLean for several weeks. Texas is fifth in the manufacture of cheese and eighth in the total income from the sale of milk.

HOME OWNERS FORUM

By ABNER GORDON

STORM windows are a profitable investment for the home in localities where continued cold weather makes the fuel bill a maintenance problem.

Heat passes so readily through single sash construction that as much escapes on the average as through all of the remaining wall areas combined. Consequently, a comprehensive storm sash installation may well reduce heat waste up to 50% regardless of further mural insulation with accompanying savings of from 25% to 30% in fuel consumption.

Savings in fuel alone—not to mention the increased comfort—invariably pay for the windows in from one to three years.

Q.—How can I paint brass fixtures so the coating will not peel off? A.—Before brass is styled with paint, the metal must be cleaned thoroughly and absolutely dry.

Assuming the desirability of an enamel finish, experience indicates that three thin oil paint undercoats are preferable to two comparatively heavy, producing a more durable foundation with higher adhesive properties.

Soft paste white lead thinned with one part hard-drying varnish and two parts turpentine is a widely specified formula for this work. The paint should be mixed sufficiently thin so that the brass color shows through the initial coat. The second and third ground coats are best tinted with colors-in-oil for increased opacity as well as to blend with the proposed finish.

Allow plenty of time between coats for each to harden before the next is applied. When the third coat has set-up firmly, finish off with a single coat of good quality enamel.

WELL-DRESSED MILITARY MEN

When honors for the best-dressed military men in the world are awarded, the U. S. Marines should be somewhere near to top, in variety as well as snappy styles are considered.

Three complete outfits with such accessories as belts, gloves, leggings and similar details are the foundation of a marine's wardrobe, which includes a blue, forestry green, and khaki uniform.

For the present there is a dearth of blue uniforms due to the fact that the Marine Corps has increased so fast that only a limited number could be supplied. Meanwhile they are being issued only to marines who go to sea and a few other special detachments.

The blue uniforms with its brass buttons, yellow and scarlet trimmings and bronze cap or collar ornaments is decidedly popular. Sometimes white trousers, belts and caps are worn with the blue blouse by way of contrast, making a rather striking ensemble.

Soldiers of the sea also have a choice of about nine hats of different styles and colors. These white cap with visor, a field or campaign hat, a green or khaki overseas cap and a tropical sun helmet or steel helmet.

Naturally a marine does not choose for himself the style he prefers to wear. Such decisions are made by the commanding officer of barracks or detachment, who prescribes the uniform of the day for the men under his command.

WARNING IS GIVEN ON MAIL BOXES

Patrons on rural routes have complained much during the past few months of damage to their rural mail boxes by rifle bullets and also by damage caused by car and other vehicles, according to Postmaster, James H. Dallas. "We are certain that many of our rural residents have suffered uncompensatingly of the same offense and that there is reason for the complaints which have been made. Dallas stated. "It is certain a source of much annoyance to have mail boxes knocked down, particularly new ones, and the boxes and mail therein damaged. It is apparent that the complaints were the result of either mischief or malice in many instances and it is requested that everyone having knowledge of the offenders cooperate with the Federal authorities by making prompt report to the Postmaster when they have any knowledge of the person or persons causing the damage.

"Many persons are unaware that it is a federal offense to damage rural mail boxes; but it is entirely possible that persons convicted of this offense will be required to pay a fine of one thousand dollars or serve three years in the penitentiary."

OUTSTANDING RADIO STARS TO BE IN BROWNFIELD FOR TWO BIG DAYS

GERMANS SEGREGATE JEWS IN WALLED GHETTO

For the first time in modern history, Jews are living in a walled ghetto. Nazi officials have isolated 300,000 members of the Jewish district in Warsaw. Crowded almost beyond endurance and restricted to an extent unbelievable in so-called civilized times, these people continue to eke out an existence in Poland.

No electricity or gas may be used after 8 p.m. within the ghetto, and no one may leave without a special pass. Similarly, no Gentile may enter the restricted area without official permission. Tramway service between the ghetto and other parts of Warsaw has been discontinued. Germany has succeeded, by ruthless methods, in segregating the Jewish population in this conquered city.

Unbelievably, Germany is apparently proud of its accomplishment, for officials recently announced they would soon release a film depicting Jewish life in Poland. Propaganda Minister Hitler, in announcing the film over the radio, described it as an "absolute symphony of disgust and horror."

For foreign consumption, however, the description of the situation in Warsaw is different. A recent German shortwave broadcast to Spain described the walled ghetto as a suburb that had been turned over to the Jews.

NEW PRESS-JOURNALISTIC BUILDING FOR TECH

LUBBOCK, Jan. 13.—Construction work was started Jan. 8 on a $70,000 press and journalism building at Texas Technological college. The new structure will be of brick and stone and the architecture will harmonize with the modified Spanish type buildings already on the campus. It will have two stories of approximately 60 feet by 120 feet with a basement for storage.

The building is located between the library and engineering building and faces east. It will house offices and class rooms for the department of journalism, the Tech Press, the college publicity department, the Toreador, semi-weekly student newspaper, college yearbook, the Tech magazine, photographic studio, a journalism library and reading room, and several extra offices.

In addition to housing the activities mentioned, the four class rooms in the building will afford much needed class room space for other departments of the college. Contract calls for completion of the structure by late summer so that it will be available for use at the opening of the fall semester.

With the new home the laboratory plan of teaching journalism can be further emphasized. Students will be able to become familiar with all processes of newspaper production first-hand. The building is being financed by income from the student publications and the Tech Press.

Approximately 85,000 New York public school children may now buy a half pint of milk at their lunch periods for one cent through a new milk distribution program.

Prices of lower grade beef may not be as low as they seem when allowance is made for greater losses due to bones and shrinkage in cooking.

One of the most favorite stars now on the air waves will appear on the stage of the Rialto Theatre next TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY. None other than UNCLE EZRA SMITH with his BARN DANCE FROLIC will be here in person and this is positively his first personal appearance in this territory. On a coast to coast tour they will bring lots of music, comedy and dancing... a clean attraction with entertainment for the entire family. In addition to the BLUE MOUNTAIN RIDGE RUNNERS and many other prominent radio stars, there will be the celebrated radio blackface comedians, MOLASSES and JANUARY known and beloved by all who have heard them on the air. Another in an outstanding series of stage shows, the management is bringing this with no addition in prices. There will be the regular screen show, BLACKOUT, starring Conrad Veidt and Valerie Robson.

GOBBLER DRIFTED 35 MILES

Another instance of wild turkeys drifting a considerable distance has been found by the State Game Department. A gobbler trapped in Hill Country last spring and released near Kerrville in April, was shot by Dr. Dalton Richardson of Austin near the close of the hunting season on a ranch approximately 35 miles from where the gobbler had been banded and released nine months previously.

Turkeys will drift in search of food and cover if there is not sufficient of one or both on the area they inhabit.

The FASHION FROCK Of The Week

FOR DRESS-UP OCCASIONS As Worn in Hollywood by Rochelle Hudson Youthful Star of the Screen

Every woman likes to have in her wardrobe one dress that she feels is appropriate and upon which she depends for special occasions—sort of a party dress. This week's fashion is that kind of a dress. It has just the right style touches to give it elegance without giving the wearer the appearance of being over-dressed. Two outstanding style features are the neckline and the waistline. A lovely collar of rich black rayon satin is set off by the distinctive dress-fabric flower at the neck. The waist is shaped by rows of shirring to form an empire effect. A rayon satin girde crosses at the front and ties at the back. The skirt is full with soft draping folds complimenting any figure. The material for Miss Hudson's dress is a mossy rayon crepe in crushed cherry shade. Lime green also makes up well in this lovely flattering style. Let this week's fashion be your guide, for selecting that frock for "best" wear.

BAPTIST CHURCH

This fine weather should encourage church attendance and we are expecting the best average attendance this church has ever had during this year. Why should the people not attend church, the only divine institution for which Christ gave His life and which He founded Himself.

The attendance here was fair last Sunday with three joining by letters and one for baptism.

The Bible School each Sunday morning is a fine opportunity for every family in the community not attending elsewhere, to study the Bible with the best helps that are published written by those specially prepared by study to explain the Bible.

The Training Union meeting each evening before the preaching hour is an opportunity for young and old to give expression in Christian training and development and our best leaders are coming out of this service as it is in fact a training institution for the development of each individual in the Christian graces.

The women of the church work in their own Women's Missionary Union and every woman of the church should be active in that work.

The Brotherhood for the men of the church is a place of activity and service for the men in which they may have free expression and opportunity for study and development. The Brotherhood meets monthly and next Monday evening is their regular monthly meeting and it is hoped that the men may come in large numbers for their first meeting of the year.

These organizations all unite in the support of the church which is the institution founded by Christ and they all do the work which He commanded and give all the people an opportunity to render some form of service in a personal way.

If you are a Baptist and not in the church we have a place of service for you and invite you to come with us.

PARENT-TEACHER STUDY GROUP

"This World of Ours" is the theme of the Parent-Teacher study course being conducted by Rev. Fred A. Walker every Thursday at 4:00 o'clock in the High School auditorium.

The local Parent-Teacher organization met jointly on Thursday, Jan. 9, for the first of the series of lectures and discussions. Rev. Walker gave an interesting lecture on "How the United States Came About." He brought out the fact that the United States was settled by courageous people who braved the hardships of making homes in a new world in order that they might worship God in their own way.

They brought with them a background of the best old-world culture; and, in a new world they developed rugged characters, a new philosophy of life, a new culture, and the ideals of democracy. Rev. Walker pointed out that the nation thus founded now provides all the essentials of a true and lasting democracy—splendid opportunities for personal advancement, equal educational advantages; equality of men and women in the home and in civic and political life; the right of self-expression and of self-government.

The topic for study on Thursday, Jan. 16 is "It is a Small World." Everyone is welcome.

NINETY PER CENT

A poll was recently taken in Portland, Oregon, by the Oregonian, on the subject of strikes in defense industries.

Ninety per cent of the people queried said that the Federal government should take steps to prevent such strikes. Only ten per cent said No.

Of the union members queried 83 per cent favored Federal action, as against 17 per cent which opposed it. A large number said they always believed in labor's right to strike, but now thought the emergency justified temporary limitations of this right. National defense, they observed, overshadows all other considerations.

The poll also asked how strikes should be prevented. Seventy-nine per cent of those answering favored compulsory arbitration by the government.

This poll undoubtedly represents the collective opinion of practically all the people of this country, including the thoughtful workmen. It is a bitter commentary that when the government is conscripting tens of thousands of young men and paying them a dollar a day, and offering their lives to the country, a radical segment of labor that is being paid the highest wages in history, and working the shortest hours, forces strikes for more.

Most significant fact produced by this poll is the attitude of union workmen. They, no less than the public at large are overwhelmingly opposed to strikes in defense industries. This bears out the opinion that the majority of working men are sincerely patriotic, and want to work for their country's defense—and that the recent strikes have simply been forced on them by a small number of racketeers and malcontents. The labor leader who falls into that category—and there seems to be too many of them these days—is the worst enemy the honest worker has.

In reality, however, Pontiac prices are within reach of any new car buyer. They begin at $828 and progress upward in very easy stages.

What's more, owners say that their Pontiacs are very economical to operate. If you're planning to buy a new car soon, be sure to consider a Pontiac "Torpedo." It's built right and priced right to give you more for your money.

PUBLIC SHOWING INTEREST IN WILDLIFE

The year 1940 was marked by vastly increased co-operation and interest by the public in the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission's efforts to conserve wildlife of the state, the executive secretary of the Department said today in Austin.

"A better understanding of the aims of the Game Commission has brought about co-operation from persons in all walks of life," the executive secretary said. "It was only a few years ago that most persons turned a cold shoulder to all efforts of conservation groups to save the natural resources of the country. However, as the public begins to realize the need for saving the soil, forests and game and fish the co-operation has increased. It grew by leaps and bounds in 1940.

"Real sportsmanship has increased, surveys by our fish and game wardens and biologists disclose. The tendency to observe game and fish laws is increasing as sportsmen realize the need for such measures to protect our wildlife.

"Each month of 1940 found more schools falling in step with the march of conservation forces. Whole country school systems are now teaching conservation and the Game Department is co-operating to the fullest extent of its limited funds. Civic clubs are growing more conservation minded, as is attested by the increasing demands upon the Department for speakers well versed in wildlife and

DOES FORD PAY GOOD WAGES?

HERE ARE SOME FACTS about Ford Labor. During the year ended November 30th, 1940, the Ford Payroll throughout the United States averaged 113,628 hourly wage earners, not including office employees, students, or executives. They were paid $185,105,912. On this basis, the average annual wage was $1,629.05.

According to the latest available government figures, the annual average wage of all workers in employment covered by old age insurance law was $841.00.

If the 45,000,000 workers of this country received the same average wage as Ford employees, they would have had additional wages of more than $35,000,000,000, thus increasing the national income about 50%. Think what such an increase would mean to the workers of this country and to the American farmer, whose prices are based on the national income.

Wage scales in the Ford Rouge plants are divided into three classifications:

- Unskilled . . . Minimum hiring wage . 75c per hour
 - Semi-skilled . . . Minimum hiring wage . 80c per hour
 - Skilled . . . Minimum hiring wage . 90c per hour
- Higher wages are in consideration of ability and years of service.

Minimum wage scales for unskilled labor at the Rouge plant are the highest in the industry. Top wages for skilled labor compare favorably with, or are higher than, wages in other automobile plants.

Now some facts on Ford labor conditions:

Not only are sanitation and other health conditions the best in the industry, but Ford also leads in safety devices for the protection of employees. Proof of this is found in the following comparison of compensation insurance costs:

The national average rate in automotive manufacturing plants as computed by the National Association of Underwriters is in excess of $1.50 premium on each $100 payroll. The Ford cost of workmen's compensation is less than 50c.

This indicates that the chance of injury in a Ford plant is much less than in the average automobile plant.

The Ford Motor Company has no age limit for labor, and in fact deliberately attempts to keep older workers working. The average age of Ford workers at the Rouge and nearby plants is 38.7.

A recent check-up shows that nearly one-half the workers at these Ford plants were 40 or over, falling into these age groups:

- 25,819 between 40 and 50
- 14,731 between 50 and 60
- 3,377 between 60 and 70
- 417 between 70 and 80
- 12 between 80 and 90

In addition to the so-called regular employees, the Ford Motor Company has hired, and now has on the payroll, at the same regular hourly wage, thousands of workers who are blind, crippled or otherwise incapacitated for normal productive work. They are not selected for their ability to build cars or to maintain the plant. They are on the payroll because of Henry Ford's belief that the responsibility of a large company to labor goes beyond the point at which the unfortunate worker can no longer produce profitably.

The above are facts. They are open to anyone who really wants to deal in facts. Anyone who wants to get a job . . . buy a car . . . or place a national defense contract on the basis of fair labor treatment must place Ford at the top of his eligible list.

Information About Enlisted Boys Wanted

In the last issue of the Terry County Herald, the Chamber of Commerce, had an article asking that we have a complete check of all our boys who are now serving in the armed forces of the United States. This information to be obtained by you as parents reporting to the Chamber of Commerce, The Terry County Herald, or the Terry County Selective Service Board, the name of your boy and such like. The names, when assembled, to be printed in the Terry County Herald under a column headed "On Our Country's Roll of Honor."

This information is sought, in the first place to do honor to those boys who are now giving of their time for our defense if need be, to give their lives for our protection; in the second place the Chamber of Commerce, expects to offer its services to assist the boys to find employment when they return home after they have finished their training.

We hope you as parents of these boys will cooperate with us 100 per cent in furnishing your boy's name to us. Don't wait thinking we know your boy is in service and that his name will be turned in without your assistance, for we expect you to do that, and if we adopted a policy of this kind a number of boys would be overlooked but if you see to it that the name is furnished, there can't be any mistake made. Don't fail us in this matter. See on the 3 concerns listed above and if it is all the same to you, see the Chamber of Commerce for they are securing some information as to what work you boy can do or would like to do, which will be of assistance to the boy when he has returned home.

Hockley County Still Tops Ginnings

Hockley county maintained its South Plains ginning lead for the Dec. 13 report of the bureau of the census, with a slight increase over Lamb county, and with Lubbock third and Lynn fourth, the report of the bureau shows.

Area ginnings for 19 counties were 388,799 bales, compared with 365,676 for the corresponding date for the 1939 crop, a gain of slightly over six per cent. Ginnings were 23,123 bales greater.

Dawson Is Fifth

In the area Dawson ranks fifth; Terry, sixth; Bailey, seventh; Scurry, eighth and Crosby, ninth, all with more than 20,000 bales ginned.

Lynchings In 1940

Crime of lynching, which took five lives last year, has been declining steadily in the U. S. for the last half-century.

Five persons were lynched in the United States in 1940, according to reports compiled in the Department of Records and Research of Tuskegee Institute in Alabama. This is two more than the number three for the year 1939, one less than the number six for the year 1938, and three less than the number eight for each of the years 1937 and 1936. One of the persons lynched was taken from jail; one was shot to death in jail. In twenty-two instances officers of the law prevented lynchings.

None of the lynchings occurred in Texas.

The crime of lynching has been declining for the last fifty years. During the ten years from 1889 to 1898, inclusive, 1,604 lynchings occurred in the United States. During the last ten years, 1931 through 1940, there were 114 lynchings. That is, the number of lynchings during the last decade is equivalent to only a little more than 7 per cent of the number of lynchings for the ten-year period ended with 1898.

Real progress is being made in the effort to eliminate completely this crime against law and against mankind. Within a period of fifty years the average annual number of lynchings has been cut down from approximately 160 to less than a dozen. And this progress has been made, and is continuing without the existence of a Federal anti-lynching law. The States are handling the problem. —The Texas Digest.

A MIRACLE

She was an old Irishwoman on her way back to Dublin from the North. The customs man fished out a bottle from its temporary sanctuary in a voluminous night-dress.

"And what's this?" asked the customs man.

"Shure, an' it's holy water," said the old lady, clutching it. The customs man had his suspicions; pulled out the cork; sniffed.

"This is whiskey," he said sternly.

Up went the old lady's hands in amazement.

"Glory be! A miracle!"

Research Helps Cotton Blend With Livestock

Experiments and Years of Experience Prove Value Of Feeds

(Editor's Note: This is the third of a series, "Blending Livestock With Cotton," printed as a service to farmers and stockmen.)

Behind the South's present program of blending cotton and livestock production in a balanced farming system are years of Experiment Station research and experience that have proved the value of cottonseed feed products in livestock rations.

Early experiments with cottonseed feed products began sixty to seventy years ago, records show, and the passage of the Hatch Act in 1887, providing for Experiment Stations as we now have them, gave an impetus to scientific research with these Southern feeds. Among Southern States reporting early feeding trials with cottonseed products were South Carolina in 1881, Tennessee and Texas in 1889, Arkansas in 1890, and North Carolina in 1892. Many other Experiment Stations, in the Cotton Belt and elsewhere, conducted cottonseed products research prior to 1900.

As a result of many years of tests, plus long experience in using cottonseed feed products on the range and on farms, these feeds from Southern cotton fields have become a standard part of livestock rations over a large part of the nation. Among many important facts proved by research are these:

1. Cottonseed meal may be fed to dairy cows in as large amounts as is desired, if an adequate source of Vitamin A is provided. It is palatable, not constipating, does not have a harmful effect on health, reproduction or lactation of dairy cows, and does not increase susceptibility to udder infection.

2. Properly used in balanced rations, cottonseed meal is a good protein supplement for swine, and helps to make pork of desirable hardness.

3. Cottonseed meal, cake and hulls give good results in work stock rations.

4. Cottonseed products are excellent feeds for beef cattle of all ages, equalling or exceeding other comparable feeds in result of many experiments. Just as good beef has been produced on cottonseed meal and hulls as on a ration of corn and alfalfa.

5. Cottonseed products give good results in rations of sheep on the range, farm or in the feed lot.

6. Cottonseed meal is a good source of protein in rations of baby chicks and growing chickens.

With Experiment Stations constantly reporting results confirming these facts, each year enables Southern farmers and livestock feeders to make more efficient and economical use of their own feeds. These facts, along with the annual availability of cottonseed products at the more than 450 cotton oil mills throughout the Cotton Belt, have made cottonseed products the "link," Southern agricultural and livestock leaders point out, cotton and livestock have become mutually dependent upon each other, and a sound, balanced farming program in the South requires the production of both cotton and livestock.

OLD SURRETT HOUSE TO BECOME RESTAURANT

The old house at 604 H Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., where Mrs. Mary Surratt lived and where the plot to assassinate President Lincoln was alleged to have been laid, is to be turned into a modern Chinese restaurant.

There had been little change in the house for sixty years after the assassination and the hanging of the conspirators who were alleged to have been implicated in the murder of the Civil War President. Finally, in 1925, the building was converted from a residence into commercial property and rented to Chinese merchants, who have occupied it for the past several years.

The structure, which is about 23 feet wide and built on the corner of an alley, is four stories high, with a flat facade. The top story is an attic with two dormer windows in front. That section of the city, once semi-fashionable and purely residential, is now largely commercial.

Miss Katherine Underwood spent the past week end with her parents at Afton.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Dubaney of O'Donnell were guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis Sunday.

eral public of the dangers of venereal diseases and on how to protect themselves from these diseases. Many Wasserman Tests were taken during the year and as a result several new cases of syphilis were discovered and placed under treatment. Many venereal disease patients were given treatment during the year by the Director at clinics held in Brownfield and Lamesa by the request of the local doctors.

Sanitation Program

The sanitarian conducted a wide-spread program throughout the area which included periodical inspection of all food establishments, tourist camps, and the school buildings. Two hundred and thirty-two visits were made to cafes and other food handling establishments and an effort was made to secure proper cleaning and sterilization of dishes and other food utensils. One hundred and seventy-seven visits were made to schools throughout the area and a great many improvements in sanitation about grounds and buildings were obtained. Several new water systems and excreta disposal systems were installed in the schools.

Milk Control Program

The Health Unit was instrumental in getting the city of Brownfield to pass a standard milk ordinance during the year. A sanitarian took over the work necessary to the enforcement of this ordinance. As a result eight new dairies were built and two other dairies extensively remodeled in the Brownfield territory in order to comply with this ordinance. All dairies were inspected regularly in order to improve the quality and purity of milk sold to the public.

Sanitary Engineering Program

As a result of the work of the Sanitary Engineer many improvements in the water supplies in the cities of the area have been made during the year. All the cities were advised as to what improvements were necessary in their water supply system in order for them to obtain a state approved water rating. The sanitary engineer has worked with the Soil Conservation Service and other federal agencies to improve the water systems and excreta disposal systems in every farm home. The engineer was frequently consulted relative to improvements in many private water supply systems and waste disposal systems. An intensive health education program was carried on by the Unit throughout the year. This program consisted of weekly health newspaper articles, frequent health talks, and showing of health motion pictures to clubs and schools throughout the area.

Other Health Services

A dental health program was set up in the schools and as a result some seventy-five hundred dental examinations were made by the dentists with the aid of the county health nurses. An effort was made to see that all dental defects were corrected by the family dentist.

Members of the Health Unit work with the Crippled Children Division of the State Department of Education in finding children in need of treatment.

Question of Taxing All Natural Resources

The question of taxing all natural resources in a manner adequate to enable the people of Texas to recapture a just share of the God-given heritage of natural wealth is rapidly becoming a political issue in this state. Over three-quarters of a billion dollars of such irreplaceable resources are now being withdrawn annually. No area of similar size on the face of the globe is so richly endowed. No other area has supplied the wealth to create swollen fortunes for non-residents, while the masses of Texas' people remain in poverty and are denied many of the social services because the income and wealth that should be paying for such services are drained out to further enrich the already wealthy states of the East and North.

For years now the people of Texas have been fed on an improvised diet of propaganda, built upon some of the most incredible fallacies and fictional stories that high finance ever perpetrated upon an unsuspecting and gullible people.

Is this a strong statement? Can it be sustained by irrefutable facts? Reserve your judgement until you read the accompanying articles. If any doubt remains, notice that the official documents

During the past twelve months we have witnessed a vast campaign of publicity running monthly in some 500 newspapers of Texas at a cost of tremendous sums of money to propogandize public opinion and delude the people of this state about the tax question. The vast effort, of course, is aimed at influencing the next Legislature. Approximately 90% of the new lawmakers elected to that body, let us remind ourselves, ran on a natural resource platform. These promises are definite moral obligations which these Senators and Representatives owe to their people and should be kept.

The geologists and other best informed and unbiased authorities tell us that the bulk of our natural resources will be gone in another generation, leaving sleepy towns over-burdened with boom time debts, polluted soils and streams, with an impoverished people to support the tax load, while the exploiters have moved on to greener fields. When the real account of our negligence and gullibility on the tax question during these years has finally been written, it will constitute one of the most sordid, pathetic and tragic stories in the political annals of Texas.

For several months Texas Citizen, assisted by a staff of research specialists, has been running down some of the tales about natural resource taxation as told in Texas. The facts are set forth and explained in the accompanying articles. They depict conditions of profound significance to the future of our state and its common people, and should be read by every citizen who puts the future welfare of Texas above the interest of its Eastern exploiters.—Texas Citizen.

Influenza Complicated With Pneumonia

AUSTIN, Jan. 13.—While influenza is prevalent, the citizens of Texas are warned that they should not be in too big a hurry to return to their work following a siege of this disease. Influenza of itself is seldom fatal, but complications, principally pneumonia, are the cause of death, asserts Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The number of cases of pneumonia reported last week was four times the usual incidence at this season of the year. The increase corresponds almost directly with the amount of influenza reported.

The termination of the acute symptoms of influenza does not indicate a complete recovery. Many persons believe this to be true and return to their daily routine, only to suffer a relapse. Others plod along in a weakened state, harbor a sub-acute cold, and be continuing to lower their resistance, invite prolonged trouble.

Past experience indicates that the longer an epidemic persists, the more severe it becomes. The possibility of complications increases; therefore, early medical care in any suspected case of influenza is very important. Success in handling pneumonia depends on early recognition, and its onset may be unrecognized by the patient. In general a sharp pain in the chest on breathing and coughing may mean that pneumonia has developed.

Proper medical care during attacks of influenza will prevent persons returning to work until it is safe to do so, and thus lessen the chances of having pneumonia.

The price paid farmers for their milk is geared to its butter fat content. Legal butter fat minimums for milk usually range from 3 to 3.5 per cent.

HOME OWNERS FORUM

By ABNER GORDON

THE maintenance of cleanliness in the home garage as well as its redecoration are often made difficult due to those stubborn oil stains which commonly appear on walls, doors or trim. Lubricating oil is non-drying and tends to penetrate deeply into wood insufficiently protected. Consequently, if not completely removed, the stains not only become deep rooted, but also prove an insecure foundation for painting, causing the film to discolor and soften. However, a comparatively simple treatment renders the affected wood suitable for redecoration.

Scrub the stained areas thoroughly twice with a strong trisodium phosphate or sal soda solution, allowing at least a week for the wash to dry between applications. Follow with a straight household ammonia rub to neutralize the surface alkali which inevitably remains as a result of the solution treatments. When the surface is dry once again, a thin sealer coating of pure orange shellac over previously spotted areas renders the wood suitable for painting.

As assurance against further difficulties, apply pure white lead paint which is impervious to the action of oils, water, dirt or grease. Consequently, any stains which may result are easily removable by simple washing.

Q.—Are there insulation materials which can be blown into the wall spaces of old houses without costly reconstruction?

A.—Yes. There are several manufacturers producing what is known as fill insulation which is readily poured or forced under spaces after construction is complete.

Fill insulation is simply granulated mineral wool or a variety of other basic ingredients of a cellular structure.
