WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM CONGRESSMAN
CLYDE L. GARRETT

ADJOURNMENT

Leaders in both houses are predicting adjournment of Congress to be around the latter part of July or the first of August. Obstacles to early adjournment are major bills and proposals to be taken care of. Included in these are the President's reorganization by the President providing a "master plan for the development

750,000,000 for the next fiscal year revision of Social Security Act, National Labor Relations Act, and the Neutrality Act.

TOLL HIGHWAYS

A rather definite decision was reached by the Bureau of public Roads on the subject of toll highways. The Bureau stated that the cross-country toll highways in the United States, which have often been suggested, would not be economically feasible. A suggestion was given, however, that this country needs a carefully planned system of express highways in the big cities to speed traffic. 90 per cent of the traffic on main highways near the entrances to large cities is bound to or from points in the cities themselves and cannot be routed around with by-passes. The plan was referred to the President as providing a "master plan for the development of all of the highway and street facilities of the Nation."

DEFICIENCY BILL

Congress has sent the second deficiency appropriation bill to the President for his approval. The bill's total of $162,000,000 includes $153,000,000 for army ordnance and supplies, sea-coast defense, construction and machinery in replacing naval vessels and armor, and naval armament and ammunition.

FIRST FIFTY FAMILIES

A list of the "first fifty" families in the U. S. has been compiled by the Social Security Board. These are not the fifty wealthiest families but those who have the most pride of distinction of having names more frequently used than others in the country. These names appear in the rolls of workers who have applied for Federal Old-Age insurance. Approximately 10 per cent of the 43,900,000 account numbers assigned under the Federal old-age insurance system are held by workers with some of these fifty names. The Smiths head the list with approximately 418,000. The Johnsons, Browns, Williamses and Millers follow, in that order, with the Joneses holding sixth place. The Owens and Nichols families are tied for last place among the "first fifty" having about 20,000 each.

STOCKS

In the field of recent legislation the authorization of $100,000,000 to acquire stock of minerals and other materials strategically essential to war. In amending and passing a Senate bill for this purpose, the House provided that America strategic minerals should be acquired in building up this emergency stock as far as possible

SOCIAL SECURITY TAX

Chairman Doughton, of the House Committee on Ways and Means announced that the Committee will recommend that Congress hold social security pay roll taxes at the present level for the next three years. One percent is the present pay-roll tax for old-age benefits, but under the present law, the tax would increase next January, to one and one-half per cent. According to the committee, the decision to keep it at one percent would save employers and employees a total of $250,000,000 in tax payments during the three-year period.

AIR BASES

Congress was asked by the President to appropriate $31,621,000 for an immediate start on construction of a chain air bases in the Pacific Ocean, and in addition, authorization of other work in connection with the air program. The House Appropriations Committee will consider the requests in connection with the $688,000,000 regular Naval Appropriation Bill. In the meantime, the House Military Committee favorably reported a bill authorizing $5,000,000 for enlarging land areas of the military posts and to create an anti-aircraft target range in the Mohave desert in California.

PENALTY

Under a bill reported by the House Judiciary Committee, penalty for conviction of espionage during peace time would be increased from ten years imprisonment to ten years. Another bill, reported by House Military Affairs Committee would bar all persons convicted of desertion from military forces in past wars from re-entering to the United States.

REORGANIZATION

The President has submitted to Congress the first of his reorganization plans. His plan would effect the White House, Federal Security Agency, Federal Works Agency and the Federal Loan Agency, and many smaller bureaus and agencies under these. The plan calls for consolidating these agencies by grouping them and heading these by a single head. It is estimated that about $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 a year out of $235,000,000,000 expenses will be saved. The gain in efficiency, however, is greater as it will bring about coordination and centralization of authority. Congress has 60 days in which to approve or disapprove his plan.

THE WORM LOZENGER

Boy Scouts Building World's Fair Camp

Layout of the two-acre Boy Scout camp at the New York World's Fair, to be used by 3900 different Scouts and leaders from all sections of the United States during the Fair season.

Any qualified member of the Boy Scouts of America may apply for an opportunity to take part in a unique demonstration and service camp at the New York World's Fair. Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, has announced. The plan for a Scout camp of approximately 150 different Scouts and leaders each week, on a two-acre site within the Fair grounds from April 30 to October 31, was approved by formal action of the managers of the World's Fair Corporation and the National Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The camp, to be located immediately adjacent to the Federal Building, will accommodate four Troops of 32 Scouts and four leaders. Each site will be equipped with tents of various colors and designs. There will be a large tent for the display of Scouting including woodcraft, handicraft and campcraft. There will be opportunity for Troops that have produced outstanding articles of handicraft and campcraft to have them shown in this tent at the World's Fair and the exhibit will represent the finest craftsmanship so far developed by Scouts.

Near this tent there will be an open area for flag ceremonies, together with a rustic campfire amphitheatre for dramatics and other spectacular demonstrations and a dining hall with full equipment.

Totem Pole at Gateway The gateway is to be an imposing one with a 40 foot totem pole. The headquarters building will serve as the administration center for the camp, and a stockade will surround the entire camp area. In line with the symphony of colors of the World's Fair the Scout camp will be most colorful with the flying flags of all Scout nations waving aloft, a symbol of world brotherhood and a friendly greeting to visitors from all over the world.

Contacts with Officials Service projects will be an important part of a Scout's program during four or five hours each day. This will put Scouts in touch with the management of the enterprise, and they will have many occasions to meet the distinguished persons involved in the Fair.

There will be accommodations for only 3,900 of the 1,271,000 present registered Scout membership, most of whom, judging from requests already on hand, would like to avail themselves of this privilege. The opportunity will be open to Scouts in any part of the United States who meet the standards prescribed by the National Council, and preference will be given to applications in the order of their receipt.

All camp reservations must be made through local Scout Councils and not directly with the National Council.

Methodist Church

Hamilton Wright, Pastor

Now, school activities over, let's and preaching service and again at the night service at 8 o'clock. Leagues meet at 7:30 o'clock. God broadcasting over Station "ISAIAH" 58:13: "If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath on doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord honorable; and shalt honor him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words; then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

We're no more Methodist Episcopal Church, South. That church went out last week. We're now "Methodist Church in America," 8,000,000 strong with probably 16,000,000 adherents.

At the evening hour the pastor will preach an evangelistic sermon entitled "How a Woman Knocked Out the World's Strongest Man in the Fourth Round."

The Lord adds to His church. Man cannot do that. He has a Church that takes in every redeemed person irrespective of sect. It is His body. We do not get into it by making resolutions, "turning over a new leaf," but through His mystical body. Neither does joining any sect make us members of His Body—the Church. Our churches, so-called, contain tares as well as wheat. The sifting process is God's. All Christians belong to His mystical body. Entrance is through baptism—Holy Ghost baptism. Water baptism is merely the picture. Come Sunday morning to church and head the preacher as he takes from God's word the truths about real church membership. Baptism is administered by the Holy Spirit, not man; water baptism by man, picturing the Holy Spirit baptism. Listen to John the Baptist: "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance; but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptise you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire." Matthew 3:11.

Your are urged to attend these services Sunday.

First Baptist Church

A. A. Davis, Pastor

Last Sunday was indeed a great day with us. A large crowd attended the services and the spirit of the Lord was strikingly evident. We sincerely trust that all who wore the red flowers will be enabled to wear the same on next Mothers Day—and that those who wore the white flowers will love and cherish memory more and more as the days pass and go.

We appreciate very much the kindness of the Church toward us in sending us to the Southern Baptist Convention in Oklahoma City this week. We know it will be a great meeting, filled with great and good things about the Lord and His great work. We will return for our regular service Sunday and extend to one and all an invitation to share the blessings of our services. The Sunday School continues to grow—yet we have not nearly reached our possibilities. Our attendance has increased more than 100 percent in the past four months, but let us not so much as pause for relaxation—let us go on and on enlisting, enlightening, encouraging, edifying, working, praying, preaching while we have the day, the night will come when no man can work. God will continue to Bless His Word of Truth and gracious will be the testimony of those who Hear the word. We're only Pardoned Sinners, Saved by the Grace of God thru our own.

When we were yet Sinners Christ died for us—and if He would do so much for us when we were his enemies—why can we not expect great things of the Lord since we have become his friends? Friends 100 years from now—you'll not be in Baird. Where will you be? Why not face the issue like a man. You can never be really happy in this world until you settle this question and settle it right—and settle it forever. No need to scold and abuse you for being a sinner you're that by nature and as such are lost. We inherited death no fault of our own, (1 Cor. 15:22) (Romans 5:12-21). We inherit Eternal life through No Merit of our own (Romans 5:18; Eph. 2:1-8) The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God Eternal Life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Romans 6:23.)

Our Bible School closed last Thursday night after a 9-week session. Fine interest and attendance characterized the school throughout. From testimonies given it is evident that great and lasting good was done in the School. The social hour last Thursday night was indeed pleasant and all apparently enjoyed themselves very much. As soon as our summer meetings are over—we'll have another Bible School, perhaps in October. Meet us at the Baptist Church for Sunday School and preaching services Sunday.

AROUND TOWN

With Otto B. Grate

Hot, Zigzety! Here it is Friday and Around Town time again. It does beat all how your old professor looks forward to these little weekly gatherings (and don't accent the little, either).

What'sit? We were asked last week to classify the blossoming trees in the Jim Taif yard but no one seems to know it correct monicker. It resembles a locust tree in leaf and bloom but the blossoms are orange in color (Otto ya' dope, don't show your ignorance, either ya' know what it is or ya' don't, so let it go at that.)

One of the most unusual and loveliest flowers in town is the hedge rose in Mrs. J. W. Hayes yard. The blooms grow in heavy velvety red clusters (each a bouquet in itself.

Flash! Beauty secret is out—Over heard this chatter the other day; one sweet-young thing asked the other how she manage so perfect a hair dress and how often she fixed it. "Oh" sez the one in question. "I just roll it on the week-end." Such honesty is astonishing.

Back to the lovely yards, which are always a good topic this time of the year: Mrs. J. W. Hammons yard is a particularly lovely sight these days with its flowers and hick foliage shrubs and trees. Mayor and Mrs. Schwartz's holly locks aren't to be over looked and Mrs. Carroll McGowen's cacti are more than attractive.

I could have sworn by everything within reach that the week our spot-light fell on the Tabor family down Bayou way that I mentioned each and everyone but while glancing over some old copy the other day I saw to my regret that one of the very likable daughters Anna May, had been omitted. Gee Anna Mae, honest I'm sorry for the mistake. Some one shoulda' brought it to my attention and not just left me to find it out for myself.

Mrs. Ode Berry brings in this sorker about her mother's dog and cat and its too good not to pass on. These unusual pets, contrary to the laws of nature, are the best of friends and when the dog was laid up the other a gun-shot the kitty was very muchly concerned. Intent on consoling the hurt friend in some manner she went out and killed a rabbit which she brought in to the dog. Can you top that one?

Spot light of the week goes to the Stokes because she in one of the most patient and sweetest dispositioned people I know of. Any one who puts up with the flood questions this department shoots on its frequent trips to that person's home deserves a medal of self-composure.

ON BAIRD CAMPUSES

By Atrelle Estes

With the closing of school we write the final chapter to one of the most pleasant assignments of the year. The school always furnishes an important source of news for any paper and it has been my special privilege to take care of that source. The full cooperation of the student body and faculty has made this column possible and I appreciate what you have done. Mr. Williams has been more than just courteous and helpful and working with him has been a pleasure. If I had personally selected the faculty, Miss Lawrie, Miss Prine, Miss Willard, Miss Ester, Mr. Risinger, Mr. Matthews, Mr. Jones, Coach White, couldn't have arranged a more congenial crowd. Not to be forgotten is the Ward school force headed by Mr. Hugh Smith, Miss Isadore Grimes, Mr. Alford, Miss Barton, Miss Ward, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Mayes, Mrs. Short, Mrs. Lidia and Miss Boatwright. Work with the group has been play. Too many to innumerate but just as important were the youngsters who furnish the subject for this column.

We close this years Baird Campuses as the most successful one to date and look forward to the next season. So enjoy your selves throughout-out the summer but hurry back next fall. I'll be seein' ya' when the old school bell brings us together again. I'll be waitin' with my old pencil and books when you come up the steps.

'Nobody's Business'

By JULIAN CAPERS, Jr

AUSTIN. The optimism of Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, who declared on his Sunday morning radio cast that he felt confident the House of Representatives would pass Senate Joint Resolution No. 12, providing for a constitutional amendment carrying a $40,000,000 tax burden in order to get $10,000,000 more for old age pensions was not shared by many members of the House, as they passed the end of the customary 120-day regular session period. The proposed amendment carries a 2 per cent sales tax, together with slight increases in the natural resources taxes, averaging 25 per cent.

The House beat off numerous attempts to recruit the 100 votes necessary to pass the resolution last week, and then riddled it with amendments. Most important of these removed food, clothing up to $5, medicines and ice from operation of the sales tax.

O'DANIEL TURNS A FLIP

Cold chills went up the spines of Gov. O'Daniel and the special interest lobby which has been advising him in the tax fight, when the House considered an amendment substituting the Townsend-O'Daniel "transaction tax" plan for the sales tax in the pending resolution. Rumors flew about the capitol that Abe Mayes, of Atlanta, author of the substitute, had enough votes lined up to adopt it.

As Mayes spoke for the substitute, O'Daniel ruffled a message to the House, repudiating his endorsement of the transactions tax, and urging the members to support the Senate sales tax resolution, declaring a vote against the latter was "a vote against pensions." The Governor committed a major political blunder, because the vote showed Mayes only recruited 39 votes for his substitute, but the terrible political consequences to O'Daniel, and the equally economic consequence of the special interest groups which authored the transactions tax plan which would have ensued had the House adopted it, made O'Daniel and his advisors so panicky that they ruche into the fight without waiting to see whether they were needed to beat the substitute.

ANTI BLOC STANDS FIRM

The next test scheduled to come Wednesday, when the Senate resolution is up again. Then, if proponents of the measure succeeds in getting the needed 100 votes, it will be passed and sent back to the senate. Naturally the Senate will refuse to concur in the House amendments, and then it will go to a conference committee. The latter which readers may be sure, will be composed of House and Senate members who are advocates of the sales tax, will restore the resolution to approximately its original Senate form before the House amendments were put on, and then it will go back to the House to accept or reject. Thus, the anti-sales tax House members will be forced to take a sales tax or nothing. Thus far, the opposition bloc, led by Joe Morris of Greenville, aided by Albert Derden, of Marlin, Leighton Cornett of Clarksville, DeWitt Hale of Farmersville, Bob Woods of Marshall, and others, has held its lines fast, and 89 votes were all the sales taxers could muster on the last test. Whether the sales tax will pass in the dying hours is a matter no man can foretell. If the House, on the other hand, rejects the entire amendment this week, then the agony will be over sooner, and the best guess is the Legislature will adjourn shortly instead of dragging out the session another two weeks, as most observers now guess it will.

The House this week rejected the original County Judges Bill, which proposed to lay the burden of nearly $200,000,000 of "dead horse" county lateral road bonds on the backs of the gasoline taxpayers, and prorate the benefits on a basis of how much each county owes. The House passed the Tarwater substitute. It allocates surplus in the State road bond fund to counties on a basis of motor registrations, population, mileage of lateral roads and area, and gives counties the option of spending the benefit money for paying bonds or for building new roads. It assures that a substantial part of the "Santa Claus" money the counties will get from the State will go for building new roads, instead of all going to pay off the "dead horse" bonds. The bill was a compromise between the county judges, who wanted to pay off bonds, and the Texas Good Roads Association which wanted the money used to build new roads. The Senate is expected to accept the House compromise before the session ends.

SENATE GOES WILD

The economy program received a severe jolt when the Senate went wild spending orgy, and put more than $7,500,000 additional appropriations onto the appropriation bill for state colleges, for new buildings. The House bill carried a total of about $15,000,000. The Senate wound up with $25,000,000. But the conference committee is expected to take out much of the increase, and the economy program say survive, in part.

AUSTIN NOTES

Somebody is holding the sack for $75,000 for building a building on the campus of John Tarleton College at Stephenville. Gov. Allred issued a deficiency warrant to pay for it. Attorney General Gerald Mann ruled the legislature cannot legally appropriate money to pay off the deficiency. Mann cited the constitutional inhibition against paying claims not based on previous appropriations. The busy Attorney General also answered whispered criticism of lack of progress in his investigation of mutual assessment insurance companies, when he filed suits for receivership and liquidation against four such companies. The legal lights are expecting Gov. O'Daniel to send up a new nomination for Chairman of the Highway Commission this week. They declare a recess appointment cannot be made, since the law says a recess appointment can only be made to fill a vacancy. Since the law also provides Commissioners hold office until their successors qualify, they point out John Wood would remain commissioner, since there would be no vacancy, if O'Daniel should let the session adjourn without getting an appointee confirmed. Three of his choices, Carr Collins, J. C. Hunter and Jim West have been rejected by the Senate. The Senate quickly confirmed O'Daniel's nomination of Dr. W. B. Veazey of Huntsville, as a member of the State Health Board. . . The optometry bill, fought by Texas newspapers because it proposed to limit advertising by optometrists, passed the House, but it was so amended that the anti-advertising provision was taken entirely out. . . Joe Morris, Greenville representative who has led the anti-sales tax forces, is slated to run for Congress next year, against Sam Rayburn, of Bonham, Democratic floor leader under the New Deal. . . An oil portrait of Tom Connally, junior Senator from Texas, was hung in the House with appropriate ceremonies last week.

By Katharine Fisher

Director of Good Housekeeping Institute

I wonder why it is that vegetables get such a poor break. We seem to fuss plenty over the rest of the meal. Yet when it comes to the vegetables, too often they look and taste as if we had left them to shift for themselves—flavorless, limp, sorely in need of seasoning.

It's a pity, too! For all that crisp, colorful vegetables ask of us is to be cooked tender in the shortest possible time, in a small amount of water, and then to be seasoned with a little care. In return they promise to come to our tables so appetizing in both color and flavor that the family, down to the youngest, will ask for a second serving.

KATHARINE FISHER
Director of Good Housekeeping Institute

Now, we've been cooking vegetables in our Institute kitchens for years upon years. And one of the easiest ways to cook them—at least so we find—is in a covered saucepan. I recommend it to you.

Choose one of your saucepans that will hold the vegetables comfortably; then cover the bottom of it with about an inch of water. No, we don't believe in cooking any vegetables, except greens, in a saucepan without water, for there is too much danger of their scorching or burning. Bring this water to a merry boil; then add the salt—one-half teaspoonful for every cup of water used—and, next, the vegetables. Put the cover back on, quickly bring the water to boiling again; then start counting the cooking time. Cook the vegetables until they are just tender but no more. For cooking time, see the table below.

Heed this last tip well, won't you, for when we let our vegetables simmer along for what may seem just a short time after they are done, they are likely to be ruined. So be right at hand when the clock tells you that the vegetable should be done. Test it with a fork, and if it is done, turn off the heat. The little water left in the vegetable can be boiled off with the saucepan cover off; or you can use it as part of the liquid for a sauce to be poured over the vegetable if you want one, or for gravies, or in soups.

And now we come to the last-minute touch—one I hope you will never fail to give. No vegetable, no matter how carefully you may have cooked it, is ready for its serving dish until you have critically tasted and re-tasted it with your family's likes as to seasonings well in mind. So get out your tasting spoons, housekeepers! For, unless I miss my guess, you will find that your vegetable needs just a sprinkle more of salt or pepper, and perhaps some butter or margarine before you can proclaim it a perfectly seasoned dish.

A Precious Heritage

As a minister of the gospel, I have studiously avoided politics. My labors have been in the church among the brethren as a teacher of divine truths. I had rather be a humble shepherd of the hills than a bellowing soapbox orator. I am not concerned over who holds office or what particular economic or industrial policy Congress puts into effect.

These are things for the politician and not the preacher. I can find better business for my hands.

But the clock has struck the hour in America when church people must take a stand for Christian security. It is faced with a serious threat and if there is a continued malignant indifference it will fade like the evening sunset from a sail.

Our loyalty to God is challenged. A rising tide of Atheistic radicalism—opposed to religion, to sound government, and to good morals—is sweeping the land. Every true believer and every faithful patriot is summoned to action. This insidious thing is crawling "inward" and threatening to destroy all that is fair in our civilization, like lava from a volcano destroys fruits and flowers.

If the doors of the Church of God are not to be closed, the country preachers of this land must take a firm stand against that despicable, creeping force that has closed them in other lands.

Every pulpit should become a recruiting station for soldiers willing to take up the flag of Christian Americanism and strike for the safety of the Bible, the Home and independent worship.

Let us protect our spiritual, moral, and political interests; let us renew our allegiance to those vital truths we have always professed, and organize to defend them. The right of the people to worship God as they choose is a precious heritage; the right to work; the right to earn and save and enjoy the fruits of industry are immutable and must never be yielded. If they die, the church will die.

Give thought and prayer to this matter. Regardless of where you live; regardless of what your religious faith may be; regardless of the political party to which you belong, you should act. This is a non-sectarian and non-political contest. We want to build God's temple on such a high hill in America that none can throw it down.

We must defend our faith and guard our altars by defending and guarding the Constitution and the great Court in which that security rests.—Rev. J. Earnest Stack, Editor The Christian American.

You'd be surprised at how many worthwhile suggestions come to us from customers who use these cards. . . And they make it possible for us to give you, through Humble Service Stations, the kind of service you want. . . In other words, we carry on a continuous study of what motorists need and want to make driving an automobile more pleasant, and then we try to give it to them. . . Do we succeed? . . . The check cards say we do, and their opinion is verified by the increasing number of Texas motorists who make it a regular practice to stop for service where they see the Humble sign. . . Seeing is believing, so we suggest that the next time your car needs a tankful of gasoline, you stop at the nearest Humble Service Station and check the service for yourself. . . WHEN they meet in Washington in June, Queen Elizabeth of England and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will wear summer-weight wool dresses—the Queen's a gift from the wool growers of America, and Mrs. Roosevelt's from growers of the British Empire. Material for the Queen's dress, woven from the finest virgin wool from the 34 wool growing states, is shown here being given to Captain Irving of the S.S. Queen Mary for delivery to Buckingham Palace. Left to right are Senator Clark of Idaho, Senator Schwartz of Wyoming, Captain Irving, Christopher Kemble, representing the British Consul General, and G. W. Cunningham, Secretary of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association. Simultaneously, Mrs. Roosevelt announced that her dress will be of light weight summer wool in a shade called "Azure Blue" and that the Queen's, also light weight, will be in a new color called "Queen's Blue."

He talks and sings with lip motion, rolls his eyes, turns his head, moves both arms and is capable of creating facial expressions. His talks and singing are automatic, being run entirely by radio wave, receiving no manual help during the operation.

Tithing To Politicians

I am a preacher and not an expert on taxation. I am concerned in legislation involving moral issues, and I consider any tax measure or program that is unwise, unjust and discriminatory as being highly immoral.

I have concerned myself in such matters because I have learned from experience that high and burdensome taxes are interfering with activities of the churches and hampering denominational programs in many States and communities. Your church and my church can obtain their sustenance only in contributions from what is surplus the donor may have on hand after taxes have been paid. Under the present system of taxation, or rather the lack of a tax system, the taxpayer can seldom accumulate a surplus, and as a result religious activities are retarded. Many of those who once supported the church in an adequate and substantial way have been forced to curtail religious contributions. They are now compelled to tittle to the politicians instead of to the Lord's work.

In many States preachers are becoming tax-minded. They frankly discuss tax problems with legislators. Largely because of this influence a recent session of the Texas legislature adjourned without levying any more taxes although it was called to raise fifteen million dollars.

The very sources from which the churches must derive their revenue are being taxed out of existence by National, State and local agencies. Any man or woman who ever served on a church finance committee knows full well that "burdensome taxes" is too often heard as a reason for failure to adequately meet these obligations. A church cannot balance its budget by "soaking the rich." The politicians have presented that kind of a point where they are now "soaking the churches."

The National Congress and many of the State Legislatures have found it impossible to evolve a program of taxation adequate to produce revenue to equal present expenditures and at the same time permit business, large and small, to survive. There is no escaping the economic rule that excessive taxes inevitably result in inadequate compensation to workers. There is a definite and distinct relation between the tax roll and the pay roll of industry.

The time is not far distant when those who pay the taxes and those who direct the religious activities of America will come to an understanding and correct these deplorable conditions.—Rev. J. Earnest Stack, Editor The Christian American.

JOURNALIST PREDICTS A SPIRITUAL REVIVAL

"GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY, for 3 years, has probed the mass mind and studied public consciousness and comes to the fairly unusual conclusion that the next sweeping mass movement in the United States will be a spiritual revival. He declares that on all sides there are indications that men and women are awakening to the realization that "men shall not live by bread alone."

These conclusions are presented in the May issue of Cosmopolitan magazine in an article entitled: "Faith Interests Me Most in This Cosmopolitan World." The author poses a number of questions. "Is not the world saying there is something wrong? We tried to settle everything by treaty, by law, by edict, by plan. But the world is more unsettled than ever before. What have our wisdom, our science, our statistics, our experience brought us?"

Especially among young people does Sokolsky find a groping for peace of the spirit and faith in something. Youth is demanding satisfaction for its fierce craving for peace, comfort and hope. They have tried to sublimate this craving in other things without success, and in spite of the fact that all they have been taught in schools of higher learning seems to indicate that there is no God, they continue to search for some outlet for their yearning aspirations. Not only is this phenomenon taking form in America but also in China, Russia, Mexico and Germany and other countries where orthodox religion has been under fire.

BANISH CLEANING DAY

By Katharine Fisher

Director of Good Housekeeping Institute

We feel there is too much tradition attached to housework. Wash on Monday, iron on Tuesday, clean on Wednesday, and bake on Saturday is still the custom in many a household.

This was necessary before the days of modern appliances. There was some reason for a cleaning day when the broom was the only sweeping tool. Then furniture had to be covered from the dust, it took time and strength to sweep the carpet, and the dust had to be given time to settle again before a room could be used.

The carpet sweeper, vacuum cleaner and other modern cleaning tools have changed all that. Sweeping and dusting can be a part of the daily routine. And they should be! Then the work becomes a matter of minutes each day instead of hours of work all piled into one day. Your house will always be in order, you will not be worn out, and your family will be delighted to escape the unpleasant domestic upheaval which is a part of the old-fashioned cleaning day. The same principle applies to washing, baking and other household tasks.

We know this to be so because we have proved it. In conjunction with our testing work at Good Housekeeping Institute, we are constantly studying and developing ways of using many kinds of products to better advantage. What's more, our testing staff members take their own medicine by using in their own homes the methods they develop, to find out if they are practical and effective.

Map Out Your Day

You will find that a simple work plan or schedule is a big help. Start with Monday and map out such a plan, assigning special tasks to different days. Then stick religiously to your schedule. Don't forget to include hours for leisure, too. Here is an example of a work schedule for Monday.

Morning	Afternoon
Prepare and clear away breakfast	Take clothes from line; fold and put away those that need little or no ironing.
Children off to school	Free time
Marketing plans or ordering (phone)	Dinner
Wash two loads of clothes
Put bedrooms and bathrooms in order
Put downstairs in order
Prepare and clear away luncheon and tidy kitchen

* The special task for this day.

Speed Under 40 Miles An Hour Cuts Fatalities in Half

TERRIFYING though it may sound, there is no escaping the fact that every automobile is a potential killer, once its wheels begin to roll. And the faster the wheels turn, so does the grin on Death's face grow wider—for Death lurks everywhere along the highway, flapping his black shroud as he speeds along.

There is one definitely established fact in the relationship between speed and safety, writes J. G. Furnas in his article "Speed Limit" in the April Good Housekeeping, and that is that accidents resulting in death occur less than half as often in cars traveling under 40 miles an hour as in cars whose speed is between 40 and 50. And speed over 50 miles an hour means that death will strike in one accident out of every eleven.

Being a woman, Mr. Furnas says, you may be exempt from some of the speed impulses that come over men. Figures do show that the average speed of women drivers is several miles slower than that of men; but modern cars being what they are, slick and insidious in pickup, the woman driver is often equally guilty of the most cardinal of all speed sins—speeding in excess of driving conditions. That is, driving too fast for your own skill under adverse conditions, such as a skiddy road, night driving, poor visibility around curves, an old car, etc.

Speed zoning is an excellent precaution, says the author. With maps, charts, photographs and mileage records before them, traffic engineers survey the whole main highway system of a state, mark off all dangerous stretches, and figure out the top safe speeds for each. That speed is then marked on roadside signs.

Pennsylvania not long ago enforced a 50-mile limit all over the state. Since that limit went into effect, motoring deaths have decreased 40 percent. The answer may lie partly in the fact that violators are deprived of their licenses for three months; if so, fear of incurring the penalty is just what the doctor ordered.

More people believe that the faster they drive their car the more mileage they get per gallon. On the contrary, the writer points out, a light modern car in good shape gets about 20 miles to the gallon at 30 miles an hour. The same car, at 60 miles an hour, gets less than 16 to the gallon. Oil-consumption figures are even of greater disproportion. A car uses almost seven times as much oil at 55 miles an hour than at 30.

So, Mr. Furnas concludes, if the risk of death doesn't worry the careless, reckless driver, thrift ought to make him listen that speeds over 50 are an expensive waste—and make, to boot, for mechanical inefficiency, for every time he increases his speed he shoots up depreciation costs.

Glasses Can Be Flattering

EVERY fifth person in the United States wears glasses. There being over 60,000,000 women in the country, it is estimated that 12,000,000 of them wear glasses—and without exception all think they have two strikes on them from the start. Ruth Murrin, head of the Good Housekeeping Beauty Clinic, doesn't agree. After studying scores of cases, she finds that frequently glasses are actually flattering, and in the April issue of the magazine tells why. To help overcome that feeling of looking "glassy," Miss Murrin lists a few simple Do's and Don't's.

DO'S

Do give your skin superlative care. It takes a good complexion to live up to the shiny trimness of glasses.
Do arrange your hair softly around your face, avoiding both severity and fussiness.
Do strive for smartness in your coiffure. An up-to-date, hair-do counteracts any tendency to appear old-maidish. Be sure to get an upward sweep at your temples.
Do remember that glasses make a strong horizontal effect, flattering to a long face, not flattering to a broad face. In the latter case, correct the widening effect by building your hair up on top, keeping it close at the sides, arching your eyebrows slightly, tilting your hatbrim to one side.

DON'T'S

Don't neglect your skin. Shiny glasses put the spotlight on a muddy complexion.
Don't skin your hair back in plain-Jane fashion.
Don't let your hair fall straight down at the sides.
Don't permit it to become oily, stringy, and flat. Glasses emphasize untidy hair, and vice versa.
Don't wear low bangs, or dips over your forehead, or push your hair forward on your temples in the effort to cover your glasses. This only concentrates attention on them.
Don't let your eyebrows become bushy or woody-looking.
Don't be afraid to make up your eyes.
Don't go without check rouge unless your skin is beautifully tinted by nature.
Don't wear tiny hats or off-the-face hats unless they have a soft rolled rim.
Don't wear broad hats with horizontal lines unless your face is unusually long.
Don't wear metal hat ornaments, fancy earrings, and glittering necklaces. They make you look over-ornamented, and rub against the nice you in back of the mirror.
Do take infinite pains with your make-up, cleaning your face and renewing your beautifiers several times a day.
Do blend your rouge off imperceptibly under your glasses, avoiding any hard line, and not outlining the lower rim of the lenses.
Do make your eyes important with eye shadow and mascara, and make up your mouth beautifully.
