Another Test For Terry County

Machinery and equipment is being installed for a standard deep test on the S. T. Murphy farm, six miles north from Tokio, just inside Terry county line, and drilling is to start last of this week. This is on farmed-out acreage, promoted by J. W. Muchison, an oil operator of Plainview. This territory has been a hot-spot for some time among oil men and all are hopeful of obtaining a producer.

City Drilling Another Well

Our city is growing so fast, that it taxes the two water wells, and facilities to keep up the high standard system of abundant water supply and reserve for fire protection and looking ahead too, the city Dads have recently acquired a site, just east of A. M. Brownfield's residence and are drilling another large sized well, and will immediately install a pump over it, and an earthen reservoir near by, and will tie it in with present water system. Brownfield has an excellent record in fire protection, result of which is one of the lowest insurance rates in the State.

Last Rites For Lon Hicks Held Thursday

Funeral services for Lon Hicks, son of G. W. Hicks, were held Thursday in Fort Worth.

Relatives received word of his death in Los Angeles, Calif., late Tuesday afternoon. Those attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pounds.

Mr. Hicks was employed in the Mico Grocery in Brownfield twelve or fifteen years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hamilton moved into their new home on East Broadway this week.

REPORT OF WORK BEING DONE ON TERRY COUNTY ROAD BONDS

In order that the citizens of our county may be advised as to just what is being done by our county officials toward getting our recent issue of county road bonds assumed by the state, the following set of resolutions that were adopted by the various counties at a meeting at Austin and a letter from Marshall Formby is submitted for their information.

Resolution

WHEREAS, on the 7th day of May, 1941, County Judges and Commissioners representing Andrews, Briscoe, Bailey, Castro, Collingsworth, Cameron, Crane, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Ector, Floyd, Hookley, Hall, Hale, Hartley, Lamb, Martin, Midland, Parmer, Pecos, Potter, Swisher, Terry, Yoakum and Young counties, met at the Driscoll Hotel in the City of Austin, at 8 P. M., for the purpose of taking such steps as might be helpful to enable the Legislature to solve the questions presented by pending Acts for the assumption of County Bonds, and after full discussion the following resolution was presented and adopted:

BE IT RESOLVED that the County Judges and Commissioners here assembled endorse the following program for assumption of County Bonds, and the proceeds of which were used in the construction of State Highways:

FIRST: To unquestionably guarantee the 100% participation by the state during said biennium to the payment of the principal and interest on all county and road district bonds, warrants, etc., which were taken care of 100% out of such revenues under H. B. 688 as passed by the 46th Legislature.

SECOND: That bonds and warrants used in construction of roads that have been designated since January 2, 1939, and prior to January 2, 1941, be made eligible to participate in the County and Road

Clean-Up Week Starts Monday

Senior Patrol Leaders of Brownfield's three Boy Scout troops met in the office of the Terry County Board of Development this week and drew for districts to conduct the city-wide clean-up campaign that starts on Monday, May 26th.

Everyone is urged to participate in this clean-up campaign and see that Brownfield is given a good "going over."

Mayor C. C. Coleman and other city officials has assured the clean-up committee that they will cooperate during the campaign. City trucks will collect trash and remove it to the city dump grounds.

The directors of the Terry County Board of Development voted to award prizes to the Scout troops for their efforts in the campaign. Prizes as follows are offered: First place, $7.50; Second place, $5.00; Third place, $2.50. Duplicate awards will be made in case of a two-way tie.

Last week Mayor Coleman issued a proclamation proclaiming the week beginning May 26th through May 30th as clean-up week and urges everyone to make every effort to clean up around their premises.

Let's all do our part.

Green and Lumnsden Ranch Sold Recently

One of the largest land deals in the history of this county was consummated last week, when deeds were placed on record here conveying to Dan Auld of Kerr County, the Green and Lumnsden ranch of 34 sections, about 22,000 acres, lying on the east line of Terry County just north of the Tahoka highway. The consideration being well over $200,000.00. We have not learned whether or not the ranch will be opened for colonization immediately, or await termination of present lease tenancy early next year.

This ranch is one of the best known of the South Plains, and consists of some of the best farming lands in the west.

City To Get Fifty More Blocks of Paving

Mayor Coleman was advised early this week, by wire from Congressman Mahon, that the President had approved another project to pave fifty more blocks in the city of Brownfield. We learn this will be a WPA job, the paving to be same as the last, as to width and kind. City authorities stated that no streets had yet been designated, and where the paving will be done will largely depend on the residents along such streets. Those interested in paving are urged to cooperate with each other, and with the city council.

There is no doubt that the paving heretofore has not only benefited those living along the streets, but has been a great inducement to many in our adjacent oil territory to move here to live, and the more we do the bigger we grow, and vice versa.

Pleasant Valley Entertains

The Home Demonstration Club of Pleasant Valley community entertained the Terry County Board of Development with a community supper at the school house, last Tuesday evening, which was attended by a large crowd from that community and some 25 business men of Brownfield. The club has about 50 members, and are very progressive and enthusiastic in their work. The meal in abundance consisted of a great variety of well-cooked food, for which that community is famous.

A splendid program consisting of readings and recitations, quartettes and an orchestra, all of local talent, met with frequent applause.

It was not learned where the next monthly meetings will be held, but will be announced later.

Chevrolet Service Men To Be Given Quiz

During the month of May, more than 25,000 Chevrolet service men from the division's 8,500 dealerships will review a year's training program in their regular yearly examination, to be held in each zone throughout the country. Each mechanic will answer a 50-part quiz, those passing winning the Approved mechanic rating.

The quiz summarizes an entire year's work, according to Ed Hedner, national director of service for Chevrolet. Monthly schools are held in each dealership to keep mechanics abreast of the latest developments in the service field. The annual review session affords the mechanic an opportunity to win an Approved Mechanics diploma for a new year.

Materials for the school held in the individual dealerships are provided by Chevrolet, including the shop manual, a monthly service bulletin, slide films prepared under Chevrolet supervision, and other items. Service managers conduct the sessions for their own organization, while a representative of Chevrolet's zone department will stage the review quiz. Two examinations will be given, one for general mechanics, the other for body mechanics.

ANOTHER OUTSTANDING STAGE SHOW COMING TO BROWNFIELD

Mrs. Jones of the theatres here has succeeded in contracting for another outstanding stage show. Due to contractual obligations at the Rialto she will be forced to put the stage show at the Ritz. There will be no advance in admission however. On the stage you will see Billy Barty, well-known star of Our Gang comedies and Mickey McGuire comedies and his Rhythm in Youth company of fun-makers. Included will be Audrey Dennison, specialty dancer, Robert Driscoll, M. C. of today and tomorrow, Evelyn and Dolores, Billy's musical sisters and A Line of Beautiful Girls. You must put this on your "must see" list.

Dr. Parish Active In Scout Work Here

People often overlook those who contribute much to the Civic World within a community unless he or she is active in politics or appearing where the name is often mentioned or seen in showy places. The writer is of the opinion that there are others just as worthy who are seldom mentioned and are doing perhaps more than anyone to help his community especially in building for the future.

In this article it is the writer's purpose to give due honor to Dr. R. B. Parish, who for the past five years has been Scoutmaster of Troop 49. Dr. Parish was born in Houston, Minn., August 22, 1903 and after graduating from the High School there went to the University of Minn. where he received his degree in 1927. After graduation Dr. Parish made an extensive tour of the South and Southwest in search of a proper location to begin his career of Denistry. After locating in Dallas, Texas in 1928, he moved to Brownfield, Texas, in March, 1929 and began the practice that he now enjoys. Since moving to Brownfield, Dr. Parish married Sue Flache, a Brownfield girl, built a nice home and has a two-year-old son who has a bright field in scouting open to him by his father.

Dr. Parish has been active in church, Masonic and Dental organizations as well as having been a Rotarian for the past ten years, but his interest in scout work was kindled in the Rotary Club. The first contact with scouting was as a boy of 12 years at which time Dr. Parish was active in a troop for some three years and then dropped it until he was placed on the Troop Committee by the Rotary Club and later as Scoutmaster. Troop 49 was organized in December, 1936 with only eight boys who wanted scouting and a Scoutmaster who loved boys and knew what scouting could do for them.

As Scoutmaster, Dr. Parish knew that his big object was to become a friend to each boy and now even the lowest "Tenderfoot" knows him as "Doc." Doc has done much for his boys and he points with pride to the results. His troop has won every District Swim Meet since being organized and placed high in the South Plains Area Council each year—last year placing second. They have also placed high in Camporees, first aid, and other contests, recently qualifying three out of four patrols in first aid competition.

"Doc's" boys do much camping and in 1939 took a record crowd of 29 boys from his troop to Camp Post. This year he plans to have boys at Camp Post and Camp We-hen-a-pah.

Two members of his troop are now eagle scouts and two will soon receive this honor.

Now Doc doesn't claim to have the best or smartest bunch of

MAD DOCTOR

Basil Rathbone plays the difficult role of a brilliant scientist driven insane in Paramount's "The Mad Doctor" which opens Tuesday at the Ritz Theatre.

Company D Bulletin Board

The company is to be inspected by the Adjutant General's Department either May 30 or June 6. If at this time it comes up to requirements, the company will then be mustered in and from then on will be eligible to receive regular equipment such as rifles, grenades, etc. Drills will be held twice weekly until inspection.

Major Knickerbocker and two members of his staff visited the company last Friday night. They are headquartered at Odessa.

Due to the graduation exercises being held tonight, attendance at drill is not compulsory, but will be held just the same and guardsmen not having immediate members of his family in the graduating class or are not otherwise directly interested in the exercises are urgently requested to be present at drill.

Members of the 1st Platoon are seriously considering the attaching of strings to their rifles. In doing this they hope to minimize the excessive fumbling and dropping of the wooden muskets that has been taking place in that group.

Company D has been invited to parade with the Lubbock company at the 5th Division, 19th District Legion Convention which will be held in Lubbock, June 14 and 15.

Pvt. Bluford Young drives 22 miles to drill and hasn't been absent since enlistment. Private Young lives in the northern part of the county.

Baptists To Have Homecoming Sunday

More than ordinary significance should be given this event which is expected to bring back for a day hundreds of former citizens who have lived and served among us and will again express their interest and appreciation of their former friends and their wish for the continued success of their former church.

Your friends of other years will greet you at the church next Sunday morning and the Bible study period at 9:45 a goal of 515 has been set.

Speakers for the day are expected to be former pastors, Rev. J. M. Hale of Beaumont, Rev. Douglas Carver, Abilene, and Rev. Forest G. Rodgers of Ranger. Dr. W. R. White of Hardin-Simmons University is expected to address the gathering Sunday evening.

Dinner will be served to all at the noon hour.

Those desiring to furnish eats are requested to bring fruit salad, cake, pickles or bread, as meat will be provided, but don't stay away if it is not convenient to furnish anything to eat as your presence is expected, for this great fellowship hour.

Especially all members of this church living here are expected as well as former members and all Baptist residents not members are urged to attend.

The goal of 200 set for the Training Union at 6:45 P. M. should be greatly exceeded.

Only a few such days of fellowship as this come to a church and people during a lifetime and you should make your plans not to miss it.

Friends other than Baptists are always welcome in our services and it is our hope that hundreds of them may be in the services of the day and meet former friends who will be with us.

Peace officers from the surrounding section converged upon Levelland and threw up a cordon on the principal highways leading out of that town.

At the time this article was being written, the bandit had not been apprehended.

Mrs. Flem McSpadden spent Monday in Denver City on business.

STOCKING NEW LAKES

AUSTIN—New lakes, of which Texas is getting many, are being given special attention by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission without the Game Department neglecting its usual stocking and work on the older bodies of water. The lakes are being stocked heavily with small fish and some of spawning size. Results to date have been excellent, but more comprehensive tests will be made this year due to a large number of lakes being given special attention.

It is admitted that the Texas regulations on the size and number of fish allowed each day are wrong. The size limits should be larger and the creel limit smaller. Wherever the Department has been able to get special regulations the fish population has been increased tremendously.

For example, Lake Austin, at Austin, was closed for slightly more than a year. The Game Department stocked the lake heavily and scientifically. More than 500,

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

The Santa Fe Railway System Carloadings for the week ending May 17, 1941, were 22,694 compared with 18,647 for the same week in 1940. Received from connections were 7,376 compared with 5,612 for the same week in 1940. The total cars moved were 30,070 compared with 24,259 for the same week in 1940. The Santa Fe handled a total of 28,485 cars during the preceding week of this year.

900 black bass fry were placed in the lake, but no large bass were used for stocking purposes because bass are very cannibalistic and large ones would have eaten many of the smaller fish. However, crappie, bream and white bass of spawning size were planted. As they grew their offspring were of approximately the same size as the bass fry planted and thus cannibalism was cut to a minimum. As a result Lake Austin is probably the heaviest populated lake in the state at the present time.

Among the large new lakes which are being treated similarly this year are Possum Kingdom in Palo Pinto County and Lake Travis in Travis and Burnet counties. Almost 1,000,000 bass, bream and crappie fry have already been placed in Possum Kingdom and it is likely the total will reach 1,500,000. More than 200,000 fry have been planted in Lake Travis and a million and a half is the total planned for it.

The Game Department, according to the executive secretary, is attempting to obtain special regulations for these bodies of water. If they are obtained and the Department is able to carry on sufficient improvement work both those lakes should be fisherman's paradises next year.

OPPORTUNITY AND COMMON SENSE

A prominent Southeast Texas rancher recently decided to try buying feed in West Texas for fattening his steers. He bought a large quantity at what he considered a very reasonable price.

But when the feed was delivered at his Beaumont ranch, it had cost him an exorbitant sum—more than $13 a ton. Of that total, $8 a ton had gone to the railroads in transportation charges.

Needless to say, the Southeast Texas rancher will not buy more West Texas feed to fatten his cattle—at least until transportation costs are much lower. It is cheaper for him to do as he and other ranchers have done for years—to ship his livestock to Oklahoma and points north for fattening.

That is the situation which the Trinity River Canal, when it is completed, will correct. A producing region with a wall of high freight rates around it cannot hope to send its products to compete with those of other sections not so handicapped. And West Texas is a vast empire of natural resources, but an empire which is being held closely in check by a system of high freight costs.

Wool, grains, potash, gypsum, livestock—these are only a few of the products that will benefit immeasurably by the coming of cheap transportation to an inland point. For example, there is no processing plant for wool in or anywhere near the area in which a large portion of the nation's entitled to vote at said election.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT an executed copy of this order shall constitute proper notice of said election and that an executed copy of said order shall be posted by the Sheriff of Terry County, Texas, at a public place, to-wit, at the public school building now being used for school purposes in each of the school districts above named which constitute the component parts of the Brownfield Consolidated Independent School District of Terry County, Texas, and such notice shall be so posted for 20 full days prior to the date of said election.
Immediately after said election has been held the officers holding same shall make due returns of the result thereof to the Commissioners' Court of Terry County, Texas.
C. L. LINCOLN,
(SEAL) County Judge, Terry County, Texas.

THE STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF TERRY

I, the undersigned, Clerk of the County Court of Terry County, Texas, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing instrument is a true and correct executed copy of an order and notice of election as issued by the County Judge of Terry County, Texas, on the 6th day of May, A. D. 1941, as the same now appears of record in Vol. 4, at page 263, et seq., of the Commissioners' Court Minutes, and that the signature of C. L. Lincoln, the County Judge of Terry County, Texas, affixed to said executed copy is the true and genuine signature of said official, and that the true and correct seal of the County Court of Terry County, Texas, has been impressed thereon.
Witness my official signature and the seal of the County Court of Terry County, Texas, this 6th day of May, A. D. 1941.

supply is produced. Freight costs prevent it.

For eleven years, a group of far-sighted business and civic leaders of Texas have fought for the building of the Trinity River Canal. Now, after a thorough survey, U. S. Army Engineers have recommended it as a sound project. It is a project which West Texans, for purely selfish reasons if for no other, should support to the limit. It means prosperity untold for the entire Southwest.

Of the six and some odd million people in Texas, only a few hundred knew until Tuesday that that great Texas hero, Sam Houston had a living son in the state. It must be judged then that General Andrew Jackson Houston has never been a great man. The fact that the General could not even receive visitors should indicate that he is not today an able man. His appointment to the United States Senate for a ten weeks term, one of the most critical stages in American history does not then seem to be the act of a man who wants sincerely to be of service to the state of Texas and the nation at large. DEFENSE PROGRAM CALLS FOR INCREASED EGG PRODUCTION

The National Defense Program has necessitated the increase in certain farm products, one being eggs. Mr. Thermohlen, Chief Poultry Division, S. M. A., Washington, D. C., in a recent meeting stated, "we need more eggs, and are going to need about 10 percent more than we have produced in recent years. Under the Lend-Lease Act, the U. S. will send a good many thousand cases of eggs, probably in dried form, to Britain and the Allies; we will need more eggs for our men in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps."

We can increase our egg production by better feeding. Feed a good protein feed or egg mash in addition to providing home produced feeds. Even though a better job of feeding for production is done you can't expect the most from your hens unless they are free from parasites, both external and internal. Cull out your low producers but none that have a possibility of laying a reasonable number of eggs during the next two or three months. Fill poultry houses to capacity with pullets, but do not build new houses unless in line with a practical poultry program. Houses that we have in most cases could be improved so as to give better ventilation, light and comfort. The Government will maintain a fair average price on poultry from now until June, 1943. The price is not pegged at 22c but will vary with seasonal fluctuation in production.

NOT "NATURALLY" LAZY

College Station—Children aren't born lazy; they learn to be.

That's a tip to parents from Dosca Hale, Extension Service specialist in family relations, who explains that no healthy, normal individual is naturally lazy. Young children, she says, are energetic and eager to find out new things about the world around them.

Children may learn to be lazy if adults give them too much supervision. In fact, some adults watch children so closely they have no opportunity to experience new yet simple undertakings in their own way.

Then some children are lazy, because people around them are lazy, the specialist says, calling attention to the way children are great imitators. In addition, there are children who use laziness as a means of getting what they want.

"If a child is active, full of curiosity, and busy learning things, the adults around must devote more time to providing play equipment for the child or else spend much of their time keeping him 'out of things,'" Miss Hale comments.

Other children may learn to be lazy because they get the idea from others that there is something degrading about hard work.

Perhaps the most serious reason for many children having little energy is because they eat too little food or the wrong kinds of food. The specialist emphasizes that a well balanced diet helps to make a child energetic, playful,

MASCOTS OF MARINES

Mules and goats are the traditional mascots of the Army and Navy, but bulldogs are the choice of the U. S. Marines.

Dogs of various breeds have often visited Marine Corps posts as uninvited guests, only to remain as favorites for the rest of their lives.

Official mascots have been either presented as gifts to the sea soldiers, or have been purchased. Such mascots have "record books" in which entries are made of promotions, punishments, travels and similar incidents. Thus far no desertions have been recorded.

In recent years one of several mascots, named Jiggs, has been the ranking mascot of the Corps. The first Jiggs was purchased by the Marines in 1922 and died five years later. Two other bulldog mascots of that name have since died and the present holder of the title, Jiggs IV, is stationed at Quantico, Va.

His brother, named James Jolly Plum Duff and abbreviated by the Marines to Duffy, is the reigning mascot of the Marines' west coast base at San Diego, Calif.

Several years ago the Royal Marines of Great Britain presented the U. S. Marines with Private Pagett, one of the best bulldogs bred in England.

In appreciation of this gift the U. S. Marines donated a football trophy to the British sea soldiers and the winning of this cup is now looked upon as a principal sporting event of the Royal Marines.

EFFICIENT

It is with regret that we read of Attorney General Gerald C. Mann's announcement of candidacy to succeed the late Senator Morris Sheppard. There is no question but that Mann is the best qualified of any yet mentioned for the position. There is equally no doubt but that he will make an efficient United States Senator and that he will render conscientious service to both his nation and his state. We do not doubt for a minute but that in a few years time he will adequately fill the place left vacant by Senator Sheppard's death.

Our regret for his action is based upon the vacancy he will leave in our state affairs. Gerald Mann has been the most efficient state official Texas has had in many a year. He is a throw-back to the statesmen of former years who placed honor and integrity above personal gain. Gerald Mann—and this can be said without apology to anyone—is the only man in Austin who has not played politics in performing the duties of his office. He has never hesitated to render a clear-cut, unbiased opinion on matters of state law. He has never given more than one decision that was anything but in line with popular opinion and desire. He has forcibly handled political dynamite and without injury. He ran for office on the slogan, "I would rather be a one-term than a two-term," and he has kept that slogan ever before him since election. Gerald Mann has played a larger part in preventing perversion of Texas law during the past two years than any one other man.

The United States needs the services of Gerald Mann; the State of Texas needs them, and the greater need is in his home state. There is no doubt where the next two years will find him, however, if he persists in his senatorial ambitions. He will be in Washington, serving to the best of his ability, for the people of Texas are not going to vote against Gerald C.

"SEA WOLF" STRONGEST ROLE I EVER HAD," SAYS EDW. G. ROBINSON

It is nothing unusual for a Hollywood actor to be quoted. They say many things for publication. Some because it is good business, some for so-called studio policy, some perhaps to please a boss. But there is one thing an actor never says unless he means it; that he likes his role.

Such a statement puts a performer on the spot. It leaves him no alibi. He is on record that he is satisfied with his part and from that moment he knows he must make good on his judgment.

At least in Hollywood, it is important that Edward G. Robinson says that "The Sea Wolf" which opens Friday at the Rialto is the best role he has ever played.

Those who know Eddie at all know that he has never hesitated to speak up when he had anything to say. More than once he has told writer friends that he disliked a part. The thing he has fought hardest has been what he calls "general sameness."

In spite of the fact that most people think first of his gangster roles, he has really played a wide variety of parts.

There was certainly no "Little Caesar" in Julius Reuter or "Dr. Clitterhouse." Nor was the editor of "Five Star Final" even a distant relative of "Brother Orchid." Each was a distinctly different type of role.

Robinson holds that the measure of an actor is his ability to "re-make himself."

"I can't understand," he said, "how an actor can think a role is good simply because it is long. No actor ever made a success by playing long parts, but by making himself over for each part."

"My role in 'The Sea Wolf' requires more making over than any role I can remember."

"It requires that I be sardonic, cruel, conniving. Still, it will not allow me to be a heavy in any sense. If I am fortunate enough to play it well, I will have to convince the audience that I am a terrible man only because of honest convictions. I am heartless because mercy is weakness."

"Incidentally, I do more fighting in 'The Sea Wolf,' than in any six pictures I ever made. There is not much fun in making these fights. They are hard work. But besides the nine in which I participate there are 38 I can watch."

"To watch Mike Curtiz stage fights is worth anybody's time."

MISSISSIPPI TO COPY TEXAS' BOND SALES SET-UP

The Honorable Eugene Fly, Collector of Internal Revenue and Administrator of Defense Savings Staff for the State of Mississippi, and Arrin H. Swayze, Deputy Administrator and Vice-President of the Capital National Bank of Jackson, Mississippi, spent Wednesday in Austin at the office of the Defense Savings Staff of Texas.

The State of Mississippi is the seventh state in which state and local committees will be organized to further the program of defense bonds and stamps. Messrs. Fly and Swayze were sent by the Washington headquarters of the Defense Savings Staff to inspect the Texas organization. State Administrator, Frank Scofield, and Deputy Administrator, John Griffith, explained in detail the plan of organization in Texas in a day long conference with the visitors.

These gentlemen were high in their praise of the Texas set-up, and stated that they expected to use in Mississippi many of the features of the Texas plan. It is their intention to start immediately the organization of county committees in the eighty-two counties of their state.

Mr. Scofield reported to them that the organization in Texas is virtually complete and that all the Committees are actively at work. The results of their efforts are reflected in the excellent reception by the Texas public to the Government's offering of the defense securities, he stated.

J. O. Gillham attended the state banker's convention in Houston Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Brownfield, Terry County Texas. That on the date aforesaid, the defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises, and ejected Plaintiffs therefrom, and do continue to withhold from them the possession thereof, to their damage in the sum of $5000.00.

That the defendants and each of them, are or may be asserting or claiming some adverse estate or interest in and to the real estate, determining such estate, or interest and cancelling and removing of same, and granting the title and possession to Plaintiffs.

Prayer that all defendants be cited, and that Plaintiffs have judgement for the title and possession of the land for all costs of suit, and all other relief, to which they are entitled, including a decree for removing and cancelling all adverse estate or interest of the defendants, to said land, and each of them.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this Citation, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Brownfield in the County of Terry in the State of Texas, this 2nd, day of May, 1941.

A True Copy, I Certify. (SEAL) ELDORA A. WHITE, Clerk District Court, Terry County, Texas, 43c

Segregation of physically handicapped children, as those who are deaf or have serious defects, will be reduced as much as possible in the future in New York City schools, according to the Better Vision Institute. Such children, it is now realized, must mingle with persons with normal faculties after leaving school, and it is felt that they should make the necessary adjustments while still in school. There are now 1,633 children in the city's sight conservation classes.

WAR AIR MECHANICS RESIDENT CENTER APPROVED AT CORPUS CHRISTI BASE

AUSTIN—Further impetus was given the defense program by the National Youth Administration in Texas with the approval of an NYA air base mechanics resident center at Corpus Christi to be operated in connection with the nearby United States Naval Air base, J. C. Kellam, state NYA administrator, said today.

Under the sponsorship of the U. S. Navy, the center will provide 100 youths with 44 hours actual shop work experience per week in the repair, construction, and maintenance of airplanes and airplane engines. All shop work by the youth will be done at the Naval Air Base under the direction of the regular personnel. An additional 20 boys will receive work experience at the resident center as cooks' helper, waiters, and clerical assistants.

Construction of a building to house the 120 youths was begun this week in Corpus Christi, Kellam said, under the sponsorship of the Corpus Christi Independent School District. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy within 90 days.

Corpus Christi Public schools, through the State Department of Education, have been requested by the National Youth Administration to provide instructors for related information and training classes which the boys will attend at night. The youth assigned to the project who remain for a period of 6 months will be eligible for employment at the U. S. Naval Air Base as mechanics learners.

This NYA resident center will operate similarly to that at the Duncan Field U. S. Air Depot near San Antonio, where recently 84 NYA youths accepted Civil Service temporary appointments as mechanics learners following 6 months employment in the Duncan Field shops, while assigned to the NYA resident center.

A Happy Family
In Seattle on my daughter's birthday and we celebrated by having a completely family day. At breakfast she was given a few presents and then her two eldest children presented her with the nicest possible gift. With the aid of their music teacher, they had each made recordings wishing her a happy birthday and playing two complete pieces on the piano for her.

At noon, to everybody's joy, we went off on the boat for a picnic lunch. I was told with great enthusiasm that the cooking would be done by the gentlemen of the family, who would give us fried egg sandwiches. They proved excellent and the sun shone and we had a marvelous time. We returned early enough to play a while with Johnny, so he would not be disappointed. Then we had a birthday dinner with the necessary cake and candles. Thus ended a happy day.

The evening before my son-in-law showed Miss Thompson and me some of the movies taken of the inauguration in January and at various times when we have been out here. They will be a wonderful record for the children when they are grown.

MILITARY AIRCRAFT
The next morning we went down to the Boeing Aircraft factory. This was my first view of four-motored bombers. They also make smaller two-motored military aircraft, but I did not see any of them finished. One order of bombers was just completed, and the machines on the floor were there for modernization.

That seems to be one trouble with building military aircraft when a war is going on. In actual use, weaknesses of design or of armament are discovered and inventors try to find new ways of correcting them. This means that machines that have been out for a year, or even less, have to return for drastic changes.

This is a tremendous plant, covering an area which seemed at least a mile long as we walked around it. I was interested to find some women sewing in one section. They still do it better than men.

I never leave my family in Seattle without real regret, but I had to go. This was a rather longer visit than usual and we did more things which were not purely part of a family reunion.

Before leaving, I went to see some of the National Youth administration work. Their resident project here is not as yet finished, but they have some defense training similar to that going on in various places. I had some difficulty getting clear in my mind the various types of training which I had seen. That which is being done under the Apprenticeship Council and in collaboration with the Edison Vocational School, is under the Smith-Hughes act and has nothing to do with defense training.

Defense training is being carried on in three other vocational high schools. As in other places, they must take 50 per cent of the people to be retrained from the WPA program. I was told there had been some difficulty here because so many of their WPA people never had a skill. The other 50 per cent in this defense training program are either employed and coming in for refresher courses, or young people from NYA who can qualify, or from some other qualified source.

WPA CUTS
I think it is safe to say that cuts in WPA everywhere in the country are affecting adversely the married or single woman who is the breadwinner for her family. In many cases a really serious condition is being brought about. The whole question of WPA cuts should have some careful revision and consideration. People removed from WPA and who still cannot find work, go on relief, with an increased burden on the locality and a loss of self-respect to the individual.

In addition to this just now, I think there is on the part of many of the women a great sense of injustice. In the case of NYA, the quota everywhere continues to be filled, because all eligible young people were never on NYA in the past.

Now I want to talk to you for a little while on the subject which has long been on my mind, namely: the improvement in our schools of physical education, instruction and guidance in healthful living, a wider recreational use of school facilities and the development of school camps. All these purposes are gathered together in a bill sponsored by Mr. Pius L. Schwert, a member of congress from the Forty-second district from New York state.

He suggests the appropriation of certain sums of money to be distributed to the various states for these purposes. I hope that in New York state this summer there will be some camps for high school students under the guidance of the school system. I feel that the draft is proving to us that our young people are not receiving proper medical care or adequate diet for the best possible physical development and the schools can do much to improve the situation.

Auto Design Opens New Mural Mode

NEW possibilities in the field of mural painting, particularly for outdoor work, may have been advanced in creation of the above futuristic design. This entire scene was done in lacquer with an air-brush. Experts believe it is the largest such project ever successfully completed with a lacquer spray, and some had even felt that use of lacquer in an air-brush was impossible on such a large scale.

The scene above forms the backdrop for the Fisher Body display in the General Motors Parade of Progress. The artist is applying a finishing touch to one of the super-aircraft he perceives for the World of Tomorrow.

The painting, having been done with lacquer, has a degree of brilliance and blended effect which could not have been obtained by other means. It was completed more quickly than would have been possible with water color or oil. Furthermore its surface, being identical to the finish of an automobile, will resist rain or sun rays just as will automobile duco, and it also may be cleaned just like the body of a car.

The entire scene is 14 feet long by 35 inches high.

HARMONY—

BRITAIN FINDS ITS SOUL ASSERTS NOTED EDUCATOR OF BOMB-TORN ENGLAND

"Tribulation and difficulty are the tonics of virile peoples," writes T. A. Warren, director of education of Wolverhampton, England, in the current Rotarian magazine. "Out of darkness cometh light" proclaims the coat of arms of my town."

The first World War started England out of a complacency, and even while matters were at their worst, plans for a better life were set in motion, Warren declares. New education laws, new social-security laws, were put in motion. Instead of building more planes and tanks, education was stressed—and tuberculosis deaths and maternal and infant mortality were halved.

Even the frightful destruction of the cities may be a blessing. The rebuilt cities will be more healthful, better designed. The mistakes of centuries will be overcome at last. "In this and a thousand other ways, war has hastened progress," Warren points out. "Britain can be a happy and busy land in the days that lie beyond the ghastly nightmare."

In a decade, the farm population of the United States has increased only one-tenth of one percent. The population of the country as a whole increased 7.2 percent.

High Percentage Dental Defects

AUSTIN, The high prevalence of faulty dental conditions among draftees when they report for physical examinations is cited by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, as emphasizing the need for early and regular dental care for children—both at home and under professional supervision.

Doctor Cox stated that dental disease has resulted in the rejection of as high as ten per cent of draftees for regular military service. He attributed these dental defects to failure of the draftee to avail themselves of dental care—even when properly advised—during childhood. Another probable factor was the period of economic depression during which a great deal of needed preventive dental service was allowed to go unattended.

"When the majority of the present draftees were the elementary school age there was little or no development of the present-day dental school health program. These programs, still not as nearly universal as they should be, aim at the double goal of educating the child in the importance of good teeth and securing needed dental care for the child from his family dentist or through school dental clinics. By the first of these two aims it is hoped that children will be led to continue regular dental care in their later years.

"Had the draftees received the initial care that results from this school program, the ill effects of the depression period would probably not have been so markedly reflected in the present day condition of their teeth. Every dental defect that results in the loss of a tooth had a small beginning. Had these and subsequent defects been noted early and corrected, the number of necessarily extracted teeth would have been materially reduced, with, in turn, reduction of the number of draft rejections because of dental defects.

"There is no cure for dental decay, once it is started, other than prompt corrective service by a dentist. It is believed that the efforts now being made to accustom the children to early and regular dental care will prevent the development of conditions similar to those that are now influencing the rejection of draftees. If it does this, it will also result in the improved health of our adult population whether or not a national emergency is faced.

"And good teeth in healthy bodies are as essential in normal as in emergency periods."

The dairy cow can supply at least one-fifth of the farm family's food supply. The health of the family can be improved by the liberal use of dairy products and cost of living thereby lowered.

Mesdames D. M. Evans, Dube Pyeatt, Glen Akers and T. L. Treadaway were co-hostesses at a very novel bridge party given Wednesday afternoon at the American Legion Hall. The seventy-two guests and the four hostesses wore either slacks or house dresses and the party carried the theme of Spring House Cleaning.

A traveling prize was offered to the guests who bid and made a slam. Mrs. L. Nicholson was the final player to receive the prize and so got to keep it. The prize was an oiled silk apron. Mrs. Nicholson was lucky enough to also draw one of the two tallies which were marked with red penciling. For this she received a mop. The guest holding the other lucky red tally was Mrs. Thomas Cadenhead. Her prize was a red garbage can.

High score was won by Mrs. Roy Wingerd and second high by Mrs. Slim Schelling. Each received a white metal lawn chair. The consolation prize was awarded Mrs. Clovis Kendrick, who received a washboard and a box of laundry soap.

Refreshments were served in picnic fashion to carry out the theme of spring. Each guest was given a sack containing two different kinds of sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, and cakes. A choice of bottled drinks was served along with the lunches. A lucky slip, calling for a prize, was placed in one of the lunch sacks. This was drawn by Mrs. Jack Bailey. Her prize was a broom.

ATTEST:
A. J. Schroeter, Sec'y.

May 10, 1941

Hon. C. L. Lincoln
County Judge
Brownfield, Texas:

Dear Judge:

As you know, and all my friends in West Texas know, I have advocated the state assuming new highway bonds in Terry County and other West Texas counties, which have been voted since January 2, 1939, and have been used to construct state highways.

Naturally, I was keenly disappointed that neither the House nor the Senate voted to assume these new bonds; however, I am hoping that the Free Conference Committee, composed of five House members and five Senate members, will see fit to take in these new bonds. I am working toward that goal and am going to try to persuade the Free Conference Committee to take in your bonds.

I feel that we are entitled to consideration in this matter, and I do not feel that the Highway Department has acted squarely with us. It is true that the Highway Commission encouraged the counties in my senatorial district to vote new bonds in the last two years, and now this same Highway Commission is opposing the assuming of these bonds by the State.

After our new bonds are assumed, it is my belief that any part of the surplus of that 1% tax should come back to the various counties to be used for the building of lateral roads. My first desire, however, is to have our new bonds assumed by the State. That should be done first, and then the surplus could be disposed of.

I want you and my other friends in Terry County to be assured again that I am looking out after your interests and that I am doing all that I can in every way to try to get our new road bonds assumed by the State. This would mean a tax reduction for your county, and I think our citizens are entitled to this tax reduction.

Sincerely your friend,
Marshall Formby

(Found in the Sulphur Springs News-Telegram.)

J. Frank Dobie has done it again—written a darn swell book, perhaps his best—to date. It's called "The Longhorns" and anyone who hereafter undertakes to write on the subject will be like Ruth, gleaning in the field after the reapers.

There are maturity, sureness of touch and an easy mastery of words. Consider this, "Old Brindle opened his eyes, yawned, got up as deliberately as a ticket agent." Or this picture of a teamster with an ox-team that had become mired, "He talked to them harder than a crap shooter talking to his 'bones'." Or this cameo, "The days went by as slow as laboring oxen walk." And just one more nugget, the description of a man with a whip, "He curved the fifteen feet of tapering plaited rawhide thro' the air—and the ringing crack made the sky brighter."

A reading of old newspapers, no matter of what period, will show that the city, the country or the world was upset about some thing. It ran like this: The shipping clerk was making more money on stocks than the company president was making running the business, oil was selling at ten cents a barrel and being wastefully produced, stocks were crashing, Japan was ravishing Shanghai, and Germany was arming. Technocracy was the goblin one month and chain letters the siren of the next.

It wasn't imagination or calamity howling. All those things were happening. They were affecting, did affect, and will affect our lives tremendously.

So we find a thought. And that thought is that if we wait to find a settled time in which to do something, we may wait out our three score and ten years and die from shock on the last day from some new and startling development wholly unexpected. If you ever intend to build the dog a dry house, read good biography, or learn to carve a turkey, you might as well get started. There's no use waiting for things to settle down. (Handed in by our good friend, Dick Brown of Dallas).

In recent newspaper contests, the Alice Echo took first in one division of South Texas newspapers and the Menard News was first in the other division and the Eagle Lake Headlight took two second place honors; while the Mission Times was third in national competition. All these papers run "I Give You Texas." Could it just be a coincidence? Modesty forbids that I should discuss the subject further.

It's always the SORE thumb that sticks out...

Odd, isn't it—the way everybody notices the sore thumb?

It's the same way with the retailing of beer. Everybody knows about the one undesirable place...everybody seems to forget about the thousands of worthwhile retailers who operate clean, decent, law-abiding establishments.

To protect the good name of beer, we of the beer industry want the few... but noticeable... "black sheep" retailers eliminated.

That's not all. Such retailers endanger an industry that brings important economic benefits to the community. Right here in Texas beer provides employment for 31,165 persons, supports an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and contributed $2,273,968.64 last year in state taxes.

This state, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—for materials, equipment, and services—from more than 100 other industries.

You can help us protect these benefits in two ways—by (1) patronizing only the law-abiding places where beer is sold and (2) by reporting any irregularities you may observe to the duly constituted authorities.

BROWNFIELD FRIDAY — SATURDAY TEXAS

An Editorial

By Geo. W. Neill

No doubt, three fourths of Europe, and half of the world would be glad to now be living in America. The land of everything. We can hardly imagine the miserable fear thru which those people have lived the past two years. The little farmer, business man, even the greater industrialist, the capitalist, the state and nations, never knew the day nor hour they would be crushed by a foreign tyrant. Their government extinguished. Their national integrity abolished. There is but little they can do about it. A small country loves its nation and honor as well as a large one. For the strong to crush the weak is repulsive to the American mind and conscience. Of course had those little countries been more alert to the unannounced monster's greed and went to each other's rescue they might have saved each and all. But they seemed to have been Wheelerized and Lindyified, and each said upon the attack of the other, "It's no concern of ours." England tried in vain to wake them up to this peril, but they replied, "wait till we are attacked," and when invasion came it was too late, in every instance, and where are they now? It's true America is big, wide, long and broad, and one of the foremost nations of the world, but are we too big to learn a few lessons, by observing the fate of others? The word, Neutrality, might as well be torn out of the dictionary.

Excuses, reason, or cause is unknown to a gangster bent on conquest. Herr Von-Lindy says, "every country that sided with England has lost." Lost what? To Whom? Who got them and why? The only thing that makes one think Von-Lindy knows anything about it, is he did know enough to get out of Europe and back to the good old U. S. just before the war came on. Neither Norway, Denmark, nor Holland sided with England, they with Belgium refused to let British-French troops and equipment enter, when they all might have been saved. Where are they now? Rumania and Bulgaria never sided with England, they were Wheelerized. Yugoslavia prayed to the last minute to have peace with her neighbors. Where are they now? Greece was fighting a war of her own defense, against an unannounced invasion of her territory, and would have won, had not that monster from the west doubled teamed upon her. When dictators join each other in conquest of others, is it wrong for independents to aid each other in defense? The people of Europe are in a pitiable plight. What a difference in their everyday life, and ours. Indeed are we glad we live in America. We are so proud of our government, nation and standard of living we ain't never going to cuss the government no more about nothin'. We don't care if Willie had been elected, or even Hoover again, we'd still sing "My Country 'Tis of Thee." We are proud too, that we don't have to teach American kids patriotism, it's just naturally born in the little brats. The first song they learn is "Rocky bye baby in the tree top," and the next one they learn is "Star Spangled Banner." Over here we don't shoot our opponents, (altho some of them might ought to be). But it isn't the American way of life, and besides when the next big proposition comes around, they may be on our side.

boys in the world, but admits they are hard to beat. Although not appearing as an outdoor man or even the athletic type, when in doubt on one of these subjects the boys turn quickly to their dentist friend.

Doc has been in this work a long time and the writer feels that honor is long past due—But—the biggest honor to Doc will be for each one in this community to drop in some Monday night and watch them administer first aid, make fires, signal, or just being boys and become one of them or help further scouting in this community.

Keep up the good work "Doc" and good luck with Brownfield's Future Citizens.

'FEEDING FOR FITNESS' IMPORTANT IN NATIONAL DEFENSE

AUSTIN — "The importance of 'feeding for fitness' as a part of the national defense program cannot be over-emphasized because proper nutrition is the basis of health and physical fitness," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"America is beginning to realize that intelligent selection of the proper foods necessary to maintain optimum health is more important than merely eating food without regard to its nutritive qualities.

"In a comparative study made on the health of school children in two widely separated districts—one in an agricultural community and the other in an industrial area—a large percentage of the children from the farming sections were found to be malnourished, while those from the industrial area were in better shape physically.

"Although milk and other dairy products, fruits, and fresh vegetables—all of which are essential to a well-balanced dietary, were readily available in the farming sections, the children had been allowed to indulge their preferences for less familiar and less nourishing foods, with the results already mentioned above.

"Certain factors that affect nutrition—and not all of them apply to food—must be given consideration in 'feeding for fitness.'" The State Health Department would stress the importance of the following:

"First, the diet must be adequate; it should include on a day-to-day basis a generous supply of the protective foods—milk, fruits, vegetables, eggs, whole-grain breads and cereals.

"Second, sufficient sleep and rest to maintain a good physical condition.

"Third, remediable physical defects, such as decayed teeth or diseased tonsils, should be corrected in the individual to insure the best utilization of food.

"Fourth, correct elimination is essential in the utilization of food.

NOONCASTER AND McBRAYER IN CHARGE OF SWIMMING POOL

The Brownfield Swimming Pool will open Sunday, May 23, at 1:00 o'clock, under the supervision of Coach Aubra Nooncaster and Jack McBrayer. A few suits will be available for rent, but swimmers are urged to bring their own.

Coach Nooncaster has announced that definite plans are under way to have the pool well cleaned and properly supervised throughout the summer. Later on, he said, classes for beginning swimmers will be organized for those who are interested. A charge of $1.50 will be made for 10 hours of instruction.

A joke that brought the biggest laugh at the Panhandle Press convention was told at the noon banquet Saturday by Hilton R. Greer, literary editor of the Dallas Morning News and former editor of the old Daily Panhandle and Amarillo News. Someone at the speakers table asked him to step nearer the microphone, and he said it reminded him of the man who was making a speech and couldn't be heard. . . . The man told his audience he couldn't help it if the obstetrics in the hall were bad.—Miami Chief.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Burrows entertained his mother and father and a brother from Crowell, a brother from Big Spring, and another brother from Lubbock during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Aggie Thornton of Artesia, N. M., spent the week-end with Mrs. Thornton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tittle. Thornton underwent a tonsilectomy in the local hospital Friday.

"Fifth, exercise and fresh air are needed to stimulate the appetite and give tone to the physical condition.

"Sixth, good posture aids digestion."

LET IT REMAIN A SYMBOL

In 1876, the United States observed its one-hundredth anniversary as an independent nation. Philadelphia celebrated by holding a centennial exposition. In the Machinery Hall at Philadelphia, there were on exhibit some weird and strange contraptions forecasting the world to come. Two of the exhibits marked the start of a dramatic story that is still going on in this modern world that depends on tremendous electric dynamos, designed by the Belgian inventor, Gramme, and the American, Wallace. Each supplied current to a single arc lamp and one drove a small pump. The public gazed at these gadgets with the curiosity of an audience watching a flea jump at the command of its trainer.

But what really took the public's eye was another exhibit that was huge and awe-inspiring—the Corliss steam engine, a mechanical mountain of man's ingenuity. It stood thirty feet high and was capable of producing 1,000 horsepower. Interest in the Corliss engine was in proportion to its size; the public could not visualize that the latent possibilities in those freakish little dynamos sitting insignificantly off to one side would in a short while supplant the steam engine in most power fields. The efficiency of electric power has revolutionized the home and factory, although steam power is still indispensable to the uninterrupted production of electricity.

Electric power has made this world we live in more convenient and efficient, and reduced the labor demanded of man in producing the necessities and luxuries of life. All this has been brought about by the initiative and enterprise of free men, not by government edict.

Let us hope that the magic of electricity will remain a symbol of the public service that flows from the American system of free enterprise.
