Teague-Bailey Celebrate Second Anniversary, Announce Formal Opening of New Location

This Popular Firm, Handling Chevrolet Cars and Trucks, Now In Own Home, Built With the Idea of Utility and Convenience. Customers and Friends Invited.

Two years ago today, the Teague-Bailey Chevrolet Co. partnership was formed and the firm was located in the old Carter Chevrolet building on east Main. The firm is composed of J. M. (Buddy) Teague, who has been a citizen of Brownfield for the past six years. He formerly handled Plymouth and Dodge cars. The Junior member of the firm is Jack Bailey, who has been a citizen ventilated was completed for them to their own specifications, at the corner of Broadway and Fourth streets. This is to be their permanent home, as the building and lots are owned by the firm. So, the second anniversary will be combined with their formal opening date, all rolled into one. You, as a friend or customer are urged to call Friday, and either Mr. Teague or Mr. Bailey, or any of ized for the past twenty years. For a number of years he had been salesman for the Carter Chevrolet Co., and at one time was in the grocery business with his father and brother.

Two more desirable citizens, both with excellent family connections here, could not easily be found. From the day of the formation of their partnership to now, their policy has been that the customer must always be pleased. They do not practice any high pressure sales methods, and their dealings are square and above board. It is therefore no wonder, that car and truck after car and trucks have been rolled out for the customer from their sales rooms.

About two months ago, a beautiful new building, large and well their efficient sales force will be more than glad to show you their modern, up to the minute sales and repair departments.

Their very efficient personnel is made up of the following: Salesmen, other than Messrs. Teague and Bailey, are Clyde Bond, Ralph Bailey and Clarence Lackey, who has the sales in the Meadow section. Grady Goin is the bookkeeper, and Walter Hord, parts man.

The Service Department is under the formanship of Shorty Forbus, one of the best mechanics in this area. His helpers are Lee Jackson, S. L. Carrol, Dave Townsend and Boyd Wilson.

Body Department: John Brown and Franklin Hood. Porters: Randall Henry and W. H. Johnson, both colored.

Snyder Section Not So Badly Damaged

The writer and wife, accompanied by Neal Stricklin, nephew of the Old He, from Tennessee, slipped off down to Snyder, 100 miles southeast of Brownfield, Sunday, to visit the kids, Herman and Sallie Trigg. Found them well, but working like beavers. They really have a good drive-in cafe and cold drink business established there.

Herman is not accepting the band there this year, as they seem to have their hands full with their business. We found below the caprock more stuff left from heavy rains here, as evidently they received no waterspouts. However, there was a heavy shower there Sunday afternoon, with a bit of hail.

Returning we came via Lubbock, to show Neal the metropolis of the south Plains, and to get to run our car through a half mile of water between Slaton and Southland, that came near our running board. And, also, we suppose to get to detour some two miles out of our way over country roads between Ropes and Meadow.

Yes, our nephew is still geying us about this high, DRY country.

Rotarians Hear Rabbi Garceck

Practically the entire membership of the local Rotary Club and an unusually large number of visitors were privileged to hear Rabbi I. Garceck of Lubbock at the club's luncheon last Friday.

The Rabbi is a very talented speaker and is in demand to address various groups wherever he goes. Many were of the opinion that his was one of the best if not the best speeches ever to be delivered to the local club.

Sale of Liquor Stopped In Local Stores

The legislature now in session passed a law, signed by the governor, which prohibited the sale of more than 90 prescriptions in any one month, and cut the amount of stock to be carried to ten gallons. There is an injunction in process of courts to injoin the Liquor Enforcement Board from the execution of the law, however, on some technicality.

But so far as we are aware, all drug stores that have been dispensing prescription whiskey have locked up their stock until the proper officials call and give orders how to dispose of it. They don't seem to think enough of the matter to join in the fight to declare the law unconstitutional, if such is the case.

This of course is a dry victory in a way, but us folks that were here around 1930, and up to about 1934 or '35, are just wondering if the officers are going to have as easy time keeping out bootlegging as they have the past few years?

People that get "hungry" for "whusky" seem to have a way of getting it, one way or another.

Crossland Gored By Vicious Bull

Last Sunday morning about 8:00 o'clock, Tarzan Crossland was attacked by a Jersey bull out on his father's place, 13 miles southeast of the city. He was badly bruised across the back, the chest and the head. The bull was just a yearling but will weigh around 1000 pounds.

Since that time the bull has been dehorned, and his nose ringed, and it is believed this will take some of the fight out of him for awhile. Tarzan, an employee of the Copeland Hardware, was in to get his wounds dressed Wednesday, and said the doctors reported his wounds healing nicely. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Billie Lee Crossland.

Has Any Of Our Boys Baseball Ambition?

If any of the local lads, who have made good on the vacant lots here or elsewhere in regular baseball, have an ambition to get in the big leagues, such for instance as Cincinnati Reds, here's your chance. There are a couple of application blanks at the Herald office.

The Texas points and dates for tryouts are as follows: McAllen, June 16-20. Seguin, June 24-28. Temple, July 2-6. Corsicana, July 10-14th.

We Make A Great Tour On A Credit

Arming ourself with a few courtesy cards from our big oil company managers here, and persuading our bankers to advance a small bit of "kale" for tourists courts, eats and drinks (soft, mostly) we hit the high but not dry roads out of Brownfield on a late afternoon of May 5th, spending the night with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts, at Coahoma, they being our wife's kin folks. Mrs. Roberts is a sister, by way of explanation, they being our company on the trip.

The little city of Sterling, capitol of Sterling county, was the first stop out. Let us also explain that we were not trying to break either speed or distance records. We were just out to see the sights like any "Kentry Kids" should want to do. Here we stopped a short time to see Uncle Bill Kellis, editor of the Sterling City News-Record, who acknowledges he is around 80, and perhaps the dean of all west Texas newspaper men. Let us add, also, that he is one of the best writers in all Texas, and there are some good ones, and his editorials are copied by the hundreds. He don't mince words on any subject. To Uncle Bill, a spade's a spade, when he sits down to write. The News-Record building is the oldest in the city, he stated, being hauled out of San Angelo about 1891, or fifty years ago. They are still hand-setting the type, but the people are proud of their paper.

The next stop was a San Angelo, as we just could not resist a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Hunt. Mrs. Hunt was Miss Ann Hamilton, as all the old timers will remember, and while working for a department store, met and married Mr. Hunt, a Santa Fe passenger conductor. He is now on the retired list, and they are just having a good time in a large home near the business section of that city. They remind us of a couple of kids just having a good time during vacation. They insisted that we stay for lunch, but as we had some vitamins already cooked, we made many knots on toward Brady before stopping at a roadside park to chaw.

We reached Brady rather early in the afternoon, and of course we had to visit Editor Harry Schwenker and his semi-weekly Standard for a bit, and was carried out for a coke to talk over. Brady has an airschool, and the elements seemed to be full of roaring planes. While we visited Harry, and inspected his shop, the ladies called on Grandma Lyle, mother of Bill at Lubbock. Rested, we hit the road toward Mason, a great wool and mohair center. The city of Fredricksburg, as well as Boerne, are typically Geman-American centers, but so far as we could find, very loyal to the USA. Fredricksburg has very wide avenues, especially the main thoroughfare, and lovely business buildings and homes. The farms are well filled, and a good grade of livestock grazing the pastures.

Old San Antonio was reached just before sunset. The writer and wife were domiciled in the home of our niece, Mrs. Don French and husband, and son, Don Thomas, for our stay there, out on Kings Highway street. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Musgrove, former Coahomites. So you see we made a deep cut in expenses there. Of course we saw the Alamo, Missions, Forts and army camps, aviation fields, etc., as well as San Antonio's beautiful Breckenridge park, as best we could in a day. One could spend weeks in that city, and not run out of something interesting to see. But we described the city fairly well in an article last fall when we visited our niece.

Suffice to say that we almost ruined our entire trip while there. We left home sleeping under a sheet, a blanket and two quilts. We could not stand a sheet all night there, and to cap the climax, we changed from long-handles to BVD's. A deep cold and cough resulted that still hangs on.

Raining here again Thursday as we go to press.

Five Terryites Among 412 Tech Graduates

LUBBOCK, June 3—With 412 candidates for degrees at the annual commencement exercises June 2, Texas Technological College has graduated 4,967 since it was founded in 1925. ## Murphy May Goes To Ryan Air Field, Calif.

Second Lieutenant Murphy May, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom May of this city, and six other Texas boys, left this week for Ryan Air Field, Calif., where they will undergo training for nine weeks. If he makes good as an aviator, he will be assigned to duties with the army air corps, as he is a reserve officer. Otherwise, he will be reassigned to the cavalry.

Murphy is already a private navigator, having had the required hours of solo flying about a year ago. About that time, he took charge of his father's Magnolia wholesale agency in Seagraves, where he has made his home since that time. He finished high school in Brownfield, and then graduated from the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell.

It is Murphy's ambition to make a good army air pilot, and we are wishing him all the success possible.

Troy Noel To Erect Own Building

What is expected to be one of the most complete and up-to-date tailoring establishments in this section, will be the property of Troy Noel, when his new building is completed on his lot on east Broadway. This building will be according to specifications and built for a tailor shop, with all floor plans built for that purpose.

The building will stand some 60 feet west of the new Chevrolet building, facing Broadway. It will be 25 feet wide and 75 feet deep. Construction will be faced brick front with side and back walls of tile stucco.

The Herald congratulates Troy and wife on this forward move with Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jones returned this week from California.

Brownfield Consolidated School District To Vote On $125,000 School Bonds

Appealing Offer On Bonds If Voted Already Tendered. To Pay For New Building and Grounds, Overhauling of Two Buildings and Building to House School Buses.

The Board of Education in the Brownfield Consolidated Independent School District met in regular session on June 3, at 8:00 p. m. in the Brownfield High School Building. At this meeting, representatives from R. A. Underwood Company, Inc., and Callihan and Jackson, Inc., offered to purchase the 125 $1,000 bonds, which are involved in the bond election to be held in this district on June 16th. Prices of 2 3-4 and 3 1-2 per cent were placed on the bonds with 20 bonds callable after five years and 105 bonds callable after 15 years. The Board of Education accepted this proposition in view of the uncertainty in bond buying caused by war conditions which now exist. A contract was signed by the above mentioned companies to buy the 125 bonds involved in the coming election subject to the success of the election and the approval of the attorney general's office in the State of Texas.

There are several good features to the above transaction: FIRST: This transaction leaves no doubt in the minds of the people in this district that a very low rate of interest will be secured in the sale of these school bonds. 2 3/4% and 3 1/2% rates are probably lower than any other school bond rates in this area. Some school bonds carry as high as 6%.

SECOND: This arrangement places a call option on 120 out of the 125 bonds involved, which means that if this district should enjoy valuation growth and thereby lay up a balance in the sinking fund that any of these bonds may be taken up after five or fifteen years have elapsed, and thereby save the district thousands of dollars.

THIRD: This arrangement is particularly advantageous to this school district because, as provided by law, the entire pay schedule is set up on last year's valuation. In other words, when the total pay schedule involving this new bond issue and all of the old bond issues in this district, was made out, it had to be held within the paying possibilities of last year's valuation rather than future valuation. At no time in the 30 years which is the life of all bonds in this district, will the yearly payment exceed 50% of last year's local tax. This fact should prove to the public that present bonded indebtedness with this new bond included will not raise the total valuation above its present level, because its very sale is based on last year's valuation.

FOURTH: This arrangement is very advantageous to this district because it is adequate to take care of our needs. Repair to old buildings, much needed new equipment, remodeling the present elementary building and the building of a new primary school building, a bus barn, and vocational department, as well as the purchase of a site are included in this bond issue.

Herald Gets Quick Results On "Lost-Found"

M. T. Perkins, local dairyman from the Union community, stepped into the Herald office around ten o'clock Tuesday morning carrying a ladies purse that he had just picked up in the street. He had never opened the purse until he came in, and we had just learned the name of the lady by drivers license, when she walked in. Of course she was tickled pink to get her purse so quickly.

She stated that she had asked her mother to put the purse in the car, but she had laid it on the running board instead, and of course it fell off when the car was started. So, you see, just a threat of running an ad in the Herald gets quick results. But we must state here and now, that the ladies, God bless 'em, are darned careless with their purses.

McKinney Has Pretty Suite of Offices

Bill McKinney, insurance man, has moved his offices to the Brownfield State Bank building, and is occupying a suite of five rooms at the head of the stairway, which has been moved to the rear of the two story section of the building. The whole of the upstairs section has been remodeled and refinished and are really modern.

Bill's office rooms are all finished in hardwood floors as are the corridors, plastered and painted in pleasing tones, that give the suite an air of restfulness. One does not have to ask Bill if he is pleased with his location. His whole physiognomy reflects it like the face of a child with his first toy.

The lineup of his personnel is as follows: Lanis D. Gross, auditor and accountant; Jesse D. Cox, general insurance; Bill McKinney, life insurance; Mrs. Bill McKinney, secretary. They are prepared to keep the books of any firms that do not care to have a full time man; do any job of auditing. Sell you life, fire, hail or hospital insurance, or make you any kind of bond.

Jaycees Entertained By Billy Barty Troupe

Billy Barty, screen character player, was honor guest at a luncheon Monday. The celebrated midget actor and members of his party entertained the audience with some sketches from their show and some that were not. One Jaycee misunderstood the actions of one of the entertainers and consequently suffered great disappointment.

Other business was also attended to at this time. Several visitors were present.

Popular Meadow Store Reorganized

The Jones Hardware, Implement and Grocery, at Meadow, has recently undergone quite a reorganization, and remodeling. The large building is to be partitioned in the center, and each of the two brothers will conduct a separate business.

As we understand it, Mr. E. H. Jones, the elder brother, will take the hardware and implement business, while the junior brother will have the grocery department, exclusively. Mr. Finney is retiring from the firm.

The Jones brothers, coming from the Eastland section, put in one among the first brick business buildings in the little city of Meadow, and have always done a good business.

Mrs. Maud Harry of Jacksonville, Texas, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Groce of the Pleasant Valley community.

It appears to the Herald that it is the height of folly for industrialists to keep cramming factories for defense on the eastern seaboard and the north Atlantic states, far removed from the center of oil and gas. It appears to us that factories nearer the center of the continent, where a half turn of 100,000 oil wells, and the boundless natural gas of the Panhandle would supply their every need for fuel would fare better. Then too, they would find a more congenial climate and unemployed labor that could easily be trained. Another thing, and a good one, they would be further located from where the nation might first be attacked by bombers in case of war. The Herald can think of no better time than right now to begin the decentralization of our essential industries from a few states in the north and east.

Most of us, except the landlords or their renters, have taken some time out in cussing the tractors. We have staid time and again, perhaps, that it is the main cause of the small renter moving to town, with no job except WPA in sight, and, with maybe quite a family to support. But, this week, and the latter part of last, Terry county had perhaps more than 100,000 acres to replant following the floods in May. A drive in the county early this week was pleasing. Most of this acreage that had to be replanted, was finished, and some of the cotton was coming up. Feature if you can, one planter horse draws implements competing with tractor equipped two and four-on gangs of planters? The planter job will be finished this week, barring bad weather.

About the most sensible letter we have seen lately is one of two pretty closely typewritten pages from a prominent manufacturer of Fort Worth to Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel. This man has been a consistent supporter of both President Roosevelt, even for the third term, as well as an original O'Daniel man. In this letter this man, E. O. Gillam almost begs O'Daniel on bended knees to get out of the Senatorial race, stating that he had much work to do in Texas before stepping down and out. Gillam intimates that it is the big, rich tax-dodger that is urging him to run in order to get rid of him, so that all legislation to put a halter on the big boys and their game can be squashed in the legislature. He says: "If you leave Texas, who will take your place on Sunday morning broadcasts to keep the people informed just what is going on in this state." If the letter was not so lengthy, we would be glad to print it in full.

Oil and Gas Association, entitled, "The Road Ahead." It is true that about one-sixth of Texas people are directly responsible to the oil industry for employment, and old Texas is planning ahead on that score. But Texas has many natural resources, some of which need capital to develop. Therefore in planning ahead, Texas must not make it hard on capital that might wish to come to the state and help to develop these raw resources. We need more payrolls, not less. Each new industry means more jobs. It adds to the tax values of the state and local governments, bigger payrolls for our workers, and greater prosperity for you and every other Texan.

New Income For Farmers Sought

One of the most important steps ever taken in Texas to bring new income to farmers and new industries to both small towns and urban areas of this state, the formal organization of the Industrial Farm Crop Association of Texas, has just been announced by M. D. L. Van Over, president. A non-profit organization composed of leading farmers and businessmen of Texas, the Association will serve to promote the expansion of industrial farming crops in Texas.

Elected to serve as temporary president, M. D. L. Van Over is the outstanding scientist and world authority on the industrial uses of the castor bean tree. His work has already paved the way for at least one new form of industrial farming, the prospective income from which has been estimated at approximately two billion dollars yearly. Mr. Van Over will serve as president until a successor, able to give a great deal of time to the expansion of a new industry in Texas, is found.

In announcing the formation of the new organization, Mr. Van Over said: "It is apparent to everyone, especially to the farmer, that we have a farm problem. It is simply stated: The farmer is not making enough money. The prices he gets for his crops are determined by surpluses which we have because we produce too much of too few crops and because American farms are producing primarily food and clothing crops rather than chemical and industrial crops, and shipping these crops to the North for processing. The great need in the Southwest today is for farm crops that can be used chemically by industry, and processed here in the Southwest."

"The farmer who grows cotton, wheat or corn raises his crops for an already glutted market and can sell only a single part of each individual plant. The farmer who raises plants for use in the chemical industry is producing for an almost unlimited new market and one that eventually will consume every part of his plants."

The new organization will encourage the growth of farm crops to meet the demands of the chemical industry with its ever-growing line of products of wide domestic application and economic usefulness. Such industrial farming, leaders of the movement point out, will mean new income for farmers and greater profits for both agriculture and industry, out of which will come higher wages, greater employment and more national wealth.

The Industrial Farm Crop Association plans to interest farmers in the growing of such crops, to help the farmers grow them, and to find markets for these crops. Its principal functions will be to:

1. Seek to expand the knowledge of chemical crops by research and to finance desirable research projects.
2. Serve as a clearing house for all information on planting, cultivation, harvesting, marketing and commercial use of industrial farm crops.
3. Direct the attention of college, high school science, and industrial laboratories to beneficial industrial farm projects and to create popular support in behalf of such research.
4. Provide scholarships in Texas colleges and universities for persons doing outstanding work in organic chemistry and soils.
5. Promote and encourage the commercial application of industrial farm research accomplishments and individual farm crops whenever they are ready for the market.
6. Discourage unsound promotions of industrial crops and the use of limited knowledge of such crops for publicity or personal profit.
7. Aid and cooperate with other agencies employed in allied efforts.
8. Discover and develop new crops to supply existing or new needs, and develop the commercial use of by-products of such crops.
9. Carry on an educational campaign to create more wealth by increasing the scientific knowledge necessary to grow and produce more of nature's renewable products.

KIDNEY STAGNATION IS WORSE THAN CONSTIPATION!

Because We Treat Constipation at The Onset, While We Neglect Our Kidneys Indefinitely

No other organ in your body is of more importance than your kidneys. For in your kidneys there are nine million tubes which must work day and night to filter the fluids and keep the system free from wastes, acids, poisons which, if permitted to remain, may cause serious kidney and bladder troubles.

It is no wonder then that Nature often calls for help to clean out the kidneys. So if you are troubled with Nervous Headache, Leg Pains, Backache, Getting-Up-Nights, Loss of Appetite, Stomach Distress or Loss of Energy, due to functional kidney disorders, try KIDANS, the famous kidney remedy, which aids Nature to flush out the kidneys, to filter all wastes, to prevent kidney stagnation.

According to information from the County Tax Assessors office this week the Valuation of Taxable property of Cochran county for the year of 1941 will be over Seven Million Dollars, which is a rise of over a Million Dollars from that of 1940.

This rise in valuation has come mostly from oil development in the southeast part of the county.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock
NEW YORK, June — DIVER-SIONS—You might not have guessed it, with all the emphasis on defense production, but so far "civilian needs" are still taking 75 per cent of Uncle Sam's steel production. Apparently it can't go in that ratio very long, for Gano Dunn of the OPM has reported that combined civilian-and-defense requirements this year will exceed capacity by 1,400,000 tons, and by 1942 there will be an indicated deficit of 6,400,000 tons. In releasing these figures, President Roosevelt indicated the answer might be to put mandatory priorities on steel to "divert" it from civilian use. At the same time it's reported that about 95 per cent of the total June production of aluminum will be needed for defense purposes. Zinc, "essential oils," gasoline, nickel, and rubber are other materials important to both peacetime and defense production and which, in the new "unlimited emergency," undoubtedly will have to be "diverted" to defense needs to a greater extent than had been anticipated when we first began to hear about priorities.

ACCENT ON MERIT—Fitting in with the streamlining of all national effort in the interests of efficiency and economy in the all-out defense drive is the strong recent trend toward selection of public workers of states on the basis of tested merit rather than "political pull." Commenting on the recent adoption of merit systems by Indiana and Kansas, Mrs. Melville Muckleston, head of the National Consumers Tax Commission, pointed out that no less than 11 of the 20 states which now use this system have made the change since 1937. She urged the other 28 states to "follow suit," saying that in times like these, when billions are being spent for armament, taxpayers should not be saddled with the unnecessary burden of incompetent state employees. Even in normal times, she said, competent workers are needed to conduct public business, to save taxpayers' money by rendering better service at less cost. And all will agree that saving the taxpayers' money in every non-defense field is especially important now.

STAR LIFELINES
When Mickey Rooney appeared with Spencer Tracy in "Captains Courageous," he decided that he wanted to become an actor "like Tracy." Mickey has since achieved just that distinction, and gives one of the finest performances of career in "Men of Boys Town," sequel to the memorable "Boys Town," again starring him with Tracy and currently playing at the Rialto Theatre for two days.
Son of Joe Yule and Nell Carter, a vaudeville team, Mickey was born in Brooklyn, September 23rd.

He was reared backstage and first appeared before the footlights at the age of seven months. When he was fifteen months old he toddled out while Sid Gold and Babe LaTour were doing their act and stopped the show by singing a song. From then on he was a member of the troupe.

At five Mickey was taken to Hollywood by his mother and, after appearing in a revue, applied for the role of Mickey McGuire in a series of comedies about the Fontaine Fox cartoon character. Mickey's name was Joe Yule, Jr., then and he was a blond, whereas the McGuire character was supposed to have dark hair. By the simple expedient of using a box of shoe polish, a transformation occurred and Rooney got the part. He played this character for six years, at the end of which time he took the name Mickey Rooney, which has become world famous.

He appeared in dozens of films in which he was outstanding, but it was for his work as Andy Hardy in the Hardy Family series that he achieved real prominence. "Babes in Arms," "Lord Jeff," "Young Tom Edison," "Boys Town" and "Strike Up the Band" are some of his most successful pictures.

Vote For GERALD C. MANN For U. S. SENATOR

GERALD C. MANN
Born in Sulphur Springs, Texas. He worked on his grandfather's farm to make his first money. In the Southern Methodist University, he was class leader, president of the student body and All-American quarterback in football, and baseball star.

Worked in Connecticut factory to support his family while he attended Yale U. and took law degree. Began private practice in Dallas. Was appointed Secretary of State under Gov. Jimmie Allred, and drove investment racketeers from the state. Secured millions of dollars at Washington to be spent in Texas as representative of Texas Planning Board.

When he announced for Attorney General of Texas, he said: "I sacrifice no principle to gain this office, and shall sacrifice no principle to keep it." He has held out even handed justice to all, friend or foe, as the law directs. Was re-elected without opposition, and is campaigning for U. S. Senate on his record of promises fulfilled.

His many friends firmly believe that he is the best qualified man for the job of Junior U. S. Senator from Texas.

LUBBOCK, May 26—"Does it count if you catch the ball on its first bounce? Must the first baseman tag the runner with the ball?"

Baseball is full of strange rules and terms, but Texas Tech coeds are learning. Answering the universal feminine question of "What shall I wear?", the college girls can be seen playing the national game any afternoon this spring wearing slacks, jeans, skirts, sweaters and ensembles.

Intramural teams composed of members of several campus organizations are warming up to compete for women's championship of Texas Tech, but right now they are interested in the fundamentals.

It has not yet been agreed how long a runner may rest at each base, and some still wonder what makes a ball foul. The principle of putting the bat in front of the ball and pushing is not hard to understand, but it is possible to foul out?

What is wrong with throwing the ball with both hands? That should make it go twice as far.

Is it really good sportsmanship to "steal" bases? Is one supposed to get down in the dirt and slide?

As soon as they learn how long they have to play before being promoted from second to first base, the coeds plan to open the softball tournament.

U. S. O. CAMPAIGN OPENS JUNE 3

DALLAS—The United Service Organizations campaign to raise funds to provide recreational and welfare facilities for our soldiers, sailors, and defense workers is "a vital and essential part of our national defense program," E. B. Germany of Dallas, regional and state chairman of the drive, declared Sunday afternoon in a state-wide broadcast over the Texas Quality Network.

Officially opening the Texas campaign, which is calculated to raise $400,000 as the state's quota of the $10,765,000 sought nationally, Mr. Germany described the U. S. O. undertaking as a non-political, non-profit, and non-sectarian movement which has for its purpose "the development and invigoration of our national morale."

Under an agreement between the private organizations and the Federal Government, it is proposed that the latter build and equip community centers in more

RATTLERS CAN KILL QUICKLY

That rattlesnakes can be deadly and that their poison can act very quickly is reaffirmed by a report of a Texas Game Warden. While patrolling near Pearsall recently the warden saw a large calf reach down to take a bite of grass, jump and then run toward him. The calf dropped within ten feet of the warden after running seventy-two paces and was dead within five minutes. Two cowboys nearer the calf than the warden when it was struck found a six and a half foot black diamond rattler which had fourteen rattlers. The warden killed it.

The snake evidently had not struck at anything for some time and its poison sacks were filled with venom.

The warden's report concluded: "It is not because boots are pretty that the southwest Texas game warden wants to wear them while patrolling."

Supreme In Circulation

More than 300 communities throughout the country and that the former raise sufficient funds to staff and operate them.

Germany pointed out that Texas will derive far greater benefit from the program than any other state, since a large number of the army camps and naval bases are located in Texas.

TWO JOBS FOR FARMERS

In a recent address, Fred R. Sexauer, president of the Dairy-men's League Cooperative Association, said that farmers have two jobs before them now: First, they must produce this nation's food, and food for export as well; second, they must insist upon prices sufficient to keep food production at the necessary level, and to maintain the farm population's standard of living.

This doesn't mean that the farmer is out to profiteer and to cash in on the nation's emergency. It does mean, however, that the farmer can't be expected to pay higher wages to labor, higher taxes to government, and higher prices for supplies of all kinds without receiving a proportionately higher return for what he sells. The farmer is not a magician; he can't produce money out of the air.

The big job of the farmers' marketing co-ops now is to establish an equitable relation between operating cost and selling cost. Agriculture remains the backbone of the nation. If it starves, we'll starve with it.

DID HE MEAN WHAT HE SAID

At the beginning of the present session of the Texas legislature, Gov. O'Daniel had a bill introduced which would require the holder of any public office to resign that office before becoming a candidate to any other office.

Last week Mr. O'Daniel announced (with big tears in his voice) that he was a candidate for the office of United States Senator. When asked by reporters if he intended to resign his position as Governor, his reply was "Of course not."

This writer, as well as thousands of other Texans, is wondering if he really meant it when he said last winter that he thought the measure should be passed, or was he just pulling another of his HERO OF THE COMMON PEOPLE stunts.—Meadow Star.

I. H. Hudson was in one day last week and stated that he had never seen as much rain here in one month as fell in May. He has been here 41 years, and that is about as long as any now living have been here.

Sec. Hull's 'Restrain'
On my way back to Washington from New York the other morning, I read Secretary of State Hull's speech. I must say that I swelled with pride because of the great restraint of expression and firmness of humanitarian interest Secretary Hull so ably expressed. I thought some of the speeches which I have heard from Germany over the radio, and compared the sentiments expressed by Secretary Hull with those of Mr. Hitler and his subordinates. Our secretary of state offers freedom and co-operation in a joint program for world betterment, and I feel sure that our own people will heartily endorse everything he says.

I also read two speeches, one of them delivered by John Brophy before the Pennsylvania State Industrial Union Council convention at Harrisburg, Pa. The other was a speech delivered before the convention of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, in Philadelphia, Pa., by Charles E. Wilson, president of the General Electric company.

Both speeches approach the same problem from different angles. But the spirit that lies back of the approach is so similar that one cannot believe that men of this caliber, if they could be multiplied, would not solve our difficulties in the general field of economic conditions, not only as they face us, but as they face the world. In traveling around the country, I felt more and more keenly the need for something which is presented in the Philip Murray plan mentioned by Mr. Brophy and which is suggested by Mr. Wilson in his general survey of future co-operation.

FOREIGN ELEMENTS IN U. S.
There is one subject which is troubling me increasingly and which I feel I must talk over with you. It is perfectly natural that we should be extremely anxious now to keep foreign agents from retarding our defense industries, or from creating dissension among us through their activities. We must find aliens who are here illegally and, in so doing, we must question many people who are entirely innocent of any subversive activity. For that reason I feel that only the highest caliber men, employed the legally constituted government authorities, should have anything to do with these activities. For the rest, it seems to me if we know anything really suspicious, we have an obligation to report it to the proper government authorities. Our country, however, is made up of people, many of whom have come here recently, but who are either in process of becoming citizens, or who may be citizens already, though of foreign birth or parentage.

They are probably more devoted to the democratic form of government than many of our citizens who have taken their allegiance to democracy for granted. These people must be encouraged to trust and to love their new country and their neighbors. They must be given the same opportunity the rest of us have.

I am deeply troubled by certain things that have come to me. For instance, in industries, some people, because their names are Italian or German, or because they or their parents are known to have been born in those countries, are refused employment.

We, in this country, are opposing totalitarian government. We do not like Nazi or Fascist regimes. But we are not opposing the refugees who want to help us make our country safe, nor citizens who have come to us from other lands and who are loyal and good Americans. This demands from us a refusal to be hysterical and an ability to use our powers of observation, but to use them wisely.

PLEASANT GARDEN PARTY
One afternoon the cabinet ladies received with me at a small garden party for the wives of the members of the house of representatives, and the women members themselves. This is always a very pleasant party and I was delighted to have such a good day.

Then, for a few minutes, I went to the opening of the Soldiers and Sailors club, which the Women's National Democratic club is helping to finance as a defense project. It will serve, we hope, as a place of recreation and relaxation for the men in our services who come to this city.

We succeeded, somewhat breathlessly, in catching our plane for New York city, and still somewhat breathlessly, we caught the train for Portland, Maine. Here we had a leisurely breakfast and then started for Augusta, Maine, by motor, to have the pleasure of lunching with the governor and Mrs. Sewall.

It was beautiful driving through the Maine countryside. The lilacs were in bloom, the blossoms all out and there were sparkling blue water on one side and dark green pines on the hill. There is something about a beautiful Maine day which is hard to match. One forgets it for a while perhaps, but recognizes it immediately on returns to the state. There will always be a pull on my heartstrings with the first view of the dancing water and glimpses of miles of blue-green tree tops.

OLD GLORY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
PRIDE OF NATION FOR 164 YEARS

The shadowy figure of Betsy Ross is shown in the background of the U. S. Marines, displaying our National Flag and their regimental standard. At right are Pine Tree, Grand Union and Rattlesnake flags, used before the Stars and Stripes design was adopted by the Continental Congress; June 14, 1777.

TEXAS will be proud to celebrate Flag Day, June 14. While the Lone Star State has lived under the flags of six governments including the Republic, the Stars and Stripes has been the chief banner of the State since it entered the Union in 1845.

Each year June 14 is remembered by a thoughtful nation as the birthday of Old Glory, beloved emblem of our country for 164 years. Away back in 1777 the Stars and Stripes first waved triumphantly "over the land of the free and the home of the brave."

The flags of France; Spain; Mexico; Texas, the republic; and the Confederacy have all been emblems of the State at various times.

The Lone Star Flag was adopted in 1839, and retained as the National Emblem until Texas came into the United States. It then became the State flag and continues as such to this day. Its perpendicular blue bar with the lone star, and the accompanying white and red horizontal bars form a simple yet highly distinctive banner.

Equally famous is the Alamo Flag, with its green, white and red perpendicular bars and the year "1824" on its central white bar, indicating an adherence to the constitution of that year.

Old Glory had numerous forerunners. In early colonial days, there were scores of flags representing the hopes and aspirations of our forefathers. Some of them bore pine trees, anchors, beavers or rattlesnakes. The Grand Union Flag, sometimes called the Congress Colors, is the immediate ancestor of our flag. It had thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, with a union bearing the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew.

There is a certain mystery regarding the origin of our flag which has never been solved. Historians fail to agree as to who designed the flag or as to the origin of its chief symbolism, the stars and stripes, although a number of ingenious theories have been advanced.

Many persons believe that Betsy Ross, a Philadelphia needlewoman, made the first sample of the Stars and Stripes, but the fate of that original banner is unknown. Soon after it was authorized by Congress the flag was flown at a number of locations, and its popularity was assured.

Scores of highlights serve to brighten our flag's history. One of them occurred on February 14, 1778, when it received a salute from the French Fleet in Quiberon Bay, the first salute to the Stars and Stripes from a foreign power.

During our war with the Barbary pirates, Lieutenant Presley N. O'Bannon, of the U. S. Marines hoisted the flag at Derne, Tripoli, on April 27, 1805, after the stronghold had been stormed and captured by American bluejackets and marines. It was the first time the Stars and Stripes had ever been flown over a fortress of the Old World.

Our flag also served to inspire the writing of our national anthem when Francis Scott Key saw "by the dawn's early light" the Star-Spangled Banner floating over Fort McHenry on September 14, 1814.

From time to time changes in the number of stars and stripes have been authorized and both the flags flown at Tripoli and at Fort McHenry had fifteen stars and stripes.

Yet today, save for forty-eight instead of thirteen stars which now appear in a blue field, the flag is much the same as it was 164 years ago.

Floating from the lofty pinnacle of American idealism, our flag is a beacon of enduring hope, like the famous Bartholdi Statue of Liberty enlightening the world to the oppressed of all lands. It floats over an assemblage of free people from every racial stock on earth.

Old Glory embodies the essence of patriotism. Its spirit is the spirit of the American nation. Its history is the history of the American people. Emblazoned upon its folds in letters of living light are the names and fame of our heroic dead, the Fathers of the Republic who pledged upon its altars their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor.

Our flag bears witness to the immense expansion of our national boundaries, the development of our natural resources, and the splendid structure of our mutually helpful social system. It prophesies the triumph of popular government, of civic and religious liberty and national righteousness through out the world.

In recent years it has been the custom to observe June 14, the anniversary of our flag's adoption, as Flag Day. It is also an opportune time for all Americans to renew this solemn vow: "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all."

the ROAD AHEAD

Old Man Texas is today looking ahead and planning.

Beside the great farming and ranching country which Texans have built, he sees a new industrial empire here.

Already the start has been made. Some industries, such as petroleum, are now showing what can be done to utilize Texas' vast natural resources. Today this industry refines with Texas labor over four-fifths as much oil as the State produces. Its products make up nearly one-half of all Texas manufacturing. Altogether petroleum provides the living for almost one-sixth of our people.

But this is only a beginning.

Texas has many other raw materials, unexcelled by any other State. Texas has in oil and gas the cheap and dependable fuel supply essential to industry. Texas is the gateway to Latin America, our new foreign market.

Each new industry means more jobs. It makes added tax values for our State and local governments, bigger payrolls for our workers, and greater prosperity for you and every other Texan.

Nat'l. Defense Calls For More Laborers

Because national defense calls for skilled and semi-skilled labor, many who otherwise could be utilized in the defense program either are without jobs, or in lower paid classifications.

The national defense training program is paid for by the federal government, offering them opportunity to become employable in industries handling national defense contracts. While there is no great shortage of labor, there is a shortage of skilled labor. In Texas the program is handled through the State Board for Vocational Education. The programs have been set up locally through the public school systems.

Men are being trained upon the recommendation of the Texas State Employment Service and the Work Projects Administration. Training also is provided for out-of-school youth and enrollees recommended by the National Youth Administration. For those out of jobs for several years, refresher training is afforded to make them employable.

Placements are handled by the Texas State Employment Service. The placement record in Texas has been about 85 per cent. Texans in the eligibility class who fail to take advantage of this free instruction placing them in a position for substantial earnings are losing a valuable opportunity.

TAX REMISSION IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Proposed remission for five years of one-half of the State ad valorem bills, which would divert about $4,500,000 a year from the deficit-burdened General Revenue Fund of the State Government, was held to be unconstitutional in an opinion delivered last Saturday by Attorney General Gerald C. Mann.

A bill authorizing this remission had been passed by the Senate. The House sent the measure back to committee for the Attorney General's ruling.

Under the guise of public calamity, the bill would have remitted the taxes for a number of purposes.

Attorney General Mann declared that the calamity clause of the State Constitution was not intended to permit wholesale transfer of money from one constitutional fund to another, but to enable the State to extend relief to stricken areas.

"If the declarations in this bill are true and constitute a public calamity, then the whole State has been in a condition of public calamity since before the Constitution was written," the Attorney General asserted in his opinion.

NEW REMEDY FOR SCREW WORM

College Station, June 2—An effective remedy for screw worm, the most destructive insect pest to livestock known, is announced.

Cameron Siddall, extension entomologist, says the remedy is relatively inexpensive and consists of a correct compounding of the two principal materials—diphenylamine and benzol—at present advocated by the Department of Agriculture for the treatment and prevention of screw worm cases.

When applied to infected wounds, the compound is efficient in rapidly killing all screw worms in a wound. At the same time the remedy gives as good protection, or better, to all wounds against subsequent attack than materials heretofore recommended for this purpose, Siddall says.

Full particulars for preparing and applying the remedy has been placed with county agricultural agents. It was developed through research by the bureau of entomology and plant quarantine during 1940 and 1941.

The smear is best applied with a one-inch paint brush.

URGES TEXANS TO PURCHASE MORE BONDS

Austin, Texas
June 2, 1941

Dear Mr. Editor:

Following the President's talk on Tuesday, I have come to the conclusion that it is my duty to call on the citizens of Texas to double their efforts to aid America, and we must have an all-out purchase of defense bonds and savings stamps.

We are going to have a big bill to pay in order to protect this land we love so well—and it will be worth every cent it costs to know that our country and those we love are safe. And when I stop and think that our Government thought far enough ahead to make plans to borrow money from us that it could pay back with interest, I swell with pride. The United States Government could have just imposed higher and higher taxes on us—money to be paid in and nothing received in return but protection. Protection would have been a lot, but instead we are lending our money and will get it back with interest. When you buy one of these bonds, you are buying confidence in your country, your family, your neighbor and yourself. You are making money for yourself, and, by lending it to the Government, you are making it work for your country.

I could think of no more fitting memorial to those who gave their lives in the last war than to ask that all Texans do their bit now toward preparing defenses which we hope will protect us and save the lives of our native sons.

Sincerely yours,
Frank Scofield
State Administrator, Defense Savings Staff of Texas

RED CROSS FEEDING 1,200 AT CARLSBAD

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Red Cross announced here it was feeding and housing more than 1,200 persons flooded from their homes at Carlsbad, New Mexico, following heavy rains and flood conditions on the Pecos River.

Relief workers headed by John Wilson, of the St. Louis branch office of the national organization, have established four shelters where 1,293 homeless persons are being given quarters and three feeding stations where 1,500 persons are being fed. It is estimated Red Cross rehabilitation relief will be given 450 families.

Reports received at national headquarters show five persons killed by the floods, 110 homes completely destroyed and 210 badly damaged.

PRAIRIE CHICKENS HARD HIT

Texas lost practically its entire 1941 crop of the Attwater prairie chicken when flood waters in Colorado and several other south central Texas counties swept away the nest of the birds, it is reported to the executive secretary of the Game Department.

Prairie chickens, once very abundant in Texas, are now so scarce that the state legislature recently passed a bill maintaining the present closed season on the birds. Texas has two varieties of the chickens, the Attwater, found on the coastal plains, and the lesser prairie chicken, which is found in a few counties in the panhandle.

Destruction of the nesting areas of the prairie chicken is the biggest cause of their decline in number. Cotton and other crops now grow where the chickens once thrived in the panhandle, while the rice acreage is increasing each year in south Texas and the range of the birds is extremely limited. It is not considered likely that Texas will ever have a long open season on the birds, although it is barely possible that the Game Department will be able to restore the birds to a number sufficient to allow a very short season eight or ten years from now.

Did any of the citizens of Brownfield tune in over KFYO last Sunday afternoon at one o'clock?

Well if you did, you heard Tom Bigg's musical round-up. Did you hear the many contestants from Slaton and the one contestant from Brownfield. For the benefit of those who don't know who the contestant is from Brownfield. Her name is Miss Modene Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Pierce, who have just recently moved to Brownfield from Seminole. Modene sings popular songs and does she sing them. Just listen next Sunday.

The purpose of Mr. Bigg's musical round-up is to recognize the talent in each town over West Texas. And Brownfield's chief competitors will be Slaton.

I recall what Mr. Vernon Brewer said not long ago in reply to what the Slaton High School contestants said about beating the Brownfield contestants. Mr. Brewer said that if Slaton beat Brownfield they would really have to work.

It looks as if some of the contestants in the High School auditorium on May 20 didn't understand that they were to go to Lubbock to appear on the air. Mr. Bigg wants at least five representatives from Brownfield to appear on the air next Sunday at one o'clock at Lubbock. Next Sunday is the last time to appear on the air before the final contest which is June 15. Now all of you contestants go to Lubbock next Sunday. Don't let Slaton's talent beat ours. Let's put up a good fight. You do your part by going to Lubbock Sunday and I guarantee you that the citizens of Brownfield will be behind you.

QUIET, PLEASE

It costs you two dollars to blow your auto horn in Memphis. They're experimenting up there with a noiseless city and when the car horns quit blowing they say the natives heard the bullfrogs on the river and thought a flotilla of steamboats was invading the city. Well, anyway, it's on the quieter side but that is not the most important result. It turns out that people drive much slower and much more carefully now that they cannot clear their paths with a raucous demand.

It is still too early to average the accidents and see definitely whether or not all cars driven in Memphis are to be permanently silenced, but cities everywhere are watching the experiment and listening with an attentive ear. The only thing that worries the Memphians is that chamber of commerce fears motorists, going through after dark, may refer to the river metropolis as a ghost city.—CAPS and lower case.

CHEER FOR HAIL VICTIMS

College Station, May 26—Even though they are "beaten up" by hail, some crops such as tomatoes and Irish potatoes will sprout and develop new shoots. This heartening information comes from J. F. Rosborough, horticulturist for the A. and M. College Extension Service, who explains that these plants will not need to be replanted as the roots are already established and will come out more quickly than if new plants are set.

This advice, however, will not hold true for cotton and crops which will not sprout again. They will have to be replanted.

Rosborough says trees which are seriously damaged by hail will need rather careful attention for several weeks. The damaged upper surface of the limbs may be painted with orange shellac. Or on the hard wood growth, carbolineum or asphaltum paint may be used. These materials will serve as a protection to the cambium layer (a soft, formative tissue which gives rise to new growth) and will prevent further drying out of the plant tissue.

Pruning should not be done soon after hail damage. The horticulturist says it is best to wait until next winter. In the meantime, the more leaves that can be grown on a tree or plant after hail damage, the quicker it will become normal. Even sprouts on the trunk and large branches become too rank, the tops may be pinched off to stop their onward growth, but the

MARINES PROUD OF NICKNAME

Some persons think that the U. S. Marines are called Leathernecks because their skin has been tanned and toughened by the heat and sun in the tropics. But this deep brown color has nothing to do with their nickname.

They are called Leathernecks because years ago their uniforms included stiff leather collars, or stocks. These stocks were of heavy leather about three inches in height, which encircled the neck and were fastened at the back by a buckle.

For many years the stocks compelled the sea soldiers to hold their heads erect, although there was no more need to tell the Leathernecks to "keep their chins up" in those days than there is today.

Also in the name of the chapter the outgoing Worthy Matron, Mrs. Thelma Peacock, was given a past matrons pin, Mrs. Ione Turner making the presentation speech. As a slight token of the chapter's appreciation of her fourteen years service as Secretary, Mrs. Caroline Ellington was given a purse. And the two Grand Officers, Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Nabors, who helped with the installation received gifts from the chapter. Mrs. Bruton's new corps of officers also tendered her a gift.

To the guests and officers refreshments of lime punch, frosted cakes and mints were served in the anteroom from a table beautifully decorated with a lace cloth and silver and crystal appointments, centered with a bouquet of blue lilies, pink roses and Babys Breath. The refreshment committee was composed of Mesdames Fulton, Bailey, Copeland, Cruce, Bandy, Foote, G. W. Graves, Jim Graves, and Holt.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Attendance was about average last Sunday with one candidate for membership baptized at the evening service.

The pastor is this week attending the meeting at the Southwestern Syninarty at Ft. Worth, which is an annual meeting especially for the preachers, where they will hear great preaching and inspirational addresses and return to their fields for great soul winning campaigns which it is hoped will be the greatest in the history of this State.

These are not ordinary times in which we live but times for heroism on the part of the ministry and the churches as well, as forces are loose in the world that seek to destroy the church and its influence and this fact alone would provoke loyalty for every individual claiming the name of Christian.

Growth in our Bible study departments has made necessary more chairs in some departments as more students were present than could obtain seats but this condition will be corrected at once as we are anxious for every individual who desires to study God's Word with us may do so under good conditions, and if you wish to invite some of your friends to come with you by all means do so.

It might be well to remind every reader of this letter that the second installment note on our building will mature July 7th which will require fifteen hundred dollars and if you would have a share in the payment of this note mark your check or envelope "building fund."

Our church can only make progress by co-operation of the membership and that means for every member to have a share in everything undertaken for the glory of Christ.

Texas Will Have 29,704 Men In Selective Service

State Selective Service Headquarters today announced the Army's sixteenth and seventeenth calls on Texas' 351 local boards for 2,319 trainees to be delivered for induction during the period June 11 through June 19.

General J. Watt Page, State Director, said that 214 negroes have been selected to meet the sixteenth call on June 11, and on the seventeenth call 2,105 white men will be inducted between June 12 and June 19.

When these two calls have been completed, Texas will have 29,704 men in training under the Selective Service Act. Texas is credited with 825,429 men registered last October, and the quota assigned by the War Department for the first year of the program ending June 30 is approximately 33,213 trainees.

Gen. Page said that Texas leads the Nation in the number of men furnished the armed forces. In addition to the 29,704 men called under Selective Service, Texas has more than 80,000 men—all volunteers—serving in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, National Guard and Coast Guard.

FROM A HOUSE GALLERY SEAT

Claude A. Pepper, firebrand and forceful Senator from Florida pulled the best wise-crack of last week when he addressed a joint session the 47th — "Information has come to us in Washington that Mussolino is going to give Hitler every help—short of War."

Pepper's speech here was taken as a "plug" in behalf of the candidacy of the youthful Johnson for U. S. Senate. Remarkable a wag, when discussing the unprecedented number of Federal Payroll boys that are pouring into Texas and to the bill boards blossoming out along all roadsides — "Wonder why they ever 'hatched' the Hatch Act?"

Mrs. J. T. Auburg visited her mother, Mrs. Burdett, in Lubbock Sunday and Monday. She also attended Tech graduation exercises.

Miss Lois Chambliss, valedictorian of Brownfield High School class, received a scholarship to Texas Technological college and has already made plans or reservations to attend this fall and winter.

Another dramatically powerful story of Father Flanagan's fight for homeless boys, the new production was directed by Norman Taurog and produced by John W. Considine, Jr., makers of "Boys Town."

Texas Agricultural Situation

College Station, June 2—Here's a bird's-eye view of the agricultural situation in Texas as seen by workers of the Extension Service, Texas A. and M. College.

Recent check-up by George P. McCarthy and H. H. Weatherby, poultry husbandmen, indicates that the number of laying hens on Texas farms will likely increase from 5 to 10 percent this year, and a similar increase in commercial broiler production is expected.

They explain that although the parity price for eggs is 30 cents per dozen, the Department of Agriculture's plan for supporting eggs at a minimum price of 22 cents per dozen, Chicago basis, means Texans can expect to market eggs from 17 to 20 cents.

Referring to turkeys, the specialists believe this year Texas will regain first place in the nation in the number of turkeys produced. Hatcherymen are already booked up through June this year on the sale of turkey poults.

Lack of breeding stock is limiting the increase in production of dairy products in Texas, according to E. R. Eudaly and G. G. Gibson, dairy husbandmen. They are attacking the production problem by advocating better feeding of cattle, and explaining that at the present time one pound of butterfat will by 30 pounds of feed. Improved quality of dairy cattle was evident at the 20 Dairy Day programs held in the state in recent weeks.

Although cattlemen are rejoicing that prices are good, grass is abundant, and livestock is in good shape they have a hard fight ahead of them in controlling parasites, says Cameron Siddall, extension entomologist.

Other adverse factors bearing on Texas Agriculture at present are discriminatory freight rates and internal trade barriers hampering distribution of food and the possibility of an acute labor shortage in Texas, especially during the cotton harvesting season.

Send The Herald To Service Boys for $1.00

Several have come in of late and ordered a copy of the Herald to go each week to their boys who are in the training service of any of the armed forces of the United States. We have decided to make a concession by sending the Herald one year, anywhere in the USA or possessions, to a soldier, sailor, marine or air force for $1.00.

And here's a tip. Some of the young ladies have come in and sent the Herald to boys who have a name different from their own, and asked us to keep it out of the news' columns. Of course if they were sending the paper to brother, it would be ok, but to the boy friend—well, girls we shall respect your request for silence.

Old Timer of Tatum, N. Mex., Very Ill

J. H. James, who was brought here from Tatum, N. M., last week, suffering from kidney infection, was in a coma Tuesday but rallied. Mrs. Gainer who has been at his bedside since he was brought here, phoned two of the boys, Howard and Tom, of Tatum, who came over immediately.

Mr. James and family came to Brownfield about 1912 from Madisonville, and the next year or two he and his boys filed on several choice quarter sections in the Tatum section, where they have lived since. Howard still lives with his father on the farm. Tom has a drug store in Tatum.

Mrs. Walter Gainer is a daughter of Mr. James.

Thursday: Mr. James passed away about 7:00 o'clock last evening. Funeral arrangements not announced.

Frosty Ellington was in Monday and stated that he had been to the oil well nearby, but didn't know any more than he did before he went.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Forbus took their daughter, Yvonne, to Brownwood Sunday, where she will spend the summer with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Turpin.

TWO YEARS OF PARTNERSHIP

TWO YEARS OF PROGRESS

J. M. (BUDDY) TEAGUE

JACK BAILEY.

Since the formation of our partnership two years ago, it has been our aim to render the best service possible and at the same time keep in step with the progress of the community. Consequently, we are now located in a larger and more convenient building—a building constructed according to our plans. Of course we are proud of this new building and of the progress we have made during the past two years, but at no time have we lost sight of the fact that all this has been made possible by you, the people of this area, and to you at this time we wish to extend our sincerest appreciation and look forward to being of service to you in the future.

WE INVITE YOU TO VISIT US IN OUR NEW LOCATION

OUR SALES DEPARTMENT . . .

Is staffed by a group of courteous, conscientious salesmen. You can be assured that the product they offer you is exactly what they represent it to be. They have no cause to misrepresent. Whether it be a new car or a used one, they have absolute confidence in its being worth every penny asked for it. Chevrolet Trucks and Cars need no references and an "O. K." used car tag on a car is the best reference a used car can have.

OUR PARTS DEPARTMENT . . .

Is complete, modern and conveniently displayed. Gone forever are the days when that old, sad story so many of you so painfully remember, was so common: "I'm sorry sir, but we do not have the part needed for repairs on your car in stock. It will have to come from the factory and should be here in about two weeks." Any part your car should require is now IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE!

OUR REPAIRS DEPARTMENT . . .

Is manned by a group of workmen who take justifiable pride in their jobs. These men keep in constant touch with and their work is always being checked by the makers of Chevrolet. You will find no covering up of ill done work here. When our car undergoes repairs here, you can rest assured that the man who does the work is as reliable as he is efficient.

OUR PAINT AND BODY DEPARTMENT . .

Here as in the Repairs Department is a group of craftsmen who are not satisfied with anything short of perfection. This department is modern and complete in every detail. The Paint Shop can be made absolutely weather-proof, thus guaranteeing you a beautiful, dust-free paint job on your car.

Additional insignia for officers, non-commissioned officers and 1st class privates have arrived.

Pvt Jim Graves has the distinction of being the first casualty of modern warfare. Private Graves sustained severe burns from a sun ray lamp at Lubbock and was compelled to miss drill Tuesday night.

Lieutenant Truett Flaeh, Instructor in the Artillery School at Ft. Sill, Okla., and Cadet Lieutenant D. A. Thompson, Texas Tech, were present at the drill period last Tuesday night. Their work with the Company and with the supernumeraries was highly appreciated and the two groups received some very beneficial instruction at their hands.

Supernumeraries now attending drill:

Ed Mayfield, Marvin Woodson, J. W. Poyner, O. V. Newton, T. H. McIlroy, W. M. Vernon, Jess Youngblood, O. W. Schellinger, C. A. McLaughlin, Madison Weaver, Warren Nobles, Jack Davis, Jasper Moore, J. S. Tipton and Kenneth Moyer. Vacancies occurring in the Company will be filled from the supernumerary group. Selection will be based on attendance and progress.

A. T. Pickett, Marshal Loyd, Lal Copeland and Ted Hardy are the latest to be enlisted in Company D, replacing vacancies that have occurred recently.

Corporal W. A. Sample has been transferred from Company D to Company A at Odessa.

Eighty-two were present on the drill field Tuesday night. The public is invited to attend these drill periods. Come out and see for yourselves the progress YOUR boys are making.

This Mystery was a trip to a ranch near Creede, Colo., with all expenses paid, where fishing and other sports are being enjoyed by all.

Boyd will be remembered as the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hogue of this city and is well known here, as he was employed by the local Magnolia Pet. Co. for four years before getting the agency in Levelland.
