We Leave New Orleans For Tennessee

Folks, we have kept you hanging around New Orleans long enough. In the morning pretty bright and early on an ideal May day, we'll head out almost due north for old Tennessee. The last day was spent in viewing one of the most beautiful, as well as the largest city parks in the south. Here almost any flowers, tree or shrub found in a temperate or subtropical clime can be found growing. This includes water or pond varieties as well as those purely of the earth. One might spend a week in this place without tiring. Here or nearby, you don't know where the break comes, if it really does, is a superb zoo, with every creeping, crawling animal you would want to see in a cage, but you'd never want to see in the open. Then there are the fowls by the thousands, some wild, some tame, some as ugly as old Getout, and others streamlined and with all the gay feathers ever thought of. When we were through with this park for the day, our old dogs were yelping and barking like old Ring after a raccoon. We were truly glad to get back to camp, eliminate our brogans and give our tootsies an airing. But the memory of the park will linger long with us.

The last night was spent out at lake Pontchartrain beach (bygm we spelt it by looking at a map). This too is a lovely place, and was at that time swept by cool, gentle breezes, from what direction we can't say, as we were turned around and wrongside out all the time we were there. There are some less than a gillion kinds of rides, concessions, shows and what have you. But all of them seem to be owned or operated by one firm, as a block on each side a ticket has to be purchased at a box office for drinks, rides, eats or whatever you wish, and you must show a ticket or they will not serve you.

We also saw some mighty good trapeeze performances, which were free, and so to home (cabin) and to bed, but up betimes next morning, and soon after old Sol showed his glowing countenance above the horizon, were packed and loaded for the no'th. For miles and miles the highway simply cuts through swamps with a drainage canal on one side, sometimes both. Sometimes the woods were so thick one could see but a few feet from the highway, and the scene made us think of the time way back when Teddy Roosevelt went bear hunting in the Mississippi and Louisiana swamps in 1903.

After about a two hours run north out of New Orleans, one begins to get out of the worst of the swamps, and you find a few hills. This was some relief from many days on the Texas and Louisiana Gulf Coast which is as flat as a board. As we had some 450 miles ahead of us for the day we could not afford to play around too much, but we took our time through the better towns, and halted or slowed up at interesting scenes in the country. It is something like 100 miles to where one crosses the Mississippi line.

In the section of Brookhaven, we saw more cabbage growing than we ever thought of before. Before reaching that point we overtook loads of cabbage going in, and met then north of the city. There is another thing about Mississippi towns that is unusual. You hardly pass through a sizable town without seeing from one to several factories, such as overall, pants, shirts, cotton milles, spoke factories, stove mills. We spent some time in Jackson, as The Rambler wanted to see Buford Key,

Only $75.00 In Premiums To Be Given This Year

Secretary Tommie Black of the Terry County Board of Development, stated Monday that only $75.00 would be spent this year in cash premiums at the Terry County Fair, these all going to community exhibits, the first being $25, second $20, third $15, fourth $10, and fifth $5. Mr. Black was very desirous that we get over the importance of this. The fact is, we must have a paying fair before there is a permanent fair.

Knowing the people of Terry county as we do, we believe that individuals will be satisfied with ribbons this year. At best only a dollar or two for first prize and less for second and third could be paid. That would not pay a farmer for his time or trouble in bringing in his exhibits, and it would be only for pride of his stock or produce, and this will help boost Terry county and the section that he would take the time and trouble to bring them in. So, a dollar or a ribbon would make mighty little difference.

Mr. Black stated that two large tents had been leased or rented from the Texas Awning and Tent Co., Dallas, for the use of the fair this year. In one of these, merchants are taking spaces, and these will be in the form of show windows, and with decorations, should be real attractive. Cotton Goods will be the major exhibits of dry goods firms, we understand. The other large tent will be used for community or individual exhibits. Livestock will be provided for on the grounds.

The local Lions will have charge of the carnival, and that means that this part of the program will be carried on in a way that will meet the approval of those who brother-in-law to our brother Tom who lives in Ft. Worth. Mr. Key has a nice drug store in the capitol city. Like us, he had shown some age since we saw him last some 35 years ago, but was the same old Buford.

The drive through the northern part of the state is equally interesting, but unlike 1936 when we were last over that section, the roads are well paved and straight. Then they were as crooked as a snake trail, and "paved" with coarse gravel that gave you fits. Crossed that state line two miles south of our destination, Middleton, Tenn., and arrived in that burg just before sunset. They were expecting us, and when the Texas license showed up at the railroad crossing, about a half dozen kin were ready for us. Needless to state that a big supper and a good bed awaited, and were fully appreciated.

attend. The fair official and others are looking to the future. If the fair this year can be made to pay, then we can look forward to the beginning of a permanent fair on the land the county purchased for that purpose, one mile northwest of the city on the draw. We can begin to feel our way by erecting one or more buildings on that land that will be the nucleus of the Terry County Fair of the future, and one that we will all be proud to claim.

On this porposition, all are expected from a patriotic motive alone, to lend every assistance within their power to really put over the 1941 fair. Is your shoulder at the wheel?

Mr. and Mrs. Lee O. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McDuffie attended a dinner given by Mrs. A. D. Repp in Slaton Tuesday night.

Rate Reduction For Stock Shippers

College Station, Sept. 15.—According to information from Washington, railroads have granted a rate reduction designed to benefit livestock shippers. The rate concession, which became operative August 1, is experimental for one year. Sale in transit privileges will be accorded to shippers of stocker and feeder animals at the central markets at the through 85 per cent stocker and feeder rates from origin to destination. The rate adjustment is important to Texas cattlemen because this state is the largest shipper of livestock in the United States, said Paul G. Haines of the A and M. College Extension service. The privilege of sale in transit means that when a shipper finds a more favorable market during transit he can unloan his cattle and sell them without rate penalty, Haines said. This does not mean elimination of certain rate differentials affecting the southwest, but it is a step in the right direction. The railroads announced that continuation of the new schedule would depend up whether increased traffic justified it. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brownfield returned Monday from Fort Bragg, North Carolina, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brownfield, Jr. and Barbara Virginia Brownfield.

DO YOU KNOW THAT?

Government research shows that 90 per cent of the American people are constipated? Physicians assert that a slowing up of bowel movement is man's chief ailment and the underlying factor in most of our physical troubles? Psychologists have traced most of our unhappiness, nervousness, and failures in life to faulty waste-matter elimination? It is natural that a lazy, inefficient colon will eventually cause trouble. It may act abnormally in any of the following ways:

THE TERRY COUNTY FAIR

Is your fair- our fair - everybody's fair. Without your support it cannot be a success. It was organized and planned by men of vision, men who are public spirited, men who have the general public's interests sincerely at heart—men who have spent many hours days and weeks of valuable time and considerable money in order that you could see the residents of Terry and adjoining counties prosper and thrive. You, You and you are also interested in your home county. Each one of us has a part to play, be it great or small, there is a duty we owe to the community. We are each a very definite cog in the great make-up of things — and without that cog the machine just don't run as well, if at all, we owe it to ourselves — our neighbors and to the future generation to swap ideas, ways, and means to a bigger a better; a happier, a more prosperous community.

We owe it to ourselves to keep constantly searching for ways and methods that will keep pace with the progress of time, we owe it to ourselves to keep open minds ever ready to grasp anything that will make our community a better place to live in and that will make it a more prosperous one.

We earnestly request you to visit the TERRY COUNTY FAIR.

An old negro preacher owned a mule which had an efficient pair of heels and a loud but unmusical voice.

One Sunday morning, while the preacher was delivering his sermon, the mule persisted in putting his head in at the window and braying loudly.

The preacher finally said: Breddern and sistern, is dere one among you all who knows how to keep that mule quiet?

Pahson, replied a man, if you will jess tie a stone to dat mule's tail he will sho keep quiet.

Breddern and sistern, said the preacher, let him who is without sin tie de fust stone.

ORIGINAL EXEGESIS

A rural minister one Sunday took his place in the pulpit, announced his text, and proceeded to expound it as follows:

Bretheren, my text this morning will be, Seven Sons did Milcah bear unto Enon. I expect old Enon was sick and the doctor told his seven sons (strong, active fellows) that it was necessary he should have some milk; therefore the even sons went out to look for the cows, and they could not find them anywhere in the neighborhood. But they came across a she bear, and they milked her and carried the milk to Enon. And so it is writ, Seven sons did milk a bear unto Enon.

Mr. W. E. Haynes of Tahoka informed us this week by telephone that he was opening a garage, repair shop, etc., in the building recently vacated by Nowell & Mangum, and better known as the Brick Garage. Their place will be in the rear of Fitzgerald Service Station.

In addition, Mr. Haynes informed us that he had taken the Buick automobile agency for Terry county, and would have cars on display when he opens about October 1.

ATTENR BLACKOUT IN NEW MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Throop returned this week from Hobbs, N. M. where they attended the "black out" put on in that entire state, as a test to be prepared should occasion arise. Mr. Throop is district manager of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co., with headquarters in Brownfield. Cooperating towns in that having SATC systems were, Carlsbad, Hobbs, Jal, Lovington, Tatum and Eunice.

Mr. Throop stated that the state was divided into five groups, although Santa Fe was the main headquarters. Roswell was the filter station in group 5, in which the SATC participated. Mr. Throop said the whole country was black as Egypt, and the only lights seen were perhaps some one lighting a cigaret, and then they shielded the light with the hands. All radios were silenced, and all communications were by telephone.

This was under the direction of New Mexico Defense Committee.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Brumage and Mrs. Altha Brumage visited in Levelland Tuesday.

FORETHOUGHT

The young negro recruit was the victim of so many practical jokes that he doubted all men and their motives. One night while he was on guard, the figure of one of the officers loomed up in the darkness.

"Who goes there", he challenged "Major Moses", replied the officer.

"Glad to meet yuh, Moses", he said cheerfully, "advance and give de ten commandments".

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bunts visited her parents Mr. and Mrs W A Bynum, last week.

H. B. Smith is now working at Alexanders drug store. He has been attending school in Dallas.

Terry County Gins In Good Condition

Back earlier in the summer it began to appear that Terry county and trade area was in for a good cotton crop if not a bumper, and the gin men of the region started their work to be ready for any eventuality. Lilly Advises Putting Feed In Silos

With the best feed crop in years now maturing in Terry and Yoakum counties, the Farm Security Administration is encouraging its borrower-families to stabilize their business and increase their incomes by properly conserving and utilizing their crop resources.

Dennis Q. Lilly, County FSA Supervisor, believes that although farmers may expect increased incomes during the present period of national defense, they also face higher production costs.

Farm families cooperating with this agency", Mr. Lilly said, "are being assisted in increasing the net returns from each acre of land by using their feed crops so that the maximum pounds of butter-fat, beef, pork and so forth are produced.

The farmers who utilize their acreage to the best advantage, who conserve their feed supplies by proper storage and feeding practices, and who manage their farm plants on a sound business basis are the farmers who will prosper most now and in the future.

"For example," he continued, an acre of sorghums fed as silage will go approximately twice as far as when fed in the form of dry bundles. This is especially true with dairy cows. This fact, coupled with the comparatively low cost of trench silos, is expected to result in an additional number of these storage facilities here this year.

"The best substitute for pasture is silage, and silage can be had by every dairyman even though he has only two cows."

Citing the savings of feeding silage, the FSA supervisor said dairy farmers especially appreciate the value of this ration. He told of an experiment made at the Ohio State Station, where dairy cows received a dry roughage ration of hay and stover with 13.5 pounds of grain were compared with cows being fed 58 pounds of silage, a little mixed hay and four pounds of grain. The silage-fed cows gave 15 percent more milk at 41 percent less cost.

Sounding a warning that crops next year may not be as abundant as they are this year, Mr. Lilly stated that since a good crop is on hand at the present time every effort should be made to see that it is properly conserved, and

J. B. Knight Building Addition To Hardware

The J. B. Knight Hardware is making their 40x50 addition to their 50x100 west side of the square a two story instead of one story. That is, the tile addition in the rear is being run high enough that a balcony can be extended back to include all this 40x50 space.

The first floor will also have a concrete instead of a wooden floor, making it more fire proof. A stairway in the rear to the balcony will be made, as well as the one already in front.

Smells A Nigger In Pipeline

What Senator W. Lee O'Daniel says about the proposition of piping Texas oil and gas to the eastern seaboard should not be brushed aside lightly.

Probably the main attraction for industries moving into Texas is its abundant supply of fuel. It would be a simple matter for eastern industry to use the present defense needs for a smoke screen to build a highly subsidized pipeline that will drain Texas of her future industries.

Oil going out of Texas will not bring a lot of returns to this state or its people, other than taxes on the pipe line property and royalties to a comparatively few people.

If industries are located here where the fuel is, the royalty owners will be paid as well, the taxable values will be greater, pay-rolls will be established, and farmers will find greater market for the produce raised here.

If the railroads can get it to them on the eastern coast to meet the present needs, tankers will be back in coastwise trade again after this fracas is over. No one could object to piping Texas oil and gas if it is badly needed to meet present actual defense needs. But now that appears to be doubtful, and it begins to look possible that some body has been raising a big smoke screen to do two things—1. Promote more TVA dam building. 2. Promote more industries in the east.—Abilene Times.

QUICK JOBS FOR SKILLED ENGINEERS

AUSTIN, Sept. 18.—Jobs in defense industries have been landed by 96 per cent of the 2,000 skilled engineers trained in defense short courses at Texas and Louisiana College during the last year, W. R. Woolrich, University of Texas engineering dean and regional director of the nation-wide training program, has announced.

Training of at least 3,000 will be undertaken at these centers during the coming year, to meet spurting demands of expanding plants handling defense contracts. Each institution offering the short courses takes the responsibility for placing the men who complete training. All work is of college level, he added.

Old Jefferson—"Gateway To Texas"

AUSTIN, Sept. 15.—It's a sleepy East Texas village today, hardly visible on the map, but in the Reconstruction Era it was the boomtown of a frontier empire!

Jefferson, in its heyday as Texas' export capital and port of entry for Northern "carpetbaggers," is described by Frank Bryan, oil operator of Hugo, Oklahoma, in an article, "On the Jefferson Road," published in "Texian Stomping Grounds," latest volume of the Texas Folklore Society.

The University of Texas-edited book is the 17th in the society's list of annual publications. Its 17 articles—ranging from voodoo to East Texas pie suppers, from Mexican frijole recipes to a ten-act Negro spiritual drama—are prefaced by an introductory note by Harry H. Ransom, who with J. Frank Dobie, note professor-author-folklorist, and Moody Boatright, comprised the editorial board. All are on the University's English staff.

After the Civil War, Jefferson was the "largest export city in all of Texas, and the principal port of entry for Northern capital, speculators, reformers, Republican organizer, plain crooks and budding young Western desperados," all of whom natives of the Piney Woods lumped together as "Carpetbaggers," Bryan wrote.

On the Jefferson Road at Dog-fight Crossing "White men met, Negroes met, horses, dogs and mules met, and gathered together," he added. "Friends met friends; strangers met strangers; and if there chanced to be differences, these were settled on the spot, whether men or dogs."

Loan sharks are to your pocket-book as termites are to lumber. Here is how borrowers are kept enslaved according to a few cases reported to the Better Business Bureau. One man borrowed $20 and paid $3.50 a month for two years a total of $84 and still owed $20. Another borrowed $20 and paid $3.50 a month for a year or $42 and still owed the original amount. Another borrower had the same experience except that he paid $3.50 each month for six years a total of $252 on a loan of $20 and yet he still owed the $20.

There are approximately twenty-three railway employees for each locomotive in active service on the railroads of the United States, according to the Association of American Railroads.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Webber left Tuesday for an extended vacation. They plan to tour the United States, taking their time and doing what they wish.

CAM SEARS HAS A REAL GRAIN CROP

Drove out to the C. Sears farm early Tuesday morning, but Cam nor for that matter none of the family were thereabouts. Perhaps he had heard a new one on J. O. Wheatley, and had to come to town to tell it. Anyway we drove up in the field, where Tom Howard and force was preparing to start the row binder.

Let us state that we found a field of the best average grain that we have seen grow in any man's country, and we saw some mighty fine stuff here in 1937, as well as other years. The hegira that Tom Howard was cutting, was rank, and the binder tying about every four or five feet. The heads were large and filled from one end to the other, and deep down in the heads to the main stem.

On further in the field, we found some fine old time goose-necked maize. Two heads of this weighed 1 3-4 pounds on our scales. Two heads of his wheatland maize tipped the bean at 1 1-2 pounds, which is extra good for this grain, as it does not get over two feet high. There was another grain, the identity of which we are not sure, but had a head shaped like wheatland, about the same size and color of grain, but stalks probably four feet high. Two heads of this weighed exactly two pounds.

We made no extra search for extra large heads, but we just

Company D Bulletin

Sixty officers and men of Company D, local unit of the 34th Battalion, Texas Defense Guard, made the trip to Levelland Tuesday night where they drilled before those interested in organizing a Guard Company at that place. A small crowd of Levelland citizens witnessed the drill.

At the conclusion of the drill, ice-cold melons were served to the company. Having disposed of the melons, which were enjoyed by all, the Company and others present retired to the Courthouse where a discussion of a Company at that place was held.

Larry Miller as Bugler and Bill Byron Price, Robert Lee Craig, and Le June Lincoln as drummers, accompanied the boys to Levelland Tuesday. It is reported that these boys turned in an excellent performance and that the Company really enjoyed marching with them.

One of our sergeants is capable of getting 15 counts out of the Arms Manual Test, but will not discuss his ability to do this with anybody.

Pfc Orb Stice has received his discharge from the Company due to poor health. He will be missed by the entire Company.

Corporal St. Clair and Private Boyd Cavaness spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bandy. Cavaness is a former band instructor in the local school system and is now in Fort Bliss.

Great Crowd Hears Reception Center Boys

Just about everyone that could get in the auditorium were there last Saturday night to see the show put on by the bunch of soldier boy musicians brought up by Gene Hurt from the Reception Center at Fort Bliss, Texas. One and all expressed themselves as being well entertained.

Later when the dance part of the program started, it is said that it would have been an almost impossibility for all couples to have gotten on the floor at one time. Dancers stated that the boys made splendid music.

Expenses up here, while here and back home, was all the boys asked or wanted. It was mostly a good will trip in order that people generally have a better idea what the boys are doing down at Bliss as well as other camps.

IT WILL BE SOLVED

Now that the legislature is in special session to consider the bond assumption act, The Tribune is certain that the problem will be worked out in some manner before the 30 day period is up.

There are many versions of the bond assumption act. There are at least half a dozen plans by the various groups. There is no argument over the $9,000,000 that is spent each year in retiring the bonds voted by counties which have been used on state highways. All the argument is over what to do with the surplus.

Of course, it would be better, if nothing else can be done, to re-enact the old act to pay off the old bonds and leave the surplus to be disposed of during the 48th legislature which meets in 1943.

But surely some agreement can be reached over what to do with the more than $2,000,000 surplus.

We can see nothing wrong with taking all or at least part of this surplus and building lateral roads. It can not be denied that farmers of this state pay in at least 25 per cent of the gasoline money. And it cannot be denied that many farmers who pay the gasoline tax seldom use the state highways. One good look at the various county road maps will show where it is possible for many farmers to drive to their county seat or to their nearest town and not reach a paved road until they almost get to town.

The farmers should be given a break. Lateral roads should be built.—Plainview Tribune.

SHAMEFUL WAGE PROFITEERING

The various railway labor unions are now making demands on the carriers which, if granted in entirety, would increase the railroad's operating expense by the incredible sum of $900,000,000 a year.

A simple set of figures illustrates just what this would mean to the travelers and shippers of the United States.

Last year, total passenger fares collected by all the American railroads aggregated $417,000,000—less than half as much as the unions are now demanding in higher wages!

The railroads' average revenue per car of freight last year was $129.89. So it would take nearly 7,000,000 carloads of freight to pay for only the increased cost of the railway unions' demands. That is as much freight as was loaded in the first 2 1-2 months of this year—months, when due to the defense program, traffic was at unusually high levels.

And here, finally, is the most startling comparison of all: Nine hundred million dollars is more than the railroads have ever earned in any year after paying taxes, expenses and other costs. Last year the railroads earned a net of but $200,000,000—less than one-quarter of what the unions were demanding!

The moral is clear. Granting of these astounding wage demands would make it necessary to immensely increase railroad charges for passenger and freight service. It would disrupt the entire economy of this country. It would be a long step toward inflation. The cold figures tell the story.

Lee Stafford of Tahina, Oklahoma visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Coor here last week end. Stafford was graduated from the Arkansas Technological college with a major in commerce this June. He is planning to enter the air corps at Randolph Field in October.

Miss Juanita Tankersly and Darwin Newsom were in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon.

Lions Carnival Bigger, Better Than Ever

The 1941 Lions Club Carnival will be bigger than ever this year. Several new gyp games have been added and they say they are going to show everybody a good time.

The Santa Fe Exposition has been booked with rides for all regardless of age and with shows that will make us all sit up and take notice.

Lion McIlroy will serve you with plenty of red lemonade to chase the hamburgers and hot-dogs that he sells you. He has a capable crew to help him this year. Lion Lowrimore says be sure and go by and play the corn game with him 'cause some people call it Bingo but he had rather give a prize each and every time than to be classed as a gyp joint. Lion Hackney will be in charge of the Roll Down and says that he can take it away from you faster than you can get it on the Reds.

Lion Heath has especially invited every ball player in the county to come by and see if you can put the balls in the basket. It takes a steady arm to do this. Lions Newman, McClain and Patterson say that their percentage wheels will be operating every night and they are going to offer nice prizes (if you can win them).

Then there is old Lion Herb Ches-shir that has a special game this year and invites you to try to bust the balloons with the dart. He says everybody should knock off every balloon before they stop. He has some nice prizes to offer for your marksmanship. He says everybody should knock off every balloon before they stop. Lion Lynn Nelson is up to his old tricks again; he is taking in washing, or at least he has two wash boards and says that neither one will hit seven. (Who wants seven anyhow when we have an over and under.)

Lions Haynes, Lilly and Noble says when you are about down to your last pennies that they have a game that will take them. They are Penny-Pitch, Hoop-La and Jingle Board.

Oh, yes! Lion Holmes says that you should be sure and give his wheel a whirl as he is going to give a piece of jewelry with each and every whirl. (Boys if you are contemplating, be sure and come by. Might save you some money).

Rev. Lion Walker says if you have made the rounds and have not won anything be sure and stop at this place because he will have plenty of novelties to take home with you. He will have hat bands, hats, buttons, flying birds, balloons and many other items.

We will have Chuck-A-Luck too.

The Lions club is anxious that everyone attend the great event of the year and to be sure and invite your neighbor to come with you.

There will be fifty or sixty Lions to serve you so please come on out.

Last Friday night was a gala night for Brownfield High School when the Brownfield Cubs defeated the Kermit Yellow Jackets 28 to 0. The football game drew one of the biggest crowds in history. If the Yellow Jackets could have completed their passes the score would have been very different for they had two mighty fine players. The game was exciting and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The Kermit Pep Squad during the half put on a fine exhibition of acrobatics. The girls were dressed in gold satin suits that reflected the light to a dazzling degree.

Both the Kermit Band and the Brownfield Band entertained the crowd with their intricate marching and music.

Bedspreads Compete for Crocheting Honors

HERE'S a frosty freshness to this hand-crocheted bedspread, appropriately named "Jenny Lind." Its design is based on a single motif, which is simple to do, and costs just 2¢ to make. Working from the center outward, a combination of single and double crochet is used to form the spike and petal design. To bring out the beauty of the design and for long wearing qualities, use mercerized cotton with a high lustre, in white or colors. You can also enter the finished spread in the Fifth National-Wide Crochet Contest this Fall, where bedspreads will occupy an important place in the final judging. Directions for crocheting this spread and details of the Contest may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying design No. 681.

Local Commissioners And Judge Attend Meet

Judge C. L. Lincoln and three or four commissioners are attending the West Texas County Commissioners and Judges association in Mineral Wells this week. Principal program of the association for this meeting will be the formulation of some plan whereby West Texas counties will be able to get credit for all lateral miles in the counties.

State appropriation to each county is based on the number of cars registered, population of the county and mileage of lateral roads in the county.

This year the appropriation took an upward jump from $7,000 to $11,000. Reason for the jump is in the increased number of people in Terry and the resultant cars and roads.

In the past the method of reporting the lateral roads in the county has been lamentable. It has been the duty of each commissioner, and he in turn, had to turn this mileage into several offices of the state.

At the meeting this week end, Judge Lincoln said, some definite method of reporting this mileage will be reached.

LARGE DEFENSE BOND SALE

Among the largest defense bond purchasers in Texas is James E. Sexton, Johnson county ranchman. He bought through the Cleburne National Bank, five $10,000 defense bonds. "I purchase these bonds because I felt it was my patriotic duty to do so, and because the 2.5 per cent U. S. Defense bonds are the best the government has offered in some time," said Mr. Sexton.

Lee Fulton attended a county superintendent's meeting in Lubbock Monday night.

Big Rodeo In Connection With South Plains Fair

Lubbock, Sept. 15—Offering $2,700 to $3,000 in cash prizes for contestants and one of the most ambitious programs in history for be a nightly grandstand feature at the spectator, a rodeo which will be the 28th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair to be held here Oct. 6 to 11 will bring close to 200 of the nations roughest and toughest animals and some of the top-notch cowboy performers for entertainment of an anticipated record attendance.

Hands Across The Pacific

America's sympathy to war-torn China in her struggle for democracy was symbolized in Dallas by the handclasp of Nathan Adams, chairman of the Texas campaign for United China Relief, and little Maria Yium, 3, youngest member of Dallas' Chinese colony. The state drive for funds to provide medical aid, food and other needs of China's desperate war victims is being launched with a goal of $200,000 toward the national fund of $5,000,000. Contributions should be sent to Mr. Adams, care of the First National Bank, Dallas.

Marines.

After this young man completes his 6 to 8 weeks training at San Diego, he will then be a full fledged Marine and will be assigned to duty as such either on a foreign station, sea service aboard a large "battle-wagon" or one of the numerous home stations manned by the Marines.

It will be a real satisfaction for this station to help start Edsel buddies on their chosen career as a United States Marine.

Reduce Kitchen Casualties

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 4.—Life insurance companies have figures showing that many thousands of deaths and disabling accidents each year result from accidents in home kitchens. To cut down on kitchen casualties, Louise Bryant, Extension Service specialist in home management, suggests a check-up to make this important room in the house safe.

A third of the deaths of children under five from home accidents come from scalds and burns. To avoid such tragedies, cook with the handles of all pots and pans turned to the back of the stove so they'll be out of reach of children.

Safety catches can be put on petcocks to prevent children from turning knobs on the gas stove; matches should be kept in non-flammable containers out of their reach. Canning in a pressure cooker and deep-fat frying are two of the more dangerous cooking jobs, so children should be kept out of the kitchen during these processes.

"Be sure to cover your hand with a cloth before you lift the cover from a steaming kettle or roaster," Miss Bryant advises, "and lift the far side of the lid first." Here are other warnings: Fat accumulating under a broiler is a fire hazard.

Long, loose, flowing sleeves are dangerous. Cook in short sleeves and plain smooth aprons and

SHORT-CHANGING THE FARMERS

In many parts of the country the dairy farmers are seeking a larger return for their milk. The plight of these farmers is graphically shown by a simple set of figures.

During the five years, 1925-29, the return on cows per hour of labor averaged 45.6 cents. During the ten years, 1930-39, the average was 17.6 cents.

So you can hardly accuse the farmer of profiteering when he seeks to get a little more money for his labor and investment. Today he is caught between low incomes on the one hand, and constantly rising taxes and wages and material costs on the other. That situation, if prolonged, can only result in thousands of farm bankruptcies and a grave decline in the nation's agricultural production. The farmers must be given equality with the other economic groups of this country.—Industrial News Review.

The present pattern of medical organization has neglected farmers in rural areas, T. Swan Harding, scientific editor of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, charges in a national magazine.

ODDS AGAINST

The poor harassed copy writer who has his brain child murdered at the conference table will appreciate how the judge felt when he asked, "What possible excuse could you have for acquitting this prisoner?"

"Insanity, sir," answered the foreman.

"What, all twelve of you?" stormed the judge.

Gladys: You'll never catch me going out to dinner with an editor again!

Helen: Why? Was he broke? Gladys: I don't know about that. But he blue penciled about half my order.

The quantity of wool shorn and to be shorn in the United States in 1941 is estimated at the all-time high of 399,941,000 pounds or three percent larger than the previous high of 1940.

And just to think. In a few years we'll be referring to the good, old carefree days of 1940 and 1941.

School Bus Drivers Warned By Garrison

Austin, Sept. 15—With traffic fatalities on the increase and travel heavier than ever before, school bus drivers will feel the weight of tremendous responsibility in the coming school year, State Police director Homer Garrison warned today.

Urging bus drivers to be sure their vehicles are in tip-top shape, Garrison said that a recent inspection revealed mechanical defects in every one of twenty-six buses tested. Twenty-three had defective brakes, thirteen defective lights, thirteen no fire extinguishers, sixteen no first aid kits. Most of them were defective in at least three important items.

Although the safety lane for inspection of private vehicles has been temporarily discontinued, Garrison said the Safety Division will continue to assist school authorities in inspecting buses.

CATTLE MOVEMENT HEAVY IN JULY

AUSTIN, Sept. 1—All classes of Texas livestock except calves moved in greater numbers to out-of-state markets and the Fort Worth stockyards in July than a year ago, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Shipments totaled 5,427 cars, compared to 5,167 in July, 1940.

A gain of 59 cars marked cattle shipments, bringing the July figure to 3,060 carloads; hogs increased 64 cars to 645; and sheep gained 106 cars to 947. A total of 775 carloads of calves was shipped, down 69 cars from July a year ago.

BANKER GILLHAM URGES COOPERATION WITH FARMERS

Austin, Texas, Sept. 8 —Texas farmers have a vital part to play in the federal government's new food for defense farm program and it's up to Texas bankers to help them with the job, speakers told the Texas Bankers Conference at the University of Texas last week.

The part of agriculture in the national defense picture was judged so important that an entire daily class of the five day conference was given over to it.

Four speakers—addressing the 265 bank executives in attendance called for a great expansion of Texas farm production, a higher standard of living for the farmer, and all-out aid to defense program.

J. O. Gillham, vice president, Brownfield State Bank, urged the banker's full cooperation with the farmer in developing the new program. A sound credit analysis and agricultural loan plan should be developed by every bank, he claimed.

"How to make sound loans to farmers and livestock men is a question of great importance, he declared, because the whole financial well-being of our entire nation depends upon them. In other words, the prosperity of our nation depends upon the prosperity of the farmer and rancher.

If proper credit is extended the farmer or rancher is helped and becomes an asset to his community, but if we loan the farmer just for the interest we can make off him, without regard to whether or not he is entitled to the loan, or can pay it back, we have done harm to the farmer, ourselves, and our community".

Why argue with the other driver? He's always bigger than you are when he stands up.

THE 'MINUTE MAN'

I wonder how many people know that the statue of the "Minute Man" which is used on our defense bonds posters, was done by the sculptor, Mr. Daniel Chester French, who did the great marble Lincoln statue in the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C. Perhaps it would interest you to know a little about the making of this statue, since the story is told to me by the sculptor's daughter, Mrs. William Penn Cresson.

"The young sculptor borrowed from the art museum a large plaster cast of the 'Apollo Belvedere,' which he set up on one side of his studio, and on the other side he placed a long full-length mirror, in which he surveyed his own not unattractive form. And there he made his 'Minute Man.'"

The dedication of the statue on the nineteenth of April, 1875, was a very great occasion in the little town of Concord, Mass. It was one of those bitterly cold days that we have so often in the New England spring. More people were said to have died from the effects of that cold, than had died on the day of the battle they were celebrating.

President Grant and all his cabinet came from Washington for the unveiling. Longfellow and Lowell marched in the procession. George William Curtis was the orator of the day, and orated for more than two hours in the cold. Emerson read his poem written for the occasion, the lines of which were cut on the pedestal of the statue.

WOMEN IN DEFENSE

I am shocked to find through some of the clippings which have come to me, that my answer to a press conference question last week, as to whether I was satisfied with the volunteer participation in civilian defense, seems to have caused a complete misunderstanding of my attitude. I answered truthfully, that I was not satisfied with the civilian defense participation. But that was no criticism, as it was apparently taken to be, of Mayor LaGuardia, because I am sure he is not satisfied either!

How could any of us be content when the organization is just beginning and will never be complete until every man, woman and child in every community throughout the nation, feels that in one way or another, they are contributing to national defense?

Secondly, I find that certain groups of women think that I do not believe in the participation of women in national defense. I can hardly understand how this misconception took place, because I have wanted women to take their place in national defense long before the government machinery was set up.

I felt strongly that, while it was well to take up any training available, it was better not to set up programs which could not later be easily incorporated with whatever arrangements were made through government channels. I believe that there is work to be done by every man, woman and child in the country. Some of us can take training which will make us useful in ways that are closely related to military work. Others, many more probably, can devote themselves to improving the life in their own communities.

This is a very important part of national defense, for it is this life in our own communities which makes national defense worth while. If it is a good life and meets our needs, and we know our neighbors are co-operating to achieve better conditions, then any sacrifices we make to preserve what we have and to attain what we hope for, are cheerfully made, and are part of the duty which we recognize as citizens in a free democracy.

'THE FORGOTTEN VILLAGE'

Last night we saw a very beautiful movie, a documentary film, "The Forgotten Village," written by John Steinbeck, with music by Hans Eisler. It is the story of a boy in a small village in Mexico and shows the life of the village, the superstitions which still exist, and the bad sanitation. It portrays the gathering of the family round the fire in the evening, the birth of a new baby, the selling of the corn which is the basis of life, a festival and a death in the family.

Finally, the young Mexican leaves his village, because the local schoolmaster has brought knowledge and inspiration to such of the youth of the community who are open to new ideas. The boy will return trained to lead his people to a better life. I was tremendously interested in the medical trucks which go over almost impassable roads to serve the people of these remote villages.

A HOUSING DEVELOPMENT

I want to mention a housing development for colored people in Pensacola, Fla., which pleased me very much.

I was not able to go out and look at it very carefully, but it seemed to be well planned, and considerable, attractive landscaping had been done. One of the ministers had written to me about it, and told me that the people living there were making every effort to provide opportunities for civic education and recreation.

DON'T BLAME YOUR RETAILER

An authority on merchandising remarks that there is a growing tendency of labor and some consumers to blame price rises on retailers.

The tendency should be scotched in a hurry. For the plain truth is that the retail trades, in all fields, including both the independents and the chains, have carried on an aggressive and successful campaign to keep living costs down.

Between June 15, 1939, and June 15, 1941, industrial wages rose 27 per cent on a weekly basis. Industrial real wages—which means interpreted in the light of purchasing power—rose 22 per cent. In those same two years, the cost of living increased but 6 per cent and that includes rents and personal services as well as commodities.

It is retailing which has further cut overhead expenses and passed the saving on to the consumer. It is retailing which has eliminated many unnecessary middleman operations, and again passed the saving on to the consumer. It is retailing which, in many instances, is absorbing wholesale price rises, and voluntarily accepting lower unit profits in order to hold prices down. It is retailing which is helping educate the consumer to buy more scientifically, and make his dollar go farther.

Retailing raises prices when that is unavoidable—it has no way of picking money out of the air, and it can't hold retail prices at given levels when manufacturing prices go steadily up. But there is no doubt whatsoever that retailing has done wonders in keeping retail price increases to the absolute minimum. It is only just to give credit where due. — Industrial News Review.

NAZI THEVERY IN NORWAY

Mostly that war over there is to big for us to grasp, but there's a phase of it that gets under an Americans hide and into his heart. The Nazis are taking the bells from the churches in Norway for military use of the metal.

They don't ask for the bells and they don't pay for them. They just confiscate them—which means a very low order of thevery. The Reich commissioner for Norway promises they will be replaced eventually "at German expense". The down-trodden but stout-hearted Norwegians doubt that, and anyway wouldn't want bells from the enemy.

But a day will come when those stubborn Norsemen will sound their own bells again, ringing the invaders out of Norway. In that faith they bide their time.—Amarillo Times.

Carelessness is the mother of catastrophe.

WTCC Fighting For Equal Rail Rates

The West Texas chamber of commerce announced September 4 its appearance and that of its affiliate, the Freight Rate Equality Federation, in a hearing for oral arguments called by the Texas Railroad commission for Wednesday, September 24, on intrastate freight rates in Texas.

The arguments will be on an order issued May 15, 1940, by the Commission prescribing rate reductions averaging approximately 15 per cent on all goods moving under class rates. In June 1940 the order was suspended on petition of motor carriers for additional testimony, and rehearing was held March 12 this year. The rail and motor carriers asked for privilege of oral arguments, and these have been set for the 24th. The West Texas chamber of commerce and Freight Rate Equality federation will appear again as complainants against the present class rate level in Texas, and for restoration of the May 1940 reduction order.

The two organizations will also join the railroad commission in fighting out the case on freight rate differentials in Texas under which, for 50 years, carriers have assessed surcharges over and above common point mileage scales on goods moving into, out of and within the differential territory of far West Texas, the upper Panhandle and deep Southwest Texas. The rail commission issued an order in June 1934 knocking out these surcharges and abolishing all Texas differential territory. It was accepted by the motor carriers, but the railroads carried it to court and obtained a restraining order. It has rested in court for nearly two years. On Sept. 2 the rail commission, in a hearing with attorneys for the Texas railroads, offered to grant some rate revisions and regroupings, and denying others, provided the carriers would call off their suit and agree to abolish all Texas differential territory. The railroads refused the offer, meaning that the court struggle will go on. Commissioners Jerry Sadler and Olin Culberson in strong statements said they would push for early determination of the litigation.

The Texas rail commission has also entered the Interstate Commerce Commission's national freight rate investigation as a complainant against the present freight rate structure and present levels which are declared to be discriminatory against Texas producers, shippers and consumers. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce and its federation are also in the cases as petitioners against a pleading by Class 1 railroads of the United States to the ICC to indefinitely postpone the national inquiry.

Five-Year Term For Bank Robbery

Larson Lee Crawford, Levelland youth, and son of a prominent Hockley county couple, who stood accused of the robbery of the First National Bank in Levelland last May, 22 a lone-handed job, in which he secured more than $20,000, which was recovered shortly afterward, went on trial in Hockley county District Court last week, was convicted of the crime, and received a sentence of five years in the penitentiary.

Young Crawford was pictured as handling the robbery with all the coolness and deliberation of an expert, despite the fact that he is only comparatively a boy 21 years of age.

The case was of interest all over the area.

FISCAL YEAR REVENUES TOP $8,000,000 FOR NEW RECORD

Collection of revenues by the Texas Liquor Control Board during the fiscal year ending August 31 amounted to $8,004,475.01, establishing a new record.

This figure represented an increase of $994,832.14 over the $7,009,642.87 collected during the comparable period the year before. A new tax rate on distilled spirits, $1.28 as compared with the former rate of 96 cents per gallon, was in effect during the last three months of the 1940-41 fiscal year, but this was responsible for only a portion of the gain in revenues.

In every category of alcoholic beverage tax stamps, there was an increase in sales as compared with a year ago.

Liquor tax stamp sales were $4,782,965.96, up $854,296.27 over the $3,928,669.69 in 1939-40.

Wine tax stamps sales amounted to $473,409.96, a gain of $148,970.12 over the $324,439.84 collected in 1939-40.

Beer tax stamp sales totaled $2,186,740.04, an increase of $276,856.46 over the $1,909,883.58 in 1939-40.

from Chicago or some place had invaded the Panhandle and were dropping the men's teams like nobody's business.

We will now skip up to 1918: Woman suffrage had just been voted in Texas. One Slaton lady refused to register, stating that she believed the woman's place was the home.

About the first of September, the Midland & Northwestern had made its initial trip from Seminole to Midland and back. A lot of the passengers were President O'Donnell's guests for the trip. The railroad was abandoned a few years later.

School had opened with 235 enrolled according to Prof. H. F. Zorn, Supt. He had a faculty of seven teachers. So crowded were conditions, that two rooms were opened over the State Bank building where Piggly Wiggly now stands. A bond issue of $25,000 was soon voted however, for the first unit of what is now the west Ward, which took care of students for about two years.

Remember the World War No. 1 was going on and people had their nettles riled. Brandenburg down in Stonewall County changed to Old Glory, and Hermleigh to Liberty we believe. Both towns were named for very patriotic German-Americans. The latter was changed back after the heat of the war subsided, but Brandenburg is still Old Glory.

The county had a cash balance of over $6,000.00 in the treasury. Up to that time Terry county had never given a cold check or warrant. How times have changed.

J. L. Hyman brought in the first bale of cotton on October 14th. He received $133.00 for the bale and a premium of $50 was raised.

About Nov. 1, Judge W. R. Spencer, district judge came down but not to hold court, as the ban against crowds on account of flu had not been lifted.

The State voted for free text books for public schools at the election held the first Tuesday in November.

On Nov. 8, word was received that William Guyton Howard had died from wounds received in battle in France on October 5. He was listed as the second casualty from Terry, the first being young Artis, whose given name we do not recall.

The issue of November 15th, 1918 gave a graphic account of the first Armistice celebration here, when the county judge and sheriff turned everyone hog wild, and all the guns and six-pistols in town were brought into play. Later some dynamite was found, and six sticks at a time was set off, shattering some of the windows. The concussions were heard as far as sixteen miles from Brownfield on farms and ranches, and people nudged their sleepy companions with "well I guess the war is over, they are celebrating in Brownfield".

A HISS THAT'S NOT A HISS

A hiss does not always mean disgust or disapproval. In Japan it means delight. In greeting one, a Japanese hisses. In West Africa the hiss denotes astonishment. In the New Hebrides they hiss before anything beautiful. The Basutos' hiss is a sign of cordial agreement. Among the Kabyles of Northern Africa the hiss denotes satisfaction.

Urges "Laying Away For Rainy Days"

Houston, Texas, Sept. 15—The Federal Land Bank of Houston is stressing the use of advanced payment plans on farm mortgages to build up reserves against "rainy days" while Texas farmers and ranchmen are enjoying higher prices for their products than in many years, Sterling C. Evans, president of the bank said today.

Extra (or conditional) payments made in advance draw interest at the same rate charged on the Federal Land Bank Mortgages, which is now 3 1-2 per cent. These payments may be applied on the mortgage at some future date if the borrower is unable to meet an installment, or in full payment of the mortgage when sufficient funds have been accumulated.

It is distinctly to the farmers advantage to establish such a cushion for his operations whenever he has the money available, Mr. Evans said. Borrowers can use this plan to build up reserves in good years to carry them over lean years. One of the primary goals of the land bank system is to help farmers and stockmen pay out of debt. In 24 years, one-fourth of all the borrowers in Texas, who have obtained a total of $330,000,000 in long term financing, have repaid their obligations in full.

Land bank collections are improved this year and a reduction in the inventory of land bank owned farms by sales to farmers indicated a lively demand for farms at prices commensurate with their true value and earning power.

BEST SILK HOSE CUSTOMERS

"Texas women lead all other States in the purchase of sheer silk hosiery", said a leading Dallas merchant. "There is a kind of heavier stocking called 'four-thread' that goes great guns in the North and East, but the women hardly will touch it down here", the merchant added.

TREND OF FARM FAMILIES TO TOWN

Labor saving devices were introduced in Texas agriculture between 1930 and 1940 at such a rate that thousands of farm laborers and tenants were obliged to seek employment of public relief in villages, cities, and towns. Birth rates are consistently higher in the country than in towns and rural people normally supply much of the population growth of urban centers. A net decrease of 187,000 people in this ten year period, however, represents more than a "normal" shift in population.

There are reasons to believe that this movement is slowing down. Evidence from several sources — farmer's comments on questionnaires, data on machinery sales, and the population figures themselves—points toward stabilization of farm population for the immediate future. Defense employment may be expected to attract a few thousand farm families to town during 1941. Most of these workers are unskilled, however, and the reserve of job seekers already living in urban centers should fill most of the demand. In time, rising farm wages will undoubtedly stimulate efforts to perfect efficient farm machinery for land not being reached with present sizes and types of mechanical equipment. The greatest savings in manpower are being effected now in such operations as seed bed preparation and cultivation. Harvesting equipment, if perfected for such crops as cotton, is certain to bring about further displacement of farm workers and further reductions in farm population.

RIGHT TO INTERPRET

Advertising people who write it one way and have it read another will appreciate this story. "I advise you, Madam," instructed the doctor, "to take frequent baths, get plenty of fresh air, and dress in cool clothes." "What did the doctor say?" inquired her husband an hour later. "He said I ought to go to Atlantic City, and then to the mountains," related his wife. "Also, that I must get some new evening gowns at once."

Formby Says Fair Road Bond Assumption Bill

Senator Marshall Formby of this district said this week that he favored taking the surplus in the bond fund, after servicing all eligible bonds, and building farm to market roads for the farmers of Texas.

Farmers of Texas pay more than 25 per cent of the gasoline tax he said, and do not get much benefit from their money spent because much of their traveling is done on rural roads. Considering the fact that we need more all-weather roads for school buses to travel over, I think it only fair that this surplus be spent to build some good lateral roads for the Texas farmer.

Senator Formby said he would like to see the bill changed so as to make it possible to take in the new bonds which West Texas Counties have used to build roads now a part of the State Highway System. The Senate Thursday night passed a bond bill which will provide for the building of farm to market roads by the State Highway department. If the House adopts this bill, the Legislature should get through within the next few days. The Senate passed the Bill in three days.

Formby recently moved to Plainview where he is publisher of The Plainview Tribune. He said he believed his connection with the Plainview newspaper would fit in well with his Senatorial work and would give him considerable time to visit over the 24 counties of this Senatorial district from time to time. He was formerly publisher of The Aspermont Star, and worked on several dailies before he was elected County Judge of Dickens County in 1936. He owns a farm near McAdoo, in Dickens County.

RECREATION HERE AND IN FOREIGN CAMPS

Recently there has been a lot of griping by the boys in the military service in the states about the lack of adequate recreational facilities, and the USO had raised more than ten million dollars to supply recreation for them.

As an indication as to how the boys in the foreign service fare along this line, we print a paragraph from a recent letter from Harry Shelton, Borinquen Field, Puerto Rico:

"Wish I could drop in and see you. I wonder just how much things have changed. Borinquen is not at all tough now, and I'm perfectly contented. Read two mystery novels this week and last. Have plenty of books in our 2x4 service club. We'd like to have something fancier than this little wood shack for our recreation club, but we get along swell and don't like the idea of future taxes just because some of the gripers in the States want plush-lined comfort." — Rotan Advance.

Deputy Game Warden Visits Brownfield

Deputy Game Warden, Guy Ferguson of Lamesa was in our city last week, and called on the Herald, as he wanted to get a bit of information before the sporting public. Of course one of the things was a bag limit of 12 doves instead of 15 as printed on the hunting license. But the season will soon will be over for the north half of the state. A three load in gun limit also still holds good. Better plug the repeater or automatic.

The season on prairie chicken has been closed again for five years, and there is still a closed season of two years on quail in Terry, Gaines and Yoakum counties. It is some time before the goose and duck season opens, and the limit on geese is six in possession, and 10 duck in possession. However the limit on red head and buffle heads is three.

He asked us to state also, for fear someone might hub trouble that they have a closed season on deer, quail and dove in Culberson county. Also that grocerymen wishing to obtain license might get them by communicating with him at Lamesa.

BABIES — AND THE FUTURE OF OUR SECTION

Even to the casual observer there has been a marked increase in the number of babies born in Clarendon and Donley County in the past six or eight months—and still they come.

On the recent advent of a baby boy in the family of a News staff member—the first in many, many years—this writer is impressed with the thought that there's not much wrong with the future of a country where eternal confidence is expressed in an increased begetting of children. Parents truly give hostages to fortune when they bring offsprings into the world—and in spite of ominous conditions over the globe, they seem to be doing just that with such a hearty will that there is no mistaking their will and determination to live and to love to build in the years to come.

"Be fruitful and multiply", is an early command of Almighty God too often overlooked. Prospects are brighter now.—Clarendon News.

LOYALTY TO THE HOME TOWN

Now let's talk hard-headed business sense for a little while. You may not like all we are going to say but it adds up and makes sense and is worthy of some real thought.

All of us who live here in Sweetwater make our living here. Everything we do that helps Sweetwater, helps us just a little, eventually, by making Sweetwater a better town. And everything we do that hurts Sweetwater in the long run hurts us. Just forget any sentiment in the matter and consider the business angle.

Every dollar we earn in Sweetwater and spend elsewhere is a dollar taken out of circulation in Sweetwater, one dollar that will never come back to you unless the man you spend it with in the other town brings it back over here and spends it here. Which is very, very rare. You make your money here and should spend it here. When you go somewhere else to spend your money you are just helping hurt your own town a little more. Each expedition takes that much money out of Sweetwater and so far there are no Abilene or Fort Worth merchants paying taxes in Sweetwater or in any other way helping promote the interests of our town.

Town loyalty seems at a rather low ebb here. Maybe folks don't realize their responsibility to their own town. Sure, we're loyal boosters for the football team and that sort of thing, but that is not enough. We ought to be loyal in every way. We ought to be loyal to our merchants, to our schools, to our churches, and yes, we have the nerve to say, to our newspapers too.

Fort Worth, without Amon Carter, and the Star-Telegram, would probably today be just a suburb of Dallas. Amon Carter has done more to make and keep Fort Worth an alert two-fisted city than any other dozen men in the town. There is a story that for years, when for some reason, he had to spend several hours in Dallas he would take his lunch with him from Fort Worth because he said he'd be danged if he'd spend a penny of Fort Worth money in Dallas. That may be an extreme, but that was how he felt and he helped make Fort Worth people proud of Fort Worth and loyal to Fort Worth.

We would like to suggest and urge the formation of a "Sweetwater Loyalty League" with the members pledging themselves to trade 100 per cent in Sweetwater. Such a league would pay big dividends and benefit every man, woman and child living here.

This Kolyum believes in Sweetwater and is ready and willing at all times to fight Sweetwater's battles. We are definitely on the Sweetwater team. How ever long we are in Sweetwater, be it two weeks or 20 years or from now on, Sweetwater is our town and, by golly, we're proud of it and will stick by it. If the time ever comes when we can't feel that way we'll clear out. Sure, our town is not perfect. It's got some faults, but all of us working together can correct most of them. It's our town so let's be loyal to it. — Sweetwater Reporter.

The above expresses our ideas precisely about spending money in Brownfield. Brownfield people help you make your money. Why not spend it where you make it?

SAM T MILLER PASSES ON

Sam T. Miller of the Needmore community, one of our highly respected and prosperous farmers, passed to his reward last Sunday after several months of poor health. He visited hospitals and many specialists, but none of them seemed to be able to give him anything more than temporary relief. Following services at the church of Christ Monday, the body was laid to rest in Terry County Memorial cemetery under the direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

Mr. Miller was born at Southwest City, Mo., in December 1872, came with his parents to Texas at the age of 8 and settled in Comanche county. Later he lived in Haskell county for 20 years before migrating to Terry county in 1920, and settled on his splendid farm 8 miles north of town. He married Miss Addie Ritchie in Comanche county in 1900, who survives him. He was not a member of any lodge but had been a member of the church for 40 years.

To this union were born five children, three boys and two girls. Oden, Arlie and Terrell, and Mesdames Joe Price, and Eldon Cornelius, all living in this immediate section. He had one brother, J. M. Miller of Abilene, who attended the funeral, and two sisters, Mrs. Fait Johnson of California and

Canada Is Building Tanks

—Passed by Censor.
CANADIAN industry performed a miracle when it fashioned its first heavy infantry tank. At the outbreak of war, the Dominion had no facilities for the manufacture of such military monsters as tanks and no means of making armor plate such as tank specifications call for. But brains, perseverance and expediency combined to make possible the overcoming of these serious obstacles and today, not only is Canada producing tanks at the rate of three per day but

Mrs. Tom Fritz, of Rochester, Texas, neither of which were able to attend the funeral.

Nieces and nephews who attended from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Claud McGuffin; Mr. and Mrs. Al Hickson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cole, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lemonite, all of Roswell, N. M. Mr. Miller was a fine citizen and reared an excellent family. He will be greatly missed.

Forty-Two Model Cars Have Begun To Arrive

J. R. Kee Auto Service is now showing the new 1942 Nash at their place of business on the east side of the square, and boy, it is a beauty and a gas saver, so says J. R. Take time out to run over and see it—J.R.K. might give you a ride.

Then just across the street south, the Jordan Motor Co., is just as proudly displaying the new Dodge, a real car from the rear exhaust to the front bumper. About all the quinine in Mr. Jordan's coffee was the expected cut down in production around the first of December. He says he can still drag a cotton sack. We'll bet he gets by.

New Pontiac Expected This Week

Over at the Ross Motor Co., on east Main, we were told that the owner, Mr. C. E. Ross and Mrs. Ross had gone to Denton to enter their daughter in school, and were coming back by Dallas where they will see the new Pontiac and possibly bring one home.

Fords and Chevroltse Next Week—Maybe

At the Tudor Sales and Service, Mrs. Tudor says, "We hope to get a new '42 Ford next week, but there is nothing definite," but smilingly she told us that it would be a good car when it came.

Called down at the Teague-Bailey Chevrolet Co. Grady Goin answered, and said they kinder expected the '42 model next week

Tanks Hold No Terror For Texas Troops

In the big battle this week at Flatwoods' Louisiana, the 141st Infantry, Blue, was attacked by twenty (20) tanks from the Red Army. The 141st Anti-tank Company from Gonzales, Texas, armed with thirty-seven millimeter guns knocked out and captured nineteen (19) tanks, the other tank turned tail and escaped, states Col. E. O. Thompson, Commander, 36th Division.

This successful defense from tank attack shows me that tanks are not invulnerable. Our Texas troops do not get excited any more when tanks attack. Our Texas boys simply proceed to knock the tanks out. Tanks make an easy target for thirty-seven millimeter guns and seventy-five millimeter guns. We use both and we keep our anti-tank mobile defense so that it can beat the tank to the draw. That is, we get our work in before they get their work in.

Our squirrel shooting and rabbit shooting boys think it is a cinch to hit a thing as big as a tank and it is a cinch. The proof of it is that we knocked out and captured 19 out of 20 tanks—all but one tank. I apologized to General Birkhead for not getting the other one.

Tommy Zorns, private stationed at Fort Bliss, El Paso visited friends and relatives here this week end.

end, but it might be the first week in October.

Jarvis Nowell said he expected the new Studebaker in shortly.

At Least One Editor Reads Rambling

By Golly, you can't say now that the readers of our ramblings is just a family affair, that a few relatives in Tennessee and some of the immediate family here are the only readers. Wipe the sweat off your old glasses, and read the following letter from Editor Buford Davenport of the Abernathy Review, Abernathy, Texas:

A. J. Stricklin, Sr.
 Herald
 Brownfield, Texas
 Dear Mr. Stricklin:

I have a confession to make: As a young upstart in the newspaper business, with only six years of experience, I wondered what news or feature value your travel articles contained. I read them each week in my routine study of exchange papers. It has become a habit now. I find myself searching your Herald for your travel item the first thing when the wrapper is torn from your paper. I understand, now. Your Brownfield readers, I wager, have formed the same habit. I'll bet it is one of the first things they read. Keep rambling around and writing about it, it makes an interesting feature.

Fraternally,
 B. F. D.

Studies made at a state University reveal that only 37 percent of pre-school children in many rural areas of the country have had a health examination.

The song service will be under the direction of Damon Smith of San Saba, Texas. Mr. Smith is a very able song director having done evangelistic singing for many years.

The services will be conducted at 10:00 a. m., and 8:00 p. m. All

Connally Wins Hard Fight On Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senator Tom Connally, during the passage of the tax bill, again fought for and triumphed in the elimination from the bill of provisions depriving married couples in the eight community property states, of which Texas is one, of the right to file separate income returns.

Being the lone Senator from a community property state on the Finance Committee, the Texas Senator was out-voted in committee; however Connally carried his fight to the Senate where he was able to muster sufficient votes to force the Finance Committee chairman to strike the provision from the bill. This action will save the tax-payers of Texas millions of dollars each year.

Connally in his service in both the House and Senate has been an ardent supporter of State rights under the community property law.

PUZZLED

A farmer was losing his temper trying to drive two mules into a field, when the parson came by.

"You are just the man I wanted to see," said the farmer. "Tell me, how did Noah get these into the ark?"

services will be conducted in the church building located on the corner of main and third streets. The citizens of Brownfield and surrounding territory are cordially invited to attend all of these services.

Lions Club Favors Football Team With Barbecue

The Brownfield Lions favored the Cubs and their coaches with a splendid barbecue out at the Cub field, Monday night of this week. Others attending were members of the club and several invited guests. The menu consisted of barbecued beef, ranch style beans, the Gentleman from Odessa, bread, pickles, onions, tea or coffee.

We learn that Credo Gore furnished the beef, Sam Pyeatt did the cooking, of course, assisted by Mon Telford and Lee O Allen and others helped to prepare and serve it. Many were heard to say that it was one of the best barbecue dinners they had ever attended.

Following the repast, Lion President, Homer Newman was master of ceremonies. Supt. Emmit Smith was called upon and said a few words appropriate to the occasion. Other lions or visitors were introduced, and Coaches Aubrey Nooncaster and Barrett made short but to the point talks, which showed that they have confidence in the Cubs making a good season.

The main speaker of the evening was Coach Dell Morgan of the Texas Tech Red Raiders. His talk on cooperation, was both witty and interesting. Morgan has very little of the braggadocio about him, nor sarcasm, and he seemed to make a fine impression on his hearers, who believe Tech has something in him.

Good News For National Defense

A new kind of automobile that is expected to save America more than 10,000,000 gallons of gasoline next year made its first appearance here today when one of the new cars were driven in from Wisconsin by J. R. Kee, a leading automobile retailer.

Kee said that he made the 1404 mile trip on only 52 gallons of gasoline, an average of 27 miles per gallon, driving at ordinary highway speeds. The car, a new 1942 Nash Ambassador '600' stock model, set up its record performance under a wide variety of driving conditions, he said. It is now being given its first public showing throughout the country.

The car traveled about 40 per cent farther, he said, on a gallon of gasoline than he has ever traveled in a full sized car.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

According to the Department of Commerce estimates, salary and wage payments in the United States for the seven months ending July 31 increased 20 per cent over the same months of 1940. In the same period what are called "entrepreneurial" profits—that is profits of business men and industrialists conducting their own activities—rose by 8 per cent; and in the same period dividend payments by corporations increased 5 per cent. Which gives an idea of where the money is coming from, that accounts for the record breaking spending that has stimulated the amusements and recreation fields, and travel, as well as setting new records in department store sales, autos, household appliances and sundries.

GHOST STORY — The shade of a French Emperor who was born

100 years too soon must have been an "interested observer" as Aluminum Company of America cut its ingot price to 15 cents a pound—the fourth price cut since the start of the war bringing the metal to 25 per cent below the peacetime level. For it was Napoleon III in 1855—and not Hitler or Churchill or OPM—who first recognized the importance of the lightweight metal in warfare. He envisaged a mobile army, lightened by aluminum trappings, which would give him an insuperable advantage over his foes. But aluminum then cost $545 a pound, and despite all the rewards the emperor offered French scientists couldn't find a way to bring the price within reach. It was still prohibitive at $9 a pound, when Alcoa was formed in 1888 to use the process discovered by Charles Martin Hall; and it was more than double the present price during World War I. But the trend has been steadily downward and today, in the face of the greatest demand on record, it is at the lowest price in history.

Some fellows can get away with anything. There's one in our neighborhood that does. Morals don't mean a thing to him. He's unmarried, and lives openly with a woman he's crazy about; and doesn't care what the neighbors say or think. He has no regard for truth or law. The duties of the so-called good citizen are just so much bunk as far as he's concerned. He doesn't vote at either of the primaries or the general election. He never thinks of paying a bill. He won't work a lick; he won't go to church; he can't play cards, or dance, or fool around with musical instruments or the radio. So far as known, he has no intellectual or cultural interests at all. He neglects his appearance terribly. He's so indolent he'd let the house burn down before he'd turn in an alarm. The telephone could ring itself to pieces and he wouldn't bother to answer it. Even on such a controversial subject as the liquor question, nobody knows exactly where he stands, because one minute he's dry and the next minute he's wet.

But we'll say this for him, in a darn good family. He's our neighbor's new baby.

The information probably comes a little late but old Uncle Zeke had a method for telling when it was safe to eat watermelons. (If you eat one too early in the season, it might make you a trifle indisposed). I know it's safe to eat a watermelon", Uncle Zeke used to say, "when they get down to a nickle apiece."

The most powerful king on earth, according to the Lometa Reporter, is Wor-king; the laziest, Shir-king; the wittiest, Jo-king; the quietest, Thin-king; the slyest, Win-king, and the noisiest, Tal-king.

The Lynn County News: It has been difficult, in fact impossible for us to understand political developments in France. Not only does it appear that French leaders have been toadying to Hitler and betraying France, but it seems that some of them actually think that France will again be free and happy if they follow Hitler's lead. It is a pitiable plight in which the French people find themselves. It is no wonder that one of them attempted to assassinate a trio of the leaders, especially that contemptible, cowardly, traitorous Hitlerite that goes by the name of Laval. As for Petain, for a time we pitied him. We are beginning to wonder if he too doesn't deserve the contempt of all freedom-loving men and women through out the world. As long as France continues to "collaborate" with Hitler she will be a puppet nation. Moreover unless she rises and throws off the German yoke within the next decade, millions of her choice people will be scattered throughout Germany and Germans will take their places in France, the national spirit completely broken, and France as a nation and as a

HISTORIC CHURCH ANNIVERSARY
Pilgrim Baptist church near Palestine, said to be the cradle of Protestant worship in Texas, held a home-coming and memorial service July 23 to celebrate its 106th anniversary. Founded by Elder Daniel Parker in 1833, who led a band of Illinois colonists into Texas, the church was granted a special permission to organize by the Spanish government.

BULL LOST 19 DAYS IN WELL
A registered 2-year-old Hereford bull that fell into an old 12-foot abandoned well near Camp Verde, (Kerr County), was rescued after having been in the well 19 days. The owner, Calvin Pearson, had given the bull up as lost. A faint bellowing from the old well led to the animal's rescue. Without food 19 days, it had lost 200 pounds. A seepage in the well supplied it with water.

Present ceiling prices of 43 cents a pound have been placed on cotton print cloth by the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply.

Continue Education In Air Corps

Young men having a High School education with 1 1-2 mathematical units and a passing grade in written examinations to be given in five required and two optional subjects, even if no college work has been had; although exemption will be granted for applicable college work, or, young men with 60 hours of college work, age from 20 to 26, inclusive, unmarried and with no dependents, now may have the opportunity of training as Aviation Cadets in the U. S. Army Air Corps. The new War Department Training Program of 30,000 pilots a year offers to the qualified young man the finest instruction in the world in the operation of Aircraft.

Aviation is in its infancy and regardless whether one stays in the Service or returns to Civil life there will always be a growing need for trained pilots. During their training period, young men, as Aviation Cadets, receive $75.00 a month, board and room, clothing, medical attention and a $10,000.00 life insurance policy with the premiums paid while undergoing training.

Graduating after 7 1-2 months, they are commissioned 2nd Lieutenants, Air Corps Reserve, with the opportunity of three years active duty with the United States Army Air Corps. Pay while on duty ranges from $205.00 to $245.00 a month, plus an initial uniform allowance of $150.00. Upon completion of active duty, they will receive a cash bonus of $500.00 a year for each year of such duty.

Should the young man not have 60 hours of college work, but has a high school education with 1 1-2 mathematical units, he will be given the opportunity of pursuing a "Refresher Course" to be promoted as an aid to passing the mental test covering the subjects he should know to be an Aviation Cadet.

In case you ever get elected Governor of your State, and then slide into a U S Senate seat, and then perchance wish to have your hillbilly band along with you at the minimum of personal expense at the National Capital, all you have to do is get them a job running elevators or errands—and on the government payroll to fill in their spare time, when not hill-billying. In other words you folks who want to dance to hillbilly tunes, are going to help "pay the fiddler". Littlefield Leader.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

The Brownfield Association is in session with our Sister church at Tahoka. Messengers being there from more than thirty churches of this association, where reports of the work of the past year are read and progress of the work noted. These associations of which there are 108 in Texas are the basis of the cooperation among Texas Baptist churches for the promotion of missionary effort and their own colleges, universities, orphanages, hospitals as well as endowments for same title of which is vested in the Texas Baptist State Convention which will meet next month in the city of Abilene.

This church has always cooperated with her sister churches in the great work fostered by Texas Baptists and her cooperation for the past year in offerings for the general work have been the largest in the history of the church.

Our own local church has an enrollment of 1100 members and our possibilities are very great in this growing little city and it is our ambition to be of great usefulness in the service of the Master and there is great need for much work to be done here as many people are transient and need to be enlisted in the work and they have our urgent invitation to worship with us and to assist us to hold up the Christ as the only hope of men who are lost.

Some changes have been made in our teaching organization for the coming associational year which begins the first of next month and it is our desire to make the teaching of God's Word count for more next year than ever before and we mean to seek an average attendance of at least 500 each Sunday morning. We call to the attention of Baptist people the fact that children of Baptist families attending the public school far exceeds the number attending the teaching of God's Word and we shall not be satisfied until all the people read and study the Bible at least once each week.

A welcome is always extended to visitors but we want them regularly if they live here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Boyett, Mrs. Arthur Green, Mrs. P. F. Bruce and Mrs. W. L. Butts visited in Dallas the past week from Thursday to Saturday with Mr and Mrs. J. H. Killion and Mrs. Henry Peeler. Brother Killion a former minister of the church of Christ here, has been in Dallas hospital most of the time since March. His condition is slowly improving.

Roy Collier, manager of the Knight Furniture Store has returned from the Eastern Markets where he spent a full week buying a most complete line of Fall Merchandise. He states it will arrive in a few days and will be a splendid sight to see.

Mrs. G. M. Thomason of the Foster community was a pleasant caller at the Herald office Tuesday. She complimented the Herald for which she has our thanks.
