Voters Nix Constitution Revisions

Texans went to the polls Tuesday, November 4 and rejected the proposed changes in the constitution. Opposition to the constitutional revision ranged as much as 30 - 1 in rural areas to 2 - 1 in the more populous sections. Governor Briscoe's stand against the revision is blamed by those advocating the changes, and voters decided to keep the state constitution written by their forefathers 99 years ago, as'it is. In Bailey County out of a possible 3891 eligible voters, 885 voted. Votes cast by pre-

TRAFFIC SENSORS INSTALLED . . Wiley Melton, Jerry Chancellor and Richard Seideman of the Department of Highways and Public Transportation from Lubbock and Joe Cuellas of Muleshoe are shown installing traffic sensors or loops which will record the amount of traffic flow into the intersection or Main and American Blvd. These sensors will control the amount of traffic in the intersection, by keeping an even count of the amount of traffic.

The old system was a fixed time control which was preset and ran at one speed regardless of the amount of traffic. Under the new system, the signal will answer the call of any street that has a greater flow of traffic than the other. It will give the green signal to the street that has the greater flow of traffic and in late hours when the traffic is less on cross streets, the light will remain green on U.S. 84 until a call has been made from the cross Street

Resolution Creates Housing Authority

Following much discussion concerning the keeping of livestock within the city limits in the Animal Ordinance, Muleshoe City Dada adopted the ordinance with certain amendments. The Ordinance was adopted during their regularly scheduled city council meeting held Tuesday, November 4 at 8:30 a.m.

Much concern was expressed by councilmen regarding the distances livestock must be kept from adjoining property if kept in the city limits. The councilmen were concerned that the distances might not be sufficient to enable enforcement to the ordinance.

The compliance programs of Texas, Ohio, and Virginia are the first such programs to be officially certified under the federal meat and poultry inspection acts, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) announced this week.

Through cooperative work plan agreements, USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) has been providing 'advisory assistance, financial and other aid to states for the development of compliance programs to prevent and detect violations of state meat and poultry inspection laws.

According to APHIS, Texas, Ohio and Virginia have developed and are currently administering interstate enforcement programs, that meet the same standards as the federal system. The federal system covers meat and poultry products in interstate commerce.

Livestock Buyer Charged

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21--L.B. Eady, Amherst, Tex., has been charged with violating financial. payment, and bonding requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) said today Eady is registered as a dealer. He purchases hogs in the Amherst-Lubbock area. USDA's Packers and Stock-vards Administration charged in an administrative complaint that Eady: --Has current liabilities exceeding current assets by more than $112,000; --Issued an insufficient funds check and failed to pay, when due, for more that $36,000 worth of livestock; --Still owed more than $24,000 for the above livestock as of April 22; and

-Has continued his dealer operatons without providing proper bond coverage since his surety bond was terminated on July 30, despite official notice that this is a violation of the Packers and STockyards (P&S) Filing of the complaint does not prove that Eady has violated the P&S Act. He has a right to a hearing to determine if the evidence supports the charges. If the charges are proven, Eady would be placed under a cease and desist order. His registration could also be suspended. Dealers are required--under the P&S Act -- to maintain a solvent financial position, to pay promptly for livestock, unless credit has been arranged in advance, and to maintain a reasonable bond. These are designed as measures of financial protection for the sellers of livestock. The P&S Act is a fair trade practices law. It promotes and maintains fair and open competition in the marketing of livestock, poultry, and meat. The record in this case is open to the public. Copies of this complaint, P&S Docket 5184. may be obtained from the Information Office, Packers and Stockvards Administration. USDA Washington, D.C. 20250.

scheduled to follow the feeder The fourth annual Texas S. Championship Feeder Pig Show will be held in Athens, Nov. 7-8, announces Gayle L. Finch, Henderson County Extension agent. The show is aimed at improving the quality of feeder pigs and the swine industry of Texas.

General superintendent of the show is Vernon Byers of Eustace.

Site of the show will be the sale facilities of the Athens Feeder Pig Sale Association located three and one-half miles north of the city on Highway 19. The event is being sponsored by area business firms. All swine producers in Texas are eligible to enter pigs in the show, notes Finch. Entry deadline is Oct. 24. Entry forms are available from the Texas State Championship Feeder Pig Show, P.O. Box 1418, Athens 75751. There is no entry fee or admission charge.

An entry consists of a pen of eight pigs, farrowed by the exhititor. The pigs must weigh an average of 40 to 70 pounds. A pen may consist of barrows, gilts, registered, crossbred or any combination thereof. All barrows must be completely healed. Each exhibitor is limited to three entries.

The show will be made up of three classes, determined by the average weight of the pigs entered. Prize money plus ribbons will be awarded to the first seven places in each class. The first place winner in each class will receive $35, then the, money decreases to $5 for seventh place. The grand champion pen will receive $400 plus a trophy, with the reserve champion pen receiving $200 plus a trophy

As an added attraction, the judges will select one pig as champion individual feeder pig. The exhibitor of this pig will be awarded a large clock trophy-

Michigan State was recently shocked by Illinois, so the Buckeyes might have as busy an afternoon as they had last week against Indiana. Ohio State is also favored by 18. Nebraska and Oklahoma, those very familiar number ones in the Big 8, meet Kansas State and Kansas respectively. The Cornhuskers will handle the Wildcats with ease . . . the spread is 36 points. The Sooners will have a rougher day against the Jayhawks as they're favored by only sixteen points. After all the upsets in the Pac 8 last Saturday, the smoke definitely won't clear until November 22nd. This week, the U.C.L. A. Bruins should have things their own way against Oregon. They will win by twenty points. Southern Cal, on the other hand, just might be ambushed again . . this time by Stanford, a team that has either been very hot or very cold. AUSTIN Railroad Commissioner Ben Ramsey's decision to step down at the end of his present term Jan. 1, 1977, assured a wide open race for his position next year.

A large field already is forming.

Ramsey, 71, took many by surprise with the announcement he plans to return to law practice in San Augustine in a little more than a year.

His public service career dates back to 1931 when he first entered the House of Representatives. He served six terms as lieutenant governor-longer than any Texan.

State Rep. David Finney of Fort Worth, Houston attorney Terence O'Rourke and Walter Wendlandt, an Austin attorney and former Commission division head, are announced candidates. Secretary of State Mark

White Jr. said last week he is seriously considering getting in the race. White is an appointee of Gov. Dolph Briscoe, and speculation favored him to replace Ramsey if the incumbent stepped down before end of his term.

Other possible contenfor the ders Commission-which regulates Texas oil and transportation industries-are Texas Legislative Council Executive Director Robert E. Johnson and State Rep. Lane Denton of Waco.

Lawyer Policies Due

State Insurance Board members are considering a new type of policy covering attorney's fees.

The State Bar and agents' representatives requested approval of a plan authorized by the 1975

Legislature. The Board must approve guidelines. The Bar is prepared to distribute group policies through a non-profit corporation, a staff member stated. Insurance Company of North America and ties 15 per cent. The remaining 70 per cent, $6.5 million for the last quarter, remains with the state general revenue fund.

Courts Speak

The State Supreme Court upheld a Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission ruling that a dry justice precinct remains dry even when the county around it votes wet. In other recent opinions, the High Court declared:

•-The son of a slain father must divide benefits with an "adopted son" who was never legally adopted.

•-A $43,400 judgment for the state in an air pollution case against a roofer must be erased and a new trial held.

 Killeen's moving, zon. ing and licensing ordinances are legal. AG Opinions

A county judge is authorized by statute to reject competitive bids on county goods or supplies below $3,000, Atty. Gen. John Hill stated. In other recent opinions, calendar is not public information. Neither are notes on his appointments, but his flight log is.

Hill concluded: •-The Governor's desk

•-County law library fee may be taxed as costs in all probate proceedings except an action brought for the purpose of confining a person of unsound mind or a habitual drunkard.

•-A small city can't pay a deputy sheriff to serve as town marshall.

•-Harris County constables elected immediately

American National Insurance Company have applied to the Board for authority to sell the coverage. Fees are expected to run $5 to $7.50 per month for such coverage as wells, deeds, advice, defense against traffic charges and domestic cases.

A state legislator claims state agencies have made no progress at finding jobs for blacks, Mexican-Americans and women. Rep. Paul Ragsdale of Dallas said the number of black employees in 38 agencies increased only four-tenths of one per cent in the last year, the number Mexican-American of workers 1.1 per cent, and the number of women 3.7 per cent.
