NOW! You Can Have a "QUICK CASH" Pre-Arranged Funeral Payment Plan

WHEN DEATH COMES there is an immediate need for cash to cover the cost of Funeral and other "Last" expenses.

THIS "QUICK CASH" (Pre-Arranged) Funeral Payment Plan, which we now offer you, provides the immediate cash when it is most needed.

WE HAVE ADOPTED THIS PLAN and now earnestly recommend it for your consideration, because--

1st. IT IS A CASH PLAN-one that will permit you to call the Funeral Director of your choice.

2nd. IT IS PAYABLE TO YOU ANYWHERE IN THE GOOD OLD U. S. A.

3rd. IT IS AN EASY MONTHLY PAYMENT PLANwithin the means of every family.

4th. IT IS AVAILABLE TO FAMILY GROUPS OR INDIVIDUALS-and without medical examination.

The West Texas Burial Association was organized by a group of Funeral Directors in West Texas for the purpose of offering to their friends a Safe, Dependable, Low-Rate protection that all could afford. This is not a so-called "Service Policy," but a CASH POLICY-one that you may spend part or spend all with the one you wish to handle your loved ones whenever or wherever the Death Angel may call and unmarried women of Brownfield meet in the jury room for training in Civilian Defense. This course is given by Miss Jesse Rhinehart, the American Red Cross Instructor.

A complete course which requires seven weeks of training covers every detail in nursing and general care of sick patients of every type and description. Not only does it complete one's practical experience, but also makes trained nurses of all. If war never comes to our shores it fits women to meet the responsibilities placed on them daily in our home and community life. Miss Rhinehart is experienced and a very highly appreciated character. Her keen sense of dangers of disease and importance of preparedness is at once realized by her instructions.

The students are Mesdames Bea Allen, Lee Balfanz, Myrtle Brown, Della Bell Buckett, Wayne Daniell, S. J. Davis, Arridda E. Fant, Francise Gage, Ouida Goin, Lona E. Gorman, Mattie Lou Graves, Walter Hord, | Ruth Kendrick, Lola Latham, Susie Lewallen, A. B. McMillan, Mary Joy Patterson, Dorothy Powers, Leona Settles, Dolores Smith, Lydia Travis, W. M. ANOTHER OLD TIMER PASSES Abner P. Moore, 90, probably one of the oldest men in Terry county passed on last Sunday at 8 p. m.. Mr. Moore had been in failing health for some time, and that with his advanced age contributed to his death. Mr. Moore and family came to Terry county some 35 years ago from the Commanche-Hamilton county section, ettling at a place 2 miles east of Gomez. He entered the grocery business with a Mr. Parks, and finally bought his partner's interest. Mr. Moore continued in the grocery business until about ten years ago, when his age forbade long hours and hard work. He sold out and moved to Brownfield. Some two years ago, his wife preceded him in death. Mr. Moore was well liked, friendly and accomodating, and had many friends over the entire section. He was a member of the North Side Baptist church.

Funeral sevices were conducted at the First Baptist church last Baptist Ch Monday at 4 P. M., by Rev. Ben Last Sunday D. Johnson of Lubbock. think "How can I do more to help?" You go to First-Aid classes, you spend hours at the Red Cross, and still you feel a little apologetic because you're only a woman. You even feel guilty when you take time off for feminine things, like buying a new hat or getting your hair done. But, have you forgotten that small, terribly important word "Morale"? Have you forgotten that morale is a woman's business, now, more than ever? The way you look affects so many people around you, your family, your friends, even strangers who pass you in the street. To them, a woman's beauty stands for courage, serenity, a gallant heart, all the things that men need so desperately these days; so the time spent in your favorite beauty salon every week isn't selfish or frivolous.

It's part of your job of Morale. It's a woman's way of saying "we won't be beaten".

shaped cookies? Their crispy daintiness adds a note of perfection to afternoon tea-or to any party!

Full of Luscious Flavor

Maraschino cherries in the batter add color and a delicious, different flavor to these cookies-so crisp and wafer-thin! Don't let ordinary shortening "smother" all this grand flavor. Use a pure vegetable shortening like Spry, so bland that all the maraschino-almond blend comes through full-flavored.

Make Valentine Cherry Crispies once and you'll put this clipping among your choice recipes.
