Candidates Asked To State Views On Farm Parity

WACO—The three major candidates in the United States senatorial race were asked this week by J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, to state their views in regard to parity for agriculture.

In identical letters to Allred, Moody and O'Daniel, Hammond said, in part:

"Dear Sir: There is one important issue in this campaign that does not appear to have received the attention it deserves. That issue is parity for agriculture.

"Inasmuch as agriculture is the basic industry upon which the prosperity and well-being of this state depends, farmers and ranchers of Texas are vitally interested in knowing your answers to the following questions:

"1. Are you in favor of full 100 percent parity for all farm and ranch products?"

"2. If so, by what means do you propose to insure full parity now and after the war?"

"3. Are you in favor of the proposal recently made to place a ceiling of 100 percent of parity on all agricultural products?"

Navy Mothers Club To Be Organized

A meeting, at which it is hoped a Lubbock branch, Navy Mothers Club, can be organized, has been called for next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the American Legion Hall, adjacent to the city hall, J. E. Galloway, chief quartermaster and recruiting officer, announced Saturday.

"The Navy Mother's Club is a national organization for the purpose of bringing mothers of Navy men in closer relations with their sons, who are serving in the fighting forces of our Navy, far away from home," Galloway said. "It offers an excellent opportunity for all mothers to get a better idea how their sons live and the type of work they are doing for their country."

A member of the Dallas branch has been asked to come to Lubbock Sunday to assist in the organizing of the branch here. She is expected to bring with her a copy of by-laws of that branch, and other rules, regulations and suggestions pertaining to the organization and its functioning. Besides Dallas there is a large Houston branch.

After the Lubbock branch has been established there will be other branches probably established in smaller cities around Lubbock, including Brownfield. It is urged that all women interested attend the meeting Sunday.

Woman Killed, Man Injured Saturday

A fatal collision occurred out on the Lubbock highway Saturday night, snuffing out the life of Mrs. Thelma Swan, and seriously injuring O. D. King, a Santa Fe railroad man, who was Mrs. Swan's traveling companion, both of Amarillo. In collision with them was E. N. Lowe, insurance man of Lubbock, driving north.

King is still in the hospital here suffering from a pelvis fracture and other injuries. Lowe was in the hospital here two or three days and dismissed. He had minor injuries.

As the highway patrol out of Lubbock made the report, we have not been informed which of the parties were to blame, if either.

Still Mixing Some Poison Says Brazil

Earl Brazil was in one day this week and stated that there had been quite a let up in mixing poison at the West Texas Gin. Those coming in now are mostly people that had never put out any before, but are from various parts of the county.

For a few days, most of the customers were from Yoakum and Gaines counties. That was last week. County Agent McClain says there may be an epidemic of them a bit later.

Preacher Challenges Hal Collins' Reference To Stevenson

Hal Collins, candidate for governor, in a speech on the court house square here Tuesday at noon, before a crowd estimated at about 250 people was challenged during his speech by Rev. Charles E. Marshall, pastor of the San Marcos Methodist church, when he made the statement, in substance, that "Governor Coke Stevenson, when he was speaker of the House of Representatives, was directly responsible for bringing back to Texas horse racing and gambling."

Mr. Marshall, a member of the audience, challenged the statement after it had been made the second time and said in a tone loud enough to be heard by the speaker, "He didn't do it." Collins paused and asked him to repeat his statement which the Rev. Marshall did.

Collins, angrily replied, "You dirty-shirted bum, I'll come down there and smash your nose" and added "You just wait around here until I get through my speech and I'll meet you anywhere."

The exchange of words brought out several members of Collins' cowboy band who rushed toward Mr. Marshall, who stood his ground and a number of friends of the minister threw a protecting cordon around him and turned the group back with a few low-spoken but firm words.

Although the minister remained in the audience until after Collins finished his address, the speaker showed no evidence of carrying out his promise to "meet him somewhere."

In commenting on the occurrence afterward, Rev. Marshall said he regretted the incident, but added that he could not stand by and hear a speaker vilify anyone, more especially the governor of Texas, who he considered his friend.

Collins was followed by Senator O'Daniel who made a short address. Part of their speeches were broadcast over a Texas radio hookup from San Marcos.—San Marcos Record.

Olivia De Havilland and Henry Fonda are starred in Warner Bros.' delightful comedy, "The Male Animal" which comes to the Rialto Theatre on Friday. The picture tells an hilarious story of life and love in a modern university.

Rubber Collections Total 334,293 Tons

WASHINGTON, July 6—Scrap rubber collections totaled 334,293 tons up to July 3, President Roosevelt was told Monday.

The report was submitted by William R. Boyd, Jr., chairman of the petroleum industry war council, who was accompanied to the White House by Secretary Ickes, petroleum co-ordinator.

A week ago, when the total collections had amounted to only 218,998 tons, Roosevelt called results disappointing and ordered it continued for 10 days. It will close Friday.

Lt. Murphy May On Foreign Duty

Tom May had a conversation Wednesday with his son, Murphy, who is a lieutenant in the army air corps. Murphy told his father that he was then on his way to foreign duty, transporting planes.

Murphy could not tell his dad where he was, or where he was going. He was OK at that time.

Seeing Some Of The Crops In Terry County

With the sparing use of rubber now a great question, this writer can't get out over Terry to look at the crops as has been our habit in former years. We spoil a good printer for nine years when we first arrived in Texas trying to make a farmer—and failed. Despite that, there is not a human living that had rather drive out and look at growing crops in the field of the area.

Had to have something to eat, however this week, and our old paunch seemed to name a fried chicken as the most desirable menu. So drove out to the Mrs. Lee Walker farm near Gomez, and got two fine Reds that seemed to crave being eaten. Mrs. Walker has a fine field of cotton that had blooms July 1st. She has about the biggest cotton we have seen this year in Terry county.

With the exception of the mile and one-half hail belt that we crossed the crops in that area are good, and this includes corn and other row feed crops. Seemingly plenty moisture for the time being. Called back by the C. J. McLeroy farm for a little chat, and with him it's mostly good milk cows, hogs and chickens, and Mrs. McLeroy always have plenty of them, including turkeys and guineas.

However, since the two boys have entered the service of Uncle Sam, C. J. has cut down on his cow and hog population. Just enough for him to handle single handed. By the way, he is a great advocate of feeding skimmed milk. In fact, he thinks, and has proven to his own satisfaction that skimmed milk and grain will put flesh on hogs faster than anything he has ever tried.

For instance, he bought a herd of shoats not so long ago that he had to worm twice, and they were mangy to boot, yet in four months, he put more than $12 worth of flesh on those hogs, net. He counted his grain, skimmed milk and even slop in the expense.

The McLeroy farm will go right on till the boys return home again.

See Crops In East And North Terry

Drove out 12 miles on the Tahoka road Wednesday afternoon, and saw some good crops. Came back to town and as the sun was way up, drove up to Meadow, thence west to the old Levelland road, and south into town. Some good crops, others fair, and some indifferent. The indifferent ones were mostly in the hail belt.

We are speaking now of the northside hail belt, that reached from the Needmore section to Meadow. Cotton especially was pretty badly flailed, but is coming out. We imagine it looked a lot worse a week or ten days ago. If nothing unforeseen happens Terry will make a good corn and feed crop, and a good average cotton crop.

One Produce Firm Buying Many Eggs

While around last week gathering information on the rubber and junk dive, we had occasion to talk a bit with S. O. Muray who has been in the produce business here for several years.

He stated that he was buying from $2500 to $3000 worth of eggs here each week. When you take into consideration that his is just one of the several places where eggs are bought, you can begin to realize what the weekly income of farmers of the section run into weekly, monthly, yearly.

Yep, old Biddy is certainly doing her share in the all-out war.

Positions Still Open On School Faculty

The only position open on the high school faculty for the next school year is for a teacher of mathematics, according to E. E. Hancock, Superintendent of schools.

In the grade schools the positions of public school music teacher and athletic director have not yet been filled. Mr. Hancock said he hoped to have the faculty complete by next week.

Some Near Approaches To Sedition Here

Texans usually pride themselves that they are loyal to their county, state and nation, and it makes them mad as blazes when people from other sections blow in and abuse our form of government, no matter if it is done in the name of religion. It had been more than a year since such talk had happened here, but of late some of it is peeping up.

We heard of one man recently that refused to bring in his scrap metals and rubber, or let neighbors bring it. We don't know his name as it was not given us. In fact we don't care to know it. He stated that "he had not started this war and didn't propose to help end it." You can digest that statement the way you wish.

Last week, we stated that a representative of a religious sect so-called and a local man had a run in over the matter of loyalty and breaking our laws. This week another was tried with a hung jury, that old constitutional right of FREE SPEECH popping up, and it seemed to have been sustained more or less by the supreme court of Texas. Many are coming to the conclusion that too much free speech, especially if it approaches sedition, should be suspended during the stress of war.

Again this week, after the trial, some of the witnesses in the trial made some cracks that didn't stand so well with loyal Americans here, which precipitated a general free for all. The sect members including a woman finally retreated to their car, but the local men broke out their windows in an endeavor to get them out again. There is little the officers can do about the matter, with the court opinion standing as it is, but that is not going to keep loyal citizens from attacking such people when they come here with their utterances about destroying the churches and schools. In other words, it causes good and true men to disobey the law.

These people who went on to Lubbock where they are supposed to live and where their lawyer lives, will be brought back to pay fighting fines, and they are going to be plenty heavy. In the meantime their preacher still remains in jail without bond.

Something will have to be done about the matter whether we wish or not, some one is going to get badly hurt or perhaps fatally injured one of these days. And this is not a threat; just a warning.

Davis Completes Course in Naval Training

A new assignment is awaiting Raymond Nathan Davis, seaman second class, USN, Box 85, Brownfield, Texas, who has just been graduated in a class of 224 men from the Naval Training Station, Naval Air School, Alameda, California.

The men were awarded certificates after completion of courses in Aviation Radio, Aviation Metallurgy and Aviation Machinist Mate.

All class members were selected from many applicants and passed special aptitude tests to qualify. They are now rated petty officers third class and will be assigned to fleet or to shore establishments.

These courses are planned by the Navy to prepare men for specific duties with the service, and at the same time give them a background for positions in civilian life when the war is over.

Davis, a ranchman, attended Wellman High School. He is the son of Mrs. Opal Roby of Brownfield.

Building A New Gin At Loop

Hayden Griffin, owner of the gin bearing his name in this city, is at Loop this week putting in a new one at Loop for his company. We understand the gin will be completed in plenty of time for the season run.

Miss Charlie Mae Harold spent last week-end in Carlsbad.

Many Eggs To Be Produced In Terry

As part of their Food for Victory program, Terry County farmers have set as their goal the production of 1,179,085 dozen eggs for 1942. This is an increase of 371,897 dozen over last year. In order to meet this goal hens are going to have to maintain a high production percentage according to R. N. McClain, County Agent of A.&M. College Extension Service.

To aid in maintaining this production Mr. McClain makes the following suggestions: Free the flock of internal parasites by using a reliable powder in the mash for two or three days. Follow the instructions of the manufacturer as to the amount to use. Repeat treatment in about thirty days.

Hens don't need as much grain in summer as they do in the winter. Feed about one quart of grain per day for each twenty-five hens, surplus fat plus the summer heat causes many hens to die. Feed all the mash they will eat. It stimulates egg production. Feed a wet mash at noon—three pounds dry weight per 100 birds, mix with water or milk. A good home mixed mash is as follows: 100 pounds 32 percent protein concentrate, 200 pounds milo, and 50 pounds shorts. If green feed is not available add about 15 pounds of alfalfa meal.

The agent also points out that the quality of eggs should be maintained along with production—keep clean litter in nests, one nest for each five hens, gather eggs twice daily in summer and keep in a cool place, market eggs at least twice each week, produce only infertile eggs. Keep clean oyster shell available in open hoppers, this will improve the shell texture.

Five More Brownfield Youths Enlist In Navy

Five more Brownfield youths left for Dallas and further transfer to San Diego, California here Tuesday. They include Jodie Eugene Barton, Lucian Lejeune Lincoln, Cecil Ross Smith, Calvin Newton Newberry and Dennis Denton all of Brownfield. Neill Walker of the Lubbock Recruiting office stated that Brownfield has probably contributed more men to the navy than any town of its size in West Texas. Walker also stated that the navy is still desirous of young men who are anxious to learn a trade and at the same time serve their country. The navy operates 56 different trade schools and a young man has a chance to choose a trade that he desires. There are also openings in the Naval Construction Regiment for men who are skilled at a particular trade.

Ira Miller Training At Great Lakes

We had notice this week that Ira L. Miller, 21, son of Mrs. I. H. Miller of Route one, is taking training at the Great Lakes, Ill., Naval Training Station.

He will be given a series of aptitude tests in order to find whether best to send him to some other naval school or assigned to duty at sea.

A naval man remarked this week that Brownfield and section was about the best represented in the navy of any section of the country, population considered. This was the opinion of no other than Neill Walker, Tahoka, member of the naval recruiting force at Lubbock.

Tittle Heads LPCA In Three Counties

Ross Smith, field man of Lubbock Production Credit Association, was a visitor in our city, Tuesday, and informed the Herald that Mr. W. A. Tittle of Brownfield, was taking the place of Dick McGinty, as head of the tri-county office located here. Dick has recently joined the army and is located at San Antonio.

Mr. Tittle is former county clerk here, and made a mighty fine official, and Mr. Smith seemed well pleased to have him head the tri-county office here. Mr. Tittle's territory consists of Lynn, Terry and Yoakum counties.

We Took Another Rambling Notion

Saturday afternoon the Old He and wife started out down to Joe and Rosetta Roberts' at Coahoma, in the Junior's Ford coupe, with our old tires. We have the Junior's tires on our Chevy, but as he and some friends were to go to Buffalo Lakes near Lubbock, they had to have a roomier car—and better tires. He bought tires last year.

We well headed the Ford down the road right easy, holding our breath over rough places, the nine miles of unpaved road in Dawson county, and she made it fine, "gwine and comin'" with the exception that it had to have a can of oil at Lamesa, one at Big Spring, and another at Lamesa coming home. Our trip mainly to get some of Rosetta's good chuck, secondly to bring Mrs. Chas. Limer, sister of the two ladies, on to Brownfield. She had been visiting in Brownwood and Coahoma.

On the Lamesa highway, one follows the hail belt for many miles or to just this side of the Union Gin, when the hail seemed to play out and there were good crops. Most of the hail belt has been planted over. Dry down toward Welch and through most of Dawson and Howard counties, but cotton is doing fine, but feed needs a good shower. Plenty cotton blooms in that section.

Found one of the glider planes down in the road near Ackerly, and the biggest part of the population out there. No one was hurt, the pupil just lost altitude and lit in the road. There is a glider school at Ackerly. Pulled out and waited until the army plane also lit in the road, hitched on to the glider and both sailed away again. You know a country boy enjoys such sights.

Well we had a great time and fine visit, but Joe is such a confirmed O'Daniel man that we had to pour it on him for some two hours after supper. By that time we were so tired and sleepy that we failed to hear Tee and Pee trains passing in the night.

West Texas Editors Furnishing Recruits

The farmers and merchants and bankers are not the only ones that are furnishing men to Uncle Sam in both the army and navy to whip the Three Big Thieves. Only last week Stockton Henry, editor of the Lorenzo Enterprise announced that he had five sons in the service, no two of which were in the same state.

Week before last Editor F. L. Wade of the Jayton Chronicle announced his third son had left for training, and his youngest, a mere youth, had taken over the linotype machine. And this fighting editor added: "They may need the younger one, if so, he shall go and we'll get out the Chronicle the best we can."

Called Into Service Last Week

Four young men to leave last week for induction camps from this county, were, Thomas Bascum Davis, Raymond Warren Kearns, Jr., and Warren Wade Cowan.

Elmer Sears, while a Terry county boy, was under the direction of a California board as we understand it; also Rojas Pedro, a Mexican from some other Texas county, but as they were here last week with Terry County boys.

Grady Goin Has Good Job At Carlsbad

Mrs. Grady Goin was a visitor this week at the Herald office, and informed us that her husband now has a good job at Carlsbad, N. M., as bookkeeper with an army air field, and is liking fine.

As Mrs. Goin has some business to see after here before moving there, it will be a month or two before she joins her husband.

The Santa Fe System moved a total of 36,015 cars last week compared to 34,979 the same week of 1941.

'Tony'-The Story Of An Immigrant Boy

If you are one of those persons who chisel on the rationing program, on the dim-out regulations, go on strike in war industries, seek a soft job as a commissioned officer in the military services, and put less than your full effort into helping to win this war of survival, we want you to think a moment about Tony.

Fifteen years ago there came into the Memorial Press office a young, virile, energetic boy, exuberant with the fire of youth. He had a ready smile, attended to his work with care and thoroughness, and was what an employer would call an ideal employee. He was more than that, for he was one of our own Plymouth young men, of Italian family, and every inch an American. He liked his work and was a good printer, but there came a day when he felt the call of the outside and he enlisted in the United States army. Frequently he would come into the Memorial office, filled with enthusiasm for the work he was doing in the service of his country. Then his personal visits stopped and we would hear from him by letter, his note being pinned on the bulletin board for all his former friends in the Memorial office to read.

Late last year his mail came from Hawaii and then from the Philippines. Then came Pearl Harbor; our country was at war and Tony's letters stopped. The attack on the Philippines made us think about Tony. We felt within our hearts that Tony was out there with the same ready smile, more grim perhaps, but nevertheless smiling, his head held high, fighting for the ideals he had been taught to love and respect. Bataan fell, then came the siege of Corregidor and we knew that Tony was probably fighting on that isolated rock in Manila bay.

This week from the war department came words that Tony, on the Island of Corregidor, had given his life in the defense of his country. His life is the first to be given from this town. There are sad hearts in the Memorial office today and there are sad hearts throughout Plymouth, for Tony represents all that is fine and the best of our Plymouth youth.

No words can heal the aching hearts that Tony has left behind. A life has been given for our country and for us here in Plymouth. The least that we can do is to prove that Tony's life was not given in vain. We must prove this. We must do the little or the much that we are asked to do, for no matter how much is asked of us it will be puny in comparison with what Tony and those who mourn him have given.

There will be other Tony's everywhere throughout the land. They are the symbols of the price of victory. Their lives are being given for us here at home.

Each man and woman within his own heart knows whether or not he is worthy of Tony and all the others like him who in all parts of the world ask for nothing except that those back home will do their share in winning this war.

Those who chisel and lie about the rationing program, who half-heartedly blackout or dim-out, who seek special privileges, who seek to profit from this war, are betraying the Tonys of our country.

The guns of Corregidor are silent. Tony, too, is silent in the stillness of immortality.

Within every heart should be heard the soundless words of all the "Tonys"—that we who remain at home, work, fight and sacrifice to preserve the ideals and liberties for which Tony and thousands like him, are giving their lives to defend. — Plymouth (Massachusetts) Old Colony Memorial.

RUSSIA'S YEAR

In world history 1941 belongs to Russia. The year saw large events elsewhere—Nazi sweeps in Libya, Greece, Yugoslavia, Crete, and the launching of Japan's drive in the Pacific which brought America in and spread open conflict round the world.

For on that day Hitler repeated Napoleon's mistake of attacking Russia, surprising the world, took the full brunt of the Nazi war machine at its peak and shattered its claim of invincibility.

Russia in the year has gained much that is hard to measure. First is a stronger sense of nationhood. Her peasants and factory workers, rising magnificently to defend their homes, have been fused by the fires of war into a unity a quarter century of Communist hammering had never wrought.

PROMISIN' PAPPY

The House appropriations committee in Washington is lading out the money to the Army and Navy in the belief that the war will last at least five years.

But think nothing of it folks! For Pappy O'Daniel is sound-trucking around the Texas hustings, promising a short war.

Promisin' Pappy's latest promise is the most generous and welcome sop any people have had since Cleon, the demagogue who is immortal only because Aristophanes wrote comedies about him, promised the ancient Athenian the moon.

But Pappy is an adroit promiser, as all promisers must be. He'll have an alibi if he can't deliver. He promised his cherished old folks $30 a month, and when he couldn't deliver, it was the fault of the Legislature.

When we say, "Never promise more than you can perform," we do not claim to have coined a phrase.

Publius Syrus said it 1984 years ago.—Houston Press.

Tom May was in Amarillo last week-end.

LEGALITY OF COMMISSION'S ACTS JEOPARDIZED

Following his resignation from the post of rail commissioner of Texas and his induction into the army, Jerry Sadler cuts a new caper by a surprising return to Austin and his seat on the commission, declaring that he intends to hold the office until the expiration of his term Dec. 31.

There might be little harm done by this sort of thing except for the fact that now unless the acts of the commission are unanimous, all its acts and orders might be drowned in a general charge of illegality by Sadler's voice and vote, since he avowed previously he had vacated the office, and the action of the state democratic committee upheld by the Texas supreme court concurs in that view of the situation.

It may be a satisfaction for a fellow to pull off these bulldozing acts within public service circles (you couldn't get away with it in business)—but it becomes a threat to the authority of the state government, when it brings a cloud on the legality of acts of a commission for months on months.

Sadler has certainly shown little respect and consideration for the rights of the people by this latest antic.—Clarendon News.

WORDS AGAINST AMERICA

"We've got three enemies—the Japs, the Germans and the Democrats. We women cannot take care of the Japs and the Germans, but we can take care of the Democrats at home."—Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, former Pennsylvania Republican national committeewoman and society blueblood.

Such a ghastly statement filled with venom and hatred for a majority of the citizens of America stuns the person taught to be tolerant and versed in the Constitution which guarantees the democratic rights of citizenship.

The Republican party has given lip service to the "unity" which is so necessary to American victory in this war. By "Unity" we mean the oneness of thought toward a goal which must be attained if America is to remain free.

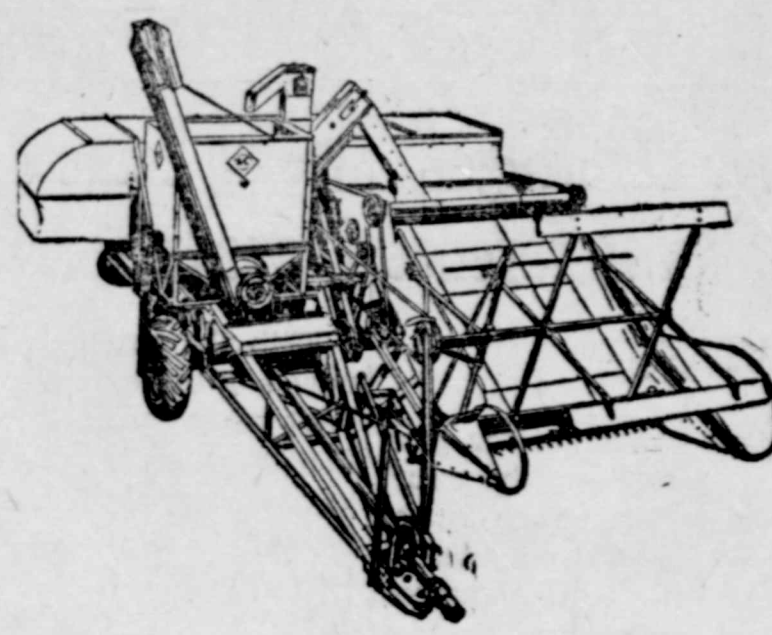

If Mrs. Warburton's sentiments and those of her Republican colleagues are such that they class fellow-Americans with the enemies who would make slaves of us, we say they are not good Americans. They are friends of Hitler, Hirohito and Mussolini.

We believe that sincere Republicans will join with all Democracy in condemning Mrs. Warburton's un-American statement.—The Hoosier Sentinel (Dem.)

We think that the disposition to criticize Congress because it stops to debate questions and consequently often delays action on highly important measures pending, is entirely wrong.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones of Brownfield and niece, Miss Joan Jones, of Oklahoma City and Mrs. O. C. Jones and daughter Donnah Rae of Seagraves spent Saturday night and Sunday in Carlsbad.

The world's first bale of 1942 cotton was ginned at Raymondsville, Texas, July 1st.

Had you ever figured what gas rationing will mean to Texas and its schools, for instance? Of the 1,539,006 scholastics in Texas last year, the oil industry taxes in Texas paid for the education of some 600,000 or more than a third of them. With this oil income gone, some of us are going to have to put up more money for schools, and literally thousands will be thrown out of employment.

Southwest Leads In Army Building

DALLAS—The program of construction in the Southwest is smashing all previous records, according to Colonel Stanley L. Scott, Dallas, Southwestern Division Engineer.

Construction authorization comes into Division headquarters every day from the War Department. They are for all types of new construction—troop housing utilities, flying fields, hospitals, schools, manufacturing plants and miscellaneous additions to the hundreds of Army post and stations located in the Southwest.

U. S. District Engineers at the six district headquarters in the Southwestern Division may now award contracts up to $3,000,000 and Division Engineers contracts up to $5,000,000, Colonel Scott states.

During the past week in the Southwestern Division, approximately forty contracts were

THE FLY A CARRIER OF DISEASE

AUSTIN—Thousands of children and adults die every year from diseases carried by the fly. Typhoid fever, tuberculosis, summer complaint, cholera, intestinal diseases, and frequently death follow closely in the trail of the common house fly.

"The control of the fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city and community in the state," urged Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The most effective measure for control is to prevent breeding," Doctor Cox said. "Flies breed in filth, and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her life time of several months, one house fly lays from 600 to 1000 eggs. Thus it can easily be seen that in a season which usually begins in the spring of the year, the descendants from one fly number countless thousands.

"To eliminate flies, the breeding places must be destroyed. Manure piles, garbage and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. Flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which such food and drinks are prepared and served. Likewise, they should be kept from access to privy vaults where they pick up the infections, which they later spread to humans by contact with the food and drink, and by unwashed hands and utensils.

"See that your windows, doors and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor will not molest your family. See that your grocer keeps meat, vegetables, and fruit screened from flies.

"Organize health measures to destroy the breeding places, control the flies' access to your home and food, and establish standards of cleanliness in your community that will eliminate the fly."

awarded, another forty invitations to bid issued and twenty construction authorizations received, which when broken down for purposes of issuing bid invitations, will keep up the fast pace.

Baptist Church News

The Vacation Bible School just closed exhibited their work last Sunday evening and it showed much study on the part of those attending. Work of this character in the minds and hearts of young lives will stay with them as long as the live.

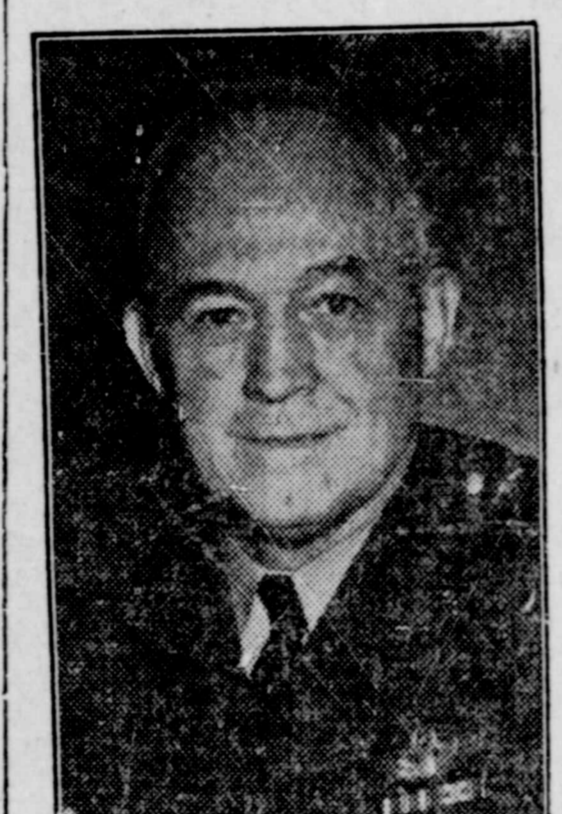

Some people seem to think these schools as well as the regular Bible school of the church are only to teach creeds and make people denominational in thought; and if the word of God may be construed to teach denominationalism, what will men do about it? Will they throw it out the window as many have already done? Will they deny portions of it as some are doing? Or will they follow their children to study it and draw their own conclusions? The fact of the truth of God's word was emphasized on young minds and will stay with them when the doubting period comes in their lives.

The faculty of perhaps twenty people who have devoted much time to the school which enrolled about 160 young people in all are to be commended for their effort.

There is always hope of accomplishing much good when a church can secure sixty to eighty volunteers as teachers and workers in a Bible School. We have here the building facilities, the workers to make it successful and the people necessary for the task.

The lack of workers has slowed up the taking of the census, and tabulation of the cards are not completed but prospect lists will be available for the classes in a few days. This work takes a lot of time and with the few workers who could work at it has taken longer than was hoped for.

When completed this census will be the most accurate of any taken before because of the streets having been numbered and named.

CICERO SMITH LUMBER CO. Brownfield, Texas

FRIENDS OF JUDGE LOUIS B. REED

... are advocating his re-election as DISTRICT JUDGE, 106th Judicial District, because:

- 1. He has proved himself a capable judge as evidenced by affirmed decisions in Courts of Appeals. Years of study in the University of Texas Law School and extensive private practice have qualified him.
2. He has conducted Court business promptly, efficiently and economically, saving time for witnesses, jurors, officers, litigants and attorneys, saving money for the State by making new trial unnecessary, saving counties expenses in caring for and feeding prisoners awaiting trial, and clearing the dockets that legal matters can and do receive prompt attention.
3. Government agencies and private employers, generally expect returning soldiers to re-enter civilian life in former positions. It is desired that upon his return that he become District Judge.
4. His qualities of citizenship as indicated by his daily living, his high standing in the legal profession, his devotion to Church, Nation and State are deserving because of their high rating.
5. His friends know and appreciate the fact that for nearly TWENTY-FIVE years his spare time and vacation periods have been spent in military studies and practice and church work. They appreciate the fact that he is prepared to serve the Armed Forces efficiently as ranking Lieutenant Colonel, and that he accepted the Post Chaplain's call to teach the Military Post's Sunday School Class for all servicemen.
6. He is at his post of duty with the United States Army and cannot make his own campaign. We do that for him.
7. The law provides for conduct of the Court during his absence and the business of the Court goes right along at no additional cost for Judge Reed receives only his Army pay.
8. He is entitled to the Democratically accepted Second Term by the qualities of services rendered during his incumbency.

Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas FOR JULY and May War Bond Scoreboard 38 States Top Quota; 10 States and District of Columbia Fall Short (June Sales to be published soon)

Table with columns for State, July Quota, May Sales, % Above or Below Quota, and Quota. Lists states from Alabama to New Mexico and Unallocated.

Henry Morgenthau Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, today made public the official War Bond Quotas by States for the month of July, which places the nation on a Billion-dollar-a-month basis to aid in meeting the War cost. The above table also gives May War Bond sales in the various states in comparison to the May Quotas. (June sales by states will be available for publication shortly.) The percentage of Quotas range from 71.3 percent above quota in Utah, to 22.6 percent below the quota in Montana, but puts the nation as a whole above the $600,000,000 total May quota. Unallocated Alaska and Hawaii led all states in sale of War Bonds on quota basis.

"Everybody, every pay day ten percent" is the Treasury slogan which is expected to place one of the attractive new window stickers in every American home. "We're Buying at Least 10%" reads the sticker, printed in the national colors. The new window stickers and the new "10%" label button, which indicates that the wearer is investing at least ten percent of his income in War Bonds every pay day, are yardsticks of patriotism in the War Bond Drive.

JESSE JAMES ASKS FOR FIRST FULL TERM AS STATE'S TREASURER

Jesse James

Jesse James, who was appointed State Treasurer last October by Governor Coke Stevenson to succeed Charley Lockhart who resigned because of failing health, is seeking election to his first full term.

A native of Milam County James served in the legislature nearly three terms, resigning to become Assistant State Treasurer. He held his position more than four years before being appointed to his present post.

Lost and found columns of Tokio newspapers are crowded these days. Every time an American buys a War Bond, the Japs lose face. Buy your 10% every pay day.

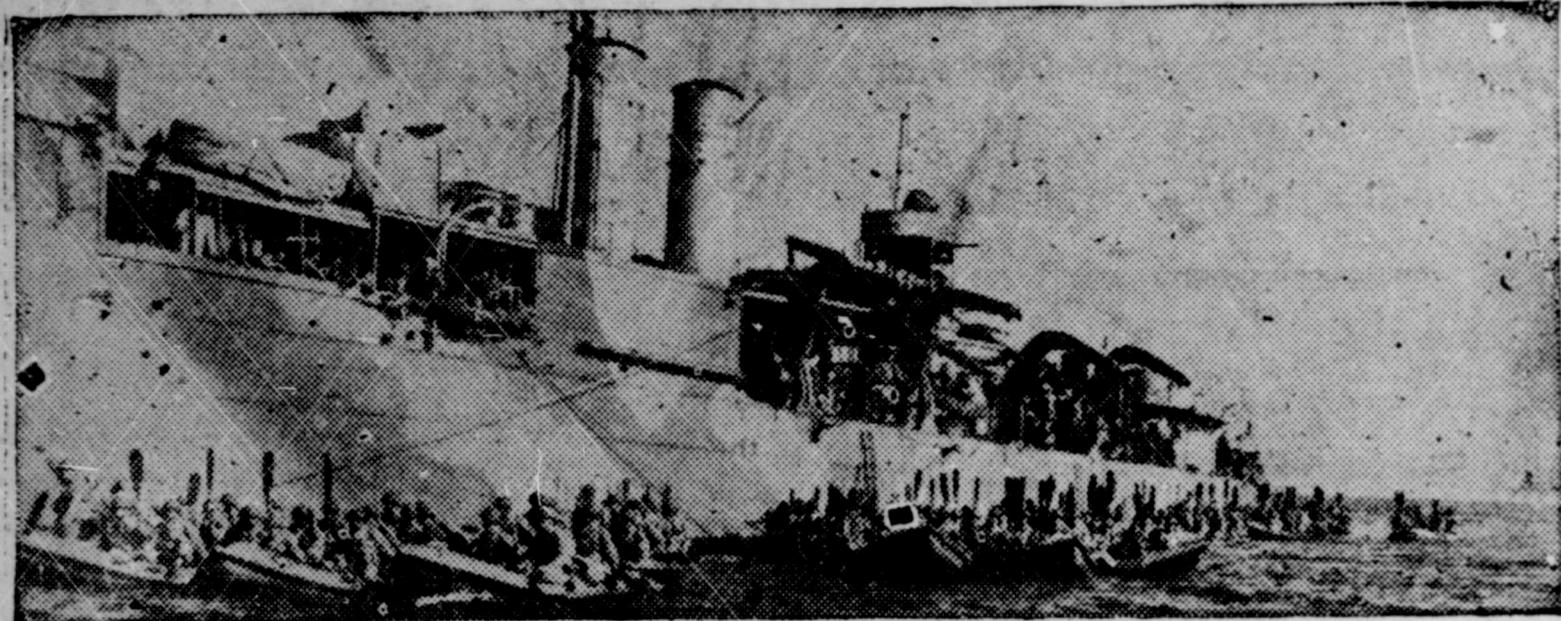

Are you entitled to wear a "target" label button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

AT STAKE THIS NOVEMBER

The only policy that is important now is to win the war—as soon as it can be won.

We have had the unfortunate experience of delayed preparation with a minority in Congress opposed to the Administration. If that minority should happen to be increased by the November elections, who can estimate the new difficulties and damage?

Our foreign enemies are eagerly assuring their people that disunity is rife in the United States, and would hail any political reversal as proof of their contention. We know that there is no basis for that particular example of Nazi propaganda. There is promising indication that the Hitler-Mussolini-Hirohito combination is already restive at the failure to realize the early triumph that was promised. That trend would be discouraged if anything eventuated that could be hailed as American disaffection.

It isn't a question of a Republican or a Democratic victory. As the President has pointed out, the issue between candidates must be relative devotion to the national cause—and in estimating this, the record of the candidates—regardless of party—must be the deciding factor.—Charles Michelson, Democratic National Committee.

Beauty and Brains Leads Campaign for Soldier Candidate

This is not just a campaign smile that Mrs. Vernon Lemens of Waxahachie has on her face as she sits behind the campaign manager's desk of her soldier husband working for votes to elect him lieutenant governor of Texas. Proof is that she was selected "Smile Girl" in a national photographic contest before she married into politics. These radiant features helped her selection as a "Cactus Beauty" during her student days at the University of Texas. And her beauty is more than skin deep. Along with that beauty prize she won the highest scholarship prize. She was also Phi Beta Kappa at the University. These prizes and more she won while earning her way as she was learning her way through the University. For further discouragement to opponents it may be said she is a veteran political campaigner now. Working with her husband she has won three previous legislative campaigns.

Her greatest joys are her two sons, age 6 and 3, but she leaves routine house chores to a nursemaid and keeps her place as political partner to her husband. So it was logical for her to carry on the race for lieutenant governor when the senator was called from reserve officer status into active army duty in April. He is stationed at Camp Hood near Austin and under Army rules governing public officials will be eligible for leave during the legislative session.

FORMAL APPLICATION MUST BE MADE FOR SOCIAL SECURITY CARDS

LUBBOCK, June 30—"Some workers are under the mistaken impression that when a social security account number card is lost, a duplicate may be obtained by writing a letter or sending a long distance telephone call to the Social Security Board field office from which the number was secured," said John D. Palmer, manager of the Lubbock office of the Social Security Board.

He explained that if a worker wishes a duplicate account number, Form SS-5 which may be secured from a post office or a Social Security Board office, should be completed exactly as the original application with an additional statement that a duplicate number is desired.

Palmer's statement was made because of requests, particularly long distance telephone calls, which have been coming into the office from persons needing duplicate number cards. The Form SS-5 is easily completed and need not be mailed to the office from which the number was originally secured since any Social Security Board field office will take the proper steps for securing the duplicate. It is necessary to have the same information as originally given in order that the worker's account number will not be confused with those of others having the same or similar names.

Mrs. Fred Youree and children, Fred Jr., and Maureen, of Lubbock, visited Mr. and Mrs. Dick McDuffie this week. Mrs. Youree is Mrs. McDuffie's sister.

The FSA personnel of Brownfield left Wednesday to attend a district meeting in Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Little and son, R. L., and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McClish spent Sunday picnicking in the McKinzie Park at Lubbock. Lum Oliver of this community and Hugh Hix of Needmore are stationed in Washington. They are real buddies.

Mrs. P. E. Carouth received a letter from her brother, Demner Shouse. He recently went into the Army. He is stationed at San Diego, Calif. He lived in Whittier, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Rich's girls have recovered from the mumps.

M. and Mrs. Clyde Heafner stayed at home the 4th. To keep from being lonely, he shot a Roman Candle that evening.

Junevea Carouth was honored with a birthday dinner Monday. Her niece and nephew Ronald and Gearl Barber of Hobbs were there.

While plowing his cotton Monday, Earl Carouth saw some blooms, and they were cotton blooms; not goathead blooms. He stated that a number of grasshoppers are in the field.

Crops are sure growing since the good rains.

Edna Pentecost was seen last week selling plums.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GET YOUR POISONING SUPPLIES

We urge the farmers of Terry County to buy their poisoning supplies early, before the leaf worms get started. Don't wait until it's too late. Have everything ready when the time comes when you have to have this material or lose hundreds of dollars in lost crop production.

OUR STOCK OF POISONING SUPPLIES IS COMPLETE NOW . . . BUT IT MAY NOT LAST

Realizing the difficulties in getting all metal goods, we started early and kept trying until we got a fairly complete stock of nozzles, pipe, pumps, sprays and all other poisoning equipment. Our stock right now is fairly large, but it won't stand any short, heavy demand such as we experienced last year. We sincerely advise that you do not wait until the worms hit to start getting ready to poison. Delays such as we would experience then would prove far too costly to you in lost crop production

Patrol No. 2 entertained other members of the scout troop Monday afternoon. The girls met at the J. D. Miller residence, where Mrs. Miller served them doughnuts and punch. They worked on the rubber drive for several hours, then went to the H. E. Thompson home where they were served ice cream and cookies.

Members attending the meeting Monday were Frances Wier, Betty Holmes, Billie Faye Finney, Dolores Gillham, Dorothy Henderson, Dixie Jean Redford, Mary Ellen Tankersley, Norma Jean Cary, Yvonne Forbes, Naomi Lee Thompson, and Eleanor Miller.

I-DEAL CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. ALLEN

Mrs. Lee O. Allen was hostess to the I-Deal club at a bridge party Wednesday afternoon at her home. Prize for high score was a bottle of Cologne.

A salad course was served to the following guests: Mesdames E. G. Akers, Roy Herod, Richard D. Myers, A. A. Sawyer, O. L. Peterman, T. L. Treadaway, Troy Noel, Clovis Kendrick, Spencer Kendrick, F. A. Scott, and Mon Telford.

Wilma Jean Methvin of Roswell, N. M., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vance Glover and Gwennette this week. Wilma Jean is Gwennette's cousin.

Miss Monah Perry and Miss Imogene Rushing spent last week end in Ruidoso.

Around The Block

We heard that Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heath engaged in that age-old argument on whether to go to the mountains or to the coast for their vacation this week. Mr. Heath chose the coast, and his wife preferred the mountains. Their son Robert was neutral, it seems. Anyway Mrs. Heath seems to have won, because they left for New Mexico Tuesday.

All his friends are envious of Mr. L. L. Bechtel's excellent collection of guns. He has several trophies of the hunt, too, including a huge bear skin rug.

This years Fourth of July celebration was remarkably quiet, wasn't it? We know of at least one place of business that patriotically displayed a flag Saturday but forgot to take it down and didn't notice their breach of flag etiquette until Monday morning.

Romance department: Elray Lewis received a telegram from Harold Cocanougher, who is in the Philippines, last week, saying he would have some "good news" for her soon. She hopes the good news will be that he is coming home. Eleanor Gillham and Sonny Wagner were strolling around happily Sunday afternoon. Sonny is going to Tech, and they manage to see each other nearly every week end. Still "steady" are Bobbie Bowers and Tommie Hicks. Bobbie brought all her books home to study for finals last week-end, but Tommie came home too, so we'd guess that neither worked too hard at the book larnin'.

Practically all the women in town are taking advantage of the the July clearance sales in Lubbock stores. In order to save tires, groups of friends and neighbors have been ganging up and all going over in one car. Clearance sale bargains in local stores haven't been overlooked either.

Mrs. J. H. Griffin is as cheerful as ever after practically living at the hospital with Judy for nearly two weeks. Judy has been getting along nicely since her operation. Our nomination for one of the prettiest girls in town is Virginia Stroup. E. E. Hancock, the new superintendent of schools, is already becoming well-known and well-liked although he and his family moved here only a few weeks ago. Jo Pete May always looks like she is having a good time.

We like Glenola Murphy's personality. She's one of the new Sub Deb pledges. Rev. F. A. Walker of the Presbyterian church seems to be popular with everybody. Mary Ballard has awfully pretty eyes, doesn't she? Mr. and Mrs. Slim Shelling and their crowd are always having impromptu parties and get-togethers that sound like fun.

Wives of the group of men who play poker together one or two nights every week say they are about to catch up with their husbands. It seems that all the men come home from poker sessions bragging about their winnings, time after time, and no one ever admits losing. Maybe they play a new kind of game where everyone wins. Mrs. James Harley Dallas has a lovely speaking voice. Dolores Gillham and some of her friends may be seen swimming and bicycling every day they took in the midnight show Saturday, too.

Last week we saw a white rubber doll balanced on top of all the old tires, tubes, and everything else that made up one of the scrap rubber piles. If the donor was a little girl who thinks as much of dilapidated dolls as we used to, she really made a patriotic sacrifice.

FAMILY REUNION HELD AT MEADOW

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Adams of Meadow were hosts at a family reunion at their home Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McPherson of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Barton McPherson and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Craig of Lubbock, O. J. Adams of Wichita Falls, Mrs. J. E. Bingham and children, Sue and David, of Tyler, Mrs. Aubrey Herberg of Terrell, and Mrs. O. E. Adams of Washington, D. C.

The group visited Mrs. O. J. Adams in the hospital here. She has been ill with pneumonia, and was released from the hospital yesterday. Mrs. Bingham and Mrs. Herberg are Mrs. Adams' daughters, and O. J. Adams is her son. Mr. McPherson and Mrs. Craig are the children of Mrs. B. L. McPherson.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to express our thanks to all our friends who have shown so much kindness to us since the recent death of our beloved daughter and sister.

WELLMAN 4-H CLUB PLANS PICNIC

Plans for a picnic to be held at McKenzie State Park in Lubbock July 18 were discussed by members of the Wellman 4-H club at a meeting July 1. The meeting was an all-day affair, and a covered dish luncheon was served. They decided to meet at the post office in Wellman at 9 o'clock of the morning of the picnic, and each girl will bring four sandwiches, two pieces of fruit to be used in punch, one package of cookies, and 25 cents.

Miss Blanton, club sponsor, and Mrs. Hudson, president of the Wellman home demonstration club, met with the group. Miss Blanton demonstrated egg facials.

Seven members attended the meeting. The group will meet July 14 at the home of Mrs. Tom Emerson.

NORTH SIDE BAPTIST CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

On Thursday July the 16th the South Plains Fundamental Baptist Fellowship meets with the North Side Baptist Church. There will be a number of visiting pastors of the fellowship. Dinner will be served at the Church. The public is cordially invited to be present and enjoy the blessings that will be forthcoming. Services will last throughout the day.

A. J. Franks, Pastor.

Lt. Bob Stahler is spending a ten-day furlough here with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Stahler. Lt. Stahler received his commission in the army air corps last week at Ellington Field in Houston. After his furlough he will be stationed at Colorado Springs, Colo. Also visiting Mrs. Stahler is her grand daughter, Sandra Sue, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Charles Stahler of El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Smith and family of Lubbock visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith Saturday and Sunday.

Hospital Notes

Mrs. Artie Mae Robinson of Meadow is a surgical patient, admitted June 29.

Mrs. Morris Lowe of Brownfield is a surgical patient, admitted June 29.

Judy Griffin is a surgical patient, admitted June 29.

Mrs. Monroe Gillmore of Brownfield was admitted July 5 for minor surgery.

Howard Massingill of Brownfield is a surgical patient, admitted July 5.

Mrs. A. E. Wauson is being treated for burns received June 30.

O. D. King of Amarillo was admitted July 7 for treatment of injuries received in an automobile accident.

Mrs. M. E. Taylor of Tokio is a medical patient, admitted June 29.

Mrs. I. H. Simpson of Hobbs, N. M., was admitted June 29 for minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rich of Wellman are parents of a daughter born July 5.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD REVIVAL TO BE HELD

The Assembly of God church will begin a revival meeting Sunday, July 19, it was announced this week. Rev. J. Cardwell will be in charge of the services.

The Rev. Mr. Cardwell was educated in the Terry county schools, and has since lived in Big Spring. He will discuss the following subjects during the revival: "Salvation by Repentance," "Baptism of the Holy Ghost" and "The Soon Return of the Lord."

There will be special prayer meetings each evening at 8:45, before the revival services.

The public is invited to attend the services.

Mrs. Mary Kaiser returned yesterday from a trip to Lawton, Okla. She had been gone about a week.

Know Texas?

A reader of this column can get the answer to your question of fact by writing to A Garland Adair, Curator, Texas Memorial Museum, Austin, Texas.

MEMORABLE PASSAGE: "We older men who can't turn the hands in the clock should turn our dimes into defense stamps." Joachim Besen, Sage of Boerne, Texas.

Q. Who is regarded as the leading authority in Texas on subjects of early Texas history?

A. Among the highly informed laymen in Texas who know Texas from earliest times through the period of the Republic ending in 1846 is Dr. William E. Howard, eminent specialist of Dallas whose hobby is his state's history. His documents in the Texas Memorial Museum are very unusual. Dr. Howard has agreed to serve as sponsor for the collection of documents that bear the signatures of the signers of the declaration of Texas Independence and also that bear the signatures of the men for whom Texas counties were named. This is for the Hall of Remembrance envisioned for the Texas Memorial Museum.

FACTUAL: The use of honey instead of sugar in coffee and tea is being stimulated in the Texan Cafe in Austin where Ralph Oakley, the general manager, sees in the greater use of honey the promotion of a fine industry and the conservation of sugar for war needs.

POOL

The chicken fry at Pool Friday night was well attended and all reported a good time. Mrs. W. E. Pool has returned from Abilene, where she has been visiting relatives. Lois Chambliss and Mary Lou Arnett are visiting in the Gunter home this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Newsom of Seagraves and Nettie Jean Newsom of Lubbock visited Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Newsom over the weekend. Reva Dell Britton visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Britton of Needmore last week.

Lola Drennan of Dickens is visiting her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Duncan. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gunter and family and Homer Britton visited in the home of Mrs. L. D. Chambliss Sunday.

PLEASANT VALLEY H. D. CLUB

The Pleasant Valley Home Demonstration Club met Friday July 3rd in the home of Mr. W. R. Gandy. There were five members and two visitors present. Miss Blanton was with us and gave a talk on clothes closets and how to store your winter clothes. The roll call was answered with (One Way I have to save space in my closet). Our next meeting will be with Mrs. T. L. Lanious Friday July 17th at 2:30 P. M.

formation about Bees and Honey?

A. T. W. Burleson and Son of Waxahachie operate one of the "Beeziest places" in Texas and will be glad to give you any information they have in the subject. Of this column Mr. Burleson writes: "You have done some very worth while work and we want to congratulate you in your effort."

TRUTH: "It's better a man should buy defense bonds and stamps and also pay taxes for defense, than lose everything he has, — even his last pair of pants."

Q. To who should I write for information regarding the Colorado River dams?

A. Write to Victor Cluck, Austin Chamber of Commerce, for leaflets, and also information about the series of dams on the Colorado and for other information about the capitol city.

"Chaperone your cigarettes—they should not be allowed to go out alone," warns Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner, as he points out that a high ratio of residence fires are known to start from lighted cigarettes carelessly tossed aside.

Wakefield, Executive Secretary and William Lois Hodges, Assistant, were officially identified with the 1936 Texas Centennial of Independence and also to the Texas contribution to the world's fairs at New York and San Francisco. They may be relied upon to give to the state and the nation the most timely patriotic and educational observance in 1945-46 that has ever inspired the people of a free country. Headquarters are in Austin, Texas.

Q. Why did the North oppose the annexation of Texas to the Union? R. V.

A. The whole North, jealous of the predominance of Southern influence in the nation councils, opposed the annexation of more Southern territory, while the Abolition party emphasized their position by pointing out that such a step would give the slave power territory as large as North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi and would perpetuate slavery for ages to come.

DAN MOODY

UNDEFEATED — Dan Moody has set his sights on winning the U. S. Senate seat and his supporters point out that the red-headed, hard-campaigning attorney has yet to lose a race. As governor, Moody gave outstanding aid to the State's public schools. The textbook law was amended and the expense of free textbooks was materially reduced. Rural schools qualifying for rural aid were for the first time given full six-month terms, and money was appropriated for vocational training of under-privileged children.

In 1935 at the personal request of President Roosevelt, Moody went to New Orleans and successfully prosecuted a member of the Louisiana political ring for income tax evasion.

Born in Taylor, Moody was educated in the public schools of that county and the University of Texas. He enlisted in the Army during the first World War and was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry.

"If elected to the U. S. Senate," Moody declares, "I will support all measures which will contribute to our winning the war. I will oppose any influence which will imperil our chances of winning the war or delay victory."

as? M. A. A. 2,900 miles of which approximately 900 is along the Rio Grande, and 386 along the Gulf of Mexico.

Q. Which is nearer, from Texarkana to El Paso or from Texarkana to Chicago?

A. From Texarkana to Chicago.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

NEW YORK, July 6 — TOO GOOD TO KEEP — The hats were off to the flag, on the Fourth, figuratively may well have been doffed to American industry, too, for its astounding achievements in the war-production campaign of the last six months. For at the same time wraps began to come off some war-production news that heretofore had been cloaked for tactical reasons. Of course, information that would be of real aid to the enemy is as tightly guarded as ever, but some of the inhibitions against talking about the production-for-war program have been relaxed. The record being made is just too good to keep entirely secret.

FOR INSTANCE — The arms shipments of 157 companies in the automotive industry—about three quarters of it—amounted to $349,000,000 worth in April. It may give that figure some significance to mention that it is 46 percent greater than (almost half-again as much as) the February total. . . . And the nation's ship-yards in June set a new world record for completion of steel cargo ships, putting 66 freighters and tankers into service. Vice-Chairman Vickery of the Maritime Commission said the U. S. Merchant Marine is now larger than before Pearl Harbor.

IN THERE PITCHIN'—By one means or another, the nation's auto dealers are staying in business, though far from "as usual." The trade paper "Automotive & Aviation Industries" reports that mortality during the first five months of auto and truck rationing was only 7.2 per cent, surprisingly low.

AN ARMY OF SNOOPERS

The Office of Price Administration recently asked Congress for a very large appropriation to add some 100,000 new employees, mostly enforcement personnel, to the OPA payroll. These employees, in other words, would constitute a sort of private police force and would spend their time and the taxpayers' money looking for violations of the price-freezing order.

The National Association of Retail Grocers, an organization which represents thousands of independent food merchants throughout the country, promptly protested. In a resolution submitted to Congress it said: "It is implied in this proposal to turn loose an army of 'snoopers' on the retail merchants of the United States. These men and women proposed for OPA enforcement personnel can render more useful service in the prosecution of the war against the Axis powers, rather than as an army of harassment operating at public expense on the home front."

That protest is well taken. As OPA officials themselves have pointed out, the retail industry in all its branches has been overwhelmingly opposed to speculation and profiteering. No industry has given more complete cooperation in the campaign against inflation. To inflict this industry with 100,000 "secret police," would amount to deliberately harassing an industry which has a superb record of operation in the public interest.

The vast majority of merchants, big and little, will conform completely to the price regulations. Competition alone will keep prices in line. Consumers and consumer organizations will be on the lookout for violations, and will report them to the authorities. The OPA, of course, will need an enforcement staff—but it doesn't need a staff of 100,000 snoopers. It doesn't need a secret police force. The 100,000 people who would

"BUSINES" TRIP TAKES MEN TO NEW MEXICO LAKE

It was a business trip, if you please, that six local men made to a dam near Tucumcari, N. M., this week, armed with motor boats, rod and reels, and the fanciest of fishing bait.

According to government reports, they explained there will be plenty of meat available for food in the United States this year, but there is a shortage of fish. The six who are doing their part for the country in trying to remedy the shortage are Lee O. Allen, Dick McDuffie, Glen Akers, Clovis Kendrick, Everett Latham and O. L. Peterman.

They left Tuesday morning and are expected to return today.

be employed for this snooper work are needed in war industry and the military forces. The hundreds of millions of dollars it would cost to pay their salaries and expenses are needed for war production.—Morton Headlight.

G. T. Merriwether left Monday night to begin a Civilian Pilot Training course in Lubbock. A Seaman, second class, in the naval reserve, Merriwether is taking the CPT work under navy supervision. He will be in the regular Naval Air Corps when he finishes the eight-week course. He has been employed as bookkeeper at the West Texas Cottonoil company.

Larry Miller, a Tech student, spent last week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller here.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Craig of Lubbock are visiting Mrs. Craig's mother, Mrs. B. L. McPherson. Their son had a minor operation at the hospital here yesterday. Mrs. O. E. Adams of Washington, D. C., who has also been visiting Mrs. McPherson, left Wednesday. She will be in Lubbock several days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foote of Lamesa spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chaffin and family here. Mrs. Foote is Mr. Chaffin's sister.

Earl Holly and Miss Georgia

Mae Day were issued a marriage license, June 29.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Drew of Pampa visited Mr. and Mrs. L. Nicholson here last week-end.

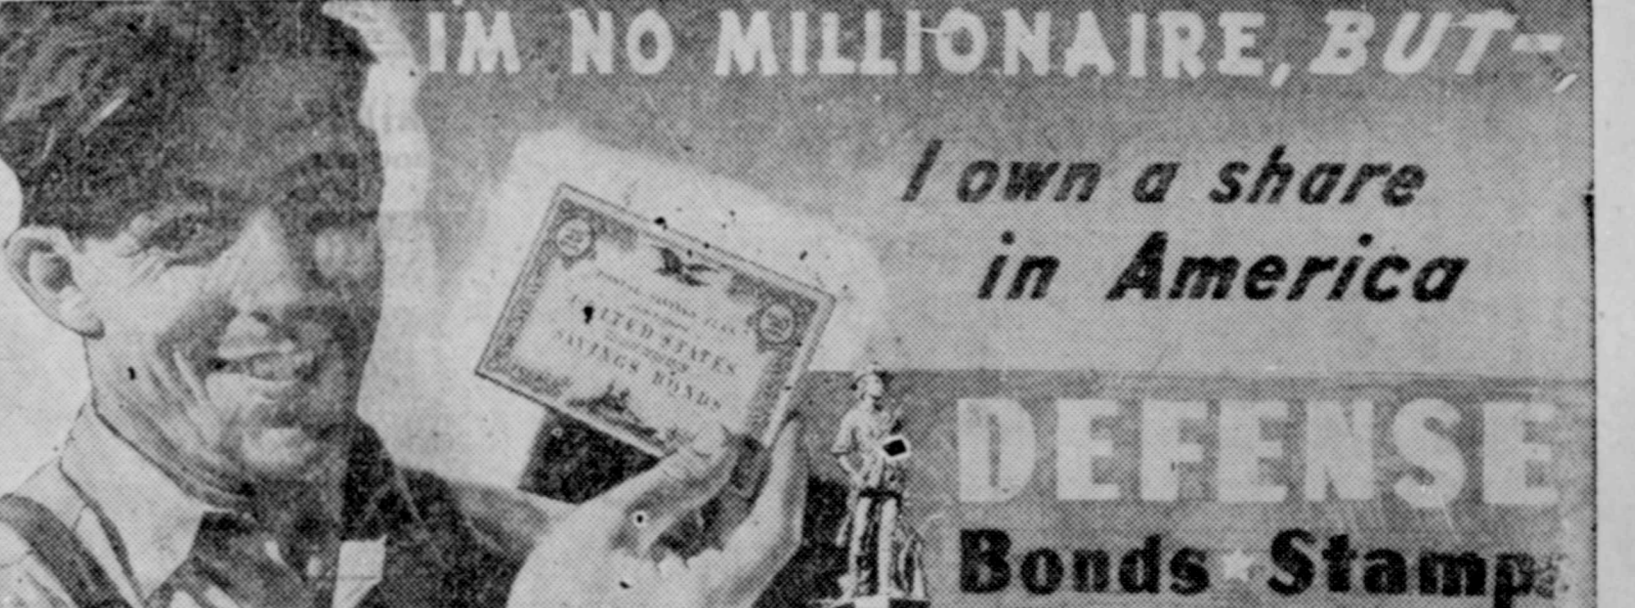

W. H. Hare brought in a limb about a foot long from his apricot trees that had 17 apricots on it. By the way, for the benefit of that lady who called to know if Mr. Hare would sell some of the fruit, Mr. Hare stated that he would sell some.

Mrs. L. M. Wingerd and daughter, Marian, are in Ruidoso. They plan to be there until September.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE RICH to help American Defense. That's the theme of the above poster, one of the newest of the Defense Savings promotional pieces now going up in streetcars, on bulletin boards, and at other public places. This poster emphasizes the point advanced by the Treasury Department that every American can—and must—pitch in if the United States is to have the arms and the tools necessary to protect her freedom.
