Free Training At War Work Center

As a part of the National program for training young men and women for work in war industries, the National Youth Administration has a resident training center for both boys and girls at Ranger, Texas. Training is offered in Radio, airplane sheet metal welding, machine shop, and woodworking.

Jack D. Wester, NYA Counselor, stated that work experience and training in any one of the above units would qualify assigned youth for later transfer to a War Production Center at Corpus Christi for further training preparatory to job placement with civil service status at the U. S. Naval Air Station there. It also offers employment opportunities in the various war industries in Texas.

Any young man or woman who is between the ages of 17 and 24½ years, in good health, out of school, and willing to accept full-time employment in defense industry on completion of training period, is eligible to make application for entrance to the center.

Each youth assigned to the Ranger War Work Center will receive food, lodging, medical attention, work clothing, and laundry. In addition to this they will be paid $11.00 per month for incidental expenses.

At present there are a few vacancies for both boys and girls and any youth interested in taking the training should write to the National Youth Administration, P. O. Box 168, Ranger, Texas, or Jack D. Wester, Box 1468, Lubbock, Texas.

Lt. Walker Flies Practice Bombers

Mrs. Lee Walker of route 4, this city, had a letter from her son, Lt. Willie G. Walker, stating that he was now stationed near the coast of California, and was flying twin-engine bombers for the bombardiers to practice from.

He stated in the letter that he felt like this job was going to be quite prolonged, and didn't indicate that this was much to his liking. Reading between the lines of his letter that his mother left at the Herald office, we figure Lt. Walker craves something a bit more exciting than flying a plane for a bunch of cadets to learn.

In fact, it appeared that he had much rather be somewhere flying one for graduate bombardiers, who were turning them loose on the Japs or Germans. We can't tell too much that is said in letters from soldiers, sailors, airmen, etc.

Just this week we were cautioned about printing interviews, especially soldiers and sailors from the war front, until the proper authorities had seen a copy of the proposed interview. This ruling, they stated was in order to keep from giving out any information that might be of aid or comfort to the enemy.

Henry To Work For Church Of Christ

Warren A. Henry, who has been minister for the church of Christ at Monahans for some time, has accepted the work with the Main street church of Christ here, and will begin his regular work on the second Sunday in August.

It was his intention to begin here the first Sunday in August, but as Monahans failed to get a man for that date, the date for the work here by Bro. Henry was set for the 9th.

The new minister preached a few sermons here in May, and the congregation liked him so well, that proposition to move here was offered. He is not only a good speaker, but seems to always be in a fine humor, and shows a fine bit of innocent humor at all times.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to the kindness shown us by our friends and neighbors for working our crop Monday, while I am sick. We thank everyone who helped in any way.

O'Danielite Goes On The War Path

Brownfield, Texas, 7/26/42
The Terry County Herald,
Gentlemen, I Hope:

This is the second day after another record breaking vote by the common citizens of Texas, for their friend, who has done more in their behalf physically, mentally and last but not least spiritually than any other man they have had in office for some time, and has withstood more unjust abuse by certain special interests seekers than any other man since Jesus Christ. But all they seem to find against him was, he was born, and God knows he couldn't help that.

Now Jack, you should not have to be reminded, but I believe if you will kindly walk back and take a look at the county bulletin board, you will see where you could have a wide and more satisfactory circulation of your paper if you would withhold some of your petty remarks about our present and future United States Senator, W. Lee O'Daniel, though you can use your own judgement. Some remarks seem to be vote getters. Both True and False.

One of your sympathetic Readers,

E. S. Suggs, Rt. 5.

P. S. Use this letter to the best of your judgement as I do your paper. Thanks! E. S. S.

Thanks for your letter Mr. Suggs. We have tried to run this little county paper for 33 years, during which we have seen this county grow and prosper. We have never denied anyone space in the paper even though they radically disagree with our view on any matter. And we have never been found exactly astraddle of the fence on any issue, and don't expect to be. Your suggestion that we close our "trap," is in line with the European Dictator ideas, but we still have a free press, and free speech, as well as the right to assembly and trial by jury.

Speaking of special interests, don't you figure you have plenty on your side. It is a well known fact that Hal Collins, mineral water, crystal salts, hotel owner, etc., is a brother to multimillionaire Carl Collins of Dallas, and that both brothers are as thick as three in a one horse bed with John W. Carpenter, who heads the biggest business perhaps in Texas, the Texas Power and Light Co., and all for O'Daniel. Yep, you're in pretty big company for "common" people.

That "common people" stuff makes us sick. There are no "common" people in Texas; they are uncommon people—the greatest people on earth. And a lot of them don't think it sacrilege to criticize public servants. They have never seen a picture of O'Daniel or any other politician with a halo about his head. But many O'Daniel people, including yourself, like to compare O'Daniel to Christ. Reminds us of the late Kaiser's "Me and Gott."

Mr. Suggs, while you may have your doubts about us being a gentleman, we still regard you as one, and will not think otherwise just because we disagree. Like Voltaire, "we may think you are in error, but will defend to the death your right to say it." Let us get as far removed from threats such as yours concerning our business as we can. We have thousands of boys across the pond fighting to defend a free press; free speech, trial by jury and the right to free assembly. We even got a kick out of hearing O'Daniel call Allred and Moody "the Gold-dust Twins." So did you Mr. Suggs, we'll bet. You are the kind of sportsman that can dish it out but can't take it.

Yours,
The Editor.

Little Information On District Judge Race

We have been trying this week to get something official or at least semi-official on the District Judge race, but have never seen reports from Gaines and Yoakum counties.

It is generally believed however that Judge Reed of Lamesa was victor over Judge Price of Brownfield by about 1000 votes.

First Round Over—Second Coming Up

Yep, the boys and girls turned in a huge vote Saturday despite the fact that the tires on the old bus are getting thin in places, but a hot campaign always brings out the vote from the forks of the creek, as well as where Main Street crosses Broadway Avenue. It may be hot and all that, but by heck, the country must be saved, and we the people will save it.

With round one over, the second, thinned to two in a hill, is going to be a Slam-Bang fight, worth the money. Boy, won't we have fun? The main event will of course be between Pappy O'Daniel and the luckiest of the Gold Dust Twins, James V. Allred for the seat now held by the former as Junior US Senator. O'Daniel holds the betting odds. But the preliminaries will be no puppy fights. So far as Terry County is concerned there will be no runoffs, or in the district races, except Judge of Court of Civil Appeals, between Judge Pitts of Lubbock and Judge Nelson of Amarillo.

Governor Coke Stevenson swept all before him for the greatest majority over all opponents perhaps ever given a Texas candidate. Other state runoffs will be: Lieutenant-Governor, battled out between John Lee Smith of Throckmorton, vs. Harold Beck, Bowie county, almost over in Arkansas.

Present Treasurer James, with a big lead, will go to bats with Gregory Hatcher of Dallas. Odds favor James.

Railroad Commissioner, (unexpired term) will be fought out between Pierce Brooks of Dallas, with a big lead, and Beauford Jester of Navarro county, a tossup.

All other state candidates had a clear majority in the first round. When the total state vote is in, the Herald will give it to the readers. The above is the indications now.

A Friend In Need Is A Friend Indeed

According to C. Sears, who calls over the phone late Monday, the good people of Johnson, Gomez and even from near town, did a fine Samaritan job out at the J. O. Wheatley farm Monday, when 27 hoe hand and seven tractors converged there to hoe and plow the Wheatley farm.

You perhaps remember that we made mention that J. O. was kinder under the weather last week. Mr. Sears stated that by five P. M., the weeds and grass were gone, and the tractors had plowed the whole farm.

Mr. Sears stated that a fine noon dinner was prepared for the workmen at noon and that a local ice cream company sent out five gallons of delicious cream. Everyone seemed to enjoy the day in helping a sick neighbor. Sears stated that Mr. Weatley himself seemed greatly encouraged and helped by the fact that his neighbors had come and helped in the hour of need.

We Hat To Give Up James H. Dallas

Postmaster James H. Dallas of this city has his handkerchief and tooth picks packed to leave soon for New Orleans, where he will likely sail to the Canal Zone, to do civil service work of the government. Dallas is just resigning his job here, but is just awaiting for the government to appoint L. A. Greenfield, head clerk at the postoffice, as acting postmaster.

James has always wanted work of this kind, and war has probably been the factor in his obtaining the work. While we hate like heck to have the only person over there at the postoffice leave that we can gently and gracefully cuss, we wish "Old James Hurley" a bon voyage, and a nice time down there, with some advance in pay if possible.

As we understand it, Mrs. Dallas and daughter will remain here, as the government is not advising that women and children be taken into the zone during the war.

Enough To Man A Submarine

Enough men to equal the crew of a submarine now building will be enlisted from the Lubbock Navy recruiting district each month during August and September, Chief J. E. Calloway, recruiter in charge of this district, announced today. The district includes Bailey, Crosby, Floyd, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Motley, Garza and Terry counties.

Sponsoring the campaign to enlist at least 165 men from this district each month will be American Legion posts and civic organizations in each county. Committees have been organized and supplied with Navy recruiting literature. Individual members will be designated "Volunteer Navy Recruiter."

A monthly quota of volunteer enlistments for naval service has been assigned each county, based on population. Exact figures on complements of naval vessels are secret, Chief Calloway said, but certain figures may be used for recruiting purposes. In the Houston Navy recruiting district comprising the southern half of Texas, a recent slogan was "Wanted, 1,000 Volunteers for Replacement of the Crusier Houston."

Terry County, with a population of 11,160, is asked to furnish 10 volunteers each of the two months. The recruiting slogan for this county is "Terry County Enlistments This Month Shall Equal A Gun's Crew."

Navy enlistment ages are from 17 to 50 years. Unskilled men have opportunity to attend Navy trade schools. Qualified skilled men may be enlisted as petty officers with monthly pay ranging from $78 to $126.00. It is necessary that application for enlistment be made before induction into the Army.

Casey To Go To Officer Training School

Cpl. Kenneth C. Casey, son of Mrs. Eula Casey, Ridgeway, Texas, has been admitted as an officer candidate of the air force at Miami Beach, Fla. After a twelve week course of intensive training, Casey will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the air force of the US army.

Cpl Casey taught two years at Tokio, one or two at Johnson, and last term at Brownfield, according to Lee Fulton, County Superintendent. Lee further states that Casey was a fine man and a good teacher.

New Clinic Time At C. H. Announced

In view of the fact that Dr. Patterson has become connected with a private clinic at Fort Worth, the Five County Health Unit is temporarily without a physician. Although effort will be made to get another, that may be out until the war is over.

In the meantime, the nurse in charge of the Terry county unit informs us that a clinic will be held from 10 to 12 o'clock each Friday morning by a local physician.

Want A Community Picnic And Basket Dinner?

A county-wide community picnic, complete with singing, military ceremony, election returns, speaking, and other entertainment has been proposed for the 4th Saturday in August, day of the second primary election. It would begin about 6 P. M.

Admittance would be by presentation of a defense stamp or bond and keep it yourself.

The purpose of the picnic would be for the people of Terry county to come together and enjoy, for a few hours, some of the privileges we have under the stars and stripes, that the bonds of neighborliness, friendship, patriotism, and unity might be strengthened.

It is believed that an outlay of cash for a barbecue at this time would not be appropriate, since bonds and stamps should be purchased with such funds.

It is proposed that each family bring a well-filled basket of food to the picnic, and enjoy each other's company and a program.

It is further proposed that the price of admission be the possession of a defense stamp or bond, regardless of when purchased, which is your "pass". Stamps and bonds would be on sale at the entrance—you keep them.

All persons who are interested in such an affair are requested to return the coupon immediately. It may be sent by mail or brought to any drug store in town.

COUPON

I wish to express my interest in the proposed community picnic August 22. I plan to attend if the affair is held.

Nearly 11½ Inches Of Rain To Date

During the year 1941, Terry county had a bit over 42 inches of rain, enough if well distributed to produce three good crops. The over abundance last year caused many to almost lose a crop by continued washing out plantings, and finally in the fall, keeping the ground so wet that cotton failed to mature and open.

This year, we are running more normal, so far. Annual average for Terry over a 20 year period was slightly in excess of 18 inches. The first six months of this year was a bit under nine inches, but the first three months are always light. So far we have the following:

January	light snow
February93
March05
April 3.02
May 1.64
June 3.30
July (so far) 2.52
Total 11.46

Ulee McPherson left yesterday for Pecos Army training field, where he will be employed in the engineering section.

Mrs. Earl Jones and daughters and Misses Irene and Mary Nell Adams were in Lubbock Tuesday.

Suppose, and most of us can still suppose and reason, that Roosevelt, Willkie, Hull and Tom Connally, designated group one, and Wheeler, Lindburgh, Vandenberg and O'Daniel, group two, were all lined up before Old Hitler if he were to conquer America? Now, without any hemming and hawing, which group do you think would be sent to the firing squad or concentration camp, and from which group do you think Hitler would try to pick his quislings? A simple question.

Flamy how some people vote. One of the judges in the recent election was heard to remark that at least one hundred ballots in his box were found to have the ballot for Senator marked, leaving Senator O'Daniel's name, and in some instance that of Gov. Coke Stevenson. Then the voter marked out the rest of the entire ballot. In other words, they marked out men and women in Terry county that never failed to speak to them; would pick them up if walking on a hot, dusty road; would bathe their fevered brow if sick; would bring them food if hungry, or donate if their home burned. Yet they deliberately scratched them in order to vote for men they never saw or would not speak to them if they met them in the street. Some folks are funny that way. Or is it funny?

We agree with the recent editorial in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, in which they were commenting on the persistent hints and statements given the press at Washington that at least 15 other articles were to be rationed. Like our Lubbock exchange, we cannot understand why these rumors persist. Maybe they will be rationed, but if rationing is not advertised and broadcasted in advance, there will be a slim chance that there will be a run on fifteen or even forty articles that Mr. and Mrs. John Citizen consider may be in the list. In other words, why agitate and start a run on articles that may never be rationed? To the lay statesman, it appears that there are entirely too many Bone Heads in authority up at Washington.

Congressman George Mahon of this district in a recent speech supporting the 42 billion dollar war appropriation, stated that he was shocked at the sum, but quoting John Wesley, who stated, "the world is my parish." Mahon agreed that this world war is our war, and we must win it at all costs. He further stated that he knew and everyone else knew, that some of the money would be wasted, then said, "I hope it is." This may sound paradoxical, but what George really meant was that he hoped we would not have to use all this huge sum to win. Like the late Vice-President Charles Dawes, who was sent into Spain during the other war to buy supplies for the AEF, when called on the carpet after the war to explain the huge prices he paid for food, railed out with a big oath of which he was famous, along with his upside down pipe. "There was no time for dickerin', when our army up in France needed food." Yes some money will be wasted, but this is hardly the time to stop and count pennies.

WHY NEWSPAPERS ARE AGAINST O'DANIEL

Senator O'Daniel complains that the newspapers of the state are against him. What else should he expect? From the very day he took office, he began abusing the newspapers and instead of treating them as President Roosevelt does by holding press conferences and giving out news for the benefit of the public, O'Daniel closed the doors of his office and acted like he thought the reporters were bandits trying to burglarize his place. Many newspapers of the state have tried to espouse his cause, only to be classed as tools of the big professional politicians. Of course, the Anton News is too small fry to be considered either way, but we cannot wonder that practically every decent newspaper in the State is against him. You farmers, if a candidate proceeded to abuse all farmers every time he made a speech, would you vote for him?—Anton News.

EARL BURNETT MADE TECHNICAL SERGEANT

STEPHENVILLE — Upon the recommendation of their company commander and with the approval of Dean J. Thomas Davis, Lt. McCullough, Professor of Military Science and Tactics, at John Tarleton Agricultural College, has made appointments and promotions for the Tarleton Cadet Corps. Earl Burnett of Brownfield has been promoted to the rank of Technical Sergeant in the Tarleton Cadet Corps. The cadet officers and non-commissioned officers drill the R. O. T. C. unit and exercise the same authority as regular army officers of the same rank. This gives the commissioned and non-commissioned officers an opportunity to develop qualities of leadership.

You'd have to search a long time to find a more eloquent description of the cowboy than that of Judge Chas. E. Combes of Stamford in his little book, "Moods, Meditations and Memories". "The cowboy is the most unique character in all history and as different from others as if an inhabitant of another world—unique that he keeps his own company, does his own thinking and acts pursuant to his own will. "He guides his course by the North Star, studies the firmament, the topography of the range, the faces of men, the flesh marks—as well as the brands—of cattle and horses.

"A sniff of the breeze warns him of approaching storm, and by his observation of the movements of cattle, he senses the stampede of the vast herd he rides through the rain, the wind and the storm and, amid ominous peals of thunder, watches the lightning flash from horn to horn and hoof to hoof of the drifting cattle.

"The cowpunchers is without polish, but under a rough and rugged exterior beats a big heart. He is honest, because Nature—with which he is most closely associated—has never mislead him or told him a lie.

"He begins his education in the School of Nature with observation as his chief instructors and finishes in the University of Creation, majoring in astronomy, geography and physiognomy, on which is based his unwritten master's degree.

"Usually born of frontier parents in the wide open spaces, the cowboy spends his life in similar surroundings. He is nurtured in the lap of nature, grows to manhood in the great outdoors of life, spends his allotted time under the canopy of heaven, and at last unrolls his bedding, wraps the drapery around him, and lies down to pleasant dreams, confident of awakening at the dawn of a new day."

"This Might Happen to You—Subscribe"

A man who was too stingy to subscribe for his home town paper sent his little boy to borrow a copy from a neighbor. In his haste, the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and, in 10 minutes, looked like a warty summer squash.

His father ran to his assistance, and, failing to notice the barbed wire fence, ran into that, ruining a $5 pair of trousers.

The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence, got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn.

Hearing the racket, his wife ran out, upset a fourgallon churn of cream into a basket of little

Help Prevent Grass Fires

AUSTIN — "Prevent careless sabotage of our fields and forests—be certain your camp fire is out before leaving it."

This is the plea of Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner, and directed to picnic groups and vacationists. With the vacation and out-of-doors picnic season approaching it peak, the Commissioner warns that open camp fires can become destructive. "If the fire is properly built," he said, "it will burn better and cook a meal faster. If it is properly protected, there is no likelihood of its igniting surrounding brush or grass."

A few precautions, carefully observed, will make an out-of-doors trip more enjoyable and prevent destruction of the country-side by fire. Hall offers the following suggestions on camp fires:

Clear all brush and grass from a space five feet in diameter. A large camp fire is likely to get out of control, while a small one is safer and more satisfactory for cooking. Fires should be built away from trees, logs and grass. Fire in a spot exposed to strong wind is exceedingly dangerous.

Make certain the fire is completely out before leaving. Soak it with water, or cover with sand or earth.

Be sure, when out-of-doors, that matches, cigars, cigarettes and tobacco from pipes are out before tossing them aside. The best method is to stamp them out to prevent a fire from starting.

Traffic Deaths Take Tumble In Texas

AUSTIN, July 26—There were fewer traffic deaths in Texas in the first six months of 1942 than during any similar period since accurate records were started in 1933, State Police Director, Homer Garrison announced today.

For the half year, Texas recorded a flat 20 per cent reduction in traffic fatalities, from 863 in the 1941 period to 689 this year.

Nationally, the reduction was 11 per cent for the first five months. The six-month average has not been announced.

As the Texas Highway Traffic Advisory Committee's conservation program began to take noteworthy progress in June, deaths fell to 104 as compared to 151 for June of 1941.

Leading the safety race were cities and small towns, with reductions of 30 and 29 percent, respectively. Highway deaths were down 17 per cent; those on county roads, 14 per cent.

Baptist Church News

Attendance was off some Sunday as some of the deacons were anxious about their candidates and attended the score board down town and failed to report for Bible study and it could be possible that others of the church were in town with the deacons.

Attendance in Bible study dropped to 271 from 300 Sunday and as there is only two more Sundays left before the yearly revival begins it is up to the teachers to enlist the large number that should be in their classes before the beginning of the revival, on Sunday, August 16th. The preacher, Dr. Yearby, pastor of the First church, El Paso, has consented to be with us for this meeting and this a great opportunity for every christian of the community to hear the Gospel proclaimed in its purity and be built up in their spiritual life as it is also a great opportunity for those who have been rejecting Christ, some for a few years and others for many years to come under the influence of the preacher's message. We are glad to record that we have not so much as heard of a member of the church who is a conscientious objector or one who is unwilling to support the war effort of our country as war is better than slavery and freedom of conscience and worship can only be preserved in America by victory over aggression. More than thirty men from this church are now in the service and two widows of the church have four boys each serving their country. We are proud of every one who may yet be called and will back them with all we have.

Visitors are welcome in all of these services.

"Whale Of A Tale"

Mr. Teddy Joe:

The other day I was driving my car close to the ocean. The bank of the ocean is as high as the top of the courthouse, and slopes down like to Kyle's store, so the town roads and streets run up onto top of this high bank. All lights were dimmed out, and I was driving fast and ran right up to it before I saw it, so I jabbed at the brakes, but my foot missed and hit the gas feed pedal, and I plunged right down the bank. I bumped the door open and just fell out, but the car kept going right on into the ocean, the waves slamming the door shut.

It kept going right out in the ocean, deeper and deeper. I could just see little streaks of foam on top. There was a big whale lying out there, and his mouth was as big as a garage door. He saw the car coming. He opened his mouth, and the car ran right on into it. About that time some of Uncle Sam's airplanes were flying over and thought it was a Jap submarine. They dropped a bomb down. It hit and exploded on the whale's tail.

This scared him, and he went on swimming as fast as he could, right to the shore. I guess the exhaust, gas, and oil made him sick, because when he got up in the shallow water he tried to erp, and then some soldiers on the bank, when they saw the back of the car, with red lights shining in his mouth, thought it was a new way the Japs had of landing—some trick—so they turned loose a machine gun at him, and his hide looked like the lid of a pepper shaker. The water was so shallow he couldn't turn and get away, so the soldiers got some big wire ropes, a wrecker, and two tractors. They waded in and tied the ropes around his teeth and pulled him out.

The one officers and soldiers ran up, with guns ready, thinking the car might be full of Japs. However, they saw it had a California license on it instead of a Tokyo one, and pulled the car out. They wondered where the driver was and started yelling "Oh, I bet he's been swallowed! Bet he's in the whale! Where is he? Who is he? Cut the whale open; maybe he ain't dead yet."

Anything because it is against the law to drive in the ocean without a birth certificate, but when they took down the license number and were going to phone the court house, I walked up and told them. They seemed glad I got out alive, and then we began to argue about whose whale it was. I claimed it because I caught it, the army claimed it because they killed it, the tractor men claimed it because they pulled it out, and none of us had fishing licenses, and the Navy claimed priorities, as it belonged to them to start with, so we turned it over to the boy scouts.

The scouts got some ladders, and climbed up and marched and drilled, then they sent for 100 butchers with big knives, who took the hide off to make summer tents. They got enough oil out of him to keep 'em flying, made a boat from the bony carcass, gave the mouth to the "properganders," and as usual, I got the tail, which I will bring home for Jim Jackson to sweep the streets with.

Then the Army and Navy big hats went into a huddle, and decided they had found a way to sink some Jap ships. They asked for some cowboys, and two long, lanky boys from Texas who happened to be in a nearby army camp came up. They gave the two boys some big ropes, and they got in a fast motor boat and went way out in the ocean to where the other whales were. They roped a big one, but they couldn't pull him in, so they made him swim around in circles until a bigger boat with a long wire rope came up. They fastened a loop to the whale's jaw, hooked him behind a warship, and dragged him to shore.

Then they tied two big bombs, as big as water tanks, to his tail and turned him toward Japan, and jabbed him with spears to make him mad, and he took off headed for Tokyo. You see, we figured he would swim like a dog runs with a can tied to his tail, and the bombs would hold his tail close to the top. He may dive down but he will have to come up for air. When he gets to the Jap navy he'll duck under and the bomb will hit the bottom of the ship and BOOOOM, BOOOOM!—the Japs will blow up in the air like gnats. Of course, this will turn the whale loose, and he will be so hungry and tired from his trip, he will eat anything, even the Japs, and their wish to get to America is so strong it will make the whale come right back for a reload. In fact, when anyone gets a stomach full of Japs he'll remember Pearl Harbor and want to do his part.

Of course, my car, like this story, smells fishy.

MISS DUNN, MR. MILLER ARE MARRIED SATURDAY

In a single ring ceremony read Saturday night in Lubbock, Miss Virgella Nan Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dunn, became the bride of Kelton Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller of Pampa. The wedding took place in the parlor of the First Methodist church here, with Rev. H. Robinson, pastor of the church, officiating.

The parlor was decorated with white gladioli and tall tapers in crystal candelabra. Tommy Hicks, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles before the ceremony. Mrs. Ivy Savage, pianist, played "I love you truly" before the ceremony and "To You" while the vows were being exchanged.

The bride wore a two piece velveteen suit of teal blue, with brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage of gardenias was fashioned to follow the line of her jacket lapel. Miss Mary Nance of Lubbock and Miss Beth Hamilton of Brownfield were her attendants. They were dressed in black and wore pink rosebud corsages, gifts of the bride.

The groom wore the dress uniform of an army air corps cadet. Cadet Jimmy Lynn of Goodfellow Field was best man, and Norman Rushing of Lubbock was his other attendant.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Brownfield High school. She attended Texas Technological college for two years, majoring in physical education.

The groom was a junior student at Texas Tech at the time of his enlistment in the army last January. He will complete his primary flight training at Goodfellow Field August 6th.

Hicks, the bride's grandparents, Miss Bobbie Virginia Bowers, all of Brownfield; the grooms parents and his brother and sister, Pete and Alvina Miller of Pampa; Bill Lee and James Miller of Goodfellow Field, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duke of Lubbock.

BILLY FAYE FINNEY HAS SCAVENGER HUNT

Billie Faye Finney was hostess at a scavenger hunt Tuesday night. Guests met at the Finney's home and received a list of articles they were to find in the neighborhood. Gloria Hughes, Arnold Dalton, Odell Quante and Billie Faye won a sack of candy for being the first group to bring in all the articles on the list. After the hunt refreshments of sandwiches and punch were served.

Miss Panzee Butler of Lubbock visited in Brownfield last week.

Around The Block

Brownfield at least indirectly has a representative in the new WAAC that has been publicized so much lately. Betty Savage has been accepted for training in the women's army. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ivy Savage, and they lived here before moving to Lubbock several years ago.

Bobby Lewis had to come home before the summer school session at NTSTC was over because he broke several bones in his hand and was unable to take his exams.

Lots of the local boys and girls are being energetic enough to go to school this summer. Among them are Jo Pete May, Harry Simms, Bobbie Bowers, Larry Miller, and Tommy Hicks. They were all home last week-end. Bobbie, Larry and Tommy have been at Tech all summer. Eleanor Gilham is taking a correspondence course in education from the school.

We saw Dorothy Fay Blanton, home demonstration agent, having breakfast in a cafe the other morning. Laverne Collier, a dental assistant, admits she always dreads having dental work done just like all other human beings. Have you seen Mrs. Kelton Miller's engagement and wedding rings? They're awfully pretty. Mrs. Miller is Virgella Nan, if you don't recognize her new name yet.

Everyone seemed to be having a lot of fun at the Phi Beta Craesus dance last night. All the club members looked happy and full of pep, even after their big week of social activities.

Robert Ferguson plans to spend the major part of his life giving the girls a thrill. He seems to be pretty successful, so far.

Mon Telford Jr. has been enthusiastic about riding horseback all his life. His mother says that when Mon Jr. was two years old he had a Shetland pony which he rode into all the neighbors' houses, upon invitation. He wasn't much older when he rode the pony all day at a round-up.

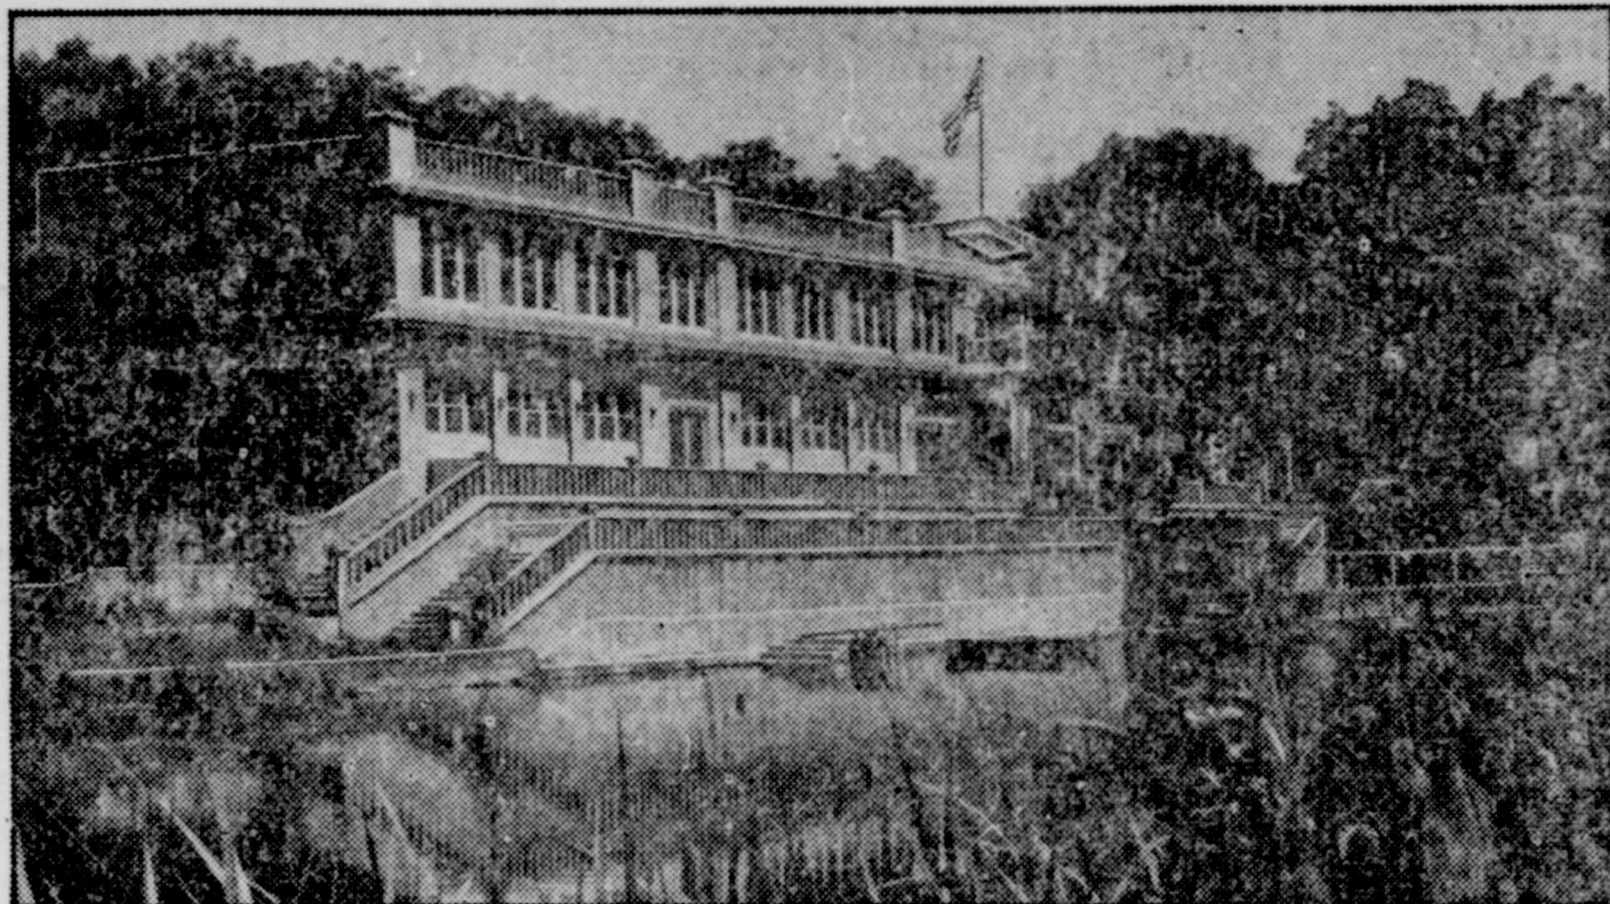

Elizabeth Smith says her main object in going to the movies is to see the color cartoons. Green must be Shirey Bond's favorite color. She wears it a lot, and it's very becoming.

Last week we saw: Joe McGowan betting cokes that Moody wouldn't be low man in the Senate race, hoping that his "victims" would forget there were four men running. Eldora Lewis eating a sandwich at her lunch hour. Dick McDuffie looking thoughtful while smoking a cigaret and drinking coffee in a drug store. Lal Copeland and Paul Goodman standing on the sidewalk on front of one of their stores chatting. Who says men don't gossip? Margaret Travis reading WAAC propaganda and considering joining the army. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Darby at the movies. Louise Heath parking her bicycle in front of a grocery store.

Several people are complaining about watermelons being stolen from their garden patches. It looks like the culprits would at least wait until the melons are ripe, doesn't it?

Texas "Opportunity Center" For Retarded Children

San Marcos, Texas.—What was once a famous resort hotel, with cool springs bubbling up in front of it, has now become a unique training school for "different" and "exceptional" children, and is attracting attention of scientists, medical men, and educators throughout the Southwest. Pictured above is the main building of Brown's Training School of San Marcos, where a staff of more than 30 specialists in child psychiatry, medicine and occupational therapy are busy adjusting mentally and physically retarded children, from tots to 'teens, to the normal way of life.

SUB DEBS PLAN INITIATION SERVICE

Plans for initiation of pledges were discussed by members of the Sub Deb club at a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Helen Gillham. It was decided that the initiation would take place a week from today.

The girls also made arrangements for two parties this week. Tuesday night they attended a slumber party at the home of Jean Knight, and Miss Christine McDuffie will be hostess at a scavenger hunt tonight.

Refreshments of ham salad, crackers, and iced tea were served after the business meeting. Members attending were Misses McDuffie Knight, Beverly Balfanz, Patsy Carter, Juanda Turner, Jean Goin, Jacqueline Thompson, Betty Hughes, and Minnie Lee Walton.

Pledges are Misses Gloria Hughes, Glenola Murphy, Wanda Mae Zachery, Nita Chaffin, Charlie Mae Harrold, and Janet Edwards.

REBEKAH LODGE MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

Thirteen members attended a meeting of the Rebekah Lodge Monday night at the IOOF hall. Mrs. Julia Grayson presided at the business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Price were hosts for the evening, and refreshments were served at a drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gillham and family spent the week-end in Pampa.

Darden are two attractive Lubbock girls who visit here frequently. The "penny-a-plane" box at the State bank has about enough pennies in it to cover the bottom of the container. Nita Chaffin spends a lot of time practicing baton twirling. Everyone is still talking about the prospect of a glider school. And then there's the discussion about whether public schools will open here in August.

To officially correct a few of the mistakes we've made recently, the Carlos Fergusons haven't moved to Mildand yet. Mr. Ferguson is working there, but the rest of the family hasn't gone yet. Also, the Herman Heaths spent their vacation in Corpus Christi instead of the mountains. Now we know what is meant by a "usually reliable source."

DANCE CLIMAXES PARTY WEEK FOR PH BETA CRAESUS

Phi Beta Craesus club members climaxed a week of social activities with a semi-formal dance last night at the American Legion hall. The room was decorated with summer flowers. Music was furnished by a nickelodeon.

Members attending were Misses Ida Mae May, Joyce Dunagan, Wanda Finney, Frances Rambo, Barbara Taylor, Nita Jean Worsham, Patsy Balfanz, Wanda Hahn, Carolyn Harris, Glynnia Faye Ross, and Mary Raye Simms.

GIRL SCOUTS ATTEND SERIES OF PARTIES

The group met at the L. M. Wingerd's apartment, where they have been holding all their meetings this summer, at 6 a. m. Members of the hostesses patrol laid a trail from there to the Redford residence, about one and one-half miles from town. The trail was marked with string, and the other scouts followed it.

Each girl carried her own "mess kit", containing a skillet, plate, fork, and glass. Members of patrol 4 furnished bacon, eggs, bread and oranges for breakfast, and each patrol built a camp fire to cook the food.

They returned to town about 9 o'clock and went swimming.

Last week Patrol 3 entertained the troop at a theatre party. The girls met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Craig, where they were served sandwiches and drinks before going to a movie. About 30 members were present.

Essential To Take Care Of Shoes

College Station, July 27—During the next six months the U. S. Army will buy more than 16 million pairs of shoes. That means civilians must take good care of all leather goods they have, so the men at the front may have enough, says Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

Taking good care of shoes and leather goods is in line with the Victory Demonstrator's pledge to help win the war in which thousands of Texans have made in the last few months.

The shoe industry last year turned out four pairs of shoes for every man, woman and child in the country, but many pairs are not on use now because they don't fit. The fault lies both in the shoes and in the customers, Mrs. Barnes says.

"You can't be sure of a shoe that fits just by asking for a certain size. There are no national standards for sizing footwear. So the best you can do is keep trying on shoes until you find a really comfortable pair," the specialist advises.

Here are some rules for shoe buyers:

For toe-room, allow at least one half inch between the end of the big toe and the end of the shoe inside.

The ball of the foot should rest at the widest part of the sole to give proper support for the body and assure maximum wear.

The shank of the shoe should fit snugly under the arch of the foot.

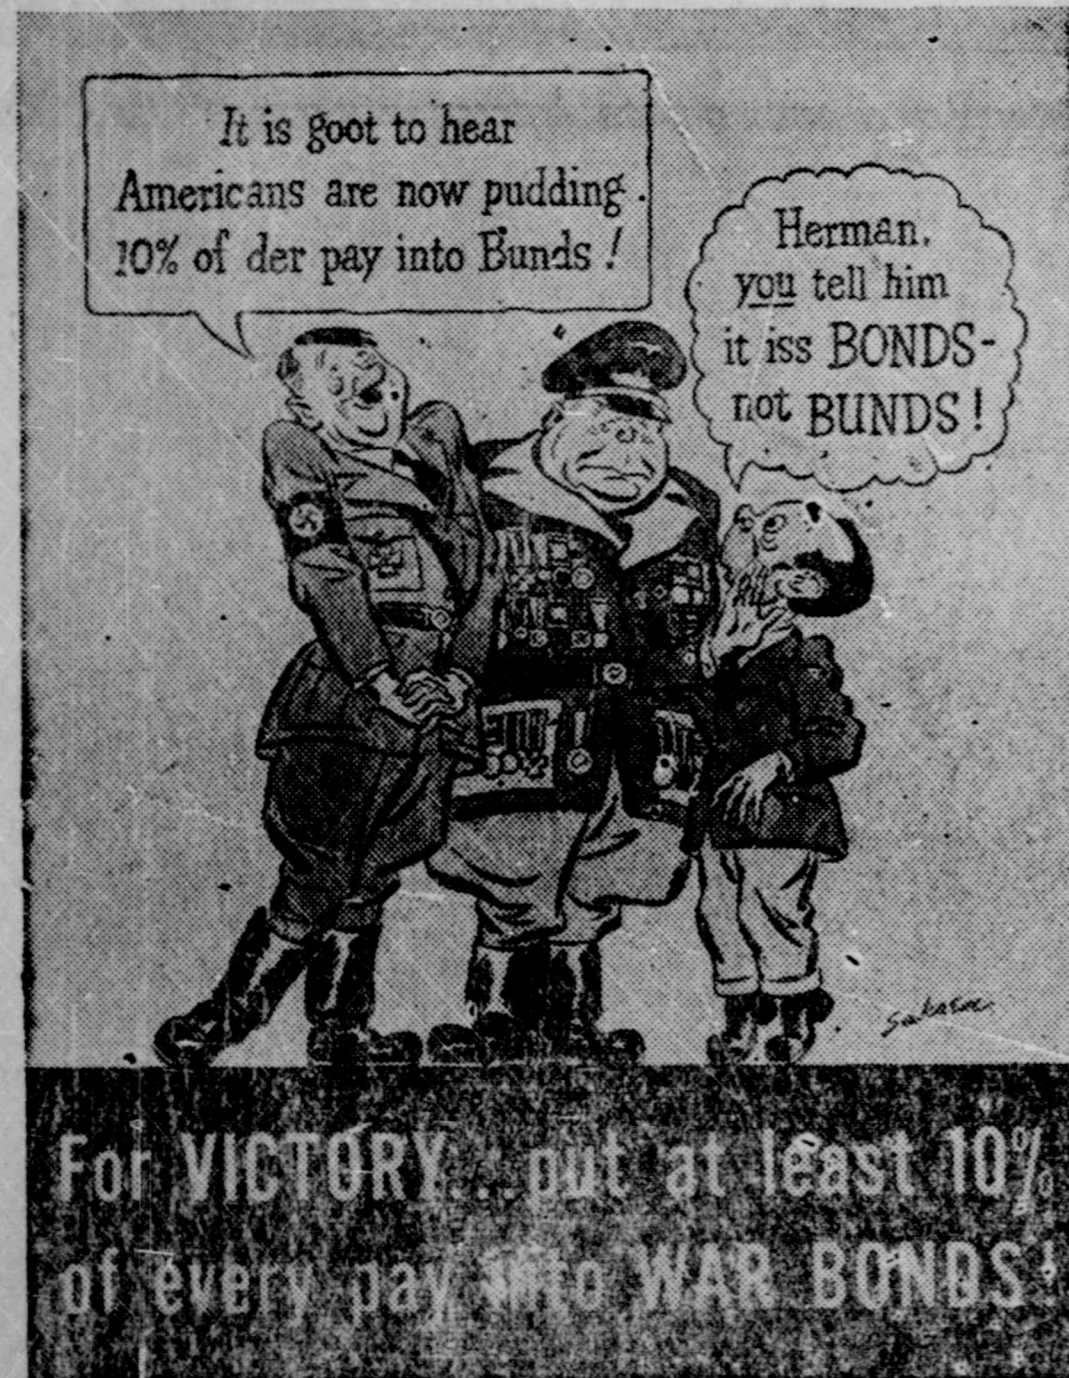

The shoe should hug the heel of your foot—no slipping, no gaping when you walk.

Use low heels for working, walking, and ordinary use; select higher heels for dress wear only.

Never buy shoes that need alterations.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Darby were in Lubbock Monday.

New Cartoon Sells War Bonds

The above cartoon poster, especially drawn to promote the sale of War Bonds and Stamps, will soon be seen throughout the United States. It is one of four new posters stressing new themes in the War Bond campaign. U. S. Treasury Dept.

We'll All Buy War Bonds—Or Else

The Lamesa Reporter—Which shall it be—the bonds of the Swastika or war bonds of the United States Treasury? The former means chained slavery, the latter freedom and independence. It is up to you and you alone which bonds you choose. Negligent indifference to buying United States War Savings Bonds may mean the loss of all your savings, personal and otherwise as well as the loss of members of your family, of your business, of your government.

The day may come—sooner than we think—when we have no choice in the matter. Without sufficient money our government cannot carry on properly to fight this battle against the crooked iron cross and without sufficient money there can never be enough guns, tanks, and shells for our brothers, sons and husbands who are fighting the enemy for us. Our own indifference, our own come-what-may-attitude may mean that the bonds of the Swastika are clamped down on our home and businesses, and we will find ourselves enslaved in all that we abhor and have fought against.

In the July 4th issue of The Saturday evening Post there is an article titled "Invisible Greenbacks" by Harry Scherman. It is an intelligent summary of the way inflation will come to this country if, as Mr. Scherman says, we are fools enough to let it! Written in such a manner that those of us least accustomed to economics, war and the inside workings of the United States Treasury can fully comprehend what he means when he says "Invisible Greenbacks." Mr. Scherman explains that inflation may come to the United States because we people are failing to buy War Bonds with the money we can spare, and therefore we are causing the Treasury to create new money with which to pay its war bills. It was just such a measure that wrecked Germany after the last war, and it is against such a tragedy that Mr. Scherman writes.

Miss Betty Bynum arrived in Brownfield Monday to spend a two-weeks vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Bynum. Miss Bynum is a student nurse at a hospital in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lal Copeland returned Monday after a vacation in Colorado. They were gone about five days.

A Story of War—And War Bonds

I GAVE A MAN!
Will you give at least 10% of your pay in War Bonds?

This new color poster, which soon will be used in all parts of the country to promote the sale of War Bonds and Stamps, is one of four recently created to emphasize new themes in the War Bond sales campaign. U. S. Treasury Dept.

YOUR HOME TOWN NEWSPAPER

Have you ever stopped to consider just what you owe your local paper? Maybe some of you should give the matter some thought while you still have a local paper. The government in setting up tire rationing, did not classify newspapers as necessities like peace officers (and we are not complaining on that score), yet the government depends upon this newspaper to carry on the program of more than 300 governmental agencies—without pay and without thanks. When it spends its money it spends it with the great radio chains and the metropolitan dailies.

There is not a day passes that we are not asked to publish some thing for the navy or army recruiting service, the "Food for Freedom" program, National Youth Administration, Red Cross drive, war bond and stamp campaign, AAA farm program, old age assistance, civilian defense, county and home demonstration agent's program, USO, Navy Relief, Boy Scout, draft board orders, unemployment and a thousand other things of which newspaper publicity is the nucleus. The Review and every other newspaper in the country has co-operated fully in all these matters without thought or expectation of thanks or reward.

All we ask is for you to give a little consideration to what you owe your hometown newspaper. Many of you seem to think that printers live off of ink and that ink flows out of the faucet; that paper is as free as the air we breathe; that our presses roll by gravity; that such insignificant things as rent, telephone bills, and taxes are paid by people who insert classified ads and forget to pay for them; that banks indefinitely extend our notes. Thank God, there are those who do not have this concept of running a weekly newspaper and for those friends and supporters we shall never cease to be eternally grateful. They can have the patch shirt off our back.

They are the people who pay their subscription before it gets delinquent, or who in forgetting to pay do not get sore when they get a notice and come in with two lettuce leaves with George Washington's picture engraved on them. They are the people who turn down that Houston or out-of-state printing solicitor and call us to run off some letterheads, envelopes, statements, etc. They are the people who not only believe in newspaper advertising but have found that consistent use has built their business. Yes, these are the people who recognize that their weekly newspaper is a definite part of their community and of their lives.

Your hometown newspaper was never in more dire need of your full support than today, and many must have it if it is to weather this war. With automobile, tire, appliance and practically all other national advertising cancelled for the duration your paper is faced with a grave situation. Just the small thing of paying up your subscription will help immensely.

We are here to serve our country, our state, our county, our community and YOU, and all we ask is for you to pay your subscription, and your consideration when placing your advertising and your printing.—Robert I. Bary in the Brazoria County Review, Angleton, Texas.

G. M. Unger New Scout Executive

G. M. UNGER

Lubbock—G. M. Unger, former Scout Executive of the Black Beaver Council, Boy Scouts of America, with headquarters in Chickasha, Oklahoma, has been selected to fill the vacancy of Scout Executive of the South Plains Council, which position has recently been resigned by Jack O. Stone, who has been commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps. Mr. Unger comes from a council comparable in size to this and has had many years experience in Scouting.

He is expected to arrive in Lubbock, headquarters for the South Plains Council, the 20th of August and will bring his wife and two children, Nancy, five-and-a-half years old and John Allen, 2 years old, to make his home here.

Stirring Story Of Army Air Forces

A birds-eye view of how the United States Army Air Force is being built up into the strongest and best trained in the world is contained in "Winning Your Wings," short subject produced by the Army Air Force in cooperation with Warner Bros., starring Lieutenant James Stewart. The film will begin a limited engagement at the Rialto next Tues.-Wed.

Young men from every walk of life are pictured here in the gigantic training program through which all Army Air Officers must pass before they receive their commissions. The requirements for enlistment as flying cadets are outlined in the picture and should prove of interest to everyone.

Malicious Slander, Alleges H. R. Winston

While a successful in his battle for the high office of Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for the county of Terry, H. R. (Old Homer) Winston alleges that he has been maliciously slandered in the hot campaign, and like another prominent candidate, "feels that his life blood has been almost trickling from his veins."

Homer alleges that his opponent, Tom May, circulate the story that he was out claiming to be a supporter of a certain candidate for US Senate, when he had actually made no statement who he was for. That others accused him of "throwing a beer party," which was entirely out of the question.

In fact, Homer is still mad about the whole affair, including "no salary" attached to the office.

Reports Crop As Good Or Better Than 1937

Haven't been out much the past week to view the crops of Terry, but have talked to a number of farmer and owners of farms, and their reports have a very optimistic ring. In fact, if there is no more hail, or any more insects than usual, Terry is in for another banner crop year, not unlike that of 1937. That year Terry produced more than 51,000 bales of cotton, more than a million bushels of corn, and feed galore.

Had a talk with Dr. G. S. Webber Sunday about the crops out in his section, the Needmore area. "They are fine," stated Mr. Webber, "and if anything, I believe they are on an average better than at the same time in 1937. We had some hail out there that got some of the cotton, which was replanted in feed. But there is still a lot of cotton, and it is doing well." Henry Bates is working part or all of his land.

Dr. Webber remarked that one farmer out in his section, informed him Saturday that he had some 275 acres of the prettiest cotton he had ever had at this time of the year. He remarked, "I just know something will happen to this crop. It is too good not to be molested some way."

In some sections of the county and adjoining counties it is said they are needing some rain, not badly, but a good one would help just at this time. While part of county got some three-fourths of an inch last week, others failed to get any or just a shower.

We have seen some wonderful fields of corn this year, and if nothing happens, we are in for at least an average crop. So far, we have heard no reports of borers in the corn. For several years these pests have wrought havoc with corn in Terry county.

Fires More Destructive Than Wars

AUSTIN—Destructive fire as a constant menace to our personal safety, as well as the safety of our property, it is claimed by Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

Calling attention to the destructiveness of fire, whether it be an act of sabotage, or caused by carelessness, Hall added: "However dangerous and destructive a fire may be when set by an enemy agent, a fire caused by careless neglect can do just as much damage."

The Commissioner said carelessness with regard to fire hazards is one of the country's greatest dangers as wartime production is speeded.

"Disregard of simple rules of precaution against the outbreak of fires," he continued, "can cause destruction of an entire factory in an hour or so. This means serious material loss in the plant itself, to say nothing of the lost production of materials needed for warfare."

"More property was destroyed by fire in the United States during 1939 and 1940 than was destroyed by German bombing raids on England during the same period."

Quoting figures of a leading British financial paper, Hall said the estimated British property loss from bombing was placed at $480,000,000 during 1939 and 1940. Fire loss in the United States during that time was estimated at $561,000,000.

LOCAL LIONS WORK ON PRESBYTERIAN BUILDING

The Pastor and members of the Presbyterian Church were very happily surprised last Thursday evening when some fourteen members of the local Lions Club came in a body to work on the educational unit which is being built at the church. The club is to be commended for taking such action on helping a project which is hoped to be a means of bettering the community as a whole. The church wants to take this opportunity of expressing their appreciation to those who worked that night and to the club for taking this step.
