Your Home Owned and Home Managed County Paper — Where Farming, Ranching and Oil Fields Bring Prosperity to Terry County People

VOLUME THIRTY-EIGHT

BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1943

NUMBER 22

To The Boys In The Service

Dear Boys:

Well, the Old He hopes you got by the Christmas holidays without too much fighting, and the Top Sarge didn't expect too much drilling out of you, and that you did not have the "tummy" ache after a big fill of turkey and the trimmings. You know that while most of you guys have "cast iron stomachs" nevertheless a lot of turkey and dressing, giblet gravy and sauces can work wonders in making the innards wake up about midnight and roll and tumble and pain you. We've been all along there, as a "civvy" of course.

Way before this issue of the Herald reaches you, a new year shall have rolled in, and we find that there is much for all of us to do. There will be heavy scrapping for you boys. The folks at home must save and invest in bonds and stamps, and the farmers must produce food as never before. Hundreds, yea thousands of hungry mouths that you boys will be releasing from bondage and slavery will have to be fed as well as the armies of our allies. You come first, remember.

There may be a possibility that before this New Year shall have ceased and 1944 dawned, VICTORY will be ours, and many of you that are not used in the army of occupation, will come sailing home. Perhaps many of you will be at home next Christmas in civilian clothes. We hope so. We are going to win this war despite Herr Hitler and all his minions in earth and in hell. We may have to suffer more than now before that final day of Dictators, but it is coming as sure as there is a righteous God, and these is.

We have become tired and more tired about this old stuff from some of the so-called columnists and radio commentators, "that we can lose the war." We might, but we ain't. We know the people like you and you and you too well to believe that any "driven" army will ever overcome one that is trained to fight as individuals if it becomes necessary. We also know the people, your dads and mothers, your friends and neighbors who are lined up 100 percent behind you. They will not let you down.

We are sorry that more of you could not get home for the holiday. It is our understanding that in some sections so many civilians decided it was necessary for them to be home Christmas, that you were stalled enroute home, and did not have time to make it. This sounds bad to us. We would let several Christmases pass without a visit to the old home rather than deprive you a few days with mother and dad at Christmas time.

We are not going to preach to you boys about being good during the New Year. We imagine that most of you will be as good or better than the average of us at home. The best of health and good luck to you. I fancy you will not have too much happiness.

The Old He.

MEETS DEATH IN AIRPLANE CRASH

Just before going to press we learned that Second Lt. Wm. Warren Nobles had met death in an army plane crash somewhere in Missouri. At this time details are lacking.

Warren worked here for several years as clerk at the Collins store and was a popular young man. He is a nephew of Mrs. W. H. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Reeves and baby of Lubbock and Cadet Charles Hamilton of the Lubbock Flying School spent Christmas with Mrs. Chock Hamilton.

How Was Christmas With You, Pal?

While we failed to hear one yelp from a sorely tried and tired person in the several stores, we kinder have a hankering that they were glad when Christmas day dawned, and they could stretch out and say, "Well, I have this day of rest after a two week period of almost mad rush.

In many stores we visited, we found a melee of clerks helping customers to find some gift for loved ones and wrapping them. And last minute shoppers took up more time of clerks than early shoppers. The reason was that there was less and less to choose from. This group included the Old He, who has always reserved the right to do his Christmas shopping on Christmas Eve—his advice to the contrary notwithstanding. Even so, the tired but smiling clerks came up for more, and acted just like we were doing our Christmas shopping in Mid November.

In some places, it came to us that clerks this fall got pretty sassy with people, and told them where to head in. We have it on pretty good authority that a sign was seen in a store in a sizeable city not so far away advising customers "not to make the clerks mad." If that isn't a great come-down from a few years ago, when "the customer was always right," we are a hen jaybird. Nothing like that happened in Brownfield that we were aware of. Even though nerves are kinda whacky from stress of war, most people here still keep their tempers sweet, in company, at least.

All in all, local merchants had a good fall run. There were many things of course that they could not sell, but those not limited were bought as probably never before. It was also noticeable that gifts for the grown ups as well as children were mostly something usable. Of course the younger kiddoes got their toys as usual, many being wooden instead of metal this year.

It will not be as bad as some think after the first. After all, we have about as many people in Terry county as usual, extra allowances for sugr shows this, and these people have money and will buy. Don't forget that.

JIM GRAVES GOES TO WAR

Jim Graves, owner of the Corner Drug Store, gives notice that he expects to be in the service soon. Note his ad in this issue.

Thomas Family Has 3 Boys In Service

A number of families in Terry county now have quite a bunch in different branches of the service of Uncle Sam, when you include sons and in-laws, brother, etc. Among them, we might mention Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Thomas, who have three sons in the service.

They are Ensign, O. D. Thomas, who is teaching flying at Texas Christian University at Fort Worth.

Toots Thomas, airplane mechanic in Puerto Rico.

Leroy has just enlisted in the Marines, and will leave January 5th for some training point.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Truitt Flauch returned to Ft. Sill Sunday.

Can't Guarantee Bargains After First

In view of the notice of limitation of print paper to newspapers, we shall not be surprised to find that withdrawal of bargain rates on dailies after December 31. So, if you wish to be sure to get in on the annual bargain rates of your favorite daily, better do so at once.

And speaking of a favorite daily, the bad transportation caused by the war has made many changes in the daily people read. For instance, last year, when we had ordered some 40 large city dailies for customers, we had ordered about half that amount for area dailies. But with the slow movement of mail the area dailies stand way ahead of the big state daily that the Herald has ordered this year.

And there is still another angle, and a bit funny. One local man had us change him back in the middle of December from the big state daily to an area daily, so he could get it more promptly. Ten days later we met him and asked if he was getting his paper. "Yes-s-s, say, let me give you a check for the big state daily I just seem to miss something I don't get in the other." Now he gets both.

But there has been other reversals from the big state daily to area papers that is proving to be quite satisfactory. Here's the idea, when a bird reads one paper for years and years it is a bit hard to switch him to some other. He wants the old standby. People living in large cities where they have choice of several dailies, are that way. Just any New York paper don't suit those who live there.

Sen. O'Daniel Hits Rationing Regimentation

"It is my opinion that the resignation of Price Administrator Leon Henderson will bring no improvement in the deplorable price-fixing and rationing mess. Without doubt another yes-man will take his place and do as bad a job or perhaps worse. It is the system that is wrong more than the personnel. The system is so fundamentally unsound that it will fall of its own weight as did NRA. The crumbling has started. The complete collapse is inevitable.

"Unnecessary price-fixing, rationing and regimentation is a communistic philosophy which an intelligent American citizenship is not yet ready to have crammed down their throats by Washington Bureaucrats. The patriotic citizens of this nation, in order to win this war, are willing to sacrifice to the last dollar and to the last man, but they are not willing to sacrifice their liberty or their freedom to dictators at home any more than they are willing to sacrifice their liberty and freedom to dictators abroad.

"If the new Congress which convenes January 6th will discard our present weak-kneed socialistic policy of dividing up what we have and substitute an unrestricted PROGRAM OF PRODUCTION so that our thrifty, production-minded citizenship may produce to their maximum capacity, unhampered by restrictive laws or by Washington Bureaucratic Dictators, rationing will become almost wholly unnecessary, post-war inflation fears will subside, and an earlier Victory over foreign foes will be assured." Senator W. Lee O'Daniel.

Has Many Kin In The Service

Another good Terry county lady was in last week who has a son, a son-in-law, and three grandsons in the service. The lady was Mrs. J. E. Spears of Wellman.

By the way, Mrs. Spears says the boys in the service are not the only ones that get a kick reading the letters from the Old He to the boys.

Mr. W. H. Collins of Lamesa visited in Brownfield Saturday.

Christmas Deliveries Not Bad Here

While like a lot of places, it appeared that the bunch at the post-office here were to be snowed under, they somehow wiggled out, and delivered mail and packages about as fast as they came in. In some places, around camps and defense plants, they really got snowed under.

Yep, maybe you got a few Christmas cards intended for your neighbor in the box above or below yours, but such will happen in the best regulated businesses under normal times, when help is scarce and inexperienced. We never heard a squawk, as all seemed to realize the PO force was up against a proposition they never had before.

On the other hand, many of us wrote incorrectly the name and address of people, so the score was about 50-50.

Even the employees wives came down and did their very best as helpers, and so, after it is all over with, and they get their breathers again, the service will be up to usual and normal standards.

So, we offer Mrs. Dallas and her bunch over there congratulations. We hope by next Christmas the boys or some of them will be coming home for good, and we'll have a more normal Christmas. Maybe ol' Jeems Hurley will be home then—if you can get him to work any.

Terry Co. Allowed More Sugar

LUBBOCK, Dec.—An additional 10 percent in its sugar quota for industrial users, beginning with the January-February period, has been granted to Terry County, district OPA officials have been advised.

An original percentage increase of 30 per cent granted to Terry County Aug. 31 was raised to 40 per cent in a revised list issued in Washington.

The percentage figure will be used as a basis for adjusting allotments to manufacturers who use sugar in industrial products delivered to Terry County. Industrial users include bakers, bottlers, candy makers, ice cream manufacturers and others manufacturing products for off-premises consumption.

The normal basis for industrial users is 70 per cent of the total for the corresponding period last year. Industrial users supplying Terry county may apply to their county war price and rationboards for increased quotas.

LT. EUGENE B. ELLIS

Lt. Ellis is the son of Mrs. Allen Harkins of Terry county. He has recently been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, story of which appeared in these columns recently. He is credited with shooting down six enemy planes.

Brownfield Club Won American Contest

Mrs. T. B. McCarter is district chairman of the American Citizenship committee of the Federated Club and directed the contest of the district. She sent literature and suggestions to the local clubs of the district.

The Brownfield club won the district contest and went on to Austin to win the state contest.—Canyon News.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nelson and daughters, Peggy and Donna Sue, visited Christmas Day with Mrs. Nelson's parents in Colorado City, Texas.

Well, How Did You Get Over Christmas?

In many ways this was an average Christmas. Most everyone got some nice presents; some of us more than we deserved. On the war fronts we were more than holding our own, and the outlook as we approached the New Year was not bad. It's true that we face rationing and still more of it, but none of us will starve, or for that matter be greatly inconvenienced.

As to the idea that we always had of spending Christmas with mother and dad, most of us had to forego that, both civilian and the service men. In the writer's own family, we believe it's the first Christmas to pass without all the family being together. This year, Mrs. Herman Trigg, of Brownwood, was unable to be at home.

Rail and bus lines had advertised to keep down civilian travel as much as possible until after January 12th, when most of the furloughs of the Service Men, who spent the holidays at home, would have expired, and they returned to their contentment. This was very nice in the civilian population. But with all such precautions, great crowds tried it and many had to stand.

In fact, railroads and bus lines report the heaviest traffic in their history. Two buses were used on all runs through Brownfield, and between Lubbock and Amarillo and Lubbock and Wichita Falls, Fort Worth and Dallas as many as four and five trailing each other. Rail lines everywhere had trouble sometimes providing standing room.

Civilians will get a great deal more pleasure out of their trips in the future by traveling mid-week instead of weekend. A trip is often spoiled by having to stand or crowding while traveling.

Texas Manufacturing Shows Rapid Growth

AUSTIN—The picture of Texas industry from 1880 to 1940 shows a steady climb in value of manufactured products, in value added by manufacture, and in number of employees, a preliminary report on Texas manufacturing concerns released by Dr. A. B. Cox, University of Texas economist, shows.

The report is the first of a series of analyses of Texas industry and shows the relative importance of this state in the nation's industrial picture. Since 1880 Texas has risen from 27th to 11th place in value of manufactured products, and from 29th to 16th place in the number of employees.

"Industrial construction in Texas during the first 10 months of this year was more than 42 per cent of the total in the 16 southern and southwestern states, Dr. Cox revealed.

Son Not Dead But Jap Prisoner

Mrs. Lee Balfanz was notified this week by the Adjutant General's department at Washington, that her son, Second Lt. A. W. Balfanz, reported last May as missing, is a Japanese prisoner in the Philippine Islands.

While never believing that her son was really dead but a prisoner instead, nevertheless the shock sent Mrs. Balfanz to bed. She will receive further information soon from Washington by mail.

Mrs. Balfanz stated this week that while this had been the saddest Christmas in her life, the next one would be the happiest, as she would have Dub with her. The Herald joins this good lady in her fond hopes.

Wilbur F. Fauley Claimed By Death

A brief AP dispatch appeared in Texas dailies recently to the effect that Wilbur F. Fauley on the editorial staff of the New York Times, was dead. Mr. Fauley wrote a number of books of fiction during his life.

He owned a section of land 12 miles north of Brownfield, and

Mayor Evans Also A Wolf Hunter

Went down to see Mayor Ed Evans this week, and found that he and Dick Herring were out chasing wolves. Later learned they got coyotes.

Evans reports the Union Gin has cut out some 2200 bales this season, and he hopes to make it 2500 by the end of the season.

Wellman Sells Over $1,800 Bonds, Stamps

(Delayed)

Approximately 500 persons attended the second in a series of Victory Concerts Held December 17 in the Wellman high school auditorium, purchasing War Bonds and Stamps totaling $1,174.60, Supt. J. T. Jones announced.

All the schools of Texas are participating in these Victory concerts which are being held to promote the sale of bonds and stamps.

The first concert held at Wellman a few weeks ago, resulted in the purchase of approximately $700 in War Bonds and stamps. J. O. Gillham, chairman of the Terry County War Bond Drive, was the principal speaker at the initial affair.

Thursday night's concert included presentation of various numbers by pupils of the elementary schools. Each room and grade was represented in the program, which was in keeping with the Christmas season.

The series of concerts are planned and presented under the supervision of Mr. Jones. Admission to the concerts, is by purchase of a War Bond or Stamp at the door.

"We believe in our American government," said Mr. Jones, "and want to maintain it by providing our 'Uncle' with money to buy war materials for the boys on the battlefronts."

The third concert at Wellman will be given Jan. 21, 1943, and will be in the form of a three-act comedy, "The Little Clodhopper," under direction of Miss Josie Oliver. A minimum purchase of a twenty-five cent stamp will be required for the performance.

Lt. A. J. Geron, was a dinner guest of Miss Beth Hamilton on Christmas day in her home. Lt. Geron left Friday for Salt Lake City, where he has been transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bandy and little son, were home from Dallas during Christmas, visiting her father, J. T. Pippin and family, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bandy. Herald will go to their Dallas address from this on.

The President's birthday celebration will be put on as usual here on Saturday January 30th. Ray Christopher will be chairman in charge of arrangements this year. More when the program is worked out by Mr. Christopher and his committees.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, Margaret and Mrs. Opal Parker visited in Big Spring Tuesday.

Staff Sergeant Orel Greenfield left Wednesday for Brownwood after spending the Christmas holidays with his parents.

Mrs. Hudson Taylor returned to her home in Dallas Tuesday after spending the week with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Hancock.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnett received a crate or oranges from their son, Elvin, in California. The oranges were good, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Glenn and two children from Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Burnett and son, Mrs. Shirley Parker and son, of Monahans, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Davis and daughter of Clayton, N. M., Earl Burnett of John Tarleton, Mrs. Ira Lee Marchbanks of Paso Robles, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Burnett and children, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Willis and children, city, spent the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burnett.

W. C. Chenault was in recently to renew. Didn't know whether he was any kin to Gen. Chenault or not. We note in daily press that Lt. Maxie Chenault, a Snyder boy, is a Jap captive in the Philippines.

Sgt. and Mrs. D. M. Urwin spent the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leonard.

This department, generally known as editorials, which in reality are the opinions of the editor of newspapers, is going to be unduly brief this week. Not that the writer is sick or has a hangover, or that it might be an example of what might or might not be said during the year. Just wait till we get better warmed up further on in the year.

The government is urging all of us to save money in order that we may be able to pay our income tax, if any, when the time comes. If we spend all our earnings frivolously before they are due, we may be up a tree for means to pay them. Therefore we had best cut down on some non-essentials in order to have the cash to pay income taxes when they are due. It might just so happen that you will be unable to obtain funds from your banker or your friends. Play safe.

In a pre-Christmas address to the nations, the Pope of Rome said he was taking no side in this world conflict. In almost the same breath he appeared to be for the side of freedom of thought and action, and especially of religious tolerance. Therefore the Pope can be easily placed on the side of Democracy and that means the Allies. It must always be remembered that he is closely tied to Italy politically, and to Italians by blood and religion. In a case of this kind he is about like the late Admiral Darlan. He announced a few weeks ago that he was never in sympathy with the Axis, but had to play their Charley McCarty whether or not. In other words, he had to "know his master's voice" as long as he remained in occupied or Vichy, France.

 Preaching Service ..... 8:15

This Sunday is the first Sunday in the beginning of a New Year. The present pastor began his pastorate one year ago this Sunday. We are expecting to have our building ready for service. The size of the building has been doubled, giving more Sunday School rooms. We want every member of the church possible to be at the services, and especially to invite the people of Brownfield who are not in Sunday School and Church somewhere else. So, dear reader, we invite you to come to a friendly Church where they study the Bible and the Bible only in Sunday School and preaching the soon coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Rev. J. A. Franks, Pastor.

W. E. Fielder has moved back to Brownfield from Stamford, and of course became a reader immediately.

A BELATED CHRISTMAS STORY

Sgt. George Simmons of South Plains Army Flying School had been sweating out the mail line with no success. But finally he received a Christmas card with the message: "From the gang in Barracks No. 2. We couldn't stand to see you suffer any longer. Rest in Peace."

The sympathy wasn't needed. Along with the card Sgt. Simmons received a batch of delayed Christmas letters and packages.

• A Complete Job Work Dept.

Among the other Christmas greetings received by the Herald was one from Joyce Halsey and her Drug Store Cowgirls, which are heard each day over KFYO, advertising Mark Halsey drug stores. This contained a picture of Mrs. Halsey and the girls, all four of them.

Mrs. Ethel Jones announced recently that he last scrap show was some improvement over the November show in attendance. She stated that there would be another later on in the New Year.

War Time Cooking Ware Making Change

College Station—Familiar metal pans and kettles are vanishing from store along with metal kitchen tools and gadgets. In their places are various sorts of kitchenware made of non-strategic materials.

The bride of 1943 may fry eggs in a potter skillet, bake pie in a fiber pan, boil vegetables in earthenware, and roast meat in glass, predicts Mrs. Bernice Claytor, specialist in home improvement for the A. and M. College Extension Service. She explains that metal must go to war so cooks must learn to use materials not needed at the front.

Potter, earthenware, and glass need more careful handling than metals the specialist cautions. First you'll need to avoid sudden changes in temperature. If you put extremely cold food in these utensils, have the dish cold first. Or, if you put in hot food, heat the dish first with warm water.

Here's another caution. Never put empty pottery, earthenware, or glass utensils over a flame. Be sure the dish contains liquid, fat, or some moist food before it is set over heat. Glass made for the purpose can cook over high heat, but not earthenware or pottery. The safe rule with these is "Simmer and serve."

Homemakers who are afraid their metal spoons may chip or crack these dishes, can use wooden spoons for stirring and beating foods in these containers. Be careful about temperatures in dishwashing, too, Mrs. Claytor suggests. Wash pottery, earthenware and glass, like china, with warm soap suds and a hot water rinse. Dry them with a soft towel.

Paul Jones, assistant manager of the Pipply Wiggly store here for several years, left this week to assume management of the Seminole Piggly Wiggly store. Herald will follow him.

TAKE HEALTH INVENTORY FOR 1943

Austin—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, stated today that he believed it would be a worthwhile idea for every Texan to take a health inventory at the beginning of the New Year.

"In the true spirit of the New Year, we should give thought to the mistakes we have made during the past year, and a great deal of thought to planning some way of improving our health conditions during the coming year," Dr. Cox said.

"The American people are very fortunate. We have scientific knowledge of communicable diseases; we have already made important conquests in the warfare against infectious diseases. We have material wealth to make knowledge work; we have capable leaders in the sciences of life processes that see great opportunities for public good in health measures that unite effectively the resources of medicine, education, finance and government. We are probably the most realistic and practical of all people. We should be capable of even a more vital national health program and nothing can be of greater help to our country at this time than the conservation and promotion of good health," Dr. Cox asserted.

The State Health Department, according to Dr. Cox, is confident that national health being stressed as our foremost means of civilian defense, 1943 will see great strides of progress in upbuilding the Nation's greatest asset — the health of its people.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson and daughter, Carolee, and Lee Ellen Balfanz of Abilene, spent Christmas with their mother, Mrs. Lee Balfanz.

Miss Vondee Lewis Weds Zeb A. Moore Jr.

Thursday, December 31, 1942, at 8 P. M., Miss Vondee Lewis became the bride of Zeb A. Moore, Jr., of Amarillo at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis. Rev. W. A. Rogers read the single ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Leon Lewis, brother of the bride played "Indian Love Call" and "I Love You Truly", then traditional wedding marches.

White gladioli and candles, combined with spruce and smilax, were used to decorate the archway. At each side of the archway was a large basket of yellow calla lilies and delphinium.

Miss Eleanor Gillham, Bridesmaid, and Miss Elray Lewis, sister of the Bride, Maid of Honor, wore identical gowns of pale blue. The skirts were of crisp marquisette over slips of faille taffeta with bodices of draped silk jersey. Each wore a single strand of pearls and carried a colonial bouquet of white, pink and blue flowers.

Bobby Lewis was Best Man and Deverle Lewis was Groomsman, both are brothers of the bride. Sandra Good was ring bearer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a period gown of ivory satin with fitted basque with full gathered skirt designed with train, long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and tiny buttons down front to waistline. Her ivory illusion veil fell from a small coronet and was fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book covered by a double spray of white orchids, with a spray of stephanotis. She wore a single strand of pearls which were a gift of the groom.

At the reception, the Bride's table was decorated with garlands of smilax and gardenias around the three tiered wedding cake. On a glass topped table, punch was served from two bowls entirely banked with white flowers.

The bride traveled in a black suit with white blouse and carried black accessories. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Moore of Amarillo, Mrs. E. A. Kelly of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Sawyer and daughter, Fern, of Crossroads, New Mexico, and Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Good and little daughter, Sandra, from Yeso, New Mexico.

W. O. Mills made a business trip to Seagraves Tuesday night.

Mrs. Richard Kendrick is spending the holidays with her husband in San Antonio.

MISS VONEE LEWIS HONORED WITH BRIDAL SHOWER

Mrs. J. O. Gillham was hostess at a shower tea given in honor of Miss Vondee Lewis, bride-elect of Zeb A. Moore, Jr., in her home at 604 East Tate Street, Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Gillham, Miss Lewis, Mrs. Clyde Lewis and Mrs. Clarence Lewis. Mrs. M. B. Sawyer, grandmother of the bride-elect, presided at the guest book.

Miss Elray Lewis poured tea. The dining table was covered with a Normandy cloth over gold satin. The centerpiece was a bouquet of pink carnations and pink candles. On the buffet was a miniature bride and groom. Misses Helen and Delores Gillham assisted in the dining room.

Miss Elnora Gillham presided at the gift table. About one hundred and fifty guests called.

Mrs. R. L. Darnell of Seattle, Washington, Mr. Jack Burdett of Porcupine, South Dakota, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ruehs of Odessa, spent last Friday night with their sister, Mrs. J. T. Auburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Watson and family and Mr. and Mrs. N. F. House spent Christmas day with Mrs. Watson's brother in Lubbock.

THE BUSY COUNTRY EDITOR

The old-fashioned country editor still lives, and the nation is safe.

His name is Carl Broome, and he edits the Brantley Enterprise, a Georgia weekly. His draft board showed some curiosity as to how he filled in his time and he told them.

He wrote down his duties as they came into his mind. Sorted out a little, the list shows what goes on. Mr. Broome writes the editorials, solicits advertising and collects and edits the news that goes into his paper. Then he sets the type, makes it up in the page, prints it and wraps the bundles for mailing. Then he washes and distributes the type. He keeps books, has bills to pay and must therefore collect pay for advertising and solicit, and collect for subscriptions. The presses, newspaper and job, get out of order and he fixes them. The linotype gets out of order and he fixes that. He deals with human nature.

He has to "tell people where the local draft board is, tell others where the town's lawyer might be, tell still others that silly rumor they were excited about was only a silly rumor . . . pacify irate subscribers whose paper failed to arrive." Sometimes he is so busy that the will "scan the exchanges and maybe clip an item," but even a clipped item has to be set, the form washed and the type distributed. "In my spare time," he concludes, "I hunt and fish and play checkers." A wretched life, no doubt. But Mr. Boone wouldn't give it up for a castle in Spain, and half the metropolitan newspaper men in the United States, as they read the delectable details of his life, will weep with envy.

We are very sorry to announce that Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Brown are moving back to their old home in Corsicana.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS
by BOYCE HOUSE

Bill Shepherd, bless his old heart, came in Saturday and said he saw by the press that we'd take taters for subscriptions and that when he dug, he would bring in some to renew. Friend Bill, that's not all we'll accept on subscription. Most anything that folks can eat is always acceptable the same as money on subscriptions to the Press. We have plenty of milk and butter at our ranch but the hens know that eggs are four bits and scarce, so we have no eggs. Been eating the store-bought syrup for months and the boy asks nearly every day, "Dad, when are you gonna get some good syrup on subscription?" Yes, sir! anything that will stave off the pangs of hunger for man or beast, is highly acceptable and appreciated on subscription. (Corrigan Press.)

When I was born, my father was running the Banner in Piggot, Ark., and the subscribers used to pay up with different products. One man who had the only pear orchard in the county used to pay his subscription with a bushel of pears. My father sold the paper, we came to Texas and he died when I was 12. Years later, I went back to Piggot, bought the Banner and ran it for a year—and that same man came in with a bushel of pears to pay for another 12 months. His hair was gray and his form sorter stooped—but the pears were just as luscious as they were when I was a little fellow.

The greatest editor in the South of his day was C. P. J. Mooney of the Memphis Commercial Appeal. While he never took apples or roasting ears for subscriptions, he did do something pretty nearly the same—he swapped news space in his big city newspaper for food, kinda. It was this way:

One day a farmer came in with a very fine, large turnip and gave it to Mr. Mooney. He wrote a few lines about it in the paper. A few days later, another farmer came in with a turnip that was bigger—so Mr. Mooney wrote that up. And, sir, so many farmers came in with so many big turnips (all of which the editor mentioned in the paper) that he got enough turnips to last all winter!

The people of Texas are indignant at the five-day Christmas given to State employees.

Transportation systems are so heavily loaded that they are appealing to pleasure travelers to stay at home and the national government is urging that unnecessary civilian travel be stopped at this time so that soldiers and sailors on leave can get back for a visit with their fathers and mothers.

And in the face of all this, our Austin bureaucrats not merely passively refuse to co-operate with the war effort but actually fly in the face of it by turning loose hundreds and hundreds of state employees. Now if they didn't go anywhere but just stayed down there in Austin, they might about as well have remained on the job and given the public some service while continuing to draw their salaries from the taxpayers. And if they crowded on already overloaded trains and buses so as to enjoy five days back in the old home town, then the appeal of our nation's commander-in-chief was being ignored.

All of this in the midst of an all-out war for the very existence of our nation.

Talk about Nero fiddling while Rome burns!

Brevity, if not wit: The way to make you pants last is to make the coat and vest first.

The operation was a success but the patient died.

He's at least 21 years old because he's had the seven-year itch three times.

The Santa Fe Railroad company moved a total of 29,475 cars last week, compared to 26,051 the same week of 1941.

GRUDGES LINKED WITH ILLNESS
A distinguished physician in Boston made the statement as a result of a long series of experiments that 80 per cent of the sick people who came to his hospital had obvious hates and resentments. It does not follow that every time a man becomes ill it is because he hates somebody. But the number of people who are made ill because of holding a long-sustained grudge or vindictiveness in their hearts is a very high proportion.—Health Culture.

CEILING PRICE PLACED ON PEANUTS
WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 — Fireplace grates, shelled and salted peanuts, and peanut butter were placed under temporary price ceilings Thursday by OPA. On shelled and salted peanuts and peanut butter, effective Dec. 29, prices at the processor, wholesale and retail levels were fixed at not more than the highest price charged between Dec. 19 and 23. Later, a permanent order will be issued to take the place of this decree, which will last for 60 days.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Tom May and family and all who were concerned or the token of our boys that are in the Service. May God bless each of you.
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Goldston and family.

Baptist Church News

We broke another record for the year Sunday morning with only 50 present in the church school but not without some cause as the regular West Texas Blizzard was blowing from the north something fierce so that very few could come without cars.

This makes two Sundays of bad weather since starting our campaign to pay at least five thousand dollars on the church debt and only one more Sunday remains and we would admonish those who expect to give in this offering to have it in the hands of the treasurer not later than Jan. 6th as the payment must be made at that time. The campaign has been encouraging to this date regardless of the weather and more than three thousand dollars is already assured and there are a great many who have not contributed, and we are seeking them to help us make the offering more than the goal set which is $5,375, which will pay five installments with interest to date.

We expect to record in this column next week the result of this offering as many are interested in it who are members of our church and nothing can cause failure except a reluctance on the part of many to have a worthy part in it.

We acknowledge that our Bible school has a smaller enrollment than twelve months ago and excuses are not in order as there are perhaps seven or eight hundred people of Baptist families within reach of us not in attendance, but this is a time for New Year resolution to do better next year and we are interested to see if anything will be done about it.

May 1943 bring progress in the work of our church and may it bring progress in the lives of

LET'S ALL WORK FOR VICTORY . . . — IN '43

It's a new year filled with renewed hope for all the free fighting people of the world. You're helping to bring Victory about each week that you put 10 per cent of your weekly earnings into war Bonds. And, though you're earning more, you're buying less and taking care of things you own. Just as regularly as you by War Bonds, make it a habit to save money later to buy all the things you're doing without now. The money you save will be used by your government . . . and it's ready for personal emergencies so that you don't have to cash in your War Bonds. Make saving a habit in '43

Start the year off right by buying wisely . . . buy War Bonds . . . and saving regularly!
