"Is it true, what they say about War Bonds?"

THEY SAY — "Hey, Bill, I heard that in order to pay for the fighting equipment our boys need, each of us should be putting at least 10 percent of our pay into War Bonds."

IT'S TRUE — "That makes sense to me, Joe. Those things cost plenty of dough. After all, one dime out of every buck is a darn cheap price to pay for freedom!"

THEY SAY — "We're not really paying that money to the Government, either. It's just a loan to Uncle Sam, as I see it."

IT'S TRUE — "Sure. You get it back — with interest. Every 3 bucks you put in brings you 4!"

THEY SAY — "That's a sweet investment, I'd say! And when you lend dough to Uncle Sam, you know he'll make good on his I O U"

IT'S TRUE — "Say! War Bonds are better than dollar bills! They're backed up by the strongest Government in the world — and they make more money for you!"

THEY SAY — "Must be a lot of people owning War Bonds by now, aren't there, Bill?"

IT'S TRUE — "A lot of people? Listen! 50 million of 'em have bought War Bonds — and I'm one of 'em. 50 million Americans can't be wrong, Joe!"

SELLING OUT FOR 30 PIECES OF SILVER

The Texas Spur—A letter from members of the 750th Tank Battalion, Company A, at Fort Knox, Kentucky, to workers who recently struck in a war industry, said in part:

"We feel deeply hurt to think you would let the boys overseas down. Just what do you think if we would sit down and quit, fighting, besides we just make $50 a month? We need more fighting equipment. What do you Americans want? More money now and slavery later? Just think how some of your sons and brothers are over there fighting with Tojo and Hitler.

There is a Bible story of a sell-out for 30 pieces of silver. Read it.

Mrs. Thelma Calhoun of Chicago has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Bob Wright, for the past three weeks. Her husband will join her in a few days and they will go to San Francisco where they will make their home in the future.

TEACHING NEGROES TO ASK SOCIAL EQUALITY

Many good and benevolent white people, though impractical and visionary, believing there has been unjust discrimination against the negroes—which may be true in some degree and in many localities—and desiring to help the negro race, have encouraged the notion of social equality among the negroes if they have not openly espoused the cause, and have thereby added fuel to the flame already flaring up to a veritable conflagration of race hatred and discontent among the negroes in some sections of our country.

We greatly admire the fine motives that evidently have inspired Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of our president, in her benevolent work and her political activities, but we believe that no one person in this country has done more to foster this dangerous asperation on the part of some negroes for social equality than she has done. We are truly sorry that she does not have the vision to foresee the trouble that she is breeding.—Lynn County News.

DEATH TAKES MRS. DELLA RAYMER

Funeral services for Mrs. Della Raymer were read at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Lubbock, Monday, April 12 at 2:30 P. M., Rev. Ben Johnson, pastor, officiating. Mrs. Raymer (Aunt Della) as she was lovingly called by all who knew her, passed away at 6 o'clock Sunday, April 11, on her 79th birthday.

She and her husband's sister, Miss Trecla Raymer, moved to Lubbock two years ago, hoping she would gain her health, but about four weeks ago she was stricken with dropsy. Besides Miss Trecla, Mrs. Noah Bell, Chas. H. Raymer and Walter D. Raymer, sister and brothers, and several nieces and nephews of her husband survive. She had no one in her own family. The pall bearers were James H. Kimmel, Geo. Burris, Johnie Bingham and Tom Harlan.

TOO LITTLE—TOO LATE

And if our lines should sag and break
Because of things you fail to make;
That extra tank, that ship, that plane
For which we waited all in vain,
Will you then come to take the blame?
For we, not you, must pay the cost
Of battles you, not we, have lost.

SUGAR FOR CANNING FRUIT FOR 1943 SEASON

Sugar for home-canning of 1943 fruit crops will be available to housewives on approximately the same basis as last season, the Office of Price Administration has announced. No deduction in blue point stamps will be made from War Ration Book Two for sugar obtained for this purpose.

In the 1942 season, housewives applied to their local War Price and Rationing Boards for allotments of sugar on the basis of one pound for each four quarts of fruit that it has planned to can, and in addition, for one pound for each member of the family. Roughly the same pattern will be used to give home-canning sugar allotments this year, although there will be some refinements in procedure. Under present regulations, local boards have authority to set the time and place for registration.

Those present were Jean Knight, Gloria Hughes, Gertrude Akers, Charlie Mae Harold, Bet-Chaddin, Wanda Mae Zachary, Jeanette Edwards, Francis Lewis, Glenola Murphy, Christine McDuffie, Margaret Glandon, Wanda Ruth Turner and Beverly Balfanz.

To our Easter prayer this April, will be added a very special prayer for America's legions of men in uniform. For those at their parents' sides in the church of their faith—for those far from home, in flying ships, on ammunition-sputting decks and on the battlefields around the world! May Victory quickly be theirs, and may they soon return to enjoy to the full that democratic way of life for which they fight! For their sakes—and for our own spiritual security, let us all go to church this Easter!

EASTERN STAR

The Order of the Eastern Star held their regular meeting Tuesday night, in the Masonic Hall. Routine business was taken care of during the session.

FAREWELL DINNER GIVEN CAROL COLLIER

Friends of Carol Collier gathered at the Grill last Friday night for a farewell dinner and to wish him the best of everything for the future. Carol left for Ft. Sill Monday morning.

As hostess, Miss La Verne Collier had a most attractive dinner table. The center arrangement was made up of crossed American flags, surrounded by miniature soldiers. On either side of this arrangement were outstanding in the countries where our armed forces are stationed. An Eskimo standing in the snow beside his igloo depicted Alaska. To represent Africa, a clever grass hut with natives in their African garb, was ranged. The Hawaiian Islands were brought to mind with a tall palm tree and the Hula girls and surfboard riders. A Sphinx, reminder of Egypt, completed the table decorations. All of these unique ornaments, streamers of red, white, and blue and red and blue napkins, which added patriotic touches, were made by Miss Collier. Corsages of white carnations tied with red, white, and blue ribbon, and boutonnières of red carnations completed the color scheme.

Guests were: Beverly Balfanz, Bobby Jones, Joyce Evelyn Dunkin, Sammy Jones, Patsy Carter, Kenneth Jones, Christine McDuffie, Jack Bynum, Juanita and Charles Gipson, Barbara Taylor, Edgar Self, Wanda Joyce Finney, Robert Lee Craig, Jean Knight, Lee Hughes, Wanda Turner, Mon Telford, Ida May May, Marion Bowers, Glenna Faye Winston, Harold Dalton and the honoree and hostess.

PLAYHOUSE SCENE OF A TEA

Don and Cynthia Tankersley were hosts to their many friends Sunday afternoon with a tea initiating their new playhouse. Guests, upon arrival, were met by the hostess and shown through the little house which is complete in every detail, even to the window box of red geraniums under the kitchen window.

After inspecting the playhouse they were served tea from a tea table under a lawn umbrella. Pansies in a low bowl were used as a centerpiece. Cookies in the shape of flowers, nuts and punch were served as tea dainties.

Those in the house party were: Lynn Sturgis, Nancy Wier, Deenie Ballard, Christova Akers, and Marjorie Graham. The girls wore long dresses in pastel shades. Their corsages were yellow snapdragons.

One hundred and fifty guests registered in the guest book.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Come on, Let's WIN this war!

If we should lose the war, life would not be worth living.

"But we won't lose it," you may say.

Listen, brother—in this world nothing's sure, unless you make it so.

This month it's up to us here at home to do our part, and then some, to make Victory surer—and quicker! To do it, we've got to lend Uncle Sam 13 billion extra dollars.

It isn't easy—but war isn't easy and Victory isn't cheap. It takes money—and more money—to buy planes, ships, tanks, guns and a million other things our boys must have to deliver that final, paralyzing knock-out punch.

And it's a whale of a lot easier for us at home to lend our money than for our boys to fight through the hardships and dangers of deserts, swamps, jungles, ice-fields and sub-infested seas!

There are 7 different types of U. S. Government securities—choose the ones best suited for you!

Just think! Every extra bond you buy will help provide the weapons to save the lives of many American boys! Isn't that alone worth every effort, every economy you can make? You bet it is!

There are 7 types of U. S. Government securities to meet the needs of every purse. They offer the finest investment in the world—liberal interest, plus securities guaranteed by Uncle Sam himself.

A volunteer worker for the 2nd War Loan Drive may visit you soon. Welcome this unselfish patriot—and buy all the bonds you can. But don't wait for that call. Go—today—to your bank, investment dealer, broker, post office or bond booth and invest to your uttermost limit. Even if it hurts, it's nothing compared to the agonizing impact of a bayonet thrust, a flesh-tearing torpedo fragment or a bone-crushing bullet.

So dig deep, brother, and do it NOW!

Baptist Church News

The pastor is engaged in a meeting with the church at Ackerly and being absent last Sunday, Rev. Lowell Ponder, the missionary for this district occupied the pulpit both of the preaching hours. He is holding a series of services with the church at Gomez after preaching here. A good many preachers are going to the army as chaplains and many churches that formerly employed pastor for only a fourth or half of the time have increased the time of their employment to half and full time and thus we are confronted with a scarcity of preachers, and we recall that the Master said, "Pary ye the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth laborers into his harvest."

We do not need any professional preachers but we are greatly in need of God-called men to occupy places as pastors in our churches and if we will pray for them a she has commanded us, he is abundantly ble nd willing to give them. The most successful preachers and pasctors today are not essentially the greatest theologians but those of the greatest zeal and many more of them are needed now among our churches.

Brother Ponder showed his genuine interest in the proposed church for the Mexican people here by leaving his personal check for $25 for that purpose and this is the kind of interest it will take to assist this needy congregation to secure a place of worship as they are not very many in number and do not have very much money and are among strangers, and while we re missionary to all men everywhere, we should certainly not overlook this opportunity at our very door. Our committee to recommend the amount our church should put inportedto this building, but are making investigation as to that work.

Certainly no Missionary-minded church in this county should be willing to have no part in this assistance to our Mexican friends.

A good number of women of this church attended a WMU meeting at Tahoka Thursday of this week. They set ll of us a good example by keeping on keeping on. Visitors are always welcome at this church.

America's Food Emergency

A Statement by Santa Fe

United States facing most critical "crop year" in its history.

During the coming months, the need for more food may be greater than the need for more guns, tanks and planes.

Serving, as it does, "the breadbasket of America," the livestock and meat industry, and the great fruit and vegetable areas of California and the Southwest, Santa Fe pledges its all-out effort in the production and mobilization of food.

What Santa Fe Is Doing

Santa Fe employs are planting Victory Gardens along their railroad's 13,199 miles of right-of-way.

Everything that rolls on the Santa Fe is being kept in fighting trim.

Old cars with good running gear are being rebuilt into sleek new gondolas.

Many Santa Fe refrigerator cars that used to go back "dead-head" now hurry back loaded with other freight.

They're On The Job, Too!

For years the Agricultural Development Department of Santa Fe has cooperated with growers all along the line, for greater production per acre, through better seeds and better cultural methods. For example:

The people of the middle Rio Grande know how the desert has been converted into paying crops.

The folks in Blue Water Valley of western New Mexico know how the production of vegetables has increased from 86 to 1076 carloads in the past three years.

The potato growers of Kern County,

Cars are few and hours are precious. Every hour a freight car stands idle holds back food or other vital war freight from folks who need it. Every unused cubic foot squanders vital space.

The supply experts of the Army and Navy, the ODT, and the Interstate Commerce Commission Bureau of Service are all focusing on this problem.

How Shippers Are Helping

Shippers are helping and can continue to help (1) by maximum loading; (2) by quicker loading; (3) by quicker unloading.

More than 57,000 Santa Fe folks join with the farmers, the livestock producers, the shippers, and the consumers of all America to help meet the greatest food crisis our nation has ever faced.

THIS IS PART OF YOUR PAY CHECK

That gun's making things pretty hot for the Axis

It came from the pay check and pay envelopes of people like you. It was bought with the money you lent your Government in regular installments from your pay.

But hold on now—Maybe it's not your gun! Maybe you aren't setting aside at least 10 percent of your salary for War Bonds!

There are still some people who aren't; not many, but maybe you're one of them. If you are one, we're sure it's not for want of patriotism, but because you haven't gotten around to it.

Tell your boss today you want to help win the war by joining the Pay-Roll Savings Plan. Tell him you want to save at least 10 percent of every pay check by putting it into War Bonds.

You can't make a better investment. You'll be buying the weapons that insure a future of freedom, peace, and plenty . . . and you'll be getting back $4 for every $3 you save.

The Harmony H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. Crossland April 15 with the vice president in the chair. There was no new business or old business discussed. Miss Blanton was with us. She talked to us about a tin can drive, and about fats for the government, and also passed out several interesting pamphlets. Meeting was adjourned and program turned over to Miss Blanton. The program dealt with the reseating of chairs, and was very interesting. One chair she had was to have been seated with corn shucks, and the other was some kind of grass. Both were very pretty.

We had six regular members and one new member. The next meeting is with Mrs. Bill Smith the first Thursday in May, which will be the 6th of May. This is to be an all day meeting and covered dish dinner. Mrs. Smith will have two quilts to quilt.

SONS OF FAMOUS MEN AT FRONT

The part which the sons of famous men have played and are playing in this war is something that fills the average man with pride and hope; and when the news relating to these young men is tragic, a sincere feeling of sadness accompanies it.

President Roosevelt's four sons are in the armed forces, and it is known that some of them have been where the bullets fly thick and fast.

Quentin Roosevelt, 23 years of age, son of Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt and grandson of the late President Theodore Roosevelt was wounded, February 21st, on the Tunisian front. He was one of the sixty United States soldiers in North Africa to receive the Croix de Guerre, conferred by the general commanding the French Army Corps, for conspicuous acts while fighting with the French on the Tunisian front.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill has a son, Randolph Churchill, now serving on the African front.

Lord Halifax, British Ambassador to the United States, has lost a son in the Egyptian campaign, and another son is in the armed forces of his country.

Supreme Commander-in-Chief Joseph Stalin, Chairman of the Council of People's Commissars of the USSR, has two sons who are active at the front fighting the German soldiers.

L. F. Hudgens of Lubbock, was here last week on business. While here, he received word that his step-son had died in Houston. He left immediately for Stephenville, where the body was brought for burial. Mr. Hudgens, a former resident, has quite extensive holdings in Terry county.

D. A. Holmes writes in from Compton, Calif., about their change in street address. They, too, are homesick Terryites, and don't want to miss a copy of the Herald.

"...and you'll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box!"

WHEN I was a kid my father used to sing a song that ended up with this refrain: "Oh, save up your money and put it in your box, and you'll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box."

Well, the words stuck with me, but I guess the moral didn't.

No matter how hard I tried . . . I never seemed to be able to save up a red cent.

But it's all different now!

About 10 months ago, I started buying War Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. Figured it was the least I could do for Uncle Sam.

And that's the only way I thought about it . . . until just recently.

Now, all of a sudden, I've discovered that—for the first time in the history of Yours Truly—I'm saving dough. Every month, rain- or -shine, hell-or-high-water I'm sticking away a War Bond, a Bond that'll bring me back $4.00 for every $3.00 I put in.

Those Bonds are beginning to mount up now. And I'm going to keep them mounting up. For I've discovered what a swell feeling it is to be saving . . . on a plan that's regular as clockwork and twice as sure.

So I'm singing father's song . . . a little different.

"Oh, save up your War Bonds and put them in your box, and you'll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box."

To Hasten Victory

No American wants this war to go one minute beyond the time we can bring it to a victorious end. To hasten that victory—to save possibly the lives of millions of our boys on our far flung fronts—it is imperative that every American do his part in the Second War Loan. There is an investment to fit every purse. The most you can do is little enough compared with the sacrifice offered by our boys in service. They give their lives—you lend your money.

Thirteen billion dollars—the sum the Treasury must raise in the Second War Loan drive, is only one sixth of the estimated cost of the war for the fiscal year of 1943.

Workers in a Michigan refinery fixed up a very low, false door leading to the pay office. On it is inscribed, "You will learn to duck lower if you don't Buy a Bond."

Whose War? Whose Fight?

By Hardy E. Williams

Every war becomes, in many respects, "the rich man's war and the poor man's fight." In the last war, many new fortunes were made, and many old fortunes added to and even multiplied. Even in the middle and poorer groups there are many business men who feel that it is their undeniable right to make money out of this emergency. It is also true that thousands of poor people make and spend more money than ever before. However, we can hardly begrudge the poor the chance to provide themselves with necessities, which they were unable to afford in peace time. Morale, health, efficiency and war effort should be increased by their having means for necessities. Foolish and unnecessary spending by anyone or any group should be looked upon with strict social disapproval.

Our way of looking at this matter is more or less a habit. We have never stopped to look at this question from a very critical point of view. We are so accustomed to letting people, who can, make enormous incomes during peace, we take it as a matter of course during war. Yet, those who have to do the fighting on the battle front are not allowed full opportunity and freedom to go right on making money as usual. If we think about it for a moment, what we can say about the matter of allowing some individuals several hundred thousand and million dollar incomes, while equal responsibility in the war effort is required of others for as little as seventy-five thousand a year and less? While others give up occupations, businesses, homes, and lives for as little as six hundred a year? It may be that, not being rich, I do not know how much the wealthy suffer during war, but I can not see how they can be sacrificing to the extent that should be expected of them.

For this war to be conducted on a basis fair to the boys in the service, no one would have more opportunity to accumulate than the soldiers. How can civilians ask that others give up occupations, businesses, homes, to suffer and die for the cause and at the same time plead for the privilege of not giving up the excessive part of their incomes? Should not the wealthy and poor alike be expected to contribute to the extent of their abilities, all income except that for necessities. The men in the service, the poor and the middle class, if not the wealthy too, should have a lot of praise for our President who has so courageously and steadfastly stood for making this everyone's fight.

If this is not going to be another "rich man's war and poor man's fight," if some people are to be prevented from using this emergency as an opportunity to make money, to accumulate fortunes, something in the order of the President's $25,000 income limitation recommendation must be employed. Civilian incomes (after taxes) must be made more nearly equal to those in the military organization for equal responsibilities. This would be most effectively done, it seems, by a great super war tax, as suggested by the President, with the rates graduated so steeply that the high-incomes would be within a hundred thousand dollars after application of the tax. This super war tax should have been adopted along with the declaration of war, but we had to wait until many of our fine fine stalwart American boys had their bodies mangled and until many others had lost their lives before we could see the unfairness of the home front fighting as compared with the battle front. Do we have to wait for more of the war to come home to us before we take measures to conduct the fight on the home front on a basis fair to those

The famous "Stuttering Sam," a well known Panhandle comedian, will be in Brownfield on next Monday night, April 26th. He will be accompanied by an Army officer who will make a short talk on War Bonds and also by a trio of beautiful young ladies who will sing your favorite songs. This program will be FREE and is being brought to Terry County by the Terry County War Finance Committee. Don't miss this program. If you have not heard "Stuttering Sam" you have missed something good and the "Trio" is fine too. It will be the most enjoyable hour and a half you have spent in many a day.

The program will be held at Brownfield High School Auditorium and every body is urged to be present.

Cotton Will Help Win The War

DALLAS, Apr. 19 — Cotton is helping to win the war, and the part that it is playing in this world-wide conflict will provide a new theme for National Cotton Week of 1943.

"Cotton Fights on Every Front" is no idle boast," Luther Sharp, director of Farm Market Relations, Inc., and chairman of the Texas National Week Committee, said.

"According to the War Department, cotton is the most essential commodity in the war effort, next to steel. Our soldiers are clothed and sheltered with cotton. Cotton furnishes a principal element—linters—in our high explosives. Cotton clothes our war workers and the rest of our civilian population.

"Cotton also makes an indispensable contribution to our hard-pressed food supplies in two of its most essential elements—fats and oils. In maintaining our greatly expanded livestock industry cotton is absolutely necessary. Without proteins from cotton seed our great meat production program would be doomed to failure."

National Cotton Week will be observed this year from May 17 to 22. Participating in it will be farmers, manufacturers, chain stores, independent merchants, schools, women's clubs and civic organizations. Gov. Coke Stevenson has issued a proclamation asking all Texans to assist in the Cotton Week Program.

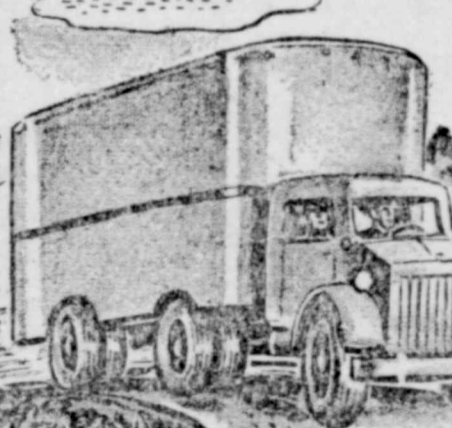

"Not only the American people but all of the United Nations recognize cotton as a critical war material," he said, pointing out that the Statewide Cotton Committee of Texas, sponsors of National Cotton Week, is conducting a campaign to urge the growing of all cotton allowed by law.

who are on the battle front? Experience should indicate that "equality of sacrifice" from all can not be secured except through compulsion.

The wrong of this situation, which should embarrass any civilized society, has been sufficiently revealed. The need for correction has been more than adequately established. However, there are in addition several very worth while results that would be incidental to employment of the suggested super war tax. It would be a strong barrier against inflation. A long chain of reconciliations should be effected by its adoption. The small business man who must necessarily suffer great hardships, if not complete dislocations, should be more completely reconciled. Workers should be better satisfied with present wage levels, farmers with farm prices, and all other groups including government employees and teachers with limited incomes. We should then feel that every one was really in the fight. And then, above all, when the boys come home again, those who do come home again will not be disgruntled because those who stayed at home were trying to get ahead and accumulate, to capitalize on the emergency, while they were not here to enjoy the same privilege but were out there fighting our battles.

New Federal School Aid Bill

A new bill proposing federal aid for education in the various states, S. 637, was offered in the United States Senate on February 4. The authors of the measure are Senator Thomas of Utah and Senator Hill of Alabama.

The new proposal differs from S. 1313 in several particulars:

1. It is suggested as an emergency measure.
2. Two bases are proposed for the distribution of the funds to be appropriated in case the bill becomes a law.

a. The sum of $200,000,000 is to be distributed to the states annually on the basis of average daily attendance.

b. The sum of $100,000,000 is to be distributed to the states each year on the basis of need as determined (1) by the number of children in each state between the ages of 5 and 17, and (2) by the percentage of income tax paid by the people of each state.

On this basis, Texas would receive annually from federal sources slightly more than $18,000,000,

How well do you know your War Bonds?

Q. Why does Uncle Sam want you to put money into War Bonds—
... to pay for equipping our fighting forces?
... to help keep prices down?
... to give you extra money after the war?

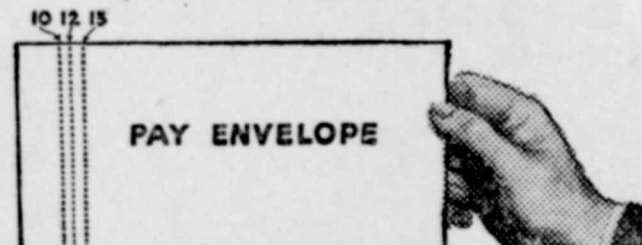

A. Check all three! The money you lend in War Bonds works hard—for the government and you! It helps pay for victory, helps keep prices down. And it comes back with interest!

Q. If you put $3 into War Bonds, how much do you get back—
... $3.00? ... $3.50? ... $4.00?

A. For every $3 you put into War Bonds you get $4 back when the bonds mature! And how those extra dollars mount up! Look at this: You buy a War Bond today at $18.75. In 10 years you get $25.00. You buy a War Bond today at $37.50. In 10 years you get $50.00. You buy a War Bond today at $75.00. In 10 years you get $100.00.

Q. How much money should you put into War Bonds—
... 10 percent of your pay? ... 12 percent? ... 15 percent?

A. Every loyal American ought to be putting at least 10 percent of his pay into War Bonds. And more if he can possibly do it. War Bonds make good sense—for selfish reasons as well as patriotic ones! Put every cent you can into War Bonds—and both you and your country will benefit!

Live-At Home Awards To FSA Borrowers

Approximately 100 FSA borrowers and their friends met in the American Legion Hall Saturday, April 10, for their annual meeting and presentation of Live-at-Home awards.

An interesting program was presented with Hugh Snodgrass acting as chairman.

H. B. Horn, county agent of Plains, made an interesting talk on livestock and poultry diseases, bringing out the point that the increase of livestock and poultry for Food Production could be met by eliminating death losses by proper feeding, vaccinating, and when animals or poultry are found sick, consult a veterinarian, county agent, or some one who is experienced instead of using the trial and error method in giving aid.

A. L. Hartzog, county agent of Brownfield, presented exhibits of cured beef, which brought out possibilities of having a variety of meats from one animal.

Miss Roberta Martin, FSA district supervisor of Sweetwater, spoke on gardening, giving exhibits on how to plant Irish potatoes in this area, and also some ways of irrigating gardens where water has minerals that cause trouble when used in irrigating gardens.

Walter Breedlove, with the County Health Unit, gave the importance of ridding the farm of rats, as they destroy the poultry and feed and spread diseases.

W. R. McDuffie and Judge Lincoln gave an outline of the program of coyote, rabbit, and raven control for several counties on the south plains. This program seemed to be of much interest to everyone present.

Dean Luker gave a report on savings made by cooperative purchases, and brought out the amount of canning jars, seed and other items purchased, which nearly five hundred pounds of garden seed had been purchased at a great saving to garden growers.

Miss Canon, FSA home supervisor, presented about 75 Live-at-Home awards to FSA borrowers who had grown and stored from 60 to 75 per cent of their food at home, which included a variety of well balanced food.

Dennis Q. Lilly, in charge of work in Terry and Yoakum Counties, said the meeting was well attended, and the interest shown makes us believe the Food Production Program in Terry and Yoakum counties will exceed the goals set for these counties.

If you haven't gotten around to buying a second War Loan Bond, stop and think what it would mean to you if our soldiers hadn't gotten round to the fight.

Lop-Sided Growth

Everybody old enough to vote has witnessed Earth's years of highest scientific achievement. Even now, unnatural needs of war are speeding up this already dominant trend in human progress. Engineering feats keep the nation agog. Those who stand on the sidelines of scientific activity marvel at today's wonders and speculate on those of tomorrow. A now familiar quotation is: "It takes some time to do hard things; the impossible takes a little longer."

Government is the only field in which the human race currently is making a failure. If we are to believe most of what we read, humanity's drive toward good government is in reverse. The world is more despot-ruled now than it was at the dawn of history, and the day seems far away when peoples shall manage their mutual affairs with intelligence and kindness. Our progress has been lop-sided.

No Ordinary Year

But the year 1943 is no ordinary time, no more than was 1776. The United States is the only sizable stronghold of human freedom left, not shell-shocked with war or pock-marked by dictatorship. Even here, with the nation's enormous strength massed in self defense, people of small capacity sometimes show symptoms of power intoxication, but not all the signs are discouraging. A new and wholesome interest in national affairs has spread across the country in the last three months, and it is most heartening.

There have been isolated years of great governmental achievement in the past; high peaks of history. These have not been occasions when tyrants followed in the wake of famine, compelling hungry people to swap freedom for bread. They have not been campaigns when brute force was subduing one and then another inoffensive nation. They have not been times when power was being centralized. This year could be another big year.

Years of Progress

Great days of governmental achievement have been times when power was twisted from the fists of a few and put in the hands of many, where it belonged. The occasions have been cited so often in high school orations that there is no reason to catalog them here, but this is worth remembering: The United States became a world power in record time because it was free. Mundane authority has always been in the right place; in the people.

It has been charged by some that the recent great concentration of power in the New Deal's bureaucratic organization has led to the abuse of authority. If true, it is a blessing in disguise, for nothing could ever demonstrate the evils of over-centralized power so plainly and so quickly as the abuse of authority. It is the nature of men, when they acquire great power, to abuse it. Trying to remedy the evils of bureaucracy is useless, like perfuming a skunk. The only remedy for a nuisance is disposal. The more indignation the better at puppet rule anywhere.

It is clearly time for government to start decentralizing again. Nations are like men: Relieved of the necessity of thinking and working, they unmistakably drift back toward the primitive. Even the ability of people to govern themselves can be destroyed, simply by doing it for them. Nothing better could happen to America than to watch the stagnant bureaucratic power in Washington quietly drawn off and permitted to flow back to the state, county and township whence it came.

Why has the age in which we live developed unevenly? Why have the achievements of engineering been superb, the failures of government so abject? These are fair questions which can be answered nationally.

Rule of Procedure

There is wisdom greater than any man possesses. There are fixed laws that limit human discretion and determine sound judgment. Men can succeed only as they discover these laws and harmonize their own deeds with them. Men of science have succeeded because with test tube and micrometer, they have studied God's laws and followed along. Men of government have not.

Representative Hatton Summers of Texas, head of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, in an informal talk recently declared, "It can be proved as before a jury that it's God's will for government to emanate from those who are governed." I believe it, and suggest no evidence here except that a jurist of Mr. Sumner's stature says it can be proved.

An alarm-clock is a horrid thing sometimes, but it serves a useful purpose. Such are the stupid mandates from an assembly of miscellaneous misfits. Americans hate being bossed for no useful purpose, and now their sweet dreams of peace beneath the sheltering wings of an alphabetical brain-trust have been disturbed. They are waking up to do something about it. Congress has sensed a change in public temper, and has named a committee to investigate the use by bureaus of unauthorized authority, and their wasted man-power. Congress is to be commended. The people have representatives.

Wellman Exceeds Her Jeep Quota

By Harmon Scales

The Wellman Schools closed a very successful "Buy a Jeep" campaign April 21, with the final Victory Concert of the school year. This event netted $5,380.00 and since the campaign opened on April 2, $1,789.30 in Bonds and stamps had already been sold. Wednesday night's sales brings the total to $7,069.00 which exceeds our goal set by the Committee by $4,369.30.

The campaign opened with a Cake Walk on April 2. The highlight of the opening event was the sale of a cake that Baldrige Bakery of Lubbock donated to the event. The beautiful V-Cake sold for a $200.00 Bond and was purchased by Z. Gibb Phillips. Homer Slaughter was the heaviest Bond buyer.

"The six Victory Concerts held by Wellman Schools for this term netted 13,300. This exceeds the $6,000.00 goal by more than twice the amount. We are proud of our Citizens and want to do these many things in defense of our American Freedom," says Superintendent Jones.

SOME DON'TS FOR BATHERS, PICNICKERS

AUSTIN—Some timely advice to vacationists and picnickers was released from the States Health Department today by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

It was pointed out that, in view of wartime restrictions, vacation pleasures are apt to be limited to excursions and picnics at nearby lakes, rivers, and ponds of unfamiliar depths and currents, and without the usual lifeguard supervision associated with bathing beaches and commercial swimming pools.

"Swimming and water sports are beneficial to good health provided one's physical condition justifies this type of exercise," Dr. Cox asserted, "nevertheless, they possess dangerous possibilities if the rules of safety are disregarded."

The following simple rules for bathing and swimming in safety are suggested: at least one hour should elapse after a meal before entering the water; never dive into unfamiliar waters; upon the indication of fatigue, come ashore and don't re-enter the water; leave the water immediately, if chilled; do not re-enter the water when overheated; learn to float; the course, which is free. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

never attempt to rock a boat in a spirit of fun; never swim in water that may be polluted. Swimming close to or even a few miles below sewage outlets is inviting the possibility of acquiring diseases.

"Excursions, picnics, and swimming parties contribute much to a healthy, happy, normal life, which is especially desirable at this particular time when the whole nation is under the strain of war," Dr. Cox said. "It is by no means advisable to eliminate these excursions from our summer program, but it is important that they prove beneficial and not disastrous."
