Standing By Her Son In The Army

LUBBOCK, Apr. 24 — A West Texas mother who wants to do all she can to help her soldier-boy son, joined the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps today, and was inducted through the Lubbock station, headquarters for the West Texas District.

The mother, Mrs. Mary Louise Hood of Borger, Texas. The son, Henry M. Hood, Jr., is a member of the United States Army.

"By joining the WAAC I feel that I am making it possible for another soldier to get in there and fight by Henry's side," explained Mrs. Hood. "The way I look at it, that means he'll just have double protection and a double chance to come back home when we win this war."

Mrs. Hood has been employed by the Continental Carbon Company of Sunray, Texas, as a bookkeeper and stenographer.

Pvt. and Mrs. C. H. Brittan are here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gunter of the Pool community. They are located at Wichita Falls, where Pvt. Brittan is taking training at Shepherd Army Air Field. Mrs. Brittan stated to the Herald Tuesday afternoon that they were liking their location fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom May, Ida May and Jo Pete, Mrs. Roy Ballard and Deenie, Mrs. Curley Edward and Jonelda, and Mrs. Bruce Zorns and Baby, spent Sunday in Amarillo visiting with Murphy. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brownfield, who were there on business, were in the party also.

Pvt. E. D. Duncan, 1104 Squadron, Pampa, Texas, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Duncan, Rt. 3 of this city.

Mrs. Satch Green stated this week that since Johnnie Winston had gone into the service, she was helping her husband paint and hang paper. They are now doing Joe Chisholm's home.

Pfc. Ira Seaton, of Union, who is stationed at Ft. Lewis, Wash., reports he enjoyed a nice boat trip by water to Victoria, Canada.

Pvt. Lewis Brown, of Foster, who is stationed at Camp Adair, Oregon, is home on furlough.

Short Raised To Rank Of Corporal

Garden City Army Air Field, Garden City, Kan., April 23—Ireland D. Short, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Short, Route 4, Brownfield, Tex., has been promoted to the rank of corporal. Cpl. Short has been assigned to duty at this basic Army flying school, as a parachute inspector.

Clifton O. Greenfield Made 2nd Lieutenant

FT. KNOX, Ky.—Second lieutenants' commissions were awarded today to 170 members of the 31st class of the Armored Force Officer Candidate School here.

Included in the class was 2nd Lt. Clifton O. Greenfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Greenfield, of Brownfield, Texas.

Thomas E. Hurley, Louisville, Ky., Christian Science lecturer and Field Artillery officer in the last war, assured the new junior officers that they could be sure they were fighting on God's side, that "He will be on the field with you, to guide, protect and sustain you."

He compared them with David, and described Goliath as the prototype of the modern Panzer division. David, in using a slingshot to fell his enemy, knew his weapon intimately. Goliath was taken by surprise by "this secret weapon," and "the defeat and destruction of Goliath were complete."

Lt. Gen. Jacob L. Devers, Chief of the Armored Force, and Brig. Gen. Joseph A. Holley, Commandant of the Armored Force School, also addressed the class.

Seated in the platform with the generals and colonels was Private First Class Paul Bowman, 44 Armored Force Clerical student, whose son, Lt. Truman R. Bowman, 20, was one of the graduates.

Sam Chisholm And Emmett Smith Do New York

A recent letter from Ensign Sam Chisholm, USN, located at Boston, stated that he and Emmett Smith, former superintendent of Brownfield schools, had recently met in New York, and did the little old burg up in a rag.

Emmett is engaged as a technician in an ordnance plant in New Jersey. These two old country boys from Terry sure enjoyed being together.

Another Widow Has Four Boys In Service

Another good Brownfield and Terry county lady is numbered among those with four boys in the service of their country, Mrs. Ben J. Hill. Mrs. Hill has just returned from Waco, where she witnessed the graduation of Lt. Wade K. Hill, at the Blackland Army Flying School. Lt. and Mrs. Hill returned to Brownfield with his mother for a short visit before being stationed at Dell Vale, at Austin, where he will be issued a transport plane.

Mrs. Hill has three other sons in the service as follows: Lt. Kenneth W. Hill, care Postmaster, New York. (We can't give full addresses of boys overseas.) Kenneth entered the service Jan. 24th, 1942.

Pfc. Harold W. Hill, 50th Ferrying Sqdn, Rosecrans Field, St. Joseph, Mo. Entered service Oct. 31, 1942.

VICTORY BOOK CAMPAIGN REPORT

Mrs. Jessie Randal, chairman of the Victory Book Campaign, reports that 145 new books of fiction and non-fiction have been purchased and sent to the Air Base at Big Spring. One hundred and twenty-one dollars was collected during the drive.

Pvt. Emery Hulse Home On Furlough

Pvt. Marius E. Hulse, (Emery) to you perhaps, was home the past week for a short furlough from his training camp at Camp Claiborne, La. Emery was looking in prime health, and seemed to be taking his army training in his stride. He returned Tuesday to camp.

Just got to talk with him a few minutes on the streets, and while Emery of course likes the "baldies" much better than the swamps of Louisiana, he nevertheless finds much to commend in that section, as it is a radical change from this level, prairie country.

While he enjoyed his visit home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hulse, immensely, he seemed not to mind in the least getting back and on the job.

Lt. Fowler Assigned To Active Duty

ATLANTA—Arch Terry Fowler Jr., Brownfield, Tex., has been assigned to active duty with the fighting leathernecks, it was announced here today. He was ordered to lead Marines in battle after successfully completing officer's training course at the famous leatherneck base at Quantico, Va.

Lieut. Fowler, 26, is married to the former Miss Marjorie Ruth Allen, of Lubbock. The son of a farmer, he attended Texas Tech. His brother, Terrell F. Fowler, was with the Marines on Midway Island.

Jesse R. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jones of near Meadow, is now at Camp Endcott, Davisville, R. I. His wife is working in Brownfield. He has been in since January, but enlisted in August, 1942. When he completes his training there he doesn't know where he will be stationed. He is an MM 1/c.

RADIO REPAIR NOW ON PART-FOR-PART BASIS

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23.—Radio repair went on a tube-for-tube and part-for-part basis today.

A war production board order effective immediately, requires that an old part be turned in when a new one is bought or is installed by a repair man.

Excepted from the regulation are rural residents who can buy only by mail. Anyone who has lost the part to be replaced also can obtain a new one by certifying that the replacement is essential.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Trigg of Brownwood, are here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stricklin Sr., and her brother Jack Stricklin Jr., and family. Mr. Trigg will return to Brownwood this week. Mrs. Trigg will remain for a longer visit.

Mr. L. H. Bates, your Watkins dealer, is helping out part time each week at the Herald office. Mr. Bates is an excellent printer, having had years of experience at the business, and is a great help to the Herald in these times of short help, which we appreciate very much.

Mrs. J. T. Auburg spent Tuesday in Lubbock.

Insurance Companies Helping On Bonds

Several of the big companies, with agencies, branch stores or plants here, are helping a lot in the 13 billion loan drive here.

It has been stated to the Herald that a number of these companies had not considered the matter until it was called to their attention by their agents or managers here, but when it was, the big companies, or at least most of them, thought the idea was grand, and took right to the matter.

When it was put up to the heads of these companies, which have headquarters in other cities, attention was called to them either by the committee here, or their agent or representative, that part of their money was made in Brownfield and Terry county, and that people here had an idea that inasmuch as this was true, they folks felt that they should divide their purchases wherever they had a branch or agency, according to how much their annual business amounted to here. It seems that at least two big insurance companies had this idea before the matter was taken up with them.

Southwestern Life Buys $10,000.00 In Bonds

Bruce Zorns, local agent of the Southwestern Life Insurance Co., of Dallas, showed us a letter Monday from President C. F. O'Donnell of the above named company, stating they were sending their check for $10,000 to the Brownfield State Bank, specifying what series of bonds they wished to buy. This is to be applied on the Terry county quota.

The letter stated that the Southwestern was buying $9,000,000 of bonds on the second loan of 13 Billion dollars, and that the company had purchased $24,000,000 in government bonds since Pearl Harbor. This company was represented here several years by County Judge C. L. Lincoln, who built its business up from the ground. Later Graham Smith purchased the agency and ran it until entering the service. Since then, Bruce Zorns has been the local agent here.

Amicable Takes $25,000 Block of Bonds

In a letter recently received from President Holt Massey, of the Amicable Life Insurance Co., of Waco, to their local agent, Robert L. Noble, they inclosed a draft made to the First National Bank of this city, for the sum of $25,000, for the purchase of 2 1/2 U. S. Treasury Bonds, all to be credited to the Terry county quota. Mr. Noble took this agency just a few years ago, when he moved here, and has gradually built up the company to its present number of local policy holders, and perhaps loans here on property.

The only condition to be met is that the draft must be back to the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas by May 4th, and that is a real easy requirement. Incidentally, Mr. Massey has a motto, all his own, we've not seen before: "Japan for the Japs; scourge them back."

Experiment With New Type Of Grass

LUBBOCK—An experiment to determine the value of African love grass as a feeding grass is being conducted by the plant industry department at Texas Technological College.

Three steers, owned by the animal husbandry department, have been placed on approximately one acre of the grass at the college farm to see if they keep it grazed down.

After one month the animals will be weighed and their gains in weight will be recorded.

This type of grass appears to have a great deal of promise for range land, Dr. A. W. Young, head of that department, stated.

To Honor Veterans And Men In Service

The William Guyton Howard Post No. 269 of Brownfield, is working jointly with the Ladies Auxiliary, and through a special appointed committee comprising of Judge C. L. Lincoln, Riley W. Carlton, Brownfield, and Lois Riney, Wellman, a program has been arranged to honor all fathers, mothers, and wives of men in the present war, also to do honor to veterans of World War I.

An interesting program is being planned for Thursday night, May 13, starting promptly at 8:30 P. M., at the Legion Hall where by all men now in service and veterans of the first war will be honored at this time.

Judge Lincoln's committee has secured the promise from Captain Warren C. Freeman, Special Service Officer, South Plains Army Flying School, Lubbock, to furnish the program of any talent. Entertainers will consist of Music, novelty numbers, dance numbers of colored soldiers, and probably a short talk by one of the leading Post Chaplains.

This program will be for the benefit of Terry and adjacent counties. There will be no admission charge as the public is cordially invited to attend.

Guests will be invited to register. The American Legion Auxiliary will be hostess to the wives, mothers, and sisters of our boys now in service.

Open Ice, Feed Business In Seagraves

T. J. (Jack) Grigg and W. F. (Jack) Jackson, of this city, are preparing to open an ice and feed business in Seagraves in the immediate future. If you ask us, this will be the business that Jack built, if you get what we are hitting at. To say the least, both men are well known in Brownfield, and no better business men are to be found.

Both are square shooters, and we feel sure the business will soon have a good patronage in our sister city to the southwest. Mr. Jackson will move down there to take charge of the business, the ice being supplied from the plant here. Mr. Jackson stated that they would deal in ice and feed, and that they would buy farm products, such as poultry, eggs, and cream.

Airplane Factory Employs Boys, Girls

To meet the demand for more aircraft sheet metal workers, the Fort Worth plant of Consolidated Vultee Corporation is now hiring boys 16 years of age who have been trained in NYA war work centers.

Boys who have either completed high school or who have been out of school for at least 6 months after finishing the 8th grade are eligible for this training at NYA centers in Ranger and Burnet.

While training and living together at the centers for periods of around 6 weeks, the boys receive board and room, work clothes, medical care, laundry and $15.90 per month in cash. Immediately upon completion of the course they are accepted by Consolidated Vultee to work on special shifts assembling spars, wing bulkheads and doing other types of sheet metal work in the Fort Worth plant, where they are paid 50c per hour, 40 hours per week, plus 75c per hour for 4 hours training each week.

Girls 17 to 24 years of age are also accepted by NYA for training in radio, machine work and welding, receiving the same allowance as the boys and living in supervised dormitories at the same centers.

Those interested should write to the NYA Counselor, 1207-13th, Lubbock.

It Is Always Easy To Criticize

It is always the easiest matter in the world to criticize the other fellow, and many times we do so when we fail to understand all the circumstances. Then too, right at this time, when the stress of war an long hours on account of short help or inefficient help, our nerves may be a bit on edge, and we say things occasionally that we do not mean. But a public criticism is a criticism, just or unjust.

A criticism came from one of the speakers Monday night, and was aimed at the press because there was no larger crowd on hand Monday night, to be entertained by a guest speaker. The critic remarked that he was mad and wished the press had someone on hand to hear what he had to say. Well, the Herald happened to have one. And the Herald was the paper he mentioned that had one of the articles, the main one, over on the inside of the paper. The other paper, said the speaker, did not print it at all.

The Herald editor had the article in question put up to go in a 2 column box with 24 point headlines and to run on the front page. But fate willed that the editor go to the hospital Thursday morning with an aching, jumping infected tooth, and we failed to tell the personnel just where we wished the article run. We are very sorry.

We believe the press gives as much or more of their service to various drives, scrap drives, USO, Red Cross, bond sales, as well as the production of Food for Freedom, than any other set of men in your town. The press is called upon by various other agencies, clubs, schools and churches of the town. They give and give and give. We feel certain if the number of inches run in the Herald each week was charged for at the regular rates, they would bring in $15 or $20 in revenue. Believe it or not, newspapers are one business in your town that ran way behind the 1941 income last year, despite a big crop and high wages.

It seems that it is only the big boys at the national headquarters in Washington, or of the state, that try to understand the handicap papers are running under, now, especially small town weeklies. We have on file several letters from men like Treasurer Morgenthau, Donald M. Nelson, and others, that have complimented the press for their activities in different drives.

The speaker of Monday night did not make mention of the very large crowd that was brought to town last Monday week, by the judicious and FREE use of the press. Let us examine just a minute. Lots of people are putting in long hours these days, and some of them go home and work in their Victory Garden, and are therefore too tired to go out, even to hear a man stutter.

As faulty as the press may be, it never presumes to tell the other business man how to run his business, about the makeup, position, etc. We may have been too damned modest too long for our own good.

Other exhibitors were: Mr. A. A. Slaughter, who brought two fine Hereford heifers; Mr. W. J. Cason, who had the best junior boars and gilts; Francis Mathes, who brought his registered Jersey bull—and H. A. Dean and J. O. Wimmerly, who won first and second in the Jersey Heifer Class.

Tubbs of Shantytown, High School Play

Friends of the Brownfield schools, especially those who like a lively home talent play, will have their wishes appeased, tonight, April 30th, at the high school auditorium, when the West Ward school stages that fast moving comedy-drama, entitled, "Mrs. Tubbs of Shantytown." The play begins at 8:30, and is FREE.

The purpose of the play is to sell War Bonds and Stamps. While no one is under obligation to purchase, the students will be pleased to accept your purchase of bonds and stamps. The characters will be composed of teachers and pupils of the West Ward School.

Pressure Cookers To Be Rationed

College Station — Because the supply of pressure cookers is so far short of meeting the demand, all pressure cookers produced in 1943 will be rationed.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture will allocate the cookers to the states, but no other details of this phase of the rationing program have been announced, according to Winifred Jones, specialist in food preservation for the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. She says during 1943 material for only 150,000 pressure canners has been released by the War Production Board to three manufacturers, through the efforts of the USDA. Because of the rationing plan, the manufacturers will fill no orders from individual users.

Miss Jones says the war-time cookers will be made of steel rather than aluminum, and will be equipped with a flat rack but no basket or pans. The cover will have a protective tin coating, while the body will be enameled. Capacity of the cookers will be seven quart jars. The specialist emphasizes that these tin and enamel coatings scratch more easily than aluminum, so they must be given special care. Scratches cause the steel base to rust, and rust weakens the walls of the cooker.

"Avoid sharp blows, over-heating, boiling dry, or cleaning your cookers with hard, abrasive powders," Miss Jones warns. Heating grease or fat at high temperatures in a tin plated cooker may cause the tin to melt, so the cooker should not be used for rendering lard or searing meat.

No shortage in glass jars or jar seals is foreseen unless the greatly expanded food preservation program causes a "run" on canning supplies. There is no restriction on the number of tin cans that may be sold to home canners.

Old Ben Franklin had the right idea about bureaucrats and various and sundry bureaus way back at the dawning of our republic. Listen to what he had to say at the Constitutional Convention at Philadelphia in 1787: "There is scarce a king in a hundred who would not if he could, follow the example of Pharaoh—get first all the people's money, then all their land, and then make them and their children servants forever." Dictators and bureaucrats have not improved any since the birth of our country.

Victory gardens may be slim in this immediate area, unless rain comes soon. They are already showing the wear of warm, dry weather and scant rainfall. Fortunately he that is prepared to irrigate until rain comes. We understand that many in town are making application for water extensions to plats on vacant lots near the gardener's property. As stated in these columns a few weeks ago, the city now has permission from the WPB or some alphabet to grant these extensions, and for the purchase of additional piping, providing as many as 5,000 square feet of garden was to be irrigated. And, too, further providing that the WPB has not makes a red-blooded American want to go up there and kick about two-thirds of them out on their ears. It takes a lot of precious time of the congressional committees, thrashing out their differences, and keep productions in high. One day one bureau will assert one thing to be the "pure kale," only to have another the next day brand it as a d--- lie. How do the people know where they're at when all this mud-slinging is going on? You tell us.

Sitting no better with the plain people at home, who are doing all in their power to furnish sons for the service, money for bonds, and Food for Freedom, to hear of a lot of goldarned, monkey-faced miners and others striking for higher wages, when the coal they mine must feed the maws of the steel mills. The pampered and the petted unions somehow think they are somebody come to town, and that every one was to wait their good pleasure, war or no war. Pity the poor, pusillanimous pups cannot be delivered over to a Hitler for a few months. It would break them from sucking eggs.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

An Armistice Not Acceptable—Fight To Finish

Farmers carry on a war of their own that never ends. There will never be an armistice. No peace treaty will ever be signed. It is a merciless guerilla warfare of a thousand local engagements that forever fluctuates, now one side winning, now the other. Even to hold the enemy is victory. Not to hold him is potential disaster. With all farm produce needed as badly as they are now, clearly the battle against the insects takes on added importance. Or is it clear enough to all?

A submarine sinking a shipload of food is a dramatic menace. Everyone knows at once that something must be done about the danger of the submarine, whereas, the insect, quietly consuming that same shipload morsel by morsel, may be over an area of many acres, does not attract so much attention. Bugs don't often make the headlines. But the menace is no less real because it is more insidious.

Different Kind of Weapon
Weapons that can be used against these insects are limited—bullets, bombs, bayonets and propaganda are useless... in fact, there is only one effective weapon and that is—insecticides.
Since a number of the former insecticides, such as derris, rotenone, arsenic, etc., are hard to get, due to the demands of the armed forces, Watkins fly spray will fill the gap to your entire satisfaction in protecting your Victory gardens, shrubs, and the like, from these unwanted pests.
Of course to use the spray full strength would kill the plant as well as the insect, but mixing it with the right proportions of soap and water will get the job done, thus saving a great deal of food at very little expense. See your Watkins dealer for complete information.

SMART GUY

"I want a shave," said the disgruntled old codger as he climbed into the barber's chair. "No hair cut, no shampoo, bay rum with hazel, hot towels or face massage. I don't want the manicurist holding my hand, or the bootblack monkeying with my feet. I don't want to be brushed off, and I'll put my coat on myself. I just want a plain shave. Now do you understand that?" The barber never batted an eye, but he asked, "any lather, sir?"—Clarendon Leader.

SALUTE—AMERICAN STYLE

No industry is doing a better advertising job than are the railroads. Individual companies and the railroads as a group are carrying in the newspapers and magazines of territories served, advertising that builds pride in our institutions and confidence in our ability to produce and deliver the goods.

Not only is the wording of the copy inspirational in its nature, but the illustrations stir one's blood as they picture the tremendous sweep of this country and the motive power that links it from coast to coast and border to border.

Here is advertising which impresses on our people the mighty resources of our land, and the ability of the greatest railroad system in the world to handle them.

A paragraph from one advertisement paints the American railroad picture when it says: "A friendly wave — that's the traditional salute between the farmers and the men who run the trains. Together they are learning from the heartaches and hardships of war, how necessary they are to each other—and to the preservation of their precious privilege as free men to salute each other American style, with a friendly wave of the hand."

As you will note from an ad in the Want section, B. Martin and J. R. Trout are offering the Tokio community hall for sale, they being on the board of trustees. Others may bring stuff to be auctioned by Mr. Frank Bozeman, that day, if they wish.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fields of Lubbock were the guests of Miss Fields and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dallas Sunday.

J. E. Shelton Puts Us On Our Guard

Had a letter recently from J. E. Shelton, who until recently was a valued citizen of old Terry, but who got the wonderlust and moved off down Cisco way, but is still a close reader of the Herald, it would seem. Anyway, he read where we came near getting the daylight's shook out of us recently at Amarillo by a WAAC, a native of Ohio, who didn't relish too much what we had to say about the native sons of that good old state "pulling badgers" in the early days here.

J. E. says he's tickled that we are up, and able to attend conventions, but "lows as how it might not be discreet to get a northern WAAC to hold a badger. As we remember it, J. E. got here about 1917, just about the time badger fights ceased to exist, but he no doubt witnessed a few.

Now, J. E., we don't exactly invite trouble, but if we still had Uncle Jack Coble's old "badger dog," and that gal ever comes to Brownfield, we'd risk a trip to the hospital just to see her pull one from under the tub.

Mr. Ralph Ferguson was a business visitor in Odessa, Monday.

NOW! You Can Have A "QUICK CASH" Pre-Arranged Funeral Payment Plan

WHEN DEATH COMES there is an immediate need for cash to cover the cost of Funeral and other "Last" expenses.

THIS "QUICK CASH" (Pre-arranged) Funeral Payment Plan, which we now offer you, provides the immediate cash when most needed.

WE HAVE ADOPTED THIS PLAN—and now earnestly recommend it for your consideration, because—

1st. IT IS A CASH PLAN—one that will permit you to call the Funeral Director of your choice.

2nd. IT IS PAYABLE TO YOU ANYWHERE IN THE GOOD OLD U. S. A.

3rd. IT IS THE EASY MONTHLY PAYMENT PLAN—within the means of every family.

4th. IT IS AVAILABLE TO FAMILY GROUPS OR INDIVIDUALS—and without medical examination.

The West Texas Burial Association was organized by a group of Funeral Directors in West Texas for the purpose of offering to their friends a Safe, Dependable, Low-Rate protection that all could afford. This is not a so-called "Service Policy" but a CASH POLICY—one that may spend part or spend all with the one you wish to handle your loved ones whenever the Death Angel may call.

We invite you to visit our office in the Knight Furniture Store, first door west of the Brownfield State Bank. We will be glad to give you any further information regarding our plan.

May 1st Named Child Health Day

AUSTIN, Texas, Apr. 26—Asking the cooperation of all Texas parents in a campaign to stamp out preventable diseases and insure the highest possible health levels among the children of this state, Governor Coke Stevenson has followed President Roosevelt's example in naming May 1 Child Health Day.

Urging the State-wide cooperation in this campaign for child health promotion, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today, "There is no more important phase of national health than that of child health and the tragic annual death rate from diphtheria and smallpox is indeed hard to understand when we remember that science has long since produced a successful and safe immunization against both these diseases."

Dr. Cox pointed out the vital importance of child health to the total strength of our nation, and urged all Texans to exert every effort to conserve and protect child health not only through the application of positive health measures but also by reducing the incidence of the more devastating childhood diseases.

Young children who are taught personal hygiene, who live in clean homes, whose diets have been carefully supervised and whose young bodies have been made immune to the ravages of such diseases as diphtheria, smallpox, and typhoid fever stand an excellent chance of growing into strong, healthy, useful citizens," Dr. Cox said. "It is these boys and girls whose strength and health we are safeguarding by Child Health Day, who will be the leaders of that victorious and peaceful era which we are fighting to bring about today."

Terry Lou Moorhead spent the weekend in Brownfield, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Moorhead.

Making Ration Books At Home

Uncle Sam's Ration Books No. 1 and 2 cover a good deal of our daily needs, but the Ration Books we make at home are just as important. Unlike Uncle Sam's Ration Books, the home-grown sort are unlimited. They are counterfeiting ration cards in Germany, but we are not talking about counterfeits when we say "home-made" ration books—they are as genuine as a dish of beans or a platter of steak for which we give up a handful of those precious "points" from Book No. 2.

It's like this: Victory Gardens go a long way in season, on the daily menu, but that's only half the story. During their prime there will be some surplus over daily needs, and that's the making of the extra "ration book." Two pounds of snap beans or about three pounds of tomatoes will fill a quart jar, three or four pounds of Lima beans will shell out a quart of delicious "Baby Limas," and so on. Every can or jar that is filled would cost a certain number of points if bought on the market.

To put it another way, a bushel of tomatoes in the can is worth about 300 points, a bushel of snap beans about 416 points, a bushel of Limas about 436 points. A bushel each of these three items grown and processed at home adds up to 1,272 points, more than twice the quota for canned vegetables in Uncle Sam's Ration Book.

This sort of home-made ration books saves the official coupons for buying a variety of processed fruits and vegetables which cannot be produced at home, all of which belongs to the "home front" where the Civilian Defense armies must do as good a job as our boys in uniform are doing on the battle fronts.

Baptist Church News

Services were all fairly well attended last Sunday in this church with 343 present in the Bible study in time to be counted with a good number coming late. The young peoples choir furnished the music both morning and evening. The resurrection day of our Lord was on the first day of the week or the Lord's day and the early churches of New Testament time observed the day as a day of worship which was the day following the Jewish sabbath or our Sunday and it is fitting that each Sunday we observe this resurrection by meeting in our churches for worship. The offering of this church was started which is to be used to establish a place of worship for the Mexican people who have moved to this country and are in great need of a place where they may teach God's word to their own people and there is no more worthy missionary work anywhere and it is hoped that other churches who are missionary minded may assist that this building may be what it should be. These people have chosen to live as our neighbors and it is highly important that we assist them religiously in every way possible.

HARD TO DIGEST

In testifying before the Truman committee which is seeking information on the possible coal strike and the problem of holding down wages, John L. Lewis said: "One way to get cooperation is to give the workers of this country enough to eat . . ."

With coal miner's wages around $1 an hour, it is hard to digest such a statement. In the best-fed country in the world, the public would not want to see any group of persons going hungry, but it would like to see more proof that a hunger condition exists with men who are being paid $1 or more an hour.

If these men are going hungry, a large percentage of the people of the United States are also going hungry, for it is probable that a majority of them do not make the average monthly wage of the coal miner.

We are face to face with the question of when this nation will call a halt to the constant inflation of war wages. Inequalities may remain that need correction in particular cases. But the day of the grand hold-up on threat of strike must end or we might as well kiss any check on living costs goodbye.

It may be interesting to some to say that letters from service men to the church or pastor may be read publicly from time to time which may help us all to appreciate fully the difficulties of our service men and while they are in the front lines we want them to know that we at home are praying for them and for their return to us safely again not in body alone but in their moral and religious lives.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

by BOYCE HOUSE

"With nothing to ride in And no chance to roam. It ain't hard deciding There's no place like home."

Texas has the largest state guard and yet spends less on it than any other state in the Union, according to my good friend, Major Charles O. Betts, adjutant of the State Guard Officers Association. Members of the Texas Defense Guard are trained in the use of rifles and machine guns, in chemical warfare, how to block roads and to improvise hand grenades. They are available to aid civil authorities in suppressing riots and insurrections and to help repel invasion. They are a vital part of the defense of our state. They are performing a fine patriotic service and they deserve every encouragement.

Neither the officers nor men receive a cent of pay, and they do not want pay. They buy their own uniforms, provide their own transportation and much of their equipment. They want the State to help them get equipment that they are not personally able to furnish. New York spends nearly $8,000,000 a year for its defense guard. Texas—with its long coast and boundary and its immense area—last year appropriated, through the State government, about $65,000. The T.D.G. would like to see this amount boosted next year to at least $450,000—which would be less than 10 per cent of the appropriation in the inland state of Illinois, with less than half as many guardsmen.

Sign in a General Motors plant: It Can't Be Done.

According to the theory of aerodynamics and as may readily be demonstrated through wind tunnel experiments, the bumblebee is unable to fly. The size, weight and shape of his body in relation to the total wingspread make flying impossible.

But the bumblebee, being ignorant of these scientific truths, goes ahead and flies, anyway.

In a speech on the floor of the Texas Senate the other day, a Senator denounced a member of the faculty of the University of Texas for some comment on public affairs—and then the Senator went far beyond that; he asserted that no man on the public payroll has a right to express himself on public officials or public matters. All citizens are entitled to free speech. Does the Senator contend that a member of the faculty of the State University is not a citizen? Would the Senator want to turn the training of the next generation of citizens over to instructors who would be willing to give up the blood-bought Constitution-guaranteed right of free speech? If we allow the Senator to padlock the lips of State University faculty members and of public school teachers, then you and I as private citizens will be next, if we say something that displeases the Senator.

"SNACKS" ARE GOOD FOR PEOPLE

LUBBOCK—Here is good news for people who like to eat between meals or indulge in surreptitious "snacks." "The frequently expressed idea that eating between meals is bad no longer holds true," says Dr. Mina W. Lamb, assistant professor of foods and nutrition at Texas Technological College. And she goes on to explain about "snacks": "A few restrictions and specifications have to be included, however, if the present day axiom of 'Eat wisely between meals' is to be beneficial for us.

The value of between meal eating has been tested in numerous industries where managers had found a lag in the efficiency and production of workers during the latter half of the morning and afternoon. This lag was not due to fatigue or over-work, for the workers did not recuperate as much from a rest period as they did from a "snack to eat." With the help of the snack, production could be maintained at the high level of earlier hours in the day.

Many industries have installed "lunch bars" and cafeterias giving the employees a chance to take time off for refreshments. These cafeterias and lunch bars are frequently non-profit making, the company bearing the expense of operation but being repaid in the greater efficiency and contentment of workers. More frequent meals are especially beneficial whenever the work is tedious or monotonously routine and the working hours are long.

It is not just what you eat but rather also what you eat between meals which has made between-meal eating an asset in the development and maintenance of health.

La Rue Ross spent the Easter holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ross.

KEEP ADVERTISING

In these war-time days of serious shortages in many kinds of merchandise made more trying by transportation problems, many merchants and business institutions are prone to see little benefit in continuing sending their messages to the buying public. Much evidence points to the fact that advertising messages should be continued. The long-range view brings to light the fact that once the war is over those firms who have kept their names and their products before the public eye will have a long head-start on the businesses that completely curtailed their advertising program during the dark days.

Big concerns and large corporations, hampered by the labor shortage just as the individual merchant is, are keeping their advertising messages going. Scan the pages of your daily papers and you will see their messages appearing frequently as they keep ready to race ahead on post-war business.

"Keep Advertising" is a good war-time slogan for every business. Your customers need to be reassured that you want their business, that you have many things they need and as complete stock as possible. Tell your buying public that you hope to keep serving them better than ever when the war is over. Point out in your ads the rules and regulations that you and they must abide by and make it clear that you are obeying these regulations fairly and impartially.—Lamesa Reporter.

Our Food Problem

By Frank Gannett
Rochester (N. Y.) Times
America's outstanding problem at this moment is food. Every one is beginning to find it difficult to get various kinds of food. Food is the main topic of conversation everywhere.

The distressing feature of the situation is that there is no relief in sight. Instead it will grow worse. The public does not yet understand how critical the situation has become, or how bad it is going to be.

One economist who knows much about the situation recently said that if we should have had weather this coming summer, we might have food riots by this time next year.

Food is absolutely essential for our army, our war workers, for our producers in all lines. Our people must be fed. Furthermore, there is a great demand for food for our Allies, so that they may better help win the war.

We cannot win this war without food. It is as necessary as guns, ships and tanks. All of us would gladly deprive ourselves of all food that we do not absolutely need for our existence, if that would hasten victory in the war. As bothersome as regulations are today and as frequently as our inability to buy the food we want, the food situation has not improved.

In 1942 a crop production record was established. We had several good growing seasons. This meant an accumulation of many varieties of food and also a great supply of livestock. It takes two or three years to develop for market cattle, sheep, hogs and other food-supplying animals, we must have an abundant supply of grains and proteins. For instance, it takes seven pounds of corn to give us one pound of pork.

The time is not far off when we will not have enough food to supply both animals and human beings. This means our meat supply will dwindle rapidly, whatever may be the production of grain this year.

As a result of last year's favorable weather conditions the nations elevators, warehouses, and the farmer's storehouses and barns were well stocked or filled.

It is difficult to visualize what will happen to the millions of people in our cities when the supply of canned goods is exhausted. It has been said that New York City, for instance, has on hand at any time, only enough food for a week. When the people living in apartments can no longer get canned goods, when meats are out of the question and the supply of fresh vegetables dwindles because of the increased demands for them, it is likely that millions of people in the metropolis will go hungry before many months pass.

Yes, as I said before, food riots may be possible within the year.

RECREATION, THRILL FOR
U. S. TROOPS IN AFRICA

CAIRO, Egypt—American Red Cross field men serving with the U. S. Army Transport Command in Africa have solved the recreational needs of the servicemen by organizing wild game hunts.

According to Red Cross Assistant Field Director William H. Waller, Benton Illinois, the American soldiers have hit upon a new method of bagging game, and the trustworthy Army jeep plays a big part in the hunts.

"Three men in our group have a new method of getting their game, especiall the gazelle," Waller said. "They find what looks like a good spot, and wait.

"Then two of the men creep into the center of the area and lie low. When they get set, the to his jeep, and starts driving in a circle around the two men.

"If there is any game around, the jeep is pretty sure to get it moving, and the boys in the center have a chance for a sporting shot."

Waller said that most of the game bagged by this group is given to the civilian population. Game available includes gazelles, boars, kudus, leopards, wild hens, grouse, quail, rabbits and doves.

"In other words, it's a hunter's paradise," Waller said, "especially if you have a good jeep handy."

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

The Command has Come—

"Attack!"

THE big push is on! This is the fateful summer that we have been waiting for. Hitler knows he must win before another winter rolls around, or face inevitable annihilation. And you can be sure that he will hurl everything he has—every gun, plane, soldier and tank—into the summer struggle that is even now rising in tempo on every front.

And when the command goes out to our fighting men to ATTACK—you can be sure they don't look for excuses. They don't hesitate. They strike fast and hard—as they did at Guadalcanal, in Tunisia and in the skies over Europe.

NOW the command has come on the home front to attack! To attack with the dollars that buy the weapons of war our boys must have to meet the last desperate assaults of Hitler. Your government asks you to lend it 13 billion dollars during this drive. And this historic 2nd War Loan Drive, which started April 12th, is the most urgent appeal America has ever made!

The time is short—act now!

When you attack with War Bonds you don't suffer pain or anguish—you don't risk your limbs or your life as millions of our boys are doing every day. All you do is make an investment—the safest in the world. You help to secure Victory now—and your own financial security.

During this drive if you are visited by a volunteer War Bond worker, welcome him. He will explain the 7 different types of U. S. Government obligations you may choose from. But don't wait for his call—go at once to your nearest bank or Post Office or place where they sell War Bonds. And answer the command to ATTACK by buying more War Bonds—and still more War Bonds!

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

It's Ten Minutes to Midnight!

Wake up, Americans...

Your Country's Most Fateful Hour Is Near

THE hour when the final die is cast, when decisive victory hangs in the balance. The hour which will decide the future of you and your children... a future of joyous freedom or a future of endless serfdom.

Yes, it is ten minutes to midnight. And when the first stroke of that fateful hour begins to sound, it will be too late to throw your weight into the fight. The time to do that is NOW.

Now, when your dollars can keep the production lines humming. Now, when your dollars can buy the tanks and guns and planes and ships our soldiers need to fight a winning war... the only kind of a war we can afford to fight. Now, while there are still ten minutes before midnight.

Your country is asking you to lend your dollars in greater amount than ever before. It is asking for 13 billions of dollars extra this month... 13 billions for the weapons of war to make sure that it is our side which dictates the peace.

If we do not win, the money you fail to lend now will be worse than useless to you. If we win, as we must, the money you lend now will be returned with interest... for you to spend on the good things of life... for you to enjoy in a free and safe world.

So dig down, Americans. Answer the challenge by buying War Loan securities this month with every idle dollar you have except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

Don't wait for the War Loan Volunteer. Beat the gun by going to your bank, investment dealer, broker, Post Office, or bond booth today.

Have your money in your fist... the fist that can deliver the knockout blow to the Axis. But hurry...

For it is ten minutes to midnight...

The hour that can strike the knell of doom—or the blessed song of freedom.

Your dollars can call the tune.

TOUGH GOING FOR OUR SCHOOLS

Texas lawmakers are going to raise the state apportionment for the aid of the public schools. The debate seems to be about whether the raise shall be two and a half or five dollars per capita. We don't know where they will get the money, but it is to be hoped that the larger sum will be settled on. Our schools face a critical year next year. For the past ten years salaries have been satisfactory, but they are so seriously out of balance now that next year it won't be so much a question of getting trained teachers as it will be to get even seventy-five percent of the number needed to open the schools. Since state apportionment only pays one fourth to one half of the salaries, a twenty percent increase in state aid would only permit a five to ten percent increase in local salaries. From there on the problem grows more acute. Meaning we'd have to raise more locally. And it is tough going.—Jimmie Rankin in Ralls Banner.

Council Meets

The Home Demonstration Council met Saturday, April 24 in the Commissioner's Court room at 2:30 o'clock. We had the roll call, then the Secretary's Report was read and approved.

The delegates then gave their reports of the District Meeting at Littlefield.

Our latest report on saving grease is we should put very little grease in our vegetables and each lady is asked to save at least one tablespoon a week. If every woman in the United States would save one tablespoonful a week we would have all we would need.

Before adjourning, we talked about changing the council meeting date, also talked about having a County-Wide Picnic.

MRS. ELMER EVANS PASSES

Mrs. Elmer Evans died at her home here last Saturday morning from illness. Deceased, aged 38, was born in the state of Arkansas. Services were held at the Assembly of God church at 11 A. M., Monday. Burial followed in the Memorial Cemetery, with the Brownfield Funeral Home in charge.

Survivors are, two daughters, two sons, a grandchild and one brother.

KEPT THEM ROLLING

Credit is due largely to the oil industry for keeping pleasure cars on the road. It spearheaded a campaign which collected nearly half a million tons of scrap rubber. A million men and women of the oil business, together with the industry's trucks and 400,000 filling stations, did the job.

Said Petroleum Administrator Ickes: "The results are now his story... My thought at this time, however, is that I earnestly hope that, because it is history, the campaign will not be forgotten. I hope that the American public may realize, and appreciate the fact that the scraps which they are getting were made possible because of that scrap rubber drive of last summer."

HATS OFF TO RETAILERS

The retail merchant has become the man in the middle—in the middle of that no man's land—where a fighting government collides with a fighting, consuming public. Both of these fighting elements are allies, but like most allies they don't get along too well sometimes. A spoiled public which has been in the habit of getting what it wants when it wants it from an incredibly efficient retail distribution system, cannot be expected to don the halter of shortages and be led about by dictatorial decrees without kicking the daylight out of a few regulatory fences. Unfortunately the retailers upon whose shoulders fall the responsibility of explaining and applying the restrictions, are the ones who get kicked most often. For that reason it is only fair to give them a pat on the back occasionally. They deserve it.

Retail distributors, both chain and independent, have shown amazing ability to interpret and put into practical operation literally thousands of new wartime merchandising experience. Most of the regulations carry heavy jail sentences and fines for violation. Laboring in the shadow of stiff penalties, thousands of merchants throughout the country work out the rules as they understand them, often without benefit of legal advice, and put them in force. They know it has to be done or the distribution system will break down, bringing disaster to the country. They try to explain this to customers, while striving to get the government to simplify and ease inequalities in the rules. Neither the public nor most government experts actually comprehend the heavy responsibility which retail merchants bear in helping to maintain economic stability during the emergency.

Consumers should be slow to criticize the retailer for inconveniences over which he has no control. The government should constantly seek to make burdensome restrictions less onerous. And both the public and the government should be less quick to accuse retailers of evil intent when one of ten thousand rules has been inadvertently violated.

Poisons Safe If Used Properly

College Station—Protecting Victory Gardens this year with poisonous insecticides is entirely practical if suitable precautions are observed, says Paul Gregg, assistant entomologist for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

Use of active poisons may become necessary where gardeners are unable to obtain enough so-called non-poisonous materials like rotenone and pyrethrum. Pests which attack practically all vegetable crops can be destroyed by toxic substances without undue danger to humans if properly applied and the vegetables and fruits are thoroughly washed and handled after harvest. These poisons include lead and calcium arsenates, cryolite, nicotine sulfate and specialty products, and the copper and sulphur fungicides.

On potatoes and other root crops where the tops are not used for food there usually is no danger. But where the tops are eaten, they should be washed thoroughly and not be sprayed or dusted within 15 to 30 days before picking. This period depends upon the type of crop, the materials used and the weather. Poison remains on the plants longer when it is dry.

Gregg says that peas, sweet corn and other crops protected by their own covering can be treated without special precautions if edible parts are well washed. String beans and similar vegetables should not be treated after pods begin to form. Cauliflower and broccoli should not be treated with poisons when heading or after edible parts begin to form, and Swiss chard and beet tops should not be treated during the 30 days before harvest.

The most important thing to remember, Gregg cautions, is to wash thoroughly after picking all vegetables which have received poison treatment.

WILL THE LEGISLATURE
REDISTRICT TEXAS

Governor Coke Stevenson indicated Monday that he may ask the Legislature to do something about judicial and legislative redistricting, a little matter that has been hanging fire since 1920, whereas the Constitution makes it mandatory that the Legislature redistrict after each decennial census.

Representative Harley Sadler of Sweetwater has a legislative redistricting bill pending which would give West Texas six new representatives. Since the population of West Texas has increased enormously since the last reapportionment in 1920, Sadler's proposal for six additional representatives for West Texas seems unduly modest. Yet hearings on his bill have been postponed several times because some members objected that they hadn't had time to consider it. That is another way of saying they haven't had time to find out just how much of it might affect their own personal political fortunes. That is the one and only reason redistricting hasn't been done in 23 years—pure, unadulterated selfishness on the part of the legislators, who are afraid their private playhouses might be disturbed by realignment.

Redistricting should be taken out of the selfish hands of the Legislature and given to a non-political body which would act automatically after each census, reappportioning the districts according to population with absolutely no reference whatever to any man's personal political fortunes. That would be the sensible and fair way to handle it, but since the Legislature would have to pave the way for this change in method and since it is inhabited by too many men who put selfish interests first and foremost always, there is no hope that this will ever be done. No man in the Legislature should have the power to defy the constitutional mandate or to cut himself a piece of pie by gerrymander. — The Abilene Reporter-News.

Haven't seen a word about it in the papers—not a single cheep about it over the radio. But nation-minded Washington is ready to spring another surprise on the country unless the signs can't be read. Something else, something new, is going to be rationed—and just like some other things—and just like some other things, we're sure there is no shortage. They've made up their mind that it's time to ration crackpots and bureaucrats, and the voters who called for a New Deal in 1932, 1936 and 1940, but who did not call for it so loudly nor vehemently in 1942—have—

EMMETT BLAND PASSES

Emmett Stewart Bland, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bland, of Meadow, Texas, passed away Wednesday afternoon, April 21, 1943.

He is survived by his wife, a bride of one month and four days, the former Lanelle Clark; his mother and father, three sisters, Mrs. Jack Henry of Tahoka; Mrs. H. D. McDonald of Seagraves; and Mrs. Charlie Darnes, of Grants, N. M., and his brothers, Elzie Bland of the home, and Roy M. Bland of Ruston, La.

Emmett was born April 10, 1912, in Gilland, Knox county, Texas. He was 31 years and 11 days old at the time of his death. He had lived in Lynn county 22 years prior to moving to Terry county three years ago.

He had gone to the field to work, and was found by the side of his tractor. A chronic condition, or a heart attack is thought to have been the cause of his death. The doctor stated he had been dead several hours when found.

Burial was in the Tahoka cemetery. Funeral services were conducted at the Church of Christ, at 2 o'clock by Garnie Atkinson, assisted by Alvis Byron.
