Finishes Mechanics School at LAAF

Lubbock, Army Air Field—Cpl. Riley O. Decker of Seminole, son of Mrs. T. A. Decker of Brownfield, graduated today from Aircraft Mechanics School here.

LAAF is an advanced pilot training school, where Uncle Sam's Air Force is giving its heavy-weight aviation cadets and aviation students the final lap of their flight training in bi-motored AT-17 Bobcats.

T-Sgt. Perry Selected For Officers Training

T/Sgt. Max Perry came in from Camp Forrest, Tenn., Monday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Perry, of west of town. He has been selected to take officers training but did not state where he would be based.

Sgt. Perry stated that the Tennesseans were among the most hospitable folk he had ever met. They do everything in their power to make the soldiers' stay in their state enjoyable. Sgt. Perry said that he had seen people from that state prepare ice water for the soldiers when they were on hikes and stopped near their homes. In his opinion they are good examples of southern hospitality.

Pfc. Owen Herron, who is stationed at Kelly Field, Tex., left Tuesday after spending three days here visiting his father, W. A. Herron. Pfc. Herron has just completed training as classification specialist, and is now ready for active duty. He has been in service ten months.

Pfc. Malcolm Scales keeps getting a bit nearer home. He is now located near Brownwood, at the Army Air Base there.

Reported as missing recently by the War Department, was Seaman 2/c Chas. H. McCoy. His mother now resides in Dallas. His grandfather, E. L. McCoy, resides at Meadow. No information was received as to what war area young McCoy was located.

Pvt. Jack Browder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Browder of this city, has been transferred from Sheppard Field, Texas, to Las Vegas Gunnery school at Las Vegas, Nevada. Pvt. Browder will be stationed at Las Vegas for six weeks, after which he will be sent to a radio school for advanced training. Browder has been in military service since October 30, 1942.

Linuel E. McCrary, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McCrary, has been moved from San Diego, to Ocean-side, California, and has been promoted from private to the rank of private first class. Pfc. McCrary who entered the marines 4 years ago, attended high school here and was employed at Latham Dry Goods company at the time he entered service.

Sgt. Daniel Davis left Tuesday for Bryan army air field, after spending his nine-day furlough here visiting his wife. Sgt. Davis is with the post office at Bryan Field. He has been in service for about two years and received his basic training at Lubbock army air field. Davis was a cotton buyer in civilian life.

S/Sgt. Roy Duane Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harris of this city, has recently been transferred from Waco army flying school to the Lamesa army air field.

R. B. (Sonny) Walls, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walls, has been promoted to the rank of seaman first class from seaman second class. Walls is now stationed at San Francisco, California.

Local Girl Training For WAVES In New York

Johnnie Ruth Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts, formerly of Brownfield, has arrived at Hunter College, New York City, to begin training for the WAVES.

She enlisted at Amarillo, Texas, where she was employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Ruth attended grade school in Brownfield, and was a 1941 graduate of Leuders High School.

Sailor Jim Cousineau Calls On Herald

Like most sailors, Jim Cousineau will talk plenty off the record, but you don't glean much information that would be calculated to help the enemy. Jim spent the winter in Alaska in the construction section of the navy, to get quarters prepared for our soldiers.

Only a talk with a fellow like Jim will make one realize just how cold it gets up there. He says the ice gets so hard and thick on airplane runways that to remove it would ruin the concrete. Well, you just can't imagine how hard ice gets up there, he said.

And those williwaw winds. You ought to hear him describe them. They blow up and down, across and around you, and lots of times the rain seems to be going up instead of down. Made us feel cold to hear him talk about it.

An Interesting Letter From John Dumas

Had a letter last week from our old friend, John Dumas, who is a Seabee in Uncle Sam's navy. John has known this editor from childhood, and can therefore have a better conception of what we stand for than people that have been here only a few years.

In this letter John does not mince words; he calls a spade, a spade, and incidentally that the navy does not teach sailors anything but to be respectful to all people, old and young.

We thank John deeply for coming to our defense, and we have filed his letter, and if we have any more come to hand that are of the insulting kind, we're going to turn John on them in all his fury, and he has plenty of it.

Possibly John would not have had to go into the service for a long time as he is a married man with two children, but he did. John also lost a brother in the last war in Europe, whose body was shipped back after the conflict of 1917-18, and lays in the old cemetery here, as all old-timers will remember.

John was brought up by some grand old parents, Uncle Mose and Mrs. Dumas—the salt of the earth. And he had almost as soon hear one abuse them or their memory as to abuse one of his old friends.

State Guard Delayed In Maneuvers

Russia is not the only army having trouble with the rain and mud. Our local unit of the State Guard was all fitted up in full equipment last Saturday for a two-day encampment near Odessa, when a last-minute order informed them, because of heavy rains in that area, the maneuvers would be postponed.

Local officers think they may be called the latter part of this week.

Pfc. Duward R. Moorehead has been transferred from Sioux City, S. Dak., to Tampa, Fla. He has been changed from technical school to the classification center. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Moorehead of this city.

HONORS SOLDIER SONS WITH STEAK DINNERS

W. A. Herron honored his son, Pfc. Owen D., with a steak dinner Monday night at Thompson's cafe. Pfc. Herron was home on furlough from Kelly Field, Texas.

Dancing to popular records was enjoyed by Pfc. Herron and several young folk. About 20 friends attended the dinner.

Lt. Col. Banks Honored By Brazilian President

Army Air Base, Pueblo, Colo.—Lt. Col. Wilson H. Banks, who has flown four-motored bombers since their early days, has been assigned to the Pueblo Army Air Base as commanding officer of a training group.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Banks of Brownfield, Texas. Before beginning his aviation career, Colonel Banks attended Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas.

After graduating from the Army Flying School at Kelly field in 1933, he was assigned to Langley Field. While stationed there he was a member of the goodwill flight in 1939 to South America under Major General Delos C. Emons which demonstrated the speed and range of big bombers.

Following two years in Puerto Rico, first as operations officer and then squadron commander, Colonel Banks was assigned to the west coast of Central America as commanding officer of an anti-submarine squadron.

He came to Pueblo from a bombardment wing of the Second Air Force.

In addition to the Air Medal, he was awarded the Order of the Southern Cross and made an honorary member of the Brazilian air force by President Vargas of that country.

Meadow Accident Victim Has Leg Amputated

Janie Kathryn Tilger, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Tilger of Meadow, is in the Lubbock General hospital receiving treatment for an amputated leg, received in an accident at her father's farm late Thursday afternoon.

Janie Kathryn was riding on a tractor with her father when the accident occurred. The tractor was pulling a binder, and it is believed that the girls' slacks became tangled in the binder machinery, he child did not cry out and her father was unaware of the tragedy until her brother, who was riding on the binder, discovered the accident. The leg was completely cut off between the ankle and the knee, but Lubbock doctors had to amputate it at the hip.

Miss Lucille Tilger, Terry county A.C.A. employee, is at the bedside of her sister.

War Bond Rally Nets $4,000

An enthusiastic audience jammed the high school auditorium here Wednesday night, greeting the Lubbock army air field band and entertainers, who put on a fine musical show, in a bond rally. Geo. W. Dupre, attorney from Lubbock, substituted for Col. Simpson who could not come, in a patriotic speech.

Manager Nicholson announced that $4,000 was subscribed for at the rally. This brings the total bonds bought for the drive up to about $50,000.

It appears now that Terry county will fall far short of its quota, but it is pointed out that the quota being arrived at largely by the general bank deposits. It is not fair for Terry county, for these deposits include practically all of Yoakum county, a large area in eastern New Mexico, who also are doing their banking business with the two Brownfield banks, but their bond sales are credited to their own territory.

County Commissioners Buy War Bonds

The county commissioners, having a surplus of cash accumulated because of being unable to buy road machinery, have purchased $19,000 in war bonds. As they, for several years have had their accounts divided, largely under supervision of each commissioner, the bonds were as follows: Precinct 1, $5,000; Precinct 2, 10,000; Precinct 3, 1,000; Precinct 4, 3,000.

Virgil Crawford To Head War Fund Drive

County Attorney H. B. Virgil Crawford has been appointed campaign chairman of the Terry County War Fund drive, according to an announcement made by Frank M. McBroom, of Lubbock, field representative of the United War Chest of Texas.

The purpose of the campaign is to raise funds to assist our fighting forces, through the USO, and the war prisoner's aid, and to furnish medical supplies and food to the stricken people of the United Nations. Terry county will join the other communities throughout the nation to raise 125 million dollars.

The quota for Texas is $4,885,000. Terry county's quota was announced as $3664.00.

Mr. Crawford is drawing plans to develop a soliciting organization that will call on every person having an income, in order that all may have an opportunity to assist in this necessary part of the war effort. Solicitation will take place late this month or early November.

New HD Agent Assumes Duties Of Office

Miss Beest, the new Home Demonstration Agent, has arrived and has taken over the duties of that office, vacated by Miss Dorothy Blanton, who resigned some weeks ago. The officials and workers at the Court House, presented Miss Blanton with a nice farewell gift.

Rumor has it that she is to marry Friday night to Mr. Brent Lee, formerly with the health department here, and at present with same department at Lamesa, where they will reside.

Officials for "Getting Tough" With Crime Now

Fort Worth—The suggestion by Boyce House, Texas columnist, that juries "get tough" with criminals lest that element "take over" on the home front has met with enthusiastic approval of law enforcement officials.

District Attorney Fred Erisman of Longview, president of the State District and County Attorneys' Association, recommends the use of the "repetition of offense" and "habitual criminal" statutes, which have proved so effective that Gregg County's indictments have been reduced 65 per cent in the past few years because the word is out that "Gregg County is hot on ex-cons."

"Our country is threatened today by two enemies, one from without our borders, known as the Axis powers, and the other from the criminal element within our borders; these two classes of criminals must be dealt with in somewhat the same manner," thinks County attorney W. K. McClain of Georgetown.

"Personally I believe that our system of automatic eligibility for paroles when one-third of the time has been served works to the disadvantage of society more often than it does to the advantage of society," comments District Attorney Tom L. Hartley of Edinburg.

District Attorney Marvin H. Brown Jr., of Fort Worth states, "It is high time that petting and pampering of these gangsters, thugs and law violators stop and the public should begin to get after them in a whole-hearted manner with a view of discouraging at least, if not stopping completely their nefarious activities."

John Burnett came in this week to get the Herald started to his sons, Earl of the army and A. J. in the navy. John stated that A. J. was getting homesick, according to recent letters, and he thought the old home town paper he was raised up on, would help some to pep him up.

Miss Rose Falletta of Mobile, Ala., was a guest in the Chris Quante home the past week.

Election Of SCS Supervisors Slated

"Considerable interest is being shown by the landowners in Terry county this week over the coming election of a new board of supervisors for the Cochran-Yoakum-Terry soil conservation district No. 105, which is to be held on Tuesday night, October 5, 1943, at 8 o'clock in the district courtroom," declared W. G. McDonald, chairman of the board.

Mr. McDonald further stated at this time two supervisors will be elected in Terry county as follows: area 4, comprising precincts 3 and 4 of Terry county, less a 1-mile strip on the entire west side of the county, which elected one supervisor, and area 5, comprising precincts 1 and 2 of Terry county, will also elect one supervisor.

"It is to be remembered," said Mr. McDonald, "that during the past four years, Terry county had been a soil conservation district, along with Yoakum and Cochran counties. These districts were made possible when the Texas State legislature passed the state soil conservation law back in 1939. These soil conservation districts are operated by a board of supervisors, which are elected by the landowners of the counties in which they live."

This soil conservation district does not have any connection with any other agricultural program, but it renders service only in planning farms that wish to voluntarily come under its program, and this service is free for the asking. The main purpose of these district supervisors is to work with other agricultural agencies in advising and recommending various soil conservation practices that are suited to the counties in which they live.

If you are the owner of land, or the wife of a landowner, or have any interest in the title of land in Terry county, and you live within the district, you are eligible to vote in this election. Further, if you have any questions that you care to ask on the night of the election about this matter, there will be officials present to give you the desired election information. The election will be conducted by nomination from the floor, after a temporary chairman and tally clerks are chosen.

Mr. McDonald urges every landowner of Terry county to attend on Tuesday night, Oct. 5, and vote his choice to represent the district and by doing so this should further contribute towards more increased production of food and fiber to aid in winning the war.

Notice To Patrons Of Library

In checking our files at the Library, we found that quite a few of you have books out over the period of time allowed—in fact some, several months. This is to notify you that these books must be brought in, or replaced by books of like value, or your sponsor will be asked to stand the expense of the book or books.

The Maids and Matrons Club has gone to a lot of expense and work in preparing this library and furnishing you good literature to read, and the county is making it possible for the library to be open during the week for your convenience. Please co-operate in keeping the library up to standard, by returning all books when the time limit is up. Patrons are asked to sign new cards before getting more books, and if there are any out against you, these must be returned before you can be issued other books.

Library Committee, Mrs. J. L. Randal, Chairman.

Jacob Sandage dropped in to deliver us a fine 45 pound melon last week, and stated the wife was still in Arkansas, but heading back this way as far as Fort Smith.

Seaman first class Floyd Perry, located at Treasure Island, Calif., will get the Herald a year complimentary of the folks here at home. He is the son of R. B. Perry.

"This Is The Army" Show Has Big Run At Theatre

The nationally famous picture, "This Is The Army," is showing for the first time in Brownfield, and the second time in Texas, was screened at the Rialto Wednesday night, to an enthusiastic audience, who jammed the spacious theatre. This picture was made of entire army personnel, aided by Irvin Berlin, the great song hit writer of two wars, and his song, "This Is The Army, Mr. Jones," was played and sung at its best.

This picture recently ran the greater cities, second only to "Gone With the Wind," in popularity. Irvin Berlin waived all his royalties in it, amounting to several million dollars to the Army Relief fund. The entire proceeds of over $600, taken in Wednesday night, goes to the army emergency relief fund, a fund which aids our boys in the army, in ways not reached by the government. The use and expense of the Rialto in this instance by Mrs. Ethel Jones, the owner, is an outstanding patriotic example, for which she is to be highly commended.

In response to demands, and that others may see this patriotic picture, it will run at the Rialto Sunday and Monday.

The military band from the LAAFs at Lubbock, with sound trucks, and one equipped with four huge searchlights, entertained outside.

Cubs Down Lamesa In First Home Tilt

In one of the most thrilling games seen on the local gridiron in many a day, the Cubs took their old rivals, the Lamesa Tornados, into camp to the tune of 26 to 7 in a non-conference game last Friday night.

The visitors took to the air and gained 193 yards by this route, completing 9 passes. The locals completed 12 passes for a total of 141 yards.

On the ground, however, the story was entirely different. While the locals were reeling off 104 yards in running plays, a hard-charging Cub line shoved the Tornados back for a total loss of 18 yards, not counting the two penalties assessed against the visitors.

Brownfield's first score came in the second quarter when Perry plunged over from the two-yard line. Perry scored again in the third period as did Moore. Jones snagged a pass in the fourth for the final Cub score. Bobby Jones twice sent the ball sailing over the crossbars for extra points. The Lamesa score came in the fourth quarter when Hawkins took a pass from Roberts and raced almost the entire length of the field for a touchdown. Wise kicked an extra point. The locals led in first downs, 9 to 6.

Sammy Jones and Joe Snodgrass did fine jobs in the line for Brownfield. Roberts, Bratcher, and end, and Hawkins were stars for Lamesa.

Tonight, Brownfield plays host to the Seminole Indians, coached by Marlin Hayhurst, who held a like position in the local schools from 1928 to 1933, and for this reason the game should be of unusual interest. While the Indians are playing in Class A, they are by no means a push-over, a strong Hobbs, N. M., aggregation barely nosing them out 6 to 0 in the closing minutes of the game, last week. The Cubs have been making all the preparations for this team that they would an AA opponent.

Coach Bost stated there were no standouts on the team this year, all working hard and showing up well. More will be said next week about the team and their individual players.

The Cubb "B" team will play O'Donnell next Thursday night at Cub Field. Admission: 15c and 35c. Time: 8:30 P. M.

Jim Cousineau EMI and Mrs. W. L. Cousineau spent Monday and Tuesday in Lubbock visiting Mrs. Albert Allen of Plainview.

Doubling Capacity Of Goodpasture Elevator

Grady Goodpasture has almost doubled the capacity of his grain elevator just across the Santa Fe tracks on west Broadway. Not only that, but he is building loading racks 65 feet off the ground leading to the Santa Fe siding, so that grain cars can be loaded direct from the elevator.

They were just about ready to load their first railroad car, which had been spotted. Heretofore, most of the grain had left here in trucks but most of the grain is now being bought by brewers, according to T. A. Wartes, bookkeeper for the concern. There is too little margin between the price of grain and the ceiling price on meat, to feed grain, according to feeders.

And we might add that this also applies to dairymen, especially those who have to buy all their feed. One dairyman informed us last week that if OPA didn't make some change by this week, he was going to rent a pasture and turn his fine dairy herd on grass. He stated that it was almost impossible to meet expenses as it is and nothing for your work.

Another Big Elevator In North Brownfield

Ches Gore also has a huge grain elevator in north Brownfield, being the first one built here several years ago by a large statewide concern, and later sold to Ches. Ches and Grady Goodpasture, the finest of friends, mind you, buy a large percent of the grain. However, there are several concerns, notably the Ballard Grain Co., that has no elevator, but handles worlds of grain.

These firms have really put Brownfield and vicinity on the map as a grain collecting center. Representatives of processors from all over the United States buy grain in Brownfield.

Williams Refused New Trial

The motion for new trial of H. H. Williams, who was convicted of the murder of Richard E. Hodges, earlier this month was refused by Judge J. E. Garland, in District Court here Wednesday morning, after a hearing at which some testimony of Jurors was taken.

Williams promptly made bond in sum of ten thousand dollars and was released. His attorneys announced an appeal would be taken. Geo. W. Dupree and C. C. Crenshaw of Lubbock, represented the defendant, and Rollin McCord, District Attorney of Tahoka, assisted by Virgil Crawford, County Attorney, and Grover Engledow of Jayton, represented the State. All were present.

AMM Ben H. Tand, of the Naval Air Corps, stationed at Corpus Christi, and Mrs. E. H. Tandy of Weatherford, spent last week as guests in the Harry Longbrake home.

Mrs. A. A. Bradshaw was up from Wellman Saturday and showed us her son, Marine Kenneth Bradshaw's Purple Heart. It was the first we had seen, but had a good idea of them from colored illustrations in National Geographic.

Sgt. M. E. Brewer, who is stationed at Albuquerque, N. M., spent Thursday through Saturday here visiting his wife.

Mrs. J. B. Lee, of O'Donnell, spent last week here visiting friends and relatives. Her husband, Pvt. J. B. Lee, who is in the medical corps, is now stationed somewhere in India. Pvt. Lee is a former resident of Terry county.

Lieut. Harold Simms, who is stationed at Clovis, N. M., spent Sunday here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Simms.

A big effort to enlist more WACs and WAVES is on. They need the gals to replace men needed at the battle fronts.

The Pullman company makes the claim that they have moved 14 million troops an average of 15 passenger miles since Pearl Harbor in Pullmans alone. And then the statistician gets down to localizing. For instance they take the 11,100 people who live in Terry County as a comparison, and that would give each of us a ride clear around the world, 57 times. You feel like you've had that much travel?

American people are now thinking and talking in terms of billions. Millions was something to talk about two generations ago, but is all out now. The United States Chamber of Commerce is authority for the statement, that following the war, Americans will be ready to spend 25 billion dollars per year for cars, household appliances, homes and home furnishings we cannot now purchase, when such things are available. They also stated that American people are now saving at the rate of 35 billion per year, and will have an enormous surplus of cash to buy what they want.

Tens of thousands of country lads, such as you and I, will be qualified to do most anything in a mechanical way, as well as work on farms, in stores, etc., after the conflict. One big concern is said to turning out trainees at the rate of 500 per month. While our men are dying on the beaches of Italy and other places, we must train men and women to make what they need in a "know how" way, and do it better and faster.

In many sections of the country there are complaints that juveniles are the worst lawbreakers. If they are any worse in Brownfield than a generation ago, we have not noted it. But youths are much more indolent or lazy, if you wish, than just a few years ago. It is almost impossible to get boys to do anything after school or Saturdays unless you pay railroad president wages before they even get to where they are worth a dime to a firm. We know of several that have tried to get high school boys to learn their trade, but without avail. They rather elect to sport around town. One business man noted that three such youths in one of their dad's cars, drove around the square exactly 25 times one afternoon, recently. If their dads know what is good for these boys, they'll see that they get a job — and like it.

This is National Newspaper Week, beginning today. Many of the nation's leaders, including President Roosevelt, have paid glowing tribute to the benefits of the press to the nation, especially in war times, as well as during peace times.

Our good friends, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Heartsill, four miles west of town, are both confined to their bed, with illness. Mr. Heartsill has been down for over a year, and Mrs. Heartsill recently suffered a stroke, rendering her unable to be about.

Supreme In Circulation

Our editorial efforts are going to be about as scarce as hen's teeth this week, which probably won't be read anyway, and most of the stuff we could write about, we can't do anything about anyway. One of them is the weatherman, darn him. He sure played a sour trick on us the past week, and now going on another. It has been cloudy almost day and night all last week and up to now on this one, with a bare little sprinkle once or twice. We chronic rheumatics can feel just where our summer BVD's end, so much that we have had to turn on Herman Heath's gas to be comfortable, way before we aimed to do so. Maybe the Weatherman decided on a long period of cloudy skies in order that the younger generation might see where the rain came from, if they were not actually permitted to see it rain. So much for the Weatherman.

You folks that have been inclined to criticize local dry goods stores because you can't get young boy's clothing, can let up on them, for apparently they are just not being made. Why, is just another guess. Yes, you can buy ready-made clothing for the little girls, but manufacturers seem to have forgotten that there is almost if not as many boys as there are girls being born, and growing up. Ladies that have tried Lubbock for boys clothing seem to have just as much uphill effort as at home. Also, the mail order catalogues don't seem to help matters. Maybe we'll have to dress our little men like the little women until they become youths.

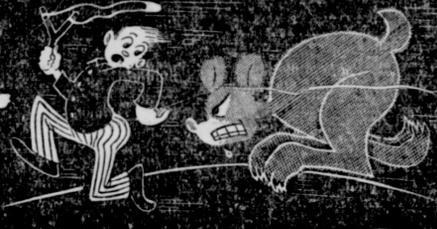

CARD OF THANKS

May we take this method of thanking our many friends and neighbors for the acts of kindness shown us in the death of our dear wife, mother, sister, and grandmother, Mrs. W. M. Green. We want to thank our friends for the lovely floral offerings and other methods of consolation. May God be with you in your time of trial is the prayer of W. M. Green, E. G. Green, E. M. Green, Roy L. Green, Mrs. G. C. Lewis, Mrs. J. M. Walker, Mrs. J. W. Bishop, and Mrs. Dorman Dumas.

YOU DON'T HUNT BEARS WITH A SLINGSHOT!

... and you're sure hunting trouble when you put cheap, "will fit" replacement parts on your John Deere tractor and farm equipment. When you put such parts on a John Deere machine, you're not repairing it—you're seriously impairing the working and wearing qualities of that machine.

So be wise—buy only genuine John Deere parts for your John Deere equipment... they're made from the same patterns and by the same skilled workmen as were the original parts. Remember, too, when you buy John Deere equipment, you're sure of prompt repair service during its long life. We make good this promise.

ANOTHER OLD PIONEER GONE TO REST

Georgia Ann Riley was born May 14, 1866, at Douglasville, Ga., having been reared by a widowed mother and two sisters, who made their living as best they could as tenant farmers.

At the age of 12 the family moved to Arkansas, and when she was 14 years of age, she was united in marriage to William M. Green. To this union was born six children, two of whom preceded her in death. The living children are Elmer Green of Amarillo; Emmitt M. Green of Tatum, N. M.; Roy L. Green of Amarillo; and Mrs. G. C. Lewis of Brownfield; also thirteen grandchildren and nine great grand children; one sister, Mrs. J. M. Walker of San Angelo.

In 1862, with her husband and baby, the little family moved from Arkansas to McLennan county, Texas. They also have lived in Brown, Coleman, and Hamilton counties until 1898, at which time the family moved to Greer county, Okla., where they resided for eight years, coming then to Yoakum county and on to Terry county, then back to Yoakum county and on to Lea county, N. M., for a few years, returning to Terry county in 1922 where they have made their home near Wellman since.

She passed away of the local hospital at the age of 77 years, four months, and 11 days.

She was just an old-fashioned wife and mother, always very true and devoted to her family and to her many friends and neighbors. Her friends were numbered by those who knew her. She always thought of the welfare of others, always willing and anxious to help those who were in sorrow or in need.

She was converted while living in Arkansas in 1882, under the preaching of a Methodist minister, the Rev. Jones. She united with the Missionary Baptist church in Hamilton county, Texas, in 1886, under the ministry of Rev. Hood Vinson, and was baptised in the Leon river near the Gann school house. Her work and labor is now over, but her influence and kindly deeds live on.

County Agent Has Report On Turkeys For Army Use

A. L. Hartzog, county agent, has just received the following information from L. R. White, quarter-master market center, Ft. Worth.

1. Army will accept only young turkey hens, grade A or B, weight 8 to 13 pounds blood and feather dressed.
2. Only young toms, grade A or B, weight 14 pounds and up, blood and feather dressed.
3. Only old hens of grade A quality.
4. No old toms accepted.
5. Processors have information on ceiling prices.

The producers are discouraged from marketing any turkeys that are not fully matured and will not meet the grades specified above.

The producers are to be congratulated on their cooperation to supply the needs of the army. The majority of turkeys for early deliveries have been received and every effort should be made now to get the later hatched turkeys in shape for later marketing. These turkeys will reach the soldiers for their Christmas and New Year dinners.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Holy Stone

Cleanliness is the first order of every American soldier and sailor and the United States Government spends millions upon millions of dollars to keep our fighting men as clean and as healthy as circumstances will permit.

"Swab the deck!" cries out a petty officer and the men fall to with their "holy stone" equipment and in a short time everything is spick and span.

Some Free Advice To Our Farmers

In spite of adverse conditions, a fairly large feed crop will be made, perhaps as much or more than last year, as there is said to be much larger acreage. Every head of feed, big, little, old and young, white or red, is the same thing as a diamond in the rough—it has a tremendous potential value. It means meat for the table, eggs and butter, hides for shoes. It means food for the fighting front and the home front—save all of it.

And old king cotton is reported to be turning out a bit better than was expected for awhile. Did you ever notice that it always does dry years? Of wet years you have a large stalk, and you think you'll get a whale of a lot of cotton, but many times you are fooled. But the smaller stalk, well loaded with bolls will generally fool you, too. You get more cotton than you expected, and it also gives the "corp experts" a headache at times. In cotton we have clothing, bags and tents for the soldiers, and other innumerable uses, and the seed makes a fine grade of oil that in turn makes a fine substitute for lard and butter. The meal and hulls are too well known as protien feed to need our comment.

With maize and similar grains making a fair yield, and no feed below the cap to speak of for hundreds of miles, that stuff is going to be like "apples of gold in pictures of silver." We borrowed the above from Solomon's Proverbs, but it sounds good to us. Maize fattens the dumb beasts, and some dumb beasts are good to eat. Then, there is a fair pea crop, and it takes "p'int's" to buy them at your grocery. Some have taken loads out to Arizona, and came back with just about all the money they could wag. Don't waste the peas—or the beans. Hungry people want them and, they are good eating, either speckled or red.

The OPA has been trying to saddle off soybeans as food on us west Texans—no soap. They are something most people here don't savvy. Fat yearlings and porkers are still high. Too high, in fact to feed out if you have to buy the grain. And the meat is too high for us 'pooh white trash," but maybe the highly paid factory workers can get around a $3.00 T-bone occasionally. The dairyman that buys feed is having a hard time making both ends meet. No buttermilk the past week to speak of. Good gosh! We had to drive out in the country to get a jar of that fine liquid last Sunday.

Miss Patsy Ballard, daughter of Mr. Frank Ballard, was recently pledged to Ko Shari Social club at Texas Technological college. She will take her pledge oath at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Holden of Lubbock Sunday night.

Now, as to the advice. If you farmers get hold of too much money, we'd consider a loan. We knew you wouldn't hear that part of it.

Baptist Church News

The pastor being absent last Sunday the pulpit was supplied at the morning hour by pastor Hardin of the church at Tahoka, and in the evening by the pastor guest of the Gomez church. Each of these visitors brought very helpful messages from God's word and had a good hearing and we will be glad to welcome them again in our church. Sunday was promotion day in the church school and new teachers and officers who will conduct the school for another year were introduced to their respective departments and next Sunday they will be fully in charge. Horton Howell is the superintendent for the ensuing year and desires a full measure of cooperation on the part of all the officers and teachers that the Bible may be taught as it should be and that the attendance of the school may be increased in every class and department. Progress in this work can only come as a result of teamwork with responsibility on the teachers and their classes to bring it about. That many children and young people of this community do not attend any study of the Bible is well known and it is the job of Sunday school workers to bring about a change which they can do by concerted effort. The influence of early Bible teaching to children will show throughout their lives and it is a known fact that few young people ever reach houses of correction by the state who have attended the study of the Bible for any extended period and such habits early formed often go with them throughout their lives. It is well known that parents are not teaching the Bible in their homes as of old and the church school must do it if it is done.

If it reaches the eyes of the parents who have children not enlisted in Bible study will you not now insist they enroll at once in an organized study as the moral training of your child is not less important than a public school education.

Services

On Sunday morning as you sit in church and see the vacant places in the choir and wonder where the war has taken the young people from your community you may feel certain that they are attending divine services if circumstance permits.

Chaplains and choral leaders are found on the larger ships and even abroad in the Army centers. Millions of hymnals have been distributed to the men and women of all services and you may rest assured that a portion of the savings you are placing into War Bonds is used for their spiritual welfare.

JUG HEAD—is U. S. war slang for the much maligned Missouri mule, who still is called upon to haul guns for the mountain artillery. Your purchase of War Bonds is not spectacular but it is your duty to back up our invasion armies with invasion dollars in War Bonds.

I Give You Texas

John Randolph of Roanoke (Virginia, of course) was the master of biting wit. A constituent, who was quite a bore, said, "I passed your house the other day." Randolph replied, "I hope you always will."

However, Randolph lost one bout. In his day, Washington was unpaved and, in crossing a muddy street on a plank, he found himself face to face with his enemy, Henry Clay. Randolph, a little man, drew himself up to his full height and said, "Sir, I never give the way to a scoundrel." The tall and stately Clay stepped into the mud, bowed and said, "Sir, I always do."

Texas public schools are facing a shortage of teachers. Some of the little rural schools may not be able to open. While Texas soldiers and sailors are shedding their blood and giving their lives to preserve freedom, what are the Statesmen at Austin doing to meet this crisis on the State's own front—a situation that threatens the opportunity in life for thousands of future citizens? Our proud State should give its own boys and girls an equal chance with those of the "politically potent East"—(I've heard those words somewhere before). I submit that this is even more important than whether an "A" coupon is worth four gallons or only three gallons of gasoline!

Nomination for the world's worst joke:

Merchant — What are you scratching your head for, Rastus? Darkey—I've got 'rithmetic bugs in mah haid, sah.

What are arithmetic bugs? Dey's cooties an' I calls dem dat 'cause dey add to mah misery, subtract from mah pleasure, divide mah attention and dey multiplies like de dickens.

One of the most interesting men I ever met had been a Confederate soldier who refused to take the oath of allegiance after Appomattox but fled to Mexico, where he joined Emperor Maximilian's army. With the fall of Maximilian, the veteran sailed for Europe, fought in a Balkan war, the Franco-Prussian war and the Spanish-American war. After all these adventures, he took a job as a printer with the Baird Star. A bachelor, the hero of many wars was a favorite with little children for he regaled them with candy and stories of battles—serene old age after a life filled with action.

Texas Farm Income Up 38 Per Cent

AUSTIN — War time's steady gain in farm cash income was continued in Texas during July, as agricultural income during the month totaled $74,000,000 as compared with $57,000,000 during the same month of 1942, the University of Texas Bureau of Business research has announced.

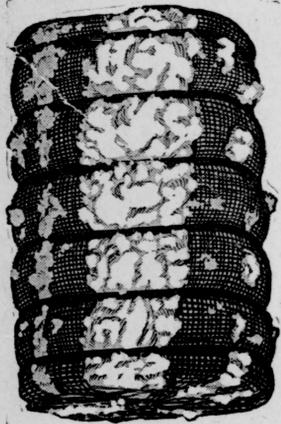

Higher prices for farm products rather than increased production accounted for most of the gain, Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director of the Bureau, pointed out. Farm cash income so far in 1943 has reached the figure of $464,000,000 or 38 per cent more than that for a corresponding period of last year, Dr. Buechel revealed.

"For the remainder of this year, the farmer's cash income will closely approximate that of 1942," Dr. Buechel predicted. "Earlier maturing of cotton and the slightly higher level of cotton prices may bring small increases, however."

A college professor asked Alexander Kerensky the following question: "What is the thing in America which impressed you most when you first came here?" "That is easy," was Kerensky's answer, "In America the people smile: Americans smile because they are free. There are no Gestapos to fear; no firing squad to shoot them down if they want to listen to their radios. They can put into office the man they want to govern them. They can worship God according to the dictates of their conscience. Americans smile because in America human personality is supreme. The aim of democracy is to help the individual to grow and to give him an opportunity to attain happiness and success. Americans smile because they have hopes. The future is all agleam with promise. They can have their families, their gardens, their homes, their dreams—and they can make many of those dreams come true. Totalitarian countries have governments that are 'of the state, by the state and for the state.' That's why life is hard and cruel. In America we have a government that is 'of the people, by the people, and for the people.' That's why we smile. Today we are fighting to keep America a land of smiling people."

Women at Work for a Railroad at War

America needs millions of women to take over war jobs... to stay with those jobs... to help speed the day when our fighting men will return victorious!

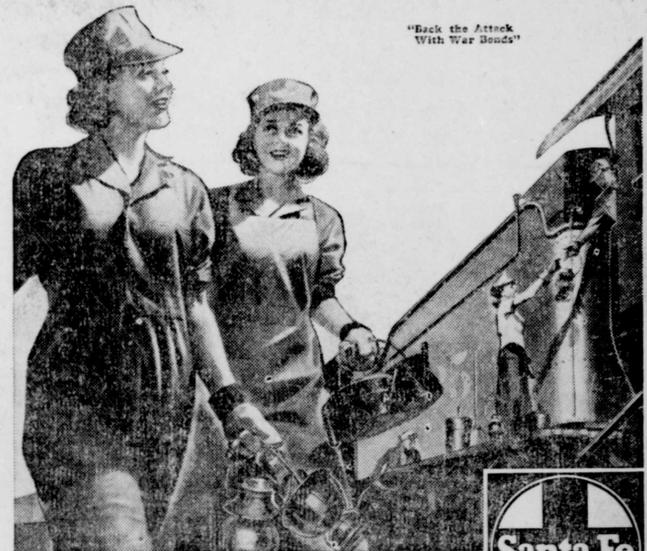

Santa Fe women are answering this call all along the line.

Right now thousands of Santa Fe women are doing war-vital work to "keep 'em rolling." Many are pitching into "unglamorous" jobs... greasing engines, operating turntables, welding shovels, working in blacksmith shops, and cleaning roller bearings. They take pride in their work, too!

Many of these women have husbands, sweethearts, brothers or sons in the armed forces. Many came to work to replace a Santa Fe relative who had been called into service. Others took jobs because they knew womanpower must step in when manpower goes to war.

☆ We of the Santa Fe salute these women who know that what they are doing is vital to Victory!

Tuesday night, September 21, at 8:30, the Brownfield F.F.A. boys had a watermelon feast on the high school campus. They had as their guests Mrs. Gore, the home economics teacher, and the Home Ec girls. After everyone had eaten all they could of the 50 watermelons, they played games until about 10 o'clock.

There were about 25 girls and 30 boys present, and everyone had an enjoyable time.

American Farmers Back The Attack

College Station — "The record of the American farmer on the home front match that of his sons on the battlefield—and that is the greatest compliment I can pay," Marvin Jones, war food administrator said.

The American farmer was on the offensive before the war started. He had produced more food in 1938 than in any previous year in our history. In 1939, he produced even more, and still more in 1940. At the time of Pearl Harbor in 1941, and the 1940 record had been broken.

Jones pointed out that the American farmer was already in action at his battle station when Pearl Harbor was attacked. The nation's warehouses were filled with the largest reserve supplies of food in our history.

When war was declared, the farmer did even better. In 1942, in the face of farm labor and machinery shortages, he beat the record of 1841 by a full ten percent. "And this year, the American farmer's answer to the increasing difficulties was to plant ten million more acres than last year, to milk more cows, to raise more pigs and to feed more cattle than ever before, in his determination to 'Back the Attack,'" Administrator Jones said.

"The September crop report indicates near record yields on the including meat production, the largest food production of any largest acreage in ten years, and year in our history—breaking all previous records once more, for the sixth consecutive year.

"Nor is that all. Our program for next year calls for still greater food production. We expect to get that production on a voluntary basis. We will tell the farmer what is needed, help him get the labor and machinery needed, and give him prices that will see him through—then depend on him to do the rest. I know that he will do his part and 'Back the Attack'."

SCARLET FEVER ON THE INCREASE IN TEXAS

Austin, Texas, — Scarlet fever, now considerably above the normal incidence in Texas, is one of the more disabling and dangerous diseases usually associated with childhood, although actually it is confined to no age limit, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"Scarlet fever is an acute infectious disease, the onset of which is sudden. First symptoms include sore throat, vomiting, fever, and headache. These are followed by the red rash which gives this disease its name," Dr. Cox stated.

"Scarlet fever is an acute infectious disease. Three to five days after exposure to the disease the first symptoms, fever, sore throat, and headache, appear and a day or two later the rash appears. Complications may cause prolonged disability or death. Children suffering with scarlet fever may have sinusitis and middle ear infections that can lead to mastoiditis. As the germ spreads through the child's system, the joints, kidneys, and heart may become involved, causing life-long invalidism.

"A child with any kind of a sore throat should be seen by the family physician promptly. If scarlet fever is present, the treatment recommended will do much to alleviate discomfort and reduce the possibility of complications," Dr. Cox said.

The child with scarlet fever, or scarlatina, a common name for a mild scarlet fever, really is a sick child, Dr. Cox declared. In fact, he is likely to be far more ill than he appears to be. To be safe, the child under fifteen years of age should remain in bed during the acute stage of the disease.

She is survived by her husband, W. C. Kennedy, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kilgore, of O'Donnell, and eight children.

Drive Carefully About School Grounds

Austin—Despite the fact that last year set an all-time low in accidental deaths connected with the nation's schools, R. B. Rooper, president of the Texas Safety association, today urged Texans to exercise extreme caution in driving habits this month.

"We owe it to the soldier, overseas fighting for the freedom of his children, to see to it that those children are not killed at home due to carelessness," Rooper said.

The safety official quoted figures from the National Safety Council showing that accidental deaths of school children in 1942 decreased seven percent from 1941, and attributed the improved record to safety education. He pointed out that since 1922, the year a definite safety education program was launched, accidental deaths of school children have decreased 30 percent.

Rooper stated, however, that only one out every three deaths of school children last year was caused by a motor vehicle accident, and urged school officials to see that accident hazards in the schools themselves are minimized. Thirty-six per cent of the accidents last year were on the school grounds or in the building—a third of those in the building occurring in the gym and half of those on the grounds happened in unorganized play.

The safety association head asked school superintendents to take advantage of the state department of education's offer to give credit for safety courses taught in the schools this year.

Till Read Makes Crop Without Rain!

Who said the west side of the county will not produce crops? As evidence of what can be done, Till W. Read has been showing some heads of Milo maize. This is well matured and the heads are of good size. He has 40 acres of Milo, 35 acres of Higera and 20 acres of cane. The feed was planted right after the shower of rain June 6 and the only rain that fell on the crop was a shower July 14. This is remarkable that such feed can be grown with so little rain.—Yoakum County Review.

It is the hardest matter in the world to keep this old sandy soil of Terry, Yoakum, Gaines, and Cochran, as well as portions of Dawson and Hockley counties from coming through with some kind of a crop, depending on the producer.

Take Till Read, for instance, we'll be willing to lay a bet of a ginger cake to a doughnut that the cockleburs, Johnson grass and the thistles are not as high as the feed in his field, and that though dry, his stuff has had some cultivation.

There are some sections of Terry county where they have had quite abundant rainfall this year, but no crops. The "crops" of such "farmers" consists principally of the above named weeds and pests.

JAYTON CHRONICLE AN ALL GIRL PRINT SHOP

No doubt you have heard of the "All Girl Orchestra" on the radio many Sunday nights. Well, the Jayton Chronicle force is now practically an all girl force. When Tom Wade joined up with the U. S. Marines last week it was one of two things—either close the doors of this shop, or the girls take over, and the girls took over.

Alice Wade is now linotype operator and book keeper. Esther Wade is Local News and Advertising solicitor, and between them they do the floor work. In case of emergency they call in the Postmaster, W. E. Wade, after hours.

One by one the Wade boys have come into this shop and done their turn and going from here to greener pastures and fields where future prospects were brighter. Seven of them in all. Now we are out of boys and the girls take over and will continue to give the people of Kent and adjoining counties the best small town paper published in Texas.

F. S. Dad is still "boss" around here. Without him Esther and I couldn't get this paper out. And he just dares any kind of "female recruiting officer" to come around here!—Jayton Chronicle.

Women Being Trained For Store Work

Monday afternoon, October 4, at 2 P. M., in Mr. Vernon Brewer's room in the East Building of the highschool, there will be a meeting to organize a Wartime Sales Training Course for housewives, wives of men in service and high school girls and boys, who are not in school, and wish to secure retail training may attend this meeting. The various retail stores in Brownfield are going to need approximately 125 salespeople this fall.

This course will cover training in store routine, basic sales techniques, business personality and acquaint the new employee with some of the wartime selling problems.

Any of the above individuals who can work full or part-time, can be of great assistance and make a definite contribution to the local merchant and community.

These classes will be conducted by Miss Gertrude Prince, who is employed by the University of Texas and the Division of Extension and the State Board for Vocational Education.

Mrs. Raymond Reynolds and Mrs. R. R. Reynolds left Monday for Camp Roberts, California, where they plan to spend two weeks visiting their husband and son, Pvt. Raymond Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Price, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cornelius, Mrs. S. T. Miller and Mrs. Joe Price attended funeral services in Lubbock Sunday for Mrs. Gertrude Anderson West.

The crowing Germany is doing about the abduction of Mussolini brings to mind a story about Civil War days as told by Irvin S. Cobb. It seems a Yank trooper was out single handed to capture a position known to be occupied by a single Rebel. When firing from the Confederate hangout had ceased completely, the Federal advanced cautiously by a flanking movement, and with a fixed bayonet, sprang up before the lone Confederate shouting, "I got you!"

Johnny never moved. He sat on a rock with his hands on his knees his empty rifle at his feet, his hollow eyes showing his hunger and exhaustion, his ragged uniform and his shoeless feet attested to the poor provision he'd had from the quartermaster; and without where they plan to spend two weeks looking up he said through his whiskers, "Yeah, and a hell of a git you got."—Jimmie Rankin in Ralls Banner.

Marion Bowers, Tech student, spent the week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bowers.

JOHN STEINBECK CABLES FROM LONDON

"I HAVE SEEN the soldiers come down from the ships and stand in long lines on the docks, their 'B' bags on their backs and their rifles slung over their shoulders.

"I have seen the supplies come in by the hundred shiploads, locomotives and tanks and trucks—acres of boxed food and great mounds of hams, shiploads of bombs stacked in from keel to hatch and all materials that we need at home—steel for bridges and buildings, food for our own people, material enough to make all America well fed and well housed and well clothed.

"I have seen the men climb into the Fortress in the early morning and fly away waving with elaborate nonchalance and I have seen the gap in the mess when they did not come back and the empty bunks, the blankets thrown aside as they threw them, and the framed photographs on the steel lockers.

"The men have gone up the gangway again to go into action and they jump from landing barges to a beach, strewn with the bodies of their own people, and they claw their way like animals into a hostile coast.

"I have seen the hospitals with the mauled men, the legless and blind, the fingerless hands and the burned faces—all the destruction that steel and fire can do to a man's body and mind. In God's name, what is it for except to get this horrible thing over with as quickly and as thoroughly as possible? And if this is true, it should not be a matter of 'Who will lend his money?' but 'Who dares not to?'"

TECH TO PROVIDE FOR CIVILIAN STUDENTS

Lubbock, September 16—Texas Technological College is not neglecting its duties and responsibilities to Texas boys and girls who wish to attend college. Although there are a large number of army trainees on the campus, young men and young women will find satisfactory rooms and boarding places in private dormitories and homes near the campus. One college dormitory has been reserved for women. Those women students who cannot be accommodated in this dormitory will find approved rooms in private homes near the campus. All men students must find rooms in private homes, and all students, men or women, who room in private homes will find satisfactory boarding houses near the campus. Since three of the college dormitories have been turned over to army youths as barracks, the college has made every effort to list desirable rooms in private homes so that regular college students may find satisfactory living quarters. The Low Down From Hickory Grove

It kinda makes an ordinary duck scratch his dome, this morning to night talk about where somebody has a real plan of making our country over—overhauling it complete. You would think that Jefferson and the others were a grand flop and didn't know beans about organizing a country. Here we are, producing more guns and ammunition than the rest of the whole world combined but they still say we gotta let 'em make us over. The Land of the Free has carbon in its valves, they say. The folks sponsoring this overhaul, and who crave to make our land into something where everybody leans on the Govt. versus on themselves, have not come up the hard way. None of the present fix-everything-pretty crew ever crossed the icy Delaware in a boat in the dark. Washington figured that each person should profit in proportion to how much he cared to sweat.

To make a long story short, it is like Confucius say. He say, "Sometimes Engine need valve grind — sometimes just Engineer."

I GIVE YOU TEXAS by BOYCE HOUSE

There was a traveling pianotuner who used to stop at the small hotel in the West Texas town where I ate. He was a good checker player and was very serious about it. One night, I declared I could give him the full 12 checkers and I would take only four, not "kings", either, and wouldn't let him reach the king row.

He accepted the challenge and a group gathered around. He placed his men in regula position for the start of a game and I put my four in line just one move from the front line of his men. It had been agreed that the first move would be mine, so I moved a checker forward and he jumped it. Then I moved another, which he jumped, while looking closely for a "trap". When I moved the third one to be jumped, everybody in the room (except my opponent) saw what I was doing.

Then I shoved the fourth and final man forward to be jumped and all the onlookers roared. I hadn't said I would beat him, but only that I would not let him reach the king row. For a moment he glared across the board. Then the humor of the situation struck him and, as he jumped the last checker, he chuckled, "That's one on me, all right."

My very first chum was the mascot of the town band. One day, he went to the bayou and an older boy, who was a good swimmer, invited Stewart to climb on his shoulder. A treacherous undertow drowned them both. At the funeral of the little fellow, the band played softly "Nearer, My God, to Thee." You can understand why, all through the years, that song has been associated with the tragic remembrance of my friend.

One of the richest men in our town would pay a bill only when he had to. Maybe that's the reason he was rich—he kept his money so long. It is related that he put in a hilarious weekend and was sleeping late on Monday morning. Someone knocked at the door. Gotrox yelled, "Sue and be d...." then rolled over and went back to sleep.

THE LOW DOWN from HICKORY GROVE

If sauce for a goose is sauce for a gander, then I am up a stump about why an army man is forbidden to seek public office. Doing so is "verboten." That word "verboten" is the cornerstone of the German system. And if we must drive German arrogance from the face of the earth, why the Sam Hill do we start forbidding something ourselves?

I am on the subject on account of picking up the Buffalo, South Dakota, Times-Herald. The old coyote editor there can sure ask questions. "If a Sergeant or a Lieutenant-General cannot seek office," he says, "how come the commander-in-Chief can do so—he is not forbidden?" That is a 100 dollar question.

And while we are on pertinent questions like this old Coyote editor is asking, I remember one that was also sort of humorous, but was easy to answer versus being difficult. It is the one about the gent who was telling how his wife was always asking him for money. And the fellow listening said, "what does she do with all this money?" And the first gent said, "Well, so far," he says, "I haven't given her any."
