Thanks the Jaycees For Horned Frog

Had a letter from Staff Sergeant Louis Peeler, a former Meadow boy, requesting a change in his address. His paper will be in care of the San Francisco postmaster, so evidently Louis is to head across the pond soon.

In the letter he stated that his crew had received a horned frog from the Brownfield Junior chamber of Commerce, and says they surely appreciate all the effort and trouble they went to get the little fellow.

He hopes he Herald will pass along the thanks for the crew of the "Little Jo Toady." Good luck and be sweet, Louis.

DIPPING DEMONSTRATION AT THE BROCK FARM

County Agent Hartzog demonstrated actual dipping of cattle to control lice at the L. L. Brock farm Thursday. A large crowd of farmers and stockmen were present.

Mrs. A. W. Turner left Tuesday morning for El Paso to be with Mr. Turner who underwent surgery last week. He is reported to be doing better.

Largest Draft Call Received This Week

The largest call for draftees, was received last week, when 165 will respond today for physical examinations. It was estimated about 120 will go from here, the others, although registered here, have been transferred to other places, where they now reside.

About half of these are recently reclassified from deferred grades, back to 1-A, the other half are 35 to 38 years old, including many fathers.

Sheriff Price Bids Farewell

For the past three years I have tried to answer every call by our citizens and the courts, for my official services, I am now answering Uncle Sams call, for wider service, to combat greater criminals. I wish to thank the good people of Terry county the land of my birth and raising, for your kind friendship and support, and for the kind expressions of so many lately, and when this present job is done, I hope to return and serve you further.

I have been drafted out of this office, but am still in the race in the coming election. Hope you will continue your aid and support to those who may take my place during my absence. Thank you and good bye.

Yours for service,
Joe B. Price.

FFA and 4-H Boys Preparing for Show

Some thirty boys of the FFA and 4-H clubs of Terry county are busy this week grooming their animals for the coming annual feeders stock show to be held here April 8th. A clipping machine is being passed from farm to farm. The show is sponsored by the Jaycees of this city, and to be held on the vacant lots just east of the Court House.

They have procured the services of R. C. Mowry, Associate professor of animal husbandry of Texas Tech, who has wide experience in such matters, recently judging for the Abilene shows. No entrance fees will be charged, and liberal prizes will be given. Fifty head of dry feeder calves is expected to be exhibited.

Arlan Hartzog and Tom Neely are co-superintendents of the project, and J. L. Odell, Robt. Thompson and Boyce Holder are the show committee.

Quite a few of our boys, with the County Agent, will attend the Tri-County Dairy and Hog Show at Seagraves, today and Saturday.

State Guard Needs Recruits—And How!

Capt. E. G. Akers of the local State Guard, in an address to the Lions Club at its Wednesday luncheon, stressed the need of new recruits for their local Company, because so many have been drafted into the Nation's military service.

Men in good health up to 65 years of age are eligible. He stated that the Federal Government, so busy with over-sea duties, leaves it up to the states to maintain their own order, to quell riots, which sometimes occur, and other occasions that suddenly get beyond control of local constabulary.

The training received in the Guard, being the same as the U. S. Army, is beneficial to those who may be drafted.

Real West Texas Pioneer Passed Away

The Herald family, as well as many others of this section were saddened Tuesday, when it was learned that Mrs. George Carter, of Ropesville was no more. Mrs. Carter has been in poor health for several years and her passing Tuesday morning was not unexpected.

Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Ropesville high school auditorium, conducted by Rev. Tye, assisted by Elder Liff Sanders. Burial at Ropesville.

Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters and a son, Mrs. Aubrey Thomas, Mrs. Floyd Nettles and R. H. Carter; also four brothers and four sisters, to mourn her passing.

Farmers Preparing For Planting

A check-up this week discloses that 80 per cent of the farm land is listed, with an unusual acreage flat-broke, preparatory and ready for the planting season. They were lucky this year in having good moisture from numerous though light rains: the planting season being a month away, will easily have all land well prepared.

It was noted, too, a large acreage of new land is being put in. Two of our famous ranches east of town have succumbed to the plow. Despite shortage of building materials, many new houses, and other improvements, and some of good size, are showing up throughout the country.

Ted Hardy is recently stationed at Camp Beale, near San Francisco, according to information just received by his family.

Officers report several cases of drunkenness, mostly on Saturday and Sunday nights, almost every week. Several cases of driving while drunk, including one woman from a neighboring town. Most of them plead guilty and paid fines.

Terry Boys Win Prizes at Stock Show

Some more than a year ago, O. F. Krueger sold his fine farm in the Challis community to A. D. Wenzell of Wilson. Mr. Krueger moved to Lubbock, and Mr. Wenzell and family moved on the farm. Before moving to Terry county, the Wenzell family were noted for their fine herd of swine, having at that time toward 100 ribbons won at different shows.

They have recently returned from the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show with another batch of prizes to their credit. Welborn won second and 5th premiums in the 4-H Club class. Leo took third in a pen of three, and A. D. took 4th in medal class; second and 5th in heavy class and second in a pen of barrows.

Both boys are 4-H Club members, but in view of the fact that in 1936, Leo won the championship in the 4-H class, he had to compete this year in the open class.

Legion Rehabilitation Progressing Nicely

Judge C. L. Lincoln and Mr. McBrayer, attended a State meeting of the Post War Service Men's Rehabilitation, at the Lubbock Legion Hall Tuesday, which was attended by many representatives from South Plains counties.

It is explained the Federal Government is to establish schools for the purpose of teaching special trades to former service men, after discharge, and to procure employment for others. The American Legion is actively supporting, and is to work with the project.

West Texas Teachers Meet Next Friday

We have before us the program of the West Texas Teachers Association, composed of some 28 counties, of which our school superintendent, E. E. Hancock, is the present president.

Judging by the programs, it certainly will be a full time one day affair. However, some of the meetings are sectional, and a number of them can be under way at the same time.

Men of prominence, both civil and military will be privileged to talk to the area teachers, and those who attend, will doubtless hear something worthwhile.

The several district presidents over the entire state are to meet in Fort Worth, Friday and Saturday of this week. Mr. Hancock will attend this meeting.

Willing To Die—For What?

A news release from Pearl Harbor telling of the attack on the Marshall Islands, said: "The troops must make landings through machine gun and artillery fire, must secure the beach-heads and push forward, often yard by yard—it will be—will—ingress to die which will capture the Marshalls."

A news release from Detroit of approximately the same dateline reported that "A sitdown of more than 1,000 workers in support of demands for a 10-cent an hour wage increase — threatened production in the Ford Willow Run bomber plant."

A news release from Edgewater Beach, New Jersey, also of the same approximate date, gave an account of how two union men had been expelled from the union for conduct "unbecoming to union men" Their offense was testing 22 and 24 trucks a day instead of the union decreed average of 10 to 12.

How long can we expect our men in the armed forces to be willing to die for the nation, if these criminal abuses of freedom are continued?

Sgt. and Mrs. Pete Marchbanks of Camp Barkley, Abilene, spent the week-end with Mrs. N. R. Marchbanks.

Jack Douglas Announces Candidacy For Legislature

Candidacy for Representative to the 119th District of the Texas Legislature has been announced by Jack Douglas, general manager of AAA Automobile Club here.

The district is composed of Gaines, Dawson, Lynn, Terry, Yoakum, Cochran, Hockley, Cross-

JACK DOUGLAS

by, and Lubbock Counties.

This office was held by Hop Halsey for two terms, and since he is serving with the U. S. Marines, Mr. Halsey has announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

Mr. Douglas is widely acquainted over the South Plains territory, being vice-president and general manager of the automobile club, local affiliation of the American Automobile Association, having jurisdiction throughout his territory, comprising 59 counties in Texas. He has lived in Lubbock for the past 15 years and is past president of the Lubbock County Young Democrat club. He has been active in highway and motor tax legislation through his organization, inasmuch as the American Automobile Association is the only active representative for the motorist in the legislature, both state and national, taking a stand in the interest of the automobile owner.

Mr. Douglas has been particularly active in safety education and driver training through the schools of his territory, and through his efforts, safety education was installed in the school curriculum.

Mr. Douglas stated that he was vitally interested in the district and was not dependent on the remuneration through the office. "I shall spare no effort in presenting legislation which will be beneficial to the district."

Mr. Douglas added that he will not be able to see every one because of the gasoline and tire rationing. However, he will do his best to make an active campaign for the office.

Mr. Douglas said that his concern for public interest is not confined to any one county or locality. As a legislator, he intends to visit and thoroughly study the needs of each county in the district, repeatedly.

Douglas is 39 years of age, married, has two children and lives on Route 5 in Lubbock County. He is English and French descent and a member of the Christian church.

Quite a few Lions and wives attended the annual luncheon of the District Lions meet at Seminole, Thursday night.

Tom and Mac Hord spent the week-end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Darden in Lubbock.

Red Cross Rally Tomorrow

There will be a Red Cross Round-up Rally at the band stand, tomorrow at 3 o'clock, at which time an effort will be made to raise the balance of our quota. There will be speaking as to the work of the Red Cross and the band will give several numbers.

Chairmen and their helpers are requested to turn in all monies donated to Leo Holmes, General Chairman, and to these same committees will be on hand to take donations from those who have not been contacted. Let's give to the Red Cross.

To The People Of Terry County

If you live in a town of less than 10,000 population, or the rural area, you help constitute about 70 million or 53 per cent of the people of the U.S.A., and it is to you that this is addressed.

Our young men and kids, the flower of our manhood and womanhood, are entrusted with the job of taking care of the battle front and going to whip the enemies, and they have entrusted the home front to us and expect us to back them up and keep the home front, the finest country in the world, so when they return they can take up civilian life where they left off and enjoy life to the fullest extent in a country where individual freedom is the best in the world.

In order to do this we have to organize and fight the ideas of highly-placed people and groups in both political parties, the Democrats and the Republicans, in Washington, who aspire to fix the future policies after the war is ended; to sacrifice the American Farmer by having all raw products of the world tariff-free, so all people of the world can enjoy them at a cheap price.

Our American men of science are best in the world. They think up and improve their products and ideas, but when it comes to our political science, we have to copy our ideas from other foreign countries, as they don't have time to think up new ideas.

Our internationalists copy their ideas from the British, who in 1848 sacrificed the farmers of her nation in favor of cheap, imported food, and became a great industrial nation, which was the proper thing for her to do, because she had so little farm land, compared to her immense merchant fleet and industries.

Because this worked in Britain is no sign it will work here. After the war we will have the largest merchant fleet in the world, the largest industrial nation, also the largest air fleet, etc., but Britain is an island and the U. S. is a continent, because only about five percent of the people of Britain were farmers, and here about 53 per cent of the people depend on farmers directly or indirectly, and we can feed the United States and Britain cannot feed her population.

For this government and big business to abandon the American farmer and go galavanting all over the world buying cheap raw products, in competition with our own would not only ruin the farmers, but all the workers in the United States for this reason.

The industries can sell more goods to prosperous people than they can to paupers and the way we are letting them have the lend-lease, it seems to us, that about all of them go into the pauper class, and to make us compete with 20 cents per day labor will drag us all down into the mire with nations we are now helping, in the form of income taxes and bonds. The large industries are their laboring class of people allowed to know that they CANNOT sell 70 million Americans, rural and small town, unless they BUY from them and not from foreign countries. Of course it is alright to buy anything from them that does not ruin us.

If these internationalists are permitted to put into law their ideas it will ruin the farmer first, and then, in a year or so, you will see signs hanging on nearly all the factories: "No Help Wanted!" . . . and then we will go down together, and say, "We did not have as much sense as a bunch of monkeys."

The day has come when, for us to be heard in Washington, we must belong to some strong organization, so let's all join the Farm Bureau, or some strong organization and make our thoughts known where they will do more good. Nearly everybody else is organized, and they get what is coming to them. The farmers don't want to get rich; they just want a fair price for their labors.

Right now Washington wants us to feed ourselves and the whole world, which is impossible. After the war, some of the big boys

Price Resigns As Sheriff Of Terry County

TO THE CITIZENS OF TERRY COUNTY:

The citizenship of Terry county has learned that I am called for military duty. I am leaving today, the 24th of March, for Fort Sill for military assignment. (Prior to my knowing that I would be called to the Colors, I had made public my intention of seeking the office of Sheriff for another term. It is still my purpose to continue in the race for Sheriff.

I have handed the Commissioners' Court of Terry County my resignation, which will be acted on at an early date. The office will be filled by my deputies until the Commissioners' Court shall have acted on my resignation. The responsibility of the office, as to who will continue for the balance of my elective term, will rest solely on the Commissioners' Court, who will appoint my successor. I am resigning with clear hands with no strings. I have done my best to make you a Sheriff, duty now calls and I am glad to answer. If you see fit to honor me with the position for a new term, I trust to providence that I may be here to qualify and act.

Thanking you for your past favors, I am

Your Ex-Sheriff,
Joe B. Price.

BOX SUPPER TO RAISE RED CROSS QUOTA

Supt. V. D. Armstrong of the Union schools informed us this week that there would be a community night in form of a box-supper at the Union gymnasium tonight, March 24th, to help raise funds to finish their Red Cross quota.

Everyone is invited to this affair. Be there and help this worthy cause.

Hancock Resigns As Superintendent

It was with much regret that the board of education of the Brownfield Consolidated District received and accepted the resignation of Supt. E. E. Hancock, to take effect July 1st, this year. Mr. Hancock has had two very successful years as head of the local schools, despite the fact that he has been handicapped with numerous faculty resignations and procuring others as well as other war inconveniences.

Mr. Hancock stated to a reporter Tuesday that he was accepting a position with the Cobb Dept. store July 1st. He and family like the town, he said, and really wanted to make this their permanent home, and wished to get into something that would last. Teaching, of course, is subject to the whims of the school boards. This last sentence is our expression, and not Mr. Hancock's.

Anyway, while the Herald regrets that the schools must lose the management and executive ability of Mr. Hancock just at this very crucial time, we are glad he and family are to become permanent Brownfield citizens.

Want to raise the standards of the whole world, and let the balance of the world feed us, which sounds alright to some people, but if we let them do it, it will ruin about 100 million of us, because there will be paupers on our farms and poverty in our cities.

A general one said to his men: "Boys, it is alright to believe in God, but before you go into battle be sure and keep your ammunition DRY."

What are you going to do about it? Raise the standard of living of the whole world, from 20 cents per day, to about four bits or a dollar, and lower your standard to it, or join some strong organization, like the Farm Bureau, and help keep these United States where we can give in lend-lease instead of receiving the crumbs from the entire world. Meet us in the district court room at 4 p.m., Saturday and join up.

Farm Bureau, Terry County, Texas.

BABIES CAN AND DO TAKE TUBERCULOSIS

AUSTIN—Speaking of the susceptibility of children to tuberculosis, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today that few people realize that babies and young children are very likely to become infected with tuberculosis if they are kept in rooms with persons who have the disease, use the same dishes, sleep in the same beds, or are handled and kissed by persons who have tuberculosis.

"Babies and young children pick up the germs of tuberculosis just as readily as they pick up the germs of measles or whooping cough, or of any other of the so-called children's diseases," Dr. Cox said. "But tuberculosis, unlike most diseases, has more than one form. Babies who get tuberculosis may not show the symptoms we associate with the disease in older persons. But the disease in most cases develops rapidly and is likely to end fatally."

Mrs. F. B. Auburg and son, Bob and Joe and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Deah spent the week-end in Silvertown with Mrs. Auburg's daughter, Mrs. K. M. Marshall and family. Mrs. Marshall returned home with her mother for a few day's visit and left Tuesday.

STUDENTS TRY HAND WRITING LIMERICKS

Up at the school the other day, a progressive teacher asked junior grade class to write some limericks, and among some dozen were the following:

There was a teacher from Brownfield Who always wore a frowny She gave up a squawk Because she had to walk And I don't give heck if she'd drowny.

There was a teacher named Milly Who thought she was a dilly As she pranced up the street To everyone she'd meet Would always say something silly

There was an old lady from Wheeling, Who lay on the floor and kicked the ceiling Then she turned on her side With her mouth open wide 'Cause the hide on her back was (app)pealing.

I met a boy on the street He scooped me off my feet He started to kiss me But Lordy, he missed me I hope he tries to repeat.

Mr. Dunlap, of Redondo Beach, Calif., husband of the late Mrs. Quinley Dunlap, who with her step-mother, Mrs. Cora Smith, were murdered here, early in February, was here this week disposing of their home and property.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The pastor is conducting a student revival in Wayland College this week but is expected to be in the services here next Sunday and hopes to have good attendance at all of the services. The membership of this church has recently bought more than five hundred dollars in government bonds for Wayland College and will no doubt buy more during the year as Baptists are giving special emphasis to their institutions during the present year in Texas and have set three million dollars as their goal for this year and these contributions may be designated for any one of these institutions or may be given to them all allowing the Texas convention to divide the money among them according to their needs.

Our forefathers founded these colleges but without the support of the people of this generation of both patronage and money they cannot be what their founders envisioned for them and as the standards of education have continually risen they must be endowed to compete with State tax supported colleges, which do not furnish ten per cent of our preachers and religious leaders.

The enrollment in our church school of the Bible is growing, there now being 606 on the roll and the goal of the school for actual attendance is now 500 which we hope to reach soon. The juvenile delinquency problem which we hear so much about right now has been caused by failure of parents to have their children in the Bible school or teaching them Bible morals in their own home and parents should not disregard this warning if they care for the moral wellbeing of their families.

There is a marked attendance at all of the church auxiliaries the Training Union having doubled in enrollment and attendance and the pastor has served notice on all of us that he can never be happy in the work with so many regarding it as unimportant, and with such sentiments from the pulpit there is hope of a better co-operation as people rarely do things in church work that is not expected of them. We extend to all missionary minded Baptists a cordial welcome in this church.

Mrs. Eldora White visited her son, Ted White Sunday in Lubbock.

FOURTH TERM DEMANDED BY BRIDGES

A fourth term for President Roosevelt and a Congress that will truly represent the people is the long goal of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, its president, Harry Bridges of San Francisco, said in Dallas, Monday.

Bridges, an Australian-born labor leader, has successfully fought for several years efforts of federal authorities to have him deported as an enemy alien.

And that is why this agitator, trouble maker and alleged communist has been able to defeat every court in the U. S. Which took a hand in deporting him. He is a friend of the president. Could that be the reason?—Lorenzo Enterprise.

Mrs. C. D. Kerr of Detroit, Texas, Mrs. Leon Morgan of Santa Anna, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gaston of Cone, Texas were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gaston of the Lahey community. Other members of the family present were Mrs. C. C. Robinson and family and Mrs. Ida Bruton and Charlsie Lou.

Mrs. Jim Graves, Mrs. Gertrude Lynch and George Lynch of Amarillo, spent last Thursday night and Friday visiting their mother and grandmother, Mrs. G. W. Graves.

Mrs. Regis Quinlan, Pat and Bill, of De Leon, Texas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, Miss Margaret Bell of Lubbock, spent the week-end at home.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

While your columnist never knew Irvin S. Cobb personally, it was my privilege to work as a reporter on the Commercial-Appeal in Memphis, Tenn., with a brother of his who was himself quite an amusing companion. It was soon after World War I and, one evening when someone was mentioned as having served in France, another newspaperman said, "What was Brown in the war?" Cobb exclaimed, "Was he in the war? Why, the French decorated him with the Croix de Gooks," which was his quaint way of pronouncing "Croix de Guerre."

The best stories about Irvin Cobb dealt with his days as a reporter on the New York World, before the pride of Paducah became famous as a short story writer and humorist. The World's city editor was a slave-driver and, one day when Cobb reported for duty, the assistant city editor was in charge. "Where's old Simon Legree?" Cobb asked. The assistant replied, "He's sick." Cobb said, "Nothing trivial, I hope."

On one occasion, Cobb was assigned to write up a lecture to be given by an English nobleman. The night was inclement and Cobb and the lecturer were the only ones who showed up. Nevertheless, the duke went ahead and delivered his speech in full. Afterward, he suggested to the newspaperman, "You can say that my address was heard by a large and respectable audience." When Cobb objected that this might not be strictly accurate, the nobleman looked at the reporter's portly form and said, "You are large—and I am certainly respectable."

Almost Jones Generation Family Reunion

Before we begin this tirade, we want to explain some matter we had in this column last week. We related that a cousin's son was judged for slipping out of a Memphis Veteran's hospital. For fear some will get the idea that Arlie Smalley was just "ratting," we explain that he was seriously wounded in the southseas Pacific area, and is recovering nicely near home.

Somewhere in the early part of the nineteenth century, Grandpa Calvin Jones, a giant in size and strength, crossed the mountains of west North Carolina and east Tennessee, and settled for a few years in middle Tennessee, and thence on in a few years to west Tennessee, then a "howling wilderness," with its "bars", wildcats, catamounts, deer, turkey and what have you. This very positive man was possessed of two sons and a host of daughters. Only one son lived through the Civil War period, the other raising a large family, quite stylish in those days in order to show one's manhood.

The girls all married and followed suit by rearing from four to 14 children, and the tribe became known in the New Hope settlement as the Jones Generation—and still is.

Well, a representative of each one of these girls, save one, just happened to get together at the home of a niece in Middletown on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 19th. There was Burley Howell representing Aunt Nancy's tribe, Will Turner, a Memphis cop happened in with a few days off, representing the Turners; John Casey was

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"That's really a great editorial you just read to us, Judge. Where did you say it appeared?"
"In 'The Stars and Stripes'...the newspaper of the U.S. Armed Forces in Europe. Kind of gives us folks back home something to think about, doesn't it, Bill?"
"It certainly does, Judge. Particularly the last paragraph. Would you mind reading that again?"
"Glad to, Bill. It says, 'We can remember the days of prohibition, when moonshine whiskey made quick fortunes for bootleggers, crooked politicians and dishonest police officials. As a result, we claim we know what we want in the way of liquor legislation and feel those at home should wait until we return before initiating further legislation on liquor control.'"

"Out of fairness to our boys over there fighting, Judge, how could we disobey such a wish?"

This advertisement sponsored by Conference of Alcoholic Beverage Industries, Inc.

there, representing Aunt Susan's offsprings; Will Smalley was butting for Aunt Hulda's following, and the writer pinched hit for Martha Stricklin's herd. Only Aunt Ellen Hornbuckle failed to have a tribesman there.

Well, we hashed and reshaped old times, and don't get it into your head that there were not other cousins and nephews unto the second and third generation were in attendance. While we all were rather reticent about exposing too much of our past, we thought of a very funny one on Will Turner. Some years ago when we were back there, we learned that he was then a traffic cop at Main and Madison, the busiest intersection of downtown Memphis. We traveled afoot for what we thought was sufficient to reach him. Finally we asked another cop where Main and Madison was, and if he knew Will Turner. "Sure, says he, 'we have sent him back to Bolivar.'" Then after a laugh by both of us, he said it was the next block, and Will was on duty.

Now you don't see anything to laugh about in that remark about Will being sent back to Bolivar, so we'll just explain that the Western State Hospital for the Insane is located at Bolivar, our old county seat town, and such a remark back there is frequent. Then Will tried to embarrass us by telling the folks there assembled that he helped us hunt a liquor dealer to have something to keep us relaxed while crossing Arkansas. Why can't some people keep their big mouths shut—including us. So will close for the present.

Du Pont Coming To Texas

The Du Pont Company of Wilmington, Del., has purchased an 800 acre site at La Porte, Texas, upon which they will build a huge plant as soon as materials can be assembled.

Their first product will be a chemical to rid cattle of internal parasites, which are said to cost the nation 125 million dollars annually.

Mrs. Wilson Collins and son, Richard, spent the week-end in Lamesa.

FLOWERS FOR THE 'LIVING'

This State's "living," more than any other single thing, comes from COTTON.

COTTON largely built this State. COTTON is our dependable "cash crop." We have the soil, climate and "know how" to grow it. COTTON is food and feed and fiber; no other crop supplies all these needed products.

These Bonks, like the rest of this community and State, owe a great deal to COTTON. And, we're proud to pay this small tribute, to give flowers to our "living".

More COTTON acreage and production in 1944 are needed to provide our livestock industry with critically-scarce protein feed—to provide cottonseed oil for food, and cotton linters for munitions.

More COTTON in 1944 means our State will contribute more to winning this war—the first thought of every American.

County HD Council Met at Courthouse

The Terry County Home Demonstration Council held its regular meeting Saturday March 11, at 2:30 p. m., in the District Court room with Mrs. Karl Griffith, chairman, presiding, and secretary, Mrs. R. D. Jones present.

Forty-eight members were present representing nine of the ten home demonstration clubs and two 4-H clubs of the county. Miss Reast has organized and helped re-organize four home demonstration clubs and two girls' 4-H clubs in the county since she has been our Home Demonstration Agent, which determines the interest she is taking in the welfare of our communities.

Each club answered roll call with a brief summary of the work accomplished the past month. The outstanding work some of our club members had taken part in, were the Red Cross drives, rolling bandages, making soldier kits and quilting.

From our secretary we heard interesting reports of the committee, and also Miss Gene Pendergrass, chairman of the girls 4-H Club of Meadow and Miss Ada Sue Dean, chairman of the girls 4-H club of Wellman, gave a very interesting report on their work. For their project this Spring, they are taking frame gardening, which shows they are industrious, which shows they are proud of the 4-H clubs.

We had as our guest Mrs. Sam Griffith, County Health Nurse, and Mrs. Sam Teague, chairman of the Red Cross Home Nursing course. Mrs. Teague gave a short lecture on home nursing, stressing the importance and value of the course in these wartimes. She and Mrs. Griffith urge each club to try and organize a class of ten or more in their community in order that we may be benefitted in having a nurse to come teach three classes. After the council adjourned we had election of three council delegates to the council held at Lubbock, April 21. The delegates elected were Miss Oleta Leach of Gomez, Mrs. C. E. Hicks of Meadow and Mrs. A. J. Bell of Harmony Club.—Council Reporter.

The club is going to sponsor Red Cross working room. Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Gibb Phillips, Mrs. Sam Oliver, and Mrs. C. H. Heafner volunteered to be supervisors for one night each week.

Mrs. Heafner will work with the 4-H club girls on Monday nights. 10 members have signed up for the nursing school in June or July.

TALENT HUNTING

GWN

Ancient history, fairy tales and fiction are filled with instances of the kings and ruler of old, either going among their subjects, searching, or were ever alert, for talent and skill. Perhaps it was more scarce then than now. While science, skill and talent has done wonders in our age, in many lines has topped and led our civilization, to altitudes of advanced living, materially and socially, yet it bounds, among our populace, in the raw and dormant, for the lack of disclosure, an uncovering, often a little boost, a little aid or encouragement.

Suppressed by timidity, we have seen as much beauty of face and form, on our streets as are reflected on the screens. We have heard as sweet voices in our choirs and schools, with just a little trimming would equal the radio crooners. We have in school here, a lanky farm boy that would surprise you on the piano; another ten year old, who with little wider practice would answer Phil Baker's sixty-four dollar question on the accordion. A teen age quartette with melody and harmony in song, equals the actions of the Allies in Europe. Readings. Rapid strides in special lines in schools. An invalid girl who cuts out small pictures of flowers, trees, birds, clouds, skies, and pastes them onto one large grand one, with finesse, as pretty as an artist's dream.

Many others in various lines. What could be accomplished by a little come-on motion, a pat on the back, or some finished outlet. But in our mercenary standards, our individual selfishness, we require those most skilled and talented in one line, to also have the acumen to push themselves onward, and with the financial ability to make it pay. Too seldom one is possessed of all traits, inventors and statesmen were financial failures. Many capitalists couldn't play a jews harp. Our government, industry, Education and the greater sciences and arts have reached such proportions, that to maintain it and forward it, the public should separate them then aid and encourage every man to his talent.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

I was blathering last fall, in one of my essays, about how I liked to mosey around in grocery stores, and sniff the intriguing smells like kippered salmon, etc, and not be crowded into a purchase before I had finished browsing. The owner of a store sells more when he encourages "browse and sniff"—that is what I wrote.

But a fellow running a paper out in Nebraska jumped my frame—said I was not giving the independent grocery store a fair shake versus the chain store. He got the wrong idea. I am for all grocery stores and delicatessens where they handle such delectable items as smoked liver sausage, old leidekrantz, etc. I was just trying to compliment all stores whether it was a one-store, two-store, or many store outfit. Anyway all the present "many-store" outfits grew from a one-store beginning.

Like the fellow who lost his vest one fall and found it the next spring, under his shirt, I hope to find my way back, this spring into the good graces of this old corn-husker editor.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

Ted M. White, a student at Tech, spent the week-end with his wife and baby in the W. H. Dallas home.

Being very busy since our return from our jaunt, getting things straight again, we neglected to announce the arrival of Terry Joe, 9 pound youngster of Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. DuBose on March 3. Fine, and we hope our leaders have sense enough after this war to hog tie Germany and Japan for a century, so little Terry Joe will never have to go to war.
