

Ft. Worth-Dallas Trade Trips In Rut

Dear Dallas-Ft. Worth Trippers:—For years and years, except a few during the war, you have made annual excursion trips to West Texas, but with few exceptions, you have kept religiously to the main line railroads, stop at the same towns, shake hands with the same people, crack the same jokes, and return to your cities and imagine you have seen all there is to see in west Texas. You deceive only yourselves. You have merely skimmed the edges.

We do not have it in for railroads; they are good advertisers, much better than bus lines. But why not try the bus lines next time and see such live towns as Lamesa, Tahoka, Brownfield, Seagraves, Seminole, Hobbs and Lovington, N. M., Denver City, Plains, Morton and Levelland, just to mention those laying west of the Galveston-California Santa Fe and north of the T. and P?

In doing so, you will see some of Texas' banner cotton counties, and some of the ten highest grain sorghum producing counties in Texas. You can also see such north Permian basin oil pools as Welch, Cedar Lake, a new one in south Terry, Seminole, Wasson, Denver City, Bennett, and the big Slaughter pool in Hockley, Cochran and Terry counties, not to mention lesser ones in west Terry and east Yoakum.

You will see some huge carbon black plants at Seagraves, large chemical plants at O'Donnell, Brownfield and Denver City, and oil refineries at Seminole, Denver City and Levelland. You will see some of the best beef and dairy herds on the Plains. In fact you will see something you have not seen on any other trip.

Of course if you are too soft to take a little roughing, you may reach some of the cities with sky scraper hotels at night. But as from three to 5,000 head of cattle are fed here in Brownfield, we might kill a nice fat whiteface steer and have a barbecue. Don't you want to shake the hands of a few strangers who are in your trade area—not just the same old crowd year in and year out?

Here in Brownfield, we can show you one of the largest cottonmill mills in west Texas, and one that has seen everything. Now days they do not just process cottonseed, but soy beans and now are working up some dried coconuts (copra to you perhaps.) Not only that, we have a large compress and storage for 50,000 bales of cotton and all of them have been full and scattered over acres of ground surrounding. We have a lot of fine grain elevators, and they are filled by local farmers—not shipped in—we ship out.

We have the liveliest bunch of just plain old west Texas business men you ever met. Our bankers know most of their customers by their first name, but the two banks here have around nine million dollars on deposit. Our cream, poultry and egg business are already large but growing fast as some of the best dairy stock and poultry are being brought in at a rapid rate. Lots of creamery butter is made right here.

You Dallas and Ft. Worth folks have a pressing invitation—not only from this paper, but by Mayor Frank Jordan and city officials, county officials, and a thriving Board of Development and the liveliest bunch of Jaycees in West Texas. All of us, business men and all, give you a pressing invitation to visit this section, not just speed through and see some of the larger cities.

After all is said and done, it is the smaller cities and towns you get the most out of, for the larger cities of west Texas, like you, are more self-contained with their wholesales and jobber establishments.

Won't you come out next time and shake the hands of some strangers who are strangers only once?

Lubbock ABC Club Members Here Today

Members of the American Business Club will be in Brownfield today selling tickets for the Worlds Championship Rodeo which will be held in Lubbock, June 11-14. The rodeo features Gene Autry and his horse, Champion, Junior. Proceeds go to the capital fund of the Lubbock Boys Club.

Everett Colburn, manager of the rodeo, with headquarters at the famous Lightning C Ranch, Dublin, Texas, has the most outstanding aggregation of cowboys and rodeo stock in the world. The bone-jarring, spine-busting bucking broncs grow up on the Lightning C. South Plains fans will see such outstanding examples of wicked horses as Kickapoo, Hell Diver, Star Bright, Whiskey Gap, Bear Park and Conclusion.

Steers wrestlers match their skill again wry Mexican steers brought into the United States from below the Rio Grande. The brahma calves and brahma steers used in the calf roping and bull riding events are brought up to the Lightning C from the Texas Gulf Coast. Careful selections on the ranch, enables Colburn to present only the best and fastest animals in the rodeo.

One of the more interesting features of the show is the herd of Longhorns owned by the ranch. There open proud rulers of the Plains are the largest single collection of the type now known. They form the background for some of Gene Autry's numbers, lending a real touch of the Old West.

FIRE DAMAGES HEROD APARTMENT

Fire destroyed the household contents of one apartment and did some damage to the apartment house of Roy Herod on East Hill street last Thursday night.

The apartment was occupied by an oil field worker. Quick response of the fire department saved the balance of the building.

Variety Of Opinions About Replanting In County

The various opinions about replanting are as varied as there are different communities in the county. To date, the rainfall as measured here in Brownfield is around 3 inches for May, which is some above the normal, while in some communities, they have perhaps received twice or three times this amount, particularly in the south and east portions of the county, and perhaps a third more in the north section.

Where they had hard, packing rains last Friday night, there will as a consequence have to be much replanting. Most farmers had planted shallow, but the loose dirt washed in and covered the seed too deep to come through. Added to that condition are the very cool nights. Farmers as a whole are wishing for dry, still and particularly warmer weather, so the plants will come up in a few days.

To add a big headache to the dilemma seed, particularly cotton, is becoming almost non-existent. Two big seed firms advertising in the Herald cut their ads the past week. Good planting maize is also getting scarce.

However, if farmers can get seed, most people maintain there is still plenty time for cotton, and all the time they need even through June for a good feed crop.

In view of the fact that Terry county, as well as other adjoining counties have been hard hit the past two years it is fervently hoped that the weather will clear and we will have some warm, sunshiny days to speed us on toward a good crop.

Charley Brown Dies In New Mexico

The many old timers here who knew C. L. (Charley) Brown, will regret to learn that he passed away last Saturday the 24th at the age of 74, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence McCoy, Aztec, N. M., with whom he was making his home at the time. He has another daughter there, Mrs. Janet Cook, where he lived part time.

Another daughter, Mrs. Wilson Collins, of this city, together with her husband and Mrs. W. S. Daniell, a sister, and Mrs. Berdie Lee Brewer, daughter of Mrs. Daniel, left for Aztec as soon as they got the message that Charley had a heart attack. At Roswell they picked up Buster Brown, only son of Charley. Mrs. Brown passed away about 30 years ago.

Burial was in Aztec Monday afternoon. A mighty good man has gone to his reward.

New Agriculture Teacher Visits

L. F. Buford who is to take the place of Tom Neely, recently resigned, as Vocational Agriculture instructor in the local school for the coming term, dropped in on the Herald office Wednesday.

He, wife and small son, are anxious to move in, just as soon as they can find an apartment. Anyone having a house or apartment are requested to contact him at Tech in Lubbock.

Many House Numbers Being Changed

Attention is called to the City's ad in last weeks paper, that the new city directory, has changed the house numbers in east part of town. Most of the houses beginning a block east of the highway, on Hill, Main, Broadway and Tate streets are raised 100 higher. This was occasioned by double length blocks in that area, but is to be permanent.

Owners are urged to correct their numbers at once. They may see the directory, or call City Hall, phone 201.

Be Careful With "Miracle Drugs" Warns Dr. Cox

"It is an unfortunate fact that some people are willing to risk their health—possibly even their lives—by prescribing for themselves and taking a drug that they have read about somewhere and which has been termed a miracle drug, states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Although such drugs as penicillin, streptomycin, thiouracil, and sulfa drugs have been of great value in combating diseases that have heretofore been very difficult to control, nevertheless, they can be very dangerous products in untrained hands. They were never intended to be used promiscuously for self-medication," the State Health Officer asserted.

If a pharmacist refuses to sell a particular drug and explains that it cannot be supplied without a physician's prescription the would-be purchaser should not become provoked. That pharmacist is giving sound public advice and is also complying with the law. The State Health Officer declared that self-medication is never advisable, and even "miracle drugs" should be taken only when a doctor prescribes them.

Negro Woman Forger Hits Brownfield

On the past two Saturday's a nicely dressed young colored woman has cashed at least six checks with the name of Mrs. J. L. Randall signed to them. The checks ranged around $25.00 each and were payable to different names. She would purchase a small article from local merchants who would cash the checks.

Merchants who have seen her state that she is about 22 years of age, and has a scar across right side of face and eye. Anyone seeing her are requested to notify Sheriff Ocie Murry.

Editor's Observations South Of Terry

The Old He and Wife, accompanied by Mrs. Bernard Lay, slipped off down to old Howard last weekend to see Mrs. Lay's Pop and Mon and Mrs. Stricklin's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts and family. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts have been ailing a bit of late, but were up and about, and we had a lot of eats and plenty sleep.

Beginning a few miles south of Brownfield and ending around Ackerly, they have had some real packing rains the past week, and we fear many of them will have to replant. The first place we struck dry enough to plant was about ten miles this side of Big Spring, where we saw a planter running.

The large lakes between Lamesa and Ackerly are about as full as we have ever seen them, and at least one seemed to have been over the highway. They are longing for a two or three weeks let up in rain and some warm weather to get stuff up.

Wheat is beginning to turn yellow, which shows that it is getting along toward the stage when combines can enter the fields and do the job of saving this wonderful grain.

TCBD Suggests Means To Relieve Parking

BY VIRGIL BURNETT
This subject is being brought to the public's attention because of repeated requests from merchants as well as numerous complaints by customers.

Brownfield does have a parking problem. The space for parking in front of and adjacent to Brownfield business firms is limited. Customers and would-be customers desire and in many cases demand a convenient parking space if they are to patronize a business. During business hours the customers are usually in a hurry and will find a convenient parking space and trade with the nearest firm.

In an effort to meet this problem some suggestions are offered with the idea that they will help provide convenient parking space for the customers of Brownfield business firms.

In the first place it is respectfully suggested that store owners as well as employees of such stores become conscious of the customer's need for convenient parking space to such firms.

It is also suggested that such firms and employees use fair play and justice with other firms and business. In this connection it has been reported and by observation can be seen that business owners as well as employees instead of parking in front of their own stores will utilize space in front of neighboring establishments; not to be outdone this neighbor will do the same with his neighbor. This practice merely involves a swap-out and does not provide the needed customers parking space. Business men and employees are not being fair either with themselves or their neighbors when they park their cars in front of any business establishment for the day. It is suggested that employers call this to the attention of their employees and advise all employees who drive cars to work to park such cars for the day away from customers parking space. If this practice will be followed by all merchants and employees then the customers parking problem will be solved to a great extent, especially during week days.

As we aim to take off soon for the red hills of Tennessee, we are going to let guest editorial writers fill this space, but they don't know they're going to be guest editors. For the past two or three weeks, we have felt a condition coming on us better known as spring fever, and when it hits you it is like the old darky's blind mule he traded off, and the new owner complained the mule was blind as he would run into trees, fences or other obstacles. "Dat mule aint blind, he jest don't give a hang." Well, if we can work it around so the other fellow will do our editorial stuff, it won't hurt him either.

The national and state board of fire underwriters have placed the explosion damage at Texas City at 32 million dollars, including the loss of two ships and cargoes and damage to buildings. Of the death toll there were 433 most of which have been identified. There are 135 still missing. The underwriters are to recommend a disaster plan, not only for Texas City, but for all other cities that may have future calamities. One thing they will likely recommend is better spacing of chemical plants, and better and more accurate branding of any commodity that is liable to explode.

One doesn't have to travel much to see why touring over our highways is more or less a hazard. Last Sunday, returning from Howard county there was a couple ahead of us we don't think were drinking; they were rather necking, as both took up only about 18 inches of the front seat under the steering wheel. It was a bit hazardous to try to pass them on a newly topped road with lots of flying loose gravel, so we just stayed behind. And we were told by some parties that ate at one of our highway cafes Sunday night, that a lad helped his lass to their car, and that he was none too steady on his pins. But the gal got under the wheel and drove away. The car did not have a Terry county license number.

But, people who have to be assisted to their car are in no condition to drive.

The bills providing for Representative and Senatorial redistricting in this state seem to have been killed outright or scuttled up a blind alley so far that they will never again see the light of day. One ground of opposition was that under the Constitution, the state would have to be redistricted again following the 1950 census. But two decennial censuses have already been taken without any redistricting following them. Another objection was that the redistricting provided for in these bills was not fair to somebody. Of course that objection will be raised by somebody against any bill that is introduced at any time for no such bill can ever be framed that will be perfect. The real objection that some Representatives and Senators have to these bills is that they would cost some of them their jobs. And that objection has been held against every redistricting bill that ever was proposed or that ever will be proposed. The only sure and practical remedy for this situation, it seems to us, is the submission to the people of a proposed Constitutional Amendment that would place the duty of redistricting the state upon some other body than the legislature itself. The Moffett proposal should be submitted by this legislature. Tahoka News.

WOODS CHILD DIES MONDAY NIGHT

Eddie Joe Wood, aged 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wood of the Crescent Hill addition, a well known contractor here, died about 9:20 at the local hospital following an illness of several days. The child had been afflicted for several years.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church at 5 p. m. Tuesday by Rev. R. N. Huckabee, pastor, assisted by Rev. Frank Beauchamp of Dimmitt. Burial directed by the Brownfield Funeral home in Terry County Memorial Cemetery.

The boy is survived by his parents, a sister Patricia Nell, Grandfather, P. W. Watts of Bowie, and grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Wood of Dimmitt. Pall bearers were Robert Irvin, Dewitt Stafford, Cecil Smith and Woodrow Wilson.

The mother was the former Margaret Watts, and a sister to Mrs. Lawrence Green of this city whose father P. W. Watts resided here several years ago.

Have You An Old Chevrolet Truck ?

You have probably noticed that the Chevrolet Motor Co., of Detroit is in quest of the oldest Chevrolet truck in the United States, which is still in use. Their proposition is to give the owner of such truck a brand new 1947 model Chevrolet truck for the ancient model.

Not only that, but Terry County owners of old Chevrolet trucks have a chance to cash in, even though they may not have the oldest one in use in the nation. The Teague-Bailey Chevrolet Co., proposes to give $50 worth of parts and repairs or that much in a trade-in to the person owning the oldest Chevrolet truck with a 1947 registration in Terry county.

Better check up on the age of your old truck, as $50 may be awaiting you for it.

Soil Conservation District News

Messrs. Roberts and Wood, ranchers just east of Rich Lake across in Lynn county recently overseeded 400 acres of shinnery oak land to grass mixtures. They used a seed broadcast drill and followed with a four row stalk cutter to break down the shinnery and by so doing this made ground cover. These men are District cooperators of the Lynn county SCS district. Mr. Wood contacted this office last for some additional assistance in locating broom corn seed which will be used for a ground cover on some additional acreage for grass planting this fall. Interest in better pastures for livestock is on the increase in the South Plains areas this year.

J. T. Fulford, Route 1, Meadow, who operates Dr. English farm on the east side of Terry county had the district Engineering crew to run ridge terrace lines on 75 acres of Class IV land this week. The terraces are being built to conserve rainfall and the seeding of a heavy sudan broadcast between terraces for a ground cover. Later in the early fall or spring land. One farmer said this was evidence to him that terraces were needed instead of contours where slope was slightly steeper. The district program is ready now to assist you in your planning of terrace construction after crop harvest this fall. If terraces are planned now construction start before early deep flat breaking of cultivated land.

The life of productive soil is the adding of organic matter. This may be done mainly by plowing under green crops in late or early spring. Research agriculture shows that in the main organic matter does four things: A. It gives the soil a good of 1948 this operator expects to seed three grasses and Madrid sweet clover for pasture.

Survey of several fields of Balboa Rye shows prospects of a good yield of from 25 to 35 bushel per acre. Most owners say this variety is an excellent ground cover through the winter and early spring blowing season. Livestock seem to prefer grazing Balboa rye to wheat or other common ryes.

Heavy rains this past week in some communities of the county caused washing on contoured structure and improves its tilth. B. It provides food for bacteria. C. It keeps plant food available so the plants can use them. D. It serves as a storehouse of nitrogen, available phosphorus, potash and other plant foods.

It has been carefully determined by surveys that for every adult working man in America today there is required 3 1-2 acres for food and clothes every year. These requirements are as follows:

Meat, leather, 1.86 acres; Dairy products, .78; Grain, cereals, .37; Poultry, eggs, .25; Vegetables, .08; Cotton, .07; Fruits, .05; Sugar, syrups, .04.

So the above reflects the fate of America's farm land. Let's keep it productive through proper land use.

It is easy to read the handwriting on our farm lands in Terry county each day soil blows on to other land.

Buddy, The Dog Makes An Annual

We have always expected the unexpected of Buddy (the dog) Trigg ever since we have known him, therefore we were not greatly surprised this week when we got a card from the "chillun" stating that Buddie got his picture in the Howard Payne College annual.

HONOR ROLL

SORROWFUL yet proud are the prayers in our hearts this Memorial Day for the brave men who fought and died in World Wars I and II. Sorrowful because so many lives have been lost . . . so many families broken. And proud . . . proud because these American men and boys had the courage and faith to pay the supreme sacrifice for all they held dear.

THEIR names are engraved in the hearts of families and friends . . . names like yours and your neighbor's . . . names from all "sides of the tracks" names that bring to mind every nation around the globe. It is for us, the living, to remember along with their names, that for which they died . . . a way of life, rich because of its four freedoms — from fear and want, of speech and worship.

WHEREVER a uniformed American has been laid to rest, we place this wreath of words. Be he known or unknown; whatever his name, color, origin or creed, let us remember that he took upon himself the sacred obligation of dying that we and our children might live and prosper in peace and freedom.

Wellman 4-H Clubs Hold First Summer Session Tuesday

The 4-H Clubs of Wellman held their first summer meeting Tuesday, May 20 at 2 p. m. in the Wellman Cafeteria.

The meeting was called to order by Linnie Dee Hawkins, president of the WAC club.

The recreation was a game and several songs, led by Patsy Scales recreation leader of the WWW club.

After the reading of the minutes Patsy Scales suggested joining the WWW and WAC clubs and having only one president, secretary, etc. Mrs. Heafner said that this would have to be postponed until in the fall when new officers will be elected. However all the clubs will meet together during the summer.

The prizes and awards available to 4-H club girls were discussed. The girls were surprised and very pleased when Mrs. Heafner, their sponsor, told them that they have made the state press.

The demonstration was on salad. Patsy Scales and Anna Ja Dean made a green bean salad and a pineapple salad. Peggy Jones and Margaret Phillips concluded the demonstration with a vegetable salad. The salads were both attractive and delicious.

The hostess served tea, cookies and punch.

On May 21 the club met with Mrs. Couch, seven members and two visitors present. Our president, Mrs. Brantley gave a summary of the District Meeting of the Club, which she attended in Levelland, on the 10th.

Ernest D. George Promoted To S-Sgt.

Sgt. Ernest D. George, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. George, Route 1, Brownfield, Texas, has been promoted to staff sergeant in the G-B Supply Section, of General Jonathan M. Wainwright's Fourth Army Headquarters, it was announced today.

He is a 1945 graduate of Brownfield high school and was employed by the West Texas Cotton Oil Co., at Brownfield prior to entry into the service April 1, 1946.

Mrs. Daniel Davis and Mrs. Elsie Kendrick and sons, Herbie and Sammy left last week end to go to Corpus Christi to attend their niece's wedding.

Airborne Fertilizer Test At Lubbock

COLLEGE STATION, May 30—Latest trick in South Plains agriculture is fertilizing cotton by airplane.

Lubbock County Agricultural Agent D. W. Sherrill, who believes there is something new happening every day in West Texas farming and ranching, reports that a demonstration was held recently in that county to see how airplane fertilization goes.

The demonstration took place on the L. J. West farm, 12 miles southwest of Lubbock. About 50 people watched a ship from a local flying service dust a cotton field with 4-12-4 fertilizer. Sherrill says a stiff breeze interfered with operations a bit, and the fertilizer did not settle as rapidly and evenly as it should. There may be cotton fertilized free for miles around. If the method pans out as effective, however, you can bank on West Texas farmers taking to it fast, the county agent says.

Already airplanes are being widely used to spread cotton defoliant and insecticides.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Zorns and Thomas Bruce spent the week end in the home of Bruce's sister, Mrs. Arthur Swan and Mr. Swan in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hord and Macky visited in the home of Mrs. Hords brother, O. L. Darden in Midland Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Warren, a little daughter, Jana Gynne, last Friday. Weight 7 lbs., 2 ounces. Mother and babe doing nicely.

The Partner Of Mass Production Congress Represents The People

The miracle of the American mass production machine is often and justly extolled. There is nothing like it on earth—as our standard of living in time of peace and our industrial power in time of war, so abundantly prove.

Another factor in the complex American economy deserves a good deal more credit than it is usually given—and that is the American mass distribution machine. It is a machine which extends into every community in the country—from hamlet to metropolis. We see a part of it every time we walk into a store to make a purchase.

Our stores stock various kind of wares—food and dry goods and hardware and jewelry. Some of them are big and some of them are very small. Some of them are individually operated, and some of them are units of regional and national chain systems. But almost all of them have one thing in common—they represent a successful effort to give the American consumer the widest possible selection of goods, and the best possible quality at a fair price.

These stores render many a great service beyond just stocking and selling merchandise. During the war, it should not be forgotten, it was the American merchant who voluntarily held down prices before the OPA was created, and did his best to distribute scarce goods equitably among his customers. And now, in a time of high prices, it is that same merchant who is battling against inflation with every weapon at his disposal.

Mass distribution brings the benefits of mass production to the homes of the country. It is vital to the operation of the American industrial system.

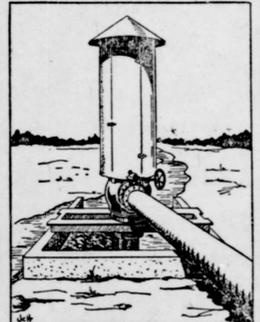

Mr. and Mrs. Garret Daugherty of Big Spring spent the week end in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis.

Hydro-Electric on Farms Fills Needs Serves as Substitute Central Power Service

Despite the progress made by power suppliers in "electrifying rural America," the task is so vast that thousands of farms will not be reached by electric lines for several years. A number of these farms are located far from existing or contemplated distribution lines.

Farmers need not have to delay or do without electricity and the convenience, time and labor-saving appliances and production equipment it operates—if they have available a stream which will provide a head of water in sufficient volume to operate a hydro-electric unit. In most cases, a small dam is required and a pond, thus formed for power purposes, also may be used for watering stock, fire protection or recreation. Such units are capable of producing direct or alternating electric current at low cost and make use of water which might otherwise be wasted.

1 K.W. unit on a ranch in Montana.

The electrical capacity of units, such as that illustrated, varies from 1/2 to 10 kilowatts. For example, a typical unit will generate one kilowatt, with an eight-foot head of water, having a flow of 190 cubic feet of water per minute. As the head of water increases, the volume required decreases for the operation of a generator of given capacity. Thus, with a head of 25 feet, a hydro electric unit will generate one kilowatt with a volume flow of only 68 cubic feet of water per minute. An eight-foot head is all that is needed for those generating from one-half to five kilowatts.

Miss Jo Pete May left Sunday by plane for Miami Springs, Fla., where she will join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom May, and will return home with them in about two weeks.

Mrs. Madeline Tiernan and daughter Dee Anna of Larissa visited friends here last week.

when the people at home who cast the votes demand a continuation of unnecessary spending. Congress simply represents a distillation of the voice of the people. In the long run, the people are given what they ask for—and it is the people who must choose between supergovernment, whose end is always some form of dictatorship, or our Constitutional government of limited powers with its firm guarantees of maximum freedom for all.

Mrs. Bill Hefflin and daughters, Linda and Jeanette left Saturday to visit Mrs. Hefflin's parents, Mr. Thrasher in Ardmore, Oklahoma and Mrs. S. R. Thrasher in Longview. They will also attend the graduation exercises of Miss Jodie Thrasher in Ardmore, Oklahoma next week end.

Adequate Gas Equipment

Adds to Salability of Homes

THE TIME WILL COME when the homes now being planned and built and remodeled will not be as easy to sell as they are now. Then the plus features, the salable features, will be important. Then modern gas equipment will be especially important.

Central Furnace

Floor Furnace

In this area natural gas is the preferred fuel. So, if you are building or planning a new home, look ahead to the time when you may wish or need to sell it. Equip it with the very best gas heating equipment you can possibly afford. If you want the best, install a forced-air central furnace. Another good type of heating equipment is the floor furnace.

A good gas heating plant will add more to the salability and the livability of a home than any other feature of similar original cost.

Centennial Fund May Be Used For Buying French Embassy

AUSTIN— Attorney General Daniel held in an opinion Wednesday that the state may use a balance in the special Texas Centennial fund for purchase of the old French embassy here.

The 49th legislature had passed a bill making such purchase possible, but a previous attorney general's ruling held that the money was federal funds and could not be so used.

Daniel ruled that a more thorough study of the origins of the fund indicated it was actually state money and could be used for purchase of the building used by the Republic of France as its embassy when Texas was a republic.

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas will be given use of the property.

Veteran's News

Burial in Veterans Administration cemeteries will be restricted to veterans who die in VA hospitals and homes and whose relatives do not desire burial elsewhere.

VA has announced this policy in response to many inquiries arising from plans of the War Department to return upon request bodies of World War II veterans who died overseas.

This policy is necessary because of inadequacy of VA cemetery space to take care of even a small part of such requests, VA said.

Veterans who plan to attend school under the GI Bill for the first time next fall are urged by Veterans Administration to make arrangements immediately.

These arrangements include applying to VA for a certificate of eligibility and making application for entrance to the school selected.

An increase over the current enrollment of 1,200,000 ex GI's is anticipated and veterans who wait until the last minute to apply may not be able to get into the schools of their choice.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gillham and daughter, Delores and Miss Betty Holmes will leave Amarillo Saturday to go to Denver, Colo., to visit the former Eleanor Gillham, Mrs. Nolan Tipps and Mr. Tipps.
